Union of American Hebrew Congregations, 1941, 1945-1947.

Cincinnati, Ohio
October 19, 1941

To Mr. Adolph Rosenberg, Chairman and the Members of the Executive Board of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations

Gentlemen:

Your committee appointed to study the question of the removal of the office of the Union to Washington, D.C. or some place other than Cincinnati has carefully considered the matter. We have received communications, both verbal and written, from many members of the Executive Board and others. We have considered carefully the arguments made in favor of the removal by Rabbi Israel, our Executive Director, and the arguments against the movement that were made by Mrs. Hugo Hartmann, the President of the Sisterhoods, as well as other statements and communications that have been brought to our attention. We held one meeting of the committee, which consumed almost an entire day, and to which were invited representatives of the Sisterhoods and Brotherhoods. Mrs. Hartmann sat with our committee for the Sisterhoods, but unfortunately Mr. Kramer was not able to sit with us. Each of them, however, has seen a copy of this report ^{before} its submission to your Board and concure in it, as do the other members of the committee.

At our meeting we asked Rabbi Israel to make a statement of his reasons for the desired move. The substance of what he said to us is as follows:

"Rabbi Israel stated to the committee that his request was the product of mature thought even though it had been made at the surprising moment when he was offered the position. He had long felt the desirability of having the U.A.H.C. in closer touch with the main streams of Jewish community life in America. The machinery of the U.A.H.C. is far better than its critics will admit and than even most of its friends imagine. The difficulty the U.A.H.C. has had to face is in an inability to achieve prestige and strength. Rabbi Israel stated that he imagined that he was invited to take this task because of the contacts and the knowledge of American organizational life he had which would develop that prestige for us. He asserted that to move him out of the area where those contacts existed would be to stultify him completely in the effort that he intends to make to assert the dominance of religious life and especially Reform Jewish religious life in our American Jewish community. We of the U.A.H.C. have 'missed the boat' because we weren't at the point from which boats were sailing. We're going to have to get there or we're going to continue to 'miss the boat' no matter who is the director of the U.A.H.C.

"There is no intention of taking the U.A.H.C. out of Cincinnati root and branch. This would be unwise because of our relationship with the Hebrew Union College which it is your new Director's intention to intensify and deepen. He is already working along those lines. It is also unwise for reasons of sentiment and tradition which he respects. It is furthermore unwise to move such departments as Publications, which can be administered far more reasonably in Cincinnati and which need not be in Washington. Furthermore, the Treasurer and all financial matters with the exception of the Accounting Department ought permanently to remain in Cincinnati because this is the location of our greatest physical property.

"The reactions to the proposal from numerous Alumni and spontaneous expressions from the head of the National Federation of Temple Brotherhoods and National Federation of Temple Youth and other members of the Executive Board have been most gratifying. It might be stated that as far as the National Federation of Temple Brotherhoods and Sisterhoods are concerned, there is no intention of forcing them to move. While the Executive Director would like to have them at the New location, it is not absolutely essential. Certainly it is not essential for them to move until they decide that the move has been advantageous.

"Most interesting have been the words and letters from Christian sources: men like Msgr. Ryan and Father McGowan of the National Catholic Welfare Conference; Dr. Luther Weigle, F. Ernest Johnson and James Myers of the Federal Council. Very significant was the statement contained in a letter from Rev. A. M. Gottschall, the Director of the National Conference of Christians and Jews in Washington. He said: 'I think it would be a wise move to have your office here in Washington. Increasingly it seems to become the center of much of the nation's educational, cultural and religious activities as well as the center of government life. Personally I have found that the N.C.C.J. activities here have a chance for contacts and activities that we never would have had by remaining in Baltimore. This will be truer for the future as we go along. I feel that confident that the impact of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations can make on American life will be much greater if your office is located here than anywhere else.' It is significant because, as the Executive Director Dr. Gottschall, emphasized, one of the chief roles that the U.A.H.C. will be called upon to play in the next few years is to take its place as the Jewish expression of interfaith activities in the struggle to preserve democracy. It is the religious group that will be the mainstay of this preservation. It is only by constant personal contacts which can never be maintained through an office in Cincinnati and the writing of letters that the full impact of our presence and influence can be felt.

"One of the functions of your Executive Director is to bring the Union of American Hebrew Congregations into important areas to represent the religious impacts of the Reform Jewish point of view. You can only do that by being in constant almost daily touch with the people who are in charge of affairs of a religious and educational and cultural nature. These people are in the East. The influence of Washington location is not only incalculable but imperative we are to do our task.

"The question that has been raised about the Washington Jewish community is part of the very heart of the discussion. We don't want a Union of American Hebrew Congregations dependent too strongly on any one community. With overwhelming appreciation of Cincinnati, there is the question as to whether the dominance of one city's voices in the control of affairs of the U.A.H.C. has not been one of the things that prevented us from achieving the national influence that we require, and for the lack of which we have been condemned by many of our own constituency. In Washington our Board while containing many of the most active and valuable persons now on it whether from Cincinnati or elsewhere, will achieve a national stamp that indeed the organization requires.

"The arguments for Washington have thus been developed in part. Many Christian religious groups have their center there. There are others in New York but they are in constant touch with the Washington area. It is the center of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, of the Lutherans, the Seventh Day Adventists, the Methodists, and it is the most important religious center of the Protestant Episcopal group. Although their centers are in New York, the most important branches of the Federal Council and the National Conference of Christians and Jews are in Washington.

"It is not a matter of politics at all. The Executive Director has no intention of carrying on any activities along that line. There is no such thought in his mind in suggesting Washington. His proximity to Washington makes him aware of the fact that, as Rev. Mr. Gottschall said 'Washington is much more than a political center.' As Mr. Gottlieb pointed out in the discussion, anti-Semitic activities are piling up with Washington as their center. The Executive Director pointed out that he had no criticism to make of the fine activities of secular and semi-secular Jewish groups with regard to Jewish defense, but that he was convinced that the only sound defense that the Jew ^{is going to make is along the line of the emphasis of the Jew} as a religious community in America and that the only really strong and enduring contacts that he is going to be able to make are the religious contacts which can be made solely through the religious leaders whose work more and more centers in Washington.

"There are practical difficulties, the real estate situation, etc. The Executive Director is analyzing the entire problem.

"As mentioned above, it is not necessary for Publications and other things to move. The Youth groups, the Accounting, the Education departments and Synagogue Extension, etc. will as time progresses and the opportunity affords be brought to the central office in Washington. It is where they belong and where they could do most effective work. Other of our activities can and should remain in Cincinnati, -- the Brotherhood or Sisterhood deciding on their own.

"There are certain practical results that have already been realized which we could not have realized had the Executive Director been in Cincinnati. There are two radio broadcasts in which he is figuring as the Jewish Advisor, to one of which the U.A.H.C. will be brought formally, in cooperation with the National Catholic Welfare Conference, the Federal Council of Churches and the National Conference of Christians and Jews. There has been a chaplaincy matter that he has been able to handle. There are several other matters. We must remember that if we want to make of Reform Judaism a small cult, we can sit back and let the Conservative group take the place that is rightfully ours. If we are going to maintain preeminence and really grow in Jewish life, we are going to have a fight for our place. We cannot conduct that fight from Cincinnati.

