Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver,
10311 Lake Shore Boulevard,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

We wrote you on August 6th asking your cooperation for the million dollar drive of the American Committee Appeal for the Jews in Poland aiming to give urgent and constructive relief to suffering Polish Jewry.

Mr. Winter wired you on August 13th to this effect. We regret that your presence abroad at that time prevented you from replying.

However, you could still be of great assistance to our special effort in approaching the synagogues and temples of the country during the forthcoming high Holy Day period. I am certain that a formal endorsement of this work, on your part, with particular reference to the Rosh Hashonah and Yom Kippur appeal, will be of inestimable value.

Would it be possible for you to send us such a statement soon.

Very truly yours,

MJW:AS

Rabbi Max J. Wohlgelehrter, Chairman
SYNAGOGUE COMMITTEE

A Million Dollar Campaign to Aid the Economic Rehabilitation of Jews in Poland By

1. Extending speedy help to victims of recent pogroms.
2. Retraining as many as possible in new industrial pursuits for a life of useful activity.
3. Supporting Jewish industrial and commercial self-aid institutions and cooperative agencies.
4. Strengthening the Jewish cooperative farm movement.
5. Affording at the central and local relief committees in Poland free loans to recipients of charity for their economic rehabilitation.
6. Assisting orphans and destitute children to emigrate to Palestine.
7. Aiding Jewish educational institutions.

"I fear that the great publicity given to the German situation has overshadowed the minds of our people in regard to Poland. There is no more pressing need today for help to our brethren abroad, that I know of, than that for the relief of Jews in Poland."

Rabbi Herbert S. Goldstein

"Having visited Poland fairly recently, I appreciate to the full the desperate condition of the Jews in that land, and it would be most desirable if a substantial sum for constructive relief were to be raised for alleviating at least in some measure, the almost hopeless burden of poverty borne by Polish Jews."

Rev. Dr. David deSola Pool

"Everybody here in the United States is urged to give something to the appeal for the Polish Jews, to relieve their distress and to help them to carry on, until the dawn of a better day."

William Weiss

"It is sufficient to read the sorrowful and heart-rending reports of the spiritual, economic and physical persecution of Polish Jewry, appearing in the newspapers almost daily, to realize that it is the sacred duty of American Jews to support this effort for the relief of the greatest and most important Jewish community in Europe."

"We urge particularly the members of Orthodox synagogues to dedicate one day during the month of Tishrei—the period of 'Repentance, Prayer and Charity'—for an appeal in the interests of this campaign for Polish relief which aims to save three and a half million Jews from hunger and destruction."

"Poland has given to world Jewry great scholars and great traditions, and we certainly would feel hurt if the Jewish economic problems in this land of the Diaspora were not solved immediately. Every member of the Young Israel Movement joins me in endorsing the work you are doing."

Jacob O. Zabronsky

"The condition of the Jews in Poland is so desperate that it is not only inhuman, it is an absolute crime not to respond to the call for assistance."

"Both synagogue Jew and non-synagogue Jew should respond to this appeal. A Jew is not a Jew unless he is compassionate and merciful. The Polish Jew is calling for our compassion and our mercy. Never minds words—give. And in the words of the Torah, 'Open thy hand wide to give, do not stint, and let it not be hard in thine eyes so give.'"

Rev. Dr. H. Pereira Mendes

"We are ready to help and strengthen your hands in your great work for our persecuted brethren in Poland and to extend to them a helping hand."

Rabbinical Board of New York City

"The idea of an appeal for the suffering Jews in Poland on the forthcoming High Holidays is an excellent one."

S. Herbert Golden

"I join with you in appealing to the Jews in America to come to the immediate rescue of the hundreds of thousands of our brethren suffering absolute privation in Poland. The overwhelming tragedy that so suddenly came upon our brethren in Germany has made some of us forget the even yet darker picture that faces the Jews in Poland. Whole communities are on the verge of literal starvation."

"At this season of the High Holy Days when we come before our God to plead for a year of life and happiness, let every Jew think not only of himself but of his suffering brethren in Poland and in the other lands and let us share whatever blessings we enjoy with those of our flesh and blood, whose hands are outstretched to us for help."

