My dear Mr. Shapiro:

Please make sure that the "Confidential Bulletin" is sent to all Yiddish editors and writers that have asked for it. Generally speaking, it is advisable to send all of our publications to them.

With all good wishes, I remain

Very cordially yours,

AHS:BK

My dear Mr. Shapiro:

A few weeks ago I delivered two addresses at The Temple on "Zionism -- What It Is -- What It Is Not". There has been a considerable demand for copies of the address and I have had a few thousand printed. The Emergency Council might want some copies for general distribution. I should be glad to send as many as the Council will require at cost. I have not as yet received the bill from the printer, but I imagine the cost will be about ten or fifteen cents per copy. Please take the matter up with the Publications Committee and let me know.

Very cordially yours,

AHS:BK
