Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver
1485 E. 106th St.
Cleveland, Ohio

Dear Rabbi:

I was assigned to make a speech and to give explanation and point out the fundamental purposes of Circumcision, and also the story about Peters' preaching at Antioch and trying to combine both the Jews and the Christians. This will be a twenty minute talk and I must have something impressive to talk about.

I have read some time ago, in the book on Exposition of the Bible in Volume V, Pages 456, 457, which explains something about same, but I could not get any points which would lead either side to an understanding.

I am willing to go to a minimum expense, if you will be kind enough to have some Public Stenographer make the Speech of which I can bring out the points of both sides, and still not cause any hard feelings or misunderstandings of either side.

As this is a Church of about 1000 Members, and I am sure that the bigger majority will be there for the day that I was assigned to speak, and while doing so, I want to know what I am talking about. So I am taking this privilege in asking you to help me prepare this speech for me.

I have heard you speak, and I have enjoyed every word that ever left your mouth, and as you being one of these artists, I ask you please to help me out in doing so, and I will be willing to pay any amount for your time and whatever expense that may occur in preparing same.

BUSINESS AND PROPERTY

The Federal Knitting Mills Company was originally established in 1905 as a co-partnership. In 1906 it was incorporated with a capital of $50,000 and built up its business to the present size entirely out of earnings.

The Company manufactures sweaters for men, women and children and a large and varied line of knitted fabrics which are made into headwear, scarfs, mufflers, dresses and novelties. Practically all of the Company's products are wholesaled direct to jobbers and through its own agency in New York City.

Among its customers are: Sears, Roebuck & Co., Inc., Montgomery Ward & Co., Inc., Marshall Field & Co., Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., Inc., Chicago: Ely & Walker Dry Goods Co., Rise-Stix Dry Goods Co., St. Louis: Higginbotham, Bailey, Logan Co., Perkins Dry Goods Co., Dallas: Wm. R. Moore Dry Goods Co., Memphis: The American Wholesale Corporation, Baltimore: Fleischner, Mayer & Co., Portland, Oregon, and many others throughout the country.

The Company's plant, held under a favorable lease, is modern in every respect and is located on one of the main thoroughfares of Cleveland, at Detroit Avenue and West 29th Street. It contains approximately 125,000 square feet of floor space and fronts on three streets, assuring ample daylight which is essential to a manufacturing business of this kind. Both machinery and equipment are modern in every respect and in excellent condition, having been efficiently and continuously maintained. The land on which the plant is located includes sufficient unoccupied area for future expansion.

The company employs approximately 500 people.

The plant is protected throughout with a sprinkler system and ample fire, cyclone, sprinkler and use and occupancy insurance is carried.

liberal depreciation as shown by annual audit reports prepared by Messrs. Ernst & Ernst, adjusted to Federal Taxes at 13 $\frac{1}{2}$ %, have been as follows:

	Net Sales	Net Profits	Net Per Share Common Stock
1917	$1,392,297.47	$146,221.06	$4.49
1918	1,975,605.32	208,949.63	6.42
1919	2,133,231.12	163,984.50	5.04
1920	2,937,692.46	61,381.18	1.88
1921	2,024,801.71	170,322.87	5.24
1922	2,891,646.96	444,304.10	13.67
1923	3,377,761.79	391,997.62	12.06
1924	2,714,080.41	170,865.19	5.25
1925	2,451,200.80	173,926.32	5.35
1926	2,216,801.35	129,201.70	3.97
1927	2,255,122.50	134,935.30	4.15

Net earnings as shown above for the past eleven years, after allowance for dividends on the Preferred Stock outstanding, have averaged $199,644, or $6.14 per share on the No Par Common Stock. The Company's sales for the first six months of 1928 are in excess of the figure for the corresponding period of 1927 and at the rate they are operating, the net profits for this year should be considerably greater and in all probabilities a larger extra dividend declared at the close of the year.

DIVIDENDS

The No Par Common Stock pays a regular annual dividend of \$2.50 quarterly, February 1, May 1, August 1, November 1. Extra dividends paid February 1, 1928, 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢, May 1, 1928, 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢.

ASSETS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION

The Company's balance sheet as of December 31, 1927, as audited by Ernst and Ernst, is given herewith and shows net tangible assets, after deducting Preferred Stock and all reserves of $1,047,113, or $32 per share of Common Stock. Of this amount over $27 is in net quick assets. Current assets are $1,186,800, or more than 15 times current liabilities of $77,028.

