Dr. Chaim Weizmann
Hotel St. Regis
Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth St.
New York, N.Y.

My dear Dr. Weizmann:

I read this morning that you had left the hospital and that you are going away for a month's rest. I was happy to learn that you are fast regaining your strength, and I hope that the rest will restore you to your full vigor and strength.

I hope that the new year will bring you and yours as much happiness and peace of mind as are still to be had in this tired and tortured world of ours. Mrs. Silver joins me in sending you and Mrs. Weizmann our sincerest new years greetings.

Most cordially yours,

My dear Dr. Weizmann:

I trust that you and Mrs. Weizmann are well. I had hoped to be in New York during the past week, but unfortunately, was not able to get away. I am looking forward eagerly to your coming for my Twenty-fifth Anniversary celebration on January 24th. All arrangements have been made and I believe that the occasion will be a very impressive one. You will, of course, be the featured guest of the occasion.

I know that you have not been entirely well and, therefore, I am very anxious to shield you while you are here. May I suggest that you come here on Saturday morning and stay at my home where you will have quiet and rest and where nobody will be bothering you. Your part on the program on Sunday morning need not take more than twelve or fifteen minutes.

Please let me know what time you plan to arrive. I will meet you at the train and take you to my home. I hope that it will also be possible for Mrs. Weizmann to come along.

Need I assure you how gratefully honored I will be by your participation in this celebration?

With all good wishes, I remain

As ever yours,

AHS:bw
