Dear Friends:

We sail for Germany on March 12th on the "America" (United States Line). But before leaving Mrs. Goldstein and I wish to thank you once more for the cordial reception you have extended to us during our stay in your city. Please give our compliments to all our mutual friends.

The time spent in America was full of new and cheerful experiences which will be of great value to us in helping to better German and European conditions.

We feel deeply indebted to all those American friends whose homes and hearts were open to us and who have given us the hope that we are on the eve of better times, of mutual understanding and appreciation.

If ever you come to Germany don't forget to call upon us. (Darmstadt Eeckstr. 87)

Auf Wiedersehen!

Yours cordially,

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver,

My dear Rabbi:

I shall not burden you with a recollection of our meeting at the Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity convention in your city last December. As the Chairman of the Alumni Committee of the national organization I want to call your attention to the enclosed excerpt that appeared in the "Jewish Criterion" in its issue of March 1. The "Random Thoughts" column, from which I have taken this paragraph, is written by Mr. Charles Joseph, editor of the "Jewish Criterion". You probably know how extensively read this weekly paper is in Pittsburgh and throughout the whole of Western Pennsylvania.

First, as an acquaintance of Mr. Joseph, with whom I have had several tilts in the past on account of just such half-digested, ill-bred opinions as the enclosed; second, as the author of an article that will appear in the forthcoming issue of the "Quarterly"; and, third, because my position in Jewry is in no wise unquestioned or recognized; I deem it inadvisable for me to answer Mr. Joseph and thus remove the shadow and no little amount of ridicule that have been cast upon the Fraternity in this district.

Possibly you will not think it amiss to retort to Mr. Joseph, either by an article or by public letter. Surely your position in Jewry is impregnable, your logic a thousand-fold more forcible than mine; your influence pervasive.

With the best of regards to you, and with the hope of seeing you in Pittsburgh the latter part of this month when you address the B'nai B'rith, I remain,

Yours fraternally,

Leo A. Levy

Sehr geehrter Herr Dr. Silver.

Ich beziehe mich auf unser kurzes Gespraech in Chicagc. Sie wollten mich bei meiner Taetigkeit fuer die Universitaets-Bibliothek in Jerusalem unterstuetzen, wenn ich diese in Cleveland aufnehmen wuerde. Zu meinem Bedauern muss ich schon bald in mein Amt nach Berlin zurueck und werde in 11 Tagen von hier abfahren. Aber ich weisse, dass in Cleveland in Ihren Haenden unsere Sache g u t aufgehoben ist.

Die Hauptsache bei unserer Taetigkeit muss u.a. die sein, dass wir es erreichen, dass j e d e j u e d i s c h e Gemeinde es als ihre Ehrenpflicht erkennt, einen Beitrag zum Jahresbudget der Bibliothek in ihr eigenes Budget mit aufzunehmen. Die erste, die diese Ehrenpflicht erfuehlt hat, war die Gemeinde Rodef Shalom des Rabbi Dr. Goldenson in Pittsburgh, die als erste 1000 Dollar an die Wolffechn-Stiftung nach dem Haag gesandt hat, der die Fuersorge fuer die Jerusalem-Bibliothek obliegt.

Ich wollte Sie nun bitten, auch ohne mein Kommen nach Cleveland, dort ein Komitee fuer die Bibliothek zu gruenden und Rabbi Dr. Wolsey wird Sie sicher gern dabei unterstuetzen. Auch der Herausgeber der daertigen jiddischen Tageszeitung, Herr R o c k e r , will gern taetig mitwirken. Ich bitte Sie, sich auch mit ihm in Verbindung setzen zu wollen.

Da ich bald abreisen und der Wolffechn-Stiftung persoenlich Bericht erstatten will, so bitte ich um baldige freundliche Antwort.

Ich begruesse Sie mit dem Ausdruecke meiner

Hochachtung

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver,
Cleveland, O.

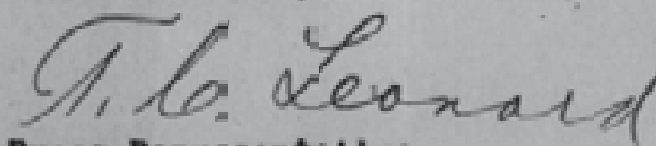

Dear Sir:

As you probably know, "The Fool", the dramatic success by Channing Pollock, has been the topic of lectures and sermons by thousands of clergymen of all denominations throughout the country.

