Dear Abba:

The bearer of this note, Dr. Samuel Portnoy, is about to take up his residence in Cleveland as interne at the Mt. Sinai Hospital. I have always taken a personal interest in his brilliant progress since coming to the United States. Since he will be a total stranger in Cleveland, I felt that it would be stimulating for him to have the privilege of coming in contact with you.

With kind personal greetings from house to house,

I am,

Fraternally,

Cleveland, Ohio

My dear rabbi:

There has recently come to my attention the enclosed article or insertion which I took from a copy of the "Chicago Israelite" issued for the week commencing May 30th. I am not surprised in reading this article as there is constant and renewed agitation for your coming to Chicago. Just last Saturday I had the occasion to take luncheon with several young men, earnest and active in Jewish affairs in Chicago, and the constant topic of conversation was--first the desire to have you with them in Chicago, and secondly if you would accept a call from a certain congregation.

They say your possible coming to Chicago will give a great deal of pleasure and renewed activity to those that are tired of the humbug spread about by a recent arrival from Cleveland. He made a speech recently in which--in the presence of Clarence Darrow, Chicago radical--he condemned the rich and stated that if they should not be hanged, they should be sent to the penitentiary; which antagonized the wealthy men of the congregation, which caused Clarence Darrow to remark that he would like to join a congregation where things of this kind are preached.

Dr. Melamed is in New York at present and I am, therefore, taking the liberty of writing to you.

I assure you that this insert from the Israelite is just a drop of the ocean as to the real talk and conversation that is going on relative to your coming to Chicago.

With kindest personal regards, I remain

Respectfully yours,

Nathan Licht

THE RIGHTS, PRIVILEGES, LIMITATIONS, PREFERENCES, VOTING POWERS, TERMS OF REDEMPTION, AND THE PROHIBITIONS, RESTRICTIONS AND QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTING AND OTHER RIGHTS AND POWERS OF THE PREFERRED STOCK AND COMMON STOCK WITHOUT NOMINAL OR PAR VALUE ARE AS FOLLOWS:

1. The holders of the preferred stock shall be entitled to receive out of the surplus or net profits of the corporation, when and as declared by the Board of Directors, dividends at the rate of six per cent. (6%) per annum, upon the par value thereof and no more, from March 15, 1928, payable quarterly on the fifteenth days of March, June, September and December in each year beginning with June 1, 1928. Such dividends on the preferred stock shall be paid before any dividends shall be paid upon, or set apart for, the shares of common stock without nominal or par value and shall be cumulative from March 15, 1928, so that if full cumulative dividends at the rate of six per cent. (6%) per annum shall not have been paid upon or declared and set apart for the preferred stock, the deficiency shall be fully paid or declared and set apart, but without interest, before any dividends shall be paid or declared upon the shares of common stock without nominal or par value. Out of any surplus or net profits of the corporation after full cumulative dividends on the preferred stock for all past quarterly dividend periods shall have been paid and after so concurrently making payment of interest or provision for full dividends on the preferred stock for the current quarterly dividend period, there and no otherwise so long as any of the preferred stock shall remain outstanding, dividends may be declared upon the shares of common stock without nominal or par value; provided that no dividend shall be declared or paid upon the shares of common stock without nominal or par value, or upon any other shares of stock of the corporation other than the preferred stock, if after the payment of such dividend the net quick assets of the corporation would be less than two-thirds of the aggregate par value of all the preferred stock at the time issued and outstanding. For each annum the net quick assets of the corporation shall be the sums of cash, notes and accounts receivable, inventory and investments of the corporation and any subsidiary corporation or corporations of which it owns at least twenty per cent. (20%), in excess of all the outstanding stock of all classes, over all liabilities of the corporation and such voluntary corporations owned, held, owned or under substantial ownership more than one year after the date thereof; provided that shares of stock, bonds and other securities of any such voluntary corporations shall not be included in such investments.

2. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the corporation, or any reduction of its capital stock resulting in the distribution of any of its assets to its stockholders, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of the preferred stock shall be entitled before any of the assets of the corporation are to be divided, in whole or in part, to the holders of the shares of common stock which are of no value, in order to bring the par value of these assets, together with all unpaid dividends accrued on or in arrears on these shares and an additional amount equal to five per cent. (5%) of such par value. The holders of the shares of common stock without regard to par value, shall be entitled, to the extent of the holders of the preferred stock, to share ratably in all assets of the corporation remaining after such payment to the holders of the preferred stock. If upon any liquidation, dissolution, winding up or reduction of the capital stock of the corporation, the assets distributable among the holders of the preferred stock shall be insufficient to permit the payment in full to such holders of the preferential amounts aforesaid, then the entire assets of the corporation to be distributed shall be distributed among such holders ratably in proportion to the full preferential amounts to which they are respectively entitled.

3. The preferred stock may be redeemed in whole or in part on any quarterly dividend payment date, at the election of the corporation approved by resolution of the Board of Directors, at a price, herein called the redemption price, in cash for each share of the preferred stock to be redeemed of one hundred five per cent. (105%) of the par value thereof and in addition therein all unpaid dividends accrued or in arrears on such share. Notice of any proposed redemption of preferred stock shall be given by mailing a copy of such notice at least thirty (30) days before the date fixed for such redemption to the holders of record of the preferred stock, at their respective addresses appearing on the books of the corporation, and shall be given in such other manner and form and on such other terms and conditions as may be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors. If less than all the outstanding shares are to be redeemed, such redemption may be made by lot or pro rata as may be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors. From and after the date fixed in any such notice as the date of redemption (unless deposit shall be made by the corporation in the payment of the redemption price), all dividends on the preferred stock thereby called for redemption shall cease to accrue and all rights of the holders thereof as stockholders of the corporation, except the right to receive the redemption price, shall cease and terminate. The corporation shall also have power from time to time to purchase by retirement, either at public or private sale, the whole or any part of the preferred stock upon the best terms reasonably obtainable, but no purchase by the corporation of shares of its preferred stock shall be made at a price in excess of said redemption price.

ii. "Although the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of two-thirds (2/3) is amount of the outstanding shares of the preferred stock, the corporation shall not

- (b) change the preferences, rights or privileges of the preferred stock;
- (c) increase the authorized amount of the preferred stock in whole, more or less than the stated amount, or change or convert any shares of any class into, any additional shares of stock ranking as to dividends, assets or preferences next or on a parity with the preferred stock;
- (d) mortgage or pledge or voluntarily create any lien on any of the property, real or personal, or permit any subsidiary corporation to mortgage or pledge or voluntarily create any lien on any of its property, real or personal, or to incur any liabilities or become or suffer obligations or commitments or incur any subsidiary corporate or other debts or become or incur any debts or other obligations whatsoever, provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the corporation or any such subsidiary corporation, without obtaining such vote or consent from (1) acquiring indebtedness, incurred or contracted, in the ordinary course of business meeting maturity less than one year after the date thereof, (2) acquiring property subject to mortgages and other liens existing on such properties, the time of acquisition, (3) giving purchase money mortgages, and (4) issuing bonds or other obligations, secured or unsecured, in the aggregate principal amount of not more than $3,250,000 to refund the Bonds of the corporation, dated June 1, 1923, maturing June 1, 1942, outstanding on March 15, 1938, or

(d) disposed by sale, contribution, transfer, lease or otherwise, of the property and business of the corporation as a whole or substantially as a whole.

3. Except as otherwise required by the provisions of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and of certain otherwise provided, the holders of the shares of common stock without nominal or par value shall exclusively possess voting power for the election of directors and for all other purposes, and the holders of the preferred stock shall have no voting power except as above set forth; provided, however, that in case the corporation shall be in default in respect to the declaration and payment of full regular quarterly dividends on the preferred stock for four quarterly dividend periods, then and in every such case the holders of the preferred stock, until such default shall have been cured by the payment of all the dividends in arrears, shall have the right, voting as a class, to vote for and elect their directors if the whole number of directors shall be more or less, or at least one-third of the number of directors if the whole number shall exceed nine, at all meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors, and the holders of the shares of common stock without nominal or par value voting as a class shall elect the remaining directors at such stock meetings; and as to any corporate action, to which the consent of stockholders is required by law, the consent of the holders of the preferred stock voting separately as a class shall be required. If all such arrearages required dividends shall be paid by the corporation at any time, then and thereafter all power of the holders of the preferred stock to vote as in this paragraph 3, shall be terminated, and the holders of the common stock shall have the right to vote as a class in the corporation in respect of four quarterly dividend periods to declare and pay the full dividends on its preferred stock. If the holders of the preferred stock shall not be entitled to notice of any meeting of stockholders, except when they shall have the right to vote thereat as provided in this paragraph 3, and in paragraph 4, second.

