Dulles, John Foster, 1947.

February 27, 1947

Mr. John Foster Dulles
40 Wall Street
New York, N.Y.

My dear Mr. Dulles:

Governor Dewey telephoned me this morning and told me of the conversation which he had with you. I need not tell you that I was delighted to learn of your continued and sympathetic interest in our cause and of your readiness to discuss the situation with the interested parties when you are on your forthcoming mission.

It would give me great pleasure indeed if I could have a few moments of your time to bring one or vital considerations to your attention. I shall be in New York this coming Monday. Would you be free to see me at any time during the day? I would appreciate it if you would wire me collect.

With all good wishes, I remain

Most cordially yours,

AHS:BK
