Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver 1485 E. 106th St. Cleveland, Ohio

Dear Rabbi:

I was assigned to make a speech and to give explanation and point out the fundamental purposes of Circumcision, and also the story about Peters' preaching at Antioch and trying to combine both the Jews and the Christians. This will be a twenty minute talk and I must have something impressive to talk about.

I have read some time ago, in the book on Exposition of the Bible in Volume V, Pages 456, 457, which explains something about same, but I could not get any points which would lead either side to an understanding.

I am willing to go to a minimum expense, if you will be kind enough to have some Public Stenographer make the Speech of which I can bring out the points of both sides, and still not cause any hard feelings or misunderstandings of either side.

As this is a Church of about 1000 Members, and I am sure that the bigger majority will be there for the day that I was assigned to speak, and while doing so, I want to know what I am talking about. So I am taking this privilege in asking you to help me prepare this speech for me.

I have heard you speak, and I have enjoyed every word that ever left your mouth, and as you being one of these artists, I ask you please to help me out in doing so, and I will be willing to pay any amount for your time and whatever expense that may occur in preparing same.

BUSINESS AND PROPERTY

The Federal Knitting Mills Company was originally established in 1905 as a copartnership. In 1906 it was incorporated with a capital of $50,000 and built up its business to the present size entirely out of earnings.

The Company manufactures sweaters for men, women and children and a large and varied line of knitted fabrics which are made into headwear, scarfs, mufflers, dresses and novelties. Practically all of the Company's products are wholesaled direct to jobbers and through its own agency in New York City.

Among its customers are: Sears, Roebuck & Co., Inc., Montgomery Ward & Co., Inc., Marshall Field & Co., Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., Inc., Chicago: Ely & Walker Dry Goods Co., Rice-Stix Dry Goods Co., St. Louis: Higginbotham, Bailey, Logan Co., Perkins Dry Goods Co., Dallas: Wm. R. Moore Dry Goods Co., Memphis: The American Wholesale Corporation, Baltimore: Fleischner, Mayer & Co., Portland, Oregon, and many others throughout the country.

The Company's plant, held under a favorable lease, is modern in every respect and is located on one of the main thoroughfares of Cleveland, at Detroit Avenue and West 29th Street. It contains approximately 125,000 square feet of floor space and fronts on three streets, assuring ample daylight which is essential to a manufacturing business of this kind. Both machinery and equipment are modern in every respect and in excellent condition, having been efficiently and continuously maintained. The land on which the plant is located includes sufficient unoccupied area for future expansion.

The company employs approximately 500 people.

The plant is protected throughout with a sprinkler system and ample fire, cyclone, sprinkler and use and occupancy insurance is carried.

Net earnings as shown above for the past eleven years, after allowance for dividends on the Preferred Stock outstanding, have averaged $199,644, or $6.14 per share on the No Par Common Stock. The Company's sales for the first six months of 1928 are in excess of the figure for the corresponding period of 1927 and at the rate they are operating, the net profits for this year should be considerably greater and in all probabilities a larger extra dividend declared at the close of the year.

DIVIDENDS

The No Par Common Stock pays a regular annual dividend of \$2.50 quarterly, February 1, May 1, August 1, November 1. Extra dividends paid February 1, 1928, $12\frac{1}{2}$ ¢, May 1, 1928, $12\frac{1}{2}$ ¢.

ASSETS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION

The Company's balance sheet as of December 31, 1927, as audited by Ernst and Ernst, is given herewith and shows net tangible assets, after deducting Preferred Stock and all reserves of $1,047,113, or $32 per share of Common Stock. Of this amount over $27 is in net quick assets. Current assets are $1,186,800, or more than 15 times current liabilities of $77,028.

MANAGEMENT

The management and control of the Company is in the hands of those men who founded the company and who have been responsible for its successful operation in the past. The officers and directors of the Company are: Mr. H. G. Goulder, Pres., Mr. L. C. Selden, Vice Pres., Mr. C. J. Hays, Secy., and Treas.; Mr. J. A. Zimmer and Mr. Charles D. Gentsch. Life insurance policies made payable to the Company, amounting to $300,000, are carried on the lives of those in whom the management is vested.

We recommend this stock as a good business man's risk.

At market (last sale 374) Listed Cleveland Stock Exchange.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Miss Rubenstein thought you might want to see the enclosed clipping, so I therefore (by her request) send it to you.

It was a real pleasure to see the large attendance at the first meeting of the Men's Club, and I hope that the season will be successful all the way through.

Mrs. Syman and I are starting on a little vacation trip through the East, and we will be back at the end of the month, when I hope we may have the pleasure of seeing Mrs. Silver and you.

With best wishes.

Gentlemen: -

We very much regret that the engraved Wedding Certificates recently sent to you showed a stain on the edges. We do not know how this occurred, but on looking through the stock we find that they are all marked in that way. It was probably done by the engraver in the process of his work. We are sending you today another lot of a somewhat different pattern, and trust that these will be satisfactory. If not, you may return as many of them as you wish and we will send you the others so soon as we can have a fresh lot engraved.

Hoping this is satisfactory, and regretting the incident, we are

My dear Rabbi Silver,

I take great pleasure in sending you under separate cover THE SOUL OF THE EAST by Marcus Ehrenpreis, whom you may know as the Grand Habbi of Sweden and one of the leading Jewish scholars on the Continent. This volume he has written might be termed a spiritual Baedeker; -- a book that should be of paramount interest to every Jew. He depicts vividly the Hebrew University, the new Falestine, Jerusalem, the workings of Zionism and many other subjects very near to the interests of the Jewish race throughout the world.

I hope that you will enjoy reading the book and would indeed be glad to know what you think of it. I hope, too, that you will be able to find in it material well worth bringing to the attention of your congregation.

Yours faithfully,

Rabbi A. H. Silver, Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Doctor Silver:

Many thanks for your very lovely letter. We were glad to have you and appreciated very much your presence. Never did a speaker before make such an impression upon our community. And of course the whole Jewish group gained immensely in dignity and self respect as the result of your visit. I am sorry that you were inconvenienced on your return, but glad that you arrived safely in spite of the wreck.

Your kindness leads me to impose on you once more. Sylvia Berman formerly of Fort Wayn,e was sent to Indiana University by our Council of Jewish Women. During her Freshman year there her family moved to Cleveland. I wanted the Council to give her a scholarship at Western Reserve but after considerable correspondence, my request was denied. She is most deserving and should be assisted in her desire for an education. Her father does not have the most enviable reputation but her mother is a very fine woman and the children are worthy of help. I wondered if you could in some way make it unnecessary for her to pay the large tuition that is demanded. I regret that I must trouble you with this matter but feel keenly her position and will appreciate anything that you might do.

Thanking you again for your visit and your letter and with kindest greetings to your family from all of us, I am

My dear Miss Kitner:-I would appreciate very much if you would send one of your staff to interview a Mrs. Ghara Aaronowitz, 140116 Kinsman Road. Mrs. Aaronowitz is employed and therefore can only be interviewed in the evening. Mrs. Aaronowitz was in to see me this morning and stated that she has been in the city about seven months, having come from St. Louis. She works in a factory. Two of the four children with her also work. She has two other children who are attending school. The combined income of the family, according to Mrs. Aaronowitz, is not sufficient to keep them supplied with the necessities of life. She does not wish charity but she would like to be put into a position where she would earn enough to support her family. She hails from Belgium, but before coming to the United States she was a few years in Mexico, where her husband died. I would appreciate very much if you would interest yourself in this woman. Dear Rabli Silver, Shave just received your letter in reference Tuesday afternoon. to my long-standing indebtedness to you. nothing would be more pleasing to me than the ability to send you the check right now. The truth is that Ilhave been living in a perelous condition since we left Cleveland - with almost literally nothing coming in till last December, when fotosted here at the Temple, and even now my salary is only one hundred dollars a week. Emmy back at public school teaching as a substitute, earning little enough. We just moved into our own apartment September first, having all this time lived with tunings folks. And today I got my statement from the bank showing a balance of less than forty Hollars. Iam reciting this not to easke sympathy, but to try to have you understand how near been of source, that is no reason why you should carry my buden. You have been uniformly kind, and Dam still hoping that I may be enabled to prove to you my real appreciation and regard for you. Whether I can now negotiate a loan here so that Imay make a further payment on my other Cleveland indebtednesses through Mr Neitz (Shave made some few payments at iregular cannot say - though law going to try as best can I am looking for additional work to sufflewent my palary here but that is difficult to find "The Reflex fuggled out, with Dr Thelamed still owing me money for my services. And just which way Jam to turn Icanot clearly see. However, Iam doing my best to live economically and Ishall send small sums as regularly as It pan to Mr Weitz and to you. If I can negotiate a fairly large loan here, I shall of course concentrate the indebtedness here. I wish scould persuade you To believe that Sam not stalling. Thave had my real taste of misery these last two years and only a fool would want to prolong it. Ishall write to you again in a very few days, and perhaps andemonstrate that fam in earnest. That my departure from the 1Emple and from Cleveland should have entailed such a complete severance of relations between us has caused me no end of pain. A year ago Josent you her year's greetings and a letter which were not acknowledged, if they were received I made an effort to see you when you addressed the Child Walfare Conference -at the Commodore about a year ago. and I sent a

My dear Dr. Silver:

You were good enough to write me in the summer that "Should you wish me to suggest to you the names of one or two men who in my judgment would do justice to the kind of a book which you have in mind, I would be very happy to do so."

