PLEASE RETURN THIS STATEMENT WITH REMITTANCE

L. (Liebkeut?)

Dear Rathi Dillon:

Pardon this late note to you, expressing my thanks for the comforting words you spoke at my dear Bethane's funeral. I have been so frightened and not well, and I don't seem able to trace up I am surprised at myself, as I always felt I was resourceful and able to do for everyone else, but I am just a broken-hearted, dwelling on my happy memories. I have thought many times what some occupation would be my redemption, something that would fill my whole day, I don't mean chairmanship etc, but a real duty that I would have to go to my job at a certain time & leave at a specified time, I think it is the tonic that would act on my nerves, more than all the medical attention I have had this summer what do you think? Please accept & extend to Mrs Dillon my greetings for the New Year and continued thanks

Sincerely yours.

My dear Rabbi Silver:-

This is from the "Nesher Ha-Gadol" who now soars under the blue Yarmelke of Worcester, Mass. I have heard that you will thrill Providence on Nov. 9th. Worcester, as you know, is some 40 miles distant from Providence. Would it be possible for you to stop off at Worcester either the day before or the day after your visit to Providence? The occasion? Epoch-making, indeed. My formal installation at Temple Emanuel (no competition with Krass). My congregation actually beamed with joy when I told them that unless hindered by some previous engagement, you would most likely accept the invitation. It is needless to tell you that I, personally, would feel greatly honored in having you install me into office. Please let me know that you will come.

With best wishes for the New Year and with kind regards to Mrs. Silver, I am

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Just a suggestion which I trust you will receive in the same kindly spirit in which it leaves the writer, viz, that in your sermons, you do not drop your voice so low as was the case two years ago when much of your beautiful address was lost to your auditors, especially in the mezzanine seats of the temple. Myself & family sit pretty well forward to your left and all agree with me that they missed much, but in your sermons we cannot afford to lose a single word; they are so full of inspiration hope & instruction. With my best wishes for your good health & continued success in your ministrations, I beg to remain

My Dear Dr. Silber-

I hope you will pardon the liberty I am taking in addressing you, but I am extremely anxious to hear you deliver the Kipper Services on Friday night. Being a visitor in Cleveland and knowing no one who is a member of your congregation I would ask you if it would be possible for me to gain access to the Temple on that night? I am from New Orleans, a member of Rudolph's Temple in that city, and am particularly desirous of hearing you speak before I leave Cleveland.

Friday—

Dear Abba:-

Many thanks for the sermon. It was quite a change for me to read a good one. It was a great help, and gave me much pleasure to quote "my friend & colleague Dr——". Evansville college is going to publish them, in its annual, and I will send you a copy. While you will not learn anything, you may enjoy reading them.

When does your book come out. I am most anxious to read it. Thanks for the information about Browne. I rode with him from Terre Haute to Cleveland & he assured me he was the world's greatest lecturer.

I spoke in St Louis yesterday, and returned on the sleeper. Wish I could write a sermon while sleeping.

Give my dearest regards to U, and of course accept them for yourself. Write to a fellow once in a while as ever,

Dear Abba:

You know sometimes I wonder whether you have not about punished me enough for what you thought were my sins of neglect. Never a line from you in spite of the fact that you promised to let me know about coming to the dedication and then when I get back to Cleveland you ^{have} are off for Europe.

We had no actual dedication for the building except as a part of our Rosh Ha Shannah service in the evening which was most impressive. The Temple really is lovely and we have caught a glimpse of that fine dignity which yours embodies. The Ark is very beautiful and on the whole I am most happy with the entire outcome.

Our Rosh Ha Shannah services were very successful in spite of the fact that it was terrifically hot and I think I lost about ten pounds at the two services.

You cannot imagine, Abba, how very, very happy you made mother with your thoughtfulness. I spoke to her over the phone on Rosh Ha Shannah evening and I never heard her really as pleased as she was over the fact that you had remembered her so very beautifully. Knowing how very much you have always meant to her I can understand her sentiment.

I am trying to line up our Men's Club list of lecturers but it is a difficult proposition trying to bring men when our capital is rather limited. However, we are working on a joint proposition with Louisville and due to the fact that we can offer two dates we are trying to get men a little cheaper.

I trust that your Holiday services went over well and that your year will be filled with everything that is fine. My dearest regards to Virginia and yourself.

As ever,

Faithfully yours,

Jack

My dear Mr. Jones:

This will introduce Mr. Philip Solomon who was graduated from our high school in June 1923.

He matriculated at Harvard University the following September and was graduated from the University last June, three years later, with the honorary degree of magna cum laude.

