Gentlemen:

In accordance with instructions, we have examined the books and records of United Jewish Appeal, Inc. (1939 accounts) - national organization - for the period from the inception of the Appeal to September 30, 1940, and herewith submit our report thereon, consisting of:

Our audit report dated February 3, 1940, with respect to the period from inception to December 31, 1939, contains a synopsis of the agreement constituting the United Jewish Appeal, Inc. According to data furnished by your statistical department, the gross pledges made by communities to September 30, 1940, aggregated. $16,244,662.28*

New York City and other community expenses included therein amounted to 617,500.00

Mr. Elisha M. Friedman
United Jewish Appeal
342 Madison Avenue
New York City

Dear Mr. Friedman:

Attached hereto is a copy of a cable which we have received from Mr. Eliezer Kaplan, Treasurer of the Jewish Agency for Palestine, describing (a) the Income and Expenditures of the Jewish Agency and the Jewish National Fund for the month of September, 1940, and (b) a consolidated statement of these two bodies, constituents of the United Palestine Appeal, for the year from October 1, 1939 through September 30, 1940, of income and expenditure.

This cable is being sent you in two forms: (a) in paragraph form, and (b) arranged in statistical fashion to permit easier reading.

You will note that there is an error in the addition in the income column. This I attribute to mangling in the process of transmitting the cable, but since I am not familiar with what figure may inadvertently be in error, I have cabled to Jerusalem for correct information.

There is also a slight error in the German Bureau column. This, too, I attribute to an error in transmission.

Cordially yours,

Henry Montor
Executive Director

MEMORANDUM

November 15, 1940

TO: Officers of the United Jewish Appeal
FROM: Messrs. Isidor Coons and Henry Montor
SUBJECT: Monthly Pledge and Payment Report

As of October 31, the date of the attached Pledge and Payment report, pledges officially recorded for the 1940 UJA totalled $12,299,370.05, while total cash receipts amounted to $7,513,567.61. Additional pledges reported since that date bring the figures as of November 15 to $12,420,121.30 and the cash figure has mounted to $7,752,402.09. The UJA pledges of 1939 as of the same date last year totalled $14,691,598.98.

Since the last report was presented to the officers of the UJA, we have received definite allocations from two important Spring communities. The tentative allocation of $300,000 from Los Angeles, which was previously reported, has been formally ratified by the Budget Committee. Richmond, Virginia, which last year allotted to the UJA $37,000, has this year made an allocation of $43,450. Greensboro, North Carolina, which last year allocated to the UJA the sum of $80,000, has not yet made known the amount which will be allotted this year. We have been unofficially advised, however, that the UJA will receive the major share of the total of $120,000 raised. New York City has raised a total of $5,051,759.96 to date which after deduction of $110,000 for Ort, leaves a gross of $4,941,759.96 for the UJA, out of which $1,000,000 is to be paid direct to the NRS. Allowance must be made for campaign expenses and shrinkage.

November 15, 1940

While there are as yet few definite figures on fall campaigns, preliminary results in many communities indicate that the sums raised last year will be equalled, if not surpassed. The visits of the National Chairmen and other officers of the national campaign of the UJA to cities both large and small, and the concentrated effort which has been made to eliminate doubts regarding the ability of the UJA agencies to function have served to dispell to some extent the spirit of defeatism which was apparent in all sections of the country.

Cincinnati, which was the first important city to launch a fall campaign, raised $350,300 against its goal of $361,800, the largest sum ever raised in that community. Despite the fact that the quota was not attained, the UJA will receive its entire allotment of $190,000. The success of the Cincinnati campaign has helped to stimulate enthusiasm in other communities. Boston launched its campaign officially on October 27 for a goal of $1,250,000, and leaders there feel that the combined drive of the Associated Jewish Charities and the United Jewish Campaign will raise at least as much as both achieved last year. As of this date $968,000 has been raised. Philadelphia formally opened its campaign on November 11 for a goal of $1,100,000.

In a number of smaller cities results are definitely encouraging. The Dayton Welfare Fund campaign closed with a total of $58,000 raised as against $54,000 raised in 1939. Hammond, Indiana has gone over its goal of $15,000, raising a total of $16,500. Tulsa, Oklahoma which raised $48,295 in 1939 has established a goal of $50,000 this year, of which $41,000 was raised at the opening meeting. Wilmington, Delaware, which on November 17 will formally launch its campaign for a goal of $70,850, has raised $36,000 in advance gifts.

November 15, 1940

Of the total cash received to date on account of 1940 pledges, distribution has been made as follows:

To Joint Distribution Committee	$ 3,255,000
To United Palestine Appeal	$ 1,550,000
To National Refugee Service	$ 1,550,000
(from national	$ 900,000
(from N.Y.C.
Distribution Committee	$ 10,000
Administration Expense	$ 357,468.28

1939 United Jewish Appeal

Against total gross pledges of $16,247,914.05, cash has to date been received in the sum of $14,907,749.77. Approximately $775,000 must be allowed for uncollectibles, local campaign expense deductions, etc., so that the remaining collectible balance is approximately $565,000. The collection program is being vigorously pursued.

December 12, 1940

TO: Officers of the United Jewish Appeal
FROM: Messrs. Isidor Coons and Henry Montor
SUBJECT: Monthly Pledge and Payment Report

The attached Pledge and Payment report, prepared as of November 30, shows gross pledges reported officially in the sum of $12,647,940.22 and cash received on account in the sum of $8,073,365.41. Since the preparation of this report, additional pledges have been reported from some of the communities conducting late Fall campaigns, bringing the total up to $12,764,967.67 but allotments have not yet been made by the larger cities, so that a final total on the 1940 campaign will not appear on our books for several weeks.

It is estimated that the total will reach approximately $14,050,000, representing gross pledges of $9,030,000 from the country as a whole and $5,020,000 from the New York City Campaign. Campaign expenses and shrinkage must be allowed for with respect to the latter figure and these together are at present estimated at approximately $900,000. Allowance has already been made in the estimate of what the U.J.A. will receive from New York City for the $110,000 that is payable directly to the Ort.

It is anticipated that approximately 3,400 communities of all sizes throughout the country will have participated in the 1940 U.J.A. in comparison with approximately 3,000 communities cooperating last year. With the exception of some of the so-called major cities which are contributing substantially less to the U.J.A. this year than in 1939, the country as a whole has maintained or exceeded the 1939 standards, but the returns from the smaller communities are not enough even in the aggregate to make up for the substantial cuts in the allotments from the larger cities.

Cash receipts as of this date have increased to $8,314,686.33. New York City has to date remitted to national headquarters $2,530,000 and direct to the N.R.S. $940,000, or a total of $3,470,000.

December 12, 1940

Of the total cash received to date against 1940 pledges, the following distribution has been made:

To Joint Distribution Committee	$3,517,500.00
To United Palestine Appeal	1,675,000.00
To National Refugee Service (from national (from N.Y.C.)	1,675,000.00 940,000.00
To Distribution Committee	10,000.00

National Administration Expenses for the whole year will be less than $400,000.00.

1939 U.J.A.

The sum of $14,979,000.80 has been received in cash at national headquarters for the 1939 U.J.A., representing over 92% of the officially recorded gross pledges of $16,230,576.65. $10,163,036.30 is the amount pledged from the country outside of New York and $6,067,540.35 from New York City. Allowing approximately $770,000 for deductions for local campaign expenses and uncollectibles already reported, there remains a balance outstanding of approximately $475,000.

Two-thirds of this outstanding sum is represented in the balances due from three cities, namely New York City, Philadelphia and Boston. A portion of the pledges in these communities, we have been advised, may not be collectible. The remaining one-third of the outstanding balance represents small sums due from a number of scattered communities and is almost entirely collectible. Funds are being received daily on account of 1939 balances in response to our intensive collection effort.

