Rabbi A. H. Silver,
The Temple,

Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

Miss Dorothy Goodfriend and Miss Claudia Liebenthal have made application to the School of Applied Social Sciences for training to fit them for a position as case work visitors. They will be affiliated with the Jewish Social Service Bureau in doing their field work.

We understand that you can give us information relative to Miss Goodfriend's and Miss Liebenthal's qualifications. In addition to intellectual capacity we are interested in your estimate of their personal characteristics and abilities. Family case work entails many difficult contacts with clients and community in the meeting of critical and delicate situations.

Will you tell us in what connection you have known both Miss Goodfriend and Miss Liebenthal and in what way you feel that they are prepared for this work, that is, in home and school training, in your personal experience or in natural aptitude? In what respect do you think they may show unusual ability? What do you consider as the limitations or handicaps of each girl? Do they have good judgment and confidence in themselves? Are they dependable? Can they work with people without arousing antagonism, and win their confidence? Will the general health of each girl permit of a good deal of physical and mental strain?

This training course covers a period of twenty-one months and is the preparation for a continued profession. It is important that we advise most helpfully before a student makes this decision that her entrance into this profession may bring the most satisfaction both to her and to the field of social work.

We shall appreciate your most careful consideration of the whole matter.

Very sincerely yours,

Director.

My dear sir:- Mr E A Newbury of Cleveland suggested this letter, the object of which is to say that if my twenty years of residence here has given me such knowledge as may be useful during your forthcoming visit, same is at your entire and willing service. I haven't any thought or hope of selling art objects to you. I have ~~have~~ however, done my share with your museum and some of the leading people of Cleveland. I pay my dues at the Temple here and do what I can for the rest of our own charities but am not religious in the accepted sense--this game is too strenuous for spiritual pleasures but I am certain that as a guide and information ^rbureau you will find me helpful. I look forward with pleasure to seeing you here soon.

Dear Mr. Silver.

I have hesitated in writing you following your splendid address at the Congregational Union recently, not that I did not appreciate it very much. I did. But I felt as the poet of the hour of the evening, the arrangement of the program was most unconscious to you. There was so much in common between your faith and that of Congregationalism that I was incensed when I noted the selection of hymns, scripture passages etc.

I served as chaplain in the Canadian Army for four years and it was my privilege many times to minister unto Hebrews and I tried to emphasize the great heritage that first belonged to your race and has since been held by yours and mine in common. I found them fine responsive fellows. And so I wanted to dissociate myself from what must have been offensive to you.

Two things I want to assure you of: I am not looking just for a position; and I would not have applied for a place on the Secretariat unless I meant to serve the cause of Palestine with all my heart and with all my soul.

I hope you will treat this request of mine as personal and confidential, whether you are willing and able to place me or not. It would grieve me to see this handled in bureau fashion. I will be glad to stand the expenses of wire communications, if needs be.

Thanks for your gracious report of my Sunday sermon. I want to say to you that your congregation, turning out so splendidly in such miserable weather for a strange rabbi is one of the finest tributes to your hold on your people.

I wish Abba I might with a wave of the hand say: 'That's all right' about the expenses. But I'm sorry I cannot. You know of course the heavy expense under which I am laboring just now. Probably $30.00 will cover everything.

Isn't it possible for you to get off the train next week on your way to Washington, get off in the morning, spend the day here and go over to the Capitol City in the late afternoon? We'd love to have you.

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

I am sure you would be very happy to hear the comments of appreciation and praise that come from Jew and Christian alike in Des Moines and to know that your message at the National Conference of Social Work is regarded as the most significant and the fairest challenge that has ever been given the Church as an Institution. Those who were so fortunate to hear you over the radio Sunday morning were deeply affected by the solemnity of that service and the enclosed letter will illustrate how far reaching the influence of that message has been.

On receipt of Mr. Abramsohn's letter, we asked Rabbi Mannheimer and W.H.O. if they had copies of your address and as neither one has a copy, we are writing to you for two, one for Mr. Abramsohn and one by special request for Rabbi Mannheimer.

I am very glad of the opportunity to say a word of recommendation and praise of Miss Claudia Liebenthal. She is a graduate of The Temple Religious School and was confirmed by me six years ago. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melville Liebenthal, are members of my Temple and hold the high esteem of the Cleveland community. Claudia is exceptionally intelligent and possesses most admirable character and disposition. She has been given the highest type of home training. I believe she would bring to the field she desires to enter all the necessary elements for successful social work. I believe her health now is perfect.

She is friendly, sympathetic and tactful.

OFFICE OF
THE SECRETARY-TREASURER

May 26, 1927.

Rabbi Abbe Hillel Silver,
The Temple, East 106th Street,
at Amsel Road,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Sir:

The gifts of a few interested and able friends of the Colored people, including such distinguished Americans as Messrs. Julius Rosenwald, George Eastman, Harold H. Swift, Secretary A. W. Mellon of the U. S. Treasury Department, Mrs. Mary C. Thaw, Mrs. Henry A. Strong of Rochester, Senator James Couzens of Michigan, and others, added to a stream of hard-earned contributions from the Colored people themselves, ranging from 25 cents to $5,000.00, have enabled Howard University to come within reaching distance of securing a Half Million ($500,000) Dollar endowment and a Half Million ($500,000) Dollar building for its School of Medicine. In order to take advantage of certain conditional gifts expiring in June, we are endeavoring to secure the interest of a few other friends who will help us to complete this enterprise. We are therefore writing with the hope that we may enlist your interest and that you will consent to be among these friends.