MANAGEMENT

The management and control of the Company is in the hands of those men who founded the company and who have been responsible for its successful operation in the past. The officers and directors of the Company are: Mr. H. G. Coulter, Pres., Mr. L. C. Selden, Vice Pres., Mr. C. J. Hays, Secy., and Treas.; Mr. J. A. Zimmer and Mr. Charles D. Gentsch. Life insurance policies made payable to the Company, amounting to $380,000, are carried on the lives of those in whom the management is vested.

We recommend this stock as a good business man's risk.

Gentlemen:-

We very much regret that the engraved Wedding Certificates recently sent to you showed a stain on the edges. We do not know how this occurred, but on looking through the stock we find that they are all marked in that way. It was probably done by the engraver in the process of his work. We are sending you today another lot of a somewhat different pattern, and trust that these will be satisfactory. If not, you may return as many of them as you wish and we will send you the others so soon as we can have a fresh lot engraved.

Hoping this is satisfactory, and regretting the incident, we are

My dear Rabbi Silver.

I take great pleasure in sending you under separate cover THE SOUL OF THE EAST by Marcus Ehrenpreis, whom you may know as the Grand Rabbi of Sweden and one of the leading Jewish scholars on the Continent. This volume he has written might be termed a spiritual Baedeker; -- a book that should be of paramount interest to every Jew. He depicts vividly the Hebrew University, the new Palestine, Jerusalem, the workings of Zionism and many other subjects very near to the interests of the Jewish race throughout the world.

I hope that you will enjoy reading the book and would indeed be glad to know what you think of it. I hope, too, that you will be able to find in it material well worth bringing to the attention of your congregation.

Yours faithfully,

Rabbi A. H. Silver,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Doctor Silver:

Many thanks for your very lovely letter. We were glad to have you and appreciated very much your presence. Never did a speaker before make such an impression upon our community. And of course the whole Jewish group gained immensely in dignity and self respect as the result of your visit. I am sorry that you were inconvenienced on your return, but glad that you arrived safely in spite of the wreck.

Your kindness leads me to impose on you once more. Sylvia Berman formerly of Fort Wayne was sent to Indiana University by our Council of Jewish Women. During her Freshman year there her family moved to Cleveland. I wanted the Council to give her a scholarship at Western Reserve but after considerable correspondence, my request was denied. She is most deserving and should be assisted in her desire for an education. Her father does not have the most enviable reputation but her mother is a very fine woman and the children are worthy of help. I wondered if you could in some way make it unnecessary for her to pay the large tuition that is demanded. I regret that I must trouble you with this matter but feel keenly her position and will appreciate anything that you might do.

Thanking you again for your visit and your letter and with kindest greetings to your family from all of us, I am

Sincerely yours,

S. H. Markowitz

My dear Miss Kitner:-

I would appreciate very much if you would send one of your staff to interview a Mrs. Clara Aaronowitz, 140116 Kinsman Road. Mrs. Aaronowitz is employed and therefore can only be interviewed in the evening.

Mrs. Aaronowitz was in to see me this morning and stated that she has been in the city about seven months, having come from St. Louis. She works in a factory. Two of the four children with her also work. She has two other children who are attending school.

The combined income of the family, according to Mrs. Aaronowitz, is not sufficient to keep them supplied with the necessities of life. She does not wish charity but she would like to be put into a position where she would earn enough to support her family.

She hails from Belgium, but before coming to the United States she was a few years in Mexico, where her husband died.

I would appreciate very much if you would interest yourself in this woman.

With kindest regards, permit me to remain

Gentlemen:-

Permit me to acknowledge receipt of your letter of October 4th in regard to the Wedding Certificates.

We have received the supply of Wedding Certificates and notice that these are stained on the edges just as the others were and I am returning them to you under separate cover. Will you please send us a supply of the new ones just as soon as they come in.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver,

October fifteenth.

I have made application for a loan here in New York — four to five hundred dollars. I should know within about ten days whether I can get it. If not, I shall have to turn elsewhere. Whatever I get, I shall send on to Mr Wertz for distribution to you and to my other creditors.

I shall do my best to clear this off soon.

I shall write again as soon as I have definite word.

Dear Rabbi Silver,

Tuesday afternoon.

