My dear Jesse,

I was pleased to receive the announcement of your engagements to Miss Rebecca Lattman.
You did not however, indicate your home address and I am taking the opportunity of sending my felicitations to you in care of the Theological Seminary.
So you too have joined the ranks. It is a rabbinical failing. I shall be in New York on the 11th and I trust that I shall have the opportunity of seeing you and Miss Lattman in person and congratulate you both.

Dear Rabbi:

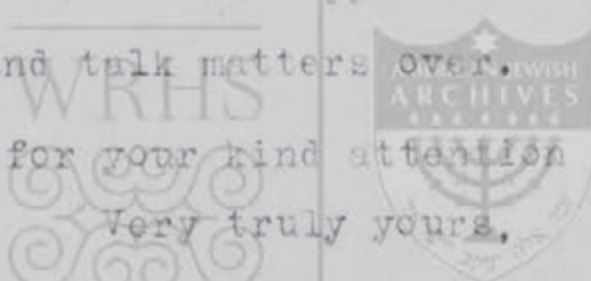

I received your letter and surely appreciate your effort towards me, but I am sorry to say that I have to go to-day to the Lakeside Hospital for treatments of my eyes.

I don't know how long it will take to treat my eyes in the hospital, but I would appreciate if you would come in and see me there and talk matters over.

Thanking you for your kind attention in this matter.

Very truly yours,

My dear Rabbi Silver:

Your gift of $15.00 to help defray the deficit of the American Association for Organizing Family Social Work has been received and is very greatly appreciated. The response of the Board has been most encouraging both to the Committee and to the Association.
We do indeed thank you for your interest.

Dear Friend and Colleague,-

A member of my Congregation has asked me to try and secure information concerning a family by the name of Weis, living at 1854 Marloes Ave., E., your city.

Will you not be good enough and have someone in your office find out where this family hails from, what standing do the members of this family have in the community, etc.

Needless to say that your kindness will be greatly appreciated by myself and the person interested.

With kind greetings, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Jerome Rosen

P.S. May I ask you that this information be secured in a strictly confidential manner. The family concerned must under no circumstances know who is seeking this information.

My Dear Rabbi Silver:

I am pleased to forward you, under separate cover, a copy of JESUS AS OTHERS SAW HIM, by the late Dr. Joseph Jacobs, which I have recently issued in connection with this new publishing and book selling enterprise. You probably know the book from its original form, and you certainly are fully acquainted with all of the literary labors of the author.

I thought you would be interested to receive this new edition of the book, and if you can ever spare the time to send me a few words of comment, I shall appreciate it very much.

I am, with renewed assurances

My Dear Sir:

You are cordially invited to become a member of the Graduates Club, which has been organized primarily to take over, continue and enlarge the work of the Intercollegiate Scholarship Association, which, for many years, has given an annual college show for the purpose of raising a scholarship fund to maintain deserving boys and girls in college who would otherwise be unable to go.

The Graduates Club is not a social organization, but has two objects,—one, the maintenance of college scholarships for high school boys and girls, whose academic achievements show them to be deserving, and second, the welding together of the men and women of Cleveland who have attended college, so that in great community enterprises the weight of college people of the city can be brought to bear on the right side.

An object of especial importance at the present time is presented by the plans for a greater university in Cleveland, which the club will back energetically and which can succeed only if its cause is presented with enthusiasm by people who themselves have had college experience.

Members are asked to pay $1.00 a year annual dues, and to encourage the college show when given by calling it to the attention of their friends and attending, if convenient. All activities of membership are voluntary except the annual membership fee. The only qualification of membership is a minimum attendance of one year at a college or university.

We enclose two membership blanks, one for you, and the other for any one you may know who is not reached by our appeal. Please sign the enclosed blank and mail it with $1.00 to the Graduates Club, 733 Union Trust Building. Join and get others to help in a good cause.

Your immediate attention to this will be appreciated. We must move rapidly to maintain the scholarships already established and to provide for the boys and girls graduating this year in the high schools who must enter the college of their choice at once.

Very truly yours,

Chairman of the Board.

