ROSH HODESH is the term for the beginning of a new month. As the Jewish year is based on the lunar calendar, the beginning of a new month coincides with the appearance of the new moon. When a month has thirty days, the last day is considered the first of the two days which constitute Rosh Hodesh of the month following.

THE BALFOUR DECLARATION, issued on November 2, 1917, is the first recognition by a modern nation of the Jewish claim to Palestine as a national homeland.

FAST OF ESTHER
10 Sec Exat

FAST OF ESTHER commemorates the day when the Jews of Persia fasted and prayed that they be spared the massacre planned by Haman.

PURIM commemorates the day when, through the intervention of Mordecai and Queen Esther, the Jews of Persia narrowly escaped being victims of Haman's plot to exterminate them.