Whenever the holders of the preferred stock shall become entitled to elect three or more directors of the corporation as above provided, a special meeting of the stockholders may be called by, or on the written request of, the holders of not less than ten per cent. (10%) in amount of the preferred stock at the time outstanding, to be held on or not less than twenty (20) days notice given in the manner which shall be prescribed by law or by the by-laws of the corporation for giving notice of an annual meeting. At such special meeting, or in case such special meeting shall not be called and no delays existing the holders of the preferred stock to elect directors shall have occurred prior to the time of the next succeeding annual meeting of stockholders, then at such annual meeting, the terms of office of the members of the then Board of Directors of the corporation, upon the election of their successors, shall cease and the holders of record of the preferred stock, voting separately as a class, shall have the right to elect three or more directors of the corporation, as the case may be, and the holders of record of the common stock without nominal or par value voting separately as a class, shall have the right to elect the remainder of the directors. At each meeting of the stockholders for the election of one or more directors held after any such special or annual meeting and until any such default shall have been cured as aforesaid, such directors to be elected shall be elected by the holders of record as they come of the class of shares by the voting of which his preference was elected. Whenever the right of the holders of record of the preferred stock to elect directors of the corporation shall cease as aforesaid, provided, a special meeting of the stockholders may be called by, or on the written request of, the holders of not less than ten per cent. (10%) in amount of the common stock without nominal or par value at the time outstanding, to be held on or not less than twenty (20) days notice given in the manner which shall be prescribed by law or by the by-laws of the corporation for giving notice of an annual meeting. At such special meeting, or in case such special meeting shall not be called, and no delays existing the holders of the preferred stock to elect directors shall have occurred prior to the time of the next succeeding annual meeting of stockholders, then at such annual meeting, the terms of office of the members of the then Board of Directors of the corporation, upon the election of their respective successors, shall cease and a new Board of Directors shall be elected by the holders of record of the common stock without nominal or par value.

6. The terms "dividend" and "dividend in arrears" and "full cumulative dividend" wherever used herein with reference to the preferred stock shall be deemed to mean the amount which will be equal to simple interest upon the par value thereof from March 15, 1926, to the date of computation of the rate of an interest of 3% per annum, but in such case, all dividends paid upon such stock

7. No preferred stockholder of the corporation shall have any preemptive or preferential right of subscription in any shares of any class of stock of the corporation, whether now or hereafter authorized, or to any obligations convertible into stock of the corporation, issued or sold, nor any right of conversion into any class of stock other than such, if any, sold at such price as the Board of Directors, in its discretion, from time to time may determine, and the Board of Directors may issue stock of the corporation in obligations convertible into stock without offering such shares of stock either in whole or in part to the preferred stockholders of the corporation, and no stock of preferred stock of the corporation shall have any preemptive or preferential right to subscribe to any shares of stock of the corporation, whether now or hereafter authorized, or any obligations convertible into shares of stock of the corporation, whether now or hereafter authorized, or any obligations convertible into shares of stock of the corporation, such rights shall not in any way constitute a waiver or release of the rights of the Board of Directors, hereinafter, to dispose of other shares of stock or obligations convertible into shares of stock without so offering the same to the preferred stockholders. The acceptance of preferred stock by the corporation shall be a waiver of every such preferential right which in the opinion of the directors might otherwise be asserted by the preferred stockholders of the corporation of all of them.