As Mr. Pollock feels that the success of this play is due in a great part to the splendid support that he has received from the clergy, I am enclosing, at his request, an invitation for two seats for Monday evening, March Seventeenth. In case a previous engagement prevents you from using this invitation on Monday evening you may have the seats for Tuesday evening by seeing Mr. Gilbert, manager of the Hanna theatre. I trust that you will see "The Fool", as I am sure that you will find in it much food for serious thought.

Mr. Pollock also has prepared a special lecture, which is illustrated by seventy slides, for the use of the clergy. Many of the most prominent ministers have used this lecture with great success. Should you care for this lecture and slides, which are furnished without cost, please communicate with Mr. Fred Mason, Business Manager, "The Fool" Co., at the Hanna Theatre or with Mr. Gilbert.

Yours sincerely,

My dear Sir - I cannot refrain from writing to you to express my keen appreciation of your reported address before the City Club on Saturday last. Your tribute to our Mr President - Woodrow Wilson - thrilled and moved use as few of the recent eulogies have done. So truly have you expressed my own feelings and estimate of the great and yet-to-be fully-understood Man!

"Failure" can never be linked with his name -
Only the people "failed" -
His vision has been a Star of Hope to me - through awful years - And your tribute reassures me as to the ultimate realization of the vision—

"Deep in the general heart of man his power survives"— and to add Milton's lines of Wordsworth's—

"Kings, for such a tomb, might wish to die!"

I have preserved your printed address and shall treasure it.

Believe me—

I do not know very much about Rabbi Jacob Klein. I met him a few times and he always impressed me as a kindly man. I do not think that he is very aggressive or forceful. He may do very well in a small conservative congregation. I would not have you, however, depend much upon my judgment, as I do not know very much about the man.

I should paraphrase the verse of
"Ben Ezra" which you quote as follows:

* * Even when I was whirled most dissily on the keel of life, shaped and molded by experiences whose real import I did not understand, I was always sure of one thing-that my life, whatever its present or ultimate condition might be, was serving some divine purpose. Even imperfection serves the ends of perfection.

Evil, according to this philosophy, is an essential part of the process which makes good.

My dear Rabbi,

The family of one of my members, Mr. Sam D. Wise, is at present sojourning in Paris. The children, Frances and Margaret are attending school. Both the parents and myself are anxious that the children should continue their religious education. Margaret was confirmed by me in 1920. Frances left after she had finished the fifth year in our Religious School.

I wish to introduce the children to you. I would appreciate very much if you would admit them into your school and supervise their religious instruction. Mr. Wise is one of the representative citizens of our community, a leader in the philanthropic life of our city and a loyal Jew.

With kindest regards and hoping that I shall have the pleasure before very long of meeting you in person, permit me to remain

Dear Sir:

The Ohio State Menorah Debating Team, of which I am a member is at present preparing for debate on the proposition, resolved: That a Jewish University be established in America, operated and endowed by Jews, but open to all regardless of race or religion. Relevant to this issue are certain questions upon which we would appreciate an opinion from you. They are;

1. Do you approve of such a plan?
2. Would such a plan tend to increase or decrease Anti-Semitism?
3. Would its sectarianism tend to affect the character of its curriculum? Would it be progressive? Would its cultural and theological departments keep pace with ~~the~~ scientific investigation?
4. Would it be practical? Are Jewish university instructors in favor of such a plan? Would Jewish students be attracted to such an institution?
5. Is such a university necessary at the present time to provide,
 - a. Educational facilities for students of Jewish extraction.
 - b. Adequate facilities for learning of Jewish culture.

This debate is to be held with the Northwestern University Chapter of Menorah, which is upholding the affirmative side.

Thanking you for your kind attention, I am,

Respectfully yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver;—

I was certainly sorry that you were unable to come to Cincinnati last month to talk to the Student Body but I know that what happened to keep you from coming could not be averted.

