To Each Member of the Alumni Association of the Hebrew Union College.

Dear Sir:-

Your attention has probably been called to the fact that an honorary organization under the name of the D.D. has recently been formed at the Hebrew Union College. Your membership as an alumnus may have been solicited by this organization.

As a committee appointed by the Student Body of the Hebrew Union College, we have been instructed to inform you that at the last meeting of that body the above-mentioned organization was declared unauthorized and subversive of the higher interests of the College. A resolution was adopted requesting it to disband.

Hoping you will give this matter its due consideration, we remain,

Cordially yours,

Cincinnati, Ohio.

My dear Jack,

I hope you will pardon the long delayed writing of this letter. I have been out of the city much of the time and my correspondence accumulates heavily during my absence.

I need not tell you how delighted I was to learn that you are to be associated with Rabbi Wolsey of the Euclid Avenue Temple. I shall look forward with a great deal of joy to your coming, and the opportunity it will afford me to work with you in our common cause. It is a good fortune indeed which has brought you to Cleveland.

You need not be told, of course, that you may at all times count upon my closest co-operation.

With kindest regards, I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Mrs. Gries,

During the past few months many requests have come to me to assist in the support of various educational and cultural institutions, both here and abroad, which have suffered as a result of the war. Some academies of learning have been completely disorganized, and some great Jewish scholars, who have rendered inestimable service to the cause of Jewish literature, are unable to continue the publication of their monumental works.

Rather than make separate appeal for each and every one of these most worthy causes, I thought it best to raise a joint fund. I am writing to a limited number of those who, I believe, are interested in Jewish scholarship and in the preservation of the cultural activities of our people, to assist me. The institutions and individuals to be benefitted by the fund are:

1. Die Verein zur Gründung und Erhaltung einer Akademie für die Wissenschaft des Judentums . . Germany
2. To assist one of the greatest living Jewish scholars, Dr. H. Heller of Odessa, to publish his epoch making researches in the Bible and in the Talmud.
3. To assist Oberrabbiner Reich of Werbow, Hungary, in the fine educational work which he is doing in his part of the world.
4. To assist the organization "Motsam: Mayon," whose object is the publication of four Hebrew books annually for our schools and colleges, and for the Hebrew reading public.

My dear Mr. Hartman,

A meeting to discuss a question of serious moment, effecting the wellbeing of Jewish immigrants coming to this country, will be held on Tuesday evening, May 10th, at eight o'clock, at the B'nai B'rith Building.

I am joining with Rabbi Weissey and Rabbi Goldman in inviting a certain number of people of this community to this meeting.

May I count upon your kind cooperation?

My dear Mr. Wolf,

Enclosed please find the correspondence bearing on the subject which I discussed with you Tuesday night.

You will see by my letter dated May 15th, that I preferred to have my negotiations carried on direct with the New York Office.

The judgment which was taken was a complete surprise to me, inasmuch as the letter of May 6th clearly stated that further proceedings would be withheld.

I should appreciate it if you will attend to the matter at your early convenience.

I wonder whether you are going to attend the Union Convention in Buffalo. In that case I would prefer to tell you all I know about the country then, as well as discuss with you the present status of Zionism in this country. Please let me know whether you are going to Buffalo.

Good morning Doctor:

It was with no little pleasure that I read a very brief and interesting letter from my good friend, Edward Joseph, in which he apprised me that you would take care of the wedding services on June 8th at 7 P. M. at The Hotel Statler, Cleveland Ohio.

My fiancée, Miss Florence Koch is a very lovely young lady and I am anxious to have you meet her prior to the services and believe that we should have possibly one rehearsal. Is this correct?

In a conversation over the wire last night Miss Koch apprised me that it might be impossible to procure satisfactory reservations in the Hotel Statler and we may have to have the wedding at some other Cleveland Hotel. This was due to prior convention arrangements that were made at the hotel.

