My dear Milton:-

I just read in the local Jewish press of the passing of your dear mother and I hasten to send you a word of sympathy and condolence.

While I did not have the privilege of knowing your mother well I can fully understand your deep sense of bereavement.

I hope that you will find great comfort in the tender memories which she has bequeathed to you.

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. Brown:-

In reply to your letter of inquiry relative to Mortimer Markus permit me to say that Mortimer is well and favorably known to us.

He attended our Religious School, was confirmed and has for the last two years been a member of the high school department of the Temple. His work has been satisfactory and his conduct altogether above reproach.

He is a lad of excellent character and one who we believe would make a desirable member of your Institute.

With kindest regards, permit me to remain

Dear Rabbi Silver, —

I have thought so many times about writing you but you well know how one is cramped for time while traveling. We have been trotting all over Europe in mad haste, and seem to have stopped here to think about what we've seen, and prepare for the next lap.

What a spot this is! Jewish Livens a poet as these mountains and lakes surely are an inspiration. — Really, heaven couldn't be more beautiful. This hotel is nestled between green, green mountains on a beautiful lake, and there is such quiet all around.

We've had a wonderful trip — & that includes all the art galleries, cathedrals, and cafes, scorching days on Italian trains with eight dirty people in our compartment, freezing rainy days in Amsterdam & Brussels, and perfect days like this. —

I was delegated last June at the last meeting of the Junior Council to see you & Mrs. Silver & tell you about the Art Exhibit we are going to have next winter. Anyway, in all the rush of going away, I didn't get a chance — But we are making big plans. Our first idea was to have it solely concerning Jewish subjects and think it best not to confuse it

Jewish artists, but the powers that be, (Lilow) whom consulted with several people closely associated with Art in Cleveland and they were in favor of keeping it that way. I don't know just what has happened in the interim since I left but I'm sure there'll be an exhibit & in October I'll know more about the details. - We merely want to use yours & Mrs Silver's names as sponsors. - We're just giving it as an activity & are not planning to make any money. I think that it will prove to be something that the Junior Council can be proud of producing. -

I'm anxious to hear what the Alumni is planning for the coming year, & to assume my job of Corresponding Secretary, but --- I don't know when I'll be home, sometime in October I think. Then, I hope to be able to tell you more about the exhibit.

With best wishes to Mrs. Silver and yourself, I remain,

Most sincerely,
Dorothy Deutsch

Dear Dr. Silver:

I hope you will not think me aggressive for writing again - I know you would not forget my mother - but her difficulty in the present situation forces me to address myself to you at this moment. The financial anxiety is retarding her physical gain and unfortunately we can do little in the matter, therefore dear Dr. Silver, we await your response in deepest concern.

Please let mother hear from you at the earliest possible moment. I appreciate

Your great kindness and interest in taking time from the stress of your own affairs for my dear mother, and we thank you

My dear Morris:-

I feel very much ashamed of myself that I have not answered your letter of July 21st. I have tried once or twice to do so but somehow never could make up my mind just what answer to make to you.

I have had the subject of a Jewish magazine for some years in my mind. I think that there is need for it but I am not clear in my own mind what the character of that magazine should be, who shall edit it and where. I am not convinced that a triumvirate is the ideal type of editorship nor that its policy should be determined exclusively by Rabbis.

Furthermore in order that a magazine of this character should succeed and be a real force in the molding of thought, some editor will have to devote his entire time to it. It can not be made an appendix and a side issue to a busy rabbinical career.

Again, the cost of such a magazine is considerable, especially if a man is to devote his full time to it and an office established in connection with it. The income from subscriptions and advertising for the first two years would be negligible. To insure that such a magazine would not be of mushroom growth like so many in the past, one should start with a substantial endowment fund otherwise the magazine will struggle for a year or two, its sponsors will be spending their time 'schnorring' and the whole project will suffer final defeat.

I should like to discuss this matter with you more fully in person. There are so many angles to the proposition that a letter is hardly adequate. I hope that we will meet soon and have a chance to exchange ideas on the subject.

Virginia and I have just returned from a week's stay in Atlantic City and we had a perfectly delightful time. The children are fine,

I am interested to know what material the lamp is made out of and what your absolute minimum

We would be interested in ordering such a quantity annually if the cost per lamp would be around $1.

רב וידיד נכבד ונעלה,

הננו מאשרים בזה קבלת מכתבו מיום 19

שלחנו שטר קבלה ותשובת תודה לחותנו הנעלה אל

בעד טרחתו והשתדלותו בדבר הצדקה הזאת.

