Sunday May 1.

My Dear Friend

I am going to take up a few minutes of your time, (not knowing who else to write to) to ask you to please let me know what the programme is for the meeting of the Constitution Grand Lodge S & B B which convenes in your city next Sunday. Possibly there is already an printed programme arranged which you can send me.

My reason for asking is that I may run up to Cleveland Saturday night, providing that there will be something doing on Sunday, and say part of Monday which would be of interest to me.

If I come you bet I'll see you and hope to hear you. Pardon my tasting up your time but can assure you your reply will be much appreciated. With kind regards in which

Mr. Stein. Helen T. Main, who are surrounding me you. I am

Yours Sincerely
Alex B. Stein

184 Holden Ave
Jersey City May 1, 1920.

Dear Brother Abe:

I heard of the beautiful speech you have made here last Sunday I am only sorry that I did not have the pleasure to hear you as I had a bad cold and could not go out.

I did not write to you for a long time but, let me tell you Abe that I certainly felt bad that it all happened between you and Ely and even more that Ely done for us and I assure you that Ely will give you back all that you will pay for him

While there is life there is hope. Ely is young and hopes to make good again. you can figure the money that you are paying now is as good as saved up. as he will pay you back the first opportunity he will get. We expect to make a few dollars by selling caused you so much trouble and embarrassment, but Abe dear it is not Ely's fault, the fault is all our dear Uncle. A man whose God is only gold his life, his love, his interest is only money. and of course we can not expect more from him.

Dear Abe I hope that you will excuse Ely for the trouble he gave you in the past. and really I don't know how to thank you for what you have the house. There is a saying you never know a person until you do business with him now we all know our Uncle, but,

Abe dear you ought to feel proud for your noble character, and he will first wake up and realize how cheap he acted.
I am glad that all is ended.

Hoping you are well, we all send our love to you.

The children are growing beautifully, Irving is a wonderful boy, and Estelle ~~is~~ a nice little girl.

Write to us once in a while

I remain, your loving sister

My dear Sir:-

I am writing you in behalf of Miss Babette Devay, who, I under-trance to Beechwood School.

Babette is the daughter of a family who have been members of my

My dear John,

I hope you will pardon this terrible delay in answering your letter. I had somehow misplaced it and it was not until this morning that I came across it.

Of course I should be glad to contribute something to the U.C. Endowment Fund. However, I am at a loss to know how much. I wish you would tell me the amounts which men in my position and profession are contributing.

I hope that you are well and I trust that I shall have the good fortune to meet you the next time I come to Cincinnati.

My dear Rabbi,

Mr. Fagnani
and I went to the Tree Synagogue a couple of Sundays ago for the treat we had long promised ourselves.

It was with natural disappointment ^{at first} that we found that the pulpit was to be occupied by a stranger.

Greatly were we recompensed for remaining.

Rabbi Silver's address was magnificent, admirable in incidents and delivery.

Surely the mantle of the

Dear Silver:

I thought you might be interested in seeing the enclosure, which has come from Professor Fagnani of the Union Theological Seminary. I know that you see a great many communications such as this, but this seems to be particularly interesting. Don't trouble to return it, but you might be a nice, good boy and write to me in answer to my letter so that I may know whether a check is to be sent to you by us or by the Z.O.A. in reimbursement of your expenses.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. A. H. Silver,
Rabbi,
City.

Dear Sir:-

Would you be kind enough, at your convenience, to advise me your position in reference to the following questions?

1. I frequently hear it said, by Hebrews, when asked, "What is your belief in regard to Jesus?" "Oh, he was a good man. We think he was a reformer, who lived ahead of his times. We even think he was a prophet." If this is your belief, what do you do with the following statement, attributed to Jesus (John 4, 25, 26):

"The woman saith unto him, I know that Messiah cometh (he that is called Christ): when he is come, he will declare unto us all things. Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he."