I am usually in Lorain Sunday over the week ends and inasmuch as Mrs. and Mr. Edward Joseph are to be Matron of Honor and Best Man respectively, I am anxious to have a rehearsal some Sunday when it will be convenient for all concerned.

Again thanking you for handling our wedding and trusting to hear from you in reference to a rehearsal at your convenience, I am,

Yours very cordially,

Milton L. Hirschheimer

Dear Doctor - Mr. Sam Edelman, an active worker in Mt. Sinai Hospital, just left here, having come out to ask me to use any influence I might have with you to induce you to speak at a banquet which they are going to hold this month for the benefit of the hospital. They are very anxious to have you & would change their date to suit your convenience and will promise anything if you will speak for them -

It is, as you know, a very worthy institution and if you could arrange to favor them I would also appreciate it - very much. He is writing you to-day -

I just returned from N.Y. a few moments ago, and was stenographing working this afternoon so hope you can read my writing - was sorry I didn't get to see you again in N.Y. but I couldn't get a seat at the meeting for love or money and you were out when I called up the hotel the next day -

Hoping this finds you in the best of health and hoping also you might be able to favor the Mt. Sinai Hospital if it can be done without too much of a personal sacrifice

Dear Fellow Citizen:

I hope that the folder containing examples of students' work mailed you a few days ago reached you at a time when you had a moment to look it over. As you read the work is all recent class work and produced by our advanced pupils.

You have known The Cleveland School of Art for many years, have watched its development and have also known of the high standing that it has taken among the schools of the country. It now ranks with the very best and it is our ambition to make it the first school of the United States. This development is largely due to the help of our friends who have contributed of their time and of their substance to carry on this work.

We have room for many more members; in fact we actually need many more.

Will you by signing the enclosed card become a member of our list of honored patrons and by your financial aid at this time help us in this most important work.

Very truly yours,

Associate Director.

weder einen Freund, oder Bekannten dort habe, wende ich mich zum Herr Rabbiner wie der Jünger, der seinen Brief an lieben Gott adressierte und es für Ihn glichen löst findet es ein Barmherziger Mann und zu seinem Volk zur Hilfe war. Hochgeehrter Herr Rabbiner! Wenig solche Arme sind, die an sich so nicht helfen können, als ich. Es gibt Arme, die arbeiten können, es gibt solche die Soldaten waren, oder Beamten sind und Hilfe bekommen es gibt solche die reiche Frauen

nicht leisten kann, während Anfang des Hebräer Brotes bin, einst bessere Zeiten gelebt habe, aber kann ich nicht und habe nicht zu nehmen, was ich

This is CAMPAIGN WEEK for the Cleveland Girls' Council!

Last week you received our folder explaining the purpose of the Campsite Campaign and the work of the Girls' Council. We hope you read the folder and decided at that time to be one of those willing to help the Girls' Council in its efforts to provide a camp where the young girls of Cleveland may experience the benefits of group activity and life in the open.

Cleveland girls have waited a long time for a camp. Cleveland is one of the few cities in which there are well-organized Girl Scout and Campfire organizations without camping facilities and provisions. We owe these girls the same opportunities enjoyed by their brothers in the several boys' camps near Cleveland.

If you have not already mailed your contribution or pledge to the office of the Girls' Council, 503 Electric Building, or given your subscription to some Girl Scout or Campfire Team Solicitor, may we not urge you to send it in at once upon the enclosed subscription blank?

A Cleveland Girls' Camp and the realization of our slogan, "Better Girls for Greater Cleveland" are only possible if we have the generous support of every public-spirited citizen of Cleveland. Cleveland is known everywhere for its public-spirited support of such enterprises.

We are counting upon YOUR help!

Very sincerely yours,

President

MY DEAR RABBI SILVER:

On my return here from the West, I find your letter of May 4th. It is, of course, trite and hackneyed to tell you that the requests for contributions to various causes-- many of them exceedingly worthy-- are increasing rapidly and becoming, so far as I am concerned, out of all proportion to a decreasing income, but nevertheless it is a realization of this condition that moves me to send you a check for only $10.00 for the causes you enumerated, when I should so much like to send a very much larger check.