מתכבדים אנו בזה לשלוח לכבודו ולרעייתו הכבודה
ולבניהם הנחמדים את ברכתנו העמוקה הבאה בשם מאות
הזקנים והזקנות של מוסדנו לשנה החדשה הבאה: יהי

מאשרים אנחנו לשמח את לבו במכתבו זה בבשורה
טובה ונעימה שיש לנו להודיע את כבודו ע"ד בנין חדש וחשוב
במוסדנו, כי הנדיבים היקרים לבית היילפערין מפריז,
בני ובנות הגביר המפורסם ר' משה היילפערין - מקיוב-ז"ל
מי שהיה בעל בתי חרשת גדולים של צוקר, נדבו סך ארבעת
אלפים לירות א"י, בשביל בנין יפה ונהדר שיבנה באמצע

הבנין הזה יפאר את המוסד בכלל, בכל שכלוליו המודרניים
וסדוריו היפים, העובדא שהנדיבים הנ"ל בחרו והקדישו את
נדבתם היפה למטרה זו ואחרי הקירתם הרבה בנחיצת הענין
מראה על ערכו הגדול וחשיבותו של מוסדנו, ואת הצורך
הגדול להוסיף בבניניו ולהרויח את הדוחק הגדול השורר בכל
בניני המוסד.

אנו מקוים כי בשורה זו תשמחהו, והננו מאחלים אותו
כי בבקורו הקרוב בארצנו ימצא את הבנין הנהדר הזה על מכונו.

עם הוספת הבנין הנזכר של נדבת בית היילפערין,
מורגש ביותר הצורך הגדול להכניס תקונים הכרחיים ומודרניים
בכל בניני המוסד, אשר יש מהם שנבנו לפני שלשים שנה ויותר, התקונים האלו יעלו לסכומים גדולים ועינינו צופיות לעזרת
בעלי הון ובעלי צדקה כבירים אשר יתנדבו בנדבות מיוחדות
לשם זה.

מצבו הכלכלי של מוסדנו גם הוא נמצא בדוחק
גדול מאד, כי המסבר בארצות הברית מסצה שעברה השפיע הרבה
על מיעוט ההכנסה מהנדיבים והתומכים, והננו מתלבטים עם
המצב הקשה ובמצוקה גדולה.

אנו מבקשים איפוא את כבודו לעזור לנו גם הפעם בעת
צרה זו, כאשר עמד לימיננו עד היום, ובימי החגים הבאים
יזכור נא בין פעולותיו הגדולות את מוסדנו הגדול, אשר
יחסי אהבה ופעולות חשובות ונכבדות קרבו מאד את הקשר בינו
לבין כבודו.

בברכה לשנה טובה ונעימה ובכבוד רב :

My dear Mr. Levy,

We are desirous of having our niece, Edith Mandel, eight years of age, attend the Temple Religious School.
This is the situation; - her mother was the late Bessie Fleishman Mandel, a Confirmand of the Temple; her father resides in China. She makes her home in Cleveland with an aunt who is a member of the Euclid Avenue Temple. An older sister attends the Euclid Avenue Temple Religious School.
I believe that under that arrangement the aunt is entitled to send only one child there on her membership. Beside, if the younger child attends our Religious School she can come and go alone, as she lives close by our Temple. She is too young to attend a school to which she would have to take a street-car. Inasmuch as the child is a granddaughter of Mrs. Isaac Flecheim, a life-long member of the Temple, the Board might see fit to grant ^{us} permission to send Edith to the Temple Religious School.

Awaiting an early reply, I am,
Sincerely yours,

My dear Rabbi Silver,

Some time in July you suggested to Morton to apply to the Jewish Welfare Board for financial assistance to help him enter the Juilliard School of Music in New York.

When Morton applied to the Board, Mr. Fierman's financial standing was investigated and they afterward told Morton that they found that his parents could give him the necessary financial assistance. But the past two years Mr. Fierman's business hasn't been normal and it is almost impossible for him to help Morton.

I wonder whether you couldn't use your influence with the members of the Welfare Board, knowing Morton as you do, and perhaps after you have explained the situation to them they may decide to help him along.

Morton is not certain that he will make the scholarship at the Juilliard School, because he was really not prepared properly for the entrance examinations which take place Oct 1st, and if he should not pass the examination he would like very much to remain here so that he could prepare himself for entrance next year, but it will be impossible for him to do so without financial aid which neither Mr. Fierman nor I can give him, but thru your influence I feel certain that he could make his way.

