My dear and esteemed Rabbi Silver:

Your letter of Dec. 22 in re Rosenberg at hand. A civil divorce decree was given to his wife Rose in Cuyahoga Co. Ohio on Jan. 9th 1923 (No. 11,900.)

There could be no greater mitzvah in the world than in helping this poor woman to secure the Jewish divorce, and I feel sure that you will do all in your power to facilitate the matter.

Rabbi Hillel T Silver,
City

Dear Sir:-

Knowing you for the great work which you are doing for Jewry in the city of Cleveland and the great generosity which you have shown toward our race, I therefore come to you for assistance.

At the present time I am in the insurance business which has not paid me enough to support myself, wife and five children. I am well educated and speak German, Roumanian and the English languages. I am 40 years of age and very active. I have a very good record and one to be proud of thus far.

Perhaps you know of some vacancy that will bring me a fair livelihood. Or perhaps you can refer me to someone who may be instrumental in placing me in a position.

I am not afraid to work and will give a good account of myself.

Could you spare me a few minutes of your valuable time in which to better state my case? I would appreciate this very much.

Thanking you for the consideration you may give this letter, I remain,

Yours truly,

THE PUBLIC NATIONAL BANK OF NEW YORK

OFFICE OF BRANCH MANAGER

Jan. 8, '25.

My Dear Abba:

I am in receipt of your letter of some time ago wherein you wrote that you contemplated being in N.Y. at the Waldorf Astoria, on December 30th. As I called up the above hotel on that date as well as on the 31st several times and was informed that you were not registered there, I assume that something prevented your coming N.Y. If it is likely that you may not be in N.Y. for some time, would it not be just as well that we discuss the matter of my last letter in writing? It would be preferable to do so in person I am sure, but I imagine should also be done more or less adequately this way.

The Public National Bank stock which was, I believe, about $450. when I last wrote you is now selling for $495.

I'd appreciate very much if you will spare a few minutes and write me yourself just how you are disposed in this matter. Whatever your decision I'll be glad to hear of it.

But please regard it as your own business which one joins me, I am,

City.

My dear Rabbi!

Referring to our telephonic conversation I want to state briefly the object of these lines. The Lord Bishop Balthazar of Debrecin, Hungary, is in this country collecting funds for his Collegium in Debrecin. Several Jewish lodges, with members of Hungarian descent, have promised him their cooperation, and the Bishop would like to state in his, or rather these lodges in their circulars that this matter meets with your approval. It is to get your moral support for this matter.

Bishop Balthazar was chiefly concerned and instrumental in the protection of the Jews during the white terror there. It meant to jeopardise one's own life to do this, so fanatic and universal was the hatred against the Jews in Hungary then. He really had to suffer considerable personal violence and much discomfort in putting himself out for the Jews. He was boycotted, the support of his Collegium was withdrawn by the government. Since ~~that~~ time he has to depend on the support, on the aid of liberal minded people, Gentiles and Jews alike. He is the only Christian who had the קורא מעריב conferred on him by the Rabbis of Hungary.

The Bishop was sorry not to have been able to meet you, my dear Rabbi, when he paid his respects to you. He will be my guest from the 23. of this month, and I would be happy if I find an opportunity for him to meet you.

Rev. Dr. L. Silver

My dear Chief Rabbi,

I wanted to pay a visit at you, but I had not luck to find you.

Now me to explain in writing, I wished to say.

I know I always held spiritual unity the Judaism and Christianity and lived with the Judaism on brotherly terms. I know well, we are one God's creature and so we are brothers bodily also.

I always defended Judaism against every aggression both by word of mouth and in writing. Whether the terrible but dangerous story of blood guiltiness (ritual murder) was for a time brought forward, I was always the first by who defended Judaism. I defended them with brotherly love even in the last years when the odious book of war and restrictions has been imposed upon them.