Gentlemen:-

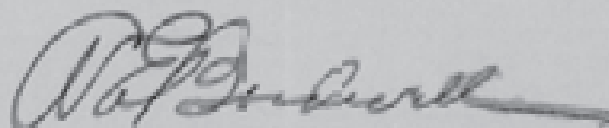

Attention - Mr. Wolf

Re - Cohen vs. Silver

In compliance with your request by telephone the writer has computed the interest upon this matter but has not resorted, however, to the partial payment computation for this would require too much time. Judgment was rendered May 17, 1920 for $1082.50 since which time the debtor has been paying with some irregularity $100.00 per month. There has accumulated since that time interest of $32.47 which along with court costs of perhaps $2.00 would make an account of $1116.97, against which defendant has paid $1005.60.

If you can obtain for us an additional check of $109.37 we will feel that this should be accepted in full settlement though there was a promise made to pay attorney's fees. We do not see how we can enforce such a promise, however, and will be glad to close the matter upon the basis set forth above.

Very truly yours,

Good morning Doctor:

It was with no little pleasure that I read your very interesting lines of the 11th and we regret exceedingly that Mr. Joseph in error advised you the day of the wedding was Sunday June 5th. The correct wedding date is Wednesday June 8th and the invitations called for the hour of seven. The wedding will be held in the Lattice room on the second floor of the hotel.

Inasmuch as you apprised me a rehearsal will not be necessary, I shall look forward to seeing you as you state twenty minutes or so before the wedding.

Thanking you again for the interest manifested in our behalf, I remain

Yours very sincerely,

Reverend Sir:-

I had the pleasure of attending the Pipe Convention at Cleveland last week at the Hotel Hollenden and listened to your address on "Looking into the Future".

I am very much interested in these matters, because I have myself delivered some lectures around the country and must say that I have never listened to a better master-piece from an oratorical or a literary standpoint.

I trust you will not refuse my request to have made for me a copy of your address, at my expense, and send it to me, for which please again accept my many thanks in advance.

Do you think that I will be able to get a room at the place where you are stopping? Could not recall the name of the place otherwise would have written direct. Dear Rabbi:-

We wish to introduce to you our representative, Mr. Max Steinman, who has been sent by us to your city, in behalf of our organization.

We would thank you if you would give him whatever assistance you can in suggestion of names, people who he might interview in behalf of the Society, that thus he might be able to do efficient work for our organization, and interest the Cleveland Jewish Community in the work of the Jewish Publication Society.

You probably know, Mr. Chas J. Gefien, who is a resident of your city, and who has occasionally been taking an order for us, but you also probably know that he is away from the city a great deal, and that his work is only occasional. Also his possibility of appeal is limited, as he is most conversant with the orthodox group, and has not interviewed the other group at all.

Mr. Steinman is our regular representative, and we will thank you very much for whatever you can do for him.

Dear Rabbi Silver -

Just a few lines to let you know how I am getting along and about the latest news at college. The student body election took place last Wednesday, and Ferd Boesman ran away with the Presidency, getting more first choices than any candidate has received in years. I was elected to the Executive Committee as Representative of the Preparatory Department.

On the whole the election was satisfactory. Ben Fraubel was elected President of the Literary Society, a big man in a big position. The editorship of the monthly was unanimously given to Sam Wolk, a second collegiate, and a very capable man. The Vice-Presidency of the Student Body went to Walter Rothman.

I have been unofficially told that I am to have a holiday position this year, where I haven't the slightest idea. My source of information was "Doc" Freehof.

Everything else is in the best of condition. My work is coming along fine. The only thing of interest on for next week is a farewell banquet to Dr. Kohler at the Pitman Hotel. Hoping that everything in Cleveland is coming along nicely, I beg to remain,
Very sincerely yours,
Lern.