What Jewish Leaders Say About the Catastrophic Situation of the Largest Jewish Community In Europe

NAHUM SOKOLOW:

"It is a matter of need that has no equal either in any other Jewish community or during any other period of our history. Polish Jewry is faced by the peril of extermination for economic reasons which is much more terrible although, on the surface, not so pathetic or touching as annihilation by war or pogrom."

PROFESSOR ALBERT EINSTEIN:

"I am aware that the cause you represent is of the utmost urgency and importance. I hope that the united efforts of our best men, may bring it to the success this great cause so richly deserves."

SHOLOM ASCH:

"Let us hope that the Jews of Poland who have had the good fortune to find in our great land of America a true home, will pay their debt of humanity and brotherliness to our people in Poland. They owe this to themselves, their brethren, and the land of freedom, which so warmly received them and in which they enjoy the blessings of freedom."

RABBI STEPHEN S. WISE:

"I trust that American Jewry may generously place such funds in your hands as will enable the Polish Committee under your leadership to be of real service to our brother-Jews throughout the Polish Republic."

Leading Americans Urge Help for Jews in Poland

OGDEN L. MILLS:

"We cannot view the starvation of two million human beings anywhere on this earth with equanimity. We must help them."

ALFRED E. SMITH:

"The people of the United States are ready to come to the rescue of sufferers anywhere and everywhere on the face of the earth and I am satisfied that your appeal will meet with a hearty and generous response."

ARTHUR J. MORRIS:

"This campaign is a non-sectarian and humanitarian appeal to Jews and Christians alike. I feel that it is up to all of us to leave nothing undone to insure the largest possible results in behalf of the victims we are seeking to aid. Therefore, let me assure you I regard it as a privilege and pleasure to be of service."

Dear Rabbi Silver,

The Cleveland Alumni Club of the Alpha Epsilon Pi Fraternity, on the 22nd day of September at the Sovereign Hotel, will induct into its membership Judge Joseph Silbert in honor and appreciation of the work which Judge Silbert has done in Jewish circles.

Our committee feels that in as much as you are the foremost representative of the Jewish race in our City, we will feel highly honored if you will be kind enough to attend the formal dinner banquet given in Judge Silbert's honor on that date.

Will you kindly communicate with the writer in order that we may definitely plan our program?

With kindest personal regards, I remain,

Cordially yours,

My dear Mrs. Goldstein:

At a meeting of the Real Estate and Church Extension Department of The Methodist Union, held today, Mr. Knight reported that you and some of your associates expressed a desire to rent the church property at Woodland Avenue and East 61st Street at $25.00 per month, paying six months in advance and keeping the property in repair.

The Committee, however, decided that inasmuch as arrangements had previously been made with the Goodwill Industries for their occupancy of the property on October 12, 1936, when possession is to be given, that it will be necessary to go through with this arrangement with the Goodwill Industries.

We are, therefore, not in a position to consider your offer for rental of the property and will have to ask you to give possession to the Goodwill Industries on the 12th of October, 1936, as originally agreed to by you.

PROBLEMS IN MARRIAGE AND FAMILY

1. How long should a couple be acquainted before becoming engaged? Why the engagement period? What are its relationships, duties, privileges? What should the engagement ring cost? How long an engagement should precede marriage?
2. At what age should a couple marry? How about differences in age? In religious belief? What salary should the young man receive before assuming a wife? What savings should be accumulated in advance? Should furniture and other equipment be purchased before marriage?
3. How can one estimate the degree to which happiness may come through an analysis of temperaments and interests? To what extent are interests in common necessary to successful marriage? To what extent may adjustments be made?
4. Where should the newly-weds live? Sharing a home with the parents of either. Finding a suitable location. Amount to be budgeted for shelter. Home-ownership vs renting.
5. How should the family budget be constructed? What financial authority and care should each assume? Who does the purchasing?
6. Should the wife be employed outside the home? If so, how should she dispose of her earnings?
7. Social and educational activities, clubs, leagues, church activities. A joint or individual educational program? Nights out for either or both? The vacation.
8. Partnership and individualism. To what extent are the two one? What degrees of privacy and individualism should be expected or permitted? Adjustment of personalities.
9. When should children come? How many, how frequently? The question of birth control. Why the increased interest in this question? Social, economic, moral and health considerations.
10. The relationship between parents and children. Safeguards toward health, mental development, social growth. Watchfulness vs coddling. The child as a personality.
11. How may parents aid in the proper emotional development of their children? How do they frequently retard?
12. What agencies are available in Cleveland for serving family needs? How may their services be obtained and utilized?