In other words, if Jesus falsely said, "I am the Messiah", how could He be either a good man, a reformer, or a prophet? Do you not recognize here an apparent inconsistency, and how do you explain it?

2. Do you accept the New Testament as the inspired Word of God, equally with the Old Testament?

3. What ground or grounds of divorce do you teach?

Thanking you for a reply, I am,

Very sincerely yours, E. H. Pendell

Dear Rabbi Silver:

It is very necessary that we know immediately whether you desire us to make reservations for you on the S. S. Finland, sailing from New York to Southampton on June 19th, in connection with the Annual Zionist Conference in Carlsbad, Czecho-Slovakia.

We wrote you on April 21st, and again on May 4th, but have had no word from you. The demand for steamship accommodations, is very pressing and unless we have immediate word from you we will be compelled to release reservations being held for you.

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

I'm sorry you have waited so long for your money, but I just couldn't - I don't exactly know why myself - sit down and write to anybody in fact. You can see for yourself that I got the twenty dollar money order on April 24th and here it is May 16 that I sit down to write. I'm sending $4.50 - I haven't sent any for such a long time. I thought it best to send two this month and the rest is coming in a few weeks, and then I'll have that off my mind - and pocket book. It won't that be a "grand and glorious feeling"?

The dairy changed hands, —
Mr. Bard sold out to the Maerks Bros. who have increased my salary 4 dollars per week, which enables me to send the rest in a week or so.
I expect to keep on working here up to the holidays and then come home at least for the holidays if not longer. I'm sorry I wasted this week of your precious time, so expecting to hear from you soon — letters from home are always gratefully welcome — I remain

There is, of course, no reason why the letter should not be published, but I am extremely doubtful that it would be productive of any real good. I would not make a public issue of such a slight matter, especially at such a time. Mr. Warner does not deserve it.

My dear Abba:

Permit me to severely criticize that filing system which will allow such an important missive as mine to become covered up.

Now as to the size of your contribution, that depends largely upon your present condition of affluence. Sums received from "old grads" of at least five years' standing varied in amount from twenty-five to two hundred dollars. Our class has shown up rather poorly in its responses. Only three or four replied to my letters. Fifty dollars was the extent of my contribution, Max Weis pledged twenty-five, and Snyder gave twenty-five. The donation, you understand, may be spread over a five year period.

I may pay a visit in Cleveland some time this summer, and if so shall look you up. Meanwhile, if your can't be good, at least be very careful.

Yours,

Mr. E. H. Pondell,
339 New Court House,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Pondell,

Please pardon the delay in replying to your letter.

With reference to your first question permit me to say that the attitude which some Jews take in regard to Jesus is correct. The quotation which you give from John IV is, of course, attributed by his disciples to Jesus. It need not be taken literally or as Jesus' own words.

In answer to your second question,
I beg to say that certain passages of the New Testament, just as certain passages of the Old Testament, were undoubtedly inspired, but the entire New Testament cannot be regarded as inspired any more than the whole of the Old Testament can be regarded as inspired. There is much in both which is purely legendary, mythical, anecdotal and inconsequential.

With reference to your third question - permit me to refer you to the article on "Divorce" in Vol. IV, page 524 of the Jewish Encyclopedia, wherein you will find a detailed discussion of the entire subject of divorce in Judaism

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I beg to inform you that the Jahreskonferenz will be definitely held in London beginning July 4th. We shall be obliged if you will let us know by return mail whether you are able to attend the sessions, and whether you have applied for your passport and obtained same. Accommodations have been reserved, as you are aware, on the Lapland, June 12th and the Finland, June 19th. If a berth has not yet been allotted to you, this will be attended to immediately upon hearing from you. We have made reservations for the return of passengers on the following steamers:

S. S. "Kroonland"	July 28th
S. S. "Lapland"	August 4th
S. S. "Finland"	August 11th
S. S. "Zeeland"	August 18th ✓

and will do our utmost to accommodate you as to the return booking. If this matter has not yet been settled, please let us know which date you figure most convenient for the return.