My dear Senator Burton,

Permit me to call your attention to the case of Mr. M. Agrest of Cleveland. A year and a half ago Mr. Agrest applied for citizenship, but was refused on the basis that his family was in Europe.

His wife and two children are in Russia living in great hardship and Mr. Agrest is most anxious to bring them to the United States. Is there any way open to him?

Mr. Agrest is a man of means and amply able to take care of his family. He registered for service during the war and did not claim exemption. He is loyal to our Government and has the making of an excellent citizen.

Any interest that you would evidence in this case would be greatly appreciated by me.

Cleveland, May 31, 1921

Mr. A. H. Silver,

Dear Sir,

Yesterday, May 30th, Memorial Day - a day on which all unnecessary business is expected to cease, Jewish fish-peddlers, hucksters, paper-rag buyers, as well as bakers etc, drove through the streets of residence sections of this city, ringing bells, blowing horns, calling their wares, or their business, in open defiance of law, custom, and public opinion.

Not a dozen or a score, but scores of them were on the street on which I live, which is not an exclusively Jewish street yet. Last Thanksgiving the same thing was done by a few.

No other race of people attempted, or would think of attempting to ignore or override the sentiment and the institutions of the people among whom they have been permitted to come. It is not the articles in Mr. Ford's paper; it is not what Jews may have done nineteen hundred years ago; it is not the fact of their race or their religion, that prejudices people against Jews. It is what Jews do here and now from day to day. It is what Jews are, as shown in their dealing with non-Jews in business and as neighbors, that makes them the detested people that they are.

Some of the Jews referred to may have done what they did through ignorance, but their rabbis and other leaders are not ignorant; and if they preached obedience to law and respect for American principles and institutions to their people such things as those of Memorial Day and Thanksgiving Day would not be, I feel sure.

Respectfully yours,
Henry Nemo.

Dear Frater:-

We now own our own house, - that is, we have a lease with a favorable purchase clause, on the Euclid Avenue property which was being considered. That sounds pretty good, doesn't it?

There was not enough money in our treasury to complete the initial down payment - but we were able to make arrangements to pay the balance June 15th.

We pledged ourselves for the balance on that date because there are enough outstanding unpaid delinquent pledges to cover the amount and we knew that the fellows who were holding back until they knew that we meant business would "come clean" when the house was ours.

Your note for $ 25.00 dated June 1st, being the seventh payment on your pledge is now due. Your delinquent balance is $50.00 representing two unpaid notes.

The house is now ours, and it's your move to pay the note due June 1st, at once. It's up to you fellows who are behind to pay up all your old balance - or at least a big part of it.

We have pledged ourselves because of our faith in you. Don't fail us. The money must be in our hands by June 15th, so send your check in at once, to W. C. Treuhart, 5005 Euclid Avenue.

J'espère que vous voudrez faire appel aux sentiments philantropiques Juifs de votre Communauté et Collègues en ma faveur et vous plaira me prêter une heureuse main de secours. We have always wanted the opportunity of having you stop with us out here, but assuming that you were comfortably located, we thought it best not to inform you of our desire.

Inasmuch as the Garfield Hotel has been taken over by Mr. Margolin and is to be remodeled which will necessitate all occupants to vacate, we take the liberty of writing you with reference to giving you suitable quarters for any period of time.

At present the writer has a very desirable apartment, nicely located in every respect and has you in mind for same. We would appreciate an opportunity of showing you this apartment or any others and would be pleased to have you decide on one of these.

INTIMATE GLIMPSES OF THE RABBI'S CAREER

BY HENRY BERKOWITZ, D. D.

This book contains a series of lectures on the functions of the rabbi, delivered before the students of the Hebrew Union College in April, 1918, by Dr. Henry Berkowitz, rabbi of Rodeph Shalom Congregation of Philadelphia, Pa. In these addresses the author gives the results of his experiences in an active ministry of more than thirty-five years.

