Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver,
Temple,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

May I permit myself to believe that your short visit to Denver last December was such that a renewal of the invitation at this time would be accepted agreeably. On November 26, in Denver, we will hold our big JDC-UPA dinner, at which time we hope, judging from previous years, to raise practically seventy-five percent of our campaign. We reached this figure last year, and, in no little degree was it due to your most inspiring address--these words of mine being issued full of deep meaning, and springing from the innermost recess of the heart. I mention this because I know you are flooded with letters of similar nature, but I want you to know, and to believe, and to feel that these words to you come from me not by way of the pen, nor the lip, but by way of the heart. I, therefore, ask you now, in the name of our committee, to accept an invitation from us to be present in Denver, on the 26th day of November, to be our guest speaker on that occasion, and I pray that I might receive from you an early and favorable response.

Frankly speaking, we need you and need you badly, and I know of no one, and in this I express the opinion of our committee, who can quite fill the bill, or the campaign basket, as your good self.

May I hope to hear from you promptly.

Sincerely,

David E. Harlem
DAVID E. HARLEM.

P. S.

By way of inducement, you shall have cherry pie at the dinner.

September 23, 1940

Mr. David E. Harlem
Synes Bldg.
Denver, Colorado

My dear Mr. Harlem:

Let me thank you for your kind letter of September 17. Denver is a long way from Cleveland, and it will take considerable time out of my crowded program, as well considerable effort, to come to your opening meeting of the campaign. Realizing, however, how desperately important it is to bring to the Jewish communities of this country the plight of our people overseas, and the need for increased aid, I shall make an effort to be with you on November 26. I must, however, ask you and your friends to make all necessary exertions on your part to see that Denver makes a larger contribution to the United Jewish Appeal this year than last year. The success of any community campaign lies, of course, in the hands of five or six leading citizens who, by their own contributions, serve as an inspiration to others. If these men in your community will indicate their willingness to make larger gifts this year, I am confident that your campaign will be very successful. Headquarters in New York informs me that the United Jewish Appeal should receive from the Jewish community of Denver, this year, a minimum of $75,000.

With all good wishes, I remain

Most cordially yours,

AHS:BK

Dear Rabbi Silver:

As I suggested in our telephone conversation, I am particularly eager to have you, if in any way possible, accept the Dayton speaking invitation this year because Dayton does so badly need the type of stimulation that you and you alone can give them. Our friends among the leaders of Dayton expressed a keen desire to have you and I felt at liberty to invite you to go there because of the reasonable nearness of Dayton to Cleveland.

Dayton has a Jewish population of approximately 4,900 and in 1939 allotted to the U.J.A. the sum of $30,926 out of a total raised of $53,000. The amount which the U.J.A. asked from Dayton last year was $55,000 and they accepted this quota. This of course did not mean anything because their goal of $74,500 was not reached. We have requested $60,000 from their welfare fund campaign this year and if Dayton can raise a substantially larger sum of money the U.J.A. will receive an increased allotment.

In a nutshell the difficulty in Dayton is that the few families of great wealth have not only not contributed per individual or per family unit in relation to their means, but they have pretty much held aloof from active and enthusiastic participation in these annual fund-raising efforts. Almost, I can say to you confidentially, they have conspired among themselves in advance as to that which they would be unwilling to do. In Dayton one truly finds the situation of a very small wealthy group on one side of the track and the rest of the community on the other side. I am speaking of course of the Jewish communal activities.

To overcome this difficulty this year, Dayton selected Mr. Chester Adler, owner of two department stores and a member of the wealthiest family in Dayton, as campaign chairman. When I first visited Dayton in June to discuss 1940 plans, Mr. Adler and his brother-in-law, Elmer Rauh, who is independently wealthy and who represents a family of wealth, were completely skeptical as to the possibilities of the Joint Distribution Committee and the United Palestine Appeal using any money if they could raise it.

