To The Chief Rabbi of Cleveland

Sir will you kindly stop interesting yourself of behalf of the letter that I sent you as we have just received news of Mr Seigal.
everything is alright believe me to be yours very Truly

Mr & Mrs Daniels

Thanking you all the same, you need not trouble everything alright

Mrs. Le Chantel

[1920?]

My dear Rabbi Silver:-

I certainly was glad to hear of your safe arrival in America. You must have had a wonderful trip and wonderful experience.

My school has started and indeed I was very very glad to get back to it.

Of course I hated to leave home. But then you know, I am sure that the boys
"over there" are making much greater and larger sacrifices than I ever could.

If you have time please write to me soon

lovingly
Dad

[1920?]

Saturday noon,

Please, dear Mr. Silver, I must use my own judgement and send the enclosed letter to the Review, if you can not give me space for it in this week's Bulletin.

The Board knew nothing concerning any plans for a gift for me, and

My father has just come from the City but we are surprised that he approves following your lecture, was not heard our here in the Board.

I prefer not to discuss the matter with them, nor should the Secretary express my communications for me, I wish to do so myself.

And if, in having the courage of my communications, I should be thus understood and give offence, I shall be sorry, but what I am, in my own opinion, is of more importance to me, than I what I am in the opinions of others.
Sincerely yours, ~~Wm~~ ^{Wm} H. Bolshenkov

EOFF STREET TEMPLE SISTERHOOD

WHEELING, W. VA.

Ruth A.H. Silver,

Cleveland, O.

My dear Ruth Silver,

Just a line to tell you more definitely the plan for the 24th. Our supper is to be for our own community at 6 o'clock - and for an hour or so you can mingle with your friends who are so anxious to see you - Your lecture in the temple at 8:15 to be open to the public -

60FF STREET TEMPLE SISTERHOOD

WHEELING, W. VA.

We would not be selfish enough to keep that for ourselves. The Sisterhood feel very proud to be able to bring you here. Will you please let me have the subject of your lecture - we want to advertise that. Also would like to know if you can arrange to be with us a few days - You no doubt heard that Gabe Cusheener - Junior father died last night. He had double pneumonia.

EOFF STREET TEMPLE SISTERHOOD

Hoping to hear from you soon and with kindest regards from my two boys and myself Love

Sincerely yours,
Claudia W. Wolf.

45 SOUTH BROADWAY
WHEELING, WEST VIRGINIA

My dear Rabbi Silver:

I am so glad you can give us a date in January - We shall arrange for Monday, Jan 24th - I shall arrange for a community supper first and the lecture in the temple to follow that - Of course I shall expect you to arrange to stay

45 SOUTH BROADWAY

here a few days and be at 45 S Broadway - Please let me know on what train to expect you. I need not tell you how pleased both Sisterhood & congregation are that you said to be with us.

And I write you that the folks have sold the Matters Co - Marc is going to be with Louis Kraft -

and Leo & Charlie have many outside interests - Had a wonderful opportunity to sell and took it. I am delighted as Leo will not travel now.

Marc, Will & Charles are spending this week in Philadelphia:

Leo joins me in sending kindest regards ^{and} best wishes for a bright & prosperous New Year -

Sincerely yours,
Claudia D. Wolf.

THE CLEVELAND NEWS

CLEVELAND'S BEST NEWSPAPER

My Dear Rabbi Silver:

This letter will introduce Mrs. David Green.

Mrs. Green came to me with an aching heart and asked my advice about her personal affairs.

She has two lovely children and the conditions existing in her home are such that it makes it almost impossible for her to remain with Mr. Green any longer.

I know the splendid character that you are and I have asked Mrs. Green to go to you and have a little heart to heart talk. Won't you kindly advise her and if possible make a little call on her husband and see if you can prevent this little home from being broken by the imagination of a man.

I sincerely hope that you will take care of this and I feel that you will be doing a great deal of good if you do.

With the sincere wish that some day I may have the pleasure of meeting you I beg to be,

Very truly yours,

Martha Lee.

The Call

A man of Jehovah's gospel, Inspired thy thought and speech By the word, thy lips have uttered, As the best that life can teach.

Lurk deep in the ease of living, Lost in the baiter of self, Gift of God's talents, are hidden Under the need to gain self.

For day, and night, and the year tide,
As the moon, the stars, and the sun,
To the soul, in its state of coma Fuses and blends as one.

And you, in your hour of waking Have listened, and heard the voice.
The clarion call of a higher self;
And hearing have made your choice.

Frail hands are forever seeking Guidance, of those they trust, With needs, to be bought and paid for,
The law of life is, must!

So pray, and in praying remember To plead for the cause, of those Who heard the call, and listened,
But the lesser glory chose.

A. M. C.

My dear Dr. Silver,

My friend

Judge Cohen offered me and I have just learned that he has mailed it to you.

