My dear Rabbi Selove:

It was kind of you to write

RABBI

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver,
The Temple,
105th Street at Ansel Road,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Silver:

The enclosed copy of letter from Dr. Lauterbach, of Cincinnati, Ohio while self-explanatory needs an additional word to make clear its purport.

A local man by the name Morris Ungar, is about to be married to a Miss Cook also of Youngstown, Ohio. The groom, some years ago, was divorced from his wife, who is now in an insane asylum. The divorce was granted in Reno, Nevada, as Ohio does not grant divorces on the grounds of insanity.

I know nothing of the circumstance relating to the cause of her insanity. To be morally certain of the right to perform such a marriage ceremony I wrote to Dr. Lauterbach for information to which the enclosed is a reply. I do not know whether Mr. Ungar and Miss Cook are coming to you to be married, but I feel that you should be in possession of the facts that you might know how to govern yourself in the matter.

May I suggest that couples coming from Youngstown, Akron, and other nearby cities to be married in Cleveland, be subjected to a careful examination as to the reason why they leave their home city to be married. In almost every case there is some reason for the action, and in the interests of preserving the dignity of the rabbinical office, the rabbi should not be ready to perform marriage ceremonies for couples whose antecedents they are wholly ignorant of.

For obvious reasons I must ask you to treat the enclosed information as strictly private and confidential. The letter is written in the interests of preserving rabbinical honor and dignity.

Sincerely,

IEP.ns.

Rabbi A. H. Silver

Dear Sir:-

It surprises me very much not to have received an answer to either one of my letters.

I have every right in the world to expect more from you as a leader of people, than from the ordinary person, so when I appealed to you never for one minute did I think I wouldn't have the courtesy of a reply.

When you wonder why people fall away from Temple attendance you can find the reason right here. It is loss of faith. Why shouldn't I lose faith, first of all a Rabbi, a man who was about to enter as a leader and who wished to win and hold the respect of people, has not the self respect or honesty to fulfill his promise by paying his bill. Then when I appeal to his superior also a Rabbi and one who I thought was held by an entire nation as a leader, ~~does~~ not show me the common courtesy of a reply, I ask why should people attend services

and have faith and respect for such leaders. This situation seems to bad when you think of one like myself who was brought up to hold Judaism in such high esteem, shrouded through dishonesty, loose faith.

My father was a leader in Judaism in the city in which he lived as well as throughout the state. In the city of Cleveland
I have relatives who were leader and right in your own temple
there still is one.

You cannot expect me to keep this to myself for all I ask is honest treatment a thing I give to other.

My Dear Rabbi Silver: —.

I am a young man of the Jewish faith here in the Sanatorium of the City Hospital for a period over eight months. As I have attended Sabbath School under the late Rabbi Gries years ago, I write to you directly regarding a very serious problem of which I wish to discuss with you if you can spare a brief time in coming here to see me, I cannot describe here in full but if you think enough to support and defend one of your own brethren of the faith that is all I ask, otherwise there is no obligation on your

matter will be appreciated.

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I would appreciate your advice as to the enclosed - what to do with it - if anything. I should perhaps transcribe it into type writing, but the estrangement that might ensue in my regard of it, might be too much for me - or it.

You may wonder at or even criticize me for interesting myself in these things, but unconsciously and now consciously I have been seeing that art is involved in these problems. It must fight for its integrity.

How may its integrity be preserved? Not obviously by self-interest and withdrawal but by fighting at the breach where if victory is to be won it shares in it, or if defeat is suffered it may received without appreciation.

Though it is something of which you have more means of knowledge than I, I feel that it is possible that modern life may be more detrimental to Jews and Jewish traditions than to Christians - For one thing, because Jews are prone to be content to maintain a status quo and, not to realize upon their energies. To me it seems a fault in the Palestinian movement that there is not, so far as I have been able to see - any accompanying artistic expression. I confess I think that a cause is rightly supported that has no artistic characteristics - The word "characteristic" does not seem to fill the bill. The explanation of that view is, if I can express it adequately) that art lends an enterprise a certain candor that is lacking without it. It is an advertisement of good will.

prepare itself for new endeavours.
This is no emotional outburst
but is consistent, I think I may say,
with my past endeavours.

