Rabbi Irving Miller, Daniel Frisch and Emanuel Neumann to act on the Committee in an advisory capacity.

Mr. Neumann made the point that the Steering Committee must address itself primarily to the problems of (1) Presidium, (2) Convention Committee, (3) Composition of Administration.

Rabbi Miller felt that the elimination from the presidium of too many of the older and well-known and more familiar names might prejudice many delegates against Dr. Silver, and since the composition of the presidium is not an issue, he recommended that we add the names of Hugo Leviathal and Judge Rothenberg. A motion to that effect was made and seconded, and carried.

Mr. Neumann stated that the presidium is not to have a chairman, also that we deputize several of the men on our Committee to see the 55 members of the Committee on Committees who are on our side to keep them informed of decisions of the Steering Committee. Lists of names were submitted to a number of those present.

A sub-committee was appointed to confer with Dr. Silver to work on the composition of the administration. The list is then to be submitted to the Steering Committee for approval.

~~Meeting adjourned at 11:30 p.m.~~

The following were suggested to act as chairmen of the various committees:

- Rabbi Leon Feuer - Chairman of Committee on Committees to be nominated by Neumann.
Rabbi Irving Miller - Chairman of Nominating Committee to be nominated by Tercynser.
Jacques Tercynser - Secretary of Nominating Committee to be nominated by Goldstock.
Samuel Goldstock - Secretary of Committee on Committees - to be nominated by Miller.

It was suggested that a sub-committee be selected by the Chairman to submit a slate of officers. This Committee was to consist of eleven men, with Rabbi Miller as chairman and Jacques Terczyner as Secretary.

Mr. Emanuel Neumann suggested that members of the sub-committee be selected to represent all sections of the country, this sub-committee to be accessible to all the members of the Committee on Nominations in order that they may be able to make their suggestions or recommendations for the men to compose the slate. This feeling was supported by the group.