For these I lost many advantages and suffered a good deal and am suffering even now. Nevertheless I don't care for these disadvantages and sufferings. But in return - I suppose - I may rightly claim the assistance of the Judaism all over the world. I don't ask in my behalf but in behalf of the college of debarment. I advocate for their institution which taught me enlightenment, humanism, liberalism, democracy and which I wish maintain in such a spirit, that the Jewish youth also should find there a shelter in the time of numerous persecutions, that is in time of such a system, which excludes a great number of Jewish youth out of the high schools and universities. The college of debarment has not accepted the numerous persecutions. This college keeps its doors always open for the Jewish youth, therefore the reactionary governments don't support it.

My prestige and reputation depend on the success of my mission in America. And the maintenance of my prestige and reputation is great interest of Judaism also. If I go back to Europe with friends, I'll be unable to follow up the fight against the darkness.

Therefore I ask for your assistance to such an extent as you can afford.

Yours truly
Desiderius B. Balazs D.D., L.D.
Bishop.

Rabbi Abba H. Silver,

My dear Rabbi Silver:

I am taking the liberty of addressing you for information and possible assistance. I am desirous of settling in Cleveland; but the situation ends there, for I have no connections in your city; so I am turning to you for suggestion and whatever the agency of your position can render.

At present I am teaching. In fact, I have been in educational work for four years, - two of them spent as superintendent of a state school for defective children. I did my undergraduate work at Harvard, and I took my master's degree there in Education. I have gone farther than the master's work, for I have nearly completed my residence for the doctor's degree in Education. Yet, I have decided to leave the field of education because of the very actual and positive limitations it imposes upon a man, and because a Jewish man in College Teaching - (which I planned to enter) finds much difficulty in obtaining desirable places. I have, for these reasons, decided to re-enter business, if I can find a suitable opening. I say "re-enter" because I have had a wide experience as a result of summer work during high school and college vacations, and during the first year after my graduation from college.

I know it is an imposition for a total stranger to send such a request as this for aid and suggestions for establishing himself in Cleveland; but I felt that through your contacts in your congregation and because of your familiarity with the general situation in Cleveland, you could make my situation there as hopeful as possible.

At the risk of being accused of talking about myself, I should like to add that I was elected to the honorary scholarship society in Education (Phi Delta Kappa), and that I am able to furnish good recommendations, coming from those who have observed my work.

Please accept my kindest appreciation for anything you may do in this matter.

Rabbi
Abba F. Kuix

Dear Callagans!

I did not write to you for quite some time. The last time I wrote to you was, I think, when I learned ^{through} the Israelis that you have become betrothed. You did not reply to my letter of congratulation, or perhaps your letter did not reach me. The Newark P.O. has been annoying me by non-delivery of letters addressed to me, their purpose is to hinder me from securing a position and from making a living. At any rate, not receiving a reply from you, I ceased writing, fearing that you were not interested in me, especially in helping me. Of course, you have been quite nice to me at college and we not brought, but at present I am in need of help, that is, a position, and very few Rabbis, although nice and friendly, have really tried to help me securing a pulpit, although it is within their power.

I am writing now, because I noticed that you are scheduled to speak in Newark. I am glad, of course, and hope the meeting will be a success. I am not invited to attend, of course; and do not care, much as I enjoy listening to you, because I have suffered a great deal from the Newark people in the (cover) last 5-6 years. They have prevented me from coming to my graduation at College, and have not ceased torturing me. They ruined my teeth to prevent me from speaking to people, in order to be able to say that I am peculiar. To describe their Jesuitical methods and their cruelty is beyond me. They invent something new every day. I have been snubbed by the Newark Zionists, the Newark B'nai B'rith, the Newark Rabbinate, and the Newark Y. M. H. A., of which Mr. Felix Fuld is President and Rabbi Rabbison, a seminary graduate, executive director, is persecuting me, slandering me, and stirring up anti-semitism against me. As a result of this situation I want to leave Newark, but they see to it that I should never have enough money to get away and intrigue to hinder me from securing a position. The entire city of Newark is corrupt, even my relatives, because they have wronged me and are responsible for all my misfortunes past and present. They try to bluff my friends; and ^{per} on them, that is those of other cities. ^{It has become like today and tomorrow to me.} If you can help me to secure a position to enable me to get away from Newark I would be grateful to you.

