Rabbi A. Silver,
The Temple,
E. 55th St.,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

A Mr. Leonard Friedman of 12100 Fairport Avenue this city, recently visited us for the purpose of asking our help in finding him a position.

In view of the circumstances which he related, we felt that possibly you might be interested in the case.

The man appears to be well educated, speaking five or six foreign languages. In the four weeks that he has been in this country, he has already acquired a talking knowledge of English. He has manifested splendid initiative by immediately applying for his first papers and attending night school. He appears to have been well fixed in his native country, but was apparently ruined by the war.

He claims that his brother, Louis Gold or Gould, is a prominent member of your congregation, however, his pride does not permit him to solicit either his brother or you, on that score.

Mr. Friedman has the makings of a solid citizen and is very anxious to bring his wife and remaining four children to this country.

He also claims to be a Hebrew scholar, could possibly teach it and has acted as cantor on many occasions.

Hoping that you might be able to do something for this man, we remain

Very truly yours,

My dear Professor Marx,

On December 11th I wrote you requesting that you send me if possible three books which I wanted to consult in the writing of a paper. I have received no response from you. I have since procured these books elsewhere. I would suggest that a certain amount of reciprocity would not hurt the cause of the Seminary. I was among those who issued the invitation for Mr. Marshall's meeting next Sunday in the interest of the Jewish Theological Seminary.

With kindest regards, I am

My dear Sam,

A card this morning announced the removal of your offices to the main floor of the Leader-News Building. This is an indication that your business enterprise is standing satisfactorily. I am most happy to learn of your continued success and I want you and your associates to know that my best wishes are with you.

My dear Mrs. Rosenblatt

In reference to our conversation of last Tuesday I would suggest that a fitting memorial may be a flagpole. This would cost approximately $150. A shelf of books is of course always appropriate. When you make your decision I would appreciate hearing from you so that we can set aside the memorial object for you.

With kindest regards and trusting that you will have a very pleasant visit to the coast, permit me to remain

Dear Abe:

I want to tell you how happy I am to hear that you, also, have joined the Fraternity of married men. Accept my sincere good wishes!

Now, real life will commence. And from what I have heard of your wife, I know that she will be a blessing to you and you will be a blessing to her.

I'm taking a rest here preparing to undergoing an operation in Cleveland with the eminent Dr. Cile. I hope I may see you during my stay in your city.

Your letter was received after Rabbi Silver had departed on his wedding trip. As he was to be gone the entire month of January I was fearful of answering your question until I had consulted him.

I have received word this morning that he will be in Cleveland on January 28th and will officiate at your wedding at Hotel Cleveland at 5 o'clock on that date. Rabbi Silver has another wedding at 6 o'clock and regrets, therefore, that he will not be able to be your dinner guest.

Will you kindly let me know at your early convenience whether you have decided that Rabbi Silver shall officiate for you, so that I ~~may~~ book the engagement.

My dear Rabbi Hittel - well, let's go at

1. When I reached the silver in May's letter, I thought it might interest you, and since there are some other interesting features on the sheet, I send you the whole exhibit.
2. You have probably read I. & my "chips" in the H.U.C. M. II. has a silver which will interest the 22 and the Rebbezin: you picked out a real good "Impression of the London Jew. Chr." (2d!!) prints my "Impression of the Com." (4 installments!) which I wrote them, there will be some "gnashing of teeth" - among the amor, and of plates among the sander delegates, say and rabbim. And if the silver appears in its original shape (Mrs Silver, you are my 3d.), I will claim 10% commission on the silverlining-s.

11. And now let loose that Social Justice 1203 of yours, and send me a carbon: I will print the best of the series verbatim: nearly 10 of your colleagues promised to deliver them in 1203 in febr.

5. Have you read this week's G. Hebr? The Soc. Just.
idea - mustard seed begins to grow. Horace Wolf wrote to please about the Soc. Just. "Joker" in the C.C.A.R.
Report 1st: to each man his due (2)

6. To be on the safe side, I send you an add'l copy of my pamphlet.

7. If Lemberg and Co. print II. such as I read it ^{yesterday} in the Jalapporog, those boys have the courage of their opinion: the strongest that has probably ever been said in that den of Beel. lions and whelps or Clifton Ave

Mrs Silver, I am really glad that you pulled your hobby

Dear Sir -

Attached Clipping of your Speech in New York - I am presuming that you would be responsive to an advanced solution of the various creeds. ^{Commented} My thought along this line does not include fight but rather a passive discussion in all denominational Churches of - Correct Attitude. Have given a few years study to this subject - It seems very simple of solution The actual ^{Commented} solution of all wanting is what all men desire - The disillusionment of all men accomplishes this - That all Hebrews should be considered dogs because a few priests delivered Jesus up to crucifixion is hardly in accord with a Merciful Gods intent - but the thought that removes all prejudices from all mens mind must be clear - Taintless & pure as the river flows - In arriving at your peoples viewpoint that I may be able to correctly express myself would be glad if you would send me small outline or pamphlet or write me an explanation of where you

② Get your Bible. Just write you for this because presume you would be most able to concretely express your view as to why you could not associate yourself religiously with Protestants - Catholics - Lutherans & various other denominations -

Account constantly running out of money its hard for me to continue this study & hard to get on platform. If your people are actually interested in Cementation of the religious world would it be possible for you to assist any way in financing one to whom this subject is very dear. Wonderful strides could be made along these lines if a little help was given to one to whom the reception is given. It will require years for me working alone to accomplish much but if influence of different heads & their money can be brought to meet my actual expense of self & family - perhaps I could soon attain sufficient note to get on lecture platform - the Gods work in a way that would mean much to the world.