September 24, 1940

Both of these gentlemen were in New York later and I arranged a luncheon at which Jonah Wise and Bill Rosenwald undertook to persuade them as to the necessities. I made a second trip to Dayton a few weeks ago and while I found these two leaders somewhat more convinced of the possibilities, I also discovered a desire on the part of Mr. Adler to hedge on the set-up that would really permit Dayton to go to town in its fund-raising this year.

You would hardly believe that until this year we have never been able to convince Dayton that advance gifts preliminary meetings, for example, serve a useful purpose. Mr. Adler is arranging for a meeting tomorrow at which Marvin Lowenthal will present the picture and at which an effort will be made to secure larger individual gifts than last year. I am not completely convinced that this meeting will be as successful as we would wish it and for that reason, as well as many others, I am particularly eager to have you go to Dayton on October 6 and have an opportunity to step up some of these big givers if necessary. This we could easily arrange for you by having a meeting in advance of that which I understand is to be the annual campaign dinner.

The Dayton community as a whole is an exceptionally fine community. The most important event, as they see it, of their campaign is their opening meeting to which they invite the entire community. They believe that they require, and I agree with them, a Rabbi Silver this year to really stimulate the community and particularly to satisfy them on the requirements of the agencies of the United Jewish Appeal, and their responsibility to them. They feel that if you will be their guest for their October 6th meeting, the entire town will enthusiastically turn out to greet you and hear your message. It will indeed be helpful if you can arrange to be their guest on this occasion.

Outside of Philadelphia, Boston and Cincinnati, Dayton is about as important as any community we have scheduled for Fall participation.

With kindest regards, I am

Cordially yours

My dear Dr. Silver:

On Sunday evening at seven o'clock, October 6th, at our Meadow Brook Country Club we are opening our campaign for the U. J. A. Drive. As head of the drive both my associates and myself feel that your presence as our guest speaker will be a great inspiration and a great help to our community. We feel that Dayton is badly in need of some good inspirational influence and we can think of no better person throughout this land that would fit this particular need than yourself.

Therefore, I repeat, we cordially invite you to come to Dayton and be our guest on Sunday, October 6th, as our guest speaker at this drive. We trust that you can see your way clear to accept and that we may hear from you by return mail as time is getting very short and it is necessary as you will understand to have this information immediately.

Thanking you in advance for your very kind consideration and trusting we may have the honor and pleasure of your attendance and presence, I remain

I wish to thank you for your very gracious letter of September 26th. We are all very happy and excited and enthused that you are going to be with us for the opening of our campaign on October 6th and we look forward to this date with a great deal of pleasure.

If you can possibly advise us in advance just when you are coming in we will be delighted to meet you. If, however, that is impractical and you cannot advise us and you do arrive in Dayton, please come to the Biltmore Hotel and go to the desk and a room and everything will be in preparedness for you. My dear Rabbi:

Can you possibly open our United Jewish Fund Campaign either on Sunday, November 24th or Monday, November 25th? We are going after a goal somewhere in the neighborhood of $125,000. It is going to be awfully tough unless we are able to get a flying start. Our Campaign Committee is extremely anxious that you consent to come if you can possibly make it.

The New York office tells us that you are to be in Denver on Tuesday the 26th. Can you take this on the way? If you are going by train you will be on the direct route. If you are flying we can take you from here to the Detroit Airport which is only fifty miles.

Can you let me know either by telephone or wire if you can come.

Hortense and Leon, Jr. join me in sending our love and best wishes for a Happy New Year to Virginia, the boys and yourself.

My dear Leon:

A Happy New Year! I trust that you have had happy Holiday services and a nice reception in your home.

With reference to your letter inviting me to open the United Jewish Fund Campaign in your city: Although I am to be in Denver on November 26, I shall make an effort to be with you on November 24. I would then go on to Chicago either the same night or the next morning and catch the express from Chicago to Denver. I hope that you will make every effort, my dear Leon, to see that as large a sum as possible out of your total is allotted to the UJA. There has been an unfortunate trend, as you undoubtedly know in many communities, to increase allocations to other agencies or to new agencies at the expense of the UJA in whose behalf, in the last analysis, the total appeal is made.