Of the $14,979,000.80 received in cash to date against the 1939 pledges, the following distribution has been made:

Joint Distribution Committee	$7,765,666.67
United Palestine Appeal	3,882,833.33
National Coordinating Committee Fund, Inc. (N.R.S.)	2,600,000.00
Catholic and Protestant Refugee Funds	250,000.00

The sum of $441,187.86 charged for national administration expenses includes the sum set aside to cover the 1939 collection program carried on in 1940.

NEW YORK, N. Y. December 24, 1940

Mr. Henry Montor, Executive Director
United Palestine Appeal, Inc.
41 East 42nd Street
New York, New York

Dear Sir:

We submit herewith a tentative budget for the United Palestine Appeal, Inc. for the year 1941. This is based on a study of the actual expenditures of the United Jewish Appeal, Inc. for the year 1940 and of the United Palestine Appeal, Inc. for the year 1940.

The estimated expenses for the calendar year 1940 for the United Jewish Appeal, Inc. and the United Palestine Appeal, Inc. are as follows:

United Jewish Appeal	$419,521.29
United Palestine Appeal	89,487.11
Total	$509,008.40

The proposed budget of the United Palestine Appeal for the year 1941 calls for an expenditure of $335,100.20.

The first schedule attached to this report gives a summary of all classes of expenditures, showing the amounts spent by the United Jewish Appeal and the United Palestine Appeal in the year 1940 and the estimated budget for the year 1941.

Other schedules attached to the report give the details of all employees of both the United Jewish Appeal and the United Palestine Appeal and show which of these employees will be taken over by the United Palestine Appeal in 1941.

There is also attached a schedule of estimated amount for fieldmen's travelling expenses.

Income and expenditures will be carefully controlled during the year 1941 and a revised budget based on the actual operations will be set up just as soon as all of the operating machinery is properly installed. We believe that we will be able to submit a more detailed and accurate budget by February 15th. This budget therefore should be considered as a budget applicable for the year 1941, of which 1/12 should be appropriated each month for January and February 1941.

We shall also endeavor to prepare a statement showing the amounts received by communities by the United Palestine Appeal during the years 1937 and 1938 and the proportionate share of moneys received from the communities through the United Jewish Appeal in 1939 and 1940 applicable to the United Palestine Appeal. This schedule will be used as a basis for projections of income for the year 1941 and, together with the monthly reports of income and expenses, we shall submit the results of the various campaigns so that performances can be judged against estimates.

We shall be glad to furnish you with any additional information you may require.

Respectfully submitted,

Bernard Reis Company

United Jewish Appeal, Inc.,

New York, N. Y.

Gentlemen:

In accordance with instructions, we have examined the books and records of the United Jewish Appeal, Inc. (for 1939), for the period from the inception of the appeal to December 31, 1940, and herewith submit our report thereon, consisting of:

EXHIBIT A - Statement of Assets and Advances on Account of Allocations at December 31, 1940

EXHIBIT B - Statement of Income and Expenses for the period reviewed

together with three supporting schedules.

The 1939 campaign of the United Jewish Appeal, Inc., represents the unified fund-raising activities for refugees and overseas needs on behalf of:

American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, Inc. (J.D.C.)
United Palestine Appeal, Inc. (U.P.A.)
National Refugee Service, Inc. (N.R.S.) (formerly the National Coordinating Committee, Inc. (N.C.C.))

It was designated as the organization to manage the campaign under an agreement dated December 9, 1938, between American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, Inc., and United Palestine Appeal, Inc., the goal of which was to raise a minimum of $20,000,000.00.

The agreement between J.D.C. and U.P.A. provided that the first $9,500,000.00 to be allocated to the beneficiaries shall be apportioned as follows:

N.R.S. (formerly N.C.C.)	$2,000,000.00
U.P.A.	2,500,000.00
J.D.C.	5,000,000.00
Total	$9,500,000.00

The allocations paid to December 31, 1940, were as follows:

	Payments per agreement of Dec. 9, 1938	Payments on account of allotments by Allocations Committee*	T o t a l
American Jewish Joint Distribu- tion Committee, Inc.	$5,000,000.00	$2,765,666.67	$ 7,765,666.67

National Refugee Service, Inc.	2,000,000.00	600,000.00	2,600,000.00
	$9,500,000.00	$4,748,500.00	$14,248,500.00
Bishop Bernard J. Sheil (on behalf of Catholic refugees) $		$ 125,000.00	$ 125,000.00
Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America (on behalf of Protestant refugees) . .		125,000.00	125,000.00
	$	$ 250,000.00	$ 250,000.00
Total allocations paid to December 31, 1940	$9,500,000.00	$4,998,500.00	$14,498,500.00

*The agreement of December 9, 1938, authorized an Allocations Committee to decide on the disposition of net funds collected in excess of $9,500,000.00; their decision authorized the following payments:

(a) To National Refugee Service, Inc.	$600,000.00
(b) To non-sectarian organizations dealing with Christian refugees.	250,000.00
T o t a l.	$850,000.00

(c) To distribute the next $5,150,000.00 available (the amount in excess of $10,350,000.00, which is the total of the $9,500,000.00, and the $850,000.00 allocations) as follows:

To United Palestine Appeal, Inc.	$1,500,000.00
To American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, Inc.	3,650,000.00
	$5,150,000.00

unless this amount is not realized, in which case, the distribution of the available funds shall be as follows:

To United Palestine Appeal, Inc.	33-1/3%
To American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, Inc.	66-2/3%
	100 %

provided, however, that the amount distributed to either organization, under this procedure, will not exceed $1,500,000.00 to U.P.A. and $3,650,000.00 to J.D. C.

(d) To apportion the amount available for distribution thereafter (i.e., in excess of $15,500,000.00) in the following ratio:

To American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, Inc.	70%
T o t a l	100%

According to data furnished by your statistical department, the gross pledges made by communities to December 31, 1940, aggregated. $16,228,675.25

New York City and other community expenses included therein amounted to 612,679.30

$15,615,995.95

Your controller estimates that other shrinkages thereon would total 285,000.00

Leaving an estimated realizable amount of $15,330,995.95

Less national organization expenses 441,187.86

Estimated balance available for total allocations $14,889,808.09

Less allocations paid to December 31, 1940. 14,498,500.00

Estimated additional amount to be allocated to U.P.A. and J.D.C $ 391,308.09*

*Represented by:

Cash on deposit $ 50,383.83

Pledges receivable, less estimated shrinkages of $285,000.00 340,929.26

$391,313.09

Less deposit held in suspense 5.00

Balance. $391,308.09

On the basis of the foregoing calculations, the estimated amounts distributable to U.P.A. and J.D.C. from the 1939 campaign funds follow:

	Allocations payments to Dec. 31, 1940	Estimated future allocations	T o t a l
U.P.A	$ 3,882,833.33	$117,166.67	$ 4,000,000.00

T o t a l s	$11,648,500.00	$391,308.09	$12,039,808.09*

*These amounts do not include:

- A bequest of $10,000.00 under a will, subject to reduction of $250.00 for legal fees, when and if the bequest is realized.
- One item of an art collection (originally 79 items) received in 1939, which, we understand, is not readily salable, due to its unwieldy size.
- Collections received by Jewish National Fund, Inc., subject to the U.J.A. agreement, which had not been remitted to U.J.A. or included in pledges receivable.