If I would approach some Minister or Rabbi with this thought - who has not been thinking along this line - He would be as dead as a heathen. So am trying you because I think you are receptive

(3)

I would be glad to come to Cleveland Ohio & make a talk for your people. if you decide to consider sufficiently to interest yourself in me. I could not come unless fare & expenses there & back & possibly one hundred dollars was given me. My plan contemplated giving this lecture free & getting Churches take up Collection & reimburse themselves - but I had really hoped to get the different Churches sufficiently interested that they would finance - Otherwise I might be criticized as a money getter.

Healing of mankind's woes are just as simple today as in Jesus time. When one understands it, it is so superb & grand an accomplishment that it seems to me every child should be taught this science.

In infancy or while being carried in embryo the Mother should be so handled as to spiritually develop the child & enlarge its life. This paper, one would advance the child's life 20 to 50 years & in one or two generations greed & selfishness would be replaced with Gods Children doing only Gods work - every minute. How day & year Gods man

Would refuse to do other than Gods work-

Money would be no temptation-

Healing is an accomplishment that cannot be bought with money. That was tried in Olden days. Some people learn it very easily while others requires long, long time.

If man could only visualize Gods work as done. & know the truth. Realize its actuality the Cementation in Love of all mankind is accomplished. In my opinion I can teach the correct thought to a whole audience in one or two evenings. I can lift their thoughts to such an extent that they will perceive the new regeneration will be complete with proper application.

Different Churches - denominations - are necessary we could not all live in same home.

Different Nations are necessary. All in one would be too cumbersome. Different languages are alright. There's nothing wrong with Gods world. His Kingdom is perfect. Its revolving on its axis just as perfectly as it did 2300 years ago. If my crowd will keep their minds open & think over evidence I produce, they will all get some benefit.

⑤ far in excess of expectation.

Let me hear your side of Case. & also say whether you would care to render any assistance to one studying - I would not care to be under any obligations to any Creed or Church - I will speak entirely as God prompts & will not always consider will any ones. Opinion - take all the good out of it but will trust only in God to direct my decision in all cases. but I cannot see only the best in all things. they are all that's real. I will prove it & all who will conscientiously consider & wish what I say will agree. I will remove from thought all opposition to Creeds & Churches & Comment Man to God -

Can you use any influence to assist a man hoping to carry this simple truth to the world - I so would greatly appreciate the courtesy & would deliver my first talk in your Synagog - or any place you suggest -

Very Truly

J. W. Kinsey

Prompt rejection or acceptance might change entire trend of my life. Progress very slow - when am forced to labor for funds & study too

Dear Rabbi Silver:

A word to tell you how sorry I was to have troubled you with invitations to speak on the eve of your wedding. Of course you must have known that I was not aware of your wedding plans or I would have written rather to congratulate than anything else. I do hope, however, that it may be possible for you to come to us in Buffalo some time this season and give my people the privilege and pleasure of hearing you again.

Will you forgive me, my dear Silver, if I in this informal way extend my most hearty congratulations to you and Mrs. Silver -- I am tempted to say Virginia as I think I once addressed her in the early days when both of us were house guests of Morris and Pauline in Baltimore. Both of you will understand the informality of these good wishes when I explain that letter-writing by hand is still a strain for me which I am avoiding wherever possible. Though these words come in dictated form, they come never-the-less straight from the heart and bear both Mrs. Kopald's and my prayers for a life of unfolding and deepening joy for you and the now Mrs. Silver.

Hoping to extend our congratulations to you both in person before very long, and with greetings to you both,

Sincerely,

My dear Sir:

Though I am not of Jewish descent, I am as much interested in seeing anti-Semitism wiped out as you can be - because ^{otherwise} race hatred is going to destroy all civilization. But race hatred can never be wiped out as long as there is any possibility of one race dominating another by purely economic means. Therefore the only possible means to destroy race antagonism, is to secure economic justice.

Just at present influential Jews seems to care very little for such a proposal.

In the hope that you are different, I am sending you the name ~~and~~ ^{the} address of a book that will show how economic justice may be brought about.

3.

There is also a magazine published in London ~~that~~ advocates the same proposal - "Credit-Power", 70 High Holborn, London, W.C.1.

An aristocratic plutocracy is bad enough but a plutocracy of the proletariat, seems more like hell than anything that I can imagine, & that is what is happening in America.

Dear Silver,

I was sorry that I found no opportunity to talk to you in New York.
I want to report to you that from what Goldman and W.H. say and others can gather, I made, so they tell me, a distinctly favorable impression upon Ben Johnson. I understand, however, that the division in their ranks between conservative and progressive make them pause before inviting an H. E. C. graduate. Perhaps they are not fully aware of my own traditional, conservative attitude.

I should be deeply obliged to you if you found some time to look into the situation and to write me about it.

Again wishing you all the best and with best regards to

Vive Politics

MEMBERS of the Ohio Senate stood, heads bowed. The chaplain was praying for their guidance. His voice rose, as he pleaded:

"Save the nations before they perish!"

