Roosevelt, Franklin Delano, 1943.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 20, 1943

My dear Mr. Weiss:

I have received your letter of October 13, 1943, in regard to Palestine. I have taken careful note of your remarks and can assure you that this matter has received and will continue to receive the most careful thought. There are many difficult and complex problems which arise in connection with Palestine, and you may be certain that these are receiving the close attention which is fully justified by their importance.

Very sincerely yours,

/signed/ Franklin D. Roosevelt

The Honorable

Samuel A. Weiss

House of Representatives.