I have just received your letter in reference to my long-standing indebtedness to you. Nothing would be more pleasing to me than the ability to send you the check right now. The truth is that I have been living in a perilous condition since we left Cleveland - with almost literally nothing coming in till last December, when I started here at the Temple, and even now my salary is only one hundred dollars a week. Emmy is back at public school teaching as a substitute, earning little enough. We just moved into our own apartment September first, having all this time lived with Emmy's folks. And today I got my statement from the bank, showing a balance of less than forty dollars. I am reciting this not to evoke sympathy, but to try to have you understand how near the brink of hopelessness I have been.

Of course, that is no reason why you should carry my burden. You have been uniformly kind, and I am still hoping that I may be enabled to prove to you my real appreciation and regard for you. Whether I can now negotiate a loan here so that I may make a further payment on my other Cleveland indebtednesses through Mr Weitz (I have made some few payments at irregular intervals) and also repay you in part, at least, I cannot say - though I am going to try as best I can. I am looking for additional work to supplement my salary here, but that is difficult to find. "The Reflex" fizzled out, with Dr McNamee still owing me money for my services. And just which way I am to turn I cannot clearly see.

However, I am doing my best to live economically, and I shall send small sums as regularly as I can to Mr Weitz and to you. If I can negotiate a fairly large loan here, I shall of course concentrate the indebtedness here. I wish I could persuade you to believe that I am not stalling. I have had my real taste of misery these last two years, and only a fool would want to prolong it.

I shall write to you again in a very few days, and perhaps can demonstrate that I am in earnest.

That my departure from the Temple and from Cleveland should have entailed such a complete severance of relations between us has caused me no end of pain. A year ago I sent you New Year's greetings and a letter which were not acknowledged, if they were received. I made an effort to see you when you addressed the Child Welfare Conference at the Commodore about a year ago. And I sent a brief note of felicitation on the birth of your son. Undoubtedly you have more than an ordinary grievance against me, and perhaps I can not advance a satisfactory defense. Yet I cannot feel that the congenial bond that existed between us in our early years at the City College, and again at the outset of my work in Cleveland had no substantial basis or that it could have been entirely dissipated. And I still anticipate that you may some day concede that there is still a bit of manliness and fundamental honesty in me.

This probably has become a bit incoherent. I sat down to write to you immediately, without thinking out any more purposeful reply. May I ask that you continue to keep this strictly between us, and to believe that I shall not abuse any faith you may still repose in me.

I shall write again very soon.

Meanwhile, please accept sincere wishes for the New Year and kindest regards for Mrs
Silver, Jeremy and yourself.

Always, sincerely,

My dear Dr. Silver:

You were good enough to write me in the summer that "Should you wish me to suggest to you the names of one or two men who in my judgment would do justice to the kind of a book which you have in mind, I would be very happy to do so."

I have not heard from you since then although I wrote immediately asking you to make the suggestions. The book we have in mind here is a very important one, and we want to get the best man possible to write it. In my letter to you I spoke of your brother-in-law, Morris S. Lazaron, who is a dear friend of mine. I had thought of suggesting the writing of this book to him, but it seemed that in justice to our idea, we should have competent advice, such as you so kindly offered to give us, before we approached any individual.

I do hope that you will be able to let me have soon the names you have in mind.

With cordial greetings, I am,

Faithfully yours,

My dear Rabbi Silver,

This will no doubt surprise you, since it comes from one who remembers you when he was a mere youngster in knee pants, and later as a young man at your sister Rosie's wedding. Now he has grown to manhood and is on the threshold of a professional career.

I disclose my identity to you - I am the oldest male grandchild of Riva Seamon and my mother is Mary Jaffe.

My purpose in writing to you is to ask you for a letter of recommendation to the "Committee on Character and Fitness", part of the red tape necessary before one can practise law in the State of New York.

Naturally, a letter from a person of your standing and reputation will have the proper weight with the "Committee".

I feel sure you will do this for me for old time sake.

A short note along ~~along~~ the lines indicated in the enclosed form under paragraph 7, where marked X, will suffice. It need not be in affidavit form.

Regards to you and yours from the Seamon and Jaffe families.

Louis A. Jaffe

P.S. If you happen to know any of the following named, who are members of the "Committee" will you kindly state
so in your note. Sol M. Stroock

Bernard S. Deutsch

Further, kindly address the letter to the "Committee on Character and Fitness"
Appellate Division, Supreme Court, First
Judicial Department and mail the letter to me, at my home, above mentioned.

COMMITTEE ON CHARACTER AND FITNESS

ATTORNEYS AND OTHERS WHO MAKE AFFIDAVITS IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATIONS FOR ADMISSION TO THE BAR WILL GREATLY FACILITATE THE WORK OF THE COMMITTEE AND, THEREFORE, EXPEDITE ACTION UPON SUCH APPLICATIONS BY COMPLYING STRICTLY WITH THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS IN THE ORDER GIVEN BELOW.