Mr. Solomon was one of the three men from our high school who achieved the highest honor distinction at Harvard in 1924-25. The entire group numbered only 31 men.

Offered an instructorship in mathematics for this year by the Head of the Department he refused it in order to matriculate at the Medical College there. This latter step however is conditioned to some extent upon his ability to finance himself through the first year.

It occurred to me that you might like to meet this young man and possibly you can suggest some plan for solving his problem.

Thanking you in advance for any courtesy that you may extend to Mr. Solomon, I beg to remain,

My dear Mr. Weisenberg,

I do not know whether this subject comes within the scope of your department but I am taking the liberty of approaching you on it anyway.

There is a young boy working at Halle Brothers by the name of Edward Stern. He is in the delivery department. He was in my Confirmation class last year but was compelled to drop out because of having to work on the afternoon of the Confirmation session. I wonder whether some arrangement cannot be made to permit the lad to absent himself from your store for the Confirmation hour. He can attend class either on Thursday afternoon at 4:30 or Friday afternoon at 4:30. Many firms have in the past been kind enough to make this arrangement for boys who worked in the afternoon and still wanted to be Confirmed.

I would appreciate very much if you would use your good influence in this matter.

My dear Rabbi:

I have received your letter of the 22nd with reference to the additional hour which you are requiring from the children in the pre-confirmation class and am struck particularly by the fact that whereas my son informed me on Sunday that this class was being held so that the children might receive the benefit of your inspiring guidance and counsel, the letter discloses the fact that you will be at liberty only to meet with them from time to time. I am therefore wondering if you have taken into account the fact that on Friday afternoon are held concerts by the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra which many children attend and which, you will agree, have a decided cultural effect upon them; secondly, that Friday afternoon is also the afternoon on which most school activities are held.

As you know, I have felt right along that the long hours which you require on Sunday morning are having a tendency to create in a child a distaste for Sunday School and I feel that this additional hour will go still further towards producing this effect.

I realize full well that the above mentioned sentiments will have little or no effect on your decision and would prefer to deliver them to you in person but am too busy just at the present to take the time. I hope, however, that I shall have the opportunity of talking these things over with you sometime in the near future.

Sincerely yours,

Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Jones,

I thought you might be interested to receive a report of Mr. Philip Solomon in whose behalf you interested yourself. Mr. Solomon called on me and I was very favorably impressed with him. I advanced him a hundred dollars to see him on his way to school and he left the morning after our interview.

I have since learned however, that Mr. Solomon has been receiving a subsidy from the Educational League, a fact which I did not know at the time of our interview. The Educational League is now looking into the matter. I do hope that the young man is not abusing the confidence of anyone. Should I hear from him or about him, I shall be glad to inform you.

With kindest regards, I am

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Jack,

I was very happy to receive your letter of September 13th and glad to know that your "Schul" is now completed and that it has come up to your expectations. George Myers is quite enthusiastic about it. Mother was in Temple Yom Kippur Eve and I had occasion to speak to her for a moment. She looks fine.

Under separate cover I am sending you a reprint of my article, "Why Do the Heathen Rage"? I know that you would like to read it and especially the forward which contains my correspondence with Mr. Hurwitz.

When are you coming to Cleveland for a few days' stay?

With best wishes for a very Happy New Year, I am

Dear Rabbi:-

I take the liberty of writing to you about my personal affairs, for I sincerely believe that you will give your best attention to my case.

I am attending Western Reserve Law School, having two more years to finish my legal training.
I received my "A. B." degree this last June from the same school. I have worked my way thru college up to the present day and hope to do it in the future for I must do it, being an orphan and not being placed in any favorable financial situation. I took care of the Jewish Center Library for two years, where I had occasion to see you at times.
My present desire is to get a position with some law firm whereat I could learn my expense and at the same time derive practical training in the legal field, which is my main object.

At the present time I have a year of law training and therefore I would not be a novice in the field. I have applied to several attorneys myself, but so far without any success.

Dear Rabbi, having in view the great social and civic position that you occupy in this community and the wide knowledge of men in the business and legal field that no doubt you have,
I ask of you to please use your influence to help me secure a position in a law office. I am free every afternoon in the week and I will do the work to the best of my ability because I want that kind of a position and I need a job.
I trust that you will consider my situation and act accordingly. I remain sincerely yours,

My dear Rabbi Silver:-

I am tremendously interested in the report of Mr. Philip Solomon which you have sent to me.

I was quite busy at the time the boy came to my office. I relied wholly upon Mr. Cully's letter, because I had had an understanding with him prior to this time to the effect that I would make an effort to provide higher education for capable boys who could not finance themselves.