I am enclosing herewith one of my booklets on Judaism and Christianity which should have appeared 3 years ago under the title: "Liberal Jewish Views on Jesus, Christianity, and the Judaism," but appeared recently under the title of "Liberal Judaism and Liberal Christianity - Can They Ever Meet?"

My dear Rabbi Silver:

I am a comparative stranger in this city. However I have been to see and hear your lecture at the Temple for the last two weeks and I hope to be able to attend your lectures for the next several weeks.

During the last six or seven years, I have been what I am pleased to call myself an agnostic.

you if you would not after finishing your present series of lectures, devote one lecture to a criticism of this book, its author or any one or all of his books.

I know a number of my doing it as yourself.

I trust you will give this a careful consideration and arrive at an affirmative decision.

that I read lead me to this decision.

The series of lectures you are

Dear Rabbi Silver:

at noon today I had lunch with a man who for twenty-five years has contributed much to the religious life of this community.
He is I believe a Presbyterian.
a short time ago he was a wreck could not sleep, was even drunk straight. He informed me that one Sunday morning he called a Taxi which drove to the Temple to worship. He then related how close he was brought to the Throne of God - the soothing effect of the music the calming quality of your message the atmosphere of the place overwhelmed him. As a result he found himself his story - and he is no ordinary fellow thrilled me. Gladly I inform you.

Yours Truly

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver,

Cleveland, O.

My dear Rabbi Silver:-

I am sure you will not take it amiss if I take the liberty to offer a suggestion to you. I happened to be present at Carnegie Hall at the time when the success of the Keren Hayesod Drive was celebrated, and heard you deliver a masterful and inspiring address; and my suggestion is that at the forthcoming opening of the Drive in Newark, if you can see your way clear, to deliver the substance of that address and particularly that wonderful illustration about the Chinese god of the potters which you gave in a most inimitable way. I know the temper of a Newark audience, and I am sure that if you follow my suggestion it will produce a tremendous effect.

Hoping to greet you in person on February 4, I remain, with kindest regards, Fraternally yours,

My dear Silver:

A Committee consisting of Max Wise, Mordecai Kaplan, Horace Kallen, Harry Wolfson, Julian Obmann, Slonimsky, the Lindbergs, Dr. Goldfarb and a number of others including myself are organizing a Summer Camp Conference for the discussion of Jewish problems. We want you on the Committee and to have you arrange to spend a couple of weeks at the camp on Lake Champlain.
It is not intended that discussions should last more than a couple of hours a day, our idea being that the chief good must come from contacts during the hours of relaxation and recreation.

We are inviting students from the various universities, arranging that all should come as per schedule for two weeks stay — the camp to be open during the months of July and August - about 50 people at a time, evenly divided between students and older people.

About seventy of leading Jewish scholar, scientists and men of affairs have already committed themselves (there has not been a single refusal) and the interest shown presages a highly successful conversation.

The plan was originally Mrs. Lindheim's & you may have seen her article in the little periodical issued by the Jewish Institute of Religion.

Please let me hear from you at your earliest convenience.

With best wishes

I was very happy to receive your note. I was envious of your position and so I went to bed too and stayed there four days. I am back in the harness again. I wish I could get away for a few days and join you at Watkins Glen but I cannot. I am to be in Newark for a Joren Hayesod meeting this coming Wednesday. Our educational campaign is moving along very smoothly and I am doubtful whether we will obtain the full amount that we require.

I trust that you are getting in fine trim again.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

May I confirm my plea? When Rabbi Goldman returns to Cleveland, will you please run away for a few weeks--

I'm going to be nice to you and not insist on making the selection of the vacation spot- but I do so want you to GO and REST--

Several times during your lecture yesterday- your voice sounded- oh so " FAR AWAY" and somehow I can't think that it was merely an echo of my own weariness--

And I say " when Rabbi Goldman returns" because Cleveland must have one of you here to retain its spiritual balance.