Dear Sir:

I am pleased to give you the following information about Mr. Samuel D. Wise who, I understand, is interested in bringing to this country a young man by the name of Walther Herz, Mittelsain bei Gemunden a Main, Unterfranken, Bayern.

Mr. Samuel D. Wise is one of the leading citizens of Cleveland. He has occupied a high position in the civic, social and philanthropic life of our city for many years. His numerous benefactions to the charitable institutions of our city have won for him a high place in the esteem of the community. A few years ago, Mr. Wise established a $100,000 Foundation Fund, the income of which is being used annually for various philanthropic purposes. He is a man of substantial means and of course in all ways financially responsible. I am in no position to estimate his wealth but it is considerably over $100,000. He is Vice-President of the Arco Company, an industrial concern which produces paints, varnishes, enamels and lacquers and which has a capital fully paid in of over $1,000,000.

Mr. Wise is at present a leading member of the Cleveland Community Fund Council, Vice-Chairman of the Jewish Welfare Federation and Jewish Welfare Fund as well as of the Council Educational Alliance.

I recommend him unhesitatingly as a man of high integrity, generosity and civic mindedness.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Abba:

Our purpose in attempting to arrange this debate in Madison Square Garden is to put across internationally these four points (sequence, of course, is arbitrary):

- (1) Who really are the international bankers? -- without any attempt to defend financiers per se.
- (2) Who really are the leaders of Bolshevism?
- (3) How small a part American Jews are playing in the administration of the American government.
- (4) How insignificant the place of the American Jews is in great American business and industry.

We have all the factual data here on all the four points. Points two and three are the ones that we particularly stress, in the light of the Nuremberg speeches. In this country, Coughlin has insinuated virtually the same allegations as to Jewish dominance in Communism.

I know it will not be too difficult for you to dress up the facts in your eloquence and render a tremendous service to our people at this time. There isn't any doubt but that we will get an international press on the debate if it is consummated, and we will try to get at least one national radio chain in this country.

The reason we suggested "The Money Changers in the Temple" is because now Leake -- and by innuendo, Hearst -- in addition to Coughlin, is using the phrase. Journalistically it is a catch phrase. You might, upon studying the subject, suggest a title that will cover all the points, instead of only the first.

If you will accept our invitation, my plan then is to send identical telegrams to you and to Coughlin. If Coughlin refuses, then we will give publicity to the telegrams and the replies, and in that way gain at least a point for the Truth and for our people.

With season's greetings,

Mr. Isaac Landman, Editor,
The American Hebrew,
212 Fifth Avenue,
New York, N.Y.

My dear Mr. Landman:

I have been thinking over your telephone conversation and your letter of September 22. The idea of a debate with Father Coughlin on the subjects indicated in your letter is a good one, if Father Coughlin will consent to such a debate. I am convinced, however, that he will not. To send him a telegram inviting him to the debate would simply give him an opportunity to repeat a statement which he has made a few times recently, namely, that he is not an anti-Semite, that he has not charged all the international bankers and communists with being Jews and that he does not intend to abstain from criticizing Jews who happen to be communists and international bankers. What good would the publication of his telegram do to the Jewish cause? It will leave the matter exactly ^{as it} stands today. He is too clever a fellow to appear as an outspoken anti-Semite any more than he would announce himself as a Fascist although all his speeches and activities inevitably tend in those directions.

I would be pleased to debate with Father Coughlin but I am sure that he will not consent to a debate and you will not maneuver him over into a reply which you will be able to exploit advantageously for the Jews. The only thing which you can do, is to sound out Father Coughlin informally and without publicity as to whether he would agree to such a debate, and upon his refusal, let the whole matter drop.