The prayer was a solemn expression of the spirit that had swept Ohio and the nation, that the United States should do something to avert war in Europe before it breaks out and draws us in.

The special business of the hour was called—a resolution respectfully requesting the president of the United States to call a conference of world powers to settle economic questions before they plunge the world into another great war. It seemed an answer to the prayer.

VOICES were heard in support of the resolution. Senator J. E. Burke, Republican, the author, pointed out the solemn duty of the Senate to convey the true sentiment of the state to the president, to aid him in reaching an honest conviction in the crisis. He asked that factiousness and partisanship be put aside.

Members of the Ohio Senate shifted uneasily. The party whip crackled and partisanship was having its say. The president should not be embarrassed by expressions of sentiment, even from his home state, the speakers said.

THE vote was taken. The prayer and the appeals to the spirit of humanity had been voices in the wilderness. Only five—two Republicans and three Democrats—had heard them and voted for the resolution.

World chaos, anarchy, destruction may be abroad in Europe. But 23 members of the Ohio Senate washed their hands of the whole mess and killed the resolution. What if war is inevitable? The party is first. Vive politics!

The Ohio Senate had done its duty—as it saw it.

Toward the Light

THE last primary election in Cuyahoga-co brought out the largest field of candidates in history.

For the office of state representative alone there were 79 Republicans, seeking nominations for 16 places, while 31 Democrats fought it out.

Representative Allen C. McDonald of Montgomery-co offers a proposal whereby he thinks voters may be better informed regarding candidates.

He has introduced a bill changing the date of the primary election from August to September, and requiring candidates to give their address, age, sex, business and professional qualifications in their declarations of candidacy.

Election Boards might, if they saw fit, print this descriptive matter upon primary ballots.

Even that much information about candidates is more than the average voter now has when he marks his ballot.

Letters to the Editor

A PLEA FOR PEACE

CLEVELANDER, RECENTLY IN GERMANY, WRITES ON SITUATION

To the Editor of The Press:

Of course, like all Americans, I am interested in the course of events in Europe, but this interest is intensified because of a visit of several months recently with Mrs. Wolin in one of the German cities in occupied territory, and first hand acquaintanceship with conditions.

We had occasion to know intimately quite a few German people and our interest and sympathy for them is due no doubt to the fact that to us the "German people" are a body of flesh and blood individuals, very much like a group of Americans in the same social scale. We saw last summer when the exchange rate was 300 marks to the dollar, how difficult it was for great masses of German people to earn enough to buy the barest of life's necessities; we know how acute this suffering must be now.

Neither Mrs. Wolin nor I have any relatives in Germany, and we are not pro-German excepting in the sense that we have the same sympathy for these people that we would have for any other groups in the same distressing situation.

Whatever opposition there is to America requesting an economic conference to bring the hostile nations into amiable adjustment, is due rather to a failure to understand the situation as it now exists, and the terrible consequences that must inevitably flow from France's continued occupation of the Ruhr. If every American could but spend a few weeks in Germany and know what poverty has come as a result of the great depreciation of the mark, I firmly believe that all opposition to America's lending a helping hand would immediately vanish.

If this situation is not speedily remedied millions will surely perish for want of food.

It will take the collective counsel and intelligence of the world's best minds to determine whether or not Germany can pay; many men whose opinion in international matters is of value think she cannot; but whether she can or cannot pay, and the amount she can pay should be determined by conference and not by the sword.

The total amount of the reparation claim against Germany is approximately $33,000,000,000, in American money. The interest on this amount at 4 per cent. is approximately $13,000,000,000, a staggering sum. When it is recalled that before the outbreak of the war one billion dollars of annual expenditure for America was deemed stupendous, we might well ask: "Can Germany, an obviously impoverished nation, pay twice that sum in interest alone?"

Why did France go into the Ruhr? The reason uniformly given is because Germany had persistently refused to meet the reparation payment; that there was a default in coal deliveries.

According to the latest figures I have been able to avail myself of this default, while there is some dispute about the exact amount, is somewhere between 3,000,000 and 4,000,000 tons, which at the price prevailing in Germany, was worth about $3,000,000. Did this default justify the French advance, and was this the true reason for this desperate move?

Has Germany paid? Up to Sept. 30, 1923, the deliveries of goods and payments credited to Germany on behalf of reparations amounted to $1,194,530,000, almost $2,000,000,000. For France to maintain her military forces in Germany from the end of the war until that date had cost approximately $800,000,000. From this last figure it will be seen how costly it will be for France to maintain an army in the Ruhr, and I believe the futility of her move.

The situation is grave, the consequences almost too terrible to contemplate.

America, apart from the few chauvinistic haters, I believe, is far enough away to reason calmly as to the best thing to be done to bring an immediate and healing peace to this distraught world. This is decidedly not a political matter, and no one wants to hamper or hinder the administration; I believe that Senator Borah is sincerely desirous of helping to guide the executive into the right channels. America is the hope of the world, perhaps the last hope of the world; you can hear this from everyone with whom you talk in Europe.

Are we to fail in this critical hour? The overwhelming opinion, when correctly informed, will unhesitatingly, I am sure, answer No.