"Your Executive Director has every sentiment for Cincinnati. The Hebrew Union College and the Isaac M. Wise Temple are shrines of Reform Judaism. Nor does the Executive Director want to break the connection with Cincinnati and there will always be a most important U.A.H.C. office here. But an administrative organizational office is quite different from a shrine. It requires courage to make the step. It is, however, at a critical moment when that courage becomes vital for the future development of Reform Judaism in America and its influence on Judaism throughout the entire world."

Among other things considered was the cost and the financial situation of the Union. Rabbi Israel stated he had no doubt that the money could be found for this move, but he agreed with this committee that it would be better to make it gradually and to grow into the Washington offices rather than to move all of the departments at once. He realized fully the present situation with respect to Washington as far as finding office space was concerned. Among other things he suggested that, if and when the funds were available, a private home might be acquired to house the Union's offices which would be better than to have them in an office building. It was the final conclusion of the committee that, for the time-being, Rabbi Israel should have an office in Washington, with a secretary there. In line with our conclusions and recommendations your committee unanimously recommends to the Executive Board the adoption of the following resolutions:

- "1. That the Executive Director be authorized to open an office in Washington, D.C.
- "2. That the Chairman of this Board be authorized to appoint a committee of such number as he may see fit, with power to determine, in consultation with the Executive Director, what activities and personnel shall be transferred to the Washington office, and when such transfer or transfers shall become effective."

Respectfully submitted,

EXCERPT FROM MINUTES OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE UNION OF AMERICAN HEBREW CONGREGATIONS

New York, N. Y. - November 26, 1944

A. From Director's Report:

New York City

One of the most distressing discoveries made by your Director since assuming his present post has been the paucity of numbers within our Reform movement in the great metropolitan city of New York. In this largest Jewish community in the world, consisting as it does of virtually half of the Jewish population of America, we have less than one-fifth of our Reform constituency. In other words, out of some two and a half million Jews, we have only about twelve thousand members of Reform congregations. There are many factors that are responsible for this lamentable situation: the greater preponderance of the immigrant population in New York than in the rest of the country; the traditional strength of the Conservative movement; and the actual presence in New York of institutions representative of the other groups in American Jewish life. Whatever may be the cause, however, of this patent disparity between our strength elsewhere and our weakness in New York, it is obvious that something must be done about this situation.

I believe that one of the first steps in the direction of rectifying this tragic and alarming state of affairs is to intensify our activity in the New York area. I believe that the Director and certain other of the Executive heads of the Union should be more frequently and continuously present in New York City, and should have at least part of their activity centered there. To this end, I recommend the establishment, for the Director and for such other of the Executives of the Union as he shall deem necessary, of Executive Offices, preferably in the mid-town section of New York City. It may not be feasible to secure such office space until the end of the war, at least in Europe, but in the meantime the establishment of such offices at the present location of the New York Federation, at 3 East 65th Street, should be authorized by the Executive Board.

I likewise feel that in view of the fact that the Jewish Institute of Religion is located in New York, it might be utilized to far greater advantage to advance the cause of our Reform movement than is now the case. In addition to this actual tangible presence in New York of such a Liberal Jewish institution, it must be pointed out that 105 graduates of the Jewish Institute of Religion are now members of the Central Conference of American Rabbis; that 45 of our Union congregations are being served by these JIR graduates. For these, and other reasons that might be adduced, I suggest that it behooves the Union, as the national lay-rabbinic institution of Liberal Judaism to survey this matter in the immediate future and that a committee be appointed representing the UARC, the HUC, the JIR, and the CCAR, to explore the avenues of cooperation between UARC and JIR, leading,

I hope and strongly recommend, to the merger of the two Liberal Jewish theological seminaries: the Hebrew Union College and the Jewish Institute of Religion.

B. Action of the Board:

G: New Offices

It was moved and duly carried that the Executive Board authorize Rabbi Eisendrath to establish Executive offices of the Union, preferably in the mid-town section of New York City, for the Director and for such other executives of the Union as he shall deem necessary.

Dear Dr. Silver:

The Combined Campaign of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and the Hebrew Union College continues to make steady progress.

I am deeply grateful to you and all our good friends who have contributed to the success of the 1945-46 Campaign effort. During the past year current income exceeded $380,000.00 which makes it the best year in the history of the Union.

You will be pleased to learn that the College will share in this income to the extent of $90,000.00.

The attached report from Jerome L. Levy, our National Finance Director, will prove of interest.

We have reached the point where we now have 5,000 individual contributors whose support is over and above the nominal dues received from each congregation. Our slogan for 1946-47 is "GET 20,000 INDIVIDUAL CONTRIBUTORS TO THE UAHC-HUC." With your continued interest and support our vital religious institutions are bound to make splendid progress.

Yours sincerely,

Roger W. Straus
National Campaign Chairman

Subject: Results of Combined Campaign for Fiscal Year just closed - July 1, 1945 - June 30, 1946.

The fiscal year 1945-46 found us facing the most severe competition on record as the $100,000,000 U.J.A. campaign almost preempted the field.

In spite of this I am very happy to report that we raised the number of individual subscribers from 3,500 to 5,000; and more congregations, some for the first time, paid their full dues to the Union.

Our current income was $381,933.00, an increase of 15% over 1944-45.

Hebrew Union College, in accordance with the terms of the Combined Campaign, will receive $90,000.00 as its share of our 1945-46 effort.

We have been encouraged by the addition of many important laymen in widely scattered sections who are giving valuable service to Liberal Judaism through our Combined Campaign.

We are indebted to the rabbis and the laymen who so cheerfully visited over 100 congregations to bring our members the message of our expanding program. These meetings were uniformly successful and have been a great impetus to the revitalizing of our religious movement.

Our program for 1946-47 calls for securing individual subscribers equal to 20% of the membership of every Union congregation.

Our slogan is "20,000 Subscribers to The Combined Campaign in 1946-47."

The chart attached hereto shows the sources of our income and the progress made since the Combined Campaign was initiated.

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver
The Temple
East 105th at Ansel Road
Cleveland, Ohio

Dear Dr. Silver:

I know how terrifically pressed you are for time because of recent events and therefore, I can well understand why I did not hear from you in response to my letter of some time ago with reference to the Jewish Cavalcade.

It is most imperative that you participate in this religious project, first, because of your unusual personal talents and, secondly, because you are President of the CCAR.

This project of ours is an endeavor to ~~implemen~~^t concretely your call for a religious revival, which you voiced in your message to the CCAR.

We would like you to go to two strategic places on the West Coast. In fact, we already had a request for you from Los Angeles and San Francisco. I wonder whether, despite the overwhelming responsibilities that you are now carrying, you would consider flying to the Coast sometime in November for a series of meetings in those two cities.

If it is absolutely impossible for you to undertake this trip to the West Coast, may we count on you to visit some of the great metropolitan centers in the East?

