Rabbi A. H. Silver,
The Temple, 55th St. & Central,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

My previous letter spoke in general terms of the work and status of Young Judaea. I am now enclosing a membership card, which shows very definitely what I ask of you.

If fifteen hundred individuals, of whom you are one, fill out and mail the enclosed card, then it will be possible for Young Judaea to continue the educational work it is doing in its 1000 clubs of boys and girls. If fifteen hundred members do not respond, there will be no alternative but to close down. This calamity must not take place.

You will see that the needs of Young Judaea are relatively not very great, and that the membership fees are small.

As a friend of Jewish education, I urge you to mail the enclosed card without delay. This will be my assurance that you are behind me, and that I may safely continue my work.

Sincerely yours,

Jacob Kohn
President.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

You are requested to attend a meeting of the officers and Board of Trustees of Young Judaea to be held at my office at the above address on Sunday morning, June 4th at 11 A. M.

This is the first meeting of the Board and it is expected that only two or three meetings will be held each year. It is very important, therefore, that you should be present as matters of vital importance will be considered.

I trust to have the honor of meeting you on this occasion.

Very truly yours,

Nathan Straus

My dear Rabbi Silver:

On behalf of the Administrative Committee of Young Judaea, may I extend to you a cordial invitation to be present at the Fourteenth Annual Convention of Young Judaea to be held at Long Branch, N. J. from Friday, June 30th until Monday, July 3rd.

This Convention is of especial importance in that it will consider the record of the first year of Young Judaea's activity as an independent organization.

The Annual Convention of Young Judaea is a unique institution. Some of the best elements of our Jewish young manhood and womanhood of America come from all parts of the country for this event and I am sure that you would find the proceedings of interest.

Will you be kind enough to advise us whether it will be possible for you to attend, and if so, when you will arrive, so that proper arrangements may be made to receive you.

I sincerely trust that it will be convenient for you to accept this invitation.

Sincerely yours,

Saul J. Cohen
Honorary Secretary

SJC/ES.

Mr. Saul J. Cohen,
Young Judaea, 55 Fifth Ave.,
New York City.

My dear Mr. Cohen,

Permit me to thank you and the Administrative Committee of the Young Judaea, for the kind invitation to attend the Fourteenth Annual Convention of Young Judaea. I would most readily accept it, but for the fact that I am scheduled to attend the convention of the Central Conference of American Rabbis which meets exactly at the same time as your convention.

Permit me to express to your Organization my sincerest good wishes for continued helpful service in behalf of our common cause.

With kindest regards, I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,

National Young Judaea

NATIONAL YOUNG JUDAEA

YOUNG JUDAEA is an organization of the Jewish youth of America. It has 1,000 clubs of boys and girls and 20,000 members.

The work of Young Judaea consists of, first, Jewish educational work in cooperation with Hebrew schools, Y. M. and Y. W. H. A.'S and other Jewish institutions; second, the preparation of syllabi, leaflets, text books, festival programs and other educational material of use to educators and rabbis, as well as to Young Judaea leaders; third, the encouragement of athletics among the Jewish youth of America.