I trust that you will do all you possibly can to help Morton along.

Wishing you the compliments of the season, I remain,

Very respectfully yours
Mrs S. Fierman

Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Miss Prouty:-

Miss Miriam Leikind has been employed at the Temple Library for the past year and a half, full time. Her work has been highly satisfactory.

The Temple feels, however, that it will have need for her services this coming year only part time. i. e. on the afternoons of Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and on Saturday and Sunday mornings.

Miss Leikind would like to remain with our institution if she could procure additional library work during her free time. Would you have room for her in your organization?

Last year she attended the Library School of Western Reserve University in connection with her work here. Previous to her coming to the Temple, Miss Leikind served for five and a half years in the Schools and Branch Departments of the Cleveland Public Library.

Anything you may do for her will be greatly appreciated by me.

With kindest regards, permit me to remain

My dear Gene:-

I am sorry that I could not attend last night's meeting. I had previously accepted an invitation from the Lorain Community Fund to address its Annual Meeting without realizing that the meeting would fall on the evening of the Board's meeting.

Mr. Levy called my attention to the action which was taken last evening on the letter of Mrs. Flesheim. I do not believe that the action of the Board was altogether wise, either in this particular case or in the general policy which was adopted relative to the status of grandchildren. I should like to discuss with you the matter at some time in the near future.

I believe that the case of Mrs. Flesheim's niece should be re-considered. Please let me know when we can get together on this matter.

Dear Rabbi:

Realizing you are a busy man, I don't want to burden you with a lot of figures. The actual cost per thousand (assuming survival) averaged over a period of twenty years is only $1.49 per thousand per year.

This low cost is due to your young age and excellent dividends paid by our Company. You should not delay creating a larger estate or a pension for old age.

I am sending this by a messenger so as not to delay this important matter any longer. If agreeable to you will call at your office Friday and can complete this transaction in less than ten minutes.

Anticipating the pleasure of seeing you Friday, I am

Very dear Rabbi Silver:

I have been out here exactly one year, and in all that time have not written to you. However, were you to know the many letters I started and never finished, you would appreciate my intention although at the same time condemn my carelessness. I'm sorry. Perhaps it was just the process of getting adjusted. I have been busier than I have ever been, and happier. A few of my dreams have been realized, and I feel that in time, slowly but surely, the others also will be fulfilled. Can you feel my thrill, my awe, when I walked slowly into the room and faced for the first time, after having read about it and heard about it and discussed it for years, the original "Blue Boy" at the Huntington Art Gallery? I gazed at it quietly for many minutes, and silently communed with my friends at home in Cleveland. I felt for them. I tried to breathe into myself that gorgeous blue. To think that on that very canvas the great artist had himself worked.

This season I had planned to study at the University of California Extension School - night classes - thereby shortening my years at college. ((I want to go to Berkeley.)) But when I informed the Extension School of my plans, they asked whether I had the necessary credits to enable me to matriculate at the University, and we discovered that I had never taken a laboratory science. I must therefore return to high school and attend the night class in chemistry. I am both peeved and delighted. That word "chemistry" has been in the back of my mind for years. I have always wanted to study it. I delight in the thought of experimenting. Another dream come true.

When Mother returned to Cleveland I went to the "Hamburger Home" to live. It is a resident club for Jewish girls, somewhat on the order of the used-to-be Martha House in Cleveland. Miss Ida J. Wolfe, our head worker, considers our Home a laboratory, as it were, for the girls. Firstly, it is a very beautiful place to call Home, having a spacious tastily appointed living room in which is a radio, a baby grand piano, a delightfully large fireplace, and open bookcases all around. A little magazine room opens off it in the back, and contains shelves upon which are all sorts of magazines, the Jewish Encyclopedia, and the Encyclopedia Britannica.

We look forward to our dinners in the cheerful dining room. Here there are seven tables, some round and some rectangular, enough to take care of the fifty-five girls and any guests they may desire to invite. This they like to do particularly on Friday night. They come to dinner just a bit more nicely dressed than they are on other nights. They stand while Miss Wolfe recites the Kiddush. Then one girl at each table lights the candle, we call out "Goot Shabbus", we pull out our chairs and sit down. Before we start the dinner we pass around the dish of "Grace" bread.

Our rooms are lovely, each furnished in a different color, pink, blue, orchid, green.