I have not heard from you since then although I wrote immediately asking you to make the suggestions. The book we have in mind here is a very important one, and we want to get the best man possible to write it. In my letter to you I spoke of your brother-in-law, Morris S. Lazaron, who is a dear friend of mine. I had thought of suggesting the writing of this book to him, but it seemed that in justice to our idea, we should have competent advice, such as you so kindly offered to give us, before we approached any individual.

I do hope that you will be able to let me have soon the names you have in mind.

With cordial greetings, I am,

Faithfully yours,

FIRST JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

COMMITTEE ON CHARACTER AND FITNESS

ATTORNEYS AND OTHERS WHO MAKE AFFIDAVITS IN SUPPORT OF AP-PLICATIONS FOR ADMISSION TO THE BAR WILL GREATLY FACILITATE THE WORK OF THE COMMITTEE AND, THEREFORE, EXPEDITE ACTION UPON SUCH APPLICATIONS BY COMPLYING STRICTLY WITH THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS IN THE ORDER GIVEN BELOW.

Points to be covered in drawing affidavits of character.

- 1. Name of affiant.
- 2. Residence address of affiant.
- 3. Nature of affiant's business. (If affiant be a practising attorney, he should state that he is a practising attorney of the Supreme Court of the State of New York and give the year of his admission to the Bar and the Judicial Department in which he was admitted.) Any business connections of the affiant should also be set forth.
- 4. Business address of affiant.
- 5. Length of affiant's acquaintance with applicant.
- 6. That the applicant is to the knowledge (or in the opinion) of affiant a person of good moral character. At least two affidavits must be made by persons residing in the same city or town as the applicant, one of whom must be a practising attorney, and each of these affidavits must state that to the knowledge of the affiant the applicant is a person of good moral character. Rule III, Court of Appeals Rules for Admission to the Bar, so requires.
- 7. Set forth in detail the facts upon which affiant's knowledge of or opinion as to applicant's moral character is based. If, for example, the applicant has been employed by affiant or under his supervision, the period of employment with the month and year of the beginning and ending thereof and the nature of the position or positions held and services rendered by the applicant must be stated. If the acquaintance between the affiant and the applicant is of a social nature, the facts of social contact must be stated, as, for example, that the affiant has been a visitor in the applicant's home and is acquainted with his parents or other members of his family, or that the affiant has been associated with the applicant in specified organizations or otherwise and nature and extent of such association. If practicable, there should be two affidavits specifically covering the home life of applicant by persons who have been visitors in his home. Affidavits covering home life should characterize family and home environment.
- 8. Affiant must have read questionnaire and answers of applicant and state such fact and that to the best of his knowledge and belief the several answers of applicant are truthful and accurate.
- 9. State by whom the affidavit was prepared, and, if not prepared by the affiant, set forth the reasons why it was impracticable for the affiant to prepare it.

The foregoing instructions are intended to supplement the instruction sheet, and are to be given by applicants to those whom they request to make affidavits for them. Further copies, if needed, may be had upon application at the Committee's office, Appellate Division Court House, Madison Avenue and Twenty-fifth Street, New York City.

אל מע"כ ידידינו וידיד ציון, הרב הגדול רב פעלים לעמנו וארצנו, וגבאי נאמן למוסדנו מוה"ר

רבי אבא הלל סילבר שלים"א

בקליוולאנד .

רב נעלה ,-

אחר דרישתנו כשלומו וכשלום רעיתו הכבודה וכנם הנחמד הי"ו, ואחולינו הלבביים בשמנו וכשם זקני מוסדנו, באים אנחנו שוב בדברים אל מע"כ ואין אנו מתחשבים עם זה שעוד טרם נענינו על מכתבינו הקודמים, וביחוד על מכתכנו האחרון מיום י"ב תשרי החולף, אשר אמנם לא הי" בזמן עד כדי לקכל תשובתו על מכתבנו הנזכר .

> ומכתכנו זה מיוחד הנהו להזכיר את כבודו על חובתו או החתייבותו למוסדנו .

בחור גבאי המוסד ומנהליו אשר כל אחריותו הקשה מוטלת עלינו חובתנו הוא לעשות את כל מה שאפשר כדי להציל את מצב מוסדנו ואפילו לאחוז בדרכים-יגעים, ואולי קצת שלא מן הנמום, וחובתנו היא לזרז ולזרז את מע"כ לדבר מצוה זו הגדולה והק" אשר נטל עליו בכל כך אהבה ורצינות בימי ביקורו בארצנו ובמוסדנו, ובהכירנו היטב את טוב לבו, ואת מדת הרחמנות הגדולה אשר בקרבו, ידענו כי כל העכוב הזה שנראה בפרי עכודתו לשם מוסדנו, לא בא חלילה מפני שרְפה לבו מעל מוסדנו, או בשכיל שנער מעליו ברצון את העבודה הקדושה הזאת שהנה אמנם קשה מאד, וגם אולי איננה נעימה כל כך . אבל תולים אנו את שתיקתו רק בשביל טרדותיו המרובות בעניני כלליות אומחנו, אשר נוטל בהם חלק בראש, כידוע ומפורסם לכל .

אבל אין כל ספק אצלנו שאין מע"כ עצמו חפץ לפטור את עצמו מעבודתו בעד מוסדנו-שאמנם הנהו גם כן עולם חטוב בפני עצמו, וקיומם של מאות נפשות תלוים בו-מפני עבודתו הצבורית בענינים הכללים, המדיניים או הישוכיים של אומתנו .

ואם יש מקום בראש להניח שני תפילין, יש ויש למפעליו של יש אשכלות כמע"כ לאחוז בזה וגם בזה .

וכשידו האחת אוחזת ומסככת במעגל הכללי של אומתנו, ושל האנושיות .

תאחוז בא ידו השביה פמוסדנו שלא יפול תחתיו ח"ו .

ואין אנו צריכים לדבר כזה שוב אל מע"כ ע"ד מצב מומדנו בידעו היטב את כל פרטי פרטיו, ותמציתם ידוע לכבודו, שכל קיומו או רובלשל מוסדנו, תלוי ברוח, זאת אומרת ברוח נדיבה של תומכים ונדיבים זמניים ומקריים, באין לנו קרן קיים להחזקתו, וגם לא מעמד נכון ע"י משולחים וכדומה .

בזמן האחרון הורע מצב מוסדנו עד כדי לסכן את קיומו ח"ו ביחוד מפני שהתמיכה מארצות הכרית הולכת ומעשה, והתיסדות תפעדעריישענם כרוב הפַנְרוֹת הגדולות דוחקת את קבוץ השדרים האחדים שלנו שהיו מסוככים במדינות שונות אשר בארצות הכרית.

גם המשבר באמריקא והדלטוריא על ארץ ישראל בכלל מזיקים הרבה להפחית את ההכנסה .