I shall be doubly disappointed if this young man has misled us. First, for the sake of the young man himself, for if he is richly endowed with intellect how unfortunate if he has failed in integrity. Second, I regret exceedingly to have presented the case to you without having competently and carefully examined into its merits. I assure you I shall not repeat this mistake again.

It is indeed a pleasure to think of the interest you have taken last year in my behalf pertaining to the arranging of an exhibition of my works in one of the best Galleries of Cleveland.

Of course it was then late in the season and no possible success could be achieved and we decided to get at it this year.

I am sure you will give me your cooperation.

My dear Dr. Silver,-- Turning over recently my letter files I glanced at your last letter dated 10th December, 1920 with interest. I believe I had not heard from you since then, although I am aware that you are receiving Israel's Messenger regularly and which I hope you are finding interesting. I know full well that you and I do not see eye to eye on matters affecting Judaism, but nevertheless I am always happy to concede the right of those who disagree to air their views openly so long as they are sincere in their love for the faith in which they were born and reared.

I have noticed the admirable work you are doing for Zionism and needless to say the writer follows it with great interest. I would be pleased to publish a message from you to China Jewry and trust you will find time for it and write whenever you feel disposed to do so. We are living in stirring times which try men's souls. The upbuilding of the Homeland places upon us a huge responsibility which we dare not shirk and avoid. Jewry as a whole cannot escape history. It is fortunate that men of your calibre are protecting zealously the great principles that are involved in the creation of the Jewish Commonwealth.

With kindest regards.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I have just returned from the Gibson Hotel where you addressed the Welfare Conference this evening; the density of the crowd made it impossible for me to see you there after the meeting.

Consequently I must resort to this feeble means to express to you somewhat the manner in which I received both your informal talk at the College and your address of this evening. Though I had heard you frequently in Cleveland, I have never until this evening been as spiritually moved by an address as I was tonight. Perhaps it is because I am older than I was then; perhaps I am beginning to see things in a more real world as you suggested this afternoon. But whatever it be that is at the root of it, my feelings are too deep to detail, so I merely indicate it here, however inadequately.

I can only thank you; no more remains for me to say. I am

I want to thank you personally for the tremendous message that you gave to the Social Workers Conference last evening at the Gibson. It carried with it tremendous spiritual value and I am sure it has been the outstanding message that the social workers will take back with them to their respective communities.

Without saying anything to my dear friend, Rabbi Cronbach, I am sending you a leaflet of our Peace Heroes Memorial Society. We are most desirous to enroll you as a member. You will be delighted to know that we have all parts of the country represented in our membership. The cost of membership is but one dollar, and from the viewpoint of service, we will not ask much of you except that you be good enough next spring preceding Memorial Day, to possibly mention the spiritual value and the constructive peace value of this movement in a sermon or public address. Our membership at present includes many of the outstanding clergymen throughout the country of all denominations. We are of the opinion that if we can ask this simple service of them that the growth of the movement will be assured and the thought nationally symbolized.

It was mighty good of you to come to Cincinnati for this meeting and we are greatly indebted to you for the contribution you have made.

Accept my kindest personal regards,

P. Solomon -
Harvard Medical School

October 19, 1926.

Dear Rabbi Silver,

The middle of the fourth week of school finds me definitely launched on the long grind I had been expecting. The first half year, consisting of gross anatomy and histology (microscopic anatomy), has long been known become regular again, the subject changes its aspect somewhat.

However, I'm looking forward with no little anticipation to the second half-year, when physiology and bio-chemistry will make things much more enjoyable.

After watching my first operation at the hospital last Saturday I decided, as did about ninety-five per cent of the class, to be a surgeon. At the end of the four years all but as the bugbear of embryonic physicians. The work, being almost entirely a matter of memory, is tedious in the extreme, but nevertheless tolerable when considered as the foundation for all that is to follow. And besides, there is a good measure of inherent interest in the subject. The fear of dissection wears off after about the first week, and then, as one's meals ten per cent have changed their minds, so I make no prognostications.

A major operation - this one was for the removal of a cancerous breast and surrounding tissues - certainly is a most dramatic and thrilling sight. One's natural horror soon changes to awe and wonder at the extent and developement of science as demonstrated in aseptic surgery. A certain

Harvard Medical School

undefinable reverence intermingled with admiration for the surgeon's skill and technique make up a large part of one's feelings at the occasion. It is one of the unforgettable moments of one's life.

Rabbi Silver, it seems that the expenses at the beginning of the first year are greater events, I should be grateful for your attention whenever you have time.

Sincerely,

Philip Solomon.

than I had imagined. As a result I find myself very nearly penniless. If you still intend to continue in your generosity toward me, I should certainly appreciate any assistance you can give me.

