Cox, Oscar, 1946.

September 27, 1946

Mr. Oscar Cox
1210 18th Street N.W.
Washington 6, D.C.

My dear Mr. Cox:

I send you greetings for the new year.

I had hoped to hear from you following my telephone call. But I suppose you have been very busy. I am very anxious to know the lay of the land, politically speaking. What is our State Department doing now with reference to Palestine? The last public statement of President Truman seemed to indicate that the Administration was washing its hands from the entire matter. It seems to have approved the partition proposal brought to it by Goldmann, but is assuming no responsibility for it after transmitting it to London. Is that the situation? It is important that we get some reliable information.

With all good wishes, I remain

Most cordially yours,

AHS:BK
