Dr. Abba Hillel Silver,
The Temple,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Abba:

Yesterday I received a letter from a Rabbi Hübacher, % Feigenbaum, 985 E. Boulevard, Cleveland, Ohio, asking me to help him in his straits. Dr. Philipson, who had been interested in this Rabbi, is not here as you know and Rabbi Heller is undertaking to raise some money for his return to Berlin where he wishes, I understand, to open a book stall.

I have gone about this morning and have collected $75.00 and shall probably be able to get about $100.00. Rabbi Heller is sending out some fifty letters and should raise much more than this amount -- possibly $250.00. Doubtless Rabbi Hübacher has come to see you. What I would like to know is whether or not Rabbi Hübacher intends to return to Berlin and if so, when? And furthermore, I am interested in knowing what the Cleveland rabbis have done, are doing, or will do for him. It certainly seems to be more Cleveland's responsibility than our own for the simple geographical reason that Rabbi Hübacher happens to be stranded in Cleveland.

I am writing this note because one of the gentlemen who gave me $25.00 for Rabbi Hübacher, Mr. Maurice Freiberg, believes this Rabbi to be a faker and suggests that no money be given him but that a passage be bought for him and he be placed on a ship to Germany. I do not believe this is fair to Rabbi Hübacher but I should like your own belief in his worthiness. No one knows better than I how hounded you are with work but please make an exception and find out what you can for me.

I shall look for a word from you in the near future. Many thanks.

With cordial greetings to yourself, your wife and Daniel Jeremiah,

Sincerely,

Victor Emanuel Reichert

My dear Mr. Hunterberg:

I have read your articles with great interest as they have appeared in the Christian Work and the American Israelite, dealing with a better understanding of the historical Jesus and the events which surrounded his last days on earth.

Your treatment of the crucifixion story with the valuable historical data there brought together to correct the long misunderstanding as to the guilt of the Jewish nation is to my mind particularly well done. I can most heartily recommend your message to ministers of the Christian Churches for presentation to Congregations and Forums and Men's Clubs. Your scholarly resources and effective presentation enable you to make a valuable contribution.

I have long felt that one of the most valuable lights that a Christian can gain is from the understanding and appreciation of the Jew of those stretches of history which we have in common.

Cordially yours,

My dear Rabbi:

This is the first opportunity I have had to write to you since the appearance of the report of your sermon on Jewish education, which you delivered to your congregation a week ago last Sunday, in reference to the failure of the campaign. I want to say that I was tremendously stirred by the reading of the report and that it was a wonderful effort.

I want you to know that I can appreciate the courage required to tell your congregation and the whole community what you did. It was something they needed for a long time.

Of all the many things that have been said in behalf of Jewish education in the last few years, this was the most stirring and the most effective. I could not let the occasion go by without sending you my reaction.

[Second Page Missing]

June 4th, 1928.

To whom it will concern:

This will introduce Mr. Emil H. Lehmann, of Frankfort am Main, who has come to this country at a great deal of inconvenience to himself, in the interest of the Shaare Zedek Hospital of Jerusalem.

The Shaare Zedek Hospital, is one of the oldest and best institutions in Palestine and enjoys an excellent reputation for the work that it has done in the Holy Land for more than a generation. It is the only hospital with a ward for contagious diseases.

This hospital used to draw its main support from our co-religionists in Germany. The War and its aftermath have reduced the value of that support to a minimum. Mr. Lehmann's father having been one of the founders of the Shaare Zedek Hospital, his son felt morally obliged not to forsake it in its difficulties, and so, he has brought the heavy sacrifice involved in the journey across the ocean and the separation from his family for several months, for the purpose of building up here an organization, a membership, an active committee to help the Shaare Zedek Hospital.

