My dear Mr. Willkie:

You suggested that I write to you indicating when I will be in New York next so that we might have a little time together. I am planning to be in New York on Monday, December 7. You thought that it would be better for you to meet with me in the morning. Would you be free on that morning?

With all good wishes and looking forward with pleasure to our meeting, I remain

My dear Rabbi Silver:

Many thanks for your letter of November 20th.

My plans for December are as yet uncertain. I had hoped to get away for a brief rest about that time. However, if I am in the city,
I shall certainly enjoy seeing you.
I'll let you know a little later on,
if that is agreeable.

Kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Many thanks for sending us the Cleveland Plain Dealer's report of your sermon on Wendell Willkie's ONE WORLD. It was most gratifying to learn that you found it worthy of recommendation to the members of your congregation.

In view of your own enthusiasm for ONE WORLD, I believe you will be interested to learn that its unusually quick acceptance by people throughout the country has made publishing history. Our printings at this point total 1,100,000 copies.

With renewed thanks for your interest and cooperation, I am,

Sincerely,

Charlotte Seitlin