Points to be covered in drawing affidavits of character.

1. Name of affiant.
2. Residence address of affiant.
3. Nature of affiant's business. (If affiant be a practising attorney, he should state that he is a practising attorney of the Supreme Court of the State of New York and give the year of his admission to the Bar and the Judicial Department in which he was admitted.) Any business connections of the affiant should also be set forth.
4. Business address of affiant.
5. Length of affiant's acquaintance with applicant.
6. That the applicant is to the knowledge (or in the opinion) of affiant a person of good moral character. At least two affidavits must be made by persons residing in the same city or town as the applicant, one of whom must be a practising attorney, and each of these affidavits must state that to the knowledge of the affiant the applicant is a person of good moral character. Rule III, Court of Appeals Rules for Admission to the Bar, so requires.
7. Set forth in detail the facts upon which affiant's knowledge of or opinion as to applicant's moral character is based. If, for example, the applicant has been employed by affiant or under his supervision, the period of employment with the month and year of the beginning and ending thereof and the nature of the position or positions held and services rendered by the applicant must be stated. If the acquaintance between the affiant and the applicant is of a social nature, the facts of social contact must be stated, as, for example, that the affiant has been a visitor in the applicant's home and is acquainted with his parents or other members of his family, or that the affiant has been associated with the applicant in specified organizations or otherwise and nature and extent of such association. If practicable, there should be two affidavits specifically covering the home life of applicant by persons who have been visitors in his home. Affidavits covering home life should characterize family and home environment.
8. Affiant must have read questionnaire and answers of applicant and state such fact and that to the best of his knowledge and belief the several answers of applicant are truthful and accurate.
9. State by whom the affidavit was prepared, and, if not prepared by the affiant, set forth the reasons why it was impracticable for the affiant to prepare it.

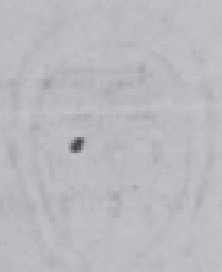

The foregoing instructions are intended to supplement the instruction sheet, and are to be given by applicants to those whom they request to make affidavits for them. Further copies, if needed, may be had upon application at the Committee's office, Appellate Division Court House, Madison Avenue and Twenty-fifth Street, New York City.

My dear Dr. Silver, On returning recently to Cincinnati after such a prolonged absence abroad I have found among the second class mail, accumulated for me at The College, a copy of your "Messianic Speculation in Israel".

Please accept my sincere thanks for your kind and hearty congratulations on the appearance of your Treatise.

Vol. 24 of Ma'ayan, which I have not yet seen, contains the conclusion of my paper on the Mess. movements during the Crusades. I expect to receive in due course reprints of both instalments and shall then gladly send you a copy together with some other reprints.

My dear Maxwell:-

I am enclosing herewith a check to cover your traveling expenses to Cleveland and including a slight token of appreciation for your services. I need not tell you how deeply I appreciated your coming to help me out for the holidays and how delighted our people were with your coming, and how much Virginia and I and above all Danny enjoyed having you in our home.

I read John Haynes Holmes review of your book before I received the marked copy which you sent me. I think that it is perfectly splendid. I have shown the review to quite a number of people in the city. I think that you ought to send the review to Jonah Wise, who is now Editor of The American Israelite and request him to have it reprinted in full. It ought to give your book a considerable boost.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

The enclosed folder and graph show the military mind and the tendency to increase it our colleges and schools.

The American Fund for Public Service which financed the Lane pamphlet and helped our Committee the first two years has spent its funds and no longer contributes to our support. We are in great difficulty this year to get the money needed to keep going.

Could you give us $10 yourself,
or more, and if possible get others to contribute?

Yours very sincerely,

My Dear Abby:

Many thanks for your kind letter and check. It pleases me greatly to learn from you that four people were pleased with my services.

As to your suggestion to write to Jonah B. Rice about a reprint of Dr. Holmes's review, I thought the suggestion was a happy one and followed same. It remains to be seen, however, whether he will render this courtesy.

Regarding the check, I was surprised to note that it was your personal check?
Are you yourself, or the corporation, standing this expense? I can't see why you should have to stand this expense! Please notify me about it without fail, as I'm not going to use this check after I hear from you.