You perhaps know, my dear Rabbi, that many of your listeners have come to care for you, tenderly, and you must not therefore impose upon them a protracted absence which neglect of your physical self may incur.

See how we immediately register objection to any disquietude you cause us!

To the Stockholders of the Palestine Co-operative Company, Inc.

Herewith is third annual report of the corporation. It covers the year ended December 31, 1924.

The activities in Palestine of Palestine Building Loan & Savings Association, Ltd., and Central Bank of Cooperative Institutions in Palestine, Ltd., have been continued and extended. No other enterprises have been undertaken. At one time it was contemplated that the company advance £10,000 to Central Kupath Milveh Association, Ltd. This matter was not consummated by your corporation, however, but by Palestine Endowment Funds, Inc.

The assets of your company have grown from $489,296.06 as of December 31, 1923, as shown by last year's report, to the total of $602,067.94 as of December 31, 1924, as shown by the accompanying report of the accountants, Bernard J. Eels & Company. The capital liabilities have grown from $467,108.85 as of December 31, 1923, to $547,255.00 as of December 31, 1924; and the surplus has increased from $22,187.21 as of December 31, 1923, to $54,812.94 as of December 31, 1924, all as shown by said report.

The principal matter of business to be taken up at the stockholders' meeting, notice of which is enclosed, is in connection with the proposed merger with, or sale of the assets of your company to, Palestine Economic Corporation.

TEMPLE BETH EMETH

WILMINGTON - DELAWARE

Feb. 11th

Dear Abba:

I was rather surprised that your colleague is leaving Cleveland, and it occurred to me at once to write you about the position.

I am anxious to have my name placed before the congregation, to hear me here and to investigate my record. I'm old enough that I'd like to get out of a small place like this and be settled for life, even though Wilmington is a fine town; I've just dedicated a new Temple Center, I write for the Sunday paper, I'm on all sorts of city and state committees, and I'm finishing up my Ph.D work at Penn. I will be ready for the degree this June if I can get the thesis done on time; in any case, I shall have all my credits and exams. As for the rest, you know about my work at Paducah, in the army and in N.Y. at YMHA, my book, A Jewish Chaplain in France, and occasional articles and all that.

So I feel that what I need is not so much a recommendation as that one of my friends shall make sure that my name is before the committee. Then they should do their investigating, and inquiring. Can you do this for me, or advise me how it should be done? Naturally, I don't want to be put in the position of applying for the position.

We are getting on fine here, and see the same of you from time to time in the Jewish press. Elma has won a couple of honors lately for some of her smaller plays and stories, and we have hopes for one or two big things that she is doing now. She joins me in best wishes from house to house.

My dear Silas:-

You will no doubt be surprised to hear from me. In fact, when I realize that since our college days our relations have been marked by a profound indifference, I am rather a bit surprised myself at catching myself at this task. But what else am I to do? I am like one drowning and I clutch at a straw.

Now, don't, please, infer from the foregoing that my material condition is desperate. Not quite. I hold a "pleasant" position. I receive a salary of five thousand; I have been re-elected for four years; and the location, as far as climate is concerned, is ideal. It is my mental condition that worries me. Ever since my graduation, I've been doomed to the small town and the small congregation. Both, in Spokane and here I've also had to do pioneer work, work which at its best is heart-breaking.

There are no big men here and consequently the big problems of life and Jewishness touch us very lightly. When I review my life it seems to me that I am wasting it. It is slowly being wrecked on the petty stuff of the petty congregation. And what makes my position worse yet is that I am so far away from the center of Jewish life. Be my work ever so good only God and the angels will hear about it. And they are ominously silent.

Now, I am appealing to you, for the sake of old times, to help me out of my predicament. I do not have to suggest to you the course to pursue.