With all good wishes to you, Hortense and Leon Jr., in which Virginia and the boys join me, I remain

As ever yours,

Dear Dr. Silver:

It is with great joy that we have received word that you will address the opening dinner meeting of the 1940 United Jewish Fund of Toledo Campaign on Sunday evening, November 24 at the Commodore Perry Hotel. We know that your inspiration will provide as always a great impetus to our fund-raising efforts.

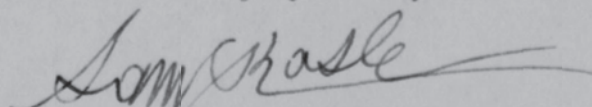

We have had some preliminary discussions with a number of the big givers in our community and feel hopeful that we can achieve a substantial increase over the $95,000 total which was raised in 1939.

We are thinking in terms of a quota of $125,000 for our 1940 drive. Of course the greater part of such an increase would be allocated for the purposes of the United Jewish Appeal.

The announcement of your coming to Toledo has aroused great enthusiasm and interest on the part of the Jewish community and we all look forward to your stimulating presence.

With best wishes for a happy New Year for you and your family, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver
Campaign Opening - Nov. 24

November 18th, 1940

UNITED JEWISH APPEAL FOR REFUGEES AND OVERSEAS NEEDS
DIGEST - TOLEDO, OHIO
Assigned Quota - $100,000 - Jewish Population - 10,500

On June 26th a formal letter of application, together with budgetary material was sent to Rabbi Leon I. Feuer requesting $100,000 as the UJA allotment from the 1940 campaign of the United Jewish Welfare Fund of Toledo. Copies were sent to J. Eugene Farber and Elmer Louis, Executive Director of the Fund.

The campaign will be launched officially on November 24th for a goal of $125,000. A tentative budget has been adopted on a basis of $100,000, out of which the UJA is allotted $51,000. Mr. Louis has indicated that leaders do not want to release these figures for publication as yet, but Mr. Farber advises that the figures are final. Field Representative Fischer reports that Mr. Farber has advised that no allocation was made of the sums to be raised over $100,000, but that all agencies have been included in their budget as set, and that indications are that we could, therefore, count on receiving practically all sums over $100,000. Mr. Fischer believes that the budget was set up on a $100,000 basis in order to avoid any increases to other agencies. In the past, the procedure of the Fund was to first pay in full the allocations to all lesser agencies, the UJA bearing the loss in uncollectible pledges. An item of $10,000 has been allocated for shrinkage and Mr. Farber says that the understanding is we will receive whatever is left over from that sum. Mr. Farber is also of the opinion that the goal of $125,000 will be oversubscribed, although Mr. Fischer doubts this.

In October Mr. Fischer reported that Mr. Louis indicated that the resettlement program will probably be allocated $3500 as against $1200 last year. The $10,000 that was allocated last year for local defense purposes will be very considerably reduced this year; most of it was not used last year.

Mr. Fischer is greatly concerned over final results as the big givers have not been attending the big gifts meetings originally planned for them. In a report dated November 14, Mr. Fischer indicated that Mr. Louis believes that the lack of these meetings will have no effect on the outcome and that it would not change the total sum raised by so much as $1,000 and that they will get their large gifts this year as in the past, to wit: by personal solicitation. The general feeling is good and they all feel that they will come close to $125,000, except Mr. Farber who thinks they will even do better. However, in a later report (November 17) Mr. Fischer stated that at a conference in Indianapolis, Rabbi Leon Feuer stated that in his opinion $100,000 will be raised and consequently he is also of the opinion that substantial increases will not be forthcoming. It is Rabbi Feuer's firm conviction that the only one who might be able to accomplish something is himself and is considering taking appropriate action to meet this situation.

