Dr. Abba H. Silver
Cleveland, O.

Dear Fellow Alumnus:

As a matter of pride and a way of rendering practical help to the College that gave us our professional training, we are desirous of having the name of every alumnus on the enclosed Roll of Honor.

The Alumnae Association at its last meeting in Detroit, June 27, 1929 resolved to publish in pamphlet form or in the Jewish Press a list of all alumni who are either contributing annually to the Union or who are contributors to the Endowment Fund now being raised.

There is of course no compulsion about this matter. Every man must do whatever he sees fit but we are writing you to ask if we cannot enter your name on this Roll of Honor.

May we have your answer as soon as possible? It would be a manifest oversight to omit writing this letter to you. At the same time we will not annoy you by writing again and for that reason we request a reply so that we may know whether to include your name or not.

With kind regards,

Sincerely,

Martin Zielonka
President.

Dear Rabbi:-

A copy of SINGERMANN, by Myron Brinig, the first novel to be published by this company, is being sent to you today. It is because of the delicate sympathy of treatment and the force of style that I am particularly happy to call this book to your attention.

Mr. Brinig has done the story of a family of Polish Jews, following their fortunes--and misfortunes--in the country.

After you have read SINGERMANN won't you drop me a note and let me have your opinion?

My very dear Rabbi Silver:

I have just read your letter and cannot refrain from thanking you for your kindness and personal attention to me in the midst of so much work in which you are engaged with the sudden outburst of the Palestinian pogroms. My heart is so filled with grief that I can hardly write; to think of it that in the 20th century civilization Jews are still being slaughtered
as in the dark era of Czarist Russia. I still remember the 1905 slaughter in Russia although I was a little girl then the Old impressions is still lingering in my memory.

I am an active member of the Pioneer Women's Organization to help the Pioneers in Palestine and now we are organizing a Palestine Emergency Fund Committee of which I am the secretary.
Isn't it too bad that in the three years of our ^{Club's} existence in this city we have but a handful of women all told about 50 in number. We hope in to-day's mass meeting at the Center we may now stir the sympathy of the Jewish women of Cleveland.

From all the books you have so far suggested to me I have read them carefully and have come to the conclusion that the only way a nervous (I am of a nervous temperament) can survive ^{grief} is by active and social work and study. I am trying my best to overcome nervousness by studying, reading and as much social work as my leisure permits. I am studying voice culture and piano accompaniment which I hope will help me in my singing.

Thanking you again and again for your kindness to me and with kindest regards to Mrs Silver and your dear and sweet Daniel. I want to remain

Yours respectfully and friend,
Mrs. Lillian Dumbrow.

Is it true that you do not personally perform a wedding ceremony, unless party concerned is a member of the Temple?

We are not members of the Temple because my folks passed away when I was quite young.

Ever since you confirmed me in 1923, it was my hope that when the day came you would also perform my wedding ceremony. I intend to be married in February and would like to know if you could possibly perform the Ceremony. Would appreciate an answer at your convenience.

כבוד ידידנו הרב היקר והנעלה רב פעלים לעמנו וארצנו
דר. אבא הלל סיכל בר סליט"א קליבלנד.

רב נכבד,

אנו מאמינים שמכתבנו זה יגיעהו לחיים ושלום,
והנני שולחים בזה את ברכתנו לו ולביתו לשנה החדשה
הבאה. יכתב ויחתם בספר הצדיקים לכל טוב כאות נסיון, ויזכר לראות ביטוי עמנו בארצנו אמן.