APPENDIX: THE CONSOLIDATED BUDGET

PART I

WHY $12,000,000

The year 1941 has unique importance for Palestine and for all Jews. It is not only a year in which war is striking at the shores of the Palestine Jewish community, but one in which the accumulated needs of past crises have mounted to new proportions.

Palestine stands today as the one community in the world which has not only absorbed the greatest number of Jews since Hitler came to power, but which welcomes new thousands of refugees from the oppression of Europe. Palestine Jewry, which now numbers some 550,000 Jews—the largest free Jewish community in the world fighting by the side of England—has accepted and absorbed some 300,000 Jews of Europe since 1932.

In view of the necessity for saving as many Jews as possible, the United Palestine Appeal is today required not only to assist those who have already arrived in Palestine, but also to aid in the transportation of some 8,100 certificate holders and their dependents who represent some 13,000 hapless human beings ready to flee the wreckage of their past, if only American Jewry provides sufficient money. Early in January, 1941, the United Palestine Appeal initiated this phase of its work by financing the transportation of some 995 Jewish men, women and children from Lithuania to Palestine. The project involving an expenditure of $175,000, of which the United Palestine Appeal furnished $145,000, necessitated travel by some to Japan via the Trans-Siberian railroad and a long and tortuous voyage to Palestine by way of India. The condition of the Jews in Europe is so disastrous that the U.P.A. must be prepared with funds to save everyone possible who can be snatched from European tragedy into a new life in Palestine.

The needs of the U.P.A. in 1941 have forced the adoption of a nationwide quota of $12,000,000. The achievement of that goal is of vital importance if American Jewry is to rally to the democratic cause in which Palestine is playing an increasing part. The American government has firmly committed itself to the policy of "all out" aid to England in the struggle against Hitler. American Jews may well draw a parallel from the action of their government. It is our responsibility as Jews to bolster the defense of Palestine which is actively assisting England in this war.

THE DEMANDS OF 1941

In brief, what are these needs? They consist in maintaining the opportunity for immigration of thousands who are seeking desperately to escape from Europe; in enlarging the productive capacity of Palestine's agriculture and industry, to speed up her contribution to Empire civil and military requirements; and in actively pressing forward a program of land purchase in which large sums have already been invested and for which additional amounts must be provided if the original investment is not to be lost.

The objective of $12,000,000 must be weighed in the light of more than the needs of Palestine alone. It must be considered as the major source of support which Palestine can anticipate this year. For so devastating has been the effect of the war upon Jews in Europe that countries which once took a significant part in the upbuilding of Palestine, have today been removed from the possibility of giving further aid.

There is every reason to anticipate that American Jews, once realizing that the fate of Palestine is unalterably tied up with the fate of all Jews, and that this worldwide war has especial meaning to the Jews who were its first victims, will raise the sums which the emergency demands. The necessity for giving to Palestine far greater amounts than any we have been accustomed to provide in the past, arises out of the following major factors:

1. The Collapse of European Jewry

Before the war began, the Funds supported by the U.P.A. received an important part of their contributions from European countries. Up until 1937 the share which continental Europe bore in the budgets of the Jewish National Fund and the Palestine Foundation Fund, the main beneficiaries of the United Palestine Appeal, was 30.6%. Great Britain, Palestine, the Far East, and South Africa offered a further 15%. It is quite evident that European countries outside of Great Britain are presently unable to give any help to Palestine. Their former contribution of nearly a third must now be written off. Great Britain, Palestine, the Far East and South Africa, although free from Hitler domination, are nonetheless seriously affected by the war. It is impossible to expect that they will continue their contributions on the previous scale.

Immediately before their final collapse, some of the smaller countries of Western Europe temporarily increased their contributions. After the Nazi occupation, these countries were cut off from any connection with Palestine. Any contributions from them in 1941 are out of the question.

Europe has collapsed as an area of giving to Palestine. That removes immediately nearly one-third of the monies formerly forthcoming. Other countries are seriously affected by the war. To the United States is left the supreme task of providing by far the major proportion of the monies which were once made available by other nations but which must now be considered lost by any evaluation of the Jewish position in Europe. This does not mean that based upon standards set by other Jewish communities, American Jewry is being asked to provide a disproportionately generous sum.

It may be helpful to compare the contributions to the Palestine Foundation Fund and the Jewish National Fund from the United States and from South Africa, two countries in which the Jewish population enjoys approximately the same standard of living.

The following table shows the standard of contributions of American Jewry as against that of South African Jewry since the beginning of 1921. It indicates a wide divergence in generosity; and shows that from 1921 to 1937, South African Jews on a per capita basis gave fifteen times as much to Palestine as did those of the United States. In the period 1938 to 1940, despite the increase in American contributions, South African Jewry still contributed eight times as much toward the upbuilding of Palestine as did the American Jewish community.

1. The Palestinian Pound was computed in this table at $4.50.
2. The figures for 1940 are taken up to October 1, and the period 1938-1940 therefore includes 2 3/4 years.

The standard of living among Jewish communities of Europe was habitually far below that of American Jewry. The magnitude of European help during critical years for Jewish communities on that continent indicates, however, that American Jewish generosity can still expand greatly before it reaches the point of sacrifice which has characterized European help.

Before Hitler's advent to power, the United States made available about 40% of the amounts given to the Palestine Foundation Fund and the Jewish National Fund. In the past two years American participation was approximately 60%.

Today with the loss of all support from Europe, the American proportion must rise to at least 80%, if minimal requirements are to be met.

2. The Decrease in Private Activities in Palestine

The extent of the opportunity which Palestine offers to the immigrant Jew must depend not only upon the direct expenditure of public funds, but also upon the private undertakings which are stimulated by the hope of profitable investment and by general economic conditions. In wartime it cannot be expected that private capital should assume the extraordinary burdens which are properly the function of governments. On that account, the public Funds must make the decision to initiate large-scale projects which can provide employment for those who have lost their jobs through economic dislocation and thus to maintain the structure of the community on an even keel.

In normal times, the upbuilding of Palestine was a process in which Jewish private capital indirectly cooperated with national institutions drawing their funds from contributions. When private investors bought irrigated land and planted citrus groves upon it; when they built homes and apartment houses, erected factories and workshops, and founded companies for exploitation of Palestine's natural resources, they created thereby an increased demand for labor and substantially assisted in the upbuilding of the National Home. In other words, the flow of Jewish private capital to Palestine made easier the task of the Jewish Agency in furthering all phases of Jewish reconstructive effort.

Toward the stimulation of private enterprise the share borne by the United States is not quite so notable as in the creation of public projects. Most of the private capital which materially helped the Jewish Agency came from Europe. Poland, Rumania, Austria and the Balkan countries were the principal sources of support before 1933, even though their economic position was in no way comparable to the status of American Jewry. After 1933 German Jews who were able to transmit part of their money to Palestine shared substantially also. Today, throughout the continent of Europe, Jews have been denuded of property, and wherever resources still exist, restrictions are so binding that transference to Palestine is impossible. If the possibility of encouraging further private investment from abroad is seriously considered, the entire continent of Europe under Nazi and Soviet domination must be left out of the picture.

In the case of money already transferred to Palestine, the handicaps under which private initiative operates in wartime are brought to bear. Accordingly, the Jewish Agency must assume a much greater responsibility for Palestine's general development. It must close gaps created by the lack of capital for urgently needed enterprises which can absorb refugees. It must help provide British armies in the Near East with products made in Palestine. It must stimulate on a scale hitherto unnecessary, public and private employment alike so that the entire population may share to the full in the defense of democracy.

3. The Demands of the War

Haifa and Tel Aviv have been bombed. Scores of Jews have been killed by Italian planes. Yet Palestine has not been invaded, and the danger of such invasion has materially decreased as the result of British victories in the Mediterranean. It is, however, a vital base in the struggle against the Axis. The entire pattern of its economic life has been gravely affected by the war.