Our Home is really for girls have who perhaps come to the city only a short while ago, who are here alone, their families far away. It is impossible to be lonely. We have a dramatic class, giving a certain number of plays each season; on Friday evenings we have with us either musicians to play for us, or someone to lecture on an interesting subject - We are forming a literary group; a homemaking class; a dancing class; each month we have a dance. Really, there are so many things here that some of us frequently think we are overburdened with duties; but somehow we get them done.

Our girls are from all over the world. Two hie from England, a number from Russia, one from Poland, one from Austria, and the others from every state in the Union.

And now I come to the crux of my letter. We have a little paper supposed to be published once each month. The literarily inclined have the opportunity to write. It should contain helpful information for the girls--as to vocations, as to Judaism, and so on. At present, for some unknown reason, I am Editor. I don't really consider myself literary. I shall have to stop carrying books around with me. They give people the wrong impression. Be that as it may, I am calling on you for a contribution, Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, and I hope you will respond.

Firstly, would it be possible for you to write a list of the good Jewish books that have come out during the past year. Perhaps you could tell just a bit about each.

Next, would you have the time to enumerate some of the really important Jewish happenings of the year. Just a line or two for each.

And last, I should appreciate it very very much if you could take a few moments and write a small article on "Intermarriage". Two of our girls have within the last several months married Christian boys. We give for every girl who intends to get married a shower, and the problem arose when these two announced their coming marriage, whether or not a shower should be given them. One was married very hastily and we did not have time to do anything for her. We decided to shower the other one because she had been in the Club for several years, and some of the other girls were particularly friendly with her, and felt indignant at the thought of not holding a shower for her. This girl has had very little, if any, Jewish education, her parents having been dead for a long time. Hereafter, however, we decided that should a girl be married, only those girls who really wanted to hold a shower for her should do so, not the whole house. We held a very heated discussion about the whole matter. We had never seriously considered intermarriage, but now it hit us right on the nose, and hard. Would you write something that might help the girls? The problems that come after marriage - the children - the reason for remaining a Jew - what there is in Judaism to hold one. It seems that we don't really know about our religion. I believe that there is something lacking in our Jewish education. The method of teaching Judaism is too cut and dried. We don't retain enough. Something is wrong.

Our paper comes out September 22nd, Rosh Hashonah Eve, and I would be overwhelmingly delighted to be able to have this your contribution in it. Only this morning the idea came to me; that is why I have not written before. You notice that I have airmailed this letter to you. If you have the time to write these things, and could airmail back to me your articles so that I could receive them by at least Friday the 19th, I would be very happy. And if you feel that you cannot do this right now, (I know that at this season you are very very busy), will you at any rate dictate a bit of a letter to your Secretary so that I may know you have received my communication, and let me know whether you will be able to write what I have asked for our next paper.

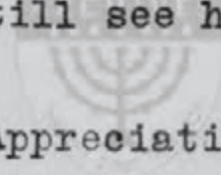

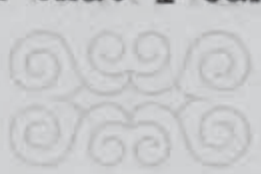

You must think that my only reason for writing this letter to you is to ask of you a favor. I have thought of you very frequently, and miss your Sunday morning sermons very keenly. And the picture of our Temple will be with me always. Particularly will I be missing it this New Year and Yom Kippurim. And how!

Congratulations upon the arrival of the new addition to your family. I should like to see your Daniel. Does he talk? I wish that you would extend to Mrs. Silver my congratulations. They will both be fine characters. Having the fine parents they do, they will not be able to help themselves.

I never thanked you for the kind letter you wrote on my behalf. It is a lovely thing, and I shall always keep it.

I am anticipating your contributions. Don't think me too forward in asking you. But I know you can help us.

Thank you with all my heart. A very happy and healthy New Year to Mrs. Silver and yourself. Remember me to Jimmy. Tell him that I can still see his smiling face. Dear Jimmy.

Appreciatively,

(I have just re-read my letter. About the Jewish Education - do many Jewish young people who really have received their learning in Judaism, who have gone to the Jewish school, who have learned Hebrew, marry outside their faith? Or does it happen in the majority of cases to those who have had no Jewish learning?)

Dr. Stephen S. Wise,
40 West 68th Street,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

You are quoted in the "New York Times" as being one of those urging a fight on anti-Semitism. Let me first define my position in reference to it.

