Dear Rabbi Silver:

Sometime ago, I wrote you asking you to join the official Combined Campaign family and to serve as one of the National Committee members for the year 1961-1962.

To date, I have not received a reply. I would be most appreciative if you would accept the position and send me notification of your acceptance promptly.

We are preparing our new Campaign stationery and I would like to include your name. Please give this your immediate attention and tell me that you will serve.

My very best wishes for the coming New Year.

Sincerely yours,

Jack Davis
General Chairman