May I strongly urge your courtesy and assistance for the cause. Anything that you can possibly do to assist Mr. Lehmann in the

Thank you very much for your kind my tour along the coast. They suggested it and I fell in with their plans. I gave them a few have already definitely booked me for Los Angeles and that they are now in communication with Rabbi sure that they will get in touch with you. I shall of course be delighted to visit Portland

Dear Sir:-

I wonder, if, after having performed the wedding ceremony for a couple, you would take a hand in their affairs, when everything has gone wrong with them?

You married us on the 25th of January 1925, and on January 8, 1926 a wonderful baby came to us, and we were really happy, but last July my wife found that I had done something that she thought very wrong and she ordered me to leave her mother's home where we were living. Lately I have heard that my wife is thinking of divorce.

Rabbi, I knew and loved my wife fifteen years before she consented to be my wife. I love her now, very dearly, and our little girl too. I can not let them go, they are all and everything to me.

If you care to help us won't you ask my wife to tell you her story and then let me tell you mine. I think our troubles can be straightened out, but I believe that you are the only man who can do it.

It has not been an easy matter to make up my mind to annoy you with my troubles, and to assure you of my eternal gratefulness for anything you may do, does not begin to convey my feelings, but I can not better express myself.

Very sincerely yours,

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, D.D., 1485 East 106th Street,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Dr. Silver:-

Many, many, times since the World War have I thought of the remark you made to me in the summer of 1918 as we walked down the Champs-Élysées about the kind of a peace that would follow a peace with victory, no matter which side won. Those days with the Committee on Public Information brought me many visitors, but none that I remember more clearly than you. I have often heard of you since from Polly Lazaron. Every now and then I speak in Baltimore, and generally see Morris there.

You may know that I am the literary adviser of the Century Company, and that we have a large organization throughout the country for selling educational books. Most of our titles are suggested to definite people by us, and do not represent - as is commonly thought outside publishing circles - ~~books~~ books we have accepted from MSS. submitted to us. Being a writer myself, my interest in a business association with a publishing house, is in the opportunity it affords me to see my ideas worked out.

Now I have thought of a book for young readers, which is very much needed, and which we feel would have a great success. We think, too, that it should be written by a rabbi with a distinctive gift of simple English prose. The title of this book will be JEWISH WORLD CITIZENS, and its object is to acquaint young people with the life and work, placed in simple form before them, of outstanding characters who were Jews, and whose influence has made them world figures.

On an accompanying sheet I have placed a tentative table of contents. This could be changed, of course, by the author. It is simply suggestive. Each of the sketches should be about 4000 words, in round numbers. In the book each would be illustrated by a portrait of the subject - in the case of ancient heroes, a reproduction of some famous painting.

Would you undertake to do this book for us? We believe it would be most interesting and stimulating, if you would write it as you would talk about these characters to the children of your Sabbath School.

Faithfully yours,

G/R.

The Century Company will publish in 1929 a book for young folks of about 70,000 to 75,000 words, with illustrations, to be called:

JEWISH WORLD CITIZENS

The author chosen will, of course, select his heroes, but in order that an idea may be given of the kind of a book we have in mind, we suggest tentatively as the subjects:

1. Moses the Law Giver
2. David the Poet
3. Solomon the Sage
4. Isaiah the Prophet
5. Esther the Queen
6. Mary the Mother
7. Jesus the Teacher
8. ~~Rebekah~~ the Heroine of Chivalry
9. Copernicus the Astronomer ¹
10. Columbus the Explorer ²
11. Velasquez the Painter ¹
12. Spinoza the Philosopher
13. Mendelssohn the Composer
14. Rothchild the Financier
15. Heine the Humanist
16. Bernhardt the Actress
17. Disraeli the Statesman
18. Herzl the Revivalist
19. Einstein the Scientist

There might also be included some general (^{as} Maccab^{us}, for example), and some novelist or historian. There would be no rigidity about this list on the part of the publishers.

Of the older subjects the illustrations would be taken from famous statues or portraits.