I shall be in Cleveland sometime this month, in connection with my duties as Consulting Architect for the Cleveland Museum, and I shall take pleasure in calling on you. Should you be at

I have devoted a good deal of study to the housing of our religious activities, to the proper architectural expression, to the just weighing of the effect of beauty upon the emotions, and to the correct solution of the many practical requirements.

Through past experiences along these lines, I have developed a number of ideas, which I think, would be of interest to you, and I shall be glad to talk them over with you if you so desire.

Very sincerely yours.

Friday nite

Dear Mr. Silver

I should really be at Temple nite now, listening to a Rabbi, but since I'm not (I'm most dreadfully tired) the next best thing I can do, so I reckon, is to write to a Rabbi.
If I had gone I would only disgrace the family again by falling asleep during the Sermon. I love the service and the music but, the Sermons are too deep for me.

I Can hardly realize that I'm a full-fledged Senior now privileged to sit in the front seats in Chapel 'n' everything. The only trouble is that I simply can't look dignified enuff. Don't you think ~~any~~ I'll make any impressive figure in jute - last in a Cap and Gown!

I ^{me} remember about three years ago you asked me if I would send you an invitation to my Commencement. You could hardly think of making such a small an-important trip now- after journeying to France and Palestine, could you!

Our Football Team This year is a winner - so far we've been victorious (I knocked on wood) in every game. We Seniors are going to have a Regular Halloween party next week for the football fellows and the visiting team.

Were you ever so worried about things you just couldn't sleep? Ever since I've been elected Ed. in Chief of The Record I spend half the nite lying awake thinking about it. Mr. Johns, our principle isn't very much in favor of having a school paper and that makes it so much harder for us. I'm just beginning to realize the trials of an Editor. I'll be gray haired before my time - but I'll try, try try to keep on smiling. It's the only way. It's the way I got the job (because Rebecca Nesbitt, who was the other candidate is all brains and I know I know niter little - do you remember my struggles with algebra? - and Geometry thank Heavens I'm thru with it!) and I'm going to try to make the "Record" a prize-winner with the same spirit. Norman Cunningham

(Please excuse the many kinds of Stationary - my stock is running low. Remember "Variety is the Spice of Life.") well - Norman is our Business Mgr. ~~my~~ ^{and} a regular "right hand man". But when he told me today the price of printing and of making "cuts" my heart just sank to my shoes.

 Isn't it dreadful that money has to limit everything! But I musn't dump my woes on you - gess you have plenty too.

This is Saturday nite - its raining dismally outside but its quite cozy here in my room.

This morning Mother and I went to Temple as usual. This afternoon a School chum and I went to the Victoria and strange as it may sound it was really fine. The "Vic" has been all done over and is now an adorable Little Theatre. About two weeks ago - now dont laugh please! - the Mgr. - Mr. Schaffer stoppt me on the street (this is a fact) and told me that if I wanted to go on the stage he would get me in a company. He saw me last winter take the part of Folly in the Y.D.C. + I.J.

Big Show and must have thought I was a little bit allrite. I'd hate to stop school now - my Senior year - but if I get as sick of school n' everything as I did last year, I can chuck it all - and get a "Start" not a very brilliant one I imagine, but a Start. Do you think I'm a silly nut? Or a wise little Fool!

So far school is very nice.
I'm getting along fairly well in my lessons. By now I can say "Je vous aime beaucoup" and "Je vous adore de tout mon coeur" and such things. So you see I'm progressing a little. I'm sleepy - ^{Good} night.

Wednesday.

In Chapel today ^{H. B.} Mr. Johns announced that the School was going ^{to} have a Lyceum Course and that he was expecting the students to dispose of 1000 #2 tickets and that tickets would go on sale next week. Of course this was all news for us students. Now "Hiram", otherwise "Ham" otherwise Prof. ^{H. B.} Johns. is very strong for this Lyceum Course as it is a very profitable undertaking financially.

Now when I heard all this in Chapel my temperature rose to ~~110 degrees~~ then sank to 60 degrees for while I realized that it was

5 a fine undertaking I realized also that a different kind of "undertaking" would ensue for it would put an awfull crimp in the "Record" Subscription Drive that the Business Mngr. & I were planning for next week. It would just naturally kill all our plans. -----

Intermission - The Assistant Advertising Mgr., Haral Gollner just called for information - well, to continue - Knowing how disastrous this would prove (isn't this exciting - Sounds like a dime novel the Perils of Polly the Editor) I did my darndest to get the

The Business 1st gr. Advertising 111 gr. + a couple others to start some propaganda today and get ahead of Mr. H.B.G. and his Lyceum Course. So this afternoon after school we got the master key and some colored chalk and proceeded to make the black boards talk!

Here are some of the notices we printed

In the Latin room

"Veni - videri - help us conquer Subscribe for the Record"

In the Freshman English room

"Freshmen, we are counting on you" written in Green, which isn't diplomatic.