With cordial regards and trusting that I may have your reply in the affirmative, I am

Cordially yours,

Maurice

Edgar N. Greenebaum Is New Treasurer

Edgar N. Greenebaum

Edgar N. Greenebaum, who succeeds Irving Florsheim as National Treasurer of the Combined Campaign of the Union and College, is a product of a pioneer Chicago family. His grandfather, Elias Greenebaum, who settled in Chicago in 1847, was one of the founders and early presidents of Sinai Congregation of that city. His father, Moses E. Greenebaum, served as President of that temple for many years and at the present time his son has already served for four years as Congregation Sinai's president.

His interest in religious affairs is further indicated by his active membership on the Executive Board of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, and on

Chairman Reports Gain

In reporting the results of the Combined Campaign for the fiscal year 1945-46, Mr. Roger W. Straus, National Chairman, states that since the Annual Combined Campaign was inaugurated in the fall of 1943 contributions have more than doubled. The following chart indicates the extent of growth:

	1942-43	1945-46
Congregations	$117,773	$217,733
Individuals	38,107	125,127
Welfare Funds	18,446	39,073
Total.....	$174,326	$381,933

In spite of the fact that there was severe competition in the field of fund-raising during the past year the Campaign has shown a steady growth. The 39th Biennial Conference of the Union, held in Cincinnati in March, 1946, was a direct aid to the Campaign. The officers of the Union and its Director, Dr. Maurice N. Eisen-drath, conducted this important meeting on a high and stimulating plane with the result that the month following was the most productive in the history of UAHC.

Chicago and New York

Chicago has done an outstanding piece of work and is to be highly commended for its splendid record, which to a large extent can be attributed to the energetic leadership of Ira Loewenstein, Chairman, and the efficient cooperation of Rabbi Phineas Smoller, Director of the Chicago Federation of Reform Synagogues. Individual subscribers were increased from 133 to 501. In New York, additional funds were secured by the impetus given to the Campaign when Col. Frederick F. Greenman, President of the New York Federation, returned to civilian life. More than 220 additional subscribers were enrolled in the Metropolitan area this past spring.

Recommendations

In making recommendations for the future, Mr. Straus urged that a full session at every Biennial be devoted to a discussion of the financial needs of the Union in order that representatives present become familiar with the organization's aims and objectives and be able to report back intelligently to their congregations.

In Mr. Straus's report on the past fiscal year he makes the following statement: "It is essential that we cultivate personal contacts in each individual congregation. No campaign is better than its leadership. We can only raise money through interested individuals. When the Combined Campaign started in 1943 there were approximately 800 individual contributors. After two and a half years of intensive work, we now have 5000 contributors. I feel that we must continue our efforts until we have a minimum of 20,000 individual members contributing to the cause of Reform Judaism over and above the nominal dues they pay to the Union annually. Fund-raising speeches are helpful, but when the speaker leaves the city the work has to be done by those individuals who be-

William Rosenwald Sponsors Campaign

William Rosenwald

Mr. William Rosenwald of New York, who has just accepted the position of one of the sponsors of the Combined Campaign of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and the Hebrew Union College, is well known throughout the country for his interest and work in Jewish and philanthropic fields. He is generally interested in the cause of minority groups with particular emphasis on those aspects which concern the Jewish people here and abroad. Because of a need created by the war, discriminatory measures and forced migration, he has devoted a major part of his time to organizations

UAHC Conducts New Experiment

In order to establish personal contacts between the Cincinnati office of the UAHC and its constituent congregations, a new experiment was inaugurated during the summer months. Murray Blackman and Herbert Yarrish, two students of the Hebrew Union College, devoted part of their vacation to doing contact work for the Union with congregations in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont, Maine and upper New York State.

