Dear Rabbi Silver:

I take pleasure in sending you under separate cover a complimentary copy of Bernard A. Rosenblatt's "Social Zionism", which I hope you will read.

It represents a point of view that is largely endorsed within the ranks of the Zionist movement, and I believe that its presentation at this time will prove of value.

I would appreciate your comments on the program that Mr. Rosenblatt presents.

Cordially,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Due to your absence from the city and my inability to ascertain the exact date of your return, I am compelled to resort to mail communication in a matter that in the ordinary run of things commands one's personal attention.

I am to be married on the 23rd of September. My fiancée is a confirmant of the late Rabbi Gries and owing to the long affiliation of the family with your congregation, she is especially anxious to have the ceremony performed by the minister of the Temple.

I would request you to notify me when you could see me relative to this affair. It would be greatly appreciated if it could be arranged about ten days before the date set.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of the 25th instant, addressed to Rabbi Silver, has been opened by me in his absence.

Rabbi Silver left Cleveland the end of June on a trip, to Palestine. He planned then to return about September 15th. There is a chance that he may be delayed beyond that date. If your wedding date is definitely set for September 23rd, perhaps it would be better that you arrange for another Rabbi, in order to avoid a ~~disappointment~~ disappointment and embarrassment at the last moment.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

My dear Doctor Silver -

May I be permitted to intrude on your occupied time with this request for your consideration of the enclosed with view to the presentation of this series or any portion of it under your auspices.

I will explain that while
I was at the Western Reserve University last April, I was informed that you would probably cordially welcome my mission. I called at your residence in the hope of an interview but you were out of town; so I take this method of stating briefly that, unlike any other representations of Mr. Emerson before the public, this is entirely personal, the fruit of ten years friendship, begun when I was a student at Williams College in 1865. I invited him there to lecture, travelled home with him to various other points and was his guest at intervals for ten years. I published a little of his conversations with me in a book called "Talks with Emerson." which is, indeed, noted in a volume of his journal.

But I will not enlarge with details until I may learn that you are interested. If you are in the way of meeting Doctor Thwing, you might care for his impressions. He has had me there two or three times. - The cost of one "Talks" is $50 for one; $25 for each additional.

If you should look upon these overtures with favor, I would like to be informed whether you have any preference as to the period of a visit; whether, some time this year or next Spring? I ask, because I am now only arranging destinations; and am ~~deferring~~ ^{deferring} datings until later when tidings from correspondents have been received.

I beg to remain Sincerely Yours,
Charles Hoosier

his trip abroad and has read your letter of August 25th.

If you have not as yet definitely en-

My dear Dr. Morgenstern:

Rabbi Silver returned to Cleveland yesterday from his trip abroad, and I showed him your letter.

He would be very glad indeed if you could arrange to come to Cleveland on the 23rd so that you and he may have ample time to arrange all details for the services at both places of worship.

Will you kindly plan to come on the 23rd, if convenient, and let us know, if possible, when you will arrive so that someone may meet you, and arrange for your comfort.

I am requested by our Executive Board to extend a cordial invitation to Mrs. Morgenstern to come with you, and to express the hope that she may be able to accept.

Rabbi Silver sends greetings for the New Year and kindest regards to yourself and Mrs. Morgenstern.

Sincerely yours,

My dear Lou.

At the last meeting of the Union in Boston, I was delighted to hear of the work you are doing with your High School Department.

I am very anxious to get some information on that particular subject. Would it be imposing upon you to request you to send me, sometime this month, an outline of your work-your organization-when you hold your sessions- your curriculum and any other items of interest that you think would be useful to me.

Permit me to take this occasion to wish you and Mrs. Mann a very Happy New Year and continued success in your work.

When we started the Free Loan Association, I was especially interested in its promotion. Its growing development was largely due to the publication of letters of prominent, identified citizens.

I will be most pleased to propose your name as a member of our Board at the next annual meeting if you will permit me to do so, and hope to be favored with your kind assistance.

