In the absence of Mr. Montor I phoned Mr. Lipsky regarding the cable received from Vienna asking for $36,000. Mr. Lipsky informed me that he was communicating with Eliezer Kaplan in Jerusalem before taking any action.

OFFICE OF THE
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
MONTREAL

November 22nd, 1939.

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver,
The Temple,
East 105th Street at Ansel Road,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Abba:

I know it takes a great deal of temerity to write this letter to you for I am certainly aware how busy a man you are.

But I feel that I must ask you to please consent to address at least one United Palestine Appeal dinner in Canada during the course of the year. The U.P.A. campaign in Toronto will commence on May 5th. I shall be deeply grateful to you personally if you consent to accept the invitation to be the guest speaker at this affair. Toronto is a large Jewish community and in my opinion, one of the finest Zionist centres on this continent. The results in Toronto influence the course of the campaign in the other centres in the province of Ontario.

I know that you are reluctant to address meetings out-of-town on Sundays on account of your morning services. However, there is plane service from Cleveland to Toronto via Buffalo. The trip will take no more than three hours.

I fervently hope that your reply will be in the affirmative.

With kindest personal regards, I am
Sincerely,

My dear Jesse:

I wish I could accommodate you again this year. But our own local campaign begins on Sunday evening May 5th and I must devote not only that day but the days preceding and following to the affairs of the local campaign of which, as you probably know, I am chairman. We are planning a large mass meeting to open our campaign in the public auditorium on May 5th.

With all good wishes and hoping to see you in the near future again, I remain

Mr. Paul Baerwald
American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee,
100 East 42nd St.,
New York, N.Y.

Dear Friend:

I have read with very great interest the announcement of the gift of your group to the Catholic Church through the Pope and to the Protestant Church through Doctor Butterick.

I want to say now what I shall soon say in person, that I think this was a move of prophetic insight and significance. I know that it has not been done without sacrifice but I believe that it will bring rich returns in terms of good will. It seems to me that one of the most needed types of statesmanship today is to so plan the use of American benevolence abroad that it will create a permanent reservoir of good will. This contribution is distinctly in that class and I am deeply grateful that you had the prophetic vision to make it.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

You said a wonderful thing the other evening in Washington, and I want to thank you for having said it. You said, 'We must avoid the frantic approach', etc.

That was one of the most valuable bits of advice that I have ever received. Every once in a while we hear or read a line that is priceless in the development of our characters, like one that I heard some time ago, 'Al ta'aseh zot she-ain 1'cho charoto.' Or that line on the Archives Building in Washington, 'All past is prologue.'

Please don't bother to acknowledge this letter; I merely felt that I had to write this, but there is no need to reply.

Respectfully,

Araham Sakier

Dear Dr. Silver:

In accordance with your suggestion that you and I exchange memoranda with respect to our telephone conversations today concerning the proposed United Jewish Appeal for 1940, I enclose herein a brief aide-memoire of the gist of our conversations.

May I point out that with respect to the question of the National Refugee Service and its right to request additional grants from the Distribution Committee up to and including a sum of $500,000, there is agreement between us that the National Refugee Service shall have that opportunity. You set forth that such grants over and above the initial grants within the first $11,250,000 must be agreed to by unanimous consent of the entire Allocations Committee. On the other hand, since it is hoped that the Allocations Committee will reach its decisions on the basis of study, there is no need for insisting on a unanimous vote. Our Committee therefore requests that such grants be voted by a simple majority of the Allocations Committee.

I think I should add that if by agreement of our several organizations consideration is to be given to the admission of the Ort, Hias or any other organization as beneficiaries of the United Jewish Appeal for 1940, they would be, as a matter of course, expected to submit their records, accountings and financial data to whatever bureau might be set up for purposes of study under the terms of this agreement. The entire question of the inclusion of these smaller agencies is, of course, subject to discussion among our several agencies.