Palestine is the only country in the world where a closely knit Jewish community fulfills with its own resources most of the tasks usually assumed by governments. The Jewish Agency for Palestine, with the loyal cooperation of the Vaad Leumi (The National Council of Palestinian Jews) supports education, relief, health, defense, commerce, industry and agriculture. It acts as the Jewish self-government in the restoration of the Jewish National Home. The war has naturally created great new demands which would apply even were Palestine technically neutral. Such countries as Sweden and Switzerland, although not militarily involved in the conflict, have found it necessary to double their budgets in order to protect their economies from the repercussions of closed frontiers.

The Jewish self-government in Palestine, however, is faced with a problem which does not confront other countries. Sweden and Switzerland can meet the increase in their budgets by taxes, by forced loans, and if necessary by a resort to inflation. The Jewish Agency for Palestine can rely only upon the generosity of world Jewry. The phrase "world Jewry" has been sadly narrowed down, principally to American Jewry.

Thousands of Jewish volunteers have already enrolled in the ranks of the fighting British army. In January, 1941, more than 8,000 Jews were serving in all branches of the forces. The industry of the nation is being girded to provide necessities for the soldiers. The flow of penniless refugees into the country has not been stopped. Increased expenditures are vital. Relief payments have attained new high levels as a result of the dislocation caused by the war.

Relief in Palestine is a new phenomenon. But it has a meaning far different from the relief given as a palliative to the Jews of Europe. It is necessary because the country has not yet been able to absorb all those who have come to Palestine to find the freedom they lost in Europe.

The rescue of a refugee stranded in Vilna through funds provided by the U.P.A. represents in a sense a kind of relief. Nor there can be any question about the urgency of relief needs which have made necessary the provision of assistance to some 67,000 Jews a month during the past few months.

4. The Effects of the White Paper

The policy of the White Paper instituted by the Chamberlain Government in May 1939 has brought with it a great increase in budgetary needs. Originally issued with the idea of appeasing the Arabs, the White Paper is still regarded by the British as officially in force. Stubbornly adhered to by reactionary spirits in the Colonial Office, the White Paper is the last remnant of a discredited system which has been eliminated within England itself and is being gradually abandoned throughout the Empire.

Clearly directed against Jewish progress in Palestine, the policy of the White Paper, meeting the growing opposition of influential British leaders, can in no way paralyze Jewish progress. Despite the restrictive provisions of the White Paper, Jews can still buy much land in Palestine at favorable terms. We still can absorb an important number of immigrants and refugees. It is our deep conviction that even in the course of the present war, we shall succeed in enlarging the scale of our upbuilding activities and creating increasing employment opportunities for the refugees who continue to arrive at the shores of Palestine.

Experience has shown time and again that Jewish immigrants to Palestine create their own employment opportunities after a period of readjustment. By sharply reducing unemployment, Jews will have made a great step in the combating of the general policy of the White Paper.

Aware of our potential strength, based on the great needs of the Jewish people and its irresistible urge to Palestine, we confidently expect to overcome the effects of the White Paper policy. Even if only to effect a change in that policy, we must speed up our land buying and colonization activities and make extraordinary efforts to build up new labor-absorbing industries. This certainly requires increased expenditures.

5. The Needs Which Have Accumulated in the Light of Insufficient Budgets in Previous Years

Although 1941 brings with it requirements of unprecedented scope, it must be considered as a year in which the accumulated burdens of the past have piled up to intensify current needs. In the past three years, as contributions from European Jewry dwindled, the funds American Jews provided were wholly insufficient to maintain the budgets of the Jewish Agency and the Jewish National Fund. Accordingly, colonies were founded with insufficient capital and equipment, housing projects of crucial importance were delayed, the settlement of outlying areas was postponed in many cases and the opportunity for making most effective use of the resources of Palestine was restricted.

Today the results of those restrictions have borne fruit in problems of exceptional urgency. Immigrants who possess certificates for entry into Palestine must now be speeded out of Europe if they are ever to reach safety. Too long we have allowed them to remain in Europe despite their heartrending appeals for help. It is quite logical, therefore, that the present budgets of the Jewish Agency and the Jewish National Fund include items which should properly have been disposed of two and three years ago.

6. More Land Needed

The land which the Jewish National Fund buys in Palestine serves both a present and a long-range purpose. Its immediate value lies in its availability for productive use. Every dunam of land brought into Jewish ownership can immediately be employed for the raising of food which has a special importance in the light of transportation difficulties caused by the war. In addition, the land which the Jews are buying in Palestine is being obtained to give Palestine Jewry a firm foothold in its own country. It is more than a coincidence that the extent of recognized Jewish influence in Palestine has gone hand in hand with the area in Jewish possession.

The primary objective of the entire program of Palestine upbuilding has been the resettlement of Jews upon a healthy economic basis with a division of economic functions more normal than that prevailing in the constricted ghettos of Europe. As a consequence, Palestine Jewry which numbers some 550,000 includes 137,000 men, women and children directly dependent upon agriculture for a livelihood. This is the largest proportion in agriculture of any Jewish community in the world and has been achieved only because land owned by Jews has created a new Jewish peasant stock.

But the trend toward an expansion of Jewish initiative into farming will be stopped and reversed if land purchase does not proceed at a faster pace. In 1922 when the Jews in Palestine numbered some 83,000, the Jewish-owned land per capita was some 6.7 dunams. By 1941 the average per capita has declined to less than 3 dunams. In other words, the large-scale immigration of the past few years has not been paralleled by land buying on a comparable basis.

Dr. Walter C. Lowdermilk, the Assistant Chief of the Soil Conservation Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, has called the work of Palestine colonization a "remarkable restoration and reclamation work." He points out "land has other values than its agricultural products." He shows that the colonists "are demonstrating that land in the final analysis is an integral part of the corporate existence of a nation, even as its people are. If the Jews are permitted to carry out this magnificent restoration and redemption work of the wasted lands of Palestine, they will have set a Messianic example of the possibilities of the restoration of the wasted lands of North Africa and the Near East which have in the past been so badly damaged by the inroads of the desert peoples and their herds."

There is a more immediate value, however, in the purchase of land by the Jewish National Fund. In 1937, its properties were appraised. The capital investment of the Jewish National Fund, excluding loans, securities, investments in water companies, etc., totaled some £P.4,183,000, the original cost. The properties were appraised at a current valuation of £P.6,040,000. The Jewish National Fund is a wise and prudent purchaser of land. It obtains its properties at a fair price, and undertakes immediate restorative work, thus materially adding to the worth of the soil and contributing to the wealth of the entire country.

The Jewish National Fund has already made substantial payment on a total of 198,000 dunams of land. It is this land for which payment must be completed if the investment already made is not to be lost. The average price of a dunam of land in Palestine today is £P.10.8, which would mean that the full cost of 198,000 dunams would be more than £P.2,000,000. But since only £P.976,000 is required for the purchase of these areas, it is clear that an investment already made of more than £P.1,000,000 or $4,000,000 can be protected only if the additional £P.976,000 is made available. What is involved is the provision by American Jewry of less than half the purchase price of a large area of land which can be brought into immediate production and complete Jewish ownership during the coming year.

The commitments of the Jewish National Fund represent the result of large-scale buying undertaken after the issuance of the law restricting further Jewish land purchase. It is essential that every opportunity for increased Jewish land holdings be seized in order that colonization may continue despite the White Paper.