בסח קבל כבודו את התלגרמה אשר שלחנו אליו
בראשית השבוע העבר, אשר בה הודענו לו בטלים מועדות
את צרת-מוסדנו לחצו ורחקו, ובזה הננו ממלאים את
דברינו, והננו מודיעים לו בעזר רב כי הצרה הגדולה
והנוראה אשר באה לעמנו בארצנו, פגעה באופן מיוחד
במוסדנו מושב הזקנים פה בירושלים.
כי הסדעות והמהומות גרמו להפסק האמנה בארץ,
אין מל"ה ואין מקיף, ומוסדנו העומד בעול של חובות
ישנים וכל התנהגותו בשנים האחרונות הנהו כבקפה ובאמנה. נמצא מיד בהתפרצות הסדעות במצב של הרס ר"ל.
כי הנחפזם והסוחר של המכולת וכן שאר המספיקים
למוסד לא חפצו לתת כלום בלעדי נגר בסף מזון, וכימים
האלה הפכסו הרגילה מעטה מאד.

בקושי רב ובמאמצים גדולים עלתה לנו להספיק את
הנחוץ למאות הזקנים בשבועות האלה, ובאנו בהתחבולות גדולות לשלם כימים הקרובים, לצערנו לא שלמנו כבר
משכרת לעובדים העניים במוסדנו זה שלשה חדשים, ועכשיו
באים וקרובים ימים וירחים קשים, ומצבנו איום ונורא.

זאת סגרמה שמנינו לכבודו בתלגרמה בתור אחד
מראשי המסיעים בירינו, והננו מבקשים ומחננים בזה מכבודו בשם מאות זקנים עניים וגלמודים, רצוצים
ושבורים, ועשרות משפחות של העובדים האומללים משרחים ומקידים.

My dear Rolf Silver

When I last saw you, during the first week of August at Zürich, you requested me to look up your parents when I got to Palestine.

I reached Palestine on August the tenth and left there just two weeks ago to day. The second day after I arrived I visited your folks. They were certainly pleased to hear from you and they appeared well and happy. Later, when the riots broke out and an attack was made on Rehavia (it was not a serious attack and was easily and quickly repulsed) I do not know for certain because I was then in Tel Aviv - whether or not

It was a terrible experience that I had to go through as my first visit to Palestine. But I believe that these events should not discourage us in the least - and we ought to come out of this with unshaken faith and confidence in Palestine.

On the ship travelling with me is Stephen Wise, Bishop, Rotterdam and some others - to whom I related some of my experiences during the two weeks of visiting which I witnessed.

This morning we were all shocked when we received the news of Marshall's passing - He is certainly needed more now than ever.

With kindest regards and all good wishes for a happy New Year for you and all Israel..

Sincerely,

Israel M. Goldman

they abandoned their home and ~~went~~ to seek shelter at the near-by Rastidon Convent - as did some of their neighbors - But this I do know that when I was again in Beharish two days before I left the country - I found your folks in their home and amidst the general fright they were very calm - especially your father. He told me he does not intend to leave the house.
 Luckily - things were safe at that time already, and from reports I have had - Beharish has been very quiet and safe since I left. I believe therefore that you should not be alarmed and worried - for no doubt things are very peaceful and calm now, even during the height of the risk.
 Beharish was considered the safest place.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

Undoubtedly, you are aware of a letter dated Sept. 11th sent to me by Rabbi Foner, & virtually requesting my resignation from the staff of the Temple high school. I am taking the liberty of writing to you instead of to Rabbi Foner, since it was under your sanction that I began my teaching career at the Temple.

I in no way wish to justify or defend my transgressions on my part, but I should like to explain my attitude towards the matter.

Rabbi Foner states that he has come to the conclusion that I am not interested in my work at the Temple high school. I assure you that nothing could be further from the truth. Without any marked sentimentality, I wish to state that I have taught because of a real "call" to do so. Feeling a burning desire to give my pupils the tenets of Judaism as taught by our prophets, I was convinced that I had a real and vital experience to share with them. It was in this spirit that I taught at a great sacrifice of my time and convenience.

I must confess that I am bewildered at Rabbi Foner's reference to matters of school discipline and attendance as forcing him to his conclusion. My attendance was regular except for personal illness. Discipline was maintained not only in the academic sense in that I had control of my classroom, but also in the modern pedagogical sense in that there was a reciprocal relation of courtesy and respect, of exchange of ideas and ideas between myself and my pupils. Moreover, I was often consulted by my pupils about their personal problems, and was constantly assured of their appreciation of my interest in them. We have formed many enduring friendships.