My dear Dr. Silver:

You will remember that some time ago I talked to you concerning the last will and testament of Mrs. Fidelia W. D. Falls which is now being contested on the ground that Mrs. Falls was not of sound and disposing mind at the time she executed the same. You stated that you did not know Mrs. Falls personally, but we noted that in a letter which you had addressed to her it appeared that she had been interviewed by Mrs. Lena Fellingner and you said that you would get in touch with Mrs. Fellingner and see if by chance she was personally acquainted with Mrs. Falls. Would you be good enough to advise me at your earliest convenience whether anything has come of your efforts in this matter?

Thanking you for your trouble, I am

Dear Dr. Silver:

Mr. Nathan Light, the manager of the Reflex informs me that there is a rumor in circulation to the effect that you are to accept a Chicago rabbinate and that you are going to move to Chicago. Whether this rumor was spread only to scare S. G. or for any other reason I do not know, but I do know that it has no foundation in reality.

I had a long talk with Otto H. Kahn in New York. He instructed me to submit to him a memorandum on the cultural problems confronting American Jewry and he further told me that he would participate in a concave of American Jewish intellectuals and do his share not only financially but also intellectually. He has undergone a complete change of heart and mind and he intimated to me that the Reflex is somewhat responsible for it. For reasons which I am unable to explain to myself I did not ask him for any money for the Reflex. He gave me once $2,000.00 and I suppose if I were to ask him again for some more he would comply with my request. Maybe it is better that I did not ask for anything. I also mentioned to him your name and gave him a description of your personality and ability. He told me that he never met you before and that as soon as an opportunity would afford itself he would be glad to meet you and talk to you.

Louis Lipsky is anxious to find out what is on your mind with regards to the next Zionist convention, whether or not you will participate in it and cooperate with him. After the Brandeis memorandum I have but one choice, Lipsky or DeHaass. Brandeis made it clear to the committee that he still clings to his old policies and old methods and that means enthroning DeHaass. I do not have to tell you what I think of it. DeHaass is a carload of semi-colons. I do not care to influence your decision in the matter, but I do believe that if we free Louis Lipsky from his skunkish environment and give him a group of decent fellows to work with, that he would still be very useful as the head of the organization, especially since he is now financially independent and does not need to draw a salary.

Kindly let me have the manuscript of your address that you delivered a few months ago for it is to be printed in the July issue. Please do not fail to mail it out to me at your earliest convenience.

Mr. Licht told me that you were kind enough to promise to give him a few letters of introduction to some of your friends in the various cities, especially in the Mid-Western cities. He is anxious to get these letters. He wants to go out at his own expense and do something for the Reflex. I suggest that you give him a letter of introduction to your friends in Detroit.

With kind regards and many thanks, I am

Rabbi A. H. Silver

Dear Sir;

You are no doubt aware that there is a Yeshiva Seminary in the city known as the New Haven Yeshiva in Cleveland, being established in local quarters for the past seven months. It is situated at 887 Parkwood Drive. The student body of the institution numbers about 35, hailing from various cities in the U.S.A., Canada, Europe and Palestine. The head of the Yeshiva is Rabbi S. Kramer, and has as his assistant, his son-in-law, Rabbi Ruderman, both capable men. I do not believe it is necessary to define the useful and soulful work that the Yeshiva is carrying on, sufficient to say that Judaism to the very utmost flourishes within its portals. Coming to the point, I must state that the establishment at present is not standing on firm ground, and is wavering under the strain of its financial responsibilities. Cleveland Jewry, which has no other similar institution to uphold, has faltered in its support for the existence of the holy Torah among the Jewish youth. As a result, the Yeshiva proper is suffering undue privations, such as scarcity of room, insufficient light, and several other dire necessities. They brave these elements with courage and zeal to force the learning of Talmud and indulge in the light of the Torah. In comparison with other cities, Cleveland with its 100,000 Jewish inhabitants is not doing its duty. We must have co-operation but we are not receiving it. I appeal to you, Rabbi Silver, as a foremost spiritual leader, and who has the interest of Judaism at heart to come to the assistance of this worthy cause, and to make it a mainstay locally. It is of no concern that though one may adhere to a separate division of the ancient race, be it reform or orthodox, yet when the final test comes, we shall as one, lay down our lives for the sake of Judaism. Therefore, I approach you, my dear Rabbi, to aid in providing for the wants of the Yeshiva, by whatever means will be most becoming, be it a public appeal or some such personal endeavor, and with it you will have our fullest cooperation.