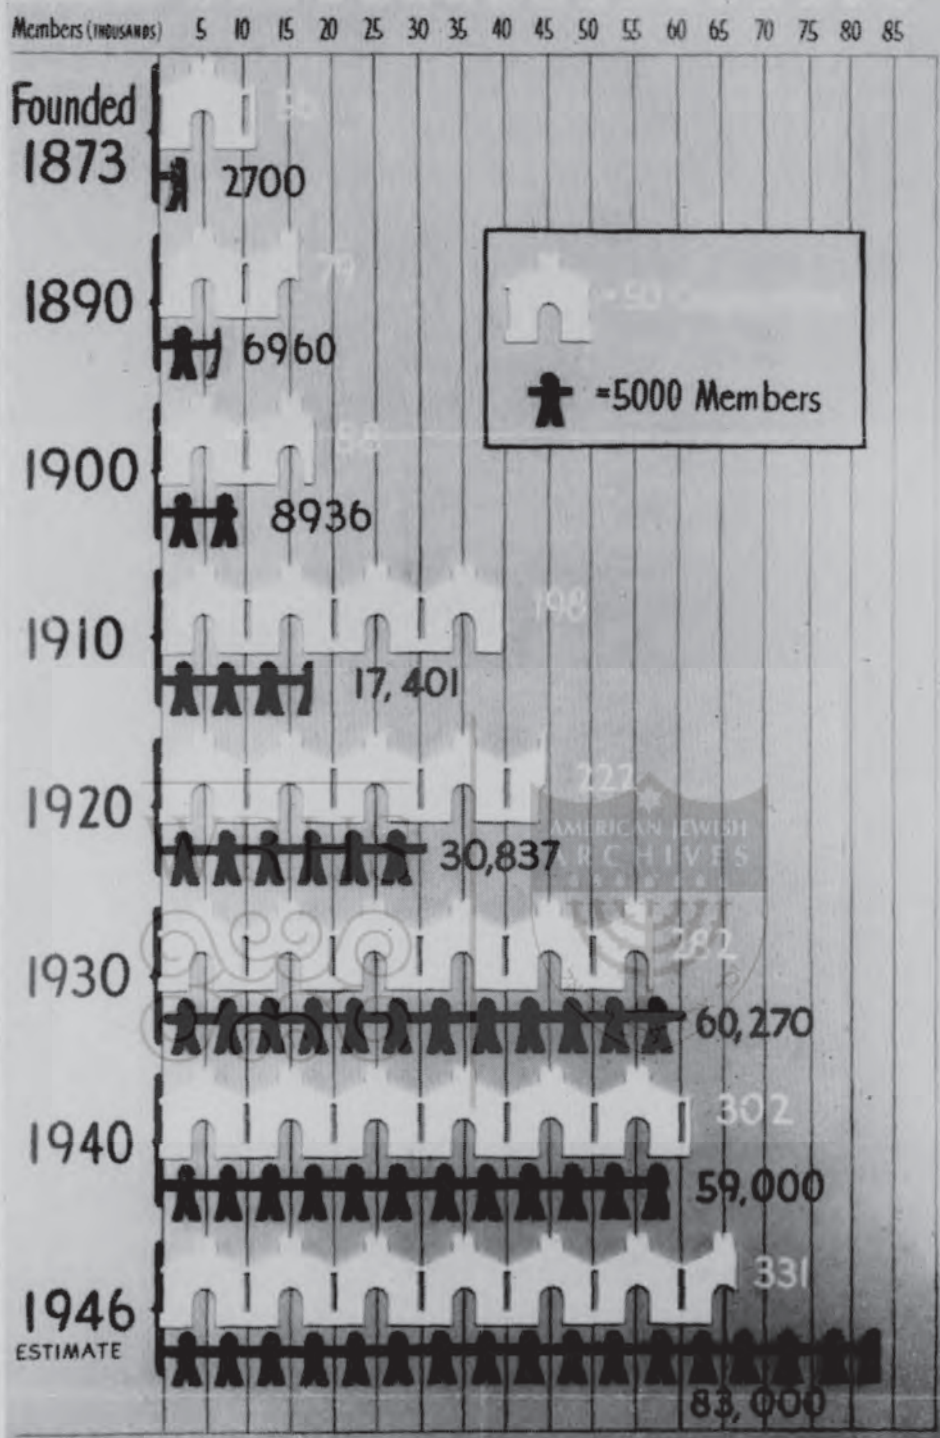

These young men brought the congregations the latest news of Union-College activities, offered their services in congregational work and explained the needs of these two institutions. They also explored communities which presented possibilities for establishing new congregations, held services in these cities, where no rabbi was available, and offered help in the establishment of religious schools and in general congregational problems.

Mr. Yarrish's trip was confined mostly to New York State where he visited Union congregations in Elmira, Schenectady, Troy, Plattsburg, Newburgh, and unaffiliated groups in Binghamton, Pough-

Membership Near 100,000

THE UNION'S 73 YEAR RECORD

It all started with a pleasantly indignant letter from Temple Israel of Miami, Florida. The last issue of ALERT classified the Congregation among the "small and medium group." That was before the editor was informed this congregation numbered 530 members and continues to grow.

The mailing lists which have been received for Liberal Judaism indicate a substantial increase in growth in the membership of many Temples. Although the accompanying chart shows a membership of 83,000 for 332 Congregations, membership lists since received indicate at least 100,000, and a healthy growth in the ranks of Reform Judaism, particularly in the last five years.

keepsie, Amsterdam, Utica, and Glens Falls.

Mr. Blackman's itinerary included Union congregations in Springfield and Pittsfield, Mass., and unaffiliated units in Portland and Bangor, Me., Burlington, Vt.

The result of these visits indicates a healthy interest in Liberal Judaism and offers an opportunity to organize future congregations in these areas.

South East Council Completes Banner Year

Rabbi Martin I. Hinchin of Congregation Emanuel of Dothan, Alabama, who assumes his duties as Director of the South East Council of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations on August 1, steps into one of the most responsive regions in the country. Aply inaugurated by Rabbi Alfred Wolf, former director who is now organizing the West Coast Region, this group comprised of the states of Georgia, Florida, and Alabama, numbers twenty-nine congregations, thirty-one Sisterhoods, seven Brotherhoods, and two youth groups.

Rabbi Hinchin who was ordained this year by the Hebrew Union College, is a native Philadelphian. He has held student pulpits in Logan, W. Va., Sioux City, Ia., and Hamilton, Ohio.

During the past season, a Regional Convention was arranged in Atlanta, Georgia to stimulate activities. Successive meetings of the Executive Committee in Tampa mapped out projects for the various committees. One additional Sisterhood, Huntsville, Alabama, joined the N. F. T. S.; one new Brotherhood, Dothan, Alabama, joined NFTB, and a rabbi was placed in Lakeland, Florida, which will soon become a member of the Union.

Eighteen of the twenty-nine congregations made or went over the top on their quotas for the Combined Campaign and with only one exception every congregation in the region contributed substantially to the work.

The following paragraph quoted from "The South East Synagogue," the official house organ of the district, reflect the fine spirit of the many interested laymen and their rabbis in these three states.

"The Union of American Hebrew Congregations is an instrument which, with ever increasing effectiveness, can meet the universal challenge for the individuals and the congregations affiliated with it. Nationally and—through the South East Council—in this Region, it is a mighty mouthpiece to make men hear the word of God and it is a powerful tool to help them do the Lord's will."

Three Associate Chairmen Serve Joint Campaign

Mr. Roger W. Straus, Chairman of the Combined Campaign, has named three Associate Chairmen to serve with him on the National Campaign Committee. The three men who have accepted this appointment, Messrs. Lee M. Friedman of Boston, Oscar M. Lazrus of New York and Harry I. Stern of Philadelphia, have long been interested in Jewish life and have done yeoman service to stimulate all phases of religious activity in their own congregations and on the national scene.

Lee M. Friedman

Mr. Lee M. Friedman, long a member of the Executive Board of the UAHC and a former president and now honorary life trustee of congregation Adath Israel of Boston, is a distinguished scholar and well known for his authorship of a number of works dealing with the history of the Jews of America. He is a member of the legal firm of Friedman, Atherton, King and Turner in Boston. He received his A.B. and L.L.B. from Harvard Law School and serves as a member of the Overseers Committee of Harvard College on Semitic and Egyptian civilization. Mr. Friedman, who is a historian and a collector of Judaica and etchings, is a member of the Executive Committee of the American Jewish Historic Society and a member of the Massachusetts Historic Society. By appointment of Governor Saltonstall of Massachusetts he has served on a special commission relative to discrimination of persons in employment because of race, color, religion, or nationality. He is also a member of the Visiting Committee of the Print Department of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

Oscar M. Lazrus

Mr. Oscar M. Lazrus, who for the past several years has served as Vice-President and Chairman of the Finance Committee of the New York Federation of Reform Synagogues, is a partner of the widely known firm of Benrus Watch Company. He is a Trustee of Temple Beth El of Great Neck, Long Island, a member of Temple Emanu El of New York, and last year accepted appointment on the Executive Board of the Union. He serves also as Trustee of the Hospital for Joint Diseases, the Hillside Hospital, and National Refugee Service; a Director of the Anti-Defamation League, and a member of the Federation of Jewish Charities and other philanthropic organizations. Mr. Lazrus was a founder of the Greater New York United Jewish Appeal and served during the past year as a Director of the Joint Distribution Committee.

Harry I. Stern

Mr. Harry I. Stern, who is President of one of the largest congregations in the country, Keneseth Israel of Philadelphia, Pa., is a well-known merchant and President of The Stern Company of that city. He is actively interested in civic, religious, and philanthropic affairs in his own community. Mr. Stern was recently elected to the Executive Board of the UAHC.

Edgar Greenebaum

the Executive Committee of the Chicago Federation of Reform Synagogues. Mr. Greenebaum was one of the originators of the Chicago Federation.

Mr. Greenebaum was educated at Brown University in Providence, Rhode Island. He entered the family's mortgage and banking business and is now President of the Greenebaum Investment Company. He is married and has two sons.

He has long been active in civic, philanthropic and religious affairs. He served for four years as a member and Vice-President of the Chicago Board of Education and as Treasurer of the Chicago Urban League and the Religious Education Association and as President of the Chicago Mortgage Bankers Association. He is the present secretary of Michael Reese Hospital in the city of Chicago and also serves as the Chairman of the Mortgage and Finance Division of the Chicago Real Estate Board.