This morning when you were speaking of the Jewish situation in Palestine, and of the cost of Jewish victories the thought that struck me was whether I had not at my disposal some means of backtracking you, or of re-evaluating that cost? For those who make the resources of art their mainstay the language with which they speak solves problems of the first importance but shades attacks.

Not for personal satisfaction
but for benefit that might accrue
I have wanted you to see me rather (if that is the only way out) as a machine with certain capacities than as a personality
in whom, as you must know, your acceptance has not been

From my side the weakness of the art of the present day is its dissociation.

I do not question the power of art to forward the interests of unimportant things and make them dominant. The other side is the good game, and if the capacities of art are recognized it should it is my belief, be a powerful help to a good cause.

This may need a translator
and I will call up tomorrow (Tuesday) to learn if I may see you then.

Sincerely yours

Oliver H. Rosenbaum

If observation of the signs about one is worth anything it seems that there is on the one hand acceptance of the Darwinian theory, and on the other a distinct tendency to regard man as a complete proposition both in respect to the past and future as well as the present - a tendency, if it is not a point of view, which regards the world or that part of it in which man chooses to interest himself, as a setting in which he takes the spot-light and one in which the lower animals are of importance only as they serve as ornaments to him, or by certain unpleasant processes, are turned artificial a situation of total

3. and sunshine lamps.

The scientific discourse is a true Vanderdecken but his struggles attain a grotesqueness that those of his prototype did not possess, because the work that he would shudder at of his own creation, and the Santa who might free him does not sit spinning at home, but is herself caught in a whirl of expenditure, of money, and goes abroad with painted cheeks and a disconcerting eye.

As an antidote for this modern disease which after all is not fundamental but in the veriest sense is superficial I would recall the lines of Coleridge

He prayeth well who loveth well
Both man and bird and beast.
He prayeth best who loveth best
All things, both great and small,
For the great God who loveth us,
He made and loveth all.

My dear Abba:

I am writing to you to secure your interest in a renewal of the Temple's subscription to the Jewish Chautauqua Society. The Temple contributed $25 a year from 1921 to 1924 inclusive, but has not renewed the subscription since that time.

Would it not be possible to secure a continuance of this generous subvention? We are asking only because the finances of the Jewish Chautauqua Society are such that we must go before the public for more funds. Our budget is only a modest sum, namely $14,000 per year, but we have a deficit of $3000 per annum, which very seriously disturbs us. If it were not for the unselfish work of our colleagues, who sacrifice something of their vacation and strength, it would be utterly impossible for us to carry on. We think in view of the fact that the Rabbis are making this sacrifice for the welfare of Jewish life, the layman ought to co-operate a bit, for the entire Jewish community of America is the beneficiary of this kind of work.

If you can persuade your Trustees to continue the subvention to the Society, our officers would be more than grateful to you. I trust you will submit this request to them.

With very kind regards, I am

Fraternally yours,

Louis Wolsey

Your description of her

My dear Wolsey:-

Thank you for your letter of January sixth.

I am enclosing herewith a copy of a letter which I sent some time ago to Miss Jeanette Miriam Goldberg. This will explain to you my attitude toward the Jewish Chautauqua Society. I have had no reason to change my opinion since.

I believe that American Jewish life is over organized, and that we are carrying the dead weight of a lot of organizations which in their day served a purpose but which no longer do. I believe that the good work which the Jewish Chautauqua Society is doing can well be merged with similar activities now being done by other agencies. It is as great a 'mitzwa' to bury the dead as to support the living...

Please remember me to Mrs. Wolsey and the children. Virginia sends her best wishes.

Rabbi Louis I. Newman,
San Francisco, Calif.

My dear Rabbi Newman:-

In your column this week you recount an ~~episode~~ told to you by Jimmie Wise concerning the oratorical ~~exercises~~ of two Rabbis at the Zurich Congress. In as much as Wise and Silver were the only two American Rabbis at Zurich, the allusions are ~~not~~ too subtle.

Jimmie might have told you that the "customarily striking effort" of his father at the Congress was so poor and flat that he went around apologetically among the delegates saying, "wasn't that a rotten speech my father made?" And everyone agreed with him.