For at least three generations the families of my parents and grandparents have had warm friends who were both of the Jewish race and Jewish religion, as I have also, some of mine being the grandchildren of friends of my grandparents. In the social circles in which we move, some of the most respected members have always been Jews, and some of my relatives married Jews, and, since I have been old enough to understand such matters, I have been opposed to discrimination against anyone on account of his or her religion. Moreover, one of the wisest provisions of the Constitution of the United States I have always believed to be that against religious discrimination. We want a united nation, not a divided one.

I have fought against anti-Semitism in the United States and have told those who wished to introduce it that in endeavoring to do so they were utterly unpatriotic and working against the spirit of the Constitution, and that such a thing was greatly to be deplored.

I have striven and written much against Neta Websterism and the Protocols, the teachings of the "Dearborn Independent" and the Beckwith Press, etc.

It is, however, a fact that European anti-Semitism has to some

September 15, 1950.

extent penetrated this country and that many people believe that Communism is a Jewish movement, and they point to the great number of Jews who are prominent in the Communist Party in Russia and to the fact that when Lenin succeeded in getting control of Hungary, it was almost entirely through Jewish agents that he worked. Of course Jews, being persecuted in Hungary and Russia, were the natural revolutionaries of those countries, but it is hard to get the so-called "average man" to stop to reason about such matters, especially when his opinion has been ratified by such stuff as Meets Websterism, because its fallacies can only be detected by one who takes the trouble to understand, and that is not easy for most men.

Now to the point. There are many people, some of whom have friends among Jews against whom they have no prejudice on account of their religion, who back up their statements about Communism being a Jewish movement by pointing to prominent Jews who take part in such Communist-aiding organizations as the American Civil Liberties Union and the American Civil Liberties Union crowd's affairs, and they say if prominent rabbis take part in these things - men who are well-posted and supposed to know that they are Communist-aiding affairs and who must know that in them they are associating with such prominent Communists as William Z. Foster, etc. - then those rabbis must mean to aid Communism, and in support of this they point to such men as Rabbi Stephen S. Wise and Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, of the national committee of the American Civil Liberties Union in association with Foster, Duncan McDonald, etc., and Rabbi Mitchell Salem Fisher as a speaker at the purely communist All-American Anti-Imperialist League meeting, and quite a number of other things of that sort. The American Civil Liberties Union, like the All-America Anti-Imperialist League and the Communist Party, is un-American, anti-patriotic, undermining, and an aider of the Communist game, and it is difficult to see how any well-informed man who is not willing to join in undermining our free institutions can belong to them, and when prominent rabbis join such institutions, aid in their work and at their meetings, it is natural to conclude that they are willing to aid Communism against the United States Government and our civilization, and it puts a strong argument into the hands of anti-Semites.

September 15, 1930

If, then, you and other rabbis who belong to these various organizations or aid in their meetings really wish to check the anti-Semitic movement, would it not be well to publicly dissociate yourselves from the various Communist-aiding organizations?

Yours very truly,

OFFICE OF SECRETARY-TREASURER

MR. PHILIP FRANKEL,
1520 GUARANTEE TITLE BLDG.
CLEVELAND, OHIO

September 17th, 1930.

To the Members of
The Oakwood Club.

Gentlemen:—

Under the Financial and Membership Re-Organization Plan of Oakwood Club dated July 7th, 1930, a copy of which was mailed to you early in July, three classes of Senior Membership are created as follows:

- 1.—Full Golf Playing Membership.
- 2.—Limited Golf Playing Membership.
- 3.—Non-Golf Playing Membership.

Full Playing Membership entitles such members to play golf at all times.

Limited Playing Membership entitles such members to play golf at all times except Saturday afternoons, Sundays and Holidays.

Non-Playing Membership does not entitle such members to any golf playing privileges.

The wives and children of Limited Playing members become Limited Playing Associates and Junior members, and the wives and children of Non-Playing members become Non-Playing Associate and Junior members. In other words, the family of a member takes the same classification as to golf playing privileges as the member, all of which is more fully defined and explained in the Plan of Re-Organization which was mailed to you.

We wish to further call your attention to the fact that when the new plan becomes effective, Limited Playing members will have the preference in filling vacancies in the Full Playing Membership class, and it will be necessary for Non-Playing members to first become Limited Playing members before they become Full Playing Members.

Members of all these three classes have equal voting rights.

The cost of Membership Certificate and Initiation Fee is the same for all classes. The schedule of dues set out in the plan is as follows:

Full Playing Members.....	$250.00 per year
Limited Playing Members.....	200.00 per year
Non-Playing Members.....	140.00 per year

All present members of Oakwood Club have the privilege of changing to the Limited Playing or Non-Playing class. Several members have expressed a desire to make such a change.