Dues—The Life Line of UAHC

In any organization dues are the life line and the basis for operation. In the Constitution and By-Laws of the Union, which were adopted by the 39th Biennial Conference in Cincinnati on March 6, 1946, a new provision was inserted for the payment of dues:

"SECTION 1. Each member congregation of the Union shall pay yearly into the treasury of the Union, either directly or through its individual members, an amount equal to $3.00 per member. This shall be considered minimum dues and shall not preclude the raising of additional funds through individual subscriptions or other methods to meet the budgetary needs of the Union.

"SECTION 2. No member congregation shall be entitled to representation in the General Assembly unless it shall have paid the minimum dues prescribed herein for its total membership.

"SECTION 3. The minimum dues herein referred to shall be applicable only to such members as enjoy full membership privileges and shall not be applicable to associate, junior, or special members. Likewise, representation in the General Assembly shall be computed upon the basis of congregational members who enjoy full membership privileges exclusive of associate, junior, or special members, unless the congregation shall elect to pay the minimum dues for such associate, junior, or special members."

Temple dues are included in the quota suggested to the individual congregations by the UAHC-HUC Maintenance Campaign as a basis for raising their annual share of the total needed for the support of the Union and the College.

Out of the minimum dues paid by each congregation to the Union, a sum is set aside for each member to apply as a subscription price for Liberal Judaism, the monthly magazine published by the Union. Over 150 congregations affiliated with the Union have already availed themselves of the offer, and the magazine is being sent to some 70,000 Jewish homes.

All matters pertaining to dues are being handled through the office of the Combined Campaign at 34 West Sixth Street, Cincinnati.

Chicago Active

The Chicago Campaign Committee, ably headed by Ira Loewenstein, who is acting as Chairman for the second year, and by J. Logan Fox, Vice-Chairman, comprises an enthusiastic group of men, each representing one of the 13 congregations of the Chicago Federation of Reform Synagogues. Chicago's goal for 1946 is $65,000.00.

The local congregations are now concentrating on plans in their own temples for the collection of quotas assigned to them by the officers of the Chicago Federation. Several congregations are already working and the remainder will begin early in September or after the High Holydays. There will be no city-wide campaigning, and the over-all fund-raising program with its emphasis on the responsibility of the individual congregation, in accordance with its membership strength and annual operating income, will become a part of each congregation's normal activity.

The members of the Campaign Committee include: Ira Loewenstein, Chairman; J. Logan Fox, Vice-Chairman; Robert Adler; Harold Charmack; Herbert Decker; Harry N. Gottlieb; Edgar N. Greenebaum; Herman Korach; Harry Lebeson; Phil Levit; Joseph Lustfield; Herman Moment; Jack Nadell; Morton Samelson, and Joseph Schneiderman. Samuel Kassel is President and Rabbi Phineas Smoller, Director, of the Chicago Federation.

Mr. Jerome L. Levy, National Finance Director is pleased to announce the appointment of Donald W. Harris who will act as his assistant to share the burden of travelling around the country to contact congregations of the Union. Mr. Harris will begin his duties at the Cincinnati office as of September first, and will begin his travels after the High Holiday season, during the second week in October.

He is the Honorary President of the National Refugee Service; Vice-Chairman of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee; Chairman of the United Jewish Appeal for 1946; Secretary of the United Jewish Appeal of Greater New York. He is also a member of the Executive Committee of the American Jewish Committee, Vice-President of the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds, and Trustee at Large of the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies of New York.

His interest in aspects of the minority group question and in educational, sociological, and cultural activities are indicated by his Trusteeship in Tuskegee Institute and in his Directorships of the Philharmonic Society of New York, Survey Associates, Inc., and American Arbitration Assn.

Mr. Rosenwald is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He did post-graduate work at Harvard University and the London School of Economics and Political Science and has been awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Hebrew Letters by the Hebrew Union College.

Does It Again

For the third successive year, Congregation Emanuel of Birmingham, Alabama has gone over the top on its quota for the Combined Campaign of the College and Union. The campaign is conducted each year by Rabbi Milton Grafman of Temple Emanuel. His loyalty to these two institutions and his interest in their welfare are transmitted to the members of his congregation and their wholehearted response is a tribute to their high esteem of their spiritual leader.

Sixty-six Names Added to General Campaign Committee

Indicating their interest in the continued success of the Combined Campaign of the College and the Union, fifty-six congregations have appointed local chairmen to serve on the General Campaign Committee. These men will act as a contact group between the national organizations and their congregations. They are:

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver
The Temple
105th St. & Ansel Road
Cleveland, Ohio

Dear Dr. Silver:

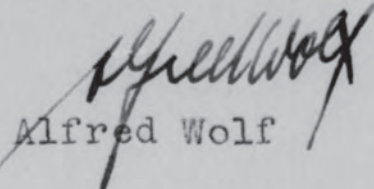

Just a line to express the wish that in the New Year your hopes may be fulfilled and your work may bear fruit as a blessing for Israel and for all mankind.

You will be glad to learn, I am sure, that in the short time since the establishment of this office Dr. Harry S. May, the Regional Representative of the Z.O.A., has shown a great interest in my work on behalf of the UNION and has been most helpful to us. He has introduced me to a good many people in one of the areas in town which has a large Jewish population but where Reform Judaism has not been represented so far. Partly because of the contacts established with his help we were able to have Reform services in that area during the Holy Days. There is much hope that a congregation with regularly established services will grow from these Holy Day services.

I was sorry to note that because of the "manpower shortage" the plans for a third Reform congregation in Cleveland, which we discussed during my visit there last December, have not yet been carried out. With your help and with that of other Reform leaders in Cleveland, I am sure that the last obstacles may soon be overcome and that our cause may find additional friends in your city through a third congregation.

With kindest regards and all good wishes, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Alfred Wolf

AW:jl

I now turn to a matter with which I have been wrestling during the three years since my assumption of the position of Director of the Union, and that is, the question concerning the ultimate and principal headquarters of the Union. This question is by no manner of means a new one. It has been discussed pro and con for many years past. It has been brought to my attention that as early as the days of Mr. Jacob Schiff efforts were made to move not only the Union, but for that matter the College also, to New York City. Again at the time when the Union was under the chairmanship of Mr. Ludwig Vogelstein, efforts were once more made to have the Union centered in the Metropolitan area of New York. Again, when Rabbi Edward L. Israel was appointed Director of the Union, he urged the Union to move East, although it was in his mind to have the headquarters located in Washington. I believe that at that time the Board accepted the principle of moving the Union to the East, although the precise location was somewhat in dispute. I might very well have taken advantage of the momentum created by Dr. Israel and have urged, at that time, some such step. However, the last thing that I wished to do, in taking over this responsible post, was to be guilty of any precipitate action. I rather wished to feel my own way and, on the basis of my own experience, come to a sound and carefully thought out conclusion. Then too, I had then and, as a matter of fact, still have, a personal disinclination to make my home in the somewhat too tempestuous maelstrom of New York. I shared, likewise, the apprehension, felt by many, that we might be overshadowed and eclipsed in that gargantuan environment.