Ratti Abba Hillel Silver -
The Temple - E 105th St -
Cleveland -

My dear Mr. Silver -

Notwithstanding the interment of my dear sister Lydia Gerson Kuster was scheduled for 2 P.M. Friday afternoon, we were told you set the time for the funeral at which you officiated for 2³⁰ P.M. This did not allow enough time between the two funerals, caused unnecessary confusion and made a mockery of a solemn occasion -

The chapel was crowded before our funeral party arrived. Some of the members of our immediate family stood during the entire time. Some part of the Mourner's benches were occupied by strangers - These people having no interest in our affair, except morbid curiosity, talked incessantly, while the Rabbi was saying prayers for the departed -

If your service had to be held at 2.³⁰ P.M., we could have changed ours for an hour, which would have obviated such an occurrence -

Rabbi Brickner hurried his remarks knowing the interval between the two services was short -

My sister Mrs. Harry Lork, a member of your congregation collapsed, partly due to the disgraceful disturbance.

We believe it is customary at the end of the Ratti's final prayer for the departed, for the members of the immediate family to have a few moments alone with the loved one who has gone, this was ~~ever~~ denied us.

It is our earnest desire that never again will a mix up like that take place, for it was nothing less than sacrilegious.

Yours very truly

My dear Miss Kaufman:-

Permit me to acknowledge receipt of your communication of June 10th. May I assure you that I had nothing to do with the setting of the time of Dr. Steuer's funeral at the cemetery on that day nor did I know of any other funeral on that day.

I was ill in bed from Tuesday until Friday and got up just in order to take charge of Dr. Steuer's funeral. I am very sorry that the confusion which must have inconvenienced you a great deal took place.

WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY
CLEVELAND

June 13, 1928

My dear Rabbi Silver:

First of all, congratulations upon your honorary degree tomorrow!

Your Secretary has doubtless told you that I have made a couple of efforts to see you. The object was to talk about George Lieberman, a student in Cleveland College, in whom I and others who have known him there are deeply interested. One day I asked the class he was in to write an emotional autobiography - or rather a sketches from their emotional life.
He kept me after class and told a tale of family life that makes a very deep appeal. The boy is high-minded and loyal and seems to me to have preserved his integrity - like Job - heroically.

WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY
CLEVELAND

Later he got hold of me again and asked, with tears in his eyes, whether the circumstances of his family life should deter him from hoping to become a rabbi. He seemed to have gained an impression that you, whom he greatly admires, feel that it should. This I can't quite believe, and I am writing to ask whether you would not care to send for the boy and give him such advice and comfort as you may think he needs. His address is 10001 Pierpont Avenue.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Rabbi Silver,

Three years ago I went to Europe, and I lost a year in Sunday school. When I returned, I was put back two years. Last year I worked hard and I did two years work in one. I am supposed to go into the confirmation class, and I am only going into the eighth grade

I know the work, and I would like to take a test, when I come back to Simple in the Fall. I am in Europe now, and I am studying the eighth grade work so I would like to take a test in Fall and go into the ninth grade.

My dear Herman:-

I have been thinking over the matter of my proposed membership in the Rotary Club of Cleveland. When you spoke to me about joining the organization I assumed that you were speaking of an honorary membership, such as I had in Wheeling. I do not feel warranted in spending fifty dollars a year for membership in an organization whose meetings I shall be able to attend but rarely.

Any contributions which I can make to this organization by way of addressing the body, etc. I am sure that I can make without being officially a member of the organization. There have been so many demands made upon me for worthy causes that I feel that I ought to re-trench a bit. However, I am ready to be guided by your judgment in the matter.

כבוד ירידנו הנכבד והנעלה הרב החכם, רב פעלים

לעמנו וארצנו, וגבאי נאמן למוסדנו.

רבי אבא הלל סי ל בר שליס"א.

בקליוולאנר.

רב זכבד !

