Dear Rabbi Silver

I note in the November 6th issue of
the Cleveland Plain Dealer that you're to speak on "The Critics of Zionism."

Since I was not privileged to hear you discuss the subject, and because
I'm very much interested in it, I am prompted to ask you

for a copy of your
sermon if it's available.

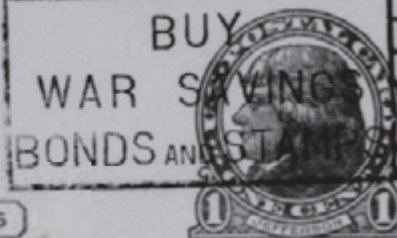

This year I attended
high holy day services
with relatives in Atlanta, Georgia. You know poor
old Rabbi Marks' attitude toward Jewry in general,
and Zionism in particular.
His congregation is still seething. Rabbi Blatt

in Oklahoma City also created some excitement, tho I didn't happen 'to hear him.

Thanks very much if you can mail me the copy I request. In any event, it was nice to tell you "Hello",
and say "A shono tovo."

Sincerely
Neta L.

Dear Madam:

Your Temple Bulletin of November 14th indicated that copies of Rabbi Silver's two lectures on "Zionism: What It Is-What It Is Not" would be printed soon and available for distribution.

When they are ready, will you kindly forward me a set, and if there is any charge, let me know so that I may reimburse you.

It is my feeling that the text of the lectures may prove interesting subject matter for discussion at a future Hadassah meeting.

Thank you for your trouble in this matter.

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

As I happened to be in my home town of Cleveland on Sunday, November 7th, I gave myself the pleasure of hearing your sermon "Answering the Critics of Zionism". Perhaps that was not the exact title, but the sermon was on that subject. To my mind, you summed up completely the answers to all questions which, at one time or another, disturb even the most loyal of Zionists. I felt my faith being strengthened on every point as I listened.

If it is not asking too much, may I request a copy (or copies) of this sermon, as I wish to distribute it where it will do the most good. I am constantly running into people who would be greatly benefited by the logic of your arguments.

With kindest regards, I remain

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Dr. Silver:

Will you be kind enough to send me a copy of your series of lectures on "Zionism: What It is, What It Is Not."

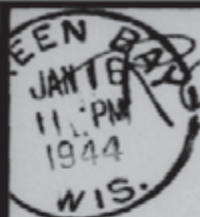

It may interest you to know that on Sunday mornings I conduct a service designed especially for the servicemen and women stationed at the camps, air base, and marine base in and around Wilmington. An open forum discussion of moot questions of the day is an integral part of the service. Hundreds of men and women enter spiritedly into these discussions and they are proving to be the most thrilling experiences of my rabbinical career. It is with pardonable pride that I write you that many have come to understand the problem of our people as a result of these frank and challenging exchanges of thought. While Rev. Richard Evans was in town I arranged for him to occupy my pulpit on a Sunday morning. He galvanized and inspired his audience with a most eloquent presentation of the Zionist program.

May God strengthen you in your courageous and self-sacrificing leadership in this perilous hour for our people, and may your efforts be crowned with abiding success.

Admiringly yours,

Mordecai M. Thurman

RAILWAY EXPRESS AGENCY

INCORPORATED

UNIFORM EXPRESS RECEIPT—NON-NEGOTIABLE—TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The provisions of this receipt shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the consignor, the consignee and all carriers handling this shipment and shall apply to any re-shipment, or return thereof.

2. In consideration of the rate charged for carrying said property, which is dependent upon the value thereof and is based upon an agreed valuation of not exceeding fifty dollars for any shipment of 100 pounds or less and not exceeding fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment in excess of 100 pounds, unless a greater value is declared at the time of shipment, the shipper agrees that the company shall not be liable in any event for more than fifty dollars for any shipment of 100 pounds or less, or for more than fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment weighing more than 100 pounds, unless a greater value is stated herein. Unless a greater value is declared and stated herein the shipper agrees that the value of the shipment is as last above set out and that the liability of the company shall in no event exceed such value.

3. Unless caused by its own negligence or that of its agents, the company shall not be liable for—

- a. Difference in weight or quantity caused by shrinkage, leakage or evaporation.
- b. The death, injury, or escape of live freight.
- c. Loss of money, bullion, bonds, coupons, jewelry, precious stones, valuable papers, or other matter of extraordinary value, unless such articles are enumerated in the receipt.

4. Unless caused in whole or in part by its own negligence or that of its agents, the company shall not be liable for loss, damage or delay caused by—

- a. The act or default of the shipper or owner.
- b. The nature of the property, or defect or inherent vice therein.
- c. Improper or insufficient packing, securing, or addressing.
- d. The Act of God, public enemies, authority of law, quarantine, riots, strikes, perils of navigation, the hazards or dangers incident to a state of war, or occurrence in customs warehouse.
- e. The examination by, or partial delivery to the consignee of C. O. D. shipments.
- f. Delivery under instructions of consignor or consignee at stations where there is no agent of the company after such shipments have been left at such stations.