I wish to be remembered also to Friend Feuer, to the Halls and the Gorensteins, to the Blochs and Mr.
 Harry Levy.

With love to yourself, Virginia and about it.

In regard to Father's recent inquiry about a loan of $1000.00 on his Insurance Policy: I was waiting to hear from you about it. Do you wish to write yourself to the Insurance Company regarding as to the necessary steps to be taken to receive this loan, or should I write to them? In the latter instance, please forward to me by return mail, registered, Father's policy. In either case, I should be pleased to attend to it for me.

Your little Dav is a supreme delight! I still remember that delicious good-natured smile of his. I certainly did enjoy seeing him for the first time since his appearance in the Grand Reunion.

May I also take this opportunity to thank in particular Miss Fina for her lovely hospitality. She made me feel at home - which is, indeed, hospitality far excellent.

I trust that the future may offer us other occasions to visit each other.

Dear Rabbi Silver,

This has been an extraordinary day for me with a celebration of sunset skies at its close like none, I think, I have ever seen before. Caught perhaps at the meridian of the seasons they salute the one as they announce the other.

I wonder is the day of "such stuff"? But I have the knowledge of your understanding, friendship, your definition of my work which is the best I could conceive of it for myself (who should have greater acquaintance) and certainly as no one else has or could prefer expression, whether it be of it or other things.

Took your picture to Quentaro and was told that they (Quenters) stood back of that particular frame which I chose for that particular picture. The salesman found words of praise for it ^(the picture), which were not all perhaps dictated by policy. I think that you and Mrs Silod will be pleased with the result.

Hope to hear Rabbi Wise speak
Friday noon - on the paper
announces, his subject Governor
Smith. I never met Rabbi Wise in New York though I attended the Free Synagogue.

Remembering the pressure of things upon you this morning I will not further extend this letter

Sincerely Yours

אל מע"כ ירדינו ויריד ציון, הרב הגדול רב פעלים לעמנו וארצנו, ונבאי נאמן למוסדנו מוה"ר
רבי אבא הלל סי ל בר שליש"א

בקליוולאנד.

רב נעלה,

אחר דריסתנו בסלומנו ובשלום רעינו הכבודה ובנם הנחמד
הי"ד, ואחולינו חלככיים בשמנו ובסס זקני מוסדנו, באים אנחנו
שוב בדברים אל מע"כ ואין אנו מתחשבים עם זה שעור טרם
נענינו על מכתבינו הקודמים, וכיחוד על מכתבנו האחרון מיום
י"ב חסרי החולף, אשר אמנם לא הי' בזמן ער כרי לקבל חשבותו
על מכתבנו הנזכר.

ומכתבנו זה מיוחד הנהו להזכיר את כבודו על חובתו
או החתיבות למוסדנו.

בחור גבאי המוסד ומנהליו אשר כל אחריותו הקשה מוטלת
עלינו חובתנו הוא לעשות את כל מה שאפשר כדי להציל את מצב
מוסדנו ואשילו לאחוז בדרכים-יגיעים, ואולי קצת שלא מן הנסוים, וחובתנו היא לזרז ולזרז את מע"כ לדבר מצות זו הגדולה והק'
אשר נפל עליו בכל כך אהבה ורצינות בימי ביקורו בארצנו
ובמוסדנו, ובהכירנו היטב את טוב לבו, ואח מרת הרחמנות הגדולה
אשר בקרבו, ידענו כי כל העכוב הזה שנראה בפרי עבודתו לשם
מוסדנו, לא בא חלילה מפני שרפה לנו מעל מוסדנו, או בשביל
שנער פעליו כרצון את העבודה הקדושה הזאת שהנהגה אמנם קשה
מאד, וגם אולי איננה נעימה כל כך. אבל חולים אנו את שתיקתו
רק בשביל סדרותיו המרוכות בעניני כלליות אומחנו, אשר נוטל
בהם חלק בראש, כידוע ומפורסם לכל.

אכל אין כל ספק אצלנו שאין מע"כ עצמו חפץ למסור את
עצמו בעבודתו בעד מוסדנו-שאמנם הנהו גם כן עולם חשוב בפני
עצמו, וקיומם של מאות נפשות חלויים בו-מפני עבודתו הצבורית
בענינים הכלליים, המדיניים או הישוכיים של אומחנו.

ואם יש מקום בראש להניח שני חפילין, יש ויש למפעליו של
יש אשכולות כמע"כ לאחוז בזה וגם בזה.

