My dear Dr. Weizmann,

Permit me to thank you for your kind letter of May 30th and for the press notices which you sent me. I have just returned from the Zionist convention in Pittsburgh. It was very largely attended and a spirit of good will and harmony seemed to prevail. I trust both Mrs. Weizmann and yourself are well.

My dear Mr. Davis,

Permit me to thank you for your kind note of July eighth. I have not a copy of the address which I delivered at the Syrian Mosque. A representative of the Zionist Organization made a stenographic copy of it, which I corrected, but I have not received a copy of it. Perhaps if you will write to the Zionist Organization in New York City, they will send you one.

A boy by the name of Sidney Wolf has applied to me for a recommendation to the Hebrew Union College. He says that he knows you well, and that he graduated from your High School. I wonder what you can tell me about him.

I trust that you and your family are well and that you are having a pleasant vacation. Virginia wants to be remembered to all of you.

Dear Sir:

We beg to acknowledge with thanks the receipt of nos. 2 and 3 of vol. 3, and nos. 1 to 4 of vol. 4 of the "Sermons by Rabbi Silver" (The Temple), which you so kindly sent to this Library. We are very glad indeed to have these issues and to place them in our collections at the service of interested readers.

The fact that you sent us these issues leads us to assume that it is your intention to send the publication to us regularly as printed, but will you not be so kind as to send us definite information to this effect, so that the correct entry can be made in our records?

Since it is our plan to preserve this file permanently, we are particularly anxious that it be complete throughout. We need all issues not mentioned above, and if you have copies which you can send us, they will be gratefully received.

Very truly yours,

My dear Rabbi Silver:-

May I take the liberty of addressing you. It happens that I was recently elected the president of the student body of the Jewish Institute of Religion. At the present moment I am finishing a summer course at the divinity school here.

On Thursday evening of next week I expect to leave for New York. I notice that my journey will take me through your city. Could we possibly arrange for a meeting at your convenience? If you will but inform me just when I could secure an appointment with you, I can readily arrange to be in Cleveland at that time.

My dear Abba:

I am becoming a regular "shtadlen". First I tried to induce you to buy some books from Behrman's Book Shop, and now I would like you to use your influence with Rabbi Magnin, (I believe this is his name), of Los Angeles, in behalf of a Herzlite - Max Keenig. The latter is now quite well-to-do and a prominent citizen of St. John, Canada, where he now runs a large clothing factory. Keenig is now moving to Los Angeles, where he has already bought real estate to the value of about $60,000.00, and if successful in his first venture, intends to enter the real estate game.

In Los Angeles, he practically knows nobody and he would like to get acquainted and mix with a nice class of people. He feels that a letter of introduction from you to Rabbi Magnin would help him greatly. I believe him worthy and well recommended. I trust you will comply with this request.

Anna joins me in sending kindest regards to you and Virginia.

As ever yours,

SC/BS.

P. S. Send the letter of recommendation to Max Keenig's present address: P. O. Box 749, St. John, N. B., as it will take him a little time before he winds up his business in St. John.

My dear Silver:

This will introduce Mr. D. Epstein who comes highly introduced to Morris Lusk and myself by our Prof. Julien Sherman.

He is interested with a group in Berlin in the publication of excellent editions at popular prices of the books which might be considered to give the fundamentals of traditional Judaism & essential to an understanding of it, e.g.
the Mishna, the Talmud Babli, & Yerushalmi, the Yad Chagurah, etc.

The plan has progressed so well as to promise excellent results.

Please give him such advice and assistance as may be possible. 7

It would be deeply appreciated by us.

Please pardon my delay.
Our vacation has not been very pleasant.
Both youngsters were sick with the German myself. We are however, speedily recovering, and hope to enjoy our stay from now on.

Dear D. Silver:

Not having heard from me since the most pleasant visit I had with you the 23rd of last month, accompanied by my wife & brother-in-law, it would not be surprising should you be wondering just how I have gotten along with the course of study as prescribed by yourself. It accordingly affords me sincere pleasure to advise you that I have diligently read the two books you were so kind as to recommend, to wit; "Judaism" by J. Abrahams & "The Faith of Israel" by H. S. Knolow, both of which I found to be not only a store of information on the desired subject, but also treatises which made extremely interesting reading.

So rapid I feel my assimilation of knowledge relative to the fundamental beliefs of Judaism has been, that I am very desirous of the benefit of your further advice & counsel & to this end am very anxious, if such be convenient to yourself, to make the trip to Cleveland next Sunday, August 3rd, when I could call on you some hour during the afternoon, suitable to yourself.

If you will favor me with a note advising of the feasibility of the visit, I would consider such a distinct favor.

Yours respectfully.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

I regret very much that I should have been responsible for the letter which you sent to Mr. Lewis Drucker. It was in the spirit of good-natured fun that I referred to the fact that Mr. Drucker had said that you had caused the arrest of Liefer. At the time I did not realize that there was any seriousness to be attached to the statement, or that you would take it as you did. That was my understanding of Mr. Drucker's statement. After conversing with him, I now know I misunderstood him, and did not quote him correctly to you.