5. Packages containing fragile articles or articles consisting wholly or in part of glass must be so marked and be packed so as to insure safe transportation by express with ordinary care.

6. When consigned to a place at which the express company has no office, shipments must be marked with the name of the express station at which delivery will be accepted or be marked with forwarding directions if to go beyond the express company's line by a carrier other than an express company. If not so marked shipments will be returned.

7. As conditions precedent to recovery claims must be made in writing to the originating or delivering carrier within nine months after delivery of the property or, in case of failure to make delivery, then within nine months after date of shipment; and suits shall be instituted only within two years and one day after the date when notice in writing is given by the carrier to the claimant that the carrier has disallowed the claim or any part or parts thereof.

8. If any C. O. D. is not paid within thirty days after notice of non-delivery has been mailed to the shipper the company may at its option return the property to the consignor.

9. Free delivery will not be made at points where the company maintains no delivery service; at points where delivery service is maintained free delivery will not be made at addresses beyond the established and published delivery limits.

Special Additional Provisions as to Shipments Forwarded by Vessel from the United States to Places in Foreign Countries.

10. If the destination specified in this receipt is in a foreign country, the property covered hereby shall, as to transit over ocean routes and by their foreign connections to such destination, be subject to all the terms and conditions of the receipts or bills of lading of ocean carriers as accepted by the company for the shipment, and of foreign carriers participating in the transportation, and as to such transit is accepted for transportation and delivery subject to the acts, ladings, laws, regulations, and customs of overseas and foreign carriers, custodians, and governments, their employees and agents.

11. The company shall not be liable for any loss, damage, or delay to said shipments, over ocean routes and their foreign connections, the destination of which is in a foreign country, occurring outside the boundaries of the United States, which may be occasioned by any such acts, ladings, laws, regulations, or customs. Claims for loss, damage or delay must be made in writing to the carrier at the port of export or to the carrier issuing this receipt within nine months after delivery of the property at said port or in case of failure to make such delivery then within nine months and fifteen days after date of shipment; and claims so made against said delivering or issuing carrier shall be deemed to have been made against any carrier which may be liable hereunder. Suits shall be instituted only within two years and one day after the date when notice in writing is given by the carrier to the claimant that the carrier has disallowed the claim or any part or parts thereof. Where claims are not so made, and/or suits are not instituted thereon in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the carrier shall not be liable.

12. It is hereby agreed that the property destined to such foreign countries, and assemble with foreign governmental or customs duties, taxes or charges, may be stopped in transit at foreign ports, frontiers or depositories, and there held pending examination, assessment and payment, and such duties and charges, when advanced by the company shall become a lien on the property.

East 105th St at Ansel Rd.,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Miss Kline:

I just received your letter and do very much appreciate your sending me the copies of "Zionism-What It is - What It Is Not." I was not aware when I wrote to you that this would involve any expense. Will you therefore instead of sending 50 copies, please send 10 copies, and if more demands come in for this pamphlet I shall be glad then to send for more.

Thanking you for your courtesy and with very cordial greetings, I remain -

Sincerely yours,

Bessie R. Berman

Secretary to Dr. Liebman

Dear Sirs:

Please send me a copy of Rabbi Silver's lectures on Zionism -- "Zionism - What it is - What it is not", for which I am enclosing twenty-five cents.

I am a confirment of The Temple and am working now to get as many signatures as possible on the petitions seeking the abrogation of the White Paper.

My warmest greetings to Rabbi Silver.

Sincerely,

RAILWAY EXPRESS AGENCY

INCORPORATED

UNIFORM EXPRESS RECEIPT—NON-NEGOTIABLE—TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The provisions of this receipt shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the consignee, the consignor and all carriers handling this shipment and shall apply to any reconignment, or return thereof.

2. In consideration of the rate charged for carrying said property, which is dependent upon the value thereof and is based upon an agreed valuation of not exceeding fifty dollars for any shipment of 100 pounds or less and not exceeding fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment in excess of 100 pounds, unless a greater value is declared at the time of shipment, the shipper agrees that the company shall not be liable in any event for more than fifty dollars for any shipment of 100 pounds or less, or for more than fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment weighing more than 100 pounds, unless a greater value is stated herein. Unless a greater value is declared and stated herein the shipper agrees that the value of the shipment is as last above set out and that the liability of the company shall in no event exceed such value.

3. Unless caused by its own negligence or that of its agents, the company shall not be liable for—

- a. Difference in weight or quantity caused by shrinkage, leakage, or evaporation.
- b. The death, injury, or escape of live freight.
- c. Loss of money, bullion, bonds, coupons, jewelry, precious stones, valuable papers, or other matter of extraordinary value, unless such articles are enumerated in the receipt.

4. Unless caused in whole or in part by its own negligence or that of its agents, the company shall not be liable for loss, damage or delay caused by—

- a. The act or default of the shipper or owner.
- b. The nature of the property, or defect or inherent vice therein.
- c. Improper or insufficient packing, securing, or addressing.
- d. The Act of God, public enemies, authority of law, quarantine, riots, strikes, perils of navigation, the hazards or dangers incident to a state of war, or occurrence in customs warehouse.
- e. The examination by, or partial delivery to the consignee of C. O. D. shipments.
- f. Delivery under instructions of consignee or consignee at stations where there is no agent of the company after such shipments have been left at such stations.