Things here have quieted down a bit although the underlying condition which I talked to you about have not changed in the least. On the contrary I feel that they have become aggravated and the silence is merely indication of the tension which exists at the present moment. One of the most recent results of the whole business is the resignation of Dr. Slonimsky.

But we will be able to talk about it more personally when I come home next month.

I am wondering, Rabbi Silver, whether you will be able to see me this Summer at the Temple. As you probably know, my folks have moved back to Cleveland and I am very anxious to be with them this Summer. I hope that you will be able to let me know about this

My dear Mr. Bromberg,

Please pardon the delay in writing to you.
I have been out of the city so much of the time.
The names of the following people come to my mind

1. Rabbi Benjamin Friedman of Syracuse, N.Y.
He is one of the younger and very able men in our in our ministry. Rabbi Friedman has fine pulpit presence, is a good organizer and one who makes friends readily.
2. Rabbi Samuel Abrams of Boston, at present head of the congregation there, exceptional fine speaker. Has been out in the ministry for some eight years.
3. Rabbi Barnett Backner, Toronto, Canada, has done especially fine work in his city.
He is a very energetic man and a fine speaker.
He has had considerable training in education.
4. Rabbi Joe. L. Pisk, Terre Haute, Indiana is a scholarly and exceedingly capable man.
From all reports he has done very good work in his present Temple.
5. Rabbi J. Max Weis, Free Synagogue, New York.
He seems to be doing very fine work in his community.

I might also mention Dr. Freshof of The Hebrew Union College. I doubt however whether he would care to leave his present position. The men whom I have mentioned I am quite sure will not leave their positions unless great inducement in the way of opportunity and remuneration were offered to them.

Are you related to applicant . . . Not at all
How long have you known him . . . About seven years
In what connection . . . As a member of my Religious School

Reverse Side:

Burton Mahler Strauss is a graduate of The Temple Religious School and was confirmed by me two years ago. His Grandparents and Parents (his Father has been dead some four or five years) all life-long residents of Cleveland, have represented always the highest in the religious, social and business life of the community.

Burton is a fine type of lad, intelligent and of splendid character and I have no hesitancy in endorsing his application for admission to Princeton. I am quite sure he will prove a credit to the University.

Your most esteemed favour of the 19th is hereby gratefully acknowledged.

My only reason for writing you on the 1st was due to the fact that certain theories were propounded by Drs. Berkson and Lupton in their respective addresses which are more or less at variance with actual facts from a practical lay standpoint. Hence my request for permission at rebuttal. But since your Forum closes for the year, and since these erroneous conceptions as conveyed by the Doctors will, by the reopening of your Forum, be forgotten wholly or in part, you may just kindly forget about my request.

I will very much appreciate it, tho, if you will be kind enough and supply me with a list of books translated in English from the ancient Hebrew Philosophers and Poets also some translations from Hebrew for children.

Your courtesy in the matter will be very much appreciated and with esteemed regards, I desire to remain,

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Sir:

I am writing to various distinguished Rabbis and laymen, and am trying to ascertain their idea as to the meaning, literal and otherwise, of the Kol Nidre as chanted by our people. You may have had your attention called to the attacks made by Henry Ford ~~by~~ our people on account of this particular recitation and his explanation of its meaning.

There are many times in friendly chats and arguments when this very matter is brought to the front. My only references are the Jewish Encyclopaedia and the Year Book; and I am in hopes that I can learn from you and others, the possibility of reference books in addition to your own version of the meaning and the reason for the chanting of the Kol Nidre.

I trust that I am not asking too much in expecting an early reply. Thanking you for whatever attention you can give this matter, I am

Rabbi Abba H. Silver,

My dear Silver:

I have just receive an application for the position of matron of the Hebrew Union College Dormitory, from Mrs. Adora Nussbaum now of Bucyrus, Ohio, but formerly of Cleveland. She says that she was formerly a member of your Sisterhood, and that you know her very well, since she was living at the Garfield Hotel when you came to Cleveland. She tells me that she was matron of the Martha House, and Camp Wise, and also house secretary of the B'nai Brith.