With all good wishes for a happy new year, I remain

Very cordially yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

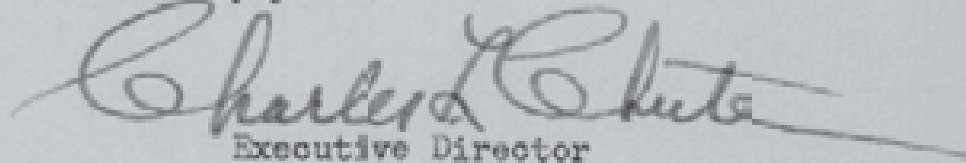

Now that the returns are all in from Judge Eastman's letter in behalf of our work, which you endorsed as a member of the Cleveland Committee, I want to thank you sincerely, on behalf of our officers and Board, for your continued assistance.

The results of the letter were very gratifying and helpful especially in view of the difficult financial period through which we have been passing.

Due to your assistance and that of others in many cities, the Association has been able to continue its work of aiding judges and probation officers all over the country, both through field visits, our regular publications, and advisory and legislative service. While the needs are very great, we have been encouraged by the growth of interest leading to real results in maintaining and improving probation and social court work.

In carrying forward our program during the coming year it is our earnest hope that we may have your continued interest and support.

Sincerely yours

October 2, 1936

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver
The Temple
Ansel Road and E. 105 Street
Cleveland, Ohio

My dear Rabbi:

A group of the friends of the late Edward W. Doty has been desirous of erecting a memorial to the memory of this distinguished and beloved Cleveland citizen. For some time, the matter has been under consideration, and it has been decided to undertake the task of building an Edward W. Doty alcove in the library of Cleveland College of Western Reserve University. Such an alcove, designed in eighteenth century English style, would house the magnificent collection of the Junius letters and related material which Mr. Doty donated to the College. The alcove would also contain literary and historical works pertaining to eighteenth century British history for the use of the students at the College and others interested in the study of this period. Already, a well-known artist and designer is preparing the plans.

As the first step in this endeavor, Peter Witt has arranged to hold another one of his famous Town Meetings, the proceeds from which he is giving to help finance this memorial to his dearest friend. The meeting is to be held in the Music Hall of the Public Auditorium on Sunday evening, October 18.

It is our desire that the meeting be held under the auspices of an Edward W. Doty Memorial Committee, made up of the friends and admirers of Mr. Doty. When the membership of this committee was being considered, your name was presented as one who might be willing to assist on such a committee. Consequently, I have been asked to write for permission to use your name as one of the sponsors of the meeting.

If you can and will serve in this way, will you be good enough to let me know at your earliest convenience? Membership on the committee will not involve any financial obligation on your part, but would signify your interest in the memorial of Edward W. Doty and your support of a valuable cultural contribution to Cleveland.

Cordially yours,

Edward I. Downer, Chairman
Edward W. Doty Memorial Committee

Rabbi Abba H. Silver,
The Temple,
Ansel Road & E. 105th St.,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Are newsboys as a class worthy of encouragement?

Suppose the newsboys of Cleveland were afforded the opportunity of physical, mental and moral development during their leisure hours in a Club-house established and maintained especially for them; and

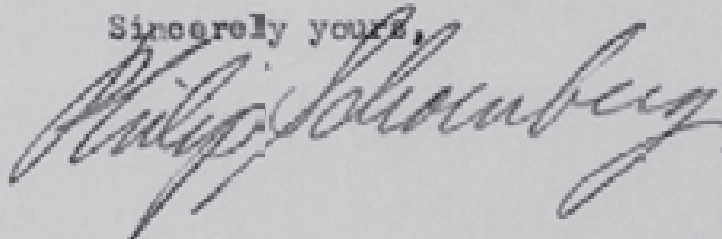

Suppose you had associated yourself with a group of influential citizens of this community and had thereby helped to give proper sponsorship, unselfish supervision and successful direction to a campaign for such a Club-house?

Wouldn't you have a feeling of satisfaction?

As a former newsboy who missed the wholesomeness of a Club-house atmosphere in his selling days on the downtown streets of Cleveland, I am taking the liberty of organizing a responsible committee who will undertake the task of providing a Club-house for the newsboys of Greater Cleveland.

Would you care to serve on this committee?