I have been requested to get together a committee for the purpose of carrying on this campaign in Cuyahoga County and I would esteem it a personal favor if you would accept service as one of its members. To the heads of the Jewish Churches of Cleveland, O.

Greetings,

There is today a condition confronting the people of our country that has already brought suffering to many of the workers, and while it may be stated that in so far as the Labor is concerned it has made every effort to curtail suffering, and to carry on its battle for the emancipation of the Toiler in a sane and safe manner, Thus avoiding any violence between the workers and those that are employed to weaken their morale by using methods that seem to the workers un-American, and against the ideal of our people.

We, as the workers, feel that this crisis is one that can well be compared with the righteous war for the emancipation of the Chattel slave, and are sure that this move for the emancipation of the wage slave we are accomplishing the same result for the workers that was accomplished for the colored people by the civil war.

We, as the leaders of the workers in this contest between Labor and Capital for the right of collective bargaining, and the elimination of the espionage of the workers thru spies, and others, great responsibilities have been placed on us, and we feel that our efforts to conduct this struggle in a manner to commend our work to the citizens of our city and especially to the members of your Association which has always taught the right of Brotherhood among men, and the uplift of humanity is one necessitating our most earnest thought.

Feeling the responsibility of our position and the necessity for proper guidance in this struggle, that means so much to a large number of the working people, We request the prayers of your church for our cause, and in properly conducting to the successful conclusion this war of emancipation of the workers.

Gentlemen:-

The advertisement of your concern, printed in the News-Leader of Sunday, September 28th, has been brought to my attention by a few men and women who see in it an unwarranted attack and slander upon citizens of Jewish faith in this country.

Apart from the evident injustice of it, I cannot understand the end which such inconsiderate condemnation as is contained in your advertisement can serve, especially at such a time, when the best minds of our land are endeavoring to create a better and more brotherly feeling of co-operation between all the elements of our country.

It must have been a thoughtless slip on the part of your advertising manager, and I hope that in the interest of fair play you will try to avoid such things in the future.

Assuring you of my highest regard, I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,

VITUPERATIVE BABBLING

THE NEWS-LEADER in its issue of Sunday, Sept. 28, publishes an advertisement from Daykin Brothers, dealers in plumbing goods at 1606 W. 25th street, containing the following:

" 'Tis the same old way that the Christians got rid of the Indians, the Missionaries killed the Africans, and the Romans annihilated the Trojans. They just made for them a simple worm-still to make their own booze. The Feusal Oil, Alcohol and Rot-Gut first makes them demons and then stiff Bolshevikiites, Russians, Jews, Huns, low-browed Germans, Austrians, and every class of ignorant immigrants we have with us will wipe themselves out if these cheap venders in whisky worm-stills are allowed to go on. For a mere pittance they sell these ignorant ginks a length of copper tubing and a receptacle, showing them how to twist the pipe around a post making a coil, and then they are the happy possessor of an up-to-date whisky still, and start to manufacturing bug juice that put the Angel Gabriel on the bum in two hours. The trade in these delirium tremen, death-dealing, trouble-making stills is increasing so fast that it has raised the price of copper tubing 500 per cent. The poison that they are making with them will put the blink on all our low foreign population all right, all right. But oh! Lord, the trouble they make before they croak, striking, squealing, fighting and when they get drunk open goes the dynamite trunk."

A newspaper policy which permits the acceptance as advertising matter of vituperative babbling that slanders millions of worthy men and women might well be the subject of an immediate inquiry on the part of the Anti-Defamation League.

The many whom that body was organized to serve would be interested in knowing the why and wherefore of that policy.

A NEW APPEAL

"They bear on high their Torah
Like a flag to heaven flown;
They prove how great their spirit, let us prove How great our own."

IN a New Year's appeal to Jews of America, to aid the suffering Jews of war-stricken lands of Europe, Jacob H. Schiff, quotes the lines from Israel Zangwill's poem, "Our Own," which is also an appeal to Jewish men and women of the United States to succor the many thousands of Jews across the seas in need of immediate relief.