Paradoxical as it may seem, the issuance of the land law increased the opportunities for acquiring land. Arab owners, afraid of a stricter application in the future, have been eager to sell their unprofitable holdings as soon as possible. Land prices today are far below their peak levels of 1934-1936 and have dropped considerably since the issuance of the White Paper.

The following table showing the decline in Jewish per capita land holdings indicates the necessity for intensified land purchase in order to re-settle on the soil as many as possible of the new immigrants. From 1922, when Jewish-owned land totaled 557,000 dunams until 1941, the area under Jewish ownership multiplied only three times, whereas the population in the same period increased nearly sevenfold.

PART II

THE BUDGET ITEMIZED

1. IMMIGRATION TO PALESTINE AND THE REFUGEE PROBLEM

Life in Europe for millions of Jews has become so intolerable that immigration to Palestine is today their only hope. As a result, Palestine has absorbed some 28,000 Jewish refugees since the outbreak of the European war even though the disruption of shipping and the closing of land routes have made the journey most arduous. Some have arrived in unseaworthy cattle boats. They have ventured into stormy seas, often infested by mines, and have traveled for months until at last they have arrived in Palestine.

The official government figures for immigration show a smaller proportion of refugees who have entered Palestine. It is necessary, however, to add that these figures do not include all who have come in.

For the twenty years beginning January, 1920 and ending December, 1939, a total of 371,000 Jewish immigrants entered Palestine. Incomplete figures for 1940 show immigration of some 20,000 more. During the past twenty-one years, the total of Jewish immigrants who arrived in Palestine was at least 392,000.

DURING THE NINE YEARS FROM 1932 UP TO 1940, NEARLY 300,000 JEWISH IMMIGRANTS ENTERED PALESTINE. DURING THIS IMPORTANT PERIOD, PALESTINE TOOK FIRST PLACE AS A HAVEN FOR REFUGEES FROM HITLERISM. Second place was taken by the United States, which absorbed, from July 1, 1932 to June 30, 1940, a total of 129,078 authorized Jewish immigrants.

Since the beginning of the present war, the average expenditure of the Jewish Agency upon a new immigrant increased greatly in comparison with previous years. Many of the present refugees, after harrowing experiences in Hitler's concentration camps, followed by an unusually difficult journey involving months on unsanitary, incredibly crowded ships, must be brought back to health. Nearly all of the new arrivals are penniless. Children must be maintained at public expense until their parents are able to get work. Besides, the economy of Palestine is still partly dislocated by the war and the severance of normal exports. True, even the present war-time refugees have finally been able to find a useful place in Palestine economy. This is a remarkable achievement. The process of absorption requires, however, much more time and money than normally. As a result, the per capita expenditure on the refugees who now come to Palestine is about £P.10 ($40), in comparison with £P.2 in peace-time. The per capita contribution from Jewish public funds is, even at the higher level, only about one-tenth of the amount now spent on an average Jewish refugee in the United States. Should the number of refugees absorbed in Palestine in 1941 total only 20,000, an expenditure of £P.200,000 ($800,000) would be involved. The budget of the Jewish Agency provides only $400,000 for this purpose, which represents a severe curtailment on the basis of expectable needs.

In addition to the expenditures on refugees within Palestine, the United Palestine Appeal must provide funds for transportation of the 8,100 Jews possessing certificates for legal entry into the country. Most of these people were caught in the vortex of the war in Eastern Europe. They suddenly found themselves under Nazi and Soviet rule and thereby deprived of money set aside for their transportation. The impossibility of using the previous short sea-routes greatly increased their transportation costs. Whatever zlotys or rubles they may have, are not being accepted as payment for steamship tickets. This is a new emergency situation entirely due to the present war.

We cannot leave these people to the cruel fate which is in store for them if their visas expire. We cannot cut off their only path to salvation because of lack of money. Early in January, 1941, the United Palestine Appeal made possible the transportation of 995 Jewish students, mothers, agricultural pioneers, rabbis, and workmen from Lithuania to Palestine. The total cost of their transportation, involving a round-about trip by way of Japan, was $175,000, of which $145,000 was supplied by the United Palestine Appeal. This is a totally new kind of expenditure which was not provided for in the Palestine budgets of this year. The minimum help for the other 8,100 persons who possess all legal documents for entry into Palestine, would require another million dollars. By providing in its budget $700,000 for this purpose, the United Palestine Appeal has estimated its needs at the lowest possible level.

2. EXPENDITURES FOR RELIEF

In normal times, Palestine does not require money for relief needs. The great majority of Palestine's population are able and eager to work, and are proud of their independence. The small percentage of people who are in need of charity are taken care of by local communities and Palestine's own self-government - the Vaad Leumi (National Council of Palestinian Jews). But these are not normal times. The war, interrupting the usual exports of the country and sharply curtailing the supply of raw materials, was a heavy blow to Palestine's Jewish population. True, the Jewish community of Palestine has shown an astonishing vitality and ability to adapt itself to unforeseeable situations. Yet widespread unemployment was unavoidable. Although a quickening of the industrial pace is now being noted, there is still much misery which requires public help.

In 1940, aid to the unemployed, affecting about 60,000 persons, or 12% of Palestine's Jewish population, totaled about £P.240,000 ($960,000), of which some £P.55,000 ($220,000) was contributed by the Jewish Agency. The balance was given by the Palestine Government, the National Council of Palestinian Jews, and local communities. It is a fair assumption that in 1941 the total number of unemployed will remain about the same as in 1940. On one hand industry is picking up, and the supplying of the British armies fighting in the East provides additional employment. On the other hand, the number of Jews in Palestine has increased considerably, and many among the newly arrived refugees will be subjected to intermittent unemployment. Even if unemployment is reduced, a greater number will be thrown on public relief because of exhaustion of their previous resources.

Besides, the Jewish communities of Palestine, burdened by increased expenditures, will hardly be able to contribute for relief as much as they did in the last year. In such circumstances, the expenditure of £P.90,000 ($360,000), included in the budget of the Jewish Agency for 1941, is a very conservative estimate.

The standards of relief in Palestine are extremely low. Single men on relief receive from $3.00 to $3.50 per month. Married men without children get an average of $6 per month. Tel Aviv spends on its unemployed 10¢ a day. In general, direct relief has affected, since the outbreak of war, 45,000 people in an average month. In January, 1940, aid was given to 57,370 persons. By the end of the summer of 1940, the average number of relief recipients had reached 60,000.

The expenditures of the Jewish Agency for indirect relief (work-relief) greatly exceed its expenditure for direct relief. They include guarantees for loans granted to certain settlements for road-building. A typical case is a guarantee of £P.550 for a loan of £P.1,800 granted by Bitzur, the public works arm of the Jewish Agency, to the Kfar Saba colony for road-building. That loan was made conditional upon a local investment of an equal sum. The total involved in the whole project, £P.3,600, created 7,400 working days of employment. A working day for each laborer on this project will cost the Jewish Agency at least 75 mils, equivalent to 30¢, even if no part of the guarantee is returned.

3. PRESERVATION OF THE CITRUS INDUSTRY

Among the extraordinary expenditures caused directly or indirectly by the War, the relief which must be given to the citrus industry is one of the most urgent. Palestine's citrus industry is the chief victim of the economic dislocation caused by the War. The sea-ways through the Mediterranean, normally used for the export of Palestine's citrus crop, are closed. Besides, Great Britain, because of the present scarcity of shipping, cannot provide any considerable tonnage for Palestine's citrus crop. The export of Palestine's oranges and grapefruit, which amounted in the season of 1938-1939 to 15,300,000 boxes, will hardly reach 3,000,000 boxes during the present season.

