THIRD STATE CONFERENCE
CHARITIES AND CORRECTION
OF WEST VIRGINIA

AT FAIRMONT, NOVEMBER 19-20-21, 1917

September Twelfth
1 9 1 7

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the State Conference of Charities and Correction will be held on the mezzanine floor of the new Fairmont Hotel, ^{Fairmont,} on Friday, September Twenty-First, at two o'clock in the afternoon.

Arrangements for the Program and meeting of the Third conference will be made. Any other business presented will also be given due consideration.

It has been proposed that our program for this year be made to center about the "Suggested Program for the Executive State Council of Defense" recently offered by Dr. Hastings Hart and published by the State Council of Defense. The report of Dr. Hart and the investigations of Mr Stonaker on which the "Suggested Program" is based are the result of initiative, taken by members of our Conference, and they seem to open the way for more effective work by the State Conference.

This meeting of the Executive Committee is of most vital import for the Third Annual Conference, and it is most desirable that you should be present. Any suggestions that you may offer will be most welcome and will receive sympathetic consideration.

Hoping to see YOU at Fairmont on Friday of next week, and with most cordial regard, I beg to remain,

Faithfully yours,

E. H. Vickers.

Professor E. H. Vickers,
President, State Conference
Charities & Corrections,
Morgantown, W. Va.

My dear Prof. Vickers,

You are probably acquainted with the fact that I have accepted a call to this pulpit in Cleveland, so that I shall not be able to continue my work as an officer of the State Conference of Charities and Corrections.

I therefore hereby tender my resignation. It goes without saying that my interest will always remain with the organization, and if at any time I am able to lend my assistance to this splendid work, I shall be glad to do so.

Trusting that you will be successful in all future undertakings, I remain

Sincerely yours,