As far as we can surmise at this moment, the conference will begin on July 4th and will not last in excess of two weeks. If you made no personal reservations in London for a hotel, we will endeavor to make this arrangement for you. Of course, it may be necessary to hold the sessions in some English city other than London, as the latter may not be able to afford the accommodations.

Your immediate personal attention will oblige us until we hear from you we must hold back notifying alternates.

I would suggest that you send copies of it to either one of the local Jewish papers, The Jewish Independent or the Jewish Review and Observer; or to the American Israelite at Cincinnati. I feel certain that one of them would be glad to publish it before Memorial Day.

We are not to have a program for our Memorial Sunday Service at The Temple. We shall simply have the regular Sunday Service, with appropriate music and an address by myself. Otherwise, I should be glad to have the poem read at The Temple.

me, and thank you for it.

If you could only realize how happy it made me, I feel sure that you would feel that you had indeed done another "Soul-saving"
act. I've heard ministers preach a lot about "The Lord will provide" - but I never had it demonstrated to me till your letter came. I had hoped so long and wished so often to hear from you --- and then finally decided that I was a little silly to even expect such an important personage as Rev. Abba Hillel Silver to answer one of my letters or acknowledge a foolish school paper. But then last week I had one of the most trying days I've ever experienced - I was dead tired from too much hard work and not enough sleep (I too am trying to do too much and that too well! - only of course I'm not doing things that count like you - only getting out a Commencement issue "Record", and practicing on a simple little play and struggling thru lessons - terrible lessons - these foolish things (play and "Records") must sound (and are) dreadfully trifling things but they mean a lot to girl graduates (you know) well, I was so overworked and so discouraged with it all, and so tired that I felt it was a pretty good time for me to "pass out"! At 6:30 I went home in the rain and tried to show a smiling face - when I reached home Mother said she had a wonderful surprise for me and I must say "Mother, dear, please give it to me" - so I did it and added "what is it, limburger cheese?" and presto! Sure enough there was a "letter" from you. It never could have come to me at a more opportune time. Again I thank you de tout mon coeur.

So I didn't have to fake a smile at all - and went back to rehearsal at 7 P.M. feeling like dawn o' day.

I know you had to sacrifice a few minutes of time that could be spent more profitably - but please "poor-dear-over-worked-minister" feel that those minutes were not misspent altogether - for they made one wee person happier beyond words.

When you left wheeling - I had fairly started to High School you made me promise to send you an invitation to my Graduation. You see I cannot forget one word that you ever spoke to me! Am I not a good child to remember the sayings of a teacher so religiously? (Yes, Polly, you are!) So I will send you a notice of the event and I will let it signify that Polly has at last "grown up" and will not bother her adored Silver - idol any more with ~~foolish~~ letters - but is now a perfect lady.

Mother sends you her love and I - Oh dear the is the end of the sheet so I can't finish. P.S. I

My dear Mr. Menkes,

I have just received your letter of the 23rd instant. You ask me to set a price on my stock. I am, of course, not in position to know the value of the stock I own, and therefore would not know what figure to place upon it.

I have received absolutely no word regarding the enterprises which you are engaged in, or as to the present value of the stock. You are in a position to advise me concerning it. I wish you would let me know just what you are doing and what my stock is actually worth.

Dear Sir, -

Re Talmud Account $125.00

We have today drawn upon you for the amount of $125.00 in settlement of the above account.

We were reluctant to resort to this method of collection, but with so many heavy expenses to bear in the publication of this work, we thought that you would excuse same and render us all the assistance possible by accepting draft on presentation.

Thanking you in anticipation, and assuring you of our best attention at all times,

Gentlemen:-

I am in receipt of your letter of May 25th, informing me that you have drawn upon me to the amount of $125.00.

Very frankly, I was rather astonished at your way of doing business. Of course I shall not honor the draft. If you wish, I shall return the books to you.