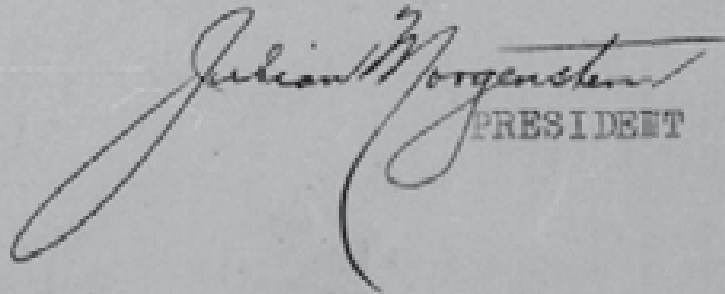

I would greatly appreciate any information which you may be able to give us, and likewise your candid opinion as to her qualifications for this responsible position. This will be a big help to us.

Inasmuch as we are eager to get this matter settled as soon as possible, I would appreciate an early reply.

NEW YORK ADDRESS
> 150 CLAREMONT AVE.

March 24, 1924.

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver,
Temple Tifereth Israel,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Doctor,

You will remember receiving from me last year a letter describing a "small camp in Maine", that I had opened to take care of a limited number of girls.

One of the causes of the success of my camp is that, without additional cost, two hours each day is given to study under a trained teacher. The fact that some time is devoted to study increases the pleasure derived from the various physical and social activities. This feature, which is unique with my camp, appeals to many parents.

I might mention that last year a child of normal mental intelligence from Louisville, Ky., to whose parents I shall be pleased to refer you, studying two hours a day, covered five months' school work so successfully that she was promoted on returning to school.

My training as an educator and experience as a high school principal in Louisville, Ky. qualifies me to organize and supervise an exclusive camp for girls.

I know you will naturally wish to recommend a camp where the Director is a member of your congregation. However, should a parent wish to have a child placed in a study camp such as we have organized, will you kindly consider Camp Weyouwega.

The inclosed bulletin refers to some of my activities during recent months.

With appreciation,

Emma Grauman

Dear Rabbi Silver,

The prospect and realization of matrimony have forced me to be very careful in matters financial, a fact which you as a married man doubtless appreciate. Accordingly I have made it my policy to make sure that in every case I am getting the genuine article for which I bargained, before I make payment. Accordingly I have withheld until now the payment of your fee for performing my marriage ceremony, so that I might first determine that the knot was binding and permanent, and of the usual high quality of workmanship for which you are famed, and in other ways worth the money.

While in the case of less skillful operators it might take several years before one could determine these facts, in the case of your work it has already become apparent to me that the article of matrimony which you have furnished is of the highest order, bending and lasting, and fully up to your advertisements and claims.

On one point however I am considerably dismayed. I find that the happiness of my new state is so great that it is absolutely impossible for me to pay you even a tithe of the value of your services, so priceless are they, and so far beyond my means. I am therefore enclosing my poor check; but in addition I hereby offer to write a testimonial in praise of your work any time that you may request it, and to permit you to publish it, together with my picture, in any newspaper you like, in advertisement or other furtherance of your excellent work.

My wife joins me in congratulating you upon the fine ~~at~~ artistry of your work as a matrimonial knotsmith.

Very truly yours.

Cleveland, O. March 30 - 1924

My dear Rabi Silver:

First, let me introduce to you, and tell you, that I am Nathan Schlossberg, son of the world's famous cantor Leon Schlossberg.

It just happened, that I am at present in Cleveland, here to appear on 2 concerts - have noticed your lecture on "Culture" and I want to tell you and thank you for it, for I happened to listen to Dr. Potts of England on "Self culture" but you have made much clearer and in a simpler language, that a child could understand. Now the reason and purpose, why I am writing to you, is rather a speculation one. But I cannot help it. I have to do it, may be you could help me to have extend - so I want to tell you, that I am cantor, concert and opera singer Nathan Schlossberg - have been in this country 9 years. have made several paintings and also have a turn of carving, brought over yet from Russia. I gave up the painting and carving, for the peculiar economic present age that we live in, but I could not give up the music, for I have a repertoire of 700 songs, giving impressions of Mrs. McCormack, Shaliapin, Canuso, Galli-Curci, Titta-Ruffo and Reschke and as it is all a matter of opportunity, therefore I am coming to you to ask you, that I would like to get in your new temple as a social organizer, where I would be able to stage during the year concerts of different characters, and the course of time to form a small symphony and opera company on a small scale. The salary that I expect is a very reasonable, for I am yet a single man, and don't need very much, but am very anxious to get in with your new institution in any capacity, and I hope and feel, that institution will greatly benefit by it. so trusting you'll give this matter your earnest consideration, and thanking you for the courtesy, looking forward for an audience with you, I am

Sincerely ~~yr~~

Dear Friend:-

We all know that Jews of Russia, Ukrania, Roumania and Hungary are being expelled from their respective countries and must find a place to live.

The Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society of America, commonly known as the HIAS, has undertaken large responsibilities in aiding refugees from these countries to be transplanted in order that they might be able to gain a livelihood in this country and in Canada, which requires the assistance and help of our Jewish Brethren.

The HIAS is the great agency to assist these unfortunate of our race. They have sent representatives here with the object of securing members. I am interested in this work and request your presence on Thursday, April 3rd, at a supper at my expense at the Jewish Center, 1117 E. 105th Street, at which time a discussion will be held on how to help and facilitate the consummation of this noble work.

I trust that you will make every effort to be at this supper and greatly oblige,

Yours very truly,

A few weeks ago we sent you a certificate of subscription to the Palestine Foundation Fund but have not yet received your reply.

No doubt you are aware that a very strenuous effort has been made to raise $100,000 in Cleveland for the cause of rebuilding Palestine. If we are to acquit ourselves in this task in a manner creditable to the Jews of Cleveland, it is necessary that all Jews make an effort to contribute as much as they can to this cause.

May we not urge upon you to return the certificate which we sent you with as liberal a subscription as possible and so to expedite the work of our committees.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I suppose that an apology is in order for having waited so long to write you and also for not having been in to see you when I was at home.

In the first place, before I forget, I'd like to thank you for the letter that you gave me to the Legasas Co. For some reason or other however nothing came of the letter. I was in to see them a number of times but it seems as if they are filled up & have no openings. I have not succeeded in getting work yet. It seems to be a scarcity in this town. Seeing as I could find no work on his own feet from the start. The professors ~~to~~ can't begin to give individual attention to the students. One's career here depends almost wholly upon your individual efforts. as I see it only the fit survive. Which is quite as it should be.

My activities here are limited outside of classroom. I belong to one of the University Clubs and also attend the Meetings of the Menorah Society occasionally.

Once in a while I go to Temple. I suppose that if I were so inclined I would go every Sunday but ~~my~~ I don't find what I want. I get more joy & comfort out of a hike by myself.

2 I decided that my studies should get my spare time. They are getting all that I've got but so far the results have not been very satisfactory. While I have not failed any of my courses still I am not getting the marks that I know I can get. The fault lies I think in my method of study. I seem to have solved the difficulty. However judging from my grades of the past two weeks.

I suppose that you want to know what the university is and has done to me. Its hard to say right now. The school is so large that it is hard to judge so soon. In the first place what struck me quite forcibly was the fact that one is forced to stand up

I am not by the foregoing statement committing myself to Atheism however.

I came to the conclusion several years ago that a something that would satisfy an emptiness in me does not exist in Temples. Being inclined toward a study of science, especially biology it was natural that I should become a firm believer in Evolution. The process of Evolution convinced me moreover that it is not a meaningless passage from lower to higher. Something is guiding it and that something I find pervading all. I am not a pessimist by any means but I failed to find the Spirit in a house of worship. It exists in the hearts of men. I carry it with me & can commune with it whenever I please

OHIO UNION
OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
COLUMBUS

That is the reason that I receive so much joy & comfort from a walk where I can contemplate men & things in nature. A Temple seems to me an empty place after the open spaces.

One more thing I wish to thank you for & that is the precept that you gave us on how to find happiness. I'm on the road there because I have found what I want to do & am doing it as hard as I can.

I think that I'll have to close now as I have a class soon.

I hope that you will forgive me for having waited so long to keep my promise.

I remain Still your pupil

Dear Rabbi Silver:--

This letter will introduce to you Miss Perlman, a Palestinian Jewess, who is now a resident of Cleveland. She is a splendid young woman who impresses me very much. She is conducting a Sunday School in Alliance and she regrets that the Reform Jews of Alliance do not co-operate with her. She has asked my help in the matter, but I have declined because so far as the Union is concerned, that is your territory. My dear Rabbi:-

We have been fortunate enough to secure the services of Rabbi William H. Fineshriber to come to McKeesport on Monday, May 19th.