For the benefit of those members who wish to change to either of these classes, there is enclosed an Application to be signed and returned to the Club in the enclosed stamped envelope.

In order that the Board may proceed with its plans, it is necessary that we ask you to return the Application properly signed, on or before September 29th, 1930.

Those members who do not wish to change to the Limited or Non-Playing Classes should disregard the enclosed Application.

Those members wishing to make a change should be careful to fill in the blank space in the Application in which should be inserted either "Limited Playing" or "Non-Playing," to indicate to which of these two classes you wish to be transferred.

Thank you very much for your letter of Sept. 17th. I have turned over your check to Mr. Levy and you will undoubtedly hear from him with regards to your membership in the Temple.

We shall be most happy to welcome you as a full-fledged member into our fellowship.

I am delighted that you have the time now to interest yourself actively in Temple work. There are quite a number of activities in which I should like to see you interest yourself. Would you care to teach on Sunday morning? There is an opening in our High School Department and in our College Department. If not, there is an opening on the Board of our High School Department which is composed of members of the Temple who supervise the work of the school and who plan its activities. My dear Dr. Silver:

I recall with much pleasure my speaking to you years ago, and I am now writing because I speak to the Mental Hygiene Association in Cleveland on Monday, October 27, and in Cincinnati on Saturday the 25th. I am most anxious to use Sunday and could use it in either Cincinnati or Cleveland.

I am well aware that your own forum may be filled for this date, but perhaps you might know of others whose congregation might be interested in having me speak to them on that Sunday.

Thanking you in advance for this courtesy, and with best regards, I am

Very truly yours,

Joseph Jastrow.

My dear Mr. Henderson:-

I read your editorial in this week's Bystander about me and the hotel strike. At first I thought of answering you as I had done on a previous occasion, but then I reflected that in your heart of hearts you must know, as well as I do, that what you wrote is all jolly tosh - stuff strongly reminiscent of William Frew Long's peculiar brand of taste, logic and morals.

So I merely added a prayer last night for those people who have to be the servants of Society, with a capital "S".

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Felti Silver,

I have just discovered ~~that~~ you are to be in Boston on October twentieth to speak at the banquet for the Associated Jewish Philanthropies, and, remembering very happily the Sunday afternoon you spent with us last year, I am hoping you will spare us some time during this visit:

Won't you choose from dinner Sunday noon, supper Sunday night, or luncheon on Monday and come to us as informally as you did last time? Please try - if you care at all to be with us - to give us a few hours when you won't have to rush off to repeating obligations or official duties. At the same time we can find something almost as jolly to do as the visit to the Gardner Museum.

Mr. Trexfus joins me in cordial greetings and the hope that we may share your Boston visit.

Sincerely yours,

Dyloia J. Trexfus

you've forgotten!)

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver,
The Temple,
East 105th St. at Ansel Road,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Dr. Silver:

Most likely you be surprised to hear from me on this new letterhead. I came over here about three weeks ago after having been at Harpers since it was established in 1817. Do write and give me your blessing!

Under separate cover I am sending you an advance copy of HAYM SALOMON AND THE REVOLUTION by Charles Edward Russell who won the Pulitzer Prize for Biography in 1928 with his book "Theodore Thomas".

I believe that this book will make the basis of a very interesting and inspiring lecture sermon for you. As a Jew, I feel no end of pride in the achievements of HAYM SALOMON and other not so famous Jews, as pictured in this book.

HAYM SALOMON AND THE REVOLUTION is very timely now in view of the monument of Salomon which is to be erected in one of the most prominent spots of New York City - 66th Street and Broadway. The foundation ceremonies will take place in Spring.

Possibly you will remember that in the New York Times of May 4th, 1925, President Coolidge said in a long tribute to Haym Salomon:

"There is a romance in the story of Haym Salomon, Polish Jew financier of the Revolution. Born in Poland he was made prisoner by the British forces in New York and when he escaped set up in business in Philadelphia. He negotiated for Robert Morris all the loans raised in France and Holland, pledged his personal faith and fortune for enormous amounts and personally advanced large sums to such men as James Madison, Thomas Jefferson, Baron Steuben, General St. Clair and many other patriot leaders, who testified that without his aid they could not have carried on in the cause."

HAYM SALOMON AND THE REVOLUTION will be published October 18th. If you decide to talk about it from your pulpit, won't you let me know in advance so that I may notify the local newspapers and booksellers?

Sincerely,

Ruth Raphael