You will either follow usual business methods of sending me a statement and trusting your patron, (even though this be a Rabbi) to be prompt in his payment, or you can have your volumes returned to you.

I have also been compelled to pay an express item which was not stipulated in the sale.

It might, perhaps, be too much to expect that dealers in religious books should follow the ordinary courtesies of trade.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Last Sunlay morning after Temple, I went into the office and asked Miss Jones if she knew where I could get my diploma from the Normal Class, as you know that I was unable to attend the graduation exercises.

Miss Jones told me that Rabbi Wolsey had taken it back to his office with him, and yesterday I called up Miss New and she said that Rabbi Wolsey had left it with you.

Rabbi Silver if you have it, please keep it for me until I call for it or send my brother after it. Thanking you very much for your trouble, I am,

Sincerely yours,

My Dear Friend:-

Your letter of recent date to hand, am sorry we will not be able to avail ourselves of your eloquence and that I will be denied the exquisite pleasure of one of our old time chats .

We will have a big meeting on one of the days you cannot come. But I will have to be satisfied with some one, not in your class. The more the pity.

Just had a nice letter from Toots, he has secured exemptions from his final exams, all but in two subjects-thats damned fine work for the kid, he has been doing good work. Was down home Sunday. Congregation meeting. Mischkind was reelected, increase of $500.00 making him $3000.00, Leo opposed him, so did L.S. Good and Will Emsheimer -but we put him across-not so much because his work was so satisfactory-but Mischkind is receiving the benefits of the Baer-Wolf fund.

Am glad to hear that you get another trip across the pond, remember my advise and keep on the preserver. And drop me a line once in a while ,Box 265 Wheeling will always reach me. Herb, Joe, Phil Cohen and I are going in the mountains of W. Va for two weeks of roughing it and fish-you know about how many fish we will get.

Dear Friend:-

I am writing this note in behalf of my young friend and room-mate Mr. Morris Urich.

He is going to spend the Summer in Cleveland and is very desirous of securing some extra work that will provide an additional source of income for him.

It would be very nice if you would permit him to read the services for you and I know his work well enough to assure that he would be most satisfactory.

Sincerely hoping that you will give this young man this opportunity, I am,

My dear Silver:

WRHS
Your letter addressed to Tulsa was rather curt and contained but one request, - which I immediately promised to comply with and naturally asked the most obvious question, - "How much you wanted to realize."

Your reply is a bit more explicit, and comprehensive. - I am furnishing the answer with a bit of reluctance, which arises from the fact that only last December or so you were apparently not altogether satisfied with my statement of facts and turned to another source for reassurance and affirmation. -

- You perhaps did it unthinkingly, but you may easily imagine that it did not reflect any too well upon my humble self. - However I am unwilling to forget.
- Now coming back to your queries. - The Company is at present one of the very best in the market. - Only a few months ago it concluded to acquire and an half purchase of producing properties, which it could easily dispose of with a clear profit of a 1/4 of a million. -
The price of oil is steadily mounting, and as far as I can see your investment is one of the safest one could desire. - A comprehensive statement will be sent into unyielding speculation

William Penn Hotel Pittsburgh

To all stock holders about the beginning of July; which will furnish all figures & other facts. -

The monthly gross income amounts to about $70,000.00 -

Here are the facts desired - you can use your own judgment whether you desire to tell or not, remembering of course that at present because of many general factors, the money market is rather tight. -

Going to Bradford, Pa. now - my address shall be at 30. Park

Kindest regards
very sincerely J. Frankes

May 30, 1920.

My Dear Rabbi Silver, :-

When a sudden and unexpected catastrophe came, to me, it was your reassuring words of comfort that gave me courage to live on. You took the place of my own dear Mother and listened so patiently to me. When I was overwhelmed by the intense grief that pervaded my heart and soul your teachings of an ever-merciful Father dispelled the darkness.

So permit me to briefly dispel some sorrow, to bring to some child's face, at least a transient smile. May I ask you to take this small offering with you to the Holy Land, and there use it?