Perhaps, my policy of inviting free and untrammelled discussion and criticism may be considered as an infraction of discipline. It is my belief that the discussion method is excellent for fostering that search for truth and development of human values, which are among the supreme objectives of Judaism.

I do not tender my resignation from the staff. To do so would be to falsify my position. I am still ^{as} interested in the high school and its pupils as I have been. I cheerfully accept the fact, ^{however,} that after 3 years of service during which I have striven to give my best, I have been summarily "fired". But, honestly, Rabbi, what is the real reason for my dismissal? Is it another proof that anyone really anxious to teach in the broadest sense of the term cannot do so within the confines of organized religion? In closing, I wish to thank you for giving me the opportunity to teach at your school. It was a very illuminating and enriching experience.

Sincerely Yours,
R. J. Libowich, L.H.S.

Rabbi A. H. Silver,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

The new clubhouse of the City Club of Cleveland, at 708 Vincent Avenue, is rapidly rounding into shape and it is now expected that it will be occupied by the club early in October. Toward the expense that is involved in the present program, the membership as a whole has taxed itself more than $20,000, a very large proportion of which has already been paid in.

The directors of the club feel that the unequal financial ability of the members makes it desirable to ask them to contribute varying additional sums toward the expense involved in bringing our new clubhouse into existence.

They are, therefore, asking you for the subscription indicated on the inclosed slip. If the amount suggested does not meet your approval, it may easily be changed by you and the subscription returned to the club office in the inclosed addressed envelope.

Very truly yours,

E. W. Doty
President.

Rabbi Silver,
% The Temple,
City
Dear Rabbi:

I heard that you intend to abolish the social activities of The Temple as they seem to be crowding out the religious end for the younger people. I do not know whether this is true or not, but if true, I am sure, dear Rabbi, you would not have to resort to such measures if you could give us an idea, a point of view, a vision, or whatever you wish to call it, of God and Judaism in which we could simply, sincerely trust and believe.

This is not only my opinion but that of other young men and women, and I find we are all confused. We cannot accept the Orthodox Jew with his countless meaningless laws and customs that are

obsolete, hampering, and seem to subordinate the fundamental laws of Judaism. Now can we accept the Reformed Jew with his unceasing compromise with Christianity.
The smatterings of science we assimilated in school tend to add only more unrest and make God and Religion still farther away.

What can we believe? How can we reconcile our present day mode of thought and living with the faith of our fathers.
On every side I hear these questions, not only among the friends of my group, but Waldman in his book "The Disinherited" writes of the same problem. Lewisohn in the opening chapters of "Mid-Channel" voices the same cry.

Perhaps you, Rabbi, who are so wise and understanding, can understand and give me an answer. Everytime I say "God" I feel like a hypocrite.

My dear Mr. Tuteur:-

I was surprised to hear from you yesterday that you had expected a letter from me prior to your departure for Europe about your attendance at the Zionist Congress in Zurich. There was evidently a misunderstanding.

My suggestion was that I would endeavor to procure a credential or a visitors card for you to attend the sessions of the Congress and upon your arrival in Zurich I was to give it to you. From the enclosed letters which I am sending you, you will see that I corresponded with the New York office prior to my departure for Europe. Having learned from them that it was impossible to procure a deputy delegate's card I obtained a visitors card for you when I arrived in Zurich. I did not have to purchase it. I kept it for you right through the sessions, hoping that you would arrive any day. I could not communicate with you in Munich for I did not have your address.

I am sorry that you were prevented from coming to Zurich. I am sure that you would have enjoyed the sessions, particularly those of the extended Jewish Agency which were attended by some of the outstanding Jews of the world and which was presided over by the late lamented Louis Marshall.

My dear Dr. Letowich:-

Permit me to thank you for your kind letter of Sept. 12th. I was rather surprised to read the contents of it.