Believing that the civic organizations of America could by resolutions merely bring to the attention of the president and the Senate the feeling of the great mass of people, I endeavored during the past few days to get a resolution before the directorate of one of our civic bodies; and, failing this, I decided to send out the following telegram to U. S. Senator Borah and State Senator Burke:

Eighteen hundred years ago Nero fled while Rome burned, and earned the everlasting contempt of all human-kind. Can America now flee while Europe burns? No political issue confronts us, but rather a moral, a religious, a humanitarian duty. If we stand idly by and fail to use our every effort to bring the hostile nations into an amicable settlement, war again—with all its appalling consequences—will doubtless be inevitable; and if not that, then war, want, starvation, suffering to untold millions. The crisis is acute. America must act. Help endow the well being of all the peoples of the world and our own economic security as well. The overwhelming opinion of just America, I believe, is with you in your laudable effort.

The matter of the resolutions mentioned will be brought up again on next Monday before the body referred to, and I hope that every civic organization, as well as organizations of any kind, will send on their resolutions, not to embarrass the president or the administration, but to indicate that the heart of America favors intermediation only to the extent of bringing the recalcitrants together in friendly conference.

My dear Friend - Rabbi Silver:- RE: #117833 - Connecticut Gen'l. Life Ins.
#3000.

If you recollect, the above numbered 20 - Paym't. Life Contract was written for you, by the writer in June, 1917. I am hoping you will not mind if I call the subject to your attention, if you desire me to attend to any matters pertaining to same, for you. I that perhaps you desired to change the beneficiary under same, and if so, if you will apprise me of such desires, certainly will deem it a pleasure to secure the necessary papers for you and forward same for your execution and signature.

You no doubt, too, are interested in increasing your present amount of protection, and would greatly appreciate if you will allow me to write any additional life insurance for you, you may desire in any amount or the form of policy you have in mind.

Trusting you will understand my perfectly good intentions of writing in this manner to you, hoping to hear from you, at your earliest convenience, in the enclosed envelope, with sincere best wishes, from myself and all my Dear Ones, believe me,

Faithfully yours,

My dear Cousin - I hardly know how to start writing you after an elapse of nearly ten years, but I cannot refrain from telling you how I happened to see you and hear you again, altho you will find it rather difficult to dig down in your memory for a distant Cousin found one day in 3 day visit, but I do remember that Anna sent a valise of cloth for me that never arrived and I lived in a bathing suit all that time. You, I believe left 2 days later. The next I heard from you fairly was when your brother Maximilian called on us one evening in the city about 5 yrs later. After dinner we met your sister and went to theatre. Shortly after that your brother returned to his temple in the middle-west and then I did not hear anything further until along after the war

A little boarding house in Spring Valley owned by Mr. Weiner in the summer about 1914.

My father (whom you may not know passed away just 3 yrs ago) brought me out to visit Mr. Weiner for the day. After we were introduced a short time; papa said to me "this young man is your cousin".

I don't remember just what caused papa to decide to let me stay up there for 2 weeks instead of the anticipated one

I several friends of mine mentioned your name as the famous person you are to-day. I asked them to describe you and although the descriptions were as like as I could remember you, I did not believe you were you until 3 weeks ago, I saw your picture in the Jewish Tribune and although it did not exactly look like you, I could see a family resemblance to your brother and decided to take my first night off (since baby's birth) to hear you. Of course when I saw you at Carnegie Hall, I asked

5 my hubby often "Does he appear tall to you" for I did remember you were tall - And then I saw my Aunt Sara and her family (papa & sister)
And finally I was convinced you were you - I was quite enthused I tell you, but not any more than Dad (my husband) and hundreds of others about us who heard your beautiful sermon. Altho

I very little time for visiting in the city these days - However if we miss you this trip, I hope you'll give us that pleasure next time.
I understand you are married but a short time. We should surely love to meet the dear Cousin

I have only outdone you in the direction and that is, we have been married 3 years this month and we have 2 children, a little girl of 2 yrs and a baby boy of 3 1/2 months. We live out in Brooklyn a part the folks are orthodox, Had And myself felt that your ideas expressed were like ours, and often since we heard you, we have passed them on in your words -

I do not know where to send this note - so by the time I send it off it may be too late to ask you to call to see us - but Aunt Sara said she would give ^{you} ~~me~~ ^{you} ~~me~~ where I come to see her and I find

I called Flatbush which is more countrified than other parts but we expect to build our own home in New Rochelle (a suburb of New York) this spring.

Will you be sure to look us up on your next trip?

Both my husband and myself will look forward to your visit with great pleasure.

Hoping to hear from you at our convenience

With kindest wishes to you and Yours truly
Mrs. Silver (nee Hannah Rosenberg) and our selves.
Most Sincerely
Your Cousin

In spite of the fact that February is a short month, I have set my goal at $100,000 worth of life insurance. If you feel inclined to favor me with some of your additional insurance, I would appreciate it very much if you would stretch a point and take it out this month. At least give me an appointment and lets talk it over.

Dear Friends,

We need not tell you that both Virginia and myself deeply appreciated your kindness and your thoughtfulness in sending us the beautiful wedding gift. My only regret is that you went to the trouble and to the expense of needlessly showing us a sense of friendship which we know exists in the highest form.

We trust that you are both well and we shall have the pleasure of spending some time with you at your home before very long.