It seems that Silver is sticking quite a bit in your craw as well as in Wise's; for Wise would not have gotten his son to manufacture the story out of the whole cloth and you would not have taken the trouble to broadcast it.

Twice within the last few months you have commented in your column about my new Temple Policy without taking the trouble to read our statement in full. Having learned something about the situation in your congregation during my visit to your city, I can understand why this policy has touched you to the quick, and riled you. It seems that Rabbinical ballyhooing doesn't beguile people long either on the Pacific or the Atlantic coast.

I knew how unhappy you were over my visit to San Francisco last February. I promise you, my dear Newman boy, that if you don't behave yourself, I shall come to San Francisco again soon, and give you another taste of the man who is "well-known as an orator." You may then have to have another attack of mysticism....

My dear Dr. Allen:-

Permit me to thank you for your thoughtfulness in sending me a copy of your pamphlet "Miracles and Medicine." I read it with extreme interest.

I agree with you fully that faith-cures are possible in cases of functional disorders where the sufferer has implicit faith in the agency which is assumed to have curative powers. The nature of the agency is, of course, quite immaterial, for it is not the agency - be it saint, relic, shrine or prayer - which cures, but the faith of the subject in it.

I believe, however, that your discussion of miracles in the first part of your pamphlet, is somewhat misleading. The whole subject of miracles ought to be divorced from the subject of faith-cures. A faith-cure is not a miracle. It is as "natural" as cures by drugs or surgery.

Thanking you again for your kindness in sending me your booklet, permit me to remain

Dear Sir,

I think there is no need for me to introduce myself, as my name is most probably known to you. I am now in New York trying to create a market for my Talmud edition. Being a leading member of the World Organization of Jewish Self-Defense I am anxious, at the same time, to do something for our cause which is both holy & urgent. I hear now from my friends neo-workers Messrs E. Eberlin & Sholem Schwarzbard, of Paris, that you are very interested in our work, & am asked to come in touch with you. If you are still enthusiastic for our cause, as every far seeing Jew who truly loves his people must be, I should be glad if we could meet in the nearest future. It is absolutely necessary that we should meet as soon as possible, as there is a number of points to discuss & consider & as I should like to achieve as much as possible during my stay in this country, which will come to an end in May. As, however, I am neither a rich man nor a paid official of ~~our~~ organization a journey to Cleveland is a thing too costly for me. Could you perhaps arrange with some Jewish society or organization to invite me for a lecture?

This would make it possible for me to meet you soon. I am a forceful speaker in Yiddish, Hebrew & English. As subjects I will e.g.
mention: The Talmud the great formator & reformator of the Jewish people, The yellow badge & its history, Behind the scenes of the Schwarzbard Case.

Hoping to get a prompt & favorable
reply, I beg to remain, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully
J. M. Falkind

Ich bestätige dankend den Eingang Ihres gefl. Schreibens, in dessen sofortiger Erledigung die bestellten Werke zum Versand gebracht wurden. Der Sendung fügte ich ein Verzeichnis "Hebraica" bei, das bereits im Oktober ausgegeben wurde, jedoch anscheinend nicht in Ihren Besitz gelangt ist. Ich bitte Sie, diese Liste einer genauen Durchsicht zu unterziehen und mir Ihre Bestellungen baldigst zukommen zu lassen.

Ferner überreiche ich Ihnen in der Anlage eine Aufstellung der Werke des Lissaboner Universitätsprofessors Moses Ben-Sie sabat Amzalak, die, wie mir bekannt ist, sehr stark interessieren werden. Ich hoffe gerne, auch hierauf Ihre Bestellungen zu erhalten.

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver

Dear Mr. Silver:

It is with pleasure that we announce the publication of Dr. S. M. Melamed's latest work, entitled, "Breaking the Tablets" to appear on or about January 25, 1930.

This work will not fail to profoundly affect current Jewish thought, for in it is developed a philosophy of Jewish History which entails a thorough revaluation of all traditional Jewish values. We believe that not since the days of Spinoza's Political Theological Tractate has a Jewish thinker subjected the very fundamentals of Judaism to such a searching philosophical analysis.

"Breaking the Tablets" is a highly stimulating book - a book of great philosophical and historical perspectives.