Yours very truly,
J. H.andelman

Miss London has been attending Ohio State University for one year and has averaged a B in her courses. She has been an active member of the Hillel Foundation. She is a very high type of girl who deserves any possible encouragement and assistance in her ambition to obtain a university education. THE HEBREW UNION COLLEGE

CINCINNATI, OHIO

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

June 12, 1930.
(Dict. June 11)

Rev. Dr. Abba H. Silver,
Cleveland, Ohio.
My dear Abba:

The purpose of this letter is to present a young man whom perhaps you know already, Mr. Alexander Grossman.

Mr. Grossman has been a student of the Hebrew Union College for three years. He is, of course, a Cleveland boy.

After careful consideration, and with extreme reluctance, the Faculty felt that in view of conditions which have developed in the last year or two in the American Rabbinate, it ought to advise him to withdraw from the College. It reached this decision, as I said, with extreme reluctance, because Mr. Grossman's work as a student was satisfactory in every way and likewise not the slightest shortcoming was experienced in his qualities of character or in his attitude toward the Institution and his conduct as a student. It was only because the Faculty had reached the conclusion that because of certain qualities of personality, the prospect of a successful Rabbinical service was very uncertain, that this step was taken. Mr. Grossman can himself give you full particulars with regard to this matter.

He is of course now confronted with the very difficult and responsible problem of finding some other field of work to which to turn. Two fields seem to attract him above all others, viz., that of journalism, with a view perhaps to eventually literary activity, or perhaps also of Jewish journalism, on the one hand; and, on the other hand, that of architecture. Whether he has any positive talent for the latter field is, of course, a question which I cannot determine in any way, and about which he himself feels some uncertainty. Undoubtedly a responsible architect, preferably a Jew, could advise him in this matter most helpfully and sympathetically. The same condition is also true to a considerable extent with the field of Journalism.

I am wondering whether, and also hoping, that you may perhaps be able to assist him to find himself in this difficult situation and to put him in touch with some architect, or some influential person in the field of journalism, who may be able to advise him and perhaps, if their advice prove favorable in either direction, to assist him to get a start in this new field of work.

Any assistance which you might be able to render him would be greatly appreciated by me personally and also as an added service to the Hebrew Union College.

With warmest regards and all good wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Julian Morganstern PRESIDENT.

Dear Abba Hillel:

June 13, 1930.

The letter which I enclose herewith explains itself. It is being sent out to all the members of our Dr. Herzl Zion Club, whose names are in our last booklet of July 1929.

I know the regard in which you hold Sol. Cohen, and I need not ^{expatiate} ~~expate~~ to you ~~oh~~ how happy and pleased he would be, if you should find it possible to be present on that occasion.

I write, therefore, to inquire whether we may hope to have you with us on that evening of June 26th. Joshua Bloch tells me that you are to be in Providence on that day, and by so many miles, therefore, nearer to New York. Will not that make it more possible for you to come?

I need not, of course, here make an urging plea. I only ask, therefore, that you let me hear from you.

I am, With Zion's greetings

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Herzlite:

Early next month, our friend Sol. Cohen is realizing a long-cherished hope of a trip to Palestine.

The Zionist District of Richmond Hill, L.I., knows him as a genial neighbor and devoted Zionist worker and communal leader, and is tendering him, as a testimony of its high regard for him, a Dinner at the Beth Israel Community Centre of Richmond Hill, L.I., on Thursday, June 26th.

Some of us, members of the Dr. Herzl Zion Club -- the memories of our own 25th Anniversary Reunion of last July still fresh in our minds -- believe that you will want to join us in expressing our affection for, and esteem of, him by being present on that occasion. Our own getting together last time was made possible almost solely by his labors and devotion; and this is, therefore, the one opportunity for us to make evident our appreciation of him as an old friend and as a Zionist.

Will you not make all efforts to be with us on June 26th? A special and prominent section will be set aside for the D.H.Z.C. group.

Let me hear from you as early as possible, but not later than Monday morning, June 23rd. Your card of admission will be mailed you upon my receipt of your reservation.

On behalf of the D.H.Z.C. Committee,

Edw. D. Coleman,

Secretary.