It is our earnest hope that we may be able to meet all conditional offers and to complete these funds on or before Commencement Day, June 10th, 1927. On that day Dr. Mordecai W. Johnson, the first Negro to become president of Howard University, will be inaugurated. Doctor Johnson is Southern born, with wide experience in the South and North among Colored and White people. He has the far-reaching confidence of Colored and White people alike, North and South, and it is believed by many thoughtful persons that during his presidency Howard University will not only grow in educational significance, but that it will also become a center of far-reaching influence for the betterment of race relations in the United States. All of those friends who contribute to these funds at this time will be giving strength to the University during the first year of Doctor Johnson's administration and will be contributing also toward a cause of far-reaching significance in the matter of race relations.

I am enclosing herewith two circulars which describe in brief the work of the Medical School and set forth the status of the two funds. Doctor Johnson asks me to say to you that he is willing to call to see you in person and to explain in detail not only the Medical School projects but something of his vision for the development of the work of the entire University.

If we may have a favorable reply from you, it will make us happy and grateful.

Yours very truly,

Emmett J. Scott
Secretary-Treasurer.

P. S.

I am sure you will be interested to know something of what the Colored people themselves have done:

Seventy-one (71) per cent of the amount pledged toward the endowment of the Medical School is by Colored people.

One Colored woman of St. Louis, Missouri pledged $10,000 and has paid $5,000.

Thirty-two (32) per cent of the amount pledged is by graduates of Howard University.

Eighty-four (84) graduates of the Medical School who are residents here in the City of Washington have made pledges toward the endowment of the Medical School. Of this number forty-nine (49) have paid in full $15,530 while thirty-five (35) have paid in part.

One Negro physician, a graduate of the University of Michigan, pledged and paid $1,000 in CASH.

A Dental graduate of Howard postponed his marriage to pledge $1,000 with an initial payment of $500.

Another Howard man sold his automobile to make payment on his pledge of $1,000.

A Cincinnati window-washer (a Colored man) pledged and paid $100 in cash.

A hotel janitor, who could hardly write his name, paid $50 in CASH on his pledge of $100, saying that he wanted his doctors "to be equal to the best."

Members of the Howard faculty have had payments regularly deducted from their salaries.

Whatever help and encouragement you may be able to give us in this effort will be greatly appreciated.

Secretary-Treasurer.

My dear Rabbi:

The bearer, Samuel Black, is a graduate of our Home of the Class of July, 1925. He is an exceedingly earnest young man and is deserving every consideration in connection with his ambition to enter Hebrew Union College in the Fall. He advises me that he spoke to Dr. Morgans-tern and was asked to see you with regard to the matter.

I am enclosing a copy of a letter I am addressing to Dr. Morgans-tern, so you will see that there is no equivocation or evasion in our endorsement. The Jewish Orphan Home will feel it a privilege to assist Samuel in equipping himself by way of additional instruction in Hebrew to get himself ready. We are anxious, though, that he obtain the endorsement of both yourself and Rabbi Brickner, as asked by Dr. Morgans-tern.

Any courtesy you show Samuel will be seriously appreciated by us. I am exceedingly happy that we have a young man who is ready, willing and competent to undertake the calling of the Rabbinate. I am hoping that others will follow him under the encouragement of his own success.

Sincerely yours,

Michael Sharlitt

May 27, 1927.

Dr. J. Morgenstern,
Hebrew Union College,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

My dear Dr. Morgenstern:

Samuel Black, a young man who graduated from our Home July, 1925, has expressed a desire to study for the Rabbinate. He is anxious to be admitted with the Fall class at the Hebrew Union College. I have been waiting patiently for the day for one of our boys to express a decided ambition for such work, and am exceedingly gratified that Samuel has approached me on the subject.

On the character and general personality side, I believe the young man is well equipped. He enjoyed a fine reputation with us over a period of a number of years. And up to the time of his graduation, he was a good student at school and received one of our scholarships to enable him to complete his high school education, ~~xx~~ which he did at the age of seventeen. At the Home, he was an active leader in the affairs of the children, being a member of the Children's Council and serving from time to time in various functions and enterprizes planned by the Council.

It is my opinion that Samuel deserves every encouragement, and I am especially pleased that I have the opportunity to share in his plans in this way.

Very truly yours,

Michael Sharlitt,
Superintendent.

Dear Sir:

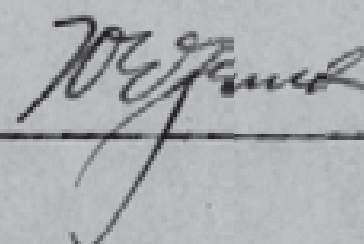

During the past four years our little band of teachers and workers has established a school to train workers for the various branches of the labor movement. We had faith that if we gave our time and energy those interested in workers' education would provide the necessary funds to buy land, to build the school plant, and to secure the industrial equipment that would eventually make us self-maintaining.