Dear Abba:-

Hope that you had a successful meeting here in New York Monday night. In fact, it is hard to think that you can have any other.

Many thanks for attention from yourself and Jinks. When you come to New York before you sail, do not make it a one day stop but stay a couple of days out in the country with us, and I will loaf with you. We will give you a nice large room, with bath, with the understanding that you do not need to take a bath, if you do not want to do so, and that I consider an eminently fair proposition.

I enclose copy of letter, which I have today written to Mr. Benjamin Lowenstein, and if you can do anything to help this along will appreciate it.

As ever,

My dear Dr. Silver:

I wanted very much to come to Cleveland because you wanted it. I don't like to act like an old woman, constantly complaining about ill health, but I am really not in condition to take on any additional burden, however light, at this time.

I have been knocked out all week and have not been good for a thing. I am sure you will understand that I am not looking about for an excuse not to come. I just can't. I am writing you at this time so that you will know in time to make other arrangements.

I enjoyed my visit with you so much that I am more than sorry that I cannot see my way clear to be with you again next week.

Please remember me kindly to Mrs. Silver, and believe me, with sincere regret that I am compelled to beg off,

Reminding of Samuel's book
Jan Gentiles represents the official

My dear Rabbi Silver:

I am sure you will be glad to know that we have finally succeeded securing subscriptions and underwritings for the $20,000 worth of stock of the Cleveland Co-operative Coal Company, which I personally undertook to sell. There is still $10,000 worth to be sold, but I shall leave that to other citizens interested.

Although you were so generous as to offer your contribution of $100 in the form of a gift, rather than an investment, we send you a certificate for ten shares of stock herewith. I feel confident that the return on your contribution, both tangibly and intangibly, will be a pleasant surprise for you. In any event, permit me to express my personal appreciation of your interest in this unselfish cause.

Permit me to thank you for your kind note of May 20th and for the check which you enclosed.
In keeping with my practice, I shall put it into a small charity fund which I use from time to time. I trust that our Kind Father has comforted you in your great bereavement and that you are finding great consolation in living and working for your dear children.

With kindest regards,
Permit me to remain

Rabbi A. H. Silver,

Cleveland, O.

Dear Abba,

Several weeks ago a man representing himself as Rabbi Ignatz Roth of Cleveland came to me and made an appeal for money. I gave him several letters as he showed me a letter from you.

This morning he writes again from Cleveland enclosing a doctor's statement that his condition is very bad and advising a cure of Mount Clemens. Shall I bother with the man any further? We have so many local appeals that I hesitate to approach my people for outside cases of this kind unless in your judgment it is justifiable. Will you let me hear from you?

With love to Jinks and you,

Faithfully yours,

My dear Rabbi Silver:-

Many times in the past few weeks, have I wanted to approach you & tell you a few little things concerning my darling son, Franklyn, who is one of your confirmands this year, but whenever I tried to do so you are always surrounded by such a host of admirers, that I was rather timid to proceed, as my remarks might have sounded boastful to other ears than yours.

First of all, allow me to thank you for the lovely part you assigned to Franklyn. I am sure he will do his best to make good.

Please don't think me a braggart for wanting to tell our dear Rabbi about my son as I am sure you too, are glad & interested to hear nice things about your Conformants.

Franklyn, who is not yet 14 was chosen Valedictorian at Empire Jr. High

MRS. HARRY M. MARKS

And he also won the Bronze Medal for being the best Latin Student there.
He competed for City championship & won honorable mention; coming in a very close second ^{best} in the city. He has always been on the Honor Roll in the Public Schools and also Sunday School for Scholarship & Conduct. My heart is overflowing with thankfulness to God as I have four wonderful children, & don't you think, dear Rabbi Silver, that perhaps, after Franklyn finishes High School - he may have the makings of a Rabbi in him? He is also an excellent Piano Player.

NORMAN M. VINEBERG.

My dear Rabbi:-

I am writing to change our meeting place for lunch on Thursday.