The charges are $2.50 per person. Checks should be drawn to the Sol. Cohen Dinner Committee, and mailed to me, at the address given at the top.

Dear Dr. Silver:

Mr. Sol Cohen is leaving for Palestine on July 2. The Zionist District of Richmond Hill, and his host of friends, are arranging a testimonial dinner in his honor to give him a rousing send off and wish him God-speed.

The dinner will be held Thursday evening June 26th at 7 O'Clock, at the Beth Israel Community Center, 102nd St., and 66th Avenue, Richmond Hill, N. Y.

Having heard of the very close friendship of Mr. Sol Cohen and yourself, dating back to the days of the famous Mervel Zion Club, I take the liberty of extending this invitation to you to honor us and grace this occasion by your presence and to deliver the address of the evening.

Mr. Sol Cohen is always mentioning with pride, the fact, that you had officiated at his wedding ceremony, coming directly from Cleveland for that occasion. It would no doubt, be to him an extreme source of joy and pleasure to see his boyhood friend- now standing at the helm of leadership in American Jewry- come to do him honor, and wish him "Tzaischa Leshalom".

Looking forward with anticipation to an early and favorable reply, I am with Zions greetings

Mrs. Emil Brudno,
2512 Euclid Heights Blvd.,
Cleveland Hts., Ohio.

My dear Mrs. Brudno:-

Permit me to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of June 12th.

I am sorry that you did not succeed in "penetrating my understanding" concerning the need of the Council program for fifteen open meetings next year. I am equally sorry that I could not "penetrate your understanding" concerning the utter absurdity of such a program and the unfairness to the other Women's Organizations in the city.

I notice that you regard it as urgent that you carry on the decision of your board. That is your concern. But please do not fall back on the mock-pious argument of cooperation when you find that people in the community are criticizing you for your action. If there is any organization in the city that is not cooperating this year with the rest of the community in living up to previous agreements in an effort to save the community from being over-run with lecture engagements, it is your organization.

Frankly, I have always been at a loss to understand the kind of cooperation which is solicited by people who first make up their mind what they want and then expect everybody to fall in line with them.

As regards the spiritual leadership in this community, it might be well to point out that a modicum of spirituality would not go amiss with some of the so-called lay leaders in this community. Please do not be concerned much about my own standing and prestige in the community. It is for you, who are just beginning your career in an important position in your organization, to see to it that you do not lay yourself open to justifiable criticism.

I regret exceedingly that I can not fall in with your amazing program.

Sincerely yours,

AHS/IR

My dear Rabbi Silver:

I am taking the liberty of sending you under separate cover an artistically illustrated edition of the Biblical story of the "Book of Ruth". The enclosed prospectus gives but a limited presentation of the beauty that pervades the work. As the book will probably reach you by the next mail and you will then have an opportunity to judge its merit, I will not occupy any space in additional description.

The "Book of Ruth" is the second book of art that I have published for Z. Raban of the Bezalel Art School in Jerusalem as a result of my trip to Palestine. The book is published under the name of the American Palestine Art Publishing Co. whose primary object is to awaken American Jewry to a realization of the Renaissance of Jewish art in Palestine. I am distributing a limited number of copies among a group of noted men in Jewish circles who I feel confident will appreciate the artistry of the work as well as the aim of the undertaking.

Should the book not meet with your approval, please do not hesitate to return it. I hope, however, that the "Book of Ruth" will receive such a warm welcome in your home that you will willingly retain it.

Sir:

I have endeavored on several occasions to see you, and now offer an apology for this late letter.

Enclosed please find my check in the sum of twenty-five dollars.

As time goes on I try to find consolation in a great many things that you said at my husband's funeral.

Thanking you, I am

Respectfully yours,

My dear Dr. Morgenstern:-

The father of Gilbert Schwartz who is a member of The Temple came in to see me the other day. He is very much agitated over the dismissal of his son from the College.

I would appreciate very much receiving word from you as to the reasons which prompted the faculty to request Gilbert to leave school. I could then be in a better position to discuss the whole subject with his father.

