ANNUAL
INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN AWARD
BY THE

Variety Clubs International

THE HEART OF SHOW BUSINESS

ADDRESS REPLY TO
EDWARD SHAFTON, CHAIRMAN
736 FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING
OMAHA, NEBRASKA

July 14th, 1959

Dear Rabbi Silver,

Each year, Variety Clubs International presents their Humanitarian Award to some outstanding and deserving person. The list of past recipients is shown on the back page of this letter.

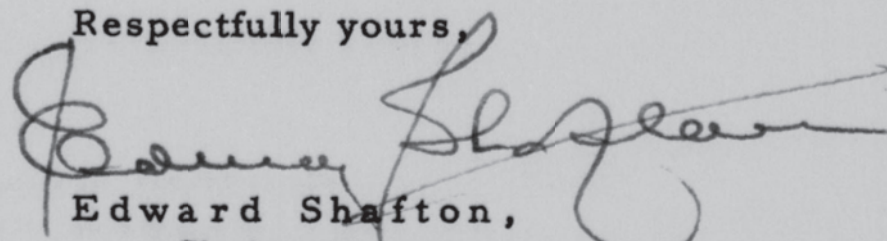

The selection of the Humanitarian is made exclusively by the Award Committee, whose membership is listed on the inside page of this letter.

You have been nominated to become a member of the Award Committee, and we trust that you will favor us with an early acceptance. ✓

The selection of the recipient of the annual Humanitarian Award is carried on by a mail ballot, and the details of the program will be submitted to you in September. Service on this Committee will not require any activity outside of your office.

Thanks in advance for giving this matter your very earliest attention.

Respectfully yours,

Edward Shafton,
Chairman.

INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN AWARD

BY THE

Variety Clubs International

THE HEART OF SHOW BUSINESS

ADDRESS REPLY TO

October 1st, 1959

EDWARD SHAFTON, CHAIRMAN
736 FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING
OMAHA, NEBRASKA

Dear Rabbi Silver:

We seek the benefit of your wise and able counsel in connection with selecting the Recipient of the 1959 Humanitarian Award presented by Variety Clubs International.

The members of the Award Committee, of which you are a member, are again being requested to submit their nominations for the outstanding humanitarian for 1959. Please submit the names of as many persons as you desire, together with a brief outline of their respective achievements.

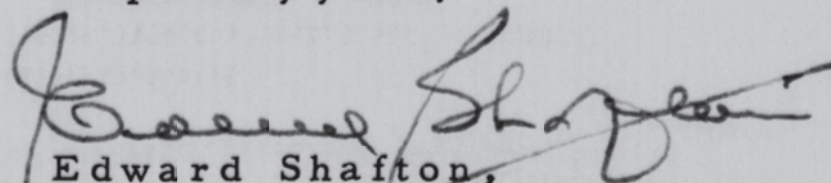

Upon the receipt of your respective recommendations, the Co-ordinating Committee will submit the list of distinguished citizens receiving the greatest number of nominations for your consideration and appropriate action; if a third ballot is necessary, we shall again request your greatly appreciated help.

For the purpose of clarification, your attention is directed to the list of former Recipients of the Annual Humanitarian Award, listed on the back page. You will note that the first was the late Father Flanagan; his selection was made not only for his noble work, but his activities were in keeping with the general charitable programs of the several Variety Clubs - namely, service for the unfortunate child health, welfare and education.

Without placing any restrictions upon your nominations, it is suggested that the foregoing thought be given due consideration.

Thank you in advance, for giving this request your earliest attention. For your convenience, please use the enclosed envelope.

Respectfully yours,

Edward Shafton,
Chairman.

Gentlemen:

Please accept our sincerest thanks and appreciation for the enthusiastic response to the first phase of this activity.

The Co-ordinating Committee has carefully reviewed the numerous suggestions submitted, and on the inside page of this letter you will find the names of the persons receiving the greatest number of nominations in their respective fields of endeavor.

In some instances, it appeared that some identification was appropriate; however, this information is submitted by way of information only.

Please vote for ONE of the nominees listed and return the enclosed ballot at your very earliest opportunity, not later than DECEMBER 30TH, 1959.

Thanks to each of you in advance for giving this important matter the considered attention it deserves.

Respectfully,

Edward Shafton,
Chairman.

THE HEART OF SHOW BUSINESS

ADDRESS REPLY TO

EDWARD SHAFTON, CHAIRMAN
736 FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING
OMAHA, NEBRASKA

November 21, 1960

The Award Committee
Variety Clubs International

Gentlemen:

Please accept our sincerest thanks and appreciation for the enthusiastic response to the first phase of this activity.

The Co-ordinating Committee has carefully reviewed the numerous suggestions submitted, and on the inside page of this letter you will find the names of the persons receiving the greatest number of nominations in their respective fields of endeavor.

In some instances, it appeared that some identification was appropriate; however, this information is submitted by way of information only.

For your consideration and guidance, the Co-ordinating Committee respectfully invites your attention to the fact that the charitable activities of the Variety Clubs International primarily relate to the health and welfare of children.

Please vote for ONE of the nominees listed and return the enclosed ballot at your very earliest opportunity, not later than DECEMBER 19TH, 1960.

Thanks to each of you in advance for giving this important matter the considered attention it deserves.

Respectfully,

Edward Shafton,
Chairman.