וכשירו האמת אוהז ומסבכת במעגל הכללי של אומחנו, ושל
האנושיות.

חאחוז נא ידו השניה מוסדנו שלא יפול תחתיו ח"ו .

ואין אנו צריכים לדבר כזה שוב אל מע"ב ע"ד מצב מוסדנו
בידעו היטב את כל פרטי פרטיו, ותמציתם ידוע לכבודו, שכל
קיומו או רובו של מוסדנו, תלוי ברוח, זאת אומרת ברוח נדיבה
של תומכים ונדירים זמניים ומקריים, באין לנו קרן קיים
להחזקתו, וגם לא מעמד כבוד ע"י משולחים וברוסה .

בזמן האחרון הורע מצב מוסדנו עד כדי לסכן את קיומו ח"ו
ביחוד מפני שהתמיכה מארצות הכרית הולכת ומצטט, והתיסדות
המעררייטענס ברוב העקריות הגדולות דוחקת את קבוץ הסדרים
האחרים שלנו שהיו מסוככים במדינות שונות אשר בארצות הכרית .

גם המשבר באמריקא והולטוריא על ארץ ישראל בכלל, מזיקים
הרבה לתפחית את ההכנסה .

ואנו למי נפנה ?

הנה נימים האלה ופרטנו בחשבון הסנה העברה וקראנו בספר
זכרונותינו את הסכומים הימים הראשונים שקבלנו ממע"ב לפני שנה
בעת הזאת, אלף דולר, ועוד אלף דולר, אשר הצילו אז את מעמדנו
במדה די חשובה, ואין אנו מסופקים כלל כי גם הפעם יש לאל ידו
לעשות נער מוסדנו כאשר עשה בשנה העברה, ועוד ביתר שאת . כי
ידענו את כשרונותיו ואת השפעתו הגדולה, וגם את טוב לבו
ורחמנותו על זקנינו .

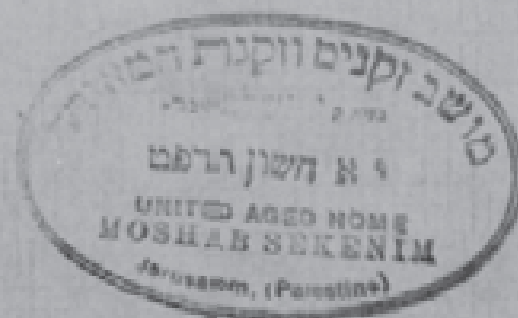

ועל כן יהיו דברינו הפעם מועטים, ורק נזכירנו בזה :
אנא יזכור נא את חובתו והתחייבותו כלפי מוסדנו, וכלפי מאות
זקנינו החוטאים בו, ובחור גבאי נאמן ומסור יתמסר שוב למשך
זמן ידוע לכבודת ההצלה של מוסדנו בעת צרתו .

יסנה נא אל אותם הנדיבים אשר גדבו כבר פעם על ידו, שישלחו
לנו שונ את נדבתם, וימציא נא לנו תומכים וכספידים חדשים .

יגש נא מע"ב אל העבודה הזאת וההצלחה בשח האיר לו פנים ,
ועלה יעלה נידו-להציל את מוסדנו, והיה זה שכרו .

וברכוה מאות זקני מוסדנו על ראשו תחילה .

כבוד ידידנו הנעלה הרב החכם רב פעלים לעמנו וארצנו
וגבאי נאמן ומסור למוסדנו רבי אבא זאל טילבר שליט"א

קליבלאנד

רב נכבד ומאד נעלה,

קבלנו את מכתבו היקר מיום השלישי לספטמבר בזירוף השסק על סך
50 דולאר נדבת האדון בנימן לוינסטיין מקליבלאנד למוסדנו, ושמחנו
שאד על קבלת מכתב זה אחרי תקופות אחדות שעברו עלינו שלא שמענו בהם כלום ממע"כ ולא ראינו בהם את פרי עבודתו כשכיל מוסדנו.

נוכחנו עכשיו, כי עדיין לא הסיה את דעתו ממוסדנו וקרוב הוא אל
לבן, ומאמינים אנו כי כמובן כמוהו עדיין לא שכו את אחינו ואחיותינו
הזקנים והזקנות ממוסדנו פה, ועדיין לא עומם אש אהנתו וחכתו למוסדנו
אשר בערה בלבו ככל עוזה בימי בקרו את ארצנו ואת מוסדנו ואשר ראינו
אח פריה אחרי טיבו הביחה ועוררו שם את מכריו ומיודעיו לשלוח לנו נדבות ישות ומסוימות.