Dear Friend:

Mr. Myer Mineberg and his family, of my congregation are moving to Cleveland and are to reside at 2035 Rofamore Rd. Will you get some word of welcome to them? They will want to identify themselves with your congregation at my suggestion and I should like them to feel that the welcoming hand is extended to them. One of the daughters, Margery, served as a substitute and assistant in one of the classes of my religious school this past year. A nice family.

With all good greetings to you and Virginia,
Sincerely,
Sam,

Cordially yours,

Rev. Dr. Abba H. Silver,

E. 105th St. at Ansel Rd.,
Cleveland, Ohio.

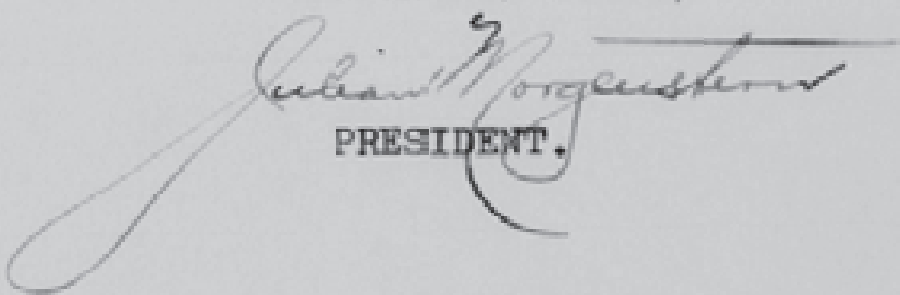

My dear Abba:

Yours of the 16th inst. arrived just as I had finished dictating a letter to Mr. Schwartz. I enclose for your consideration a copy of the letter. I think you will find that it gives all the information bearing upon the case.

The difficulty with Gilbert, as my letter explains, was not poor work, but lack of ambition, as the result of which he was content to do merely passing work, and not all that he was capable of, even within reason. Under the circumstances and in view of the necessity of reducing the size of our student body and raising the standard of work within the institution, the Faculty felt that it was the policy of wisdom and kindness all round to drop Gilbert from its roster. I am sure that, knowing the circumstances, you will agree with this decision.

With warmest regards for yourself and Virginia and all good wishes, I am ever

Faithfully yours,

PRESIDENT.

Mr. Louis Schwartz,
3796 Delmore Rd.,
Cleveland Heights, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Schwartz:

I have yours of the 14th inst. and have given it very careful consideration. It is true, as you say, that when you were here last fall, I told you that, so far as I knew, Gilbert's work here at the College was satisfactory. I am sure that I explained to you at the time that this impression was due to the fact that I could not remember that any complaints had ever been made about his work by any members of the Faculty.

It happens, however, that in the eight months intervening, the situation in the Rabbinate has changed radically, due to the fact that many congregations, because of economic circumstances, have had to discontinue the services of their Rabbis. This represents the climax of a situation which has been developing for a number of years, but which became acute very suddenly this year. As a result thereof, it becomes our duty to our students, and to the congregations, and the Rabbinate, to reduce the size of our student body, to raise our standards considerably, and thus to diminish the number of Rabbis whom we shall ordain in the immediate future. This means, in other words, that a student who was satisfactory in previous years, or even at the beginning of this year, might very well fall short, for one reason or another, measured by the new standards which have been forced upon us.

Unfortunately, Gilbert, measured by these standards, fell short. It was not that his work was poor, but only that his work was not all that it might have been. He was capable of doing much better work than he did, but was content merely to go along in a manner regarded as satisfactory. All this he himself admitted unreservedly to the Faculty at the conference which he had with them. To us this seems a distressing and disturbing consideration. It seems to indicate to us that Gilbert is not animated by an ambition to give everything that is in him to a cause which has the right to demand the utmost of him. If this be true of his work as a student here at the College, then all the more it is bound to be true of his work in the Rabbinate later, for the Rabbinate, as you know, is an extremely exacting profession. It was for this reason above any other considerations that the Faculty reached the conclusion that it did, that Gilbert, despite his many excellent personal qualities, would probably not succeed as a Rabbi under the exacting conditions which now exist. Therefore, very unwillingly, but feeling this their duty, both to him and to the institution, and the cause, the Faculty took the action which it did with regard to him.

