Dr. Abba Hillel Silver

Dear Dr. Silver:

I learn this morning from Mr. Shapiro why you were absent from yesterday's meeting. I take it for granted that you will promptly send me a report of your conversation with the gentleman.

When Dr. Aksin yesterday read part of his report on Roy Henderson, I was reminded that I had not seen that report; and, what is more, I do not get copies of any of the material which goes out from Washington, from Sack or Aksin. I must, as joint Chairman with you of the Emergency Council, insist that I get copies of every item in our material. I am sure you will wish to issue such instructions at once.

Sincerely yours,

SSW:fe