I trust that the enclosed memorandum satisfactorily sets forth the gist of our discussions. Obviously, we will have to convene a meeting of representatives of the two committees in the near future to incorporate formally the agreement for 1940. Until that is done and executed no public statement can be circulated or issued. In any event, I know you will agree that no publicity should be given to the proposed agreement unless there is complete assent of the text of such a statement by the authorized representatives of our several organizations.

I am very glad that the discussions are being brought to a definite conclusion.

With personal greetings, I am

Sincerely yours,

Joseph J. Schwartz

MEMORANDUM OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATIONS WITH RABBI SILVER

I called Rabbi Silver and indicated that our Committee would be ready to agree to a United Jewish Appeal for 1940 on the following terms:

1. Of the first funds to be collected, the National Refugee Service is to receive $3,500,000, the Joint Distribution Committee $5,250,000, and the United Palestine Appeal $2,500,000. The balance of the funds is to be distributed by a Distribution Committee to be made up of an equal number of representatives of the Joint Distribution Committee and the United Palestine Appeal, plus a certain number of representatives of Welfare Fund cities, satisfactory to both groups.
The $3,500,000 allotted to the National Refugee Service is to be made up of $2,500,000 from the United Jewish Appeal and $1,000,000 from the collections of the New York City campaign.
2. The National Refugee Service shall have the right to go before the Allocations Committee for an additional sum of up to $500,000. Rabbi Silver requested that any allotment to the National Refugee Service over and above the $3,500,000 be by unanimous vote of the Distribution Committee, but we have not agreed to this point.
3. The National Refugee Service shall have the right to receive contributions from foundations which are restricted from making contributions to any but domestic purposes.
4. The Jewish National Fund shall report its traditional collections to the Distribution Committee.
Rabbi Silver suggested that the Distribution Committee shall have the right, if it wishes, to call for figures from the Ort and the Hias. We pointed out that while we had no objection to the Distribution Committee calling for or receiving such figures, we had absolutely no control over or relationship with these organizations and therefore could not undertake to obtain their financial data for the Distribution Committee.
5. As to the possible inclusion of any other agency, such as the Ort and the Hias, in the United Jewish Appeal, it was understood that no agency will be admitted into the United Jewish Appeal for 1940 except by consent of the three major beneficiary agencies - the Joint Distribution Committee, United Palestine Appeal and the National Refugee Service.
6. It was agreed that the Distribution Committee, when it is set up, shall have at its disposal an amount up to $25,000 from the United Jewish Appeal to set up machinery for study of budgets, etc.
7. It was also agreed that no publicity concerning the agreement be issued until formally executed and approved by the participating agencies.
8. The question of quota was briefly discussed and it was agreed that this will be determined in further discussions, and that the quota will be anywhere between 22 to 25 million dollars.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AMERICAN JEWS TO CONDUCT UNITED DRIVE IN 1940 TO AID WAR SUFFERERS AND REFUGEES

In response to the urgent needs of the Jews of Poland and other centers of distress in Central and Eastern Europe, American Jews will conduct a unified drive in 1940 to bring immediate relief and rehabilitative aid to war sufferers, to support the immigration and settlement of refugees in Palestine, and to further the adjustment of refugees arriving in the United States, it was announced yesterday by Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver of Cleveland and Rabbi Jonah B. Wise, National Chairmen of the United Jewish Appeal for Refugees and Overseas Needs.

The United Jewish Appeal will act as the single fund-raising instrument for the Joint Distribution Committee, the United Palestine Appeal and the National Refugee Service, Inc., the three foremost American agencies dealing with the ramified problems of overseas relief and rehabilitation, Palestine rebuilding and settlement, and refugee integration in this country. Rabbi Silver and Rabbi Wise will serve as national chairmen of the 1940 campaign and it is expected that the United Jewish Appeal will enlist the active cooperation as officers of other distinguished personalities in Jewish life in the United States.