הנה בימים האלה דפדפנו כחשכון השנה העברה וקראנו כספר זכרונותינו את הסכומים היפים הראשונים שקבלנו ממע"כ לפני שנה כעת הזאת, אלף דולר, ועוד אלף דולר אשר הצילו אז את מעמדנו במדה די חשוכה, ואין אנו מסופקים כלל כי גם הפעם יש לאל ידו לעשות בעד מוסדנו כאשר עשה בשנה העברה, ועוד כיתר שאת . כי ידענו את כשרונותיו ואת השפעתו הגדולה, וגם את טוב לכו ורחמנותו על זקנינו .

ועל כן יהיו דברינו הפעם מועטים, ורק נזכירהו בזה : אנא! יזכור נא! את חובתו והתחייבותו כלפי מוסדבו, וכלפי מאות זקנינו החוםים כו, ובתור גבאי נאמן ומסור יתמטר שוב למשך זמן ידוע לעבודת ההצלה של מוסדנו בעת צרתו .

יפנה נא אל אותם הנדיבים אשר נדבו כבר פעם על ידו, שישלחו לנו שוב את נדבתם, וימציא נא לנו תומכים ומספיעים חדשים .

יגש נא מע"כ אל העבודה הזאת וההצלחה בטח תאיר לו פנים , ועלה יעלה בידו-להציל את מוסדנו, והיה זה שכרו .

2 2 Mos 1

וברכות מאות זקני מוסדנו, על ראשו תחלנה .

כבוד ידידנו הנעלה הרב החכם רב פעלים לעמנו וארצנו וגבאי נאמן ומסור למוסדנו רבי אבא הלל סילבר שליט"א

קליבלאנד .

רב נכבד ומאד נעלה .-

קבלנו את מכתכו היקר מיום השלישי לספטמבר בצירוף הטשק על סך 50 דולאר נדבת האדון בנימן לוינשטיין מקליבלאנד למוסדנו, ושמחנו מאד על קבלת מכתב זה אחרי תקופות אחדות שעברו עלינו שלא שמענו בהם כלום ממע"כ ולא ראינו בהם את פרי עבודתו בשביל מוסדנו.

נוכחנו עכשיו,כי עדיין לא הסיח את דעתו ממוסדנו וקרוב הוא אל לבן, ומאמינים אנחנו כי כמונו כמוהו עדיין לא שכח את אחינו ואחיותינו הזקנים והזקנות ממוסדנו פה,ועדיין לא עומם אם אהכתו וחכתו למוסדנו אשר בערה בלכו בכל עוזה בימי בקרו את ארצנו ואת מוסדנו ואשר ראינו את פריה אחרי שוכו הביתה ועוררו שם את מכריו ומיודעיו לשלוח לנו נדבות יפות ומסוימות.

אנו תולים את רפיון עזרתו למוסדנו בחדשים האחרונים בגלל טרדותיו המרוכות לטובת הכלל,ואנו תפלה שיברכהו ה" ויצליחהו בכל מפעליו ויוכל לעבוד מתוך נחת וקורת רוח גם לעמנו בכלל,וגם למוסדנו בפרט אשר הראה לו חבה יתרה יוצאת מן הכלל, ואשר גם עיני המנהלים של המוסד הזה מופנות אל כבודו באופן יוצא מן הכלל בעינים כלות ומצפות לישועה בעת אר להם .

אנו שולחים היום שטר קבלה ותשובה ישר אל האדון בנימין לוינשטיין אל כחבתו,כמצוה עלינו במכתבו .

נשענים על טוכו וחסדו עם מוסדנו אנו פונים אל מע"כ גם בכקשתנו
זו: היות שבעירות רבות וגדולות באמריקא נוסדו פעדעריישענט המאספות
ומחלקות הצדקות בכללות ובהן אין רשות למשולחים או שדרים לאסוף
מיחידים ובא כחנו מוכרח לפנות רק להפעדעריישענט, והללו מנהלי
הפעדעריישענט הרחוקים מכאן ואינם יודעים בטיב המוסדות כאן אינם
יודעים להבדיל בין מוסד גדול לקטן ונכוןאו לא נכון וגם עפ"י רוב אלו
העומדים בראש הפעדעריישענט הם מהרבנים והעסקנים הנאורים והמודרנים
אשר איןלהם אמון במכתבים ושארי תעודות הבאות ישר מן המוסד או מן
הרבנים כאן, על כן הודיעו לנו בא כחנו משם שרק מכתב והמלצת מע"כ
יכול להטיב לנו בנדון זה, ונבקשהו על כן: (א) שימציא לנו מכתב כללי
ותעודה כללית לכל הפעדעריישענט בעירות אמריקא אשר יעיד בהם על צדקת
מוסדנו, גדלו וערכו הכביר וכי ראוי והגון להם להקציב בתקציבם השנתי

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

This is the time of year when we must assure our budget for the next year's work. As one of our regular contributors we are writing to you to ask whether we may have a renewal of your pledge of $100 for 1929?

We have just finished our investigation of candy factories in Cleveland on the basis of which we expect to publish a "white list" to guide consumers. We expect that the white list will be of real service in raising wages and improving conditions for the forkers.

This investigation is only one phase of the work which your contribution will help us to carry through.

Sincerely yours,

Dulia Raymond Finance Chairman

Hudson, Ohio-October 29th, 1928. Dear Rabbi Selver I am in rather desperate need of about five hundred dollars, and I am turning to yar, in the hope that you may be il a forition to loan it to me. For the time being I could arrange to pay you back in monthly install-ments of $2500. This, I realise is small, and would cover a period of some trocuty-two mouths; but I have every hope that I shall be able to pay let off in much shorter time. I believe I told you that ire are moving into a new location with om Tea Room project. Then we went into the business last tall, we rented the only available space, part of one of the old mansions in Hudson, Defficulties which did not appear on the surface soon presented themselves. The lighting anaugements were poor and we were from any The saintary equipment is abordinable and an antiquated heating apparatus and worn-out fireplaces Braight upon us very heavy expense for full in an effort to make the place comfortable for our guests. The owner of the property, a acini-professional roman, flatty re fused to make repairs, claiming the could not afford it &c. &c. This unforeseen kurden, coupled wette the initial expense of equipping the venture has made it a bit difficult to meet all our obligations, and they are now crowding his quite revisely. In the new location we shall have an entire house, on the main street steam-heated & well lighted, a fine garage and untimited parking space. In negotiating for the new place, me are dealing with business men and hope to have no meppected problems present themselves. Just before my illness last Fall, I contracted for the viving of our farm home In electric light. The work was fastly done when I found I was not going to be able to meet the expense and called it off for the time being. I am Leving unged to meet that obligation & have the work completed. There are many, many things juvolved in this appeal to you for help but

Dear Rabbi,

It just occurred It we that you way hore misseunderstood we It indicate that there was a possibility that I wight not finish the ochool year in the Vemple Kigh School. To clear that up, let me say that even if the contingency I my selection by the committee should hoppen, I would not leare until October 1929. In any went I shall be here this year & lend my effort toward making the High School a success. Kindly Hence my troubling you with these trivialities.

My dear friend:-

I have just received a notice with some tickets to the effect that you are to speak at the Motel Aster, Thursday Mvening, November 1st. I will make every effort to be there. Never-the-less I am sending you this letter so in case I do not see you, or something prevents my seeing you to-night, you may know that I think of you and wish you well, not only when I need your advise, but also when I speak of you during the year to my friends and collegues, often.

Had I known that you were going to be here, I would have arranged for a Mass Meeting in your behalf in my Temple, which would have benefited Jewry and my Congregation a great deal.

You are well known and much beloved, both in Newerk and here in the Suburbs.

Please bear us in mind when you come East again and let me know, so that I may make arrangements through our Brotherhood and other Jewish Organizations to have you in our Temple.

mishing you only the best, I remain

Dear Dr. Silver:

It has been delightful to have seen you and especially to have heard your inspiring speech last night. I certainly appreciate your noble and lofty thoughts and great mastery of words.

As to the bringing of my picture of the opening of the Hebrew University, to your city, I wonder whether you could arouse sufficient interest among your friends, so that this undertaking should pay me for all my trouble and expense. I could personally come to Cleveland with this picture of mine, together with a collection of other paintings of Jewish and general interest, including also my collection of portraits of famous contemporary Jews, and give lectures on the subject of my picture and also on Jewish art in general, with lantern slides.