The author, it should be noted, is a man whose achievements in the field of philosophical and historical inquiry are known throughout Europe as well as America. He is the youngest member of the International Society of Philosophy of Law and Economics. His books have been translated into all European languages. Among these, "Der Staat" is a college textbook not only in Europe, but also in Japan having been translated into Japanese. His "Psychologie des Jüdischen Geistes" is a philosophical classic recorded in the catalogue of select works issued by the Philosophical Congress. "Die Friedensidee" by him was especially translated for President Wilson by Dr. Horace M. Kallen on the suggestion of Colonel House for the material it contains on the League of Nations' idea.

The edition of "Breaking the Tablets" is limited for the reason that it is a book for mature minds and not a mass publication. It is hence desirable that you place your order at once, to insure your getting a copy.

With the consent of the author, we have prepared a small edition De Luxe which we are offering to his readers at five dollars per copy.

We are enclosing an order blank herewith, for your convenience in ordering, on which you will kindly check edition desired and return to us at once with check.

Very truly yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver -

I should apologize for this belated acknowledgment of your appeal for contributions to the Hebrew Union College Maintenance. It is difficult to fail to participate in the various activities fostered by the Jewish Community, especially where the request comes over your signature.

I readily understand that membership in the Temple is usually accompanied by ability to help support the various organizations fostered by the community. But this very membership is being maintained by me as a great sacrifice in order that father be not separated in his declining years from that association which has been the custom of his lifetime. I feel it necessary to mention this in order to explain why we are not able to respond each time an appeal is made.

I enclose herewith a check for $3.00. This week marks the anniversary of my mother's death and the contribution which it has been customary in the past for me to make to the Flower Fund in her memory I forward to you to be used as you see fit.

Wishing you success in your various undertakings and extending to you and Mrs. Silver congratulations upon the arrival of your second son,

Dear Rabbi and Mrs. Silver;

Congratulations,

felicitations, best wishes, and (might I add) וְיָבִין on the birth of your new, little son. If your sons, dear rabbi, emulate your example in life, you shall certainly, to some degree, have fulfilled the request in Pirke Aboth:

וְיָבִין לְיָמֵינוּ כִּי יִהְיֶה דָּרֵךְ.

How are you,

and Mrs. Silver? I hope she is well.

How is little Danny getting along?
He must be old enough already to speak for himself.

I have been getting along pretty well since I returned after the vacation. I am on the Freshman Debating team at U. C. I am rather interested in debating, as in anything pertaining to public speaking. In the tryout and practice debate, I must have made a favorable showing.

The final semester examinations come next week, so I am kept rather busy at present. I anticipate, as I have already told you, satisfactory grades.

Mother and the folks write me that they are well. I suppose you see the family, every Sunday at services, however.

I close, wishing you sincerely all that you yourself invoke God to bless him with,

Your ardent admirer

Dear Abbo:

We were certainly pleased to hear the good news about the arrival of your second son, and glad that Virginia got over it and is feeling allright.

Irving will graduate this coming Friday, and it seems that he insists upon entering college in September instead of this February. He tells me that he would rather take up a Post Graduate course at the present time.

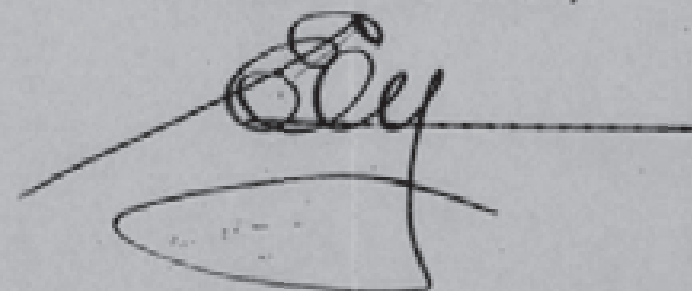

Will you please let me know when you expect to be in New York, as I would like to see you personally and talk a few things over with you.

At the present time I am not in the position to send you any money, but I will in the near future.

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

On checking details for the Mayfield Mausoleum, Cleveland Heights, the question arose as to the proper design of the "Star of Bethlehem".

The matter of doubt is whether or not the upper horizontal member should continue over the left diagonal and under the right diagonal as shown in Design "A", or whether the upper horizontal member should go under the left diagonal and over the right diagonal as shown in design "B".