In July we will begin the construction of our hydro-electric plant. We have raised $3,500 toward the building of the dam and power house. We will go as far as we can with this sum but we must have $1,500 to complete them.

In October we want to begin the erection of a fireproof library. We are now housing over $5,000 worth of books, and their number is increasing daily, in a rough structure that cost less than $500. Not only is the fire risk very great, but our library has outgrown this building. As we have been offered the Frederick Frear art collection if we would house it in a fireproof social center, our proposed library is planned to include a combined little theatre and art museum. Although all the work of construction will be done by Commoners, the materials that we must buy will cost around $10,000.

Will you not help to advance the Commonwealth idea of self-supporting workers' education by sending in your contribution to either the Power Plant Fund or to the Library Fund?

Most sincerely,

Ph.D.
Director.

My dear Rabbi: —

In the midst of great sensation is the person to day, who practicing "Moses Ben Maimon's (The second Moses) eighth point:

He advised to put voluntarily practically in the way of someone, who need help and proud to admit it, some sort of possibilities to acquire productive work; in order to lead an honest living.

This is the highest step on the cherities golden ladder, given by the noble Maimonides.

Very highly commendable and practisable act.

Recently statistics proudly point it out that, the human race are growing in height (bodily growth) This statistition evidently did not mentioned how the human families acquiring spiritual qualities! and whether they gaining foot hold on that line?

I am Frank Deutsch my dear Rabbi,

every time that occasioned on several seasons. Admit it, I surely learned a lot and enjoyed it greatly -

I am an American citizen since fourteen years, and resident of the City of Cleve-

Unfortunately I am out of occupation and I can say it with clear heart, I used all available means to obtain some sort of employment months and months, without any result.

Received promises by the dozens, but they remained promises only, or they flatly turned me down. Some time I must live, but can a man make a living if deprived of the opportunity?

I am turning to you now, dear Rabbi for aid - Kindly use your prestige and good offices, and put me in the right path.

In this City of Toronto, I am running impatiently, also to get something over three weeks already, but only bare promises so far.

By the way I am a salesman selling food products, and possessing long experiences on that line of work, inside or outside selling. Able to furnish the very best of references as to my character and capability.

The English Section of The DAY a Journalistic Force

THE English Section of THE DAY is the bridge which connects our growing Jewish element with our Jewish life. It reflects the spirit of Judaism, it interprets its ideas and ideals, clearly, forcefully, interestingly. Its articles, its editorials, its fiction are far-reaching in the development of a Jewish consciousness among our young people.

This Section has developed into a definite, indispensable institution, — an outstanding feature of this paper. The English Section is another example of our efforts to make THE DAY a power in the life of our Jews, an outstanding influence in their thought.

Read THE DAY every day, and let your children read the English Section every Sunday.

Ein junger talentierter Ingenieur der Elektrotechnik

und des Maschinenbaues, Mitglied unserer Organisation und hervorragender Gesinnungsgenosse, der infolge der Unmöglichkeit jetzt nach Palästina auszuwandern eine entsprechende Stelle in seinem Fache anderswo anstrebt, ersuchte uns bei Euch anzufragen, ob Sie geneigt und imstande wären diesem seinen Ersuchen nachzukommen, Derselbe ist aus Kroatien gebürtig, 26 Jahre alt, Absolvent der technischen Hochschule in Wien / Maschinenbau-Fakultät / und wurde im Juli 1925 ebendort zum Ingenieur der Elektrotechnik diplomiert. Seither war er in jugoslawischen Staatsdiensten, da es jedoch unmöglich ist in Jugoslawien sich in seinem Fache zu vervollkommen, so wenden wir uns mit jener Bitte an Sie.

Falls Sie ihm auch irgendwelche Erleichterungen der Einreise oder der Einreisekosten verschaffen könnten, ersuchen wir Sie höflich dies mitteilen zu wollen.

Neben seiner serbischen Muttersprache spricht derselbe auch deutsch, englisch und französisch.

Für Ihre Mühe im Voraus dankend verbleiben wir

Dear Rabbi:

Received your letter in reference to Paul and would say that I am afraid that he has been out of Sunday School too long to try to make up so that he will be Confirmed this coming year.

A year ago last March Paul had to quit Sunday School on account of having a very serious illness that kept him out for eleven weeks. After he was able to go back Mrs. Oppenheim made every effort to have Paul continue. She talked to your Mr. Bluhm and his decision was that the only way Paul could continue was to spend several days a week in making up his studies. We did not feel that he was physically able to do this considering his other school work, so the only thing for us to do was to have him discontinue his Sunday School work.

I appreciate your interest that you are taking at this time but I still think that your Mr. Bluhm was lax in taking the interest he should have taken at the time that this happened.

My kindest regards and wishing you a very enjoyable trip abroad, I remain

Sincerely yours,