From the conversation which I had with Rabbi Feuer I received the impression that you were not sufficiently interested in the work which you were doing at the Temple, as indicated by the irregularity of your attendance, tardiness, lack of system in keeping your roll book, inadequate preparation of lessons, etc. At no time did Rabbi Feuer indicate to me that he was dissatisfied with the particular interpretation which you gave to your subject. You undoubtedly know that we have never interfered with the freedom of instruction of any of our teachers.

Rabbi Feuer may have received an erroneous impression as regards your attitude toward your work in the school but I spoke to Mrs. Marks yesterday and she too, somehow, received a similar impression.

The action which was taken is of course not binding for all future time. I trust that we may have the opportunity of resuming our contacts and association in the future.

Rabbi A.H. Silver,
The Temple,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Rabbi Silver,

It is, indeed, a long time since I have seen you. When I was in Cleveland, during the past Summer, I made an effort to reach you, but was not surprised to find that you were out of the city. I recalled later that you were attending the Zurich conferences.

I am now entering my second year with the Bridgeport congregation. We have a large Jewish population here, and there is much work to be done. Mrs. Martin and I have been extremely happy in our work and our associations. Incidentally, the Cleveland young lady who rode down with you from Pittsburgh to Cleveland a number of years ago, following the B'nai Brith banquet, is now my wife.

May I intrude upon your busy moments at this season to write you about my sister-in-law, my wife's sister, Mrs. Rosa Safier, who recently returned from New York to reside again in Cleveland. I cannot now enter into the complex question of her domestic troubles and relations, which is a story in itself. She is a person of exceeding charm, gentility, and earnestness.

Outside of other matters which do not concern us here, one of her immediate and pressing problems is the religious education of her two daughters, ages eight and eleven. As Mrs. Safier is of Reform persuasion and lives close to the Temple, she is very anxious to register the children in your school, and no other.

In this connection, she interviewed Mr. Levy, and pointed out to him that under present domestic circumstances she is not in a position to become a member, but would pay what is, or has been, the stipulated sum (is it not $50.00?) to send one's children to the religious school. Mr. Levy advised that it would be necessary to purchase the only available seats remaining, costing $250.00, to enjoy the privilege of the Religious School, and referred Mrs. Safier to the Bureau of Jewish Education where her children could attend without fee.

This was an unhappy suggestion, in view of all the circumstances, of which I am sure Mr. Levy was not fully cognizant. I am fully appreciative of the problems of your Religious School and the increasing difficulties of larger and larger registrations each year. Nevertheless, I am going to ask you to make an exception in this case, if necessary, and to admit Mrs. Safier's children on the old basis (if such it is) of the $50.00 fee. Can this not be arranged?

During recent years, Mrs. Safier has turned to me for advice on many matters. I have taken a special interest in her two lovely children, who, I am anxious, should receive a thorough Jewish training. I was looking forward with real joy to the time when she and her two children would return

Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Abba:

I am writing you at this time to inquire about two students just entering upon their first year at the Hebrew Union College, i.e. Adolph J. Feinberg and Jerry Polatsek. What I would like to know is whether these students are receiving a scholarship from The Temple. If so, are you taking care of this and sending the money directly to the boys, or will the scholarship money be sent to the office of the Union? In the latter case, I would appreciate it if your Sisterhood will write a formal request to the Board of Governors of the College, requesting that these scholarships be awarded to Adolph J. Feinberg and Jerry Polatsek respectively. Inasmuch as tuition at the University of Cincinnati as well as Dormitory fees here at the College are due and payable now, I will appreciate it very much if you will kindly look into this matter and let me hear from you at your early convenience.

With cordial greetings and warmest regards for you and yours and the wish that the New Year will bring you abundant blessing, I am ever

My dear Dr. Englander:-

Last year the Temple Women's Association sent two scholarships to the Hebrew Union College, one directly to the College to be used at its discretion and the other a designated scholarship of $400 to be paid out month by month to Polish.