לצערנו הגדול אחר הסעם מכחכנו לבוא, לפי קשרי החבה היחרה שנודעת לנו מכבודו למוסדנו, ולפי פעולותיו הגדולות שנעשו כמסירות מרובה בידי כבודו בעד מפעליו, צריך היה שחלופי המכתבים בינינו-ביתו באיכת המוסד-ובין מר, יהיו הרבה יותר קרובים.

אבל כאשר אמרנו רק "לצערנו הגדול אחר מכחכנו לבוא", אבל לא באשמתנו או כשביל שחשבנו שאנו יוצאים ידי חובתנו כשתיקתנו.

והסבה האמתית שבשביל אחר מכחכנו זה, היא רק כשביל שלא קבלנו מכבודו שום חסוכה על מכתבינו האחרונים, ואחרי שחכינו זה ירחים אחדים ואין מענה, אין אנו רשאים לחכות יותר, ותועלת מוסדנו דוחקת בנו לכתוב לכבודו טוב, ולהציע לפניו אח צערנו ולחצנו, ולדרוש עזרתו כיד ה"ה הטובה עליו וכרוחו הנדיבה והמסורה למוסדנו ולזקניו.

נחחיל בסוב, ונודיע לכבודו כי למרות כל המצוקה אשר תקפה את המוסד עור מטרם בואנו אל המוסד בתור גבאי, ולמרות כל התקונים שהבאנו כמסד מעט מעט והכנסנו מספר זקנים חדשים שגללו כחוצות ממס ולא יכולנו לדחותם בשום אופן, מה שהעלו כמעט את הוצאות המוסד, ולמרות שלעומת זה ההוצאה הולכת ופוחתת מסבות שונות, ולמרות כל זה הנה עלתה בידינו בע"ה להעמיד את התרן של הספינה המתנועת הזאת, ומושב זקנים המאוחד קיים ומתנהל בסדר ובמסדר, וכל יגיעתנו היא להחזיק מעמד לקיים את מאות הנפשות החוסים במוסד הזה שלא יגועו מרעב, ולהשתדל שהמוסד הזה אשר עמלו בו ידי נדיבים וכובדים עשרות שנים יתקיים ולא יפול תחתיו.

אבל ירידנו הנכבד ! מצטערים אנו בצער גדול להודיע לכבודו המשתתף בחלקנו בתור גבאי ודואג למוסד, שאנו נמצאים בצרה גדולה ר"ל, במעמדנו בתור גבאי המוסד בעת כזאת, הדוחק עלה למעלה ראש, וזה מספר ירחים שההכנסה הולכת ומעטה וירדה כאחוז גדול, הסבה העקרית חדה היא לבנו, אבל סבות אחרות ידועות לנו ומורגשת אלינו, והן : השמיעות על דבר מצבה הירוד של ארץ ישראל בכלל כחוגי היהודים באמריקא בכלל, שהספיעו לרעה על הנדיבים עם לחפש מומים ולהפסד מלחח לצדקוח ארץ ישראל בכלל, (ב) חוסר זקנים עשירים בעלי הון העולים בארץ שחיו סונים למוסדנו ונוחנים לו נדבותיו בתור מחאזרחים במוסד וכדומה, ועוד סבות אחרות.

ואם נפרנו לעזוב מקומנו ולפנותו לאחרים הנה מצב הענינים הוא כזה שאין מי שימלא מקומנו לפי שעה, ובגלל תנאים שונים שנמצא בהם מוסדנו, והתפטרותנו יכולה להביא הרס וחורבן ר"ל למוסד, ועל כן כל כמה שהיינו רוצים להתפטר מהעול הקשה הזה שהעמסנו עלינו, אין אנו יכולים ואין אבו רשאים אפילו לחשוב על זה כי את נפש המוסד אנו מסכנים במחשבתנו זו.