Our school colors are Old Gold & Blue.

Others are -

"You Sing

"It's the Old Gold and Blue that we love" Prove it by subscribing to the Record"

"Are you $99\frac{99}{100}$ Loyal - If so Subscribe

"You'll subscribe Eventually - you know the rest"

In the Algebra room we have $x + $1.25$ = Record Subscription

Find x --- x = School Spirit

Here are two of my "inventions"

(big yellow chalk streak)

"Have you a
If not Subscribe for the Record"

"Show us your "gold" (written in "gold" colored chalk)

And we'll know you're

True Blue (in blue chalk)

Subscribe for the Record"

Heaven only knows what Mr.

Johns will do to us tomorrow I'm going to bed now - so will pray that he doesn't get too ramblantious.

Tremblingly yours

Pique'

'Bout 10 days later.

Hi y, but this is a "Journal" I really hadn't intended writing this much. I'm wondering now if you've read this far!

Life for me these days isn't one duty after the other, but one duty on top of the other! During the last two weeks I lost 5 lbs. Now I = 88 lbs. which is about rite. So you see the "Record" has done something for me.

and last

Hunt Fan (Mrs. Silberberg) is visiting Isenbergs and us. She is a dear! We received the most adorable picture of Marcia's baby "Queenie," last week.

This afternoon the girls of the Record staff sold "cats" at the big football game - W.V.U. vs. Bethany College. Our team was invited to attend this game but as they played Charleston it was arranged so the Record Staff could go instead. We went in machines and cleared about $30. Our "best seller" is (or are) kisses - which for sanitary Reasons are wrapped in wax paper.

On Fri. afternoons we have a regular kiss factory in Room 106 - "bagging" kisses - you know - putting kisses in bags. We had a 100 lbs. to sell today. They are almost the best kisses ever tasted.
It's sorta embarrassing to sell them and I don't like to - so I act as general overseer.

Just a week ^{ago} tonite the Senior Class had a Halloween Party for the football boys. We all had heaps of fun.

The Y.D.C. has started up again.

I'm awfully glad the girls like the club well enough to continue it.

I think tomorrow, I hope, Helen S. & I will pay a visit to the girls at the Mount.

Monday night the Guild Girls held a Dance in the Vestry. It was lovely, every body had a good time, I believe.

The Lyons - Jewish people, new to the Community were there and were interesting. Mr. Lyons is very good looking and a wonderful dancer, his wife is more interesting tho - she is a blonde Parisienne Jewess.

who speaks only French:

We have lots of new teachers at School. One is Mr. Einstein, who is an electrical instructor. He also was at The Dance. I don't know if he's a "live wire" or not.

I have written enough. I must cease this foolish chatter, else I drive you to distraction!! After this letter is in the Post Office box I will want it back. But I want you to ~~to~~ know that I still think of you and love you heaps.

Dear Rabbi Silver,-

The nurse who met you at the door of our home is a very good catholic - so a lie more or less doesn't count - she can always be absolved. I was at home and very sorry not to have from you - and hope you will forgive the nurse, since she thought she would save her the trouble of dressing him with you the tedious suit -

Dear Alba; I sent you by parcel post this morning "The Haunted Bookshop", which I forgot to return to you when I was in Cleveland.
If you do not receive it will you please let me know and I can have the local post office trace it, as I had it insured.

Both Doc and I enjoyed our little trip immensely, especially when in Cleveland. I learned to admire and like you a good deal the short moments we spent with you. I suppose you hear this so much that it is really superfluous.
But honest, cross my heart, it's the truth and nothing but the truth I can already see the right girl actually washing. It's so wonderful, Abba, to be happily married as Doc and I are.

I'm home with the folks now for the summer and will try to spend my time as usefully as possible in this hamlet.

[1920?] Saturday night

Dear Fannie Silver,

There was much that I wanted to discuss with you, during the past weeks - but how busy you are and the demands that are made upon you -

I am good never to tell you - It is my intention to resign from the presidency of T. T. W. A. as soon as I can stop the work that the office involves - Mrs. Feder will automatically succeed and our wonderful Mrs. Gies was here this morning and did not say no to the vice-presidency - For all that this promises for the Temple and for the happiness that it will give you, no one is more glad than I.

That you may know before seeing Mr. Wisenfeld, what I wrote to Mrs. Simon, am enclosing a copy - The fear, as expressed in Mrs. Wisenfeld's message, that state federations might lessen interest in the National, is an admission of weakness and a matter that should have been considered before, and not after, such federations had been endorsed and urged, by the Y. T. S.
I used strong terms, but some one needed to, if our continuing silence is not to be misunderstood as submission to discrimination ^{any} methods that are becoming intolerable to us - I could not go to Washington - knowing that some one should protest and whether President or not - shall, of course, hold myself responsible for the consequences.

I regret that you must decipher these hieroglyphics but it is one of the penalties of being a friend of