Many growers who had planted with insufficient capital, and are indebted up to their borrowing capacity, are now unable to continue the cultivation of their groves. This applies particularly to residents of Poland and other collapsed areas in Europe who invested all their savings in small groves in Palestine, and cannot even communicate with the people to whom they entrusted their cultivation. As a result, a number of groves are not being cultivated and some remain unirrigated. The tree diseases and pests which are an unavoidable result of such neglect represent a serious menace to the entire citrus belt of Palestine. The minimum maintenance of such neglected groves must be therefore considered a community problem. It may be done by relief workers so that a double purpose may be served: the preservation of the citrus industry, and provision of employment.

The Jewish Agency cannot be indifferent to such a situation. It bears some responsibility towards the harassed small growers, and cannot, besides, overlook the importance of an industry which employs many thousands of Jewish workers. It is, therefore, setting aside a minimum of £P.200,000 ($800,000) to prevent the abandonment of neglected groves in order to retain a major source of Palestine's exports. Here we have a striking illustration of the semi-governmental character of the Jewish Agency.

There is no doubt that if Palestine's citrus industry is preserved intact through the present war emergency, it is bound to play a great part in the post-war economy of the country. In the United States, the consumption of oranges increased during the last ten years (from 1929 to 1939) by 130%, and of grapefruit by 213%, in the period of the greatest depression in American history. If only Europe's progress had not been crippled by Fascism, anarchy and war, the market for Palestine's citrus fruit would be practically unlimited. We may bitterly regret it after the present war, if we now allow such a valuable investment to deteriorate.

Here are the most important figures on Palestine's citrus industry:

Area of plantation	145,000 dunams
Total investment	$80,000,000
Pre-war exports (1938-39)	15,300,000 boxes
Value of the crop	$32,000,000
Number of workers (excluding families)	28,000

Palestine takes second place in world citrus exports - after Spain.

4. LAND BUYING

The agricultural base upon which an economically sound National Home must be built has become progressively more narrow during the past few years. In Holland and Belgium, countries most densely populated and industrialized, there is more land per capita than is held by Jews in Palestine. The following table indicates the area available in terms of population and shows as well how many dunams it would be necessary for the Jewish National Fund to buy if a comparable ratio of land per inhabitant were to be achieved in Palestine:

LAND BASIS OF JEWISH PALESTINE AND OTHER COUNTRIES

	Area in Dunams	Population	Dunams Per Capita	Additional dunams in Palestine necessary to establish like ratio
Jewish land in Palestine	1,518,000	550,000	2.7
Belgium	30,497,000	8,386,553	3.7	420,000
Holland	32,892,000	8,728,569	3.8	472,500
New Jersey	19,235,840	4,148,562	4.6	892,500
Massachusetts	20,579,840	4,312,332	4.8	997,500
Switzerland	40,690,000	4,218,000	9.7	3,675,000

Any diminution in the program of land purchase could react only unfavorably upon the whole structure of the Jewish National Home. Land purchasing means progress. The freezing of present levels of land ownership can mean only a dangerous deterioration in the character of Jewish Palestine inasmuch as immigration continues and the population is on the rise.

The following table shows actual purchases of land by the Jewish National Fund since 1922:

PURCHASES OF LAND BY THE JEWISH NATIONAL FUND

	Dunams		Dunams
1922-23	18,459	1931-32	8,305
1923-24	40,225	1932-33	32,371
1924-25	33,090	1933-34	12,575
1925-26	13,744	1934-35	16,524
1926-27	18,779	1935-36	13,161
1927-28	5,433	1936-37	13,507
1928-29	59,549	1937-38	34,223
1929-30	16,987	1938-39	53,499
1930-31	9,978	1939-40	43,180
		TOTAL	443,589

The average of land prices during the past eighteen years may be conveniently divided into four periods:- one, from 1922 to 1929; the second, from 1929 to 1933; the third, from 1933 to 1937, and the fourth and last from 1937 to 1940. This will give the following table:

AVERAGE LAND PRICES PAID BY THE JEWISH NATIONAL FUND

Years	Dunams	Cost (Incl. Amelioration)	Average per Dunam
1922-1929	189,279	1,128,037	5.9
1929-1933	67,641	741,306	11.0
1933-1937	55,767	1,161,701	20.8
1937-1940	130,902	1,405,074	10.8
	443,589	4,436,118	10.0

It is essential that new areas be brought into Jewish ownership if the sound division of Palestine's economic life is to be preserved. If land buying were stopped, Palestine could not absorb any considerable number of refugees. Even were the majority of the present refugees to be settled in the cities, none could be productively employed unless a certain number could be simultaneously colonized on the land. The experience of Palestine shows that at least one family must be settled on the soil to open up new immigration opportunities for three additional families in the cities and for auxiliary work in the villages. Agricultural colonization of Palestine is a paramount condition for the acceptance of a great number of Jewish refugees. Should land buying be stopped, colonization would cease and the absorptive capacity of Palestine would drop to the zero point.

Land in Palestine is not a commodity which can be bought "over the counter." Purchase is a long and tedious process, sometimes requiring many years. In many cases, land recently transferred to the National Fund was the object of negotiations a generation ago. Deposits on certain tracts of land were made fifteen and twenty years ago, and the land is still not in complete Jewish possession. These are the conditions under which the Jews are forced to work. The creation of a national home is not an easy task.

5. RURAL COLONIZATION

The increase in land buying automatically requires a larger scale of colonization. In a normal country where land property is fully secured under all circumstances, the establishment of new settlements could be delayed in time of great financial stress. In Palestine, such a policy must by all means be avoided. No deed, however iron-clad, is a guarantee against squatters and dubious tenants who, relying on the pro-Arab attitude of British officials, might occupy uncultivated Jewish land. Besides, the Palestine law, based on old Turkish legislation, does not recognize absolute ownership if the land is not being cultivated by the new owners after a limited period of time. As a result of this situation, Jewish institutions cannot afford to put recently bought land in jeopardy because of lack of means to colonize it. Their established policy is therefore to settle immediately any tract of land which comes into Jewish possession. The fifteen new settlements provided for in the budget of 1941 are an irreducible minimum.

In addition to new settlements for which $500,000 (£P.125,000) is provided in the budget of this year, the Jewish Agency is faced with the urgent necessity of providing the colonies established after 1936 with agricultural machinery, water installations and a minimum of housing. Most of the sixty settlements founded since the outbreak of the Arab terror (April, 1936) were established with insufficient means. Forced to overcome the political dangers involved in the prolonged terror, the Jewish Agency had to accelerate by every means the tempo of colonization. Many settlements established in that period were actually labor camps without housing and with an extremely limited amount of agricultural machinery. Because of inadequate contributions from abroad, and especially from America, final colonization had to be postponed from year to year. No further delay is now possible. This is the explanation of the £P.350,000 included for this purpose in the budget for 1941.

It is interesting to note that in spite of the makeshift arrangements made at the time of their establishment, the sixty settlements founded after 1936 are showing great strength and display an amazing ability to grow even under most unfavorable circumstances. Their population is now much greater than at the time of their foundation, and the area cultivated is increasing from year to year. The same applies to crop production and animal husbandry. Here we have a striking proof of the general rule that colonization in Palestine, even if expensive at its beginning, proves to be the cheapest after several years of existence. When a Jewish settlement is established in Palestine, it absorbs every year new members for whom no additional money from public funds is required.

In comparing Jewish colonization costs per capita in various lands, the figures for the first year are not an accurate guide. The real test lies in the number of persons living in the colonies after an extended period. It has been the experience of other colonizing projects that, although initial costs may be low, the settlement after a period of years has become expensive in point of the numbers actually engaged in agriculture upon it. The colonies in Palestine have shown such flexibility in production and population as to make their initial costs more than justified.