I sincerely hope that you will take this letter as an amende for the injustice of which I innocently made Mr. Drucker the victim.

It would be difficult to name in the entire city of Cleveland a more consistent design, both in form and in color, than this handsome structure. It rests on its lot with perfect dignity and eternal calm.

This Temple in its appearance is the embodiment of the very spirit of the race. Solid, of enduring material, venerable looking, richly colored, bright eyed, imperturbable, calm as the top of Nebo, it sits in its place on busy, noisy, restless Euclid Avenue, like Simeon of old, in Jerusalem "Waiting for the consolation of Israel."

Just a word "sub rosa".

Mr. S. M. Hester was meeting with us the other evening & I told him that I had a job for him, to wit, to raise $3000 for the purchase of an organ, that being your figure. He very generously told me that he thought he could gather up about $2500 and I told him to go to it. Of course that means no definite commitment and only a promise to try, but I have an abiding faith in S. M.'s ability.

Therefore keep this entirely between ourselves until I have something substantiated to report, if at all.

I would like to express my gratitude for the kindness extended me when I solicited your interest in my greatest of troubles --- when I implored you to arrange a meeting between Milton Baer and myself. Dear Rabbi:

I am sending you herewith a letter received from Mr. Gliken. I have written to Mr. Gliken to return to me the Power of Attorney which I sent him; that we have decided to have all the land deeded to one person; that we don't propose to pay $120. for the conveyance of the land.

In the meantime, I have written to a personal friend of mine at Jerusalem to go to Migdal and find out about the conveying of this land. I will advise you as soon as I hear from Jerusalem.

With my best regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

Sehr geehrter Herr S. Ulmer
Cleveland,

Ihr werthen Schreiben von June 6
mit der Vollmacht habe ich erhalten.

Leider fehlen einige Details ohne welche laut Palästiner Gesetze die Deeds unmöglich zu machen sind - nemlich es fehlen nur die Namen der Fater.

Zum Beispiel: Herr Solomon der Sohn von
..... Ulmer und so mit den anderen drei Herren. Also ich bitte Sie mir umgehend die Namen nachsenden.

Gleichzeitig mache ich Sie, sehr geehrter Herr Ulmer, darauf aufmerksam, das jeder Deed kostet ca 25-30 $ und leider ist Migdal absolut nicht imstande die $ 100-120 zu zahlen. speziell wenn die Spesen nur auf den Käufer zu zahlen sind.

Ich bin sicher, sehr geehrter Herr Ulmer, das die $ 25-30 insgesamt $ 100-120 für die
alle 4 Parzellen nicht am Wege stehen werde und

Ich freue mich mitzuteilen zu können das ab 22 May wird in Migdal 12 kleine

Ich hoffe, das die nächste 2-3 Jahre

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I was very sorry that we failed to meet at the new Temple at four o'clock. I was interested in continuing our morning conversation. I would have called you by phone again but then I saw I could make the six o'clock train and time being short, I was unable to get in touch with you again.

May I thank you sincerely for your hospitality. If I or any of our student body individually or collectively can aid you in any way or rather if we can aid the Jewish folk in any way by accord with your suggestions — blow the good old trumpet and we shall respond.

Cordially yours,

Mitchell S. Fisher

My dear Dr. Morgenstern,

I understand that the bearer of this note, Mr. Philip W. Jaffa, is to have an interview with you relative to his application for admission into the H.U.C. I have known Mr. Jaffa for about three years and have followed up his work in our community. He has applied himself to the business of organizing a congregation in the west side of Cleveland where there are few Jews and he has built up a very creditable Sunday school and Hebrew school. He has done a really fine Jewish service in a part of our community which the major congregations do not reach.

I have at all times found him to be an earnest, sincere man and a devout Jew. His decision to prepare himself completely for the Rabbinate and to receive the degree is to my mind a very praiseworthy one for he could well have proceeded with the work he is now doing without the need of a diplôme.

With kindest regards and trusting that you are spending a pleasant summer, permit me to remain

My dear Edgar,

The bearer of this note, a young man whom I have known for a good number of years is about to make his home in Los Angeles. He comes from St. John, Canada where he has been for some years a successful and highly regarded business man. He just wants to identify himself with Jewish communal work in Los Angeles. Any courtesy which you may extend to him will be deeply appreciated.

With kindest regards to Mrs. Magnin, permit me to remain

Very sincerely yours,

of her husband. I wonder what is the procedure in this matter. Will you kindly get in touch

My dear Mr. Benesch,

This will introduce to you which interested me considerably but I fear that I can be of little assistance to him in the matter. I wonder whether you would not listen to his story and advise him.