With kindest regards, in which Mrs. Silver joins me, believe me to be as always,

My dear Dr. Kohler,

I am enclosing herewith the letter which I just received from Rabbi Zeppin of Cincinnati. As I expected, no explanation is given in the letter for that detestable bit of nonsense which omitted your picture or any mention of you from the film of the activities of the College. Your pupils and disciples throughout the country have shown such evidence of disgust with this procedure that "steps were immediately taken to rectify the same."

I regret very much that the tremendous rush of convention activities and our early departure prevented Mrs. Silver and myself from availing ourselves of the opportunity of spending more time with you. I trust that we shall have that pleasure before very long.

With kindest regards to Mrs. Kohler and to all the members of your family, permit me to remain

PROHIBITION

To The Editor of The Wall Street Journal:

In The Wall Street Journal of January 16, I read an editorial that:

"If all the 'abuse of wine privileges' by Rabbis were summed up, it would not keep Congressmen in liquor for a week."

I would like to move to amend that editorial to read that:

"If the Congressmen drank all the liquor which is sold as a result of the 'abuse of wine privileges' by Rabbis in Chicago alone, and estimating the average capacity for drinking on the basis of those who can stand the most, no one of them would be able to attend a session of Congress during the entire year."

Few persons have any idea of the very large quantities of wine that are dispensed under the abuse of wine privileges.

Dear Fellow-Member:

I wish that each one of you might sit in my seat at noon, each day, and hear the reports as the Team-Workers bring them in, regarding your subscriptions to your new building. Some of the workers fill us with a great deal of joy, as they tell us how happily and smilingly and with what enthusiasm many of the members of this congregation are answering the call.

However, this cannot be said of all of you, for some have not given to the fullest extent and have thought, "if I give less, someone else will give more, and we will have the new building anyway"; but this is not true. The total quotas which have been made out represent what it will actually cost us to build the new building, and if you fail to do your share to your fullest possibilities, then it means that we are doomed to failure.

Our first few days' work while encouraging, has not been up to the standard which we anticipated, and unless each member is willing to share the responsibility, we cannot hope to succeed.

We cannot fail --- We owe a debt to our children which we as parents, cannot afford to neglect. Never in your life have you been offered such a wonderful investment, for you are building a monument which shall bring glory and honor upon the Jew, and through the Jew to the whole world.

When the worker comes to you, greet him with a smile. He is devoting his time, and his energy towards this great cause. Do not think "how little can I give", but rather "how much can I possibly afford". Open your heartstrings and do not let any base materialistic thought dissuade you from the dictates of both heart and mind.

GIVE -- FOR YOUR CHILDREN -- SIGN YOUR PLEDGE CARD WITH A SMILE.

Yours for success,

JOSEPH LARONGE

My dear friend:

Ever since I went in business for myself it had been my intention to write you personally. Knowing that you and your Congregation are large users of Books, I take this measure of soliciting your patronage, at least for all of your needs, at least for a part. While I have no claim on you, I would ask, for the sake of old friendship, not to forget me.

I am in a position to supply every want for the Religious School, Library as well as aid for teachers. I also carry a large assortment of suitable gifts. I assure you your patronage will be appreciated by me.

Rabbi A. H. Silver.

Dear Rabbi:—

Maurice
Chaikind

Realizing that a long time has passed since I saw you last, I had better reintroduce myself. I am the young man, Morris Chaikind, whom you loaned about a hundred dollars in the fall of 1919 and to enter Western Reserve University. If you remember, I left college shortly after that, and changed my name to Morris Mitchell and also left for Dayton Ohio. I hope that this is sufficient identification for my purpose in writing you.

In July 1930, I enlisted in the U. S. Navy, while still under the name of ~~Charles~~ Mitchell. As the expiration of my enlistment is near at hand - I enlisted for a period of three years - I realize the folly of my assumed name and am desirous of having the Bureau of Navigation change my assumed name to my correct one, thereby having "Chained" on my discharge papers.

In order to do this - as the Editor of the Army and Navy advised me - it is necessary to have an affidavit signed by someone, ^{preferably a pastor} who knew me under both the correct name and the assumed one. But it is better that you read what the editor advised me. I am enclosing a copy, taken from the Feb. 3rd issue.

I know I do not deserve the favor, ~~and~~ but I am hoping that you will forgive my error and that you will straighten a little tangles that will mean much to me at my age, for then I can start in civilian life with a clean page.

If you do think that you I deserve this little favor and so have an affidavit made, please let me know what the cost has been to you, so that I may repay any trouble you had to undergo.

Again let me say that I could not thank you enough for your kindness and generosity in the fall of 1919, and hope that the same kindness exists at the present time.

Very humbly yours,
Morris Mitchell,
Ph M-37, D. S. N.

P.S. I would be glad to relate some of my experiences while in the service and in the Tropics — Haiti, where I spent fifteen months ^{there.} provided you would care to read ~~it~~.

My Dear A. C. Ever,

1. "Better late than never": your letter gave me great pleasure, indeed, for I could not, in thinking of your congenial soul, even throw up the sponge. Then, here is a duplicate. If you could read the 2nd sheet of Simon (until now 21) by your colleagues (the old Bodyguard of the Synag. Ch.), your heart would jump with joy.
2. And now sit down, smoke a good cigar, read that pamphlet and - legen Sie los! Make your message a spring appeal to the Jewish read. youth, "to stand by the prophetic flag": for the and their 1873 is the = of the redemption of the future.
3. Just for an 2nd letter by Sidney Webb on the Prophecy of 1873: a real plaid 1873. Have you read his novitium: "Delay your Capitalism?"
4. Drop me, please, a postal telling me when, about, I can expect your two armes, G. Fogans! and trace so that I can fix up my make-up.