The matter was left for you to judge; and so I refer it to you to learn as to which is right, or whether or not it makes any difference.

I would appreciate your decision as to this matter at an early opportunity, so that I could instruct the contractors to proceed with some of the detailed work.

In answer to your letter of Jan. 22nd,
I wish to advise that personally, I do not

The old Talmudical Jew does not believe

As for the Jewish Self Defense, there

I am glad you are going to speak on "Our National Disgrace." It is certainly a disgrace the way the insane are treated in our state hospitals. I am in a position to know how the insane are treated in Cleveland State Hospital as I know very well a woman who was a patient there two years. She was discharged five years ago, and was an invalid two years. Caused by the brutal treatment she received there, though she was never vicious. I do not think she was insane when her husband took her there, but had a severe nervous breakdown at a trying time of her life caused by a great grief. The treatment and associations there would cause most people to become insane. She came from sturdy healthy Eng. parents who died of old age. She is now a useful member of society taking care of her husband and son, doing all her own work; also trying to better the conditions of the poor, sick insane. The food is horrible, the treatment horrible, brutal, overcrowded etc. Not many Jewish people go insane, or sent to prison. A few years ago I heard a well known speaker say in a public address that if insanity kept on increasing at the rate it had the last few years, it would not be long before there would not be enough sane people to care for the insane. I believe the time will come when the Jewish people will be the world's leaders and rulers. The Bible says so. They must be like Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, etc. good Jews. I am very much interested in Palestine, non-Jewish

I am sending you herewith letter with the brief synopsis of the "Romance of Steel" by Mr. Miller.

Mr. Miller suggested John Love of The Plain Dealer as a good man.

if the date would be convenient. Mr. Miller will be absent from the city until early in March.

I believe this proposed symposium would prove to be a "feast"

My dear Rabbi:

I just tried to locate you at the Temple and your residence and was unable to reach you.

The Province of Manitoba bonds are all sold. We however were able to locate a small amount of the Province of Ontario, Canada 5% bonds due December 2, 1960, of which we have purchased $3,000 for you, according to the enclosed confirmation.

In view of the fact that Ontario is the principal Canadian Province, having an estimated population of 3,200,000, which is approximately 30% of the entire Dominion's population, whereas Manitoba's population is 639,000, we believe that you will be more than well pleased. However, in view of the fact that we are confirming the Ontario without your approval, we want you to know that it is done subject to your acceptance. Unless we hear from you to the contrary, we will assume that the Ontario will be satisfactory to you.

Assuring you of our appreciation of this business, we are,

To Holders of Ulmer Building 6%
Leasehold Serial Gold Bonds:

I very much regret to inform you that it will be impossible for The Public Square Improvement Company, which owns the Ulmer Building, to meet the interest coupons on its first mortgage leasehold bonds which will be due on February 1st. The records show that you are one of the owners of these bonds. Inability of the company to meet this obligation at the present time may be attributed to several clauses:

(1) For a period of several years two entire floors of the building were occupied by The Van Sweringen Company. Their occupancy covered one-sixth of all of the office space in the entire building. Upon the completion of the Terminal Tower Building on the Public Square in the early part of 1928, the Van Sweringens vacated all of this space. This caused a very serious cut in the revenue from the building and created a large amount of vacant space, from which the building has been slow in recovering.

(2) Completion of the Terminal Tower Building and the shifting of tenants from other buildings into this building created a bad office building rental condition in the city. As a result, competition for tenants has been unusually keen and there has been some lowering of rents all of which affected the income of the Ulmer Building, and from which it takes time to recover.

(3) In July of 1928, S. Ulmer and Sons, Inc., one of the largest tenants in the building was forced into receivership. This had a serious effect on the building and resulted in additional vacancies and increased difficulty in renting space.

Despite these handicaps the percentage of occupancy of office space in the building has increased from a low of about 58% to a present occupancy of 78.1%. The T. W. Grogan Company, managers of the building, estimate that within a few months the building should be 90% full. They also state that the building will earn all of the charges accruing against it when it is 82% full. We therefore feel that we are almost at the turning point and that within a short time the building will have an 82% occupancy which will carry all charges and in a short time thereafter an additional occupancy which will produce enough income to make up any present deficit, and to save a profit from operation.