אנו חולים את רסיון עזרתו למוסדנו כחדשים האחרונים בגלל סדרותיו
המרוכות לטובת הכלל, ואנו חפלה שיברכתו ה" ויצליחו בכל מפעליו ויוכל
לעבוד מתוך נחה וקורא רוח גם לעמנו בכלל, וגם למוסדנו בפרט אשר הראה
לו חבה יתרה יוצאם מן הכלל, ואשר גם עיני המנהלים של המוסד הזה
מופנות אל כבודו באופן יוצא מן הכלל בעינים כלות ומצפות ליסועה בעת ער להם.

אנו שולחים מיום שטר קבלה וחשובה ישר אל האדון בנימין לוינסטיין
אל כחכתו, כמצוה עלינו במכתבו.

נשענים כל טובו וחסדו עם מוסדנו אנו פונים אל מע"כ גם בבקשתנו
זו: היות שבכירות רבות וגדולות באמריקא נוסדו פערערייטענס המאספות
ומחלקות הצדקות בכללות ובהן אין רשות למשולחים או שדרים לאסוף
מיחידים ובא נחנו מוכרח לפנות רק להפערערייטענס, והללו מנהלי
הפערערייטענס הרחוקים מכאן ואינם יודעים כטיב המוסדות כאן אינם
יודעים להבדיל בין מוסד גדול לקטן ונכוןא" לא נכון וגם עפ"י רוב אלו
העומדים בראש הפערערייטענס הם מהרובנים והעסקנים הנאורים והמודרניים
אשר אין להם אסון במכתבים ושאר תעודות הבאות ישר מן המוסד או מן
הרבנים כאן, על כן הוריעו לנו בא כחנו משם שרק מכתב והמלצת מע"כ
יכול להטיב לנו בנדון זה, ובבקשהו על כן: (א) שימציא לנו מכתב כללי
ופעודה כללית לכל הפערערייטענס בעירות אמריקא אשר יעיד בהם על צדקת
מוסדנו, גדלו וערכו הכביר וכי ראוי והגון להם להקציב בחקציבם השנתי

במכתבנו הקודם.

My dear Dr. Silver,

Was Amos laurels evidently robbed his Schatzmeister of his sleep. As I just wrote to Warburg: "If these T.E. men continue to stream in, I may yet have to welcome at the second Amos Banquet to be given Nov 10, 1929, at the occasion of my 70. birthday, a delegation of the B. & T. of T.E., with L. M. at its head, making their reverential bows before Wine and its Austro-franco-Yankee revivalist."

And now, to strike a more serious blow: Jochanan b. Zakkhai, ein kleiner Prophetenjünger, ist a Judaism — without Temple. If your 1921 of the C. G. A. A. and the other ecclesiastical bodies continue in their stupid, outward laissez-faire policy, a new Wahman, backed by a group of clerk germ multimillionaires, may try, perhaps 1912 1912, to lay the found of a Judaism — without Synagogue, at least in its present, hybrid, religious rational structure. You rabbis, even of your advanced type, have practically thrown 1912 upon the scrapheap. (By the way, you never sent me your Conference sermon). Well, as an archaeologist by trade, 1912 1912

Conclusion: caveat consules rabbim ne sin detriment caput res publica Judaica. "the pitcher goes..."

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

This is the time of year when we must assure our budget for the next year's work. As one of our regular contributors we are writing to you to ask whether we may have a renewal of your pledge of $100 for 1929?

We have just finished our investigation of candy factories in Cleveland on the basis of which we expect to publish a "white list" to guide consumers. We expect that the white list will be of real service in raising wages and improving conditions for the workers.

This investigation is only one phase of the work which your contribution will help us to carry through.

Sincerely yours,

Julia Raymond

Very anxious talk to you when you are in
New York Can you arrange to meet me there Thursday afternoon or Friday morning.

I. M. Rubinow

Answer same date

Will be pleased to meet you Thursday afternoon at Belmont Hotel.

A. H. Silver

Hudson, Ohio.

October 29th, 1928.

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I am in rather desperate need of about five hundred dollars, and I am turning to you, in the hope that you may be in a position to loan it to me. For the time being I could arrange to pay you back in monthly installments of $25⁰⁰. This, I realize is small, and would cover a period of some twenty-two months; but I have every hope that I shall be able to pay it off in much shorter time.