Do you think $2000.00 could be raised in Cleveland for this purpose, in addition to finding madequate exhibition room. As you know, this exhibition should be of great educational and cultural value, as the painting of the opening of the Hebrew University is the first Jewish Historical picture. Perhaps different organizations as well as individuals would be willing to subscribe towards the cost involved, in view of the exceptional interest of this exhibition. Perhaps even entrance fees should be charged as it has been done everywhere over in Europe, and so part of the money would return to the promoters.

My dear Dr. Silver:

As an obscure, small-town Rabbi to a busy metropolitan Rabbi. I am writing to ask whether you could spare a few moments of your valuable time to do me a personal favor.

A young girl from our congregation doing secretarial work for a national concern, will in a week be transferred to its Cleveland office. So far as I know, she has no friends or acquaintances in that city. If you could, when she comes to see you, refer her to some individuals connected with your great Temple who would help her get acquainted a bit and would recommend a suitable room with a Jewish family, I should indeed appreciate your courtesy.

This young lady, Miss Nathlyn Molans by name, possesses an exceptionally fine personality, character, intelligence, ability, and intellect. She is, moreover, one of our few "star" Sunday School teachers, having a record of four years of exceptionally splendid work on the faculty of our Religious School. Her departure will be a distinct loss to our school, and I am at a loss as to how she can ever be replaced. I do not know the requirements for a teaching position in your Religious School, but I trust that Miss Molans will in due time be considered as a possible addition to your waiting list. What is Uniontown's loss would prove to be Cleveland's gain.

With kindest personal greetings, I am

Mrs. H.A.Fishel, 1870 East 101st Street, Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Mrs. Fishel:-

Your letter of September 30th requesting permission to place on your lot in Mayfield Cemetery a Monument larger than permitted by the Regulations established some years ago, was submitted to the Board of Governors at a special meeting held on Thursday November 1st and I am instructed to advise you that without changing the Regulation pertaining to size of monuments, the Board does not feel that it could grant you this special permission.

The Board Members while recognizing that the Monument would be placed in the center of an area covering all three lots and would not appear to be too large for such an area, nevertheless feel that they must have in mind the difficulty with which they would necessarily be confronted whould exception be made to an established regulation.

Furthermore it is their feeling that Lot Owners ought to lend their co-operation to the endeavors of the Board to maintain uniform beauty in the development of the Cemetery, by conforming to these rules rather than by requesting that exception be made to them. Regulations are made for the benefit of Lot Owners and only after long experience justifying their establishment. We trust that you will see the justice of our position and remain.

Dear Abba: -

How have you been, and the little family. including the Monarch of same - Jeremy?

Sol Cohen was up the house this week to talk over the subject of a proposed Twenty Fifth Anniversary Get-Together of the members of the Dr. Herzl Zion Club.

It is proposed to send out a circular letter to all the members asking them, firstly, whether they are in favor of holding such a Get-Together, and if so, what date next June or July is most convenient for them. Secondly, to ascertain their opinion about the Plan informally discussed by some of us several years ago, namely. to establish a fund, for the time being for the first experimental year only, of about $500.00, to which every one of the members shall contribute, say, $25.00, for the purpose of holding the two following events:

- 1 An Essay Contest, which will be open to all Jewish High School boys and girls on a subject or subjects of significant Jewish interest, the subject or subjects to be chosen by a Committee, to be appointed at our next proposed Get-Together. The first, second, and third winners of the essays submitted are to receive cash prizes of say, $100., $75.00., and $50.00 respectively.
- 2 An Orotorical Contest, to be held, say on the Hanukkah week of 1929, open also to all Jewish High School boys and girls, offering similar cash prizes; the subject of the orations also to be decided upon by a Committee, which will receive all the orations submitted and choose, say, the six most deserving, the authors of which will be called upon to deliver their orations on the evening decided upon for the Oratorical Contest Mass meeting to be held in some suitable place in New York City.

At this massmeeting, the winners of the Essay Prizes will also be announced.

The proposed circular letter will also inquire whether our members are ready to pledge the needed contributions for these our first experimental contests; also, what other and perhaps different plans they may have and care to suggest to properly and significantly (for our Cause) celebrate the 25th Anniversary of the first junior Zionist Hebrew-speaking club in America.

Please advise me as soon as possible what you think of the above, and what your suggestions are as to the circularizing of our members on the proposed Get-Together.

With fond regards to yourself, Virginia and Jeremy in which Jane and the children join in,

I am.

THE CLEVELAND WELSH MALE CHORUS HEADQUARTERS, WINTON HOTEL CLEVELAND, OHIO

November 10th, 1928.

Rabbi A. H. Silver, 10311 Lakeshore Blvd., Gleveland, Ohio.

Dear Rabbi Silver; -

In accordance with your conversation with our Mr. Jonathon George, regarding a contribution to aid the Cleveland Welsh Male Chorus in their expenses to the National Competition at Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

The Chorus has borrowed enough money in addition to what was received in contribution. The men in the chorus are from all walks of life and some are unable to meet any financial obligation hence our reason for asking for small contibutions to aid such men. We believe that our chorus is one of the best in the city and we would be only too glad to have an opportunity to be of service to you. We sang for the Temples Mens Club and it was a pleasure and we will be only too glad to assist the Club in such another meeting.

Thanking you very much for the consideration you have shown the Chorus, and small pledge would certainly be more than appreciated.

yery truly yours,

CIEVELAnd WEISH MAIE CHORUS.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

Having a Sunday free of pulpit duties, it was my great pleasure to worship with you today and to hear your splendid message. I already had been at the Euclid Ave. Temple, but as a stranger here had not progressed as far as yours.

As a pastor at Champaign-Urbana, Ill., it was my pleasure to volunteer a contribution of the building of the mebrew synagogue, and at Lincoln, Nebr., I enjoyed exchanging pulpits with my friend, Rabbi Starrels, who gave me one of your service books, which I love and shall make use of in my future ministry.

It has occurred to me that possibly in some emergency you might make use of me to preach in your pulpit, and I therefore enclose a memorandum which would enable you in that case to know who I am and how I could be reached.

I write for practically all the Christian denominations, including the Catholic, which does not seem to me nearly so close to my own views of spiritual religion as your faith, and this year I am going to see if the American Hebrew, which I suppose to be the best journal to approach, will not publish some of my stuff.

The sermon which you preached this morning is identical in faith and spirit with a good number which I have been giving to my people through the years, and it was with delight that I listened to your masterful presentation.

Wishing you continued and increasing success in your work, I remain

Most sincerely yours,

May dear Dr. Silver:

Three months ago Rabbi Kasher, who visited our country on behalf of the monumentallencyclopedia on the Bible, Torah Shelemah, left our country for Palestine to proceed with the publication of the second and third volumes. There is little need for us to expound to you, who have met Rabbi Kasher personally and discussed the undertaking with him, the vast importance of his contribution to Jewish scholarship. Yet, despite its value, lack of funds threaten its publication.

Nov. 15, 1928.

On several occasions, you have promised Rabbi Kasher to aid him in this undertaking. We are most conscious of the distressing conditions in the Rabbinate in this country, but we beseech you most earnestly not to let such minor causes threaten the success of our cause.

The sum required to publish the entire encyclopedia is fifty thousand dollars; indeed it is a paltry sum considering the wealth of the Jewish laymen to whom you have access. Will you not exert once more every effort to raise a goodly portion of this quota:

It is very essential that Rabbi Kasher's work be uninterrupted, as the undertaking is so enormous and one man alone is performing it. A poor response now will necessitate another trip on the part of Rabbi Kasher to America for funds. Every loss of time may mean an irreparable loss to the work. It is your duty, having pledged your support and having expressed your conviction as to the importance of the work to raise new funds.

With sincerest wishes, I remain

Very truly yours,

Nov. 15th, 1928. Mr. Herbert Adams Gibbons, The Century Co., 353 Fourth Ave., New York, N. Y. My dear Mr. Gibbons:-I must again beg pardon for delaying the acknowledgment of your kind letter of October 16th. I have been traveling a good bit of the time and my mail has accumulated. I know of no one better qualified to write the book you contemplate than Rabbi Lazaron of Baltimore. He has been working with young people. my dear Rubbi Silver.

as a matter of information, I should like to know what the Jewish people of today expect in the promised messiah and in what respects Jesus the Christ failed to meet these expectations. Is there anything that actually look place since the birth of Jesus Christ that you can say was a renewal of the promise first made to adamand Eve, to abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, concerning the coming of a Savior of the world?

