Bloom, Congressman Sol, 1948.

Truman on 'Right Track' On Palestine, Bloom Says

By the Associated Press

Representative Bloom, Democrat, of New York said at the White House today that President Truman "is on the right track" toward settlement of the Palestine dispute.

Emerging from a talk with Mr. Truman on the Palestine question, Mr. Bloom said he is optimistic that a truce agreement between the Jews and Arabs might be reached by the time the United Nations General Assembly meets April 16.

He said the important thing is to obtain the truce and "allow a temporary trusteeship to be organized and at work."

MEMORANDUM

Washington Office

To Dr. Abba Hillel Silver

Date April 6, 1948

From Leo R. Sack

May I call your attention to the enclosed AP dispatch which appeared in the final edition of the Washington Evening Star, Monday, April 5th.

It is horrible that a Jewish member of Congress, who should be so intimately aware of the double-cross that this Administration has given the Jews, should publicly declare that "President Truman is on the right track" in the settlement of the Palestine problem.

I think this is a matter that some of our young friends in Mr. Bloom's district should call to the attention of his constituents.

Very sincerely yours,

Leo
