Dear Abba,

I had meant to tell you that on mature reflection I have come to the conclusion that I should not participate in the "Oneg Shabbat" program tomorrow.

If there is no room for me on the program of the Conference I can understand — and have no complaint; but I feel that the interest of the work which I am doing requires that I should not appear in the category of ~~the~~ "Zionist Officials" along with Baruch Braunstein, Henry Monsky and Martin Rosenblatt. It is far better that I do not speak at all.

I am sure you will understand and excuse.

Affectionate regards to Virginia & the boys and [illegible]

Yours,

Emanuel