ורק זאת העצה היעוצה לנו, להתאמץ גם בשעה מרה זו, ולהתאזר במעוז וגבורה ובטחון כה" שיעזור לנו בזכות בונתנו הסוכה וכיוצא בזה, ובזכות הזקנים והזקנות, ואנו מודיעים בזה לכבודו את צערנו ואת מצבנו בדברים ברורים, כי אם לא נקבל בקרוב סכומים ידועים בתור עזרה מקרית להצלת מעמדנו היום, נפול חלילה חתח משאנו, וגדולה תהי" הצרה הזאת אשר תקרה את מוסדנו ותפגע קשה ביסודינו כלו.

ועל כבודו אשר התמחה כבר בתור רב פעלים ואשר הושיע לנו יד עזרה בראשית ימי עבודתנו במוסד הזה, לבוא לעזרתנו גם היום, ולהחזיק בידינו שלא נפול.

נא ונא יצא בקריאה בין חוג מכריו וידידיו הנאמנים מרמי המעלה הנדיבים והעשירים, ויאסוף כסכיל מוסדנו סכום הגון עד כדי שיהיה בו להציל את מוסדנו ולהספיק לו את צרכי כלכלתו, וגם להקל מעט את נטל החובות הקודמים.

אנו מקווים כי רבנינו היוצאים מן הלב יכנסו ללבו השחור, ולא יתמחמה מלהשיב לנו בדברי צרוד ובטחון, ומיד יגש לעבודתו במרצו הכביר ובכח הגדול

וה" ישפוט רוב שלום לו ולרעייתו ולבנם הנחמד, וכרכות מאות זקנים וברכתנו על ראשם תחלנה, בכל מכל כל כאות נפסם, ונפש מוקיריו ומכבדיו:

My dear Dr. Silver,

On account of Dr. Mel.'s removal to Am. I did not get hold of the June issue of Reflex before late this afternoon. When I was through your brilliant 100% = Amos 2:3, I rubbed my eyes: "is he also, like 9/10 of his brethren in the world, a big mouthed fakir, or does he mean it?" If so, for the Lord's sake, did you for full 5 years, stand aloof from this new-prophetic movement, answering not one of my scores or messages I wrote sent to you as well as your p. 21?

You know, my dear Dr. Silver, from what I told you, 6 years ago, in your early study, and from what I wrote you afterward, how sincerely
I advance your scholarship and oratory. You are wholly "pledged" $5000 for the Y.P. and never redeemed it; perhaps had no thought of ever lifting a finger for its redemption. Morally, both of you are my debtors. But all this was pushed into the background when I entered in correspondence with W. at the occasion of his splendid presidential message where he also was lifted by the spirit of truth. I hoped he will stick to his guns and become Religion of the a fighter in the ranks of the Proletariat, to which, you are able? ^{perhaps} ~~you are~~ is destined to replace the dry bones of yesterday's synagogal ecclesiasticalism.

Nothing doing...

And thus I am equally pushing backward the melancholy experience concerning yourself when I read that wonderful pt. of yours:
"... all religions at the first movement of the Well, Dr. Silver, 212 E. 11th St.
real enthusiasm inspired to you this master piece. But, to finish this last note, you misread the power of the 'Church': Rome is (spiritually) dead: Protestantism is dying; Islam is a dissolution, it is the synagogue's chance (and this is the essence of the whole American spirit) to become the receiver of these 3 stepdaughters of Monothemism, etc.

I sent you 50 copies of my "Collected Essays in Yiddish" to Chapin, sent to yourself. Give to Franklin, and to Thompson, and form a rabbinical Amen corner with the C.C. A.R. Cyrus Adler's Symposium on the work of Joseph Caro shows that our own "Rome" is already in her last throes: day is in the night; not yet in the night. Can't be,
I suppose? If you really believe in the truth of your life's philosophy, you fight your opponent: but you reform rabbis entered into a offensive and defense. Alliance with the and Revel's hands (Hobbes) in the hope to save the synagogue. If you do not free the opponents and offer you, you will sink all three, clutching each at the other's throat...

And now my dear Dr. Silver, you have the floor V. T. J.