It seems to me that Jesus so completely and so wonderfully fulfilled all the ald Testament propheries concerning the promised messiah and is so satisfying a Lord and Savior that I can not understand his ren jection by your people. I am not a religious Janatic I am of Cleveland. I have given this matter a great deal of thought and I should greatly appreciate your granting me an interview for discussing these problems, is that is possible, or your writing me if you prefer that. May I telephone you next Sunday afternoon to try to make an appointment for some time next week? My telephone number is Lake-wood 5570 R. Sincerely yours (miss) Clara C. Dowler

Nov. 22d,1928. Mr. L. Pilichowsky, Hotel Manhattan Square, 50 West 77th St., New York, N. Y. My dear Mr. Pilichowsky:-Please pardon the delay in answering your kind letter of Nov. 2d. I have been out of the city a good deal of the time. I am afraid that it would not be possible to raise $2000. in Cleveland to under-write your exhibition. We have made such attempts in previous years whenever we have had art exhibits and with no success. If you came to Cleveland you would have to assume all expenses. The best that we would be able to do would be to provide a proper exhibition hall, to give you all necessary publicity, and to try to interest people in your paintings.

You might be able to sell some of your work here or to obtain commissions of portraits. The latter is of course indefinite. Should you care to come under these terms, I would do my utmost to make your exhibition here a success.

Dr. John Andrew Holmes, 15011 Hilliard Rd., Lakewood, Ohio.

My dear Dr. Holmes:-

Permit me to thank you for your kind letter of Nov. 11th and for the memorandum which you enclosed. I have read both with a great deal of interest. Should the occasion present itself I shall be very happy to invite you to address my people.

I hope that I may have the pleasure of seeing you before long.

Doctor John Andrew Holmes was born on a farm near Fayette, Iowa, August 23, 1874. He attended district school and worked on the farm alternately until ready for college. He attended college, farmed, sold books taught district school, as circumstances determined, from the age of 13 until his graduation at 20. He especially excelled in mathematics. He won the college oratorical contest and represented Upper Iowa University in the state intercollegiate oratorical contest in his senior year. He graduated as class orator.

The summer of his graduation he travelled in Europe, and upon his return repaid the money borrowed for that purpose by delivering a lecture on his very limited experience abroad. The next five years were spent respectively traveling for a tailoring house, in Garrett Biblical Institute, in Yale Divinity School, in a home mission parish and in Andover Theological Seminary.

His degrees are Bachelor of Science, Master of Arts, Bachelor of Divinity and Doctor of Divinity.

His pastorates have been with the church at Toledo, lowa, West Side Church, Pasadena, California, First, Champaign-Urbana, Ill., First and First-Plymouth, Lincoln, Nebr. The last-named was a church of more than 1200 regular members in addition to a large student affiliate membership, at the time of his resignation.

The Congregational Year-Book shows an almost continuously large growth of all his churches in membership and benevolences. He has received upwards of 1100 persons into church membership, plus hundreds of affiliate student members, statistics of which are not given in the Year-Book. He has had an increasing attendance at services throughout his ministry to date, during the last two years of his pastorate in Lincoln crowding his church. During the same period he received more than 230 regular members.

At the close of his ten-year ministry at Champaign-Urbana, his fellowpastors held a union meeting in his honor, at which tributes were paid to his good influence upon the town and the University. Resolutions were passed by the officers of the of the state conference, as well as by those of the local church urging him to remain longer, and $800 a year additional salary was offered him.

In his seventh year at Lincoln, a union of First and Plymouth churches was effected, at which time Dr. Holmes wrote his resignation, in order not to embarrass the project, but owing to the unwillingness of his church to enter the union without him, he was induced to withdraw it. Two years later, he again prepared his resignation, but withdraw it at the solicitation of the Boards of Trustees and Deacons. Ten months later he brought his pastorate to a close.

A largely-attended "Civic Tribute Dinner" was given filling the largest dining room of the Hotel Lincoln, on the occasion of the 25th anniversary of his ordination to the ministry, at which time addresses were given by the Chancellor of the State University, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Courti-a Chatholic---the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, the Editor of the American Educational Digest, and presidents of civic clubs, praising his work as minister and citizen.

The same year, the sum of $3.000 was presented to him by Lincoln citizen to enable him and his family to make a journey to the Holy Land.

All his churches have voluntarily testified to the success of his work and to his Christian character in resolutions adopted at the close of his respective pastorates.

During his first pastorate, Nev. Holmes founded the Central Iowa Chautauqua Assembly, which has done a fine work for 25 years, and for a number of years lectured more or less for such lyceum bureaus as the Slayton, Blanchard-Venter and Midland. During most of his ministry, however, he has confined his work to his church and the general work of the churches.

Ongregational Church, was Moderator of the State Conference of Illinois, has served as Director of the Extension Societies, was Secretary of the Commission on Missions and was a speaker at the International Council of 1920. The last two years he has been a Contributing Editor of the Congregationalist, and a member of the Committee of 100 American Clergymen on Church Publicity.

Many of his sermons have been published singly and in groups by his Church in Lincoln. Nebr. The Filgrim Tress of Boston published his "Prodigal Son Ten Years Later" in 1917, and again in 1919. "Wisdom in Small Doses"was put cut by the University Fublishing Co., of New York and Chicago in 1927. This book has met with unanimous and high praise from the press and has been called "the most aquetable book of the year."

ments, "The Paster Says" and "When Sunday Comes." have come out of his pulpit work. These two departments have been running for eight years in papers secular and religious, in nearly all the leading Protestant denominations and in one Roman Catholic paper, in all the principal American cities and in London. A publisher has done some of his proverbs into gift cards, and many of them are freely used in all denominations in church calendars and on bulletin boards. A motion picture corporation has filmed some of them.

college graduate and very gracious woman, who has done as much as he to make his work succeed. They have one child, Nathryn June, 16 years of age.

During a Sabbatical year which he has been enjoying for writing, study, travel and rest in preparation for his second quarter of a century of pastoral work. Dr. Holmes has acted as stated supply at First Church, Detroit, Mich., the "Rockefeller Church" at Ormand Beach, Fla.; and his old church at Champaign-Urbana, where he also acted as Director of the Pilgrim Foundation, his salary being $500.00 a month and a residence.

Committees desiring stated supply work may inquire about him of any Congregational leader in the country. Those we wish to learn at Circt hand of his character, preaching ability and pastoral work may write to any of the eighty men and women in the Lincoln, Nebr., list in Who's Who in America. In any recent issue of that work further particulars of his life may be found.

For twenty years he has preached to large state university constituencies. and among the members of his congregations have been such people as the present Chancellor, Dr. Edgar A Burnett and the previous Chancellor (now made Chancellor Emeritue), Dr. Samuel Avery, Professor Fred M. Fling, Prof. Alice H. Hinman, Prof. Adeline Reynoldson, all of Lincoln, Nebr., and President David Kinley, Provost and Dean Kendric C. Babcock, Vice-President (now Emeritus) Eugene Davenport, Dean R. J. Townsend, Professors H. L. Bogart, A. H. ybyer and H. F. Moore all of Champaign-Urbana, Ill. Inquiries may be made of any of these persons.

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver The Temple Cleveland, Ohio

Dear Abba:

This morning's mail brings me the letter you wrote to Herbert Adams Gibbons in which you suggest to him that I write a book. There was no information, however, as to just what sort of book Gibbons contemplated. I have not heard from him but probably shall, as I know him very well. Until I know what you suggested that I do, I hardly know whether to kick you or to kiss you.

This note is to ask further information to satisfy a natural curionity, whether anything comes of it or not.

Polly joins me in love to you all.

Ever faithfully yours,

Rabbi Morris Lazaron, Pikeville, Baltimore, Md.

My dear Morris:

Early in the summer I had an idea for a book, to be called "Jewish World Citizens". The Century Co. agreed that this book would be worth publishing, and commissioned me to find the man to do it. Of course, I had you in mind, but for the very reason that you were a friend of mine, I felt that I ought to get an expression of opinion from a competent outside authority.

I wrote to Dr. Silver, of Cleveland, and he was very dilatory in his response, first of all because it was summer and he was away, and then because he was traveling in the autumn.