If I now enjoy peace of mind, and have reason to bless God for his infinite good and forgiveness, I owe it all to the strong faith your sermons have inculcated within me.

May He make your life a long one as it is a worthy one.

My dear Menkes,

I wish to thank you for your very prompt reply to my letter. I hope that you do not feel peeved at my having consulted Mr. Fisher before I exchanged the certificates. It was no reflection upon your humble self, but was just a case where I did not trust my own judgment. You, somehow, were not specific enough in your statement to have justified me in proceeding at once on your suggestion. Mr. Fisher is a very close friend of mine and I felt as though I wanted to consult him.

I was delighted to hear of the fine condition of your company, and judging from your eulogistic accounts of it I think I will postpone the selling awhile and borrow the money that I need from some of my friends. It would be a shame, would it not, to fall down on this, my first and only venture into the wicked world of speculation, brought about by the winning manner of your rather irresponsible friend Wisman.

I have received your kind note of the third and have asked Mr. Urich to get in touch with you at once. I feel quite sure you will like him and will find his work very satisfactory. Thank you very much.

I am sorry I was not able to hear you last Monday. I am sure you will be interested to hear that a number of the people there, -whose opinion is certainly worth while, -were not only impressed but were quite enthusiastic over your presentation. Dr. Deutec especially was very much pleased: "it was one of the most logical developments of the subject that I have heard for a very long time". Our mutual friend Mrs. Adler of the University told one of the men, -possibly Dr. D., -that after listening to you she was perfectly willing to live in Palestine for the rest of her life !. That was a real victory ! If you take in the Conference I hope to have the pleasure of talking over a few things with you.

Rev. Dr. A. H. Silver, Rabbi,
Tiferth Israel Congregation,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

What is a "Nudmick"?

This communication is to serve a double purpose. First it is with the hope of eliminating the possibility of your being lonesome if you do not get a letter from me each Monday, as indicated by your favor of May 18th last.

You were once more than kind in keeping me from becoming lonesome during a stay I had several years ago in Wheeling. I recall with much pleasure the hours we spent there together. If writing a letter will in anyway tend to prevent your feeling too much alone, I am delighted to write.

Second, I would like to learn from one who knows more than I, the meaning of the mysterious appellation, "Nudmick".

With kind personal regards, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Jacob Schulist,
1690 East 81st Street,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Schulist,

I did not have the opportunity yesterday of speaking to you with reference to officiating at the wedding of your daughter.

Since making the date for the wedding, I have been elected a delegate to an International Jewish Conference which is to meet in London on July 4th. I have therefore been compelled to ask of those whom I had promised my services to release me of my promise. My boat sails on the 19th of June and I shall leave Cleveland on the 17th.

I shall have to forego the pleasure of officiating at quite a few weddings, as well as being present at our annual picnic, which is to take place on the 22nd of June.

I trust that you will understand the circumstances. Should you wish it, I shall be happy to get in touch with Dr. Wolsey or Dr. Goldman and request them of their assistance for me.

I wish to take this opportunity also to extend to you and your daughter my sincerest felicitations. May the future hold in store for Sylvia the fulfillment of her most cherished hopes.

Very sincerely yours,

June 8th, 1920

Mr. F. A. Seiberling,

Akron, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Seiberling,

I am taking the liberty of writing you in the hope of interesting you in a friend of mine, Mr. I. Wohl of Cleveland.

Mr. Wohl is contemplating going to southern Russia - Ukraina - during next Fall. He is a native of that country, well versed in its customs, conditions and interests. He is anxious to identify himself with your organization and in some way or other represent you there.

Mr. Wohl is a man of excellent qualifications, keen intellect and possesses some legal training.

I would appreciate it if you would grant him the privilege of an interview and I know that he will be grateful for any courtesy that might be extended to him.

With kindest regards, I beg to remain

Dear Sir,-

We are in receipt of your undated letter, and much regret that we should have given you cause for complaint in drawing upon you.

