Boston, Mass.

My dear Mr. Morse,

Replying to your inquiry of June thirtieth, we paid the following salaries to our Temple Choir for the season just closed: Soprano $950.00; Contralto $1050.00; Tenor $850.00; Basses $1300.00 (for the past two years the Basses have served as Chalmers and the salary named covers both positions; Organist $800.00. The salaries are paid in ten monthly payments. No service is required and no salary is paid during the months of July and August.

The Temple has had but one service a week at which The Temple Quartette has been required to sing.

If this information is not as complete as you desire, please let me know and I will be glad to furnish it.

With kindest regards to Rabbi Levi,
I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,

P.S.

I should appreciate it very much if you would give me similar information concerning your Choir.

Dear Sir

What newspapers furnish
"exact and true accounts of significant movements"? We have the N. Y. Times which is certainly "capitalistic"; and the weekly Springfield Republican for its sane editorials — also the New Republic and The Nation, because they seem not afraid to express their opinions. Would you be kind enough to suggest a daily paper we could place confidence in.

My dear Rabbi Silver: -

In accordance with your kind request I am sending you an abbreviated copy of the letter I have shown you at Cape May with regard to my proposed trip to the Orient in search for new Genizahs.

While keeping the matter in strict confidence, you will by your contact with the proper people be able, I Trust and hope, to further this undertaking. If during your visits to Chicago, you can approach a man like Rosenwald and interest him in the matter, an important step forward will be made. Let us hope that by our combined efforts an important achievement will result for the cause of Jewish learning and literature.

I am writing this from New York where I am to remain till August 3rd and perhaps till a fortnight later. My address here is: - 302 Central Park West, N. Y. City.

With best wishes of a pleasant summer and with kind regards,

Yours sincerely

My dear Mr. Passell,

We have ~~sent to you~~ ~~sent to Leonard~~ several requests that he go to the Krumhar Studio in the Wurlitzer Building, 1013 Euclid Ave., and sit for his picture to be included in the Confirmation Class group. He has not yet done so and he is making it very embarrassing for The Temple. The Photographer is ready to finish the picture and unless Leonard has his picture taken during the next two or three days it will be necessary to complete the photograph of the Class of 1923, leaving him out.

Will you please give this matter your personal attention, and telephone Mr. Krumhar at once upon receipt of this note, and arrange for the sitting.

We should appreciate it very much if you will call The Temple (Rabbdolph 1330) and advise us that you have arranged to have the picture taken.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary.

My dear Mrs. Marks,

We have sent to you and to Esther several requests that Esther go to the Krushar Studio in the Wurlitzer Building, 1913 Euclid Avenue and sit for her picture to be included in the Confirmation Class group. She has not yet done this and The Temple is being very much embarrassed by the urgent demands of the photographer. He is ready to finish the picture and unless Esther sits for her picture within the next two or three days, it will be necessary to complete the photograph of the Class, withholding her out. This we are loth to do and we know Esther would not like it, but the photographer cannot wait any longer.

Will you please give this matter your personal attention and telephone Mr. Krushar at once upon receipt of this note, and arrange for the sitting.

We should appreciate it too if you would telephone The Temple that you have attended to this.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary.

The Sunday School leader of the local Congregational Church has asked me to talk to ~~them~~^{his} Sunday School classes on the general subject of Jewish History since the birth of Jesus.

I accepted because I felt it would be a good opportunity for me to say some relevant things I've been wanting to say; and besides - would be a good chance to possibly counteract to a small degree - a lot of the wrong kind of thinking and impressions that prevail, locally.

My reason for writing you is to ask you to suggest one or two books for me to read on the subject of recent (Christian era) Jewish History.

My dear Rabbi Silver,

Many thanks
for the copies of my statement as well as for the instalments of your article.
I am sending the latter to the Rev.
S. Levy of London who wrote to me about them.

I am glad to have your assistance in my endeavor to realize the matter.