This year the Temple has sent two students to the College - Politzer and Feinberg. The Temple Women's Association accordingly desires to send to the College this year the sum of $500 for its fixed scholarship and two additional scholarships of $400 each to be paid out to these two boys. I trust that you will undertake the distribution of the Politzer and Feinberg scholarships. We will in the next few days send you a check for $1300. Please see that the office credits the Temple Women's Association with these three scholarships.

May I call your attention to one slight error in the syllabus of the H. U. C. which I just received. On page 73 I am credited with having the degree of LL.D. This is a mistake. The degree which I received from Western Reserve University is Litt.D. Please make this correction in the future publications.

THE LIQUIDATING MIDLAND BANK

CLEVELAND

TRUST DEPT.

September 23, 1929.

TO THE HOLDERS OF FIRST MORTGAGE
FEE AND LEASEHOLD SIX AND ONE HALF PERCENT. SERIAL GOLD BONDS OF THE PALACE THEATRE CORPORATION:-

We have been advised by Palace Theatre Corporation that there will not be sufficient funds available to pay the interest and serial maturity due October 1, 1929, on its First Mortgage Fee and Leasehold Six and One-half Percent. (6½%) Serial Gold Bonds. We understand that a Bondholders' Protective Committee is being organized in order that the interests of the bondholders can be served by working together as a group, and that you will receive further advice from the Committee in the near future.

In view of the fact that funds will not be available on October 1st, kindly do not forward your bonds and coupons for collection until further advised.

Yours very truly,

THE LIQUIDATING MIDLAND BANK, and WILLARD W. WILSON, TRUSTEES.

JAS.EM

Your Committee feels that the organization of the bondholders will enable the bondholders, through their Committee, to keep in closest contact with the property, protect the income for their benefit, thoroughly analyze the situation, do whatever is necessary in order to collect the defaults or else take over the property and re-sell same and otherwise handle the situation for the best interests of the bondholders. The property is a very substantial and valuable one and the bondholders acting collectively, would, in the opinion of the Committee, be in a far better position to protect their investment than if they acted individually.

The Committee will keep the bondholders advised as to developments in the matter and as to progress being made.

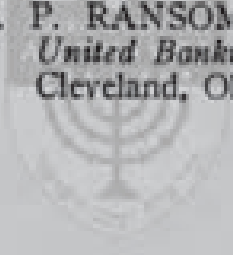

The Committee cannot effectively represent the bondholders unless a great majority of them deposit their bonds as herein requested. You are, therefore, urged to execute the enclosed form of transmittal letter and forward same, together with your bonds and the coupons attached thereto, to THE UNITED BANKING AND TRUST COMPANY, 1612 EUCLID AVENUE, CLEVELAND, OHIO, with as little delay as possible. You will receive from The United Banking and Trust Company a transferable certificate of deposit evidencing the deposit of your bonds. Preferably, your bonds should be forwarded by registered mail, using the self-addressed envelope enclosed herewith. All inquiries should be addressed to B. D. Gordon, Secretary, Bondholders' Protective Committee, 1108 Ulmer Building, Cleveland, Ohio.

To The Holders of

First Mortgage Fee and Leasehold

Six and One-Half Per Cent (6½%) Serial Gold Bonds of Palace Theatre Corporation:

You have received from The Liquidating Midland Bank and Willard W. Wilson, Trustees of the above bond issue, under date of September 23, 1929, a letter in which you were advised of certain defaults under the terms of the First Mortgage and Trust Deed securing the above bonds.

The fact that certain payments of the principal which matured, have not been made, and that Palace Theatre Corporation will be unable to furnish the funds necessary for the payment of principal and interest maturing on October 1, 1929, creates a default in the bond issue which, in the judgment of the undersigned, makes necessary concerted action on the part of the bondholders to protect their interests.