I, too, have been lecturing in the West. On returning this week, I find on my desk a letter from Dr. Silver, of November 15, in which he states that "I know of no one better qualified to write the book you contemplate than Rabbi Lazaron."

Now I am delighted to have this letter, and I want to get in touch with you very soon to talk this matter over with you.

I am going to be lecturing all next week, and will end up at Washington on Friday and Saturday at the War College. Then I go to North Carolina for a couple of days, and I am scheduled for Thursday evening, December 6, at the Kallah in Wilmington. From Washington next Friday I shall call up your office, and we shall endeavor to get together.

It must be soon, however, because I am going to sail for Paris to join my family in a few weeks. I do so much want to see you and Polly and the children.

Faithfully your friend,

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

The other day when I paid you a visit you were kind enough to ask me for some literature in connection with the Judea Life Insurance Company. I only had a few copies of the last annual report which were distributed to a number of business men in the city, who made substantial investments. I am enclosing herewith a letter to an inquirer from the actuary of the department of banking and insurance of the Commonwealth Of Massachussetts. I shall be glad within the next few weeks to mail you the annual report which is to be presented to the stock holders and to the policy holders of the Judea Life December 16th.

I am writing to you, not for the purpose of soliciting business, but I am building up a Jewish clientele for the company which I am representing here. This is the first and only Jewish insurance company in the world, and I have no doubt that many people may make inquiries of you about the standing and reliability of this corporation.

I have made many attempts to reach you but was unsuccessful and I therefor took this means of communicating with you.

Cordial regards.

Sincerely yours,

Re: Julius Prince

My dear Miss Rothenberg:

We have had intermittent contact with Mr. Prince since May 1927, when a letter, which he had written to Mr. Collacott, was referred to us through the Community Fund. At that time, Mr. Prince asked Mr. Collacott's assistance. He was at the National Jewish Hospital in Denver, which is a hospital for consumptive patients. From that institution, we had the following communication in answer to our letter asking for information:

"Mr. Julius Prince is not in need of money. He has written to numerous prominent Jews in the country asking them for financial support, believing in the "law-of-average". He is a typical "chronic Shnorrer". I have given him yesterday the last warning that he will be discharged within twenty-four hours, if he does not change his attitude. His home town is Youngstown, Ohio. " (signed - Felix Baum, Medical Director)

Later in May 1927, Mr. Prince applied to our organization for assistance in returning to Denver. Since his family had come to this city only nine months previously, his application was referred to Youngstown. However, Mr. Prince received medical and psychiatric treatment in Cleveland through our agency. We learned from Youngstown that he was well-known to the Allied Council of that city, having been sent to Denver by the B'nai B'rith of Youngstown. According to the Allied Council, Mr. Prince was expelled from the National Jewish Hospital because of mis-conduct and dishonesty. However, we have not verified this statement. The Re: Julius Prince --- 2 November 28, 1928.

Allied Council also informed us that he was discharged from the hospital as cured. It was felt by the Executive Board of the Jewish Social Service Bureau of Youngstown, that there was little possibility of getting Mr. Prince back to Denver because his behavior, while there, was very questionable. Otherwise, he would have been sent to the Ex-Patient's Home, as is customary after a patient is discharged from the hospital.

For a period of several weeks, after his application to our organization, Mr. Prince was apparently in fairly good health and worked. When he ceased to improve, arrangements were made with Youngstown, which resulted in his placement in a tuberculosis sanitorium there in October 1927. He remained in the sanitorium until about January of this year, when he returned to Cleveland, claiming that he had been discharged from the sanitorium and advised by the doctor that he might do light work. At that time, Mr. Prince felt quite confident that he could take care of himself in the matter of finding work, and asked for no assistance of this organization. We wrote Youngstown for a medical report, but the reply that we received was quite unsatisfactory, as it did not state his physical condition.

We are unacquainted with the means by which Mr. Prince returned to Denver. However, we will be glad to refer Mr. Prince's letter to the Youngstown agency. We are sending them a copy of his letter, and they will, undoubtedly, take the proper steps to insure Mr. Prince's care in the Ex-Patient's Home, if necessary.

We trust that this information will prove satisfactory.

We assure you of our willingness to be of further assistance, if possible.

Very sincerely yours,

The Funeral Service

REV. D. EARL DANIEL

One noticeable thing about the funeral of today is the art of it. Even in the brief span of my ministry I have noticed the skill and art acquired by the undertakers. They are using all their knowledge and common sense to make this last rite as easy as possible for the relatives and friends. know how to please every whim and taste of their patrons. In the city, at least, we no longer know what a "Rough Box" or The fresh earth is covered grave is like. with artificial grass and the grave is lined with cloth and flowers. A tent covers the space about the grave, a carpet is laid to the roadway, while an automatic lowering device does away with the crudeness of ropes.

While the undertaker has made marvelous progress in his art, the service of the minister remains as it was thirty years ago with a long eulogy and preachment. From the opening creak of the broken music to the final, "It hath pleased Almighty God," the service is a misery to be endured rather than a blessing to be remembered.

In order to make the service as helpful as possible, I have been guided by the following rules:

1. Do not eulogize, except for a person in public life, but a brief reference may be made by way of illustration or application of the sermon. The eulogy makes the loss more keen, the purpose of the service is to ease the pain and heal the hurt.

2. Be brief. Twenty to thirty minutes is sufficient for the entire service. Under no circumstance should it be more than forty minutes in length, unless it be the funeral of a public official or very prominent person. Twenty minutes at a funeral seems longer than an hour at any other occasion.

3. Do not make excuses for the shortcomings of the dead. Their friends do not need it and their enemies will not believe it.

4. Do not have music except on rare occasions unless it is a funeral march. Read the hymns, but read them with understanding.

5. A funeral is no time for evangelism or to take shots at unwilling listeners but a positive statement of one's faith, hope, assurance and comfort or kindred topics will do good to the unbeliever as well as the believer.

6. Do not say, "It hath pleased Almighty God" unless it is at the funeral of a very aged person. It is a slander on the character of God to intimate that God takes pleasure in premature deaths or that He has a hand in disease, accidents and suicides. Certainly the vice and ignorance of man is no pleasure to God.

7. Use a choice bit of truth or verse at the grave. After I had used the following verses at the conclusion of a committal service for a young woman who died of tuberculosis, a friend of hers said, "I never saw a coffin lowered into the earth but what I had a great dread and horror of it, but today it was so beautiful and such a comfort." Here are the verses by Watts.

"Unveil thy bosom, faithful tomb;
Take this new treasure to thy trust,
And give these sacred relics room
Awhile to slumber in the dust.

"Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear Invade thy bounds; no mortal woes Can reach the peaceful sleeper here, While angels watch the soft repose."

8. My most successful innovation is the preparation of a memorial booklet in which I make a typewritten record of the funeral service, which is presented to the family within a week after the service. I always deliver it in person, as it gives me a good excuse for making a pastoral call when it is most needed.

A young lady typist has volunteered to do the typing as part of her service to the church. A local printer cut 100 sheets of Frost Gray Rhododendron cover paper, which when folded makes a folder 6 x 9 inches. Inside of this I place two slightly smaller sized sheets of Sage Castillian cover paper upon which is written the record of the service. The whole is bound with a silver gray silk cord through two holes near the edge. This paper has appealed to me as being best and most suitable. The material for each book costs me about 18 cents in quantities of 100.

On the title page I place the name of the deceased with the name of the preacher and his church and the time and place of the service and interment. This is evenly spaced to fill the page. The second page contains the text, scripture references, and names of the hymns used. Following this page the sermon is written on single spaced lines. When the preacher has something worthwhile to say and has the ability and skill to write it briefly and well, this is an excellent memorial for the friends to keep.

Thanksgiving

OW unfortunate it frequently is that appreciation of life's blessings is left to ripen with the years. How much we miss of life's beauties because we are too near them in passing and require the perspective which comes alone with the years.

Now that these years, for some inexplainable reason, go flashing by with unbelievable rapidity, there comes a new and more full understanding and appreciation of the fact that while Thanksgiving is celebrated as a day out of the twelve-month span, every day should be a day of thanksgiving, if it is not in truth.