In addition, because of my deep attachment to Cincinnati and its tradition as the birthplace of our Reform Jewish institutions and because of the strong loyalties that were engendered within me during my days as a student at the Hebrew Union College, I have been most reluctant to reach any definitive conclusion that might uproot the Union from Cincinnati, which has given to our Reform Jewish movement such exceptional leadership and generous support - lay and rabbinic. Consequently, for a time I felt that I could straddle both the issue and the country as well, by virtue of the rapid transportation that the airplane provides, to avoid a decision, and to try to be in two places at almost one and the same time. However, experience has now compelled me to the conclusion that this is proving unfeasible and impossible. It is leading to a looseness of administration which cannot but fail to deteriorate, due to the fact that I am unable, as Director of the Union, to be in any one place for a sufficiently prolonged period of time. Circumstances compel me to be in New York for extended periods. These commitments cannot possibly be avoided if the Union is to continue to take its place in the totality of Jewish life. And there can be no doubt that the Union is taking such a place in American Israel as is restoring it to the pristine purpose envisaged by its founder; as is winning for it a place of prestige and dignity in K'lal Yisroel, and that, for me at least, has dissipated all my earlier apprehension concerning our no longer conceivable submersion or subordination.

But to retain these gains; to avoid the deleterious dichotomy now developing of a household divided against itself, geographically and administratively, a clear-cut decision is now imperative.

Approximately 75 per cent of the Jews of America live on the Eastern Seaboard, and while we have boasted that our strength is in the South and Middle West, the hour has struck when we must center our movement where the great mass of American Jewry lives.

We must come out of our provincial shell and accept this challenge rather than to leave these masses, by our default, to others who do dwell closer to them. We need also, in this dynamic day, the momentum which comes from being in close proximity with these vibrant multitudes of our people.

In addition, it must not be forgotten that we are (geographically speaking) a national movement and as such we should cooperate actively and even daily with other national enterprises. New York is headquarters for nearly every national Jewish organization with which the Union is either officially or unofficially connected: the Synagogue Council of America, the American Jewish Conference, the National Jewish Welfare Board, the National Community Relations Advisory Council. New York is likewise the headquarters of a number of Christian denominations, as well as of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, and of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, with which the Union should likewise have increasingly intimate contact.

New York is today the veritable capital of the world; it is, even more realistically, the throbbing heart of world Jewry. It is, in addition, the mecca which draws, at one time or another, virtually every Jewish leader in America to it. It is there that we can have more frequent personal contact with those who are presently interested in our Union as well as with those whom we wish to attract to our Union program. By our continuous presence in New York, we will likewise be able to draw to our Executive Board, to its meetings, and to our actual functional committees, an increasing number of Jewish leaders from the larger Eastern communities.

These are but a few of the general arguments which I believe will convince anyone with an open mind of the advantages that our growing movement would have if it were centered in New York City.

However, there are still other and more immediate considerations which have now brought this issue to focus and which compel me to lay the matter before the Board at this particular time. The generous undertaking on the part of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods for a House of Living Judaism either in Cincinnati or New York - or in both places - has evoked wide-spread adverse comment, particularly on the part of innumerable rabbis who are opposed to having the Union or any of its affiliates invest any large sum of money in Cincinnati. Pressure has been brought to bear upon the NFTS leadership to reconsider this entire matter and to come to some conclusion concerning some single headquarters for the Union, preferably outside of Cincinnati. Finally, we are now living from month to month at our present quarters at 34 West Sixth Street, Cincinnati, and may at any time be evicted on ninety days' notice by the concern which has recently purchased the Merchants Building. All this compels the Board to come to a definite decision now.

I, therefore, recommend that the Board approve in principle the designation of New York City as the general headquarters of the Union and the removal, there, at this time, of as many departments as may be feasible and to appoint a committee to work out, with the Director, the details for the completion of this move which may require several years to implement.

I wish to point out that this suggestion does not involve quite as radical a procedure as some might assume. Already several of our departments and functions are largely located in New York. My own work has been increasingly and necessarily centered there. Our Campaign Department is, likewise, to a large degree, functioning out of New York City and, in my judgment, should be moved in its entirety at the earliest possible moment. Our Publicity Department is also located in New York, as is the Editorial Office of LIBERAL JUDAISM. The National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods has much of its work now issuing from New York, and I believe that it would be advisable, from the standpoint of economy and efficiency of administration, if the whole of NFTS work were soon moved to New York City. I trust that the NFTS will favorably consider, at its annual Executive Board meeting next month, pursuing such a course.

When Dr. Israel first suggested that the Union move East, he reported to the special committee, then appointed, that he had the whole-hearted approval of the leadership of the NFTB and their unqualified assurance that, to paraphrase the words of the Book of Ruth, "whithersoever the Union goeth; the Brotherhood will go likewise." With much of its membership and its leaders concentrated in the East, I trust that it will find little difficulty in implementing now its earlier concurrence in this recommendation.

During the recent interim direction of NFTY, its activity was centered in New York with most gratifying results. Unfortunately, our newly appointed Youth Director was constrained to purchase a home in Cincinnati, but I hope that here too adjustment may not be too difficult and that NFTY may also find its place in the heart of Jewish Youth activity.

During the transition period and as a temporary expediency, these departments can be housed at 3 East 65th Street, where some ten thousand square feet is available. Ultimately, of course, we will require much larger quarters in New York City, and I pray that the campaign for a House of Living Judaism will be so successful that we will be enabled to purchase or build such commodious and suitable accommodations.

In Cincinnati, in the event that we should be dispossessed from 34 West Sixth Street, I recommend that we take advantage of the offer which the Hebrew Union College made some time ago, although the space now available is not as extensive as it was when we first entered into negotiations with the College. However, it is my understanding that some 6,000 square feet in the Dormitory can still be placed at the disposal of the Union, which I believe would be adequate, particularly in view of the removal to New York of the several departments which I recommend to be effected as soon as possible.

Then when the committee whose appointment I suggest has worked out the further details relative to property and costs, and most particularly with regard to our present personnel to whom, I assure you and them every safeguard and solicitude will be vouchsafed so that no one now on our Union staff need feel the slightest apprehension that his or her service and personal situation will not be given every just consideration; then, such matters are satisfactorily worked out. I feel that the Union's headquarters should be wholly in New York, but our traditional bond with Cincinnati should remain unbroken by the establishment of one of the important Regional Offices in this community, which will serve the several adjacent states.

I wish, therefore, to repeat that the Board accept this recommendation in principle and appoint a committee to cooperate with the Director in working out the necessary details. It is my hope, likewise, that this geographic change will also serve as the catalysis to bring nearer the much-to-be-desired and long-overdue merger of the JIR and the HUC so that, with our great national headquarters in New York, our two academies of learning supplementing rather than duplicating each other in Cincinnati and New York, our regional offices scattered strategically throughout the country, we may effect the truly coordinated, efficient and effective movement we aspire to be.