In view of the fact that he is not well known in Western Pennsylvania, I would appreciate very much if you would send me a letter concerning Rabbi Fineshriber's ability which I could use for publicity purposes.

May I also remind you of your message which we are expecting for insertion in our souvenir booklet. We have already received messages from Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, Hon. Louis Brandeis and others and we are also expecting one from you, as per your promise to me in Pittsburgh.

Thanking you in advance for your early attention to this matter and for the information as to Rabbi Fineshriber, I am,

Dear Sir:-

Under separate cover we are sending you a copy of a book - "THE SELF-STARTER" - which we have just brought out, and which we would ask you to accept with our compliments.

We believe you will agree with us that this book is a most valuable contribution to the BUSINESS and INSPIRATIONAL literature of the day - that it carries a DIRECT, VITALIZING and much NEEDED message to the younger generation.

We became interested in the manuscript because of its unusual and worth while character, and have come to feel it little less than a duty on our part to give the book the broadest possible circulation.

If you feel inclined to favor us with an expression concerning same, it will be of great assistance to us in broadcasting its healthy spirit throughout the banking, business and educational institutions of the country.

To the extent this same "HEALTHY SPIRIT" finds expression in daily individual effort, may we expect better men - better business - the PROGRESS - to which all forward looking men and women are lending their best efforts.

My dear Mr. Robitschek,

Please pardon the delay in answering your letter of March 21st. There is quite an amount of literature on the subject of the Kol Nidre. I would suggest that you get in touch with Mr. Oke of the Hebrew Union College Library of Cincinnati and ask him to give you a list of the works on the subject in English.

In passing I might say that the Kol Nidre has nothing to do with pledges which a man makes. It is entirely a matter of vows made to oneself in moments of haste and thoughtlessness such as the classical vow of Jeptha mentioned in the books of Judges. Our religious has always endeavored to dissuade men from taking such vows and has provided means whereby a man may be released from them.

She has just returned from a protracted visit with her dad in Wheeling during which time she helped him close house. Dad Horkheimer sold his home and has moved into a suite in the McClure Hotel.

I have made inquiries of persons connected while in Cleveland, and, I regret to say, none of them seems willing to recommend her for the position she is seeking. It is claimed that she is arbitrary and undiplomatic. I believe that all of the men on personal knowledge of Mrs. Nussbaum's failure to make good in the positions she held in Cleve-

Dear Abe:

I wonder if I can impose upon your good nature (and your good offices) to ask a favor of you?

I heard this morning that Sam Harris has resigned from Toledo. With my approaching marriage (May 22nd) my mind has turned towards a larger field, and a more permanent one. Tho I've been re-elected to Easton, at the same time the field here is a limited one - as is the matter of remuneration.

I think I'm capable and fitted to handle Toledo. I am asking you now if you are in a position to recommend me to Toledo as the successor of Harris. And, if you are, if you will do it? Or, if you cannot do it directly to the Congregation, if you will do it through somebody who is so able?

I need not tell you that I shall be appreciative and grateful to you for such a favor. Won't you let me hear from you in the matter very soon?

Thanks, very much, for whatever you will do for me in the matter!

Cordial regards to you, and to Mrs. Silver.

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver
Cleveland, O.

My dear Rabbi Silver: I have requested the Publishers to send you a copy of the book--"THE SELF-STARTER"--as I feel sure you will be in sympathy with its general spirit, and be willing to assist in "broadcasting" its healthy message to the world--at least such portion of it as may be reached.

I heard you both times you spoke at Ford Hall---which is the reason of my arriving at above conclusion--and I will say here, what I would have been glad to say to you personally had the opportunity offered, that they were two mighty HELPFUL and altogether INSPIRING discourses--the kind that make their IMPRESS upon the human mind and are REMEMBERED--which perhaps, is the most and the best that can be said of any human expression.

I hope you will come again to Boston--many times--for you have something to say and the ability to "put it across" that makes it a MESSAGE in very truth.

Yours most sincerely,

A. E. Jones