We will be coming right back to Adelbert Road to the Medical School, after lunch and it would be a considerable waste of time if we were to meet at the Hotel Cleveland.

[R. Goldblatt has, therefore, suggested that we

lunch at Valentino's, 2029 East 105th St., a small but excellent eating house, at 12.30 noon. This will be more convenient for all of us and will eliminate the trip downtown.

[R. Goldblatt promises an interesting afternoon at the College and in his position as Asst. Prof. of Pathology he will be an ideal man to show us the experimental laboratories.

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver,
Cleveland, O.

My dear Rabbi Silver,-

I did not give the reason for our request for information on the Weis family, 1854 Marloes Ave., East, your city, because of its intimate and delicate character. However, you are right in requiring to know for what purpose this information is to be used.

The Weis family have ^ason in this city, studying medicine at our local University. He has been courting the daughter of some very fine people in my congregation, and naturally the parents are interested to know more about the young man and his family before they allow the romance to get too far. This may sound a little old-fashioned, but I am sure it will not appear so to you, for I know you to cherish and have ^{high} regard for just such old-fashioned ideas, which have played a prominent role in the life of the Jew.

My own interest in this thing is due not only to the fact that the girl's parents are members of the congregation, but primarily because of a certain responsibility which I personally feel about it. The young folks both teach at my Sabbath School, where they met and where the courtship began. In other words, I consider myself more or less responsible for their acquaintance and for ^{what} it resulted into. Of course, I do not intend to claim shadchonis gelt.

In turning this matter over to a member of your Women's Association, as you say in your letter, will you not be good enough and exercise the greatest of care that it should not get out of the bounds of strict confidence

Thanking you for your courteous co-operation, I am with kind greetings,

Very sincerely yours,

Joseph is the son of Mr. Israel Margolin, a prominent member of my Temple and of the Cleveland Jewish community. He was confirmed by me at The Temple last June, after attending the Temple Religious School for about six years.

I believe you would find him in every way a desirable member of the group you are to guide on this trip. I have found him always honest, courteous and of a pleasing personality.

He has a fine Jewish background, an understanding of present day Jewish life and problems and a way of winning the confidence of all elements. He has fine organizing ability and he has the knack of seeing through activities which he initiates. Altogether a splendid man to have in the field of Jewish Community Center work.

I am just working with the auditor in order to clean up matters of the Palestine Co-Operative Company prior to its merger with the Palestine Economic Corporation, and I find that an amount of $400. was subscribed by you for stock of the P.C.C. and has not been paid yet. I understand that this matter is connected with an open account of the Palestine Development Leagues for expenses incurred by you at the time you were travelling in California for the Rutenberg project.

Is it convenient to you for us to offset one item against the other and ~~thereby~~ ^{hereby} cancel the subscription, or, do you want us to issue stock? In the latter case please advise me of the amount which the Palestine Development Leagues owe you.

pleasing was your statement that the bearing of the common daily burdens of civic and private life is equally as worthy as the more spectacular actions in an emergency.

Such a voice in Israel and free America will do much to dispel the "slow poison" distilled by the misguided mongers of hate and intolerance.

Personally I am enlisted in the non-partisan effort toward international law and order headed by Justice John H. Clarke (Democrat) and Ex Attorney General Wickersham (Republican) and including many leading Americans: Ex Pres. Eliot of Harvard, Pres. Dear Rabbi Silver, Inasmuch as your trip abroad so soon after Confirmation gave me no opportunity to say to you in person that which I very much would like to say, I take this means:

I wish to tell you how I have enjoyed this year made so pleasant by you. When things came up which worried me I was able to go through with them so much easier by bearing in mind that Friday was only a short time away. It served as an inspiration to me.

When you told us Confirmation Day that all that has passed can never be retraced it makes me feel sad that those days are but pleasant memories, yet the fact that I am going back in fall cheers me up.

No doubt you will enjoy all your travels in other countries but you will be anxious to return to the land which God fashioned in love, blessed with a purpose sublime and called, "America".

Wishing you and your dear wife a safe and enjoyable journey I remain.

Sincerely yours,
Alice L. Tohn