Jews of America have responded in the past to the cry from Eastern and Central Europe, and other war-torn lands across the Atlantic. The new appeal will not be sounded in vain.

CARDINAL MERCIER

Cleveland
October 7th, 1919

Dear Sir:

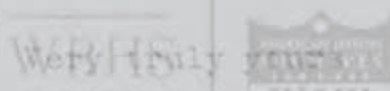

Cardinal Mercier, Primate of Belgium, one of the most distinguished figures in the World War, will visit the city of Cleveland on October 16th and 17th. This Committee has arranged for a Reception and Banquet at the Hotel Cleveland on Thursday evening, October 16th, at seven o'clock.

as a separate formal reception for the ladies will be held on the evening of the 17th.

The tickets for the banquet will be Ten Dollars ($10.00) per person, and if you can accept the enclosed invitation, you are requested to sign the enclosed acceptance form and mail it, with your check, to J. C. McHannan, Treasurer, Central National Bank, City, within twenty-four hours after receipt hereof.

Rabbi A.H. Silver,
The Temple, City.

My dear Rabbi:

I believe the inclosed, a clipping from this Tuesday morning's Plain Dealer, is sufficient reason for a publicity campaign by Cleveland synagogues and temples such as Cleveland Catholicism and Cleveland Protestantism are now conducting.

Catholicism and Protestantism are taking into account the social unrest and are keeping these faiths in the public eye by means of daily newspaper items so written as to link church activities with current events in a "story" that no alert city editor can afford to consign to the wastebasket.

I believe news of Jewish synagogue, temple, Sabbath and Sunday schools is equally desirable from a newspaper standpoint and would tend to counteract such influences as are represented by the inclosed article. To date the amount of Jewish news in the dailies has been negligible and even such important holidays as Rosh Hashanna and Yom Kippur received scant notice.

I would be pleased to have you broach this subject to other Cleveland rabbis with a view toward co-operation in a publicity campaign. Being a newspaperman familiar with the editorial policies of the Cleveland dailies, I should be glad to serve as publicity adviser in such a campaign.

Your opinion in this matter will be greatly appreciated. To that end a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed.

Sincerely yours,

Isidor I. Sperling

To a Member of the Camp Wise Crew .

Dear Friend:

The CAMP WISE CREW has weathered the storms of the past two years, and is now ready to take up its usual activities with a greater enthusiasm than ever before; but this enthusiasm cannot bear fruit unless the treasury is replenished, for we find ourselves very short of funds.

In the spring we contracted to furnish the salary of a paid leader for girls, and this item alone has thrown us into debt.

The chairmen of the various committees are already making plans for a big "Get - Together" out at Camp on October 26th, for which funds will be required.

Despite our sad financial condition, however, the officers believe that the dues for the coming season if paid promptly, will provide an adequate fund to meet our expenses.

You can therefore help to imbue the CAMP WISE CREW with new life and enthusiasm for the coming year if you will use the enclosed self-addressed envelope NOW to forward your dues (Two Dollars) for the fiscal year, beginning October 1st, to the treasurer.

Yours very truly,

Gentlemen—,

ATTENTION MR. A. H. SILVER.

My being out of the city prevented me from answering your esteemed favor of October 7th, regarding the advertisement that I wrote for publication, and was published September 28th. I had no thought or intention of slandering or attacking any Jewish people in the least degree. I have the highest regard for the people of that race. If you will carefully read the article again, you will see that you are wrong. My object was and the events of the last few hours where four of our best policemen were made crazy by this poisonous self-made liquor and the killing of a first class man, who was also under the influence of this poisonous concoction justifies the stand I took in regard to this end. If you and the people who complained to you, will come to our store and let me show you and them where members of your race are trafficking in the dirty work of helping to put the poison into the brains of the poor devils that want a stimulant, and will pay big money to them for helping to get it for them, then you will feel you owe me an apology. Yours was the only letter we received condemning our course. We have had hundreds praising us for the stand we took in this matter.

Yours respectfully,

DAYKIN BROS.