Sincerely yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

At a meeting last evening Mrs. Grace Sloan Overton suggested that we mail you a copy of the manuscript of a spectacle-drama called "Voices."

In order to give you a complete picture we are also mailing you a copy of our report to the Governor.

This Commission serves without any compensation. Its purposes, ideals, and plans are outlined in this report. A specific chapter of the report sets forth this Commission's official reasons for sponsoring "Voices."

At your convenience, and after you have had an opportunity to read the manuscript and the report, we will appreciate your constructive criticism and suggestions. We would value very highly your idea relative to the artistic view as well as the moral viewpoint.

Thanking you, we are

It gives me a great deal of pleasure to send you an advance copy of "The War Goes On", Sholem Asch's epic novel of post-War Germany which we publish October 26th.

Because of its tremendous social significance, I am hopeful that you will talk to your congregation about it.

In any event, I am anxious to have your opinion of it.

Thank you for your kind letter of October 19.
and for your invitation to serve on a committee to provide a club-house for the news boys of greater Cleveland. The idea is undoubtedly an appealing one.
However, I should like to have the judgment of the to the advisability of the project. I usually guide myself in these matters by their judgment. Would it be possible for you to obtain their opinion?

Dear Dr. Silver:

Replying to your recent inquiry with reference to a paid political advertisement, I deeply share your regret that this particular copy crept into our columns without due scrutiny. Unfortunately, because of deadline pressure, the ad in question was rushed to the printing plant by airplane and thus eluded the vigilance of an advertising staff member whose task it is to finecomb all paid notices to prevent conflict with editorial policy.

You will find considerable revision in this same copy in our next issue.

Assuring you of our appreciation for calling this to our attention, and of our desire never to offend good taste and more especially not to violate the faith of our public, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Peoples Mandate Committee

Willard Hotel

Washington, D.C.

Washington, D.C., October 31 - Secretary of State Hull, who will lead the United States delegation to the Inter American Peace Conference, will receive a delegation from the Committee of the Peoples Mandate to End War, at noon, Friday, prior to his sailing the next day for Buenos Aires.

The Peoples Mandate delegation will be led by Dr. Meta Glass, sister of Senator Carter Glass, president of Sweet Briar College, Virginia, and national president of the American Association of University Women. Mrs. Gerard Swope of New York will be the spokesman. The interview will be broadcast by the National Broadcasting Company over short wave, so it may be received in Latin America and other parts of the world. A delegation from the Peoples Mandate Committee will go to Buenos Aires to present the petition with several million signatures to the Conference, and to work for action on the points of the Mandate.

Following the interview with Secretary Hull, the Peoples Mandate Committee will give a luncheon in the Willard Hotel, honoring Mrs. Burton W. Musser, of Salt Lake City, Western Regional Director for the National Democratic Committee. Mrs. Musser is a member of the Utah Mandate Committee and will go to Buenos Aires. Dr. Glass will preside at the luncheon. Diplomats from the Latin American countries and members of the State Department will be among the guests.

November 6 will be observed throughout this country and Latin America as Inter American Peace Conference Day. There will be radio broadcasts, newspaper stories and proclamations by governors and mayors all over these countries. The Mandate will be in public places for signing. The text of the petition will be published in newspapers for individual signatures. In Latin America delegates will call on their Ministers of Foreign Relations to ask support for the Mandate. The Committee expects to secure an additional million signatures that day.

Miss Louise Wier, of Starkville, Mississippi, is in Washington now preparing to sail for Buenos Aires, November 7, to undertake arrangements there for the arrival of the Peoples Mandate delegation by airplane December 2, to present the signed Mandates to the Conference.

The Peoples Mandate is being circulated in fifty countries of the world to secure 50,000,000 signatures, 12,000,000 to be secured in the Western Hemisphere. Dr. Mary E. Woolley, president of Mount Holyoke College, is chairman of the Committee for the Western Hemisphere; Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, honorary chairman; Miss Mabel Vernon, of Wilmington, Delaware, director; Mrs. Gerard Swope, of New York, treasurer; and Mrs. Raymond Clapper, of Washington, D.C., secretary.