We assure you that it is quite a customary trade procedure to draw after the account has been outstanding ten days. We are, however, giving instructions to our Bankers to recall drafts drawn on you and you statement of account is attached.

With regard to the express item, we point out that this is stipulated in the agreement.

Trusting that we have made the matter plain and to your satisfaction,

Rabbi Maxwell Silver has been in the ministry four years and has occupied pulpits at LaFayette and in

My dear Mr. Rosenfelt,

Mr. Wohl has informed me of the kindness which you showed him in introducing him to Mr. Albert Lucas. He appreciated it very much. I trust that you will continue your interest in this matter.

I feel that Mr. Wohl may prove of real service and value to your organization. He is a rather modest man and I fear he has not told you of many of his qualifications. He is thoroughly familiar with Jewish life in the Ukraine, as well as non-Jewish life there, having been educated at the Gymnasium. He speaks Russian perfectly, and of course, Yiddish. He has shown marked ability in organization work. He managed two of our local Palestine drives with real success.

I do hope that the Joint Distribution Committee will see its way clear to avail itself of his services in the near future. I wish you would take up this matter with Dr. Bogen. I feel that Mr. Wohl is just the type of a man that Dr. Bogen would be interested in.

Thanking you very much for your manifest interest, I beg to remain

My dear Mr. Schuler,

Mr. Samuel Wohl has informed me that he has been in correspondence with you looking towards the possibility of representing your interests in Southern Russia.

I feel as though I should like to tell you what I know of Mr. Wohl, that you may be the more justified in placing your full confidence in him. I have known him for quite a number of years and have great admiration for the integrity of his character and the fineness of all his motives. He is thorough and of a studious disposition and completely trustworthy.

Mr. Wohl was born in the Ukraine and received his early education there. He is perfectly familiar with the language, manners and business methods of the people there. I feel that he would prove a valuable adjunct to your organization.

My dear Dr. Bogen,

Mr. Rosenfelt has informed me of your early return to the States. I am sorry that I shall not have the opportunity of seeing you in person, as I leave on Tuesday, June 22nd, for England.

I want to interest you in the following matter. A very dear friend of mine, Mr. Samuel Wohl of Cleveland, is about to leave this country for the Ukraine. He is anxious to put his services, as far as needed, at the disposal of the Joint Distribution Committee.

Mr. Wohl is a young man of twenty-five; speaks English perfectly and has had some legal training and fine experience in organization work. He was born in the Ukraine, attended Gymnasium there; speaks Russian well and is a good Hebrew student. I feel that he would be a decided asset to your organization should you decide to avail yourself of his services. He has already met Mr. Rosenfelt and Mr. Lucas. Any kindness which ^{you} might extend to him would be deeply appreciated by me.

My dear Mr. Goulder,

I am in receipt of your kind letter expressing your thanks for the services which I rendered on the sad occasion of the funeral of your beloved daughter.

I need not tell you that I regarded it a privilege to say the last few words at the passing of onewhose life was blessed with many fine services in behalf of our community.

I have taken the liberty of placing your check in a little charity fund of my own, which I use from time to time.

Trusting that Mrs. Goulder is feeling better, and that you will all have a restful summer, I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. Fish,

I am in receipt of your kind letter, enclosing the sum of $25.00 to be used in behalf of some needy Jewish child, in memory of your dear niece, Helen Anne Wintermiller.

I shall be very happy to comply with your request, whenever the opportunity presents itself. When the money has been used, I shall be glad to advise you regarding it.

Wishing you and Mrs. Fish a pleasant summer, I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,
yours,
yours,

Rabbi A. H. Silver

Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Rabbi:

Just got back to the city and found your letter. I took the matter up with the President of our Congregation; also with the Committee.

If you will kindly let me know where we can get in touch with your brother, I can assure you that he will get full consideration.

Anything further I can do in this matter, I'll gladly do.

Very sincerely yours,

(Signed) Henry Lurie