In addition, the book contains a Centenary address "The Pioneer American Rabbi—Dr. Isaac M. Wise," delivered by Dr. Berkowitz. The author shows how the career of Dr. Wise illustrates and reinforces the principles of rabbinical service set forth in the lectures.

The book will be of great interest to students for the ministry, to rabbis and to laymen. For the rabbi it will prove a valuable guide for his work in the pulpit, in the religious school and in his communal activities. The general reader will obtain a better understanding of the tasks and difficulties with which the rabbi is confronted. A sympathetic and helpful spirit of cooperation between Pulpit and Pew will thus be promoted.

Dr. Berkowitz is well qualified to speak of the practical problems of the rabbi as minister, teacher and preacher. Dr. Berkowitz is a man of great force and originality in the pulpit, an educator of high standing and a leader of communal work in Philadelphia.

When the lectures were delivered at the College, they evoked great interest and enthusiasm on the part of the students, as was evidenced by many important questions addressed to the lecturer. These questions and the answers have been incorporated at the close of each chapter.

The book should find a place in every Jewish home.

Price, $1.50 prepaid.

My dear Jacob,

I was very happy to receive your note and to learn that you are feeling fine and that you are looking forward to a speedy recovery of your health. Please let me know from time to time about your well-being, and if there is anything I can do for you.

My dear Silver:--

I was very much in earnest that morning when I said to you that I would like nothing better than an opportunity that would enable me to settle in Cleveland. You replied to the effect that it could be arranged. Can it?

Now that I am "at liberty" I should like nothing better than such an arrangement.

I still have a couple of your books which I would like to keep and if it is satisfactory to you I will send a check for them.

The "Faith Journal" I am sure
I can have as you must keep a supply on hand for your classes. The other books you may want. It is Abraham's Jewish Literature.

Book books have listed other books which I want to read. I enjoyed every book you picked out for me so much but I must not be a trouble to you. You have been so kind to me - I want you to know what happiness it has given me, and how I appreciate the way in which you and your people have made me feel welcome.

I have always wanted to talk with you but something keeps me dumb in your presence and so I have missed all the opportunities you have so kindly given me but I feel sure that you understand any way.

Will you please let me hear from you in any way most convenient for you about the books and how to make out the check.

Hoping you have a pleasant and restful vacation and again thanking you for all your kindness. I am

My dear Dr. Silver:

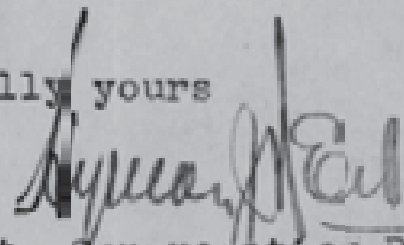

On behalf of the Temple Bnai Israel of Washington Heights, I would appreciate your courtesy in advising me whether you would consider a call to the pulpit of our Congregation.

In order that you may know something of the character and size of our Congregation, I am enclosing an article which appeared in The Jewish Tribune on March 11th, 1921. I need only add to this that we are located in the Washington Heights section of New York City, a community of almost half a million Jews, and rapidly growing.

If you would care to consider such a call, we would be pleased to have our Committee call upon you to discuss arrangements; or, if you prefer and it is convenient for you to come to New York, we could arrange to have our Committee wait upon you here.

Appreciating the courtesy of your early reply, I am tion, but requests me to thank you for your

My dear Mr. Pipp,

Permit me to thank you for your kindness in sending me the copies of your Weekly, and for your thoughtfulness in publishing my Tribute to America.

Miss Cora E. Foster,
3034 Edgehill Road,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Miss Foster,

I am in receipt of your kind letter of the 16th and am happy to learn that you enjoyed the books which I gave you. I shall appreciate it if you will keep them all with the exception of those belonging to the Temple Library. Such books are marked "Temple Library" and of course we shall have to return them. However, I can procure duplicates of those books if you wish them.