What I want is a chance at a larger congregation. I give you my word it is not money I am after. If that were the chief attraction, I would still be with Aaron Sapiro. All I desire is an opportunity to make use of my Rabbinical equipment. I believe you could give me that opportunity. I have long ago lauded you as the Teaching Rabbi. American Jewry today accepts this as a fact. With such prestige, I feel certain, that a kindly word from you, would place within striking distance of an important position. And that is all I want — a chance to be heard. Will you help me get it?

Hoping to hear from you and with best wishes to you and yours, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
Leibert.

I was very happy and surprised when I received your note. I did not know that you were contemplating leaving the city and that, so suddenly. What kind of work are you doing there and how do you like it?

Virginia has been down in Baltimore for the last ten days. Her father has had a slight operation and she is with him now. She will probably return the early part of next week.

How long do you plan to remain in Denver? Keep me in touch with your work.

My dear Mr. Lowenstein,

I was very happy to receive your letter telling me of the pleasant time you and Mrs. Lowenstein are having at Palm Beach. We have had all kinds of weather here in Cleveland from real warm days to real cold days. I have about succeeded in shaking a cold which took such strong hold on me three weeks ago. Virginia has been down in Baltimore the last ten days with her father. Mr. Workheimer has had a slight operation and he is getting along nicely. Virginia will probably return the early part of next week.

Things at The Temple have moved along smoothly. We had a very successful Fathers and Daughters' and Mothers and Sons' Dinner last Sunday evening. There was a fine spirit of good-fellowship everywhere. But we missed you. Last evening the Alumni put on a very excellent performance of "Disraeli". They will repeat the play next Sunday. I attended the board meeting last Tuesday but nothing of importance transpired, just routine business. We are getting ready for our Art Exhibit which opens Sunday evening.

Please convey my love to Mrs. Lowenstein and I hope that you will both have a very restful and happy time while you are vacationing in the sunny Southland.

My dear Rabbi Silver,

I thank you for your kind answer to my letter of recent date and for giving it whatever consideration you thought it deserved. However I think that your excuse for not criticizing the book 'Age of Reason' is, to say the least, rather lame.

I do not wish to appear antagonistic, yet I must say that the Bible, the Old Testament and even the New Testament, which it is

New Testament, it seems incomprehensible that no one, not even the tools of God, such as Rabbis, Priests and Ministers has ventured to answer the book except by vilifying the name of the Author.

I trust that you will see your way clear to changing your decision, and that I shall have the pleasure of hearing many more of your interesting lectures. Believe me your duty as Rabbi to explain to the people is far more antique than Thomas Paine's work. And you still find it necessary to explain and interpret the Bible.

The works of the Ancient Greek philosophers are ages older than this book and they are still being taught, explained and criticized throughout the civilized world.

It is only too true that 'Age of Reason' was published in Paris in 1794, but in all the time since then, there has not been an authoritative answer to the charges he made. In view of the fact that he attacked the authenticity of the Bible, the Old Testament and the

Rabbi Hillel Silver,

Dear Sir

Just a few lines to express my appreciation of your lectures of the past four Sundays. How can one express its thanks when the heart is full? Somehow when I enter your temple, I feel at peace with myself and all the world. Quite by chance I came to your temple. It seems to be a haven of rest, filled with inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Never have I felt the God presence so close to me before. I lost my Mother through death a year ago, and the prayer that you offer for the bereaved, and the departed appeal to my heart. I had a wonderful mother, and I am trying hard to live upto her ideals. The singing of your choir is too beautiful for words. Again my thanks for the pleasure of hearing your lectures. May you live long among your people and continue in your sincere work in their behalf. God keep and bless you

Two Sects Worship In Same Church

KEYSTONE, Neb., Feb. 16.—Cooperation and religious toleration are receiving a thorough test in a little church here where both Catholics and Protestants worship. In one part of the edifice is the Catholic altar. Opposite is the pulpit for Protestant service.

Seats are arranged like those of a railroad coach, so that the backs face either end of the building. Reversal of the benches thus changes the church from one denomination to the other as desired. The church seats about 75 persons.