In view of the existing circumstances, the undersigned have consented to act as a Committee for the protection of the interests of all bondholders. The Committee has organized by selecting Mr. R. P. Ransom, Vice President of The United Banking and Trust Company, as Chairman. The members of the Committee have become parties to a Bondholders' Protective Agreement dated September 23, 1929, under the terms of which The United Banking and Trust Company, of Cleveland, Ohio, will act as Depositary. This Agreement, we believe, contains ample provisions for the protection of the bondholders. The undersigned are now requesting the bondholders to join with them in the deposit of their bonds with The United Banking and Trust Company, 1612 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, as Depositary.

The object of the Committee will be to protect the interests of all depositing bondholders to the fullest extent possible. The Committee will make a careful study of the problems arising in connection with this issue of bonds and will keep in close touch with the operation of the property. The deposit of the bonds will place the Committee in a position enabling them to negotiate with reference to the property for the best interests of the bondholders and, if necessary, to authorize foreclosure proceedings.

The formation of the Committee has the approval of the original underwriters of the bond issue, and the Committee has been organized with full knowledge of the Trustee.

The Committee understands that in 1925, when the bond issue was placed on the property, the property produced an income in excess of $180,000.00 per year, which was more than sufficient to take care of its obligations. The principal tenant is the Orpheum Theatre Circuit which rents the theatre called The Palace Theatre. Under this lease, a guaranteed minimum rental of $40,000.00 per year is paid and, in addition thereto one-half of the profits of the theatre. Due to changes which have occurred in the theatre situation in South Bend, the excess rental realized from the profits of the theatre has been greatly reduced, thereby materially reducing the gross income of the property. In addition to the theatre, the property contains a large assembly hall and ballroom and ten store-rooms, all located at one of the principal business corners in the city of South Bend.

Dear Member:

May we have payment for your share of stock, $20.00, at this time?

I feel it unnecessary to stress the heavy call for funds on the club treasury as the work progresses. You realize the need we are certain.

The directors have authorized me to extend the privilege of deferred payments on the stock assessment to any member finding that arrangement more suitable to him. If you wish to make that kind of arrangement, I shall be glad to have your proposal in writing. If not, will you please send your remittance to the club at once.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

The latest news is that the orthodox Rabbis here are full of fight against Goldman and I am full of tzores because the Reflex is dead broke. For the time being Goldman can do nothing for the Reflex because he is barely acquainted with the personnel of his new congregation. Therefore, again I must send out a S. O. S. to a few friends to come to the aid of the Reflex. From the bookkeeper's point of view it is already on a paying basis, but from a practical point of view I must always delay the mailing out of the Reflex because there is not enough money in the Reflex treasury. If you want to help me out, kindly do it at once because the Reflex is literally dead broke. Little money came in during the summer months and hence my embarrassment.

The orthodox rabbis in Chicago are up in arms against Goldman, but since I am the editor of the Courier they can do him little harm. He is busy building up his congregation at the expense of Temple Shalom. Many members of the Temple Shalom have already joined Goldman's congregation.

When I left our father in Zurich on the morning of Tuesday, September 3rd, I was so cheerful and so sanguine. Mr. Marshall had only one wish and that was to get back home as soon as possible, because he had a great many pressing commitments, - all pro bono publico.

In this hour of our sorrow, it is a source of great consolation to us that he left us such a priceless heritage, - a heritage of marvelous service and unbounded love for his fellowmen.

Although I have not heard from our mutual friend, Fabb Silver, direct, I know that he must share our grief. How often Mr. Marshall talked about him to me during the first week in Zurich. I do not believe there is a man in the

I have yours of the 23rd with reference to scholarships awarded to students Polatsek and Adolph Feinberg, and two other scholarships. I have sent your communication to the office of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations which handles such details.

I have also made note of the mistake in your degree, and this will be corrected in the next issue of the catalogue.

With kindest greetings to you and your dear ones, and with very best wishes for the coming year, I am, as always,

My dear Rabbi:

Will you consider this letter an introduction to the Misses Greenblatt? These young ladies have been in Wheeling for the past two years, and I have come in contact with them both socially and in business. To put it tersely they are 100 percent. I am their unofficial guardian.