Wishing you and Mrs. Silver a pleasant summer, I remain with kindest regards

Yours cordially

Cher Monsieur,

Nous avons le plaisir de vous accuser réception de votre honorerie en date du 13 courant, contenant un chèque sur Cleveland de $ 38.- À notre regret, nous nous voyons obligés de vous retourner ce chèque; il est, en effet, d'un montant trop faible pour être pris à l'encaissement sans une perte au change trop élevée. En conséquence, nous vous serions très obligés de vouloir bien nous faire parvenir un chèque à vue sur Paris, en francs français.

Nous vous continuerons volontiers le service de nos catalogues, et vous adressons par même courrier notre cat. XV encore en vigueur, mais dont les prix sont majorés de 30%. En outre, nous comptons soumettre prochainement à votre examen, le catalogue de trois collections particulières, comprenant un grand nombre de textes rabbiniques, des manuscrits anciens et modernes &c. Nous ne doutons pas que ce catalogue sera pour vous d'un réel intérêt.

Entièrement dévoués à vos ordres, nous vous prions d'agréer, Cher Monsieur, l'assurance de notre considération la plus distinguée.

My dear Rabbi Silver:-

I am grateful to you for your kind note of July 23rd. I know I shall have many occasions to take advantage of your generous offer to co-operate in any social service projects that I may be interested in.

When I accepted the invitation to come to this city, it was because I was impressed with the fine public-spirited and progressive citizenship of Cleveland. I also looked forward to the pleasure of helping, in my own humble capacity, in any public measure-- Jewish or civic-- in which you may be especially interested in.

As soon as I dispose of the many routine matters before me, I mean to call upon you by appointment, to talk over many matters relating to the work in the field of social work and more particularly in the Alliance.

Faithfully yours,

My dear Mr. Grose,

There has lately been brought to my attention a young Jewish woman who has a very lovely voice and who is anxious to have it properly trained. She is without means and her people are extremely poor. It is quite necessary that the girl have some employment in order to carry on her musical studies but would not be in a position to work all day.

I am wondering whether she could be placed in your store in some part time position. I knew nothing about her ability for such work but if you think there would be an opening for her I should be glad to have her come down to see you or the proper party to be interviewed.

Kindly pardon my troubling you, but I am anxious that the girl be given the opportunity to do something with her voice.

Dear Rabbi,

I was confirmed in the Temple by Rabbi Griesse in 1908 and until I left for this part of the country attended your services as much as possible while in Cleveland Ohio. Toaday I am in business in this small town where there are few Jews and therefore no congregation to go to. Would appreciate it very much if you would have your secretary mahl me each week a copy of your lectures as I understand the Temple is publishing same.

Will you also have a copy sent to Mr Earnest Weiner 1255 N. Ardmore St. Los Angeles Cal. We will gladly pay whatever charges there may be.

There are only twelve Jewish families here and we are going to have our own services for the Holidays.

If Miss Shott is still at the Temple kindly give her my regards. She will undoubtedly remember me when you mention my name to her as I was in her class in the first grade at public school and had the extreme pleasure of being with her in Sunday school

Rabbi A H Silver
The Temple
East 55th Street and Central Avenue
Cleveland

My dear Rabbi Silver:

We tried to get in touch with you before you left the city to have you hear Miss Braman and to come to talk with Mr Silva. The conditions as we see them are this: Miss Braman has a very beautiful voice and has great aptitude. Mr Silva thinks she is one of the most talented girls to have come under his observation but he says that the present conditions of her life are such that she cannot make the progress necessary. I had a talk with her before she left and find that she works half a day, helps about the house work, and is kept busy most of the time at home when she is not earning money. Of course, it is obvious that the child needs first to be in an environment sympathetic to learning and study; second, that she must have nourishing food (she is far from robust and to be a singer health is the first requisite), enough leisure to devote at least four hours a day to study, vocal, theoretical and instrumental.

In addition to this, if Miss Braman is to have a career, she must have some education. I mean by this education in literature, languages, etc. It would be impossible to know just how far her talents would carry her. The aptitude is undoubtedly there and given the above conditions, Mr Silva feels that she could have a career, but under present circumstances that such a career would be impossible.