Dear Colleague and Friend:-

I am writing to a number of men in this country for the purpose of helping to launch a Franco-American Review for Semitic Studies, to be issued by Dr. S. Schiffer, of Paris, an eminent and universally-recognized Semitic scholar. He is to have associated with him an American editor. You know of the influence exerted on scholarship by "Journal Asiatique" and by "Revue Semitique." While the contemplated work is not to supplant in any way the two publications just mentioned, it is to supplement them and give larger opportunities of expression to American as well as to French scholarship. I have volunteered to try and raise $500 in order to aid in financing the publication through the first year. I trust that I am not asking too much of you when I request you to contribute $10 to this worthy cause, and thus give evidence, as you have always given, of your desire to further the interests of scientific research in the field of Semitics.

Awaiting your contribution by return mail, and thanking you in advance for your co-operation, I am, with cordial greetings, as ever,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir;

Apology is entirely inadequate to atone for the time I have allowed to elapse since my last communication to you, but I never-the-less offer it with the hope that you will allow the demands of work and home excuse my negligence.

However, in spite of the rush of modern business I have found time to complete the course of reading proscribed by yourself, for me, for which I am glad.

The present, therefore, finds me ready to take the final step in my embracing of Judaism, and as you were kind enough to offer your assistance in securing the offices of a competent surgeon to undertake my circumcision, I am writing with the hope of being able to take advantage of your help.

I shall be able to secure the necessary time off about the last week in March, and if you could conveniently assist me in getting in touch with the party you have in mind, I shall be eternally indebted to you.

Mrs. Kearsley joins with me in sending kindest personal regards, and hopes that we may be privileged to see you again and add our verbal thanks to ^{that} which correspondence but poorly conveys.

Mr. Jacob Maniloff, the representative of the Jewish Palestine Exploration Society, is visiting Cleveland in order to interest some of our people in the work which this Society is doing.

The Jewish Palestine Exploration Society has been carrying on archaeological research in the ancient land of Israel and it has already succeeded in making some very vital discoveries of high historical importance through the excavations which it has carried on. This work has heretofore been carried on by non-Jews in Palestine. This is our first effort to have our own people make these researches, which will contribute to a sounder knowledge of our great past.

Any assistance which you may render this fine Organization will be deeply appreciated.

Publishers

11-17 EAST 45TH STREET, NEW YORK

My dear Dr. Silver:

It is our pleasure to send you an early advance copy of Elias Tobenkin's new novel, GOD OF MIGHT, which we publish on February 20th. Mr. Tobenkin has asked that we have this sent because of your interest in his subject.

Every few generations there appears a book about a Jew which becomes the mirror of the epoch in which it was written.

Mr. Tobenkin's novel GOD OF MIGHT mirrors the conflict between the American liberalism of old that was nurtured by the New England school of culture and humanities, and the passions and intolerance between man and man, between race and race, which are the heritage of the old world, and which have been brought to our shores in recent years and planted in our midst.

GOD OF MIGHT mirrors an epoch in American civilization, the epoch we live in, with its confused emotions, torn ideals and conflicting traits.

There is material for a powerful sermon in GOD OF MIGHT which the progressive ministers of all faiths will be quick to use.

This book will be read and discussed by many, regardless of creed, for the subject of successful intermarriage between Jew and Gentile is one of the big questions of the day.

We feel quite sure that you will find great appeal in this book and that this is the sort of book that you would like to see circulate amongst your people. We should appreciate your opinion.

ABBA HILLEL SILVER, RABBI

DIRECTOR OF TEMPLE ACTIVITIES

Rabbi Silver.

I am a student of Western Reserve University. I am considering seriously, in fact have decided, transferring next September to the U. of Cincinnati and the Hebrew Union College.

I wonder if you would be kind enough to grant me some of your time for an interview to discuss my plans and to advise me on my future. I will be greatly indebted to you if you will see me at any time convenient to you.

Will you please answer this note by letter sent to my home.

Thank you.

Isadore Miller.