The basis for an intensive drive to provide for the relief and rescue of hundreds of thousands of Jews whose suffering from oppression has been greatly aggravated by the sweep of war, was laid in 1939 when the Joint Distribution Committee, the United Palestine Appeal and the National Refugee Service, Inc. combined their campaigns in a united drive to cope with the problems of mass homelessness and mass oppression in territories that were absorbed in Greater Germany as well as in other parts of Europe.

Discussing the responsibility of American Jews in the tasks of alleviating the plight of the victims of war and oppression, Rabbi Silver and Rabbi Wise said:

"In 1940 there comes to the Jews of America a solemnly challenging plea from the hearts of millions of our fellow-Jews who have been made to bear the burden of hate and oppression, whose devastation has been intensified by the sweep of war. Condemned to the status of chattels, deprived of the opportunity of self-maintenance, denied the essentials of subsistence - these millions of human beings look to American Jewry with sorrowful hope that they may be enabled to survive through this period of brutality and destruction."

Rabbi Silver and Rabbi Wise emphasized that the problems of helping a huge segment of the Jewish people to emerge from "this testing period in world history" is great, but not so great that the "American way of brotherly sympathy and help" cannot in large measure solve it.

A channel for immediate relief, as well as long range reconstructive and rehabilitative assistance is offered through the three programs embraced within the United Jewish Appeal, the Jewish leaders said. Rabbi Silver and Rabbi Wise described as follows the principal objectives of the constituent agencies of the United Jewish Appeal:

"Through the Joint Distribution Committee, the compassionate spirit of America must express itself through enlarged assistance to great masses of men, women and children so that they can be given relief and rehabilitative aid where they now are, either in permanent or transitory homes, and, wherever possible, assisted to new and self-sustaining environments.

"Through the United Palestine Appeal, the desire of American Jewry for the continued upbuilding of the Jewish homeland, through the safeguarding of the present community of 500,000 souls and the extension of a foothold to other thousands of Jews, must be given concrete expression.

"Through the National Refugee Service we must fulfill our responsibility as American Jews to the newcomers in our midst who are endeavoring to accept their full place in American life with our encouragement."

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver

Dear Dr. Silver:

In order to stimulate preparations for Spring campaigns throughout the country it is my suggestion that we immediately undertake to arrange for a radio broadcast over a nationwide hookup on or about February 20th. The program for this broadcast should consist of brief addresses by Gov. Herbert H. Lehman, Thomas Mann and Bishop Sheil of Chicago. It may add to the popular interest in the program if we invite Jascha Heifetz or some other outstanding artist to take part in the same program.

At least two other nationwide radio broadcasts should be arranged at intervals of six weeks. On or about March 30th a second nationwide radio broadcast should bring to the entire country an international hookup from Paris, from which Morris C. Troper, chief of the European activities of the JDC, would describe the Jewish situation on the spot. As part of this program John Gunther or some other outstanding foreign correspondent now living in the United States would be invited to speak from New York on the plight of the war sufferers.

Since the date of May 5th will be the occasion for the opening of the most important Spring campaigns, a nationwide broadcast should be prepared for that day. The participants in this program should be distinguished personalities of the screen and stage including Eddie Cantor, Edward G. Robinson, Luise Rainer, Paul Muni, Melvyn Douglas or others of similar standing. It may be possible to persuade Arturo Toscanini to conduct the NBC Orchestra on a special hour in behalf of the UJA, with Mayor La Guardia as intermission speaker to present the needs of the war refugees.

To : Mr. M. Steinglass
From: N. C. Belth
Subject: Publicity Program of the U.J.A.

The proposed program for the Publicity Department of the U.J.A. which you submitted at a meeting of representatives of the J.D.C., the U.P.A., the N.R.S. and the U.J.A. has received the deep consideration of the executives of the J.D.C. concerned with its public relations program.