5. We are now forming the Amos Soc. for social and intern. justice

(normal membership = 110; life = $100; for $1000) which will endeavor to bring back (= 1212) to the Synag. the 1/10 of the Unaffiliated with the world's planks of the Tri-une Plank. of our 1/2 and 1/222

6. When do you come to N.Y.? A very important communication regarding the Feder. Council of Churches - but can not write it out Amos.

7. I may yet add as a living (exemplification of soc. just: Brandeis: "A Judge, Robert in modern Israel". I have 2 chapters on Herzl (2. v. Lubin. 3. Stearns). Brandeis would give me the oppor. to underwrite my 1111 1/131 1/2
Sincerely Yours Joseph

My dear Dr. Silver:

Permit me to express to you my appreciation of your admirable address, "What Has Become of the Melting Pot?" which appears in the current issue of the Jewish Criterion. Nothing I ever have read coincides more completely with my own views on the questions involved. I may add that I read with unflinching interest everything of yours that I see in print.

Yours very truly,

My dear friend Silver!

Your note of the 7th gave us all much pleasure though you forgot to enclose Jefferson's letter, and I greatly appreciate the stand taken by you and all your fellow-students as my disciples against what you declare a "detestable act of meanness" which caused the omission of my mention of myself or of my picture from the folder. But as I wrote to one who apologized to me for not mentioning my name throughout the whole proceeding being before the Convention, that this was systematically done to ignore all my work for 18 1/2 years at the College which has been before I came at St. Louis said to me both in New York and a year afterwards in Cincinnati and as Dr. Wise himself had written two years before his death on the decline and to which I gave new life and a new standing and which steadily grew in numbers of students and in manly dispositions internally and externally. The very name American Judaism instead of American Jewry is in itself in view of the various relations and is in expression,

Reform Judaism was to exclude the influence of the German made Reform. The slogan was: ^{זיין יידיש} ~~be a Jew~~, ^{און אים גלייכ} ~~and be equal~~ all the more I am glad that my dear pupils reflected so much credit on the Convention.

I was very sorry, indeed, that I was not given the opportunity of learning to know your sweet young wife and having another pleasant talk with you, but I trust that we all, shall have the pleasure of your visit here in our home.

With cordial greetings from us all

Yours

W. K. Kohler

Cleveland.

My dear Mr. Silver: -

I want to thank you so much for sending me these plays.

After reading "Jepthah's Daughter", I determined at once that it would be a finer thing for the Council to present. So you see, Mr. Silver, you solved our problem,

and I want to assure you of our sincere appreciation.

To my regret, the Council program has been changed, and we are not going to produce any plays
this season -

Won't you remember me and me to

Mrs. Silver? We have ^{been} looking forward most eagerly to meeting her, and would surely have come to see you, had I not been ill for the past month.

More and I are going to Florida this evening; and upon our return we will surely come to extend our good wishes in person to Mrs. Silver and you - Again thanking you

I am,

Sincerely
Yours,

Carolyn K. Groceman

Dear Sir:

Re: Policy No. 117833 Connecticut General

This is to acknowledge receipt of your registered letter of Feb. 7th, enclosing the above policy. Agreeable with your request, we are enclosing form for change in beneficiary to your wife and will appreciate if you kindly sign your name in full in the presence of a witness and return enclosure to us, at your earliest convenience, at which time, we can proceed with necessary transfer for attachment to the policy.

We note you have only forwarded the policy as originally written by us. It was our suggestion that you forward all your policies for necessary change, thus relieving you of considerable trouble and inconvenience.

As you are now thirty years old, we suggest that you increase your insurance about $25,000. and submit the two following forms:

|------------------------|---------------|
| Whole Life | |
| First year premium | $611.00 |
| Second " dividend | 114.00 |
| Net premium second yr. | 497.00 |

| | |
|---------------------|---------------|
| Twenty-Payment Life | |
| First year premium | $762.00 |
| Second " dividend | 123.75 |
| Net cost | 638.25 |

Under either of these policies, should you become permanently disabled as result of sickness or accident,

My dear Dr. Silver:

It is quite a time since I have written and my reason is that I have waited for something pleasant for you to hear about.

At present am teaching in a studio at the Vanderbilt Studios which I have obtained through a recommendation so that I can pay on terms convenient to me.

I expect to continue in this direction until I hear of a position in some school either in New York or out of town which I am expecting as I must have for my studies.

Moreover am working as hard as ever and only care for those accomplishments I can get without sacrificing my "Ideas" but at all times will keep fighting for higher and higher accomplishment.

As for New York I like it because there are better advantages as to information and opportunities but from a spiritual standpoint "It is no heaven".

Most of the time I have been here I have struggled and not only for my art but for mere existence and lately after getting around will do my utmost to exercise my greatest ideal and that is to 'Help all those whom I feel Worthy'.

New York on the whole is vulgar there is no atmosphere to amount to much and altho
I have quite an acquaintance

My Dear Dr. Silver:

This will introduce to you Mr. Jacob Landau, the President of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency. I feel quite sure you heard about the Agency and the world-wide service it has established for the dissemination of Jewish news, through both the Jewish and non-Jewish press, in an impartial and dignified way.