ACTION TAKEN:

Removal of Union Headquarters to New York City

In his report, Rabbi Eisendrath had requested the Executive Board to approve, in principle, the designation of New York City as the general headquarters of the Union; the removal there of as many departments as feasible, and the appointment of a committee to work out, with the Director, the details for the completion of the move.

The matter was discussed in some detail by the members of the Board.

Upon motion, it was voted that a committee consisting of not less than five members from different geographical locations be appointed by the Chairman of the Board to study the recommendation for removal of the office from Cincinnati to New York or any other place and report back to the next meeting of the Executive Board.

It was further voted that the report of the above mentioned committee be circulated among the members of the Executive Board in advance of the meeting.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

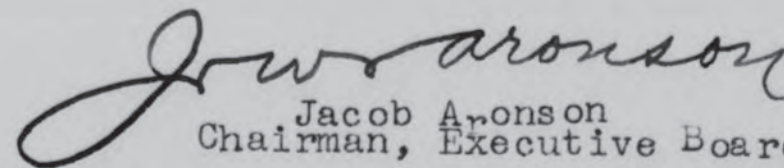

One of my first duties as Chairman of the Executive Board is the appointment of committees authorized at the last meeting of our Executive Board.

I should like you to serve as member of a Committee on Time, Place and Program of the next General Assembly of the Union. I am asking Mr. Irvin Fane, of Kansas City, Mo., to serve as Chairman of this Committee.

I should also like you to serve as member of the Committee on Headquarters of the Union, of which Mr. Jacob W. Mack, Cincinnati, O., will be Chairman.

With kind regards, I am

Very sincerely yours,

MEMORANDUM

Date January 17, 1947

From Jerome I. Levy, National Finance Director

To Presidents, Rabbis, Board Members, Campaign
Officers

The attached reports list the present status of receipts from the forty top congregations from July 1, 1946 to January 1, 1947. They are not indicative of the final returns which will not appear until the close of the fiscal year on June 30, 1947.

The first report is compiled on the basis of actual amounts received. The second report shows the average per capita giving based on the membership of congregations.

Some congregations do not hold their campaigns until the spring of the year and the final report will not be concluded until the close of June. There will undoubtedly be many revisions before that time.

April 10, 1947

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver
The Temple

Cleveland, 6, Ohio

Dear friend:

I am so very sorry that we undoubtedly passed each other when I was coming to Cleveland, and you were en route from Cleveland to New York. I looked forward eagerly to seeing you in Cleveland and to discussing many matters with you of common concern.

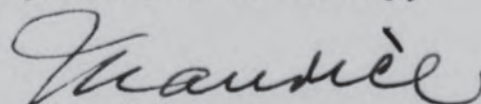

I do hope, however, that you will be coming to our Board meeting in Cincinnati the end of this month and that we will have our opportunity of talking over many matters at that time.

We missed you very much at the very successful and highly satisfactory meeting that we had in Cleveland, and I know that you share with me my own sense of gratification that we are finally getting started in Cleveland and that Alan Green is undertaking this project. I am confident that with the fine spirited cooperation which we are receiving from yourself and your congregation, this undertaking cannot fail.

I think it would be an excellent idea if, at the time that we make a national release concerning this project, it would be accompanied by a statement from yourself growing out of your recent trip abroad. If in this instance, you can indicate the great need for such religious expansion here, as you see it in the light - or rather in the shadow - of your recent trip, I think that such a statement would be most helpful and would receive widespread publicity. I have asked our publicity man, Mr. Hank Levy, to procure this from you and I trust that you will be able to provide it.

Hoping that I will see you in Cincinnati the end of the month, and with warm personal greetings, I am

Yours most cordially,

Maurice N. Eisendrath

My dear Rabbi Silver:

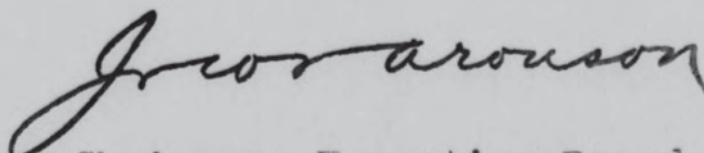

We were all saddened by the sudden passing of Henry Monsky, who served the Jewish cause magnificently and also served as a member of the Executive Board of the Union.

I should like you to act as Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions in Memory of Mr. Monsky.

The other members of the Committee are:
Rabbi Barnett R. Brickner, Rabbi James G. Heller and Rabbi Maurice N. Eisendrath.

With kind regards, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Chairman, Executive Board

Dear friend:

There is no greater privilege that I could possibly have enjoyed than to have been able to accept the gracious invitation recently extended to me by your president, Mr. Sidney Weitz, to speak at your forthcoming annual meeting, which coincides with the 30th anniversary of your unique and distinguished incumbency of the historic and honored pulpit of The Temple in Cleveland. I would have relished nothing more than to have been able, on behalf of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, to say a most genuine, but undoubtedly most inadequate, word of appreciation to your congregation for their sacrificial spirit during these critical days in making available to American and world Jewry the unusual services of their unusual rabbi. I would likewise have wished to pay tribute to the extraordinary manner in which you have been offering leadership to our people during these crucial days.

It is most unfortunate that on what seems to be the only day possible for your annual meeting, we have had scheduled for some time past an all-day conference of presidents in Cincinnati. I would have been willing to leave this conference early enough to fly up to Cleveland for the evening meeting, but Mr. Weitz felt that this would be too much of a gamble on your own part. May I assure you that I regret nothing quite so much as this unavoidable conflict which prevents me from being present upon an occasion in which I would feel profoundly privileged to participate.

Unfortunately, I have been away from New York during these past momentous days in which you have written a new, and what I hope will prove to be glorious, page in Jewish history. Rosa was able to pick up the broadcast from the United Nations meetings and has told me what a magnificent piece of work you did and how there seems to be unanimous concurrence among the Statesmen of the world concerning your own contribution. We are all exceedingly proud of what you have done, and we pray that rich blessings will flow from your consecrated efforts.

Again expressing my deepest regret in my inability to be with you at your annual meeting and at the auspicious occasion of your 30th anniversary, which I pray serves but as a prelude to many more years of distinguished service with your cherished congregation, I am

Yours most cordially,

Maurice

Dear friend:

Ever since I attended the conference of the World Union For Progressive Judaism last summer, I have kept in close contact with the recently formed Dublin Jewish Progressive Congregation. They are having a tough battle for survival due to the vigorous opposition of Rabbi Hertzog.

They are in need of as much help as can possibly be accorded them, and have asked me to cooperate with them to the extent of informing them as to just when some of our Reform rabbinic leaders might be available on their trips to and from Europe.

In this connection, I am quoting from a letter just received from Mr. Lawrence Elyan, President of the congregation:

"Dr. Silver would be the greatest 'draw' here, and if you get any information at any time of his intention to visit anywhere near Ireland, we would esteem it a great favour if you would let us know so that we could invite him, or better still, advise him in advance of our invitation. Needless to say, the same open invitation is extended to your good self.