As you know, Mr. Hyman and Dr. Schwartz generally discussed the principles of J.D.C. public relations at the aforementioned meeting. For your convenience I shall however outline to you below the general principles of J.D.C. publicity policy during the current year, and express to you the viewpoint of the J.D.C. on the particular points mentioned in your proposed program. Essentially the principles to be followed during the current year by the J.D.C. are the same which it followed during 1939.

Briefly the J.D.C. policy can be stated:

- 1) That insofar as possible, there shall be a minimum of publicity in the general media such as newspapers, radio, etc.
- 2) There shall be a maximum of publicity in those media which are limited to circulation within the Jewish community.
- 3) That the J.D.C. in the interest of its program reserves to itself the right to use information and materials which come to it in the way it sees fit and cannot channel all news material and releases through the U.J.A.
- 4) That within the limits of these policies, the J.D.C. will naturally lend every effort to promote the publicity program of the U.J.A.

With these basic principles in mind, we can approach the detailed program point by point:

I. The General Press

- 1) It is the view of the J.D.C. that this is a function of the individual agencies and that the J.D.C. reserves to itself the right to issue releases on its overseas activities at such times as it deems necessary.
- 2) Since the purpose of these editorials is to further the campaign of the U.J.A. and since the campaign is held in various communities at various times, such editorials should be encouraged only on a community basis and ought to be handled locally at the time that the drive is actually taking place.

Items 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 all come under the heading of general newspaper publicity which the J.D.C. desires to keep to a minimum. Since these items also involve the specific work of the individual agencies, the J.D.C. reserves the right to issue such news and information concerning its activities and its problems on an individual basis.

II. Coordination

- a) This is not in line with J.D.C. policies, since J.D.C. reserves to itself the right to issue all its own news materials and releases through its own channels and is not willing to send all such materials to the U.J.A.
- b) This is a policy which the J.D.C. maintained throughout 1939 and will continue to do so through the coming year in order that the activities of the J.D.C. shall benefit the campaign.
- c) The J.D.C. will also continue to coordinate its releases with the U.J.A. specifically as to timing so that there shall be no conflict for newspaper space and shall expect the U.J.A. to do likewise.
- d) The J.D.C. will make available to the U.J.A. all material and information that can further the work of the campaign, as promptly as possible, but reserves to itself the right to say what materials and what information shall not be used in a public or even a semi-public manner.

III. Special Projects

WRHS

All items under this heading are affected by the basic policy of J.D.C. to keep its publicity work limited largely to the Jewish community and not to draw the attention of the remaining 96% of the population of the country to its work in any great degree. Insofar as these projects will help the campaign but will not draw too much general public attention, they may be encouraged.

IV. Radio

The same principle holds true in the matter of the use of the radio. The J.D.C. readily approves the use of national hook-ups for a number of programs featuring national Jewish leaders who will directly state the needs of the U.J.A. at the height of the campaign period, that is, during the months of March, April and May, but cannot approve the more spectacular but less direct type of program suggested in Items 2, 3 and 4.

Item 5 concerning electrical transcriptions should be encouraged to the degree to which local communities are willing to use them for re-broadcast purposes.

Item 6 concerning radio spot announcements should be handled on a similar basis.

Item 7 concerning a radio dramatization preferably as an electrical transcription can also be approved along these lines.

V. Motion Pictures

There is no basic question of policy involved here since such a film would be shown only within the Jewish community and to Jewish groups. If the campaign finds it feasible to produce a film or films to further its fund-raising, this should be done. All costs and other technical details which are the major considerations in this project should be left to the officers of the U.J.A.

VI. Item VI outlines a program for the U.J.A. in connection with the English-VII. Jewish press, Item VII in connection with the Yiddish press and Item VIII, VIII. a program of campaign literature. These programs are quite in line with general J.D.C. policy and should be encouraged. We want to call attention to only one item, No. 6, under the heading of the English-Jewish press in which it is suggested that weekly summaries of news received from abroad by any of the constituent agencies should be issued through the U.J.A. Here, again, the principle which the J.D.C. stresses that it retains to itself the right to use its own materials, is involved.