At this time it is particularly important that we should be in daily communication with our people the world over. Mr. Landau has the support of some of our best and most prominent Jews, and he is naturally anxious to extend the service and render it thus more useful.

I know you will help him to meet the important Jews in your City, and I need not add that I shall be personally grateful.

Yours sincerely,

February 16th, 1923.

It is with deep sorrow we inform you of the death of Mrs. Kathleen Mathison Kelly, wife of Doctor M.B. Kelly of this City (Bae-Mar Place), on February 12th.

Mrs Kelly was a Foundress of our Monastery and a devoted and faithful benefactress of our Community. To her we may apply the words of Holy Writ - "she hath looked well to the paths of her house," for she was an ideal christian wife and mother, strong, tender and unselfish.

We feel sure you will unite with us in asking our merciful Father in Heaven to comfort and strengthen her stricken husband, and to guard her four little ones.

Dear Rabbi:

We desire to enlist your friendly cooperation in the work of the JEWISH TELEGRAPHIC AGENCY, in order that we may more effectively extend our usefulness in your community.

The JEWISH TELEGRAPHIC AGENCY is an international organization three years old, which gathers from all parts of the world all important Jewish news, and supplies it to the press, both Jewish and non-Jewish by cable and telegraph. We are known to be doing this work impartially and efficiently. Our work has the respect and confidence of such men as Dr. Cyrus Adler, Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, Rabbi Nathan Kraus, Col. Herbert Lehman, Mr. Adolph S. Ochs, Dr. Chaim Weizmann, and Mr. Louis Marshall, as well as of the entire press, including the Associated Press in this country and the Reuter Agency in Europe, both of which organizations are constantly sending out to their member papers items originating with the JEWISH TELEGRAPHIC AGENCY.

It would be a fine thing if your congregation or some of the members would undertake to subscribe to the DAILY BULLETIN of the JEWISH TELEGRAPHIC AGENCY, to be mailed by us daily to the local public library, or to the local Jewish Public forum. By asking your congregation to subscribe to this service, you would make it possible at a small expense, for all Jewish news of the world to be brought to you by an organization whose impartiality and efficiency are unquestioned. The share which a service such as ours has had in combatting prejudice and in correcting erroneous opinion about us is a large one, while on the other hand, the publication in non-Jewish papers all over the world of news of agitations, excesses and pogroms against Jews has aroused the conscience of the Western nations with the result that Jewish life is less precarious in Europe than it would be if it were not known that an efficient news agency is on the watch to report every excess against Jews to the American, British and French non-Jewish press.

The cost of our service is only $5 per month. For this sum we would send out two copies of the Bulletin, one to you and another to the library, reading room, etc. designated by your congregation. We trust that you will not have difficulty in finding a response to our proposal and that we shall soon have the pleasure of hearing from you.

We shall be glad to supply you with a week's free trial on receipt of a note from you.

Yours very truly,

Isaac Landau

Dear Friend:

This will introduce to you Mr. Jacob Landau, the president of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency, who is going to call upon you within the next few days in connection with his work. I would appreciate it very much if you will give him a few moments of your valuable time so that he may explain to you the purpose of his mission, which I consider a very worthy one and deserving the support of the leading Jews of the country.

The Jewish Telegraphic Agency is furnishing to the press, both Jewish and non-Jewish impartial information of current Jewish events throughout the world and brings them to the attention of American Israel with accuracy and celerity. I think this agency should be helped and I knew that you will not withhold your support.

Thanking you for whatever courtesy you may show Mr. Landau, I am

Cleveland, O.

Dear Sir:

I need help, I must get it, and yet I don't know who to turn to for it. Lately, I was informed that you were just the person I needed, and that you could give me all the help necessary. I wish I have found the right one at last, for I have been looking for someone long enough now. You may want to know who I am and what I want. Well, I will have to explain myself and here is my story.

I am a girl of 18 years, acquainted with Cleveland. I am very little and my friends are but few. Since a child of eight I had the ambition of writing a comic book. My dreams were many of doing so, but I soon saw that dreams got you no where so I settled down to business to make my dreams come true.

It was one midnight March 25, 1932, when every body in our house held was far off to dreamland that this occurred. I was restless.

My thoughts were overfilled with ideas of what I should write. My enthusiasm was greater than it ever had been and sleep just would not come to me just then. Jumping out of bed I got a pencil and paper and started. Oh! I had actually started - started the thing that means so much to me now. Well, writing a book was far harder a job than I had expected. There were many times when I came near giving up; but still there was some thing, something I just don't know what, that whispered the little saying, "when a task is once begun, never leave it till it's done. Be it great or be it small, do it well or not at all." It was that little saying that pushed me on; and though my school home work was enough, yet every evening I faithfully kept up the struggle and battled along with it bravely. Then came the day when I finished, finished the last page of my dream. That was my joy as you can imagine. This lucky day was September 4, 1935, the first day of school after vacation. Then the task of rewriting the whole thing was before me. All of it was such a tiresome job and I had to give up many a good time for this book.