Following that line of thought, my mind runs back to those not-too-distant days when the carefully-colored picture of a bronzed gobbler stalking sedately through a snow-covered pine wood, which had been drawn upon the blackboard during our overnight absence from the school room, added the final and necessary touch and put a new ardor into the lusty, if somewhat immaturely voiced songsters as they sang, at the close of the exercises, "Over the river and through the woods, to Grandfather's house we go."

With the end of the program, there was a noisy rush for the cloakroom and thence to the corridor, where lay, closely resting row upon row, thanksgiving baskets, filled with both staple and fancy foodstuffs of every description, brought by the youngsters and now to be distributed by them in the outlying, poorer sections of a northern city.

Bob-sleds drew into the snow-covered school yard and with the first sound of bells, the work of carrying the baskets out began. Not until the last basket was placed and the teacher that supervised each load had seen her tiny helpers tucked in for the long, cold ride, did the first team start, to be followed by the four or five usually required to carry the load.

All through the short afternoon, and well into the early winter twilight, the horses fought the heavy, drifting snows, while the drivers, often accompanied by the little folk, would get out and walking awkwardly on cold feet, would swing their arms and jump to stimulate a cold-retarded circulation.

In many a place of humble abode was want felt cruelly. Humble cottage and shack were visited and made thankful by thanksgiving gifts most needed, food and fuel.

Those were good days, to which my mind reverts. Good then, yes, but seemingly better now. Time has added her precious gift. I sometimes wonder if the huge joy of those trips was due to the zest of a long, biting, winter drive, the exuberant heart and spirit of the child, the happiness born of another's happiness to which one may have added a mite, or to a combination of these and other factors. I suppose maturity has added new luster to the colors, yet I know those days and those experiences were good beyond acclaim and I have an idea that they were so good because, whether we were conscious of it or not, the fact was and yet remains that he who would appreciate the fullest thanksgiving blessings must make thanksgiving a two-fold proposition. In these more recent days we are so prone to lose sight of this fact that I venture here to remind you that a real thanksgiving, to be worthy must be thanks-giving plus thanks-giving.

Sharing the Highway

JUST where that crowd came from, I shall never know, yet, even before I had made certain that the blessed companion in the seat at my right was uninjured, the crowd was there and gentle hands were lifting her through the door they had opened in the over-turned brougham, which without proper or complete announcement, left the rain-soaked highway, skidded along on its battered side in the ditch and came to a full stop where it buried its headlights in the oozing bank on the far side of the ditch.

It was one of those things for which there was no reason. Certainly there was no justification or excuse. True the cement was wet and slippery, yet the car had been rolling along moderately and modestly. There were many other cars gingerly picking their way along with it. There had been ample room for all. All idea of attempt to set a new speed record on a wet road, had it entertained any such idea, which would have been most unusual, had been quite effectively discounted and minimized by cautionary signs along the way. Yet it had not been wholly content to amble aimlessly along in the fumes of the car ahead, whose youthful occupants, for the nonce, seemed more intent upon each other than aught else. Being a proper car, it had signalled its intent to pass the car ahead, which incidentally was a visitor in the state, and therefore was forgiven for its insufficient knowledge concerning the road-laws of Ohio, as evidenced by its unseemly behavior.

Having signalled its intent, the brougham started to pass the visiting car, which suddenly became imbued with the idea that it had been issued a challenge—today's way of a man with a maid, and instantly surged ahead, just keeping pace with the car desiring to pass.

Now it so happened, the paint job being called on account of rain, the painters had piled their ladders and planks and cans upon their vari-colored truck, mounted the front seat and set out upon their homeward trek, none too sweetly dispositioned. It was most unfortunate for all three that the painter's truck, the peaceful brougham and the honeymoon sedan, upon so narrow a roadway and upon so rainy a day, should have met at one and the same place at one and the same time.

Lying in comparative comfort, yet a mite dishevelled, on a well-skinned elbow, snuggled down beside our own reclining chariot, lay the jealous sedan, through whose upturned door, were drawn, by solicitous hands and kindly, two, who like the occupants of the brougham, found their greatest shock to have centered upon their wallets.

Eventually the cars were untangled, replaced upon their wheels, and limping along stiffly, continued their way, a bit wiser for their experience, though scarred and bruised in the process.

The highways of life, while 'tis said they are narrow and straight, are sufficiently broad for all who would travel them. For him who is well tired, delightfully smooth and leading, in gentle grade, to the grandest of heights. Yet in the making of that highway, sane driving and sane driving alone has been contemplated and anticipated. No room has been allowed for the uncertain driving and uncertain speed of such a one as will permit none to pass him in the way, even though it may mean disaster for all concerned.

What if your neighboring parish does spurt on ahead? What if it does show climbing power which your lesser-powered vehicle has not? Reckless driving is not a matter of speed, it is a matter of application of available power. That which need not be reckless for the strong parish machine, might be the height of recklessness for a parish of lesser power and weight.

A pastor's responsibility is to use that power and energy given him by his parish, to use in an efficient and careful manner, that it may reach the desired destination in comfort and peace. Let them who will, race their charges. If the neighbor parish, loudly tooting its sounding brass, wishes to throw dust, to say nothing of gas, in your face, give the road, for along the way, bleak and bare in the ditches, lie the remains of racing parishes, those who wanted and tried to pass by and those who, at any cost, refused to permit the passing. Parish entanglements, as well as painter's trucks, honeymoon sedans and age-sobered broughams, have been known to end suddenly and oft disastrously in the ditch at the side of the road.

Parish Brokerage

NOTED in an issue of the Wall Street Journal, among other things this statement, "Some men are known by their deeds and others by their mortgages," which, being true of the individual, the unit which goes to make up any association or group of individuals, must be true of the group as well.

Somehow or other that gets us up quite near to my thought, for a congregation is a group of individuals and what is true of the individual members of the church may reasonably be expected to be true of the church itself.

Once upon a time there was a church. Its establishment within a stone's throw from its parent may have indicated its appearance as a gesture of discontent on the part of a few who might have felt their liberties had been encroached upon by the parent congregation.

At any rate, quiet years passed in the calm life of the foundling, the peace of which was only broken occasionally when the departure of a thoroughly discouraged and defeated parson necessitated at least that amount of animation and action on the part of the youthful parish, requisite to the issuance of a call to a new pastor.

Still the years passed. Passers-by, of a Sunday morning, could have heard the dragging hymns and deliberate reed organ, for several of the members raised their voices from week to week in song. Why should it be necessary to sing the hymns anyway? One could read them to one's self. Why not?

And so the lazy years drew by. And still the congregation, in vitality, in power, in wisdom, in understanding, remained an awkward youth, not to say subnormal.

Pastors were called. Pastors came full of vision and ambition only to drop out eventually to sell stocks and bonds, to go into real estate, to go into other fields of service. The church called for ministers. She gave none.

Years after, there was made this entry in the treasurer's book, "Borrowed from Deacon Sharp, for district benevolence—$50.00," for which a note was given and upon which interest was paid. The debt on the church and parsonage still floated along. The special tour of collection, by the pastor, made yearly, paid the interest on that. Why worry?

So I say with the Journal, "Some men are known by their deeds and others by their mortgages," as are some churches. Where deeds are lacking, we naturally find mortgages, mortgages on property, on time and eternity, on hearts and lives, mortgages on the soul's salvation. It was said that by their deeds ye shall know them. To be known of men as a church of the living God, let deeds replace your mortgages.

Green Peppers

AMONG those several tiny plants we brought home one day to plant about the yard, lay a bunch of Salvias, whose deep green foliage and crimson blooms add their own charming touch as the year wears away. Just opposite the lily pool, they were planted, back of the Plume Cypress, whose heavy curled foliage shades a bit the back steps.

Careful grooming, frequent weeding and watering, plus a smiling sun, had brought the plants along in wonderful shape. If anything they were more husky and promising of gorgeous red tufts, to delight our eye later, than any I had ever seen. Our hearts were set on the anticipated display.

Then came a week's absence, when duties called us from the city. As a parting farewell, we made our way past the bed of German Iris over to the bed lying behind the Cypress, where among several other kinds, the Salvia had been fairly jumping along. What appeared as possible tiny buds, promising not red but white blooms, perplexed and baffled us. There was nothing to be done, however, the time of our departure was at hand. We left.