Dear Friends:-

I should like to have you send me all the Hebrew books for children which you may have. Especially illustrated books. We are establishing a shelf of such juvenile Hebrew literature in our library and I am particularly anxious to get the newer children books which have in the last few years been published in Palestine and elsewhere.
I am not interested in grammars or dictionaries.

THE RIGHTS, PRIVILEGES, LIMITATIONS, PREFERENCES, VOTING POWERS, TERMS OF REDEMPTION, AND THE PROHIBITIONS, RESTRICTIONS AND QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTING AND OTHER RIGHTS AND POWERS OF THE PREFERRED STOCK AND COMMON STOCK WITHOUT NOMINAL OR PAR VALUE ARE AS FOLLOWS:

1. The holders of the preferred stock shall be entitled to receive out of the surplus or net profits of the corporation, when and as declared by the Board of Directors, dividends at the rate of six per cent. (6%) per annum, upon the par value thereof and no more, from March 15, 1928, payable quarterly on the fifteenth days of March, June, September and December in each year beginning with June 15, 1928. Such dividends on the preferred stock shall be paid before any dividends shall be paid upon, or in respect for, the shares of common stock without limitation of par value and shall be cumulative from March 15, 1928, so that if full cumulative dividends at the rate of six per cent. (6%) per annum shall not have been paid upon or declared and set apart for the preferred stock, the deficiency shall be fully paid or declared and set apart, but without interest, before any dividends shall be paid or declared upon the shares of common stock without limitation of par value. And if any surplus or net profits of the corporation remaining after full cumulative dividends on the preferred stock for all past years have been distributed, such shares shall have been paid and after so conclusively, with making payment of, in preference for, full dividends on the preferred stock for the current year, the dividends upon them and on other securities, so long as any of the preferred stock shall remain outstanding, dividends may be declared upon the shares of common stock without limitation of par value, provided that no dividend shall be declared or paid upon the shares of common stock without meeting in par value in or upon any other shares of stock of the corporation other than the preferred stock, if after the payment of any dividend the net worth assets of the corporation would be less than two-thirds of the aggregate par value of all the preferred stock at the time made and outstanding. The said surplus, net profits or assets of the corporation shall be the assets of such notes and amounts receivable, ordinary and preferred shares of the corporation and any subsidiary corporation or corporations of which more or less than twenty per cent. (20%) in interest of all the outstanding stock of all classes, over all liabilities of the corporation and such subsidiary corporations except bonds, notes or other indebtedness maturing more than one year after the date thereof, provided that shares of stock, bonds and other securities of any such subsidiary corporations shall not be includable in such assets.

(c) In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the corporation, or any reduction of its capital stock resulting in the distribution of any of its assets to its stockholders, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of the preferred stock shall be entitled before any of the assets of the corporation shall be distributed, except, in paid-up or in the holders of the shares of common stock without nominal or par value, in the paid-in full the par value of their shares, together with all unpaid dividends accrued on or in arrears on their cash shares, and an additional amount equal to five per cent (5%) of their par value. The holders of the shares of common stock without nominal or par value shall be entitled, in the extinction of all holders of the preferred stock, to share ratably in the assets of the corporation, except after payment of the par value of the preferred stock. If upon any liquidation, dissolution, winding up or reduction of the capital stock of the corporation, the assets distributable among the holders of the preferred stock shall be insufficient to permit payment in full to such holders of the preferential amounts provided, then the entire assets of the corporation to be distributed shall be distributed among such holders ratably in proportion to the full preferential amounts to which they are respectively entitled.