My dear Mr. Silver:

I have just wired you as follows:

"Subject of my address will be Americanism.
Please advise place and hour of meeting. Will wire you later train and hour of arrival."

In view of the fact that I was asked to make an address at a Roosevelt Memorial, my intention was to speak of Roosevelt as an American, but what I say will come very properly under the subject "Americanism".

I did not wire the time of my arrival because I am uncertain as yet whether I will come by automobile or by train. As a matter of fact, I will likely go to Toledo on Saturday, and will come to Cleveland from there.

Hoping to see you Sunday morning next,

Dear Sir:-

As a member of the Council for the Cleveland District of the Boy Scouts of America please note the Annual Meeting is to take place on Thursday, November 6th, at 7:30 P. M. at Local Headquarters, 700 Sincere Building, corner Prospect Avenue and Fourth Street. There will be no financial solicitation.

Please telephone your acceptance to Main 5283 or mail it to Scout Headquarters, 700 Sincere Building.

We are sure that you agree with us that our great, growing city has no more important industry than the making of our boys into men of character and trustworthy citizenship and that no instrumentality provides a greater opportunity than the program of the Boy Scouts of America. You will be deeply interested in getting a bird's-eye view of the work of the past year and of the great future with its limitless possibilities.

Local as well as national conditions point clearly to the increasing necessity for the work done through our organization and to our responsibility as good citizens in seeing that it is well done. You must not fail to be present.

My dear Mr. Kahn,

I really do not know the kind of men you want for your Friday evening meetings; whether you wish men to discuss religious topics only or would other subjects be preferable to you. At present two names come to my mind, that of Mr. Allen W. Davis of Pittsburgh whose philosophy is authodox, if not his principles and the other is Dr. Huebsg of this City.

If you can enlighten me more specifically as to the kind of speakers you wish I might be able to give you a few more names.

Dear Abe:

and
I suffered like a man/a martyr when you shoved "The Scribe" on to us at the university and "The Monthly" at the college. Now I am after your scalp.

All joking aside. Here is what I am after. You probably received the enclosed pamphlet earlier in the year. Here is what this paper, "The Scroll" proposes to do. Its unique feature will be current Jewish events. It will have all the other features that are usually embodied in child's papers: short story, etc. But it will have something more. Its range of departments will be wide enough to satisfy the interests of boys and girls ranging from the age of eight to fifteen.

to emphasize
I am also endeavoring/the community aspect of Jewish life, by offering articles on Jewish organizations and institutions. I am carrying on this very work in my High School department. I feel that these articles will assist teachers and pupils in a High School department.

I shall appreciate your very careful study of the enclosed pamphlet, outlining the several features. I shall be especially grateful for a word from you. Any effort you may make to introduce "The Scroll" among the children of your school, will be appreciated. Mrs. Levinger contributes the first short story.

Awaiting your word and your hearty support,

As ever,
Max.

and this meeting will be very much in the nature of a reunion of men since their return from Service.

They have all heard of your remarkable have been bestowed upon you, and they are eager to welcome you in their midst. Can you come?

Dear Silver:

I am mighty sorry to be unable to accept your kind invitation for December 7. Unfortunately I am booked solidly for that day with two or three appointments that are unbreakable. I am particularly sorry because, had the letter which you say you wrote me on November 14 reached me, I no doubt at that time could have arranged it, but have since made appointments that prevent my acceptance. That letter never reached me unfortunately but, insofar as much mail has gone astray recently, I am not surprised. ✓

By the way, did you ever receive a letter from me written some weeks ago in which I asked you the same question as to what time would be agreeable to you to come and speak for us on a Friday evening? Perhaps my letter likewise has not reached you as I have not had an answer to date. ? when?

Once again assuring you that whenever convenient I should be glad to speak for you and to welcome you here. 12 most sincerely in the sentiments therein expressed.

Mr. Ruthenberg was not guilty of the charges made against him, whatever else he may be guilty of, and to have ruled otherwise than I did would have been unjust. The law is not perfect, but it's the best thing we have to work with, and certainly it should not give way before prejudice or hysteria.