I believe I told you that we are moving into a new location with our Tea Room project. When we went into the business last Fall, we rented the only available space, part of one of the old mansions in Hudson. Difficulties which did not appear on the surface soon presented themselves. The lighting arrangements were poor and we were not permitted to change them. The sanitary equipment is abominable, and an antiquated heating apparatus and worn out fireplaces brought upon us very heavy expense for fuel in an effort to make the place comfortable for our guests. The owner of the property, a semi-professional woman, flatly refused to make repairs, claiming she could not afford it &c. &c.

This unforeseen burden, coupled with the initial expense of equipping the venture, has made it a bit difficult to meet all our obligations, and they are now crowding us quite seriously.

In the new location we shall have an entire house, on the main street, steam-heated & well lighted, a fine garage and unlimited parking space.

In negotiating for the new place, we are dealing with business men and hope to have no unexpected problems present themselves.

Just before my illness last Fall, I contracted for the wiring of our farm home for electric light. The work was partly done when I found I was not going to be able to meet the expense and called it off for the time being. I am being urged to meet that obligation & have the work completed.

There are many, many things involved in this appeal to you for help, but

3) I should not make it were I not very sure that I shall be able to pay you promptly and in full, - Loan and interest. The local bank holds the mortgage on our farm and for that reason I do not care to place myself under further obligation to them.

We are having nice support from the best class of Hudson's residents and I know it will increase, as will the transient trade when we have better facilities to offer.

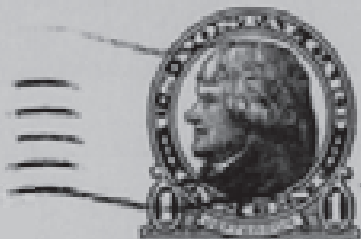

I would not trouble you if the immediate need were not so great, but at that, I hope you will frankly "turn me down" if you cannot freely grant my request. I have found it difficult to ^{find} ~~see~~ you at The Temple; hence this letter.

With kindest regards to you and Mrs. Silver, I am

Sincerely yours,
Frances H. Jones

Dear Rabbi,

It just occurred to me that you may have misunderstood me & indicate that there was a possibility that I might not finish the school year in the Temple High School.

To clear that up, let me say that even if the contingency of my selection by the committee should happen, I would not leave until October 1929. In any event I shall be here this year & lend my efforts toward making the High School a success.

Kindly excuse my troubling you with these trivialities.

Sincerely

My dear friend:-

I have just received a notice with some tickets to the effect that you are to speak at the Hotel Astor, Thursday Evening, November 1st. I will make every effort to be there. Never-the-less I am sending you this letter so in case I do not see you, or something prevents my seeing you tonight, you may know that I think of you and wish you well, not only when I need your advice, but also when I speak of you during the year to my friends and colleagues, often.

Had I known that you were going to be here, I would have arranged for a Mass Meeting in your behalf in my Temple, which would have benefited Jewry and my Congregation a great deal.

You are well known and much beloved, both in Newark and here in the Suburbs.

Please bear us in mind when you come East again and let me know, so that I may make arrangements through our Brotherhood and other Jewish Organizations to have you in our Temple.

Wishing you only the best, I remain

Sincerely,

Rabbi Dr. Hillel Silver
Cleveland, Ohio

Dear Dr. Silver:

It has been delightful to have seen you and especially to have heard your inspiring speech last night. I certainly appreciate your noble and lofty thoughts and great mastery of words.

As to the bringing of my picture of the opening of the Hebrew University, to your city, I wonder whether you could arouse sufficient interest among your friends, so that this undertaking should pay me for all my trouble and expense. I could personally come to Cleveland with this picture of mine, together with a collection of other paintings of Jewish and general interest, including also my collection of portraits of famous contemporary Jews, and give lectures on the subject of my picture and also on Jewish art in general, with lantern slides.

Do you think $2000.00 could be raised in Cleveland for this purpose, in addition to finding adequate exhibition room. As you know, this exhibition should be of great educational and cultural value, as the painting of the opening of the Hebrew University is the first Jewish Historical picture. Perhaps different organizations as well as individuals would be willing to subscribe towards the cost involved, in view of the exceptional interest of this exhibition. Perhaps even entrance fees should be charged as it has been done everywhere over in Europe, and so part of the money would return to the promoters.

In the hope of hearing from you soon, I am,
with kindest greetings,

regards ,

Yours sincerely,

with kindest

L. Pilichowski.

P.S. Would you be able to find about one hour time during your next visit in New York to stop for a portrait sketch?