3. The preferred stock may be redeemed in whole or in part on any quarterly dividend payment date, at the election of the corporation expressed by resolution of the Board of Directors, at a price, known called the redemption price, in cash for each share of the preferred stock to be redeemed of one hundred five per cent. (105%) of the par value thereof and in addition thereon all unpaid dividends accrued or in arrears on such share. Notice of any proposed redemption of preferred stock shall be given by mailing a copy of such notice at least thirty (30) days before the date fixed for such redemption to the holders of record of the preferred stock, at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation, and shall be given in such other manner and form, and on such other terms and conditions as may be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors. It shall be the duty of all the outstanding shares as to be redeemed, such redemption may be made by lot or pro rata as may be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors. From and after the date fixed in any such notice as the date of redemption (unless default shall be made by the corporation in the payment of the redemption price), all dividends on the preferred stock thereby called for redemption shall cease to accrue and all rights of the holders thereof as stockholders of the corporation, except the right to receive the redemption price, shall cease and terminate. The corporation shall also have power from time to time to purchase for retirement, either at public or private sale, the whole or any part of the preferred stock upon the best terms reasonably obtainable, but to purchase by the corporation of shares of its preferred stock shall be made at a price in excess of said redemption price.

4. Without the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of two-thirds (2/3) in amount of the outstanding shares of the preferred stock, the corporation shall not:

- (c) change the preferences, rights or privileges of the preferred stock;
- (d) increase the authorized amount of the preferred stock or create, add or issue or be issued, or change or convert any shares of any class into, any additional shares of stock ranking as to dividends, assets or preferences prior to its a parity with the preferred stock;
- (e) mortgage or pledge or voluntarily create any lien on any of its property, real or personal, or provide any subsidiary corporation to mortgage or pledge or voluntarily create any lien on any of its property, real or personal, or issue, assume or guarantee any bonds or other obligations or incur any indebtedness or obligation that, alone or in combination with any other indebtedness or obligation that it or any subsidiary corporation shall assume or incur, shall prevent the corporation or any such subsidiary corporation, or either of them, from obtaining such vote or consent from (1) a majority of the independent directors or (2) the ordinary course of business maturing not more than one year after the date thereof. If necessary, measures subject to the foregoing and other laws, actions or such indebtedness.

the time of acquisition, (3) giving purchase money mortgages, and (4) issuing bonds or other obligations, secured or unsecured, to the aggregate principal amount of not more than $1,750,000 to refund the bonds of the corporation, dated June 1, 1927, maturing June 1, 1947, maturing on March 15, 1938, —

(d) disposed by sale, contribution, merger, lease or otherwise, of the property and business of the association as a whole or substantially as a whole

3. Except as otherwise required by the statutes of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and as herein otherwise provided, the holders of the shares of common stock without nominal or par value shall exclusively possess voting power for the election of directors and for all other purposes, and the holders of the preferred stock shall have no voting power except as above set forth; provided, however, that in case the corporation shall be in default in respect to the declaration and payment of full regular quarterly dividends on the preferred stock for three quarterly dividend periods, then and in every such case the holders of the preferred stock, until such default shall have been cured by the payment of all the dividends in arrears, shall have the right, voting as a class, to vote for and elect three directors. The whole number of directors shall be nine or less, at or at least one-third of the number of directors if the whole number shall exceed nine, at all meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors, and the holders of the shares of common stock without nominal or par value voting as a class shall elect the whole directorate at each such meeting; and as to any corporate action, in which the consent of stockholders is required, if all such power of the holders of the preferred stock voting separately as a class shall be required. If all such power of the holders of the preferred stock be required as aforesaid, then and thereupon all power of the holders of the preferred stock to vote as in this paragraph provided shall cease, subject, however, to being again required upon the occurrence of any event of the corporation in respect of three quarterly dividend periods in the here and pay the full dividends on the preferred stock. The holders of the preferred stock shall not be entitled to notice of any meeting of stockholders, except when they shall have the right to vote thereat as provided in this paragraph 3 and in paragraph 5 hereof.