I want to thank you for the very kind sentiments which you expressed in your letter and trust I shall have the pleasure of seeing you in the near future.

Trusting you will have a pleasant summer,
I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,

Mrs. Marcus Feder,
1779 Cadwell Avenue, C.H.,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Mrs. Feder,

I am returning herewith the playlet written by Warshawsky. I think that with a little re-vamping, it would do.

I would suggest that Mr. Warshawsky work on it during the summer and if possible give the play a little bit of action along with the rather clever conversation.

With kindest regards, I am

Very sincerely yours,

June 24th, 1921

Mr. A. H. Froenenson,
609 West 127th Street,
New York City.

My dear Froenenson,

Are you planning to be in Pittsburgh
the first week in July? In that case we can talk more fully concerning the matter you wrote me about. While there is nothing definite in sight, there is a likelihood that there will be something which may interest you.

Let me hear from you.

With kindest regards, I am

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Lillian,

I hope you will pardon the tardiness of this note. I determined to write you immediately on hearing the good news that you had been made Valedictorian of your class at Central High School, but have been so very busy.

I am very proud that this distinction has fallen to one of my Confirmation Girls. You have my hearty congratulations.

May your earnest endeavors bring you increasing honors throughout your school years.

With kindest regards and best wishes for future success, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Miss Lillian Kaufman,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. Lewis Sands,

My dear Mr. Sands,

I desire to acknowledge and to thank you for your courtesy and thoughtfulness in sending me those fine cigars.

I am leaving in a few days for my vacation and hope to see you on my return.

With kindest regards,

June 24th, 1921

Mr. Leon B. Stein,
Wheeling, W. Va.

Dear Friend,

Permit me to thank you for your letter of the 20th. I am delighted to learn that you are to be a candidate for the Second Vice Presidency of District No. 3. My best wishes are with you.

I will see what I can do in the matter referred to in your letter.

With kindest regards to all the members of your family, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. J. W. Molassesie,
Union Savings & Trust Co.,
East 9th Street and Euclid Avenue,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Molassesie,

I am taking the liberty of sending to you the bearer of this note, Mr. Emil Newman. Mr. Newman is a highly educated young man, recently come from abroad, and is now endeavoring to find some employment. I am wondering whether there is a possibility of using him in the foreign department of one of the banks of the city. Perhaps after talking to him you may be able to make some suggestion to him regarding the employment he is seeking.

Thanking you for any assistance it may be in your power to offer, I am

Very sincerely yours,

June 28th, 1921.

Mr. C. P. F. Vitz,
Cleveland Public Library,
Euclid Avenue at East 14th St.,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Vitz,

I am taking the liberty of sending to you the bearer of this note, Mr. Emil Newman. Mr. Newman is a highly educated young man, recently come from abroad and he is now endeavoring to find employment. Since he is a student of quite a few languages, I am wondering whether there might not be a possibility of using him in the foreign department of the Library.

Any way in which you might be able to assist Mr. Newman will be appreciated by me and I know he will be grateful.

With kindest regards, I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,

Miss Hetta Farris,
Principal Kindergarten Training School,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Miss Farris,

I am glad to say a word in behalf of Miss Babette Devay, who, I understand, is planning to enter the Cleveland Kindergarten Training School.

Miss Devay was graduated from my Religious School and was confirmed by me about three years ago. Her family is well and favorably known in Cleveland and have been members of The Temple for many years.

I believe Miss Devay's personality and training are peculiar to the line of work she is planning to follow, and that she will make a success of such work.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Sir:

I very much regret that I had to tell Mr. Emil Newman, who brought a note from you the other day, that there is no way at all in which we can at present make use of his services.

For some time now our positions have not only all been filled, but we have a waiting list of applicants, some of whom have had experience in this or some other library.

The present situation is so different from that which confronted us for a period of years that we have not yet become really accustomed to it, and regret very much that we are not able to avail ourselves of the services of so many qualified applicants.

Very sincerely yours,