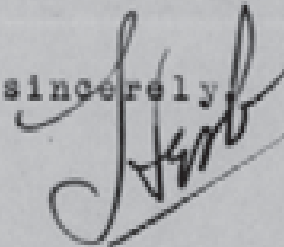

They are coming to Cleveland because there scope of activities in Wheeling both socially and otherwise is very limited.

These girls of course want employment. They are all three stenographers, and I told them that I knew that you would do anything you could to help them find employment.

I will of course appreciate any courtesies shown these young ladies.

Everybody including your daddy-in-law are in good shape, and the Baer family join me in sending my very best regards to both you and Virginia.

Yours sincerely

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Here I am at my new and maybe permanent address. I like it here immensely. Have been so busy the past two weeks - getting settled - registering in the graduate school & etc. that I have been unable to make any social calls as yet. I hope to have time to do so quite soon.

I think I have an excellent chance to stay here quite a long time if not permanently. I not only had good fortune in getting the chance to come here but apparently my good fortune continues! Bronfenbrenner tells me that if I work hard and make good, he has a place on his staff for me. He wants me to specialize in an extremely fascinating field of bacteriology - the filterable viruses - a field characterized primarily by the profundity of our ignorance concerning it.

The filterable viruses (you are going to get a lecture now) constitute a group of disease agents that have never been seen. We know some of the things they will do - among them - the property of passing thru filters that will hold back the smallest known bacterium. Such diseases as small-pox - rabies - encephalitis lethargica - infantile paralysis are included in the group. The field is small enough for a specialty and yet big enough for a man to spend his whole life at it without exhausting the possibilities.

The chief hopes ultimately to have a chain of filterable viruses in his dept. and it is mine if I work hard and make good. Beaufort-Brenner has outlined a very stiff 3 year program for my Ph.D. but I think I can pass it successfully. In addition I have a very pleasant summer to look forward to as the chief is taking me to the Marine Biological Laboratory at Woods Hole Mass - to continue my researches.

I'd be very glad to hear from you if you can find time to write. With best wishes for a very happy new year to you and your family, I am

Sincerely

Morris C. Leibman

OFFICIAL REPORTER

My dear Dr. Silver:

I hand you herewith a copy of your address delivered yesterday at the dedication of the Temple House of Congregation Beth Elohim, Brooklyn.

You will recall that I stated to you that I would mail this to you for such revision as you may wish to make. This address, together with the one delivered by Judge Hughes, will be printed and issued in book form. I am very anxious to get it back at the earliest possible moment and hope you can see your way clear to send it back to me within the next few days.

With highest esteem, I am,

Faithfully yours,

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver,
Rabbi of "The Temple"

Mr. Jacob Billikopf,

My dear Billikopf:-

Ever since the death of Mr. Marshall I have wanted to write to you but I knew that you would be literally swamped with messages of condolence. I also knew that you would understand without my writing it how deeply the loss of Mr. Marshall has affected me. His passing is short of a calamity. And the tragedy of the situation is that there is no one to take his place in American Jewish life.

We held a memorial meeting in honor of Mr. Marshall in our Temple on Sept. 18th and close on to two thousand people turned out to pay tribute. I have seldom attended a meeting where such truly genuine grief was expressed at the passing of a great man.

I addressed another memorial meeting last Wednesday evening in the Union Temple of Brooklyn, where close on to a thousand people were present.

Please convey to your dear wife the profoundest sympathies of Mrs. Silver and of me in the passing of her beloved and distinguished father.

Mr. Jacob Billikopf

I hope I shall have the pleasure of seeing you in the near future.

With kindest regards, I am

Dear Friend:

I enclose herewith copy of a letter I have just received from the Bnai Benjamin in Palestine. I know you will be interested to read of the remarkable bravery of the members of this organization.

I have been helping them since 1913, and have encouraged them in every conceivable way - morally and financially.

This letter is strictly confidential, and requires no answer.

Heartiest greetings from house to house.

the way of complete repudiation of his statement. Needless to say that I accept your version as 100% true. Please return the enclosed letter to me.