I shall be glad to discuss with you further any of the above mentioned items which are not perfectly clear to you.

My dear Mr. Steinglass:

Let me thank you for your kind letter of February 6. I think that the suggestions for the three broadcasts are excellent, and I would recommend that you proceed to carry them out. I think that one or the other of the National Chairmen should briefly introduce each broadcast and present the speakers.

As regards the second broadcast, perhaps some European who is better known in the United States, either from Paris or from London, might be invited.

With all good wishes, I remain

Dear Dr. Silver:

I believe that our arrangements for the program of the March 9th broadcast over a National Broadcasting Company hookup are taking final shape.

We have received acceptances from Bishop Sheil of Chicago and Dr. Thomas Mann. It is my suggestion that you be the third speaker on the program and that Rabbi Wise briefly introduce the broadcast and the speakers from New York. We have informed Bishop Sheil that he is expected to speak for about eight minutes and Dr. Mann has specifically told us that his talk will be no more than five minutes in length. Allowing for introductory and closing announcements, there would be sufficient time for a ten minute address by you from Cleveland.

I shall appreciate hearing from you at your earliest convenience as to whether this outline of the program is satisfactory.

The B'nai B'rith magazine is planning to publish a photograph of you on the front cover of its April issue, which is scheduled to go to press within a few days.

We have sent them a copy of the photograph which is in our files, but the managing editor, Mr. Edward E. Grusd, has requested us to furnish him with a more recent portrait, since our photograph has already appeared in this periodical.

Do you have a new photograph? If not, would it be advisable to use one of the photographs which were taken during the Washington Conference?

Campaign Opening Meeting-April 2nd

March 26th, 1940

Digest - New Orleans, Louisiana

The 1940 New Orleans Jewish Welfare Fund Campaign will be launched at the meeting which you are to address on April 2nd, and will continue through April 12th. Dr. I. Edwin Goldwasser addressed a Big Gifts Meeting in the community on March 19th.

Mr. Coons visited New Orleans on February 22nd and suggested a UJA allotment of $100,000, as the community's share in the $23,000,000 national campaign. Leaders advised that an intensive effort would be made to raise the maximum amount possible, and that the UJA would be given most generous consideration. Mr. Coons confidentially advised that Edgar B. Stern, who contributed almost 25% of the amount raised in 1939, intends to exceed this amount in 1940. New Orleans has set a total goal of $150,000.

Frank Rosenthal will head this year's appeal. Dr. David Fichman is the Executive Secretary of the New Orleans Jewish Welfare Fund. Other leaders of importance in the community are:

RHS
Victor Elsas
Joseph Haspel
Frank Friedler
Robert Polak
Harold S. Mayer
Leopold Stahl
Louis Rosen

Leo L. Hirsch
Jules J. Paglin
Leo L. Hirsch
Harry Latter
Isaac S. Heller
Dr. Emil W. Leipziger

Below is campaign data on a number of comparable communities:

New Orleans, La.	Jewish Pop.- 8,000	UJA 1939 Pledge- $77,000	1940 Assigned Quota- $100,000
Nashville, Tenn.	2,800	30,000	45,000

Fort Worth, Texas	1,000	15,000	30,000

The 1939 Jewish Welfare Fund Campaign was launched on March 27th for a goal of $125,000, which was oversubscribed, $128,000 being raised, of which the UJA was allocated $77,000, which has been paid in full.

Top givers included Edgar B. Stern and Samuel Zemurray.

Campaign Opening - April 3rd

Digest - Dallas, Texas

1940 Assigned Quota - $85,000

Jewish Population - 8,000

The Jewish Federation for Social Service of Dallas will formally launch its campaign on April 3rd with Leslie L. Jacobs as Chairman. Reuben S. Resnick has been appointed Executive Director of the Federation, to succeed George A. Levy.