Dear Sir:-

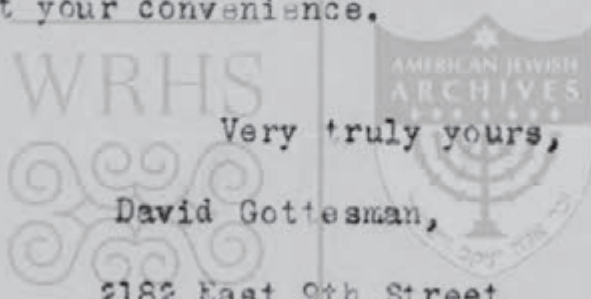

Recently while discussing Jewish history with several friends, the question was raised as to the age of the pyramids of Egypt. One party claiming that same were build before the time of Abraham, while others contendet that they were build after his death.

In order to be correct on the above we have decided to ask your opinion and will be very glad to have your impression on same.

I thank you for your courtesy and trust to have the pleasure to hear from you at your convenience.

My dear Mrs. Salen,

Through the kindness of Mr. Koblitz,
I have just been informed of the death of Mr. Salen. I regret exceedingly that this in-busy with the construction of our New Temple.

Had I known of your sad bereavement, I would, of course, have gotten in touch with you. Please

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Miss Anne Neuhauser, College Settlement, Ridge Farm, Mount Ivy, Rockland County, N.Y., has given your name as a reference in connection with her application for the position of Neighborhood Visitor in the Personal Service Department of this Institution. The Personal Service Department handles all matters of adjustment concerning the people of the Settlement neighborhood, except that of material relief, or where a specialized Agency can handle the matter. It is desirable to have a person who has had some knowledge of case work, and who understands the Settlement's point of view in dealing with the people of its neighborhood.

Your opinion of Miss Neuhauser concerning her personality, character, ability, etc. in relation to the position which is open will be appreciated. Your reply will be considered confidential. A return envelope is enclosed for the convenience of an early reply. Thanking you for same, I am

Sincerely yours,

Rabbi Silver:

Dear Sir:

I am the young man who saw you Monday, August 11 regarding a letter of recommendation to Hebrew Union College. Quoting from a letter dated the fifteenth of August it appears that you had not as yet forwarded the letter; a portion of the letter reads "there is missing only the letter of recommendation from Rabbi Silver which you say will be forwarded soon." It would gratify me very much if you send a letter as soon as it is convenient for you to Cincinnati. I evidently know that your time is very much occupied, but I would appreciate immensely if the letter is forwarded quickly.

Yours respectfully,

Sam S. Jaffe

My dear Rabbi Silver:

We are in receipt of your letter referring the case of Mr. Joseph Ickowitz, who had been referred to you by Dr. Placak as being in need of care in the National Jewish Hospital at Denver.

We have filled out an application for the Hospital and have sent Mr. Ickowitz to be examined by Dr. Edwards, the public health doctor who fills out the medical application for admission to the hospital. As soon as Dr. Edwards returns this blank, it shall be sent to Dr. Swezey of the National Jewish Hospital who will inform us as soon as there is a vacancy for Mr. Ickowitz.

Rabbi A H Silver,

Cleveland,

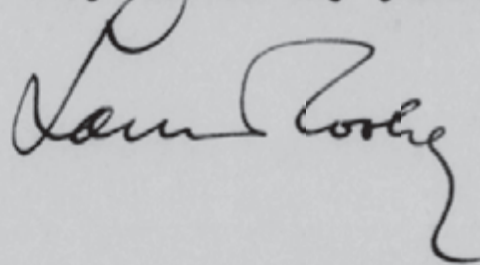

My dear Rabbi Silver:--

I have your letter of the 5th. Might I say that baldly stated, you are of course correct when you speak of the seriousness attached to the statement charging one rabbi with causing the arrest of another rabbi.

The situation however was not quite as literal as that, and that accounts for the fact that I regarded the whole matter semi-jocularly. I do not believe that because a man calls himself a rabbi, he is entitled to the protection of regularly ordained rabbis when he pursues a course that is illegal and criminal. On the contrary, when such a so-called and self-ordained rabbi violates the law and brings a chillu ha-Shem into the Jewish community, I could easily conceive where it would be the duty of rabbis to protect the honor of our people and put such imposters in a position where their power for harm would be restrained. On this line of reasoning, you can understand why I could see nothing so fearfully blameable in the statement which I thought Mr. Drucker had made.

With cordial greetings, I am

Very sincerely yours

Dear Sir:

My sister and I are very much interested in Zionist work and would like to join the Junior Hadassah or any similar organization doing active work for Palestine.

As we are strangers here, having but recently started to work in the Cleveland Public Library, we have, unfortunately, not made any Jewish acquaintances, as yet, and therefore, have not been able to secure any information on this subject.

We would be very much obliged if you could give us the desired information, and also tell us if you know of any Hebrew classes that we could join.

Respectfully yours,

My dear Dr. Englander,

A young man by the name of Sam S. Jaffa came in to see me two or three weeks ago and requested me to recommend him to the Hebrew Union College. Mr. Jaffa is a graduate of the Western Reserve University. His knowledge of Hebrew and Jewish History is very limited. His conception of the functions of a Rabbi is likewise quite limited. I was not strongly impressed with his personality.

With kindest regards, I am

Very sincerely yours,