5. Packages containing fragile articles or articles consisting wholly or in part of glass must be so marked and be packed so as to insure safe transportation by express with ordinary care.

6. When consigned to a place at which the express company has no office, shipments must be marked with the name of the express station at which delivery will be accepted or be marked with forwarding directions if to go beyond the express company's line by a carrier other than an express company. If not so marked shipments will be refused.

7. As conditions precedent to recovery claims must be made in writing to the originating or delivering carrier within nine months after delivery of the property or, in case of failure to make delivery, then within nine months and fifteen days after date of shipment; and suits shall be instituted only within two years and one day after the date when notice in writing is given by the carrier to the claimant that the carrier has disallowed the claim or any part or parts thereof.

8. If any C. O. D. is not paid within thirty days after notice of non-delivery has been mailed to the shipper the company may at its option return the property to the consignor.

9. Free delivery will not be made at points where the company maintains no delivery service; at points where delivery service is maintained free delivery will not be made at addresses beyond the established and published delivery limits.

Special Additional Provisions as to Shipments Forwarded by Vessel from the United States to Places in Foreign Countries.

10. If the destination specified in this receipt is in a foreign country, the property covered hereby shall, as to transit over ocean routes and by their foreign connections in such destination, be subject to all the terms and conditions of the receipts or bills of lading of ocean carriers as accepted by the company for the shipment, and of foreign carriers participating in the transportation, and as to such transit is accepted for transportation and delivery subject to the acts, ladings, laws, regulations, and customs of overseas and foreign carriers, customs, and governments, their employees and agents.

11. The company shall not be liable for any loss, damage, or delay to said shipments over ocean routes and their foreign connections, the destination of which is in a foreign country, occurring outside the boundaries of the United States, which may be occasioned by any such acts, ladings, laws, regulations, or customs. Claims for loss, damage or delay must be made in writing to the carrier at the port of export or to the carrier issuing this receipt within nine months after delivery of the property at said port or in case of failure to make such delivery then within nine months and fifteen days after date of shipment; and claims so made against said delivering or issuing carrier shall be deemed to have been made against any carrier which may be liable hereunder. Suits shall be instituted only within two years and one day after the date when notice in writing is given by the carrier to the claimant that the carrier has disallowed the claim or any part or parts thereof. Where claims are not so made, and/or suits are not instituted thereon in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the carrier shall not be liable.

12. It is hereby agreed that the property destined to such foreign countries, and assemble with foreign governmental or customs duties, taxes or charges, may be stopped in transit at foreign ports, frontiers or depots, and there held pending examination, assessment and payment, and such duties and charges, when advanced by the company shall become a lien on the property.

Dear Dr. Silver:

The attached letter -- typical of this community's reaction to your recent pamphlet -- will be interesting to you.

We have distributed 600 copies of "Zionism - What It Is, What It Is Not", and a week from Friday night the pamphlet will be the subject of a discussion in three Omaha pulpits.

Mr. Lipp, the author of the attached letter, is an outstanding young Omaha attorney, a past president of our Zionist District, and a member of the National Board of the National Federation of Temple Brotherhoods.

It occurred to me that you would be glad to know how useful your most recent publication has been in our Zionist work here.

Sincerely,

Rabbi Arthur J. Lelyveld

Dear Arthur:

At last - Eureka! - the concise statement of the case for Zionism, the brief for which I've looked in vain these past few years. When fears, doubts, and deceptions beclouded the Palestine Issue, our proponents vigorously worked their little bellows, emitting sentimental vapors or else breathed heavily of "blood and soil". They disturbed the fog, but shed no light.

The little pamphlet, "Zionism, What It Is - What It Is Not" by Dr. Silver, is the first mind-compelling epitome on the subject I have encountered, and should be required reading for every Z.O.A. member, many of whom will be surprised to learn that logic, too, is on our side! It should also be placed in the hands of Youth, who I am certain were not too greatly impressed with the irrelevancy that they grow bigger grapefruit in Palestine than they do in Texas. Zionism is sound and convincing - not sound and fury!

Why don't you point out, by letter or otherwise, the worth of this pamphlet, since there is so much unreadable matter in circulation. Our project should be to distribute it to every Jew and many non-Jews in Nebraska, and particularly encourage its reading in Lincoln. I'm writing this for fear I may forget to mention it to you when you get back to Omaha, and I do want you to know how effective I regard Dr. Silver's paper.

Cordially,

Lou

Gentlemen:

While on my vacation to N. Y. it has been brought to my attention that Mr. Silver recently preached an excellent sermon on Zionism, and that it is available in pamphlet form. Would you kindly send me this sermon on Zionism addressed to the Hebrew Union College, Cincinnati, 20, Ohio. Thank you ever so much. Sincerely,
M. Hershfield