I shall return to the city early in September and would be very happy to have a talk with you if you care to go into this matter further. Mr Silva returns to Cleveland the second week of October. He would also be happy to talk with you. Perhaps some way might be arranged so that Miss Braman could have a trial year at the Institute, which would cost far less than sending her out of the city. Please be sure that we will do all we can should you decide to give Miss Braman further assistance.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Friend:

I am enclosing an advance copy of an article I have written, supplementing the one which appeared about three months ago in the Anglo-Jewish press. I shall probably have it published during the holidays.

In the meantime, I wish you would do me the kindness to look it over and let me have your opinion.

I hope you and Mrs. Silver are having a delightful vacation.

Cordially yours

Bea Kopp

Dear Mr. May,

Kindly pardon the delay in answering your card of August 4th.
At the present time we have only five of Rabbi Silver's lectures in printed form.
The following are the lectures which may be procured at the present time:

What has become of the Molting Pot
The Heritage
Some Problems of Human Life
Our New Task
What is Culture.

Should you desire any of the lectures listed, we shall be glad to send them to you.

Very truly yours,

My dear Mr. Levine,

I was pleased to receive your letter of August 14th. It is good to hear from men who were Confirmed at our Temple whose interest in the Jewish faith continues with them strong. I am delighted to learn that you are contemplating holding Religious Services for the Holy Days. I shall comply with your request and send you from time to time copies of my lectures. I publish eight of them a year. I am sending you under separate cover those in print at the present time.

Miss Schott is out of the city at the present time. As soon as she returns I shall call your letter to her attention.

With kindest regards, and wishing you well in your work, I beg to remain

Rabbi Abba H. Silver,
The Temple,
East 55th Street and Central,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

Going over the thousands of uncatalogued books and pamphlets in the Library, I came across Nahmanides' Sefer ha-Geulah, edited from a manuscript in the British Museum, by J. Lipschitz, a London bookseller, in 1909. The "edition" consists of a transcription of the text; there are no notes.

Curiously enough, neither Lipschitz nor the Zeitschrift für hebraische Bibliographie seem to have known that the British Museum manuscript had been printed already in New York, in 1904, under the title השכונן קר הוואלה.

So I erred when I stated that this book "exists only in manuscript." But the information given in the Jewish Encyclopedia is nevertheless incorrect.

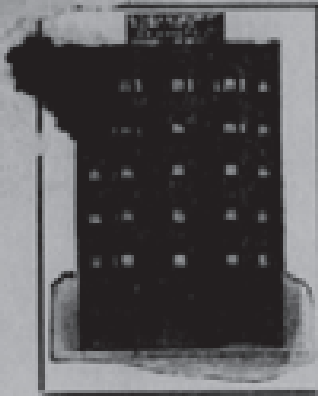

I am sending you, under separate cover, the Lipschitz edition. If desired, I will be glad to send you also the New York edition.

With greetings,

Sincerely yours,

A. S. Oko

Dear Rabbi!

Kindly pardon an old man for talking up some of your valuable time.
I am the person who tried with your kind assistance, to be taken as an inmate in the reform home for aged Jews, but as my wife is only fifty years, I was refused.
I also applied at the orthodox home, was refused for the same reason. Being a Jew who still believes in Judaism
I would go in any Jewish institution.
In spite of the doctors' warnings, I have accepted a position as night clerk in the "Hotel Homer" Akron O.

what I am to go through there can not be described. In the first place I am considered a "deutscher", that means a heathen, because I can not make a hippocrit and be a fanatical nights. We are three in a room, most rooms have five beds, and as soon

Then the noise they made during the night is like the roaring of a sea, mostly at 1 or 2 A.M. I get up and lay myself on a bench in the Hall, I had not 2 hours straight sleep the 10 months I am there. I could not stand it any longer and came for some sleep here to my brother in law. — I can tell you dear Rabb. it is horrid, beyond description, I am not afraid of suffering hunger, but if I have to keep much longer without sleep, I will get crazy. Our Superintendent Mr. Shapiro told me I saw here the best room, but he says there is every where the same snoring and smacking as in my room. — My wife has a good position here, she is housekeeper at the Council of Edus.