To be frank with you, this matter embarrasses me greatly, and I should much rather the process were automatic so to speak, or

Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

A year ago when the Consumers' League had to make its first effort to raise the money necessary for the year's program outside the Community Fund, you were one of the first to encourage us by your understanding support and your generous donation of $200.00. The continuance and growth of the League's work during the past year has demonstrated that our organization is still filling a real need in the community, and we are now starting out to assure our budget for 1927.

One of the functions of the League is to make studies of conditions among women and children in industry. We have undertaken as our chief subject of study this year, the children who are injured in industry. The Industrial Commission of Ohio is much interested and is helping in every way possible, furnishing statistical material and opening the necessary records so that we may do follow up work on individual cases. Although the study is not completed we are sure that it is going to furnish significant information.

January 1927 will bring a new session of the Legislature; it will be the League's responsibility to guard the protective legislation for women and children already on the statute books, and to improve it in every way possible.

At the first meeting of members of the Consumers' League board who are working to secure the funds for 1927 held Tuesday of this week, a total of $2755 was reported. We hope to complete this informal finance effort within the next week or ten days and I shall certainly appreciate it most heartily if you find it possible to fill out the enclosed pledge card and return it to me at your earliest convenience.

With sincere thanks for all your encouragement and support, believe me as always,

Sincerely yours,

Marie R. Wing

Rabbi Silver,

Dear Sir:

If I am not mistaken, not very long ago you visited Huntington to make an address at the dedication of the new Chev. Shalom Temple here. I was inspired very much by your address, and at this time I know that you are the very man that can give me very much help.

I am a Jewish boy, and am in the graduating class of January in the Huntington High School. I have been chosen the valedictorian of the class, having the highest average of any senior. Now I must make a speech at the commencement, and am writing to you to see if you could give me a few good points on the subject which I have chosen. It is "What Does it Mean to be Educated?" or "What is an Education?"

Here in Huntington we haven't a very efficient library and therefore it is very difficult to ^{get} information on the subject.

Please do not refuse me this favor, as I want to make as good a speech as I possibly can.

Will you please help me?

Yours very truly,

Emanuel Glassman

Sunday

Dear Mr. Silver:-

After leaving your Services this morning in the Temple - I hurried back to call for my two small children only to find dreadful chaos and disorder! I was determined upon reaching my home to write to you to ask that something might be done to improve upon this crude method of dismissing a Sunday School of so great a number of children. The corridor on the main floor was so crowded with children and parents that small children could be trampled down with no effort.

One class crowded to get its wraps in the same corridor through which all these many children must pass. If a crisis should arise - necessitating a hurried exit - I shudder & think of the results!

Please do not ask me & voice my objections at the Parent-Teacher's meeting as that is very difficult for me to do! As a last solution might I suggest that the small children be in their rooms with their wraps on before you dismiss services and the larger children who need not be called for leave directly from Mahler Hall?

Hoping this will be taken in the spirit in which it is given and assuring you of my hearty cooperation, I am

Sincerely,
(Mrs. Nathan) Margaret S. Sloss.

The address of Dean H. R. Huntley is care of Deane Academy, Granville, Ohio.

Your opinion of Bailey to the above gentleman will be greatly appreciated by me. From what you tell me you think a great deal more of Bailey than what my experiences with him entitles him. However, it is a smart parent that knows his own child.

Dear Rabbi:-

While visiting here in Cleveland, I attended one of your wonderful and beautiful services. Before leaving Cleveland, I was notified by the "Judea Promoter" Society of Brooklyn N.Y. of which I am a member to be on a debate. I am on the negative side of the question "Is Anti Semitism a real danger to the Jew?"

May I ask you to be so kind as to give me

a few details on that subject.
I am leaving Cleveland for New York today, or else I would come over to see you personally.

Thanking you very much for your kindness, beg to remain.

Very truly yours.

Nov. 3rd 1926

my dear Dr. Abba Silver:

I beg you to give this letter your most sincere thought.

You are probably aware of my early break with the N. H. C. - Emotional had my life cast against a stone wall. As for myself; I do not know whether I should open my old wounds. But at this time, my darling little daughter - who is 8 years past, and my dear wife - whom you met - well, it is for them that my anguished soul does not rest, but they despise this now...

I am still young - I am ready to make any sacrifice and as is my dear wife - to reunite my College (the N. H. C.). No stipulation will be too difficult! I must gain my name for my child's sake!

This cry comes to you from a very sorrowful heart - and one whom you know. I beg your good will and word - Help me to reunite the N. H. C. With your guidance I may win my life's one goal; please!

Very sincerely yours
R. B. Hershon