Mr. Isidor Coons met with leaders here on February 14th. Although they indicated that Dallas will do its best to raise $85,000 for UJA, no quota has as yet been accepted. It is Mr. Coons' opinion that we may expect between $72,000 and $75,000 from Dallas.

On March 4th, Mr. Coons wrote to Mr. Jacobs regarding the scope of the work of the three agencies constituting the UJA, and explaining how the national goal and community quotas were arrived at.

Mr. I. Edwin Goldwasser addressed the big givers in this community at two meetings, March 16th and 17th, as a result of which $67,000 has been raised.

Following are the officers of the Federation:

Ernest G. Wadel	- President
Benjamin F. Lewis	- 1st Vice-President
M.E. Florence	- 2nd Vice-President
Leonard Eppstein	- Treasurer
Herbert Mallinson	- Chairman Budget & Finance Committee

Below is data on a few comparable communities:

J.P.	Community	1939 Pledges	1940 Assigned Quotas

1,800	Ft. Wayne, Ind.	24,000	45,000

1939 - Dallas conducted its annual campaign in October 1938 for a total goal of $93,175. $64,079 was raised toward this goal, of which UJA received $40,000. In March 1939, $25,000 was raised in a supplementary emergency appeal for UJA alone, which increased UJA's allotment to $65,000. This has been paid in full.

Among the Big Givers in this community are - H.P. Taubman, Fred Florence, Herbert Mallinson and Lawrence Pollack. Mr. Mallinson is our most important contact for Dallas, the State of Texas and the Southwest Region of which he is the JDC Regional Chairman.

ABBA HILLEL SILVER
CLEVELAND, OHIO

April 17, 1940

Mr. Henry Rubin,
M. Koplen, Inc.,
126 N. Union St.,
Danville, Pa.

Dear Mr. Rubin:

In a few days Jews will be celebrating the Passover holiday. This festival of the liberation of the Jewish people will mock hundreds of thousands of Jews who are being enslaved or destroyed. American Jewry will be the only group in a free, peaceful, democratic land able to understand and appreciate the symbolism of this Passover.

Is it not appropriate that we should utilize the channel of the United Jewish Appeal to express a measure of our gratitude that Providence has permitted us to be on the west instead of east of the Atlantic?

What needs to be emphasized at this time is that we have it within our power to liberate Jewish life. The greatest enterprise in that program is the maintenance and expansion of the Jewish homeland in Palestine, which is the lodestar of great masses of Jews begging for the chance to share with other Jews in the building of a secure, dignified life in the land of Israel.

Funds received through the United Jewish Appeal maintain the agencies of the United Palestine Appeal, the central organ of American Jewry to further immigration, colonization, land purchase and general development in Palestine. The tasks in Palestine are increasingly urgent, as the Hitler madness grips new portions of the Continent.

Thousands of refugees, undernourished, ill after weeks and months of hazardous travel on the Mediterranean, have been made the responsibility of the Jewish Agency. Food, clothing, shelter, medical attention and ultimate integration into the economic life of the country require far larger resources than could have been realized only six months ago.

War has affected various branches of Palestine's economy, including primarily the citrus industry, building and various other industries. Wide-spread unemployment has not yet been curbed. With private initiative unable or unwilling to function in this crisis, it is the national institutions like the Jewish Agency which must come to the rescue of a network of activities on which the lives of hundreds of thousands of Jews are based. The Jewish Agency has aided old enterprises and helped new ones in order to offset unemployment; it has assisted construction programs to absorb workers. Above all, it has expended large sums for fundamental relief and social welfare purposes.

The Jewish community of Palestine has done more than its share. It has imposed a voluntary emergency tax for the very same purposes embraced in the United Jewish Appeal. The poorest worker and middle class groups alike have taxed themselves for monthly contributions ranging from ten to twenty percent of their entire income. Here indeed is a model of sacrificial generosity for emulation!