These are the facts in the case. I do not believe that any additional light can be shed upon them, or that a personal conference between us will make the condition one bit clearer or more satisfactory. However, if you wish, I shall be very glad to welcome you here at the College and confer with you upon the matter further, even though I have not the slightest idea as to what might be added to what I have said. But if you desire this conference, I shall have to fix a date for some time late in September, since I am leaving at the end of this week for Europe. I shall be glad to know your wishes in the matter.

With every assurance of esteem, I am

Permit me to thank you for your kind letter of June 9th and for your consideration in bringing to my attention the needs of the Yeshiva Seminary of which you are a student.

I wish I were in position to help your institution. At the present time this is not possible. You probably know that I am President of the Bureau of Jewish Education and that this year the Bureau fell short of its quota in its campaign by nearly $15000. We are faced with the problem of closing down some of our own schools for lack of funds.

I am spending all my time and using up a good deal of my influence among my friends to raise enough money to keep our schools operating. Perhaps at some future time I may be of service to your institution.

I need not tell you how sorry I am that it will be impossible for me to be present on that occasion. Nothing would have given me greater joy than to join Sol Cohen's numerous friends in tendering him a hearty send-off.

I have always cherished Sol Cohen's friendship. He is inextricably tied up with all the memories of my boyhood and we have kept in contact with each other ever since. He is above all, genuinely idealistic, loyal and of absolute integrity of spirit. We are all proud of his friendship and we are delighted that his many years of service in the cause of Zionism will finally be rewarded by the privilege of making a pilgrimage to Palestine.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I am interested in an institution which is the largest of its kind in this country.

I have recently had a talk with Mr. Solomon Bluhm of #86 Fort Washington Avenue, New York City, having in mind the possibility of Mr. Bluhm becoming a campaign manager for raising funds for this institution.

Mr. Bluhm has given me your name as reference regarding himself. I would appreciate it greatly if you would advise me in confidence your candid opinion of Mr. Bluhm, his ability, his character and what you know of his accomplishments;
also, your own relations with Mr. Bluhm.

I cannot impress upon you too greatly the importance of this institution obtaining a man who by his past performance can show the ability to raise large sums of money and I, therefore, will be guided to a very great extent by what you tell me regarding Mr. Bluhm.

Thanking you,

Definitive engraved certificates for Common Stock of The Pittston Company are now ready. You may obtain such definitive engraved certificates in exchange for your temporary certificates by surrendering the temporary certificates at the office of the Transfer Agent, J. P. Morgan & Co., No. 23 Wall Street, New York City. If you wish the definitive engraved certificates to be issued in the same name as that appearing upon the face of the temporary certificates surrendered, the certificates surrendered need not be endorsed and the exchange may be made without expense to you. If the definitive engraved certificates are to be issued in a name other than that appearing upon the face of the temporary certificates surrendered, the certificates surrendered must be endorsed and the signature guaranteed by a firm having membership on the New York Stock Exchange or by a bank or trust company having an office in New York City and must be accompanied by New York funds at the rate of 4c. per share to pay the necessary stamp taxes (2c. Federal—2c. New York, per share), and in the case of certificates standing in the names of trusts, estates, and so on, the certificates should be accompanied by all necessary papers to complete the transfer.

My dear Mr. Gottesman:-

In reply to your letter of June 20th permit me to say that Mr. Solomon Blum was the director of Temple activities for two years. He fulfilled his duties here with a fair degree of success. I know nothing about his capacity as a campaign manager for raising funds.

In strict confidence I should like to say to you that Mr. Blum does not seem to have a developed sense of financial responsibility in matters of personal debts which he incurs. During his stay in Cleveland he contracted quite a number of debts, many of which have not yet been met.

With kindest regards, permit me to remain

My dear Abba;

I am considering seriously for the Michigan Foundation Rabbi Bernard Heller, Scranton, Pa. Would you and Jim Heller together talk to him about Foundation work. I wrote to him a week ago. Send me your confidential reaction as to whether or not you feel that he would make a good man for Hillel work. I have been prevented from attending the Conference owing to Ruth's illness. I am glad to say that she is doing nicely. I should like to hear from you within a few days.

Sincerely,