A week or so later, our steps again brought us to the flower garden and there on our splendid Salvia plants were growing as perfect a little crop of green peppers as one could wish to see. The plants had been sold to us as Salvia, by a reputable seed house. The price paid had been for Salvia. Our dreams had been of Salvia. A slip had been made somewhere along the line, for they were most obviously not Salvias but green pepper plants, well advanced on the production of their tooth-like fruits.

An error had been made, as they have a way of being made. Tear up the plants to make way for the true flowers? We thought of that and passed it by. For, just why should the pepper suffer destruction for being a pepper rather than a Salvia? "And the earth brought forth grass, herbs yielding seed after their kind." It's an old arrangement and we, like its author, are quite ready to grant that it is "good."

So, while we shall have no charming red blooms, neither would we have had any glossy green peppers had the plants been that for which they were purchased. Having thriving pepper plants, even now becoming burdened with their gifts to us, we are content and grateful for the lesson they have taught.

You may be led, by others, to expect a glorious array of gorgeous blooms in your parish. If your Salvias prove to be peppers, give proper thanks for the peppers and use them to the glory of your cause.

"Sunshine Joe"

"CUNSHINE JOE" they call him over at the downtown club where men are known and called by the names they most merit.

Among my friends are several of the sons of Abraham. Among these I am happy to have "Sunshine Joe." Joe is an idealist. Nor would he trade places with the realist even though the latter were to throw in "to boot" the pile of money his realism had secured for him. Joe knows from experience that high ideals rather than high finance bring life in its fullest measure. Hence he has not, neither does he seek great riches, save that which comes to him and which he so bountifully shares, in friendships spread out from coast to coast and beyond. The shores of the sea form no boundaries nor barriers to friendship.

His chief interests lie in his fellow-kind. His joy, in doing for them, in shedding a bit of his inexhaustible "sunshine" wherever he believes it can lighten, if not wholly dispel the shadows. He regrets the necessity of providing a living for himself and his family, not that he is disinterested in the welfare of those closest to him, but that necessity prohibits his throwing his whole self into the work of a struggling school in the heart of the Kentucky hills, which he visited a few years back. My birthday comes round with a seeming increase in frequency. So does Joe's card of annual greeting. He drops in at unexpected moments, chats a bit and is gone, leaving behind, always, a little ray of brightest sunshine.

While here, a moment ago, he pulled from his pocket one of our local papers of a few days back and turned to the notice of the passing of Dr. Meldrum of the Old Stone Church of this city, for whom all Cleveland now mourns. Quite fully the paper spoke of him and his enviable record and as Joe's eye followed down one solid column and then onto the next, it stopped where he had underscored a few lines with his blue pencil. It was a quotation from the last sermon which Dr. Meldrum had preached and was based on the text, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." The preacher's thought had been that whereas we are prone to think of the giving of life for a friend to mean even to death, after the manner of Him who gave His life for us, the truth remains that for us the spending of our life for our friends indicates the greatest love.

"Sunshine Joe" had underscored the words of a Gentile minister as expressing his heartcreed, a creed he is known to live most and mumble least, for daily he is laying down or spending his life for his friends, after the manner of One of his own race who went on before us, a light upon the way. Joe's "sunshine" life has in it, for some of us who may repeat rather than live our creed, a bit for sober meditation.

TO OUR FOREFATHERS

Psa. 48:13. "That ye may tell it to the generation following."

You who have handed us life's torch, new kindled, We are your own, in us you live again. Oh, may we prove your influence has not dwindled,

That earth holds yet a sturdy race of men!

You who have given us all that we cherish —

Life, and the gracious gifts that living brings —

Amid the trivial things that daily perish, Your spirit lifts us up to fairer things.

We are your children — citizens or sages, Sharing your race, your likeness, thought and aim: Guarding life's spark, to hand it down the ages, And make earth somehow fairer that we came.

The swift years pass. Yet how should we forget you,

Long gone before us, journeying on ahead? We mold the eager dreams you left unfinished, Ere we must follow you whom men call dead.

God, make us worthy of the lives that shaped us!

May our work stand when we have gone our way:

When, in the far-off years we shall not enter, Our children's children keep a hero's day. — Frances Crosby Hamlet.

Preachers and Preaching

MR. SMITH ON A CHEERFUL MINISTRY

"Dare I suggest," said Mr. Smith, "that a new clause should be put into your marriage contractthat your wife should allow you to spend a fortnight of your holiday with your lads in camp? He threw out the suggestion, also, that other pairs of students should take up joint work as Mr. Wrigley and himself had done. "Above all else, let me urge you to be cheerful and radiate happiness. A minister who is habitually melancholy is an offense to God and man. If you are downhearted and discouraged, you can do little good in the world; you will be a daily contradiction to the Gospel you profess. If you believe that love is at the heart of the universe, then you must live as if that were true. Life is intensely interesting, whether in a village or in a city slum, and it can be made a beautiful and happy thing. Face your task cheerfully. If your face shines with happiness, you will help other people to believe in God."-Christian World.

Dr. Charles E. Jefferson celebrated recently thirty years of service as pastor of the Broadway Tabernacle, New York City. His anniversary sermon has attracted tremendous attention all over the country. A few of the more striking paragraphs of his sermon are quoted below: "If you ask me what gives me the keenest satisfaction as I look back over these crowded years, my reply is that I am happy to think that I have never cheapened or vulgarized the Broadway Tabernacle pulpit. Broadway loves stunts, but I have never performed one. Broadway yearns for sensation, but the Broadway Tabernacle pulpit has declined to be sensational. There are enough cabarets and vaudeville shows on Broadway without a church adding to their number. I have never shortened my sermons to please the fancy of a sermonette-loving age. I preach long sermons because I deal always with large themes. No petty subjects have had a place in this pulpit. It is a source of satisfaction to me that I have never neglected the Bible. Through thirty years the Bible has held the central place in all our Tabernacle thinking. My joy has been to unfold the idea of prophets and apostles and of the Prince of Glory. It has never been necessary for me to go outside of the Bible to find material with which to stimulate your minds and feed your hearts. have never neglected the prayer meeting. Our mid-week service is never for one week suspended. It runs on without a break through the year and the years."-Christian Observer.

TABLOID COUNSELS FOR MINISTERS Make your "services" serviceable.

It is more blessed to be helpful than to be original.

Keep your passion for the new always subservient to your passion for the true.

Some men achieve solemnity in the pulpit and call it spirituality.

The popularity of some ministers seems to lie in the fact that they are the pillow on which the pillars of the church rest.

Remember that it is more ethical to inspire spirituality than to induce somnolence.

From invocation to benediction all things should be beautiful.

The preacher who fails to arrest the attention of his people may find later that some of them (through his failure) should be arrested for their activity.

The end of preaching is not to be sensational but to be spiritual.

The way to crucify a fine-tempered soul is to think only in terms of the crowd.

It is better and harder to fill a heart than to fill the pews.

Of two good things which are possible try to do both.

It is easy to mistake popularity for power.

One's enthusiasm should always be subservient to one's ethics.

All ministers are not so placed that they can get a crowd, but no minister is so placed as to prevent him from being a Christ giver.

The technique of publicity should never degenerate into trickery.

Of one minister it was said: "He promises a mountain and gives you a mole-hill."—Fred Smith.

The Bulletin Board

To know Christ one must walk with Him.

Have we made the word of God of no effect by our attempts to adorn and establish it?

Do we try to make the Bible true, instead of believing that it is true?

We go about to establish that righteousness in vain.

As selfishness is consumed by love our life in Christ grows more abundant.

It is true that Paul in preaching quoted what a Pagan poet had said, but he did it only once, and he did it very briefly.

he did it very briefly.

The love of Christ is a fruit of His Spirit, and it is not brought forth until its season.

God makes us feel our needs in order that He may supply them.

The Bible is the only book that a mature Christian needs.

Christ is all in all and for every one.

With regard to all matters, look to Christ before looking anywhere else.

Justice is such a complex thing that it cannot now be done.

Amid all changes find permanence in Christ, who is the same, yesterday, today and forever.

God is offering faith to everybody, but "none are so blind as those who will not see."

Are you supplying God's need of prayer?

The yoke of thought and the burden of knowledge are hard and heavy indeed, listen to Christ, who relieves and relaxes both mind and soul.

The Church, like the Bible, gives her lessons in many strange places and many different languages.