Recent discussion of the unjust, unwise land legislation enacted for Palestine by Colonial Secretary Malcolm MacDonald has obscured the fact that in the "free" zone alone, there is twice as much land still to be bought as the Jewish National Fund was able to acquire in thirty-eight years. American Jewry, which is genuinely concerned with land for colonization purposes, will take heed from recent experiences and mobilize all possible resources so that precious land may be quickly bought to settle the thousands of Jews who continue to enter Palestine month after month.

A few facts in review of Palestine's history in 1939 serve to remind us that Palestine is the great reservoir of Jewish strength and consolation, of Jewish man-power and self-affirmation. From a community of 55,000 souls during the last war, the Yishuv today exceeds 500,000. Land possessions of 420,000 dunams in 1914 compare with 1,533,000 dunams owned by Jews today. In 1914 there were 44 Jewish colonies, with 12,000 Jews earning a living on the soil, while today there are 254 settlements giving immediate livelihood to 130,000. In the last three years 55 new colonies were erected, six of them since the outbreak of war. Whatever the difficulties Palestine industry is experiencing in this transition period, it cannot be forgotten that Jewish production in 1914 was valued at less than £500,000, while in 1939 Jewish industry produced goods worth more than £10,000,000.

In Palestine there is being built a permanent, sound economy for the readjustment of the Jew physically and spiritually. If American Jewry has imagination and statesmanship as well as compassion and generosity, it will dedicate itself in 1940, through the United Jewish Appeal, to help save the flower of Jewish youth in Europe through settlement in Palestine.

The task of plucking the victims of Hitlerism from imminent destruction will require a new conception of individual responsibility for the salvage of Jews. It will demand from Jewish leadership in every community a fair interpretation of the relationship between the emergent, unpostponable tasks of relief and rescue and the less critical problems that face the American Jewish community.

I send you best wishes for a joyous Passover holiday, in the hope that through your active assistance thousands of Jews may be set on the path toward freedom in Palestine.

Very cordially yours,

Abba Hillel Silver

Thank you so much for your kind note of April 18 and for the lovely things which you say about the address which I delivered at the UPA Conference. I am happy to learn that my message was not entirely without some value. I was afraid that my severe cold would make it impossible for me to do justice to the occasion. I thought that the affair was a splendid one quantitatively and qualitatively. I felt the fine spirit in the air and I am sure that much of the success of the Conference was due to your splendid leadership.

With all good wishes for a very happy Passover, I remain

Dear Dr. Silver:

Now that we are within closer range of the Bronx Division dinner, we can see more clearly the outline of the picture.

You will be interested to learn that almost a hundred businessmen are actually working on this dinner, and I can unhesitatingly attribute the size of this corps of workers to the association of your own name with the event.

Mr. Goldwater, our chairman, as well as the other leading officers of the Bronx campaign were thrilled with the original announcement that you had kindly consented to make the appeal at our dinner, and they are even more excited about this prospect now that they have come in contact with a wider public which has indicated its appreciation of this signal honor.

The committee is concentrating on quality attendance, but at the same time it has determined to broaden the base and to bring a larger attendance than they originally planned.

I trust that you are managing to keep in good health in spite of the pressure of campaign work and your peripatetic appeals. We look forward to greeting you and giving you whatever assistance we may be in a position to offer, to the end that you may raise an impressive sum at the May 8th dinner.

You asked me to give you a reminder concerning Louis Altschul, to whom you wish to write a note about his generous increase from $6,000 to $18,000. His address is c/o Bronx Hospital, 1276 Fulton Avenue.

I have heard from several sources today concerning the very profound impression which you address made at the Amusement Division luncheon. From my own observation of the effect your address made last night, I can testify to its genuine productiveness. Quite a few of the men present increased their gifts as a result of your touching appeal. The more accurate figures which the trade secretary compiled this morning indicated an increase of over 25% in the giving of those who were present last night.

I trust that your cold has left you and that you will find renewed strength for continuing your weary way around the country.