My dear Sir,

I was very happy to hear from you.

Your new enterprise, the publication of a Religious School paper, interests me, but you will realize, I am quite sure, that it is as yet too early to introduce the magazine in as large a school as that of The Temple. I shall be glad to see copies of the Magazine from time to time.

My dear Dr. Loewenstein,

I was rather surprised to receive your letter enclosing a cartoon from the Cleveland Plain Dealer. There was, to my mind, absolutely no intention to cast any reflection upon Jews. The figures of the man and woman represented two prosperous, selfish individuals, and not at all Jewish.

The Community Chest campaign was one of real co-operation and friendship at all times, and I fear that you have, perhaps, misinterpreted the drawing in question.

I would suggest that you call upon the artist, whom you may reach at the Plain Dealer office, and he will undoubtedly explain the matter to you.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

At a meeting of the Nominating Committee of the Cleveland Humane Society held at the office of the Society, City Hall, your name was proposed as a member of the Board of Directors. This Board, including the officers, consists of sixty members. Speaking for the entire Committee, permit me to say a very earnest desire was expressed that you consent to act in this capacity. The duties are not burdensome. Whatever time you are able to give in response to the calls made upon you will be greatly appreciated, but the Nominating Committee have attached great importance to your moral support and to a high standard of civic intelligence and loyalty in the personnel of its Directors. The work of the Society has been enlarged until at present it devotes by far the greatest part of its activities to the protection of children, in caring for the crippled, and in finding temporary shelter and afterwards permanent homes for the neglected.

May we assume if we do not hear from you by the time of our Annual Meeting, Monday evening, December 8, that you are willing to act?

My dear Mr. Eidelsberg,

Your letter of November 23rd, addressed to Rabbi Silver, was referred by him to the Committee of The Temple having such matters in charge.

I am directed to advise you, that because of the many activities of The Temple, and the almost constant use of all the rooms in the building, it has been the policy to refuse the use of rooms at The Temple to all outside interests. If this were not the case, it would be impossible to permit the use of any room at The Temple on a Sunday, when every inch of available space is in use throughout the entire day.

Regretting our inability to comply with your request,

May I suggest that in the future it would, perhaps, be advisable to give a higher tone to such an affair by having a better grade of ticket, and by a personal letter to each patron. Much depends upon such things.

I want to meet a group of men, especially the younger men of our Congregation, in order to discuss with them the scope of the Forum for the coming year and the character which it should pursue in order to interest our people in the great educational possibilities of such an institution.

City.

Personal

My dear Mr. Silver: -

I have yours of the 5th and sincerely regret that, because of a previous engagement, I shall be unable to attend the conference in reference to the re-establishment of the Forum.

I would, however, without any presumption on my part, like to call your attention to the fact that while the Forum has almost unlimited possibilities for good along educational lines, it has also great possibilities for evil along political lines.

You will recall that when we first instituted the Forum, we were in the midst of the Great War and had a universal subject of interest. We were as one in the unity of our purpose.

And yet, I recall that the only lively discussion that followed any lecture was provoked by the ardent desire of a few Zionists to foist their views on the assembly.

It occurs to me that the only discussion that would follow any social or political talk today would be provoked by the desire of certain radicals to foist or to air their rabid views on those assembled. Whether or not they would do so, the possibility of this occurring is inherent.

It seems to me that in these times of stress, we should guard against any such contingencies to the end that the Forum shall not be the debating ground for radicals. To my mind, it is essential, with all due regard to the right of free speech, that we should limit the rabid minority in their desire to bring before the eager ears of the more gullible their programme of destruction of American ideals and institutions. It is still more essential that no one group of people shall lend themselves to the accomplishment of such results.

The above is intended not as a criticism of the Forum idea, but as a possibility that should be guarded against. I trust that the day is not far off when we can allow people to speak their minds freely without fear of their endangering our national ideals.

The Forum idea carried out as a purely lecture course would eliminate this danger and I think, be a valuable addition to the community life.