Eight whole months I labored like a slave and when I was done I surely thought I'd get some body to correct it all for me without much bother. First of all I told my school principal about it. She was so surprised and tickled that she continued praising me as if she'd never stop, then before I could say anything she told me how busy she was and so on. I then asked some of my teachers for help. They likewise praised me, saying they wished they had time to look it over. That was my first disappointment and it was a great one. Here I was, undecided where I should ^{turn} to or what I should do!

I finally got the head librarian of the Alliance to read my book and after two long months she finished it. She told my parents that it would be an excellent comic photoplay because it has so much action, and if I could get any one to correct it for me it would make a great success!

Now, Rabbi Silver, you are very popular and you know so many different kinds of people, don't you know of any one who could correct the book for me? Oh, it is so very comic that if you don't get a million laughs a minute out of it, you don't get a one. Why I am not so easy to be made to laugh and yet I used to roll in bed for half an hour and just laugh and laugh until mother started to scold. It is the story of a mischievous boy and the name of the book is "Mischievous Al". Really, if I could get some body educated to correct the book I'd be so grateful. Oh please, please, please! help me Rabbi Silver. Please answer me soon and tell me when I can talk to you personally. The book has 3 7/4 pages. Anxiously waiting for an answer Yours truly

Dear Dr. + Mrs. Abahille Silver:

The Y.M. + W.H.A. of Akron are holding their second annual banquet at the Hotel Portage on Sunday evening, February 25, 1923.

On this occasion we look back with much pleasure to the time when you spoke to the members of the "Y" at our first annual banquet.

If it is convenient for you to attend this banquet we will consider it a great honor to have you come and assist Rabbi Cronbach who is to be the principal speaker of the evening.

Dear Sir:

Your communication addressed to Charles as of Feb. 7th, has been referred to me for attention. In regard to second paragraph of your letter with reference to household furniture insurance, premium of which amounts to $22.80, said bill was probably sent to you in error by Miss Hanauer of Horkheimer Brothers. We hardly think our Office forwarded the statement to you; nevertheless, wish to advise same should not have been given to you, as the insurance in question was authorized by "Uncle Louis" prior to his departure on his European trip and covers your wedding gifts, located in the Dollar Savings and Trust Building in this City. As same is to be written for a brief duration, in accordance with request of "Uncle Louis", no premium will be collected until the accds are removed from the bank vaults, at which time the entire matter will be adjusted.

With sincere wishes to you both and hoping to have the pleasure of seeing you in Wheeling soon, I am

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I am writing you at the request of the Jewish Federation for Social Service of Buffalo. Upon hearing that you were coming to Buffalo to address the Congregation of Temple Beth Zion they have asked me to write you to find out whether you would give a fifteen ~~minute~~ lecture at the Jewish Community Building after the Beth Zion services. They will make all arrangements by automobile to take you there. The Jewish Community Building is the social centre of the young Jewish people of Buffalo. They hold religious services there every Friday evening.

However if it is at all inconvenient for you to go there please let me know. The Board of Trustees, moreover, feel that they do not want the lecture to be given that at the Temple shortened in the least degree because of this request. Your coming to us is an event in this congregation.

I would be glad to know what the theme of your lecture will be, as we are receiving numerous requests to this effect. Could you please let me know at what time you are planning to arrive in this city so that you will be met?

My dear Dr. Morgenstern,

Permit me to thank you for your kind letter of February thirteenth and for the interest and goodwill which prompted it. I need not tell you that I appreciate your good offices.

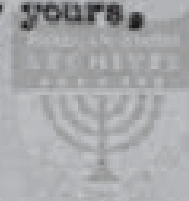

Of course I am very grateful to the congregation in whose behalf you wrote to me, for the confidence which they imposed in me; and it is not due to a lack of appreciation of the honor that I would decline the invitation from them, if it were forthcoming.

As you know, I have been with my Congregation now five years. I have been exceedingly happy here and have received at all times the finest co-operation. My people are at present engaged in a vast project -that of building a new Temple and meeting house, which involves an outlay of over twelve hundred thousand dollars. In a sense, it was to assist me in my work that the Congregation launched this project. The building is now under construction. Even if I were considering a change of pulpit, I would under no circumstances contemplate any such change at the present time. I would not think of leaving the Congregation in the midst of a big financial task. I have my friends here, I have my home here. I think that I shall stay here.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Alumnus:

We want two dollars or more.

We are not going to give you one thing this year for this money. If enough is collected a quarterly magazine devoted to alumnal matters will be published and the files of the Association brought up to date.

The Alumnal Association has a balance of $33.97 in its treasury, so you see we are borrowing money to send out this appeal. Should we fail perhaps yours truly will be "working it out at fifty cents per."

Whatever money is collected will be used for actual expenses and will not go to pay secretaries' salaries.

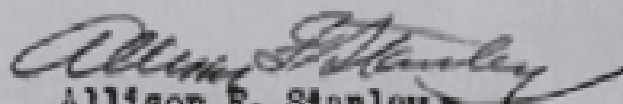

The Alumnal Association while maintaining files and records of all the graduates, does not receive any revenue from the various college associations, so we are trying by this means to get a working organization together.

In fact, we have to use discarded letter heads and envelopes, which were donated by Daniel Laurence, Business Manager of the University.

We are not handing out "sob-stuff" as to what you owe the University, - that is a matter for your conscience to settle.

If you think the Alumnal Association should function as such then send coins, stamps, check or anything that will equal two dollars or more -- emphasis on the More, if possible.

Yours on a gamble