The following table shows the progress of the settlements established after 1936 with insufficient means:

PRODUCTION OF NEW SETTLEMENTS

	1938	1939
Cereals (tons)	830	2,500
Fodder (tons)	1,683	7,511
Vegetables (tons)	99	737
Potatoes (tons)	185	451
Eggs (units)	1,820,000	5,029,000
Milk (litres)	800,000	1,457,000
Honey (litres)	6,400	13,120

Established originally with 4,800 settlers, the sixty colonies founded between April 1936 and March 1940, contained 9,450 inhabitants in July 1940. In other words, at an average age of only thirty months, they had doubled their population.

Another illuminating table shows the land cultivated by the new settlements in relation to their whole area. As most of the land bought for these colonies had lain waste for generations, the attainment of a high percentage of cultivation requires much time and energy:

NUMBER OF SETTLEMENTS	AGE	% OF CULTIVATED LAND
23	one year or less	49%
17	two years	58%
14	three years	65%
6	four years	91%

On the face of this record, money appropriated for further Jewish colonization in Palestine is certainly the best investment from the standpoint of our national future.

6. PROMOTION OF INDUSTRY AND TRADE

In normal times, the budget of the Jewish Agency for urban colonization is much lower than its expenditure for rural development. The help given to industry up to the last year was mainly limited to research and information. In most cases, private capital started new industries without asking for support from the Jewish Agency.

The war and economic complications following in its wake created, however, a new situation. The flow of private capital into Palestine ceased, bank credits were curtailed, and the importation of much-needed raw materials became difficult. Without Jewish Agency guarantees for industrial credits given after the outbreak of war, unemployment in Palestine today would be at least twice as large. The guarantee fund of the Jewish Agency for raw material orders and certain exports proved likewise to be a very important help in preserving the economic balance of the country. Up to now, the guarantees of the Jewish Agency for the importation of raw materials were not taken up because no losses were incurred by the banks on credits extended for such imports. These guarantees require, however, an actual outlay of money, and their increase must therefore be reflected in the budget of the coming months.

The Jews of Palestine are putting at the disposition of the British army in the East an ever-increasing quantity of products needed for the continuance of the War. The new textile industry of Palestine, the cement factories, chemical plants, mechanical repair shops, and many other important branches of industry are already engaged in war work. The Jewish Agency is highly interested in increasing this effort, both for its actual bearing on the war in the East and also for the great importance which an enlarged industry would certainly assume in the solution of the post-war immigration problems. In many cases, the establishment of new and greatly needed industries with bright prospects is dependent upon Agency participation. The situation is similar to that existing on a much larger scale in our great defense campaign in the United States. The Agency cannot shirk its responsibility. This is the justification for the $940,000 (£P.235,000) assigned for industrial development in the budget for 1941. A part of it, $400,000, will form a revolving fund for industrial development; another part, $300,000, will be used as a guarantee for the purchase of raw materials; and $200,000 is the share of the Jewish Agency in the Industrial Bank founded by the Association of Palestine Manufacturers. Besides, $40,000 is assigned in the budget of 1941 for promotion of home industries and small handicrafts. The actual employment created by this modest expenditure is much larger than might be expected; work will be provided for several thousand people.

7. EMPLOYMENT AND VOCATIONAL TRAINING

The labor organizations of Palestine are eager to provide employment for newly arrived immigrants. This is a function they have undertaken in order to assure continuance of immigration and of opportunity for those who come in. They are ready, if necessary, to suffer temporary hardships to insure a greater influx of Jewish immigrants as the only guarantee for their future security and well-being. They are actively engaged in looking for new employment fields and in training newly-arrived immigrants for new and unusual tasks unfamiliar to Jews in the Diaspora. The Histadruth, the General Federation of Jewish Labor in Palestine, takes a leading part in this activity.

The Jewish Agency is naturally greatly interested in these efforts. It encourages them by helping to bear the considerable expenditures involved in such wholesale training and by cooperating in the search for new outlets of enterprise. In some cases, it assumes certain financial burdens which make possible increased employment of Jewish workers. It covers, for instance, the deficits frequently incurred on government contracts accepted by Jewish labor cooperatives. These contracts are usually offered at very low prices because they are based on the employment of unorganized and very cheap Arab labor. To assure their justified share in such contracts, Jewish labor cooperatives must sometimes bear deficits, and these deficits are in all fairness shared by the Agency.

An interesting example of the Agency's participation in labor expenses is the small subsidy given by it to owners of Jewish citrus groves to enable them to maintain employment of the comparatively more expensive Jewish labor through the present period of distress. The daily wage of a Jewish common laborer in the citrus belt now amounts to 190 mils (76 cents at the present rate of exchange), in comparison to the 120 or 130 mils for which Arab laborers are willing to work. Under an agreement with the Jewish Agency, the Jewish citrus growers in the valley of Sharon are getting 30 mils per worker per day to sustain the living standard of their employees. Thus, with a comparatively small expenditure, the Agency has been able to keep active one of the most important labor markets in the country.

The Jewish Agency participates likewise in the maintenance of employment agencies. In the cities, the employment agencies are operated by the Histadruth and affiliated labor groups. In some villages, however, these employment bureaus are maintained jointly, on the basis of parity, by the workers and employers.

Another means of increasing employment lies in the guarantees given by the Jewish Agency for credits on road building. Such roads are vital not only for economic reasons, but for security as well. Each guarantee is conditional upon a much greater cash outlay by the settlement concerned.

On the same basis, the Agency participates in housing activities, especially in cases where homes are being built for low-salaried workers or newly-arrived immigrants who are handicapped by limited earnings. In assisting such housing projects, the Agency achieves a triple purpose. It creates new employment opportunities; it provides housing for the poorer strata of the Jewish population and it helps to raise the sanitary levels in the country. The most important project included in the budget of the Agency for 1941 is the enlargement of the harbor of Tel Aviv for which £P.50,000 ($200,000) is appropriated. As in other building activities of this kind, the participation of the Agency is matched by a much larger expenditure of the local community. The importance of this project cannot be overestimated.

For all these undertakings, the budget of 1941 provides £P.260,000, the equivalent of $1,040,000. A great part of this expenditure can be actually considered work relief. Here, the Jewish Agency does on a much smaller scale - and with a much smaller rate of expenditure - some of the work achieved by the WPA and the USHA in the United States.

8. FISHING, AVIATION, MARITIME TRADES

A most important function of the Jewish Agency consists in introducing young Jews to branches of labor and national economy from which Jews were estranged in Europe. A similar task is the training of the growing youth of Palestine in trades and professions created by recent technical progress.

One of the most promising "forgotten" trades to which Palestine's youth is being introduced is fishing. With the help of the Jewish Agency, fishing activities in Palestine were enlarged by introducing motorships and mechanical devices to catch fish in the open sea. The Lake of Galilee, naturally rich in fish species, is being gradually converted into an important source of sea food by systematic increase and improvement of its fish resources. Lake Huleh, the Lake Meron of the Bible, which recently came under Jewish control after the acquisition of the "Huleh concession", is also being exploited. Finally, artificial lakes for fresh water species were successfully built in the neighborhood of Haifa.

A still more important employment opportunity, especially for newly-arrived immigrants, exists in maritime trades. Before the present war, all sea traffic to and from Palestine was in non-Jewish and mainly Italian hands. It is a well-known fact that the profits derived by the Italian Line from immigrant traffic to Palestine helped to cover the deficits of its luxury ships in the Atlantic Ocean. The citrus crop from Palestine likewise proved to be very profitable for Scandinavian and other foreign ship companies.