I trust that you will understand the above are mere suggestions and wish to assure you that I shall be glad to co-operate with you in your undertakings.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Lester P. Miller

My dear Mr. Silver:-

Mr. A. Printz, President of The Printz- Biederman Company, informed me they have asked representatives of Civic bodies as well as representatives of the different Industries in this City and elsewhere, to attend their employees meetings which occur every Tuesday morning between 10:00 and 11:00 o'clock, in order to familiarize themselves with the working conditions in their plant. Those that have attended these meetings were very much interested and became quite enthusiastic.

These conferences are held weekly by a body of the workers called, "the house of Representatives" and "the Senate" which is composed of the workers of the Company.

Mr. Printz mentioned that he would very much appreciate a visit by the Ministers in the city. Would you be kind enough to ask some of the ministers of different denominations to attend one of these Tuesday meetings. From what I learn I am sure it would be of great interest to you and your associates, as it will give you a good idea of the development that has taken place in this Industrial Plant, which plan, a great many other industries have adopted.

Trusting you can arrange to attend, with my best wishes, I am,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

You are probably aware of the fact that Rabbi Philo has been quite ill and was forced to resign as President of the J.R.E.A. You also know that Rabbi Alexander has left Toledo to accept a call from Akron.

This combination of circumstances will prevent the J.R.E.A. from holding a convention this month. We will advise you as soon as plans for a meeting are formulated.

My dear Mr. Weidenthal,

Now that the Annual Meeting is over and your new Board elected, I feel that we ought to get down to the work of planning immediately a program for the remaining five months of the year. I do not think the Play ought to absorb all the interests of the Association.

You will recall the conversation I had with you some time ago with reference to a monthly program for the Alumni Association. We must get our young people to meet together more often.

I would suggest that you call a special meeting of your entire Board, some time during the week, in the evening, so that I may attend it. Let me urge upon you the necessity of getting to work on this Alumni program at once, and let me hear from you.

Dear Co-workers:-

The Central Relief Committee begs to inform you that a campaign for Jewish War Relief is being organized in the State of Ohio.

The Central Relief Committee represents the great majority of Orthodox Jews in America, as well as those on the other side and hopes that all of our Orthodox Jewry in Ohio will rally behind the campaign and help make it a great success.

Mr. Harris L. Selig, (H. L. Selikowitz) our Executive Director is leaving today for Cleveland, for the purpose of touring the State of Ohio and help organize the campaign and address mass meetings for relief.

Mr. Selig is one of the most noted Jewish speakers and writers and will gladly accept the invitation of any congregation or society to address them. His headquarters will be either at the office of the "Jewish World" in Cleveland, or at the Hotel Cleveland.

We hope that you will avail yourself of his presence and give him your assistance.

Mr. A. H. Silver,

My dear Mr. Silver:

1. I have sent to our worthy President, Mr. Benjamin Lowenstein, my resignation as a member of the Board.

2. I have made a large purchase of billets from the U. S. Government which will require my time away from Cleveland for months to come. Most of the time I expect to be here in Washington. I can, therefore, not give the Temple the time which I would desire to, should I continue a member of the Board, and deem it best for its interest that some worthy active member of the Temple replace me on the Board. You, Mr. Silver, and Mr. Lowenstein, through the good work which you are doing, richly deserve cooperation and worthy backing by each and every member of our Temple.

3. My association as Committeeman and member of the Board extends over a period of about twenty one years, so you see I am about of age and ready to graduate and move on. It so happens that, if you will refer to the original minutes of the congregation, you will find my father's name therein enrolled as one of its charter members. His name is incorrectly spelled. It was "Louis Henry Schwarzenberg". My worthy father, who was but fifty-six years old, died in October 1873. I was but a mere boy at the time. It was a serious loss to the family and especially to me, a boy of thirteen. My contention is that a boy especially needs his father from thirteen to thirty-three. From that time on he may realize how much there is in the world to learn and how little he knows. May I say that it was my pleasure to introduce Mr. Alex M. Buchman, who was then associated with me, in the Fall of 1916, to Mr. William McLaughlan, who was one of the head men of Pickands, Mather & Company, a Cleveland concern, one of the largest iron factors in the country. Mr. McLaughlan had the privilege of knowing my father six or more years longer than I knew him; from his boyhood to his young manhood. My father in 1916 had been dead forty-three years. Mr. McLaughlan's greeting to Mr. Buchman was, "Eph's father was the finest man who ever lived in Cleveland". Mr. McLaughlan is of good Scotch descent and has the old fashioned habit of telling the plain truth in a very pleasant manner. ("Eph" is the short for my name, "Ephraim")