Mr. Coons met with leaders here in September for the purpose of clarifying questions as to the possibility of the UJA to carry out its program overseas at this time. Mr. Coons used that occasion also, to urge Mr. Louis to have the Fund adopt a more formal method of budgeting which would insure the UJA more adequate consideration.

DIGEST - DENVER, COLORADO

UJA Assigned Quota - $75,000

Jewish Population - 18,500

The Allied Campaign of Denver will be launched with a Big Gifts Meeting, on November 26th. This is to be a combined appeal for a total goal of $75,000. The UJA is to be included for a minimum of 80%, with the following agencies included: Hias, Ort, Hebrew University, Wider Scope, Cleveland Orphanage, Menorah Fund.

The following will serve as campaign officers:

Kallman S. Barnett, Chairman
Harry Rosenbaum, Vice-Chairman & Big Gifts Chairman
Dr. Lewis I. Miller, Treasurer
Harry Zinn, Chairman, Mens Division
Joe Alpert, Vice-Chairman, Mens Division
Mrs. Sam Levy, Chairman, Womens Division
Louis Roth, Campaign Director

Those who will be looked-to to liberally set the campaign pace are:

Jesse Schwayder
Sam Kohn
Meyer Neustetter

The Guldman Family, who are in a position to contribute generously, have indicated their intention of decreasing their gift in relation to last year.

Although Field Representative Platt, who has been in the community through the fall, setting up a detailed campaign organization, at first encountered skepticism as to the UJA's ability to function in War-torn Europe, he feels that he has convinced the leaders of the greatly increased needs, and reports the spirit and interest of the workers to be excellent. He feels, however, that the Red Cross, Finnish Relief and election drives, held previously, may have an unfavorable effect on campaign results this year.

On November 15th, a letter in your name was sent to the invitees to the November 26th meeting, announcing your visit, and urging attendance.

The 1939 Allied Campaign of Denver was held December 7 - 15th, for a goal of $111,000. A total of between $58,000 and $59,000 was raised. The UJA was allocated $45,000, against which $40,000 has been paid to date, the balance being uncollectible.

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver,
The Temple,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

Veni-Vidi-Vici. Truly, indeed, did you come, see and conquer. And, on behalf of our campaign committee, and myself, personally, may I not express the deep gratitude that is in each one of our hearts.

You are aware superficially of last night's results, that is, as far as money goes, but let me show you more exactly the true picture: Total audited subscriptions, $35,500.00, from 150 givers, as against $31,000.00 last year, from 170 givers. Note, also, that this year the "BIG THREE" dropped $2500.00, as against last year. Those absent this year, for one reason or another, are conservatively good for at least $2500.00 if they had been present (and we will get this in the next few days by personal calling). So, you can readily see that Denver matched "tops" in leadership, with "tops" for one night giving. All this truly, unflatteringly "Because of You."

You were, indeed, a delight and an inspiration to all who heard you, and your presence and talking among us has rekindled the spirit to do for others in those fine men and women in our community who are ever ready to lend a willing ear to every worthy cause.

Sincerely,

DAVID E. HARLEM.

Dear Dr. Silver:

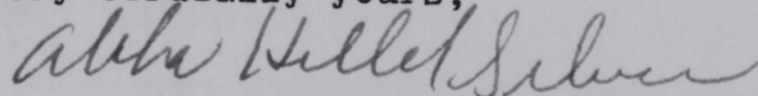

In view of the increasing importance of Palestine in the present war crisis, it is proposed to hold a PALESTINE EMERGENCY CONFERENCE of the community leaders of Ohio on Sunday, May 4, in Columbus.

This Conference will bring to the Jewish communities of Ohio a realization of the vital role which Palestine is playing in the vanguard of the forces aligned against Hitler in the preservation of democracy---and which it must play in the final solution of the grave problems which will come after the war.