The Jews of Palestine are intent upon transporting their citrus crop and other exports in Jewish bottoms. This is the long-range purpose of the intensive training in maritime trade. The Port of Tel Aviv is manned exclusively by Jewish labor, and many Jewish sailors, stevedores and other maritime workers are busy in the important harbor of Haifa. New cadres of qualified seamen are being trained by the maritime school there. When the war is over, Jewish Palestine will be ready to man its own ships connecting it with the outside world, provided that Jewish capital from abroad is ready to assume its proper share. Of course, this important undertaking could not be financed with public money. The training of the necessary human material is, however, indisputably a public task. Non-Jewish ship companies cannot be expected to accept Jewish apprentices, thus preparing the ground for the penetration of Jewish competitors into maritime trades.

Due to its geographic position, Palestine is predestined to become one of the most important aviation centers in the world. Already some 1,500 Jews are serving in various branches of the R.A.F. Important employment opportunities in aviation can be opened to the Jewish people. Mechanics are being trained for handling airplanes as well as automobiles, trucks and tractors.

The expenditures of the Jewish Agency for all these important activities are expected to reach £P.30,000 ($120,000) in the current year.

9. EDUCATION AND CULTURE

Years ago, the World Zionist Organization spent a very considerable part of its budget in Palestine on education. There was even a time when its educational budget exceeded its expenditures on colonization. It amounted to 37% of its whole budget in the years 1918-21, and still constituted 24% of its total expenditures in the following eight years - 1921-29.

In 1933, a radical change took place. The school system of the Jewish Agency was transferred to the National Council of Palestinian Jews (Vaad Leumi), which took over most of its financial burden. The participation of the Jewish Agency was limited to a modest subsidy, mainly intended to cover the educational expenses of recently arrived immigrants. In the last year, this subsidy amounted to £P.30,000 at a time when the total school budget of the Vaad Leumi reached £P.173,525. The grant of the Jewish Agency during the last year reached a low record of $2.00 per child. Some 56,000 children were enrolled in 1940 in the public school system of the National Council. In the budget of the coming year, this subsidy was increased to £P.50,000, which is still only $3.00 per child per year. The increase of the subsidy became imperative due to the increased number of children and the greater number of needy parents who were unable to pay even a modest tuition fee. The income of the local Jewish community was likewise lessened because of the economic recession in the first year of the war. There is a possibility that, even with an increased subsidy, the wages of the teachers will have to be cut, despite increasing living costs.

In addition to elementary education, the cultural budget of the Agency amounts to less than £P.10,000 ($40,000) a year. This includes the Bialik Institute, the technical school at Haifa, two famous theatres, Habima and Ohel, the Palestine Symphony Orchestra, and similar institutions. The total budgets of these institutions are seven times as high as the grants of the Agency.

Should the Agency drop its subsidy, private contributors, who in a spirit of sacrifice, continued their support in critical times, may be tempted to follow its lead. The resulting increase in relief expenditures would more than offset such an ostensible economy.

10. SECURITY AND POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

The expenditures of the Jewish Agency on security consist mainly in support of Jewish self-defense established after previous Arab attacks and providing it with the means necessary for their repulsion. This item of expenditure increased greatly after the riots of April, 1936, resulting in a prolonged campaign of anti-Jewish terror. There is not the slightest doubt that Jewish self-defense had a decisive part in the gradual elimination of that menace. Although relations between Jews and Arabs are now much better than they were a few years ago, the Jewish Agency, considering its responsibility for the future, cannot stop its expenditures on defense involving the life and property of the Jewish community in Palestine. Still, it may be able to reduce the expenditure involved in comparison with the last year. Only £P.50,000 ($200,000) is demanded for this item for the year 1941.

A slight reduction is also expected in the expenditure on political activities. The political centers are usually Jerusalem, London and Geneva. Due to the decline in the importance of the League of Nations, to which the Palestine mandate is officially subjected, the expenditures in Geneva were reduced to a nominal sum of £P.400 ($1,600) per year. The representative of the Jewish Agency there is now acting mainly as a source of information helping to establish connections with the "collapsed" countries of Europe.

The all-important political activities in London and Jerusalem are naturally maintained to the same extent as in previous years. The Political Department of the Agency in London is mainly concerned with Jewish-British relations, while the political office in Jerusalem gives much attention to Jewish-Arab relations.

11. REPAYMENT OF DEBTS AND INTEREST

During the past few years, lacking adequate funds from abroad, the agencies drawing their support from the United Palestine Appeal found it necessary to borrow in order to keep a minimum of constructive enterprises going. These borrowings, which represent some £P.546,000, are interest-bearing obligations. The Jewish Agency and the Jewish National Fund must provide in their budgets for the payment of this sum.

12. ADMINISTRATION

The administrative needs of the Jewish Agency and the Jewish National Fund require an expenditure of £P.105,000 ($420,000) in 1941.

The administrative work of these two organizations consists of supervising the comprehensive tasks which devolve upon these instruments of the Jewish people in the upbuilding and defense of the Jewish National Home. In the case of the Jewish National Fund, land must be purchased and ameliorated, new areas of colonization must be investigated, afforestation must be carried on, water must be provided. In some cases roads must be built.

For the Jewish Agency there is the necessity of regulating the absorption of new immigrants into the economy of the country. The industry of the nation must be actively promoted. New enterprises must be encouraged. Established business must be assisted over difficult periods of credit stringency. The wartime demands of both the civil and military population must be met through the expansion of the industrial plant. Colonization must be actively furthered in order to increase the food production of the nation. Cultural activities demand assistance in order to assure the enrichment of every phase of life in Palestine.

These are the uses to which the funds of the Jewish National Fund and the Jewish Agency are put. The administrative expenditure, constituting three percent of the total budget, is handled judiciously and efficiently.

13. RESERVE AGAINST CONTINGENCIES

This item involves £P.70,000 ($280,000). In 1940 the evacuation of orphan asylums and similar institutions from Haifa and Tel Aviv after Italian air attacks represented one of the unexpected developments which had to be met. Another such event was the tragedy of the Patria which exploded in Haifa harbor. Its 1,700 refugee passengers were subsequently put into the custody of the Jewish Agency and their maintenance was made dependent upon the funds which the Jewish Agency could provide.

It is clear that a reserve against such unanticipated crises must be set up. In this case the item represents not more than 2% of the total budget.

GENERAL CONCLUSION

Amid all the hardships of war, Palestine remains the one country which offers the opportunity for Jewish immigration and Jewish regeneration. In the first fifteen months of the war it absorbed some 28,000 refugees; 10 new settlements were founded and 63 factories were added to the already imposing list of Palestine's industrial establishments. The Jewish population reached a new high level, not only in actual figures, but in relation to the entire population of Palestine. There are today some 550,000 Jews in Palestine constituting the largest free Jewish community in the world actively allied with Great Britain in the struggle against Hitler.

Enlarged land buying activities, more intensive colonization and a rapid industrial expansion in connection with war needs open the prospect for large scale immigration after the war.

PALESTINE IS TODAY NOT ONLY A VITAL SECTOR IN THE CHAIN OF BRITISH DEFENSE BUT THE GREATEST HOPE FOR JEWISH RECONSTRUCTION WHEN THIS WAR HAS BEEN WON. Jewish communities of Europe are being annihilated. Jews by the

million are being torn from all contact with Jewish life. Yet Palestine continues to build and to defend its achievements of the past two decades.

Up until now Palestine has made only modest demands upon American Jewish generosity. The crisis in world Jewish life together with the great possibilities which Palestine presents as a future haven for large segments of uprooted European Jewry, demand more adequate participation by the American Jewish community in the work of salvation which is taking place in the Jewish National Home.