The Western Hemisphere Committee at this time is concentrating its work on the Inter American Peace Conference. Committees have been organized in every state in this country and every Latin America Republic for an intensive signature campaign. Eighty-four national organizations of the United States are cooperating in circulating the Mandate, including the Young Women's Christian Association, the American Association of University Women, Business and Professional Women's Club, National Council of Jewish Women, Women's Christian Temperance Union, National Motion Picture League, Young Men's Christian Association, and the World Alliance for International Friendship through the Churches.

The Peoples Mandate demands that governments stop immediately all increase of armaments and armed forces, use existing machinery for peaceful settlement of present conflicts, and call international conference for the settlement of disarmament and economic problems. Its purpose is to express such overwhelming public opinion for peaceful settlement of all conflicts that governments will not dare resort to war.

PEOPLES MANDATE TO GOVERNMENTS TO END WAR
National Headquarters
WILLARD HOTEL, WASHINGTON, D. C.

The purpose of the campaign for the Peoples Mandate is to express such overwhelming opposition to war that governments will not dare resort to it. 50,000,000 signatures to the Mandate is the goal, 12,000,000 of these to be secured in the United States. The Mandate is now being circulated in 50 countries, including such widely scattered ones as Japan, Cuba, Czechoslovakia, France, and Canada.

The Mandate will be presented to the Inter-American Conference for the Maintenance of Peace to be held in Buenos Aires, December 1, 1936. Five million signatures from the Pan American Republics are desired at that time. The Mandate will later be presented to the principal governments of the world, to the League of Nations, and to the World Peace Conference that is certain to be held in the near future.

The Mandate is being signed by men and women—anyone above the age of sixteen may sign. Signatures are being secured through organizations; by house-to-house canvassing; in markets, shops, and theatres; among employees of factories and corporations; at mass meetings, churches, labor unions, clubs; in response to articles in newspapers and magazines.

I have just completed it and I hasten to write to you and to thank you for your courtesy in sending me this tremendous work of Sholem Asch.

It is a powerful and absorbing work - profoundly moving, disturbing and exalting. I know of no novel which depicts with such penetration, understanding and moral sensitiveness the economic and moral collapse of Germany during the post-war period of inflation and the confusion and tragedy of Jewish life in Germany amidst the gathering storms of Nazism as does Asch's "The War Goes On". Dear Rabbi Silver:

Permit to call your attention to a matter in which I believe you will be interested.

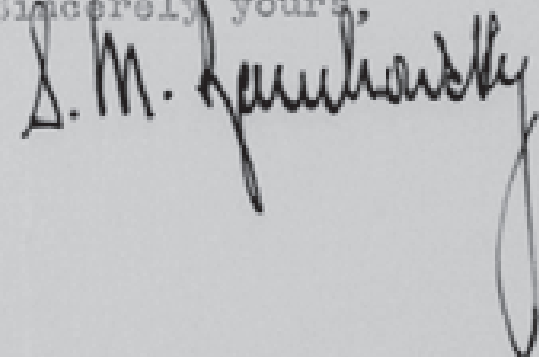

You surely know that during the Christmas season, the spirit of the holidays, is being brought into all the Public Schools, even those in the Jewish neighborhood where the attendance of Jewish children amounts to above 75%. As a result, Jewish children are found singing on the streets these songs weeks after the season.

I know of cities where on the request of Jewish leaders, the Season's spirit has not been brought to those schools with a large Jewish attendance. It is therefore my believe that the same influence could be exercised in Cleveland as well.

I do not wish however to take this work upon myself, in view of the fact that I have been informed that there is a Community Council in the city in which you are interested. I am therefore calling this to your attention with the hope that you may like to act on same.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

The Cleveland Committee of the Emergency Peace Campaign was organized late in October and has held frequent meetings since that time. The main project which it has undertaken is a big meeting in the Music Hall of the Public Auditorium January 18, 1937, at which time Maude Royden of England, and a prominent representative of both the Catholic and Jewish faiths will speak on world situations and what we may do to avoid another war.

You will note that the Executive Committee represents Catholics, Jews and Protestants and many view points on the question of peace. The danger of war in the world today is sensed by all, no matter what their method for averting it would be.

We are inviting you to be associated with us in this important enterprise in behalf of world peace by becoming a member of the Cleveland Committee of 100. One of the immediate objectives will be to enlist attendance at the great peace rally in January.