The company has had an unfortunate experience in connection with a lease which it made for the sign rights on the roof to a lessee considered financially responsible located in New York. The rental is $1,000 per month and there is a delinquency at present of $13,000, for which amount suit has been filed in New York.

The building has been managed for the past year and a half by The

T. M. Grogan Company who have supplied it with capable management. In addition to this all expenditures of every kind are checked and approved by The Guardian Trust Company. Every dollar of income is being applied towards the cost of operation of the building and towards the charges against the property. No officer or director of the company draws any salary or compensation. About 92% of the stock of the company which owns this property is owned by S. Ulmer and Sons, Inc., which has just been reorganized.

The Public Square Improvement Company owns the leasehold on the property and under the terms of the lease it pays a present ground rent of $44,625 per year. All of the ground rent has been promptly paid, although there is some present deficit in taxes. The leasehold bond issue, of which you hold one or more of the bonds is in the total amount of $375,000. The interest due on February 1st is the semi-annual interest on these bonds. The property was appraised in January of 1928 by Wm. A. Greenlund, Robt. F. Borwald and The Sam W. Emerson Company, who would all be ranked among the most competent appraisers in this city and their appraisal shows that the equity of the company in the property over and above the leasehold bond issue is a very substantial one.

With the completion of the new Union Terminal Station on the Public Square involving a local and suburban traffic estimated at 300,000 people per day in addition to the railroad traffic of all of the railroads entering the city excepting the Pennsylvania, the Ulmer Building is one of the best located office buildings in Cleveland and the desirability of its location and its value will increase materially. The completion of the station is scheduled for the early summer of this year. Some trains have been running into it since December 1st. Many millions of dollars are being spent within a stone's throw of the Ulmer Building in connection with the Terminal group development which should have a very favorable effect upon this property.

My purpose in writing this letter is to express our deep regret at this unexpected disappointment and to advise the holders of bonds not to become alarmed and above all not to sacrifice their bonds. We believe it is only a matter of a comparatively short time until the Company will be able to make up its deficit and to pay the interest on these bonds.

Very truly yours,

President.

Dear Reader:

During the past two years there have been nation-wide elections in the United States, Great Britain, Germany, Australia, Mexico, and 33 other countries -- in each case a new group controls the affairs of state, with new policies and new methods. Furthermore, the character, political affiliations, and ownership of many papers have changed in this period. These many changes have inevitably impaired the usefulness of the POLITICAL HANDBOOK OF THE WORLD, which you purchased in 1928.

To meet these conditions, the Political Handbook has been thoroughly revised as of January first of this year, and with a new section on the United States, will be published on February 20th, as the POLITICAL HANDBOOK OF THE WORLD, 1930. This volume gives in compact and readable form the essential information on the rulers, the political parties with their programs and leaders, and the newspapers and periodicals with their political affiliations and editors.

Are the Republicans keeping the promises they made in the presidential campaign of 1928? What does the Labor Government plan to do in England once the Naval Conference is ended? How does it happen that André Tardieu, the leader of a group of less than ten percent of the Chamber of Deputies, is Premier of France? What is the significance of the recent expulsion of Bukharin from the Political Bureau of the Communist Party in Russia? Light may be thrown on these and many similar difficult questions by referring to the

Dear Dr. Silver

We know you to be a Zionist, actively interested not only in the present establishment of Palestine, but also in the future Zion.

Avukah, by way of a brief explanation, is the student Zionist organization, purporting to establish such groups throughout the American universities which will excite an interest in Zionism on the part of the Jewish youth; for to this younger group must we turn for our future Zionist leaders.

As one of its activities, Avukah publishes an Annual, representative both of its members and of some of the best contemporary Jewish thinkers and writers. This year, in celebration of the fifth anniversary of Avukah, we have planned an especially ambitious publication. Among the contributors are: Professor Martin Buber, Dr. Maurice Hexter, Professor A. Z. Idelson, Dr. Shalom Spiegel, Professor Louis Finkelstein, Dr. Hans Kohn, and many other distinguished scholars whom space does not permit us to mention.

We should like very much to feel that we have your interest and support. May we publish your name among those who recognize and encourage our efforts?

Very sincerely yours