Whenever the holders of the preferred stock shall become entitled to elect three or more directors of the corporation as above provided, a special meeting of the stockholders may be called by, or on the written request of, the holders of not less than ten per cent. (10%) in amount of the preferred stock at the time outstanding, to be held on not less than twenty (20) days notice given in the manner which shall be prescribed by law or by the by-laws of the corporation for giving notice of an annual meeting. At such special meeting, or in case such special meeting shall not be called and the default giving rise to such right of election shall not have been cured as aforesaid prior to the time of the next succeeding annual meeting of stockholders, then at such annual meeting, the terms of office of the members of the then Board of Directors of the corporation, upon the election of their successors, shall cease and the holders of record of the preferred stock, voting separately as a class, shall have the right to elect three or more members of the corporation, as the case may be, and the holders of record of the common stock without nominal or par value voting separately as a class, shall have the right to elect the remainder of the directors. At each meeting of the stockholders for the election of one or more directors held after any such special or annual meeting and until any such default shall have been cured as aforesaid, each director to be elected shall be elected by the holders of record at that time of the class of shares by the voting of which his predecessor was elected. Whenever the right of the holders of record of the preferred stock to elect directors of the corporation shall cease as hereinbefore provided, a special meeting of the stockholders may be called by, or on the written request of, the holders of not less than ten per cent. (10%) in amount of the common stock without nominal or par value at the time outstanding, to be held on not less than twenty (20) days notice given in the manner which shall be prescribed by law or by the by-laws of the corporation for giving notice of an annual meeting. At such special meeting, or in case such special meeting shall not be called, and no default entitling the holders in the preferred stock to elect directors shall have occurred prior to the time of the next succeeding annual meeting of stockholders, then at such annual meeting, the terms of office of the members of the then Board of Directors of the corporation, upon the election of their successors, shall cease and a new Board of Directors shall be elected by the holders of record of the common stock without nominal or par value.

6. The terms "dividends accrued or in arrears" and "full cumulative dividends" whenever used herein with reference to the preferred stock shall be deemed to mean the amount which will be equal to simple interest upon the par value thereof from March 13, 1938, to the date of computation at the rate of six per cent. (6%).

7. The preferred stockholders of the corporation shall have any preemptive or preferential right of subscription to any shares of any class of stock of the corporation, whether now or hereafter authorized, or to any obligations convertible into stock of the corporation, issued or sold, on any right of subscription to any class other than such, if any, and at such price as the Board of Directors, in its discretion, from time to time may determine, and the Board of Directors may issue stock of the corporation or obligations convertible into stock without offering such shares of stock, either in whole or in part, to the preferred stockholders of the corporation, and no holder of preferred stock of the corporation shall be entitled to any preemptive or preferential right to receive any of such shares or obligations issued or sold by the corporation. Should the Board of Directors offer to the preferred stockholders any shares of stock of any class, whether now or hereafter authorized, in any obligations convertible into shares of stock of any class, whether now or hereafter authorized, in any way constituting a waiver or release of the rights of the Board of Directors, authorized to dispose of other shares of stock or obligations convertible into shares of stock without offering the same to the preferred stockholders. The preemptive or preferred stock of the corporation shall be a waiver of every such preferential right which in the absence of this subscription might otherwise be asserted by the preferred stockholders of the corporation.

My dear Rabbi Silver;

Mother writes to me that you are anticipating a sojourn at San Diego sometime in the future. That is a delightful bit of news to me, since so few of the home folks are here just now.

I am a member of the editorial staff of the San Diego Union, the city's only morning paper, which occupies quite the same sort of a dictatorial breakfast-table position as the Plain Dealer. My contacts here have been, luckily and happily, fortunate, and I am also carrying on in the position of squib-writer and copy desk man on the Tijuana Herald, the Mexican metropolis' only newspaper. It is interesting work in both jobs. Tijuana, as you know, is a boisterous, blatant town, and it is a charming situation to be able to sit back in your chair and gaze out from a decent sort of job upon the hub-bub created by unsuppressed Yankees.

I have found many worthy companions in San Diego and am enjoying living here as well as anywhere I have settled.

I would be delighted to have a line from you informing me a bit about your trip and the approximate date of your arrival here.

Please convey my regards to Mrs. Silver, and to you, the friendliest salute.