I should appreciate very much this privilege of listing you among those sponsors of this conference whose names will be printed on the invitation. Edwin J. Schanfarber, Columbus, Ohio, Chairman of the Conference, will head this list of sponsors.

Won't you please assure me of your acceptance by returning the enclosed card as soon as possible?

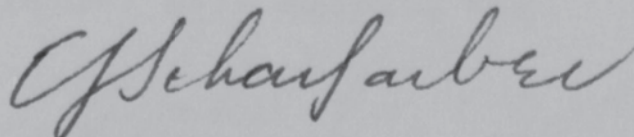

Very cordially yours,

Abba Hillel Silver
National Chairman

P.S. There will be no solicitation of funds.

P.P.S. Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, Norman Angell, Nobel Prize winner, Henry Montor and other outstanding national leaders will address the Conference.

Dear Friend:

It is my pleasure to invite you to attend the Conference of the Ohio State leaders called under the auspices of the United Palestine Appeal on Sunday, May 4th, 1941, at the Hotel Deshler-Wallick, Columbus, Ohio, beginning at 10:30 A.M.

This Conference will bring to the Jewish communities of Ohio a realization of the grave wartime requirements of embattled Palestine and the 550,000 Jews not only fighting for existence but also playing a vital role in the vanguard of the forces to crush Hitlerism and preserve our democratic ideals.

With 9,000 recruits now fighting in the armed forces of Great Britain and with all their industrial and agricultural resources the Jews of Palestine are fighting the fight of all Jewry in the struggle to restore reason and justice to a war-torn world.

SIR NORMAN ANGELL, Distinguished British Statesman, Nobel Peace Prize Winner, Lecturer and Author,

DR. ABBA HILLEL SILVER, National Chairman of the United Palestine Appeal, One of the most distinguished and illustrious personalities in American Jewish life,

RABBI JAMES G. HELLER, Vice Chairman of the United Palestine Appeal, and HENRY MONTOR, Executive Director of the United Palestine Appeal, will address the Conference.

You are therefore urged to attend and participate in this very important Conference at which we will discuss the problems of extending the possibility for settlement and rebuilding the Jewish National Home.

The Conference will hold three Sessions:

Morning Session - will begin at 10:30 A. M.
Luncheon Session - will begin at 1 P. M.
Afternoon Session - will begin at 3 P. M.

Won't you please indicate that we may count on your presence by returning the enclosed card.

Very cordially yours,

Edwin J. Schanfarber
Chairman, Conference Committee

Thus far the following arrangements have been made:
Edwin J. Schanfarber of Columbus is to be chairman of the luncheon and afternoon sessions. You will address the afternoon meeting at 3 o'clock. Sir Norman Angell will address the luncheon group at 1 o'clock. Henry Montor and Rabbi James G. Heller of Cincinnati will be on the morning program scheduled for 10:30. The entire conference will be held at the Dasher-Wallick Hotel in Columbus.

This is probably as outstanding a program as has ever been arranged for a U. P. A. Conference. However, this is only the beginning of our work. If the Conference is to be worth-while we must organize an equally outstanding group of officers who will carry on the work of a U. P. A. Council in Ohio.

Mr. Harry Seeve
555 E. Rich St.
Columbus, Ohio

My dear Mr. Seeve:

Permit me to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of April 13.

I notice that you have scheduled me to speak at the afternoon meeting, at 3 o'clock. I do not know how you came to schedule me for that time. You know that I must occupy my own pulpit in the morning. That means that I can not arrive in Columbus by train or by plane in time for a 3 o'clock meeting. I had assumed that you were planning an evening meeting.

I can leave Cleveland by train at 3:05 p.m. arriving in Columbus at 5:50 p.m.; or by plane leaving Cleveland at 5:35 p.m. arriving in Columbus at 6:35 p.m. It is clear that I cannot arrive in time for an afternoon meeting. If you do not plan to have an evening meeting, I would suggest that you get someone to take my place.

With all good wishes, I remain

Very cordially yours,