"We are still having a tough fight here against ignorance and bigotry. Just now, we are being compelled to divert much of our energy into conducting a case in the Law Courts in order to safeguard our rights in the local Cemetery. Our pseudo-orthodox opponents must claim that we are a sect not professing the Hebrew faith, in order to win their case; and although they know they cannot win, they are prepared to precipitate a 'Chillul Ha-shem', merely to frighten off a large number of intending members. For the present, they are, unfortunately, succeeding in impeding our growth, but we have no doubt of our ultimate success. Our position, in fact, is very akin to that which existed in America about a hundred years ago; and realizing how Liberal Judaism developed there, we have no cause to be down-hearted here."

If at any time you feel that you can spare the time to give this congregation a much needed lift, I would appreciate hearing from you.

My dear Mr. Aronson:

Thank you for your letter of May 14. You asked me to serve as chairman of a Committee on Resolutions in memory of Mr. Monsky. I feel honored by your invitation.

Instead of writing the Resolutions, I turned to a very close friend of Mr. Monsky who has also been close to the work of the Union and who knew Mr. Monsky far better than I did, Mr. Alfred A. Benesch, to draft the Resolutions. I am enclosing herewith the very impressive Memorial Resolutions which Mr. Benesch has sent me which I am very happy to sign, and which I am sure the other members of the committee will also be happy to sign.

With all good wishes, I remain

Very cordially yours,

IN MEMORIAM

In the tragic and untimely passing of Henry Monsky, the Union of American Hebrew Congregations has suffered the irreparable loss of a rich and vibrant personality, association with whom was a priceless privilege and whose devoted service will ever remain a cherished tradition.

Henry Monsky was a strikingly attractive individual. None of whatever class or condition, but found delight in contacts with him, and he, in turn, enjoyed those contacts to the full. His sympathetic understanding of others and the sparkle lent by his balanced sense of humor made him pre-eminently "meet for converse with his kind". His was a personality from which, despite high maturity of achievement, there seemed to flow a continuing youth with all its buoyancy and elasticity - a personality characterized by simplicity and sincerity and conspicuously endowed with a gift for friendship which radiated throughout his dealings with his fellowmen - a personality intense and eager in its devotion to ^{Judaism, to} communal and public service, ^{and} courageous and adventurous in its quest of the truths ~~essential to effectuate that devotion.~~

Modest, sensitive and retiring, he was yet a mighty warrior for his convictions, imbued with the ^{Championing} ~~politic~~ spirit of the prophets of old, and he voiced those convictions with unsurpassed clearness and precision. His gentleness and self-restraint, his ~~infectious~~ charm, combined with mental ^{Vigor} ~~strength~~, distinguished him as a man among men.

With us who had the enviable privilege of association with him, there will abide the precious memory not alone of his consecrated service to the broad ^{spiritual} ~~purposes~~ of our Union, but of companionship with a beautiful spirit, an extraordinary combination of grace and power.

Dear friend:--

Although the final decision concerning the Union of American Hebrew Congregations' affiliation with whatever form of future organization may be established by the Committee of the American Jewish Conference of which I have had the privilege of being the Chairman will be made by our Biennial Assembly, possibly on recommendation by the Executive Board, nonetheless I feel that a preliminary discussion on the part of our Administrative Committee would be most helpful at this stage. Consequently I am attaching hereto the letter written by Mr. Louis Lipsky, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the American Jewish Conference, to the heads of all organizations affiliated with the Conference, together with the plan for future organization recommended by the Conference's Committee and unanimously adopted by the Interim Committee of the American Jewish Conference.

I trust that you will have the opportunity to read this material prior to the Administrative Committee meeting, Monday, June 2, and come prepared to discuss this very important matter.

Looking forward to seeing you on Monday and with warm greetings, I am

Yours most cordially,

Dear Dr. Eisendrath:

I am pleased to be able to report that the Interim Committee, meeting on May 2, 1947, at the Biltmore Hotel, unanimously approved the basic plan for the permanent organization as proposed by the Conference Committee on Future Organization.

The plan, a copy of which is enclosed, was approved as a basis for negotiation with national agencies now affiliated with the Conference, agencies outside the Conference, and consultations with Jewish communal bodies and leaders.

It is possible that as a result of these negotiations, the plan may be amended in some respects. The final draft will, under the resolution of the Third Session of the Conference, be submitted for consideration and action to the next session in Chicago.

This plan is submitted to you in advance of publication to afford your organization and its governing body the opportunity to study it and to make such proposals in connection therewith as you may deem advisable.

The Interim Committee was aware that the plan may not be ideal in every respect, but is satisfied that it represents the considered view of all segments of the American Jewish community, which are represented both in the Committee on Future Organization and the Interim Committee, and in their judgment is one that is likely to receive the greatest possible support from the greatest number of American Jews.

I trust that you will be in a position to inform us very soon that the plan meets with your approval and that your organization is prepared to cooperate with what will undoubtedly be a permanent organization representing the united voice of American Jewry.

Very truly yours,

(Signed)

Louis Lipsky, Chairman
Executive Committee

FROM THE UNION OF

AMERICAN HEBREW CONGREGATIONS

HENRY W. LEVY, Publicity Director, 3 EAST 65th ST., NEW YORK 21, N. Y.

ARONSON SUCCEEDS ROSENBERG AS LAY HEAD OF UNION

By Union News Service

CINCINNATI, Ohio----The election of Jacob Aronson, of New York, as chairman of the Executive Board of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations to succeed the late Adolph Rosenberg as chief lay officer of the Union and the elevation of Dr. Maurice N. Eisendrath, of Cincinnati, from director to president, was voted at the semi-annual meeting of the Executive Board held here.

Mr. Aronson, who is a vice-president of the New York Central Railroad, has been a member of the Executive Board for over five years. Dr. Eisendrath, who was previously rabbi of the Holy Blossom Temple in Toronto, has been director of the Union for the past three years.

In his first official letter to congregational leaders throughout the country, following his election, Mr. Aronson explained the change of Dr. Eisendrath's title, saying that "at Dr. Eisendrath's express request, let me state that the election of a rabbi as president does not change the governing procedure of the Executive Board or the traditional functioning of the Union. The Executive Board is essentially a lay group, and its chairman is a layman; and that Board will continue, subject only to the jurisdiction to the Biennial conventions, to be the policy making body of the Union."

In commenting on the elevation of Dr. Eisendrath to the presidency of the Union, Mr. Aronson said: "Because Rabbi Eisendrath, since his election to the directorship of the Union, has exercised a religious statesmanship of high order, because the Union has become better known under his stimulation, because the Union's counsel is now sought and respected, and its prestige has been enhanced, the Executive Board elected Rabbi Eisendrath president of the Union. The change of title involves no change of function, and was envisioned by Mr. Rosenberg when he was planning to retire from the presidency of the Union. I am confident that the Board's action will meet most favorable response throughout our constituency and will redound to the best interests of the Union."