[1919] 16

For the tireless co-operation; the consideration, the individual and collective marks of kindness and friendship that you gave to me during my Presidency of The Temple Women's Association, I am deeply gratefully to you. They made the years of my administration, altho they covered the period of the war, very happy ones,

The expressions of appreciation, during and since our annual meeting, on Monday, have made this week a memorable one for me. but the beautiful gift which you presented to me, has been returned.

With a membership due of but one dollar and no admission fee to our lectures, to have conducted our many-sided work and close the season with a balance of $3,027 in our savings account, which we now call our New Temple Fund, is a tribute to your unceasing effort and fine Temple spirit and a source of great pride to me.

If, in any measure, I have been helpful, [1912?]
I am glad, but I wish no other recompense than the love and gratitude within your hearts.

[1919?]

Dear Friend:

It gives me no little pleasure to answer your inquiry about our school. We begin our children at the age of six (6) and for eight (8) years our curriculum is not very different from that of other schools, beginning with the story of creation and ending with the close of the Bible, with numerous ethical and moral stories, ~~Psalm~~ proverbs and rabbinical maxims, interspersed as an integral part of the work. Our children are confirmed at the age of fourteen (14). the year following confirmation they enter the freshman year High School. This year is devoted to a bird's eye survey of Jewish History from the close of the Bible to the rise of Mohammedanism in the eighth century. Ten minutes of each hour is given to a discussion of current Jewish and religious problems. I neglected above to tell you that our school proper begins at 9.45 A. M. and closes at 11.15 and that our High School department begins at 11.15 and runs for little more than an hour.

The second year High School is more or less like the first, the period covered being from the eighth century to the present day, with a special discussion of all the movements in modern Jewry, with reports, lectures and class room discussions continued along university lines. We give these adolescents ample opportunity for discussion. It is that more than anything else that keeps them together. The fact that they meet later in the primary grades also has a fine influence. The Junior and Senior classes are taught together and both of them by me, but I alternate the courses so that there never is any duplication.

The first year we tried Lazzarre's "Anti-Semitism" as our text book, or rather as a pretext for it gave us an opportunity to examine in detail many problems that concerned modern Jewry in the light of historical experience. Papers, discussions and reports of specific problems were given from week to week. The next year we took Fishberg's book "The Jew - A Study in Race Environment" and you can easily realize what an opportunity we had here. Last year we took Abbott's "The Jew in Modern Europe". In the Junior and Senior year especially the problems of the day were discussed for the first ten or fifteen minutes of our hour and whenever possible the principles of Judaism were applied.

Sat - 9.15. 10.15.

Sat. 10.20. 11.30.

We have lost practically none from the age of confirmation to the High School Graduation. This year for the first time we are beginning our Normal School course to train our own teachers. This will keep them in school from the age of 19 to 21. Its origin may be explained in the fact that last year's High School graduates did not want to sever their connections with the school. The boys in our Junior and Senior year High School are sophomores and juniors at Yale and have not been out of religious school since the age of six. Only the first of the two years Normal School curriculum has been arranged. Professor Kent of Yale will teach one of the two courses on "The materials of religious school education and the principles of modern psychology and pedagogy applied to them.". The other course will be given by me on comparative religions. Naturally we are looking forward to an interesting year.

If I have omitted anything that you would like to know, do call upon me. Wishing you and yours a very happy New Year, I am,

Sincerely yours,

LLM/EC