The first meeting of the larger committee will be December 14 at a 12:15 luncheon in the Rose Room, Hotel Cleveland, at which time we shall make a further statement concerning our plans for the immediate future. Our colleagues on the Executive Committee join us in the earnest hope that you will accept appointment to the larger committee and that you may find it possible to take luncheon with us on the 14th. Awaiting your reply, we are

My dear Dr. Morrison:

In connection with the splendid editorials which you have been writing in the Christian Century on the subject of the anti-Communist campaign which the Catholic Church has launched throughout the world, it may be of interest to you to read the enclosed brief abstract of an address which I delivered on November 15 and which received rather wide publicity in this community. Dear Dr. Silver:

We believe that the distinguished services of the late Herman Bernstein, journalist, author, editor, diplomat, and communal worker, deserve public recognition. We therefore suggest the organization of a Memorial Committee for the purpose of raising a fund to be used for creating an appropriate memorial, the nature of which may be determined later by the Memorial Committee itself.

It has been suggested to us that you might be desirous of joining with others in forming the proposed Memorial Committee. May we ask you to inform us by means of the enclosed card whether you would accept membership in this Committee?

Dear Abba:-

I would not be surprised if practically during your entire life in the rabbinate you have heard of the Religious Education Association, and have from time to time seen our magazine, RELIGIOUS EDUCATION. At a meeting of the Executive Committee the other day, however, I learned that only nine Rabbis are members of the Association. I have to admit that I was nonplussed. So I have taken the burden upon myself to bring into the R.E.A. fellowship at least 50 of our colleagues.

We Rabbis have much to contribute to the problems of Religious Education in America, as these come before the R.E.A. group; and we have something to learn from this liberal group of Christian religious educators, whose work in organization and experimentation is of the highest degree. At any rate, I feel that we ought to support the R.E.A., and certainly we ought to read the magazine, to the pages of which a number of us who are already members contribute.

May I sponsor your membership? Please sign the enclosed blank and return it to me with a check for $4.00.

THE SUPREME COURT OF OHIO
SUMMARY OF WORK DURING 1936

Figures compiled by Hon. Seba H. Miller, Clerk of the Supreme Court of Ohio, show that 1936 was one of the heaviest in the entire 133 years of its history.

During the year the court completed its tedious labors on the so-called telephone case with its more than 70,000 pages of evidence which this court was required to weigh in addition to deciding the questions of law as in ordinary cases. There were 946 matters decided - 54 more than were filed. To the people of Ohio - especially the members of the bar - these figures should constitute reassuring evidence of the ability, industry and harmony with which this tribunal has been functioning. There were sessions of the court in eleven of the twelve months.

That the traditional criticism of the law's delay is not applicable to Ohio's court of dernier resort is shown by the fact that in spite of the onerous docket, the number of pending matters was reduced to 54 merit cases and 57 motions as of January 1, 1937 - an all-time low record for the number of pending merit cases. On January 1, 1936, there were 87 merit cases and 70 motions pending.

The 692 filings during the year consisted of 213 merit cases, 586 motions and 93 applications for rehearing. The 946 disposals included 246 merit cases, 609 motions and 91 applications for rehearing.

Among the court's many important decisions of the year were cases relating to banking, public utilities, procedure, workmen's compensation and municipal corporations. During the year sixteen of the court's cases were taken to the United States Supreme Court, and in each instance the latter tribunal refused to disturb the judgment of the Supreme Court of Ohio. This marks a new record in the history of Ohio's highest court.

During the year the court has followed without exception its new plan whereby opinions are published and placed in the hands of the profession three days after their rendition.

Excerpt from Cleveland Plain Dealer
"Religion in Review"

"One would have to search far to find a finer example of interfaith cooperation between Catholics, Jews and Protestants, than is now under way in Cleveland in preparation for the coming of workers in the Emergency Peace Campaign January 18th.

"In fact it is doubtful if the committee Dr. Philip Smead Bird, local chairman, has gathered about him could be duplicated in any other city in the country. The spirit which has made possible the success of the Community Fund and numerous other civic and social enterprises is now to characterize efforts to mobilize sentiment for world peace.

"Associated with Dr. Bird as vice chairmen are Bishop Joseph Schrembs of the Cleveland Catholic Diocese; E. M. Baker, Jewish civic leader and philanthropist, and Dr. Thomas W. Graham, Dean of Oberlin Graduate School of Theology. Miss Mabel Head, former General Secretary of the Cleveland YWCA is secretary of the committee.

"Included in its early membership are representatives of a variety of religious and social interests including A. G. Knobel, General Secretary of the YMCA; Prof. Walter G. O'Donnell of John Carroll University; Mrs. W. J. Bushea, leader in Catholic women's work; Rev. Cyprian Emanuel; Mrs. Julius Fryer, Jewish women's leader; Mrs. J. Preston Irwin, leader of discussion groups on peace and international relations; Robert J. Izant, Quaker layman; Robert H. Jamison, former American Legion official; Dr. Dilworth Lupton, pastor of First Unitarian Church; Miss Helen Phelan, head resident of Merrick House, and a representative of the Cleveland Church Federation.

"The Emergency Peace Campaign, which originated with a Friends' committee, has been expanded to include all faiths and all strata of political and economic life. The January 18th meeting will present speakers from the three major religious groups in Public Music Hall."

Hon. Newton D. Baker,

Allan J. Wilson,
Secretary
CEdar-9754

January 25th, 1937.

Dear Dr. Silver,

The recent death of Dr. Harris R. Cooley brings home vividly to Clevelanders the farseeing vision of this dreamer, founder and builder whose Christlike devotion to the dependent and delinquent of our community made what is known as Warrensville Farms possible.

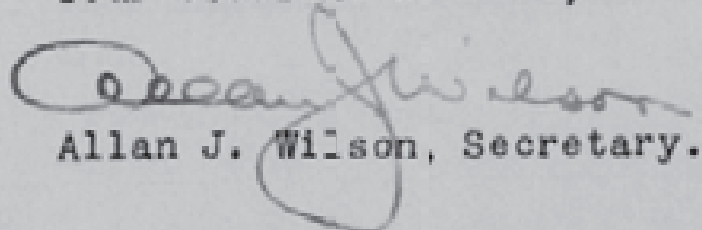

You are invited to join this Committee's membership; its objectives are:

1. To request the Mayor of the City of Cleveland to bring home to his subordinate officials and co-ordinate officials of the City of Cleveland that the institutions at Warrensville have been legally named "Cooley Farms" by resolution of City Council, November 25, 1907, and that they shall in the future be so referred to in all official and legal communications and documents.

2. To erect a supplemental tablet in the Administration Building of Warrensville Farms to the memory of the late Dr. Harris R. Cooley.

Kindly advise me at your very earliest convenience of your acceptance of membership in the Committee.

Your obedient servant,

Allan J. Wilson, Secretary.

Dear Sir:

The Cleveland Girl Scout Council, with the approval of the Welfare Federation, is undertaking to secure a fund of $60,000.00 for the purchase and equipment of a new camp site.

The steady growth of Girl Scouting in Cleveland makes it imperative that a permanent Camp Site be provided; a campaign, to secure the needed amount, will begin February 9.

The Council needs not only the financial support but the moral support of citizens of our community.

Will you consent to the use of your name as a member of a Citizens' Committee of Endorsements. We feel that this will be of inestimable value.

Dear Rebbi Silver,

When you were guest speaker for the Purdue Convocation for Worship, you heard the Purdue University Choir. We are not wanting to embarrass you and ask that you be perfectly frank in disregarding this note or in answering it, whichever you really want to do.

Our publicity director wants to make a leaflet about the choir and would like to list you under the heading, Famous Personages Recommending this Choir. If you will give us the right to use your name, we will be greatly indebted to you.

Thank you for this favor. The entire choir joins me in hoping that you will return to the campus in the near future for another of your inspiring talks.

Sincerely yours

My dear Mr. Stewart:

Of course you may use my name in connection with the leaflet which you are planning to publish about your choir. I was tremendously impressed with the singing of your great organization. It is one of the finest university choirs to which I have had the privilege of listening.

With all good wishes, I remain

Very cordially yours,
