October 1, 1930.

To the Holders of First Mortgage
Fee and Leasehold 6½% Serial
Gold Bonds of Palace Theatre Corporation:

Your Committee is pleased to report that the Plan heretofore approved by you with reference to your bonds, involving the foreclosure and purchase of the property in South Bend, Indiana, and the sale thereof to Orpheum Theatre Company, has been fully carried out, and the new bonds which you are to receive in place of your old bonds are available for distribution.

As you have heretofore been advised, foreclosure proceedings were instituted by the Trustees under the mortgage in the District Court of the United States at South Bend, Indiana. As a result of the foreclosure proceedings, the Court ordered the sale of the property by a Special Master. Pursuant to the Plan, The Theater Corporation of South Bend was organized under the laws of Indiana by your Committee and acquired the property of Palace Theatre Corporation at the Special Master's sale. The Theater Corporation of South Bend having thus acquired the title to the property, proceeded to transfer the property to Orpheum Theatre Company in pursuance of the contract entered into by your Committee with Orpheum Circuit, Inc.

Before transferring the property, The Theater Corporation of South Bend executed an issue of bonds in the face amount of $875,000.00, together with a First Mortgage Deed of Trust to Union Trust Company (of South Bend, Ind.) as Trustee, covering the South Bend property. These bonds are all dated as of August 15, 1930, and bear interest at 6% per annum, payable semi-annually on March 1st and September 1st in each year from September 1, 1930, the first coupon being payable on March 1, 1931. The bonds are all payable and become due on September 1, 1942. The Deed of Trust, however, obligates the owner of the property to retire on September 1st in each year for five years bonds in the principal amount of $25,000.00 and bonds in the principal amount of $35,000.00 each year for the next five years, and bonds in the principal amount of $50,000.00 on September 1st, 1941, and the balance on September 1st, 1942. In order to comply with this obligation the owner must deposit cash with the Trustee sufficient to enable the Trustee to retire by lot bonds in the above amounts, or else the owner can purchase from the bondholders bonds sufficient to meet the above retirements and deliver the bonds so purchased to the Trustee for cancellation. The selection of bonds by lot by the Trustee for retirement will give to each bondholder an equal opportunity to have his bonds retired before maturity. In any event, to the extent that the bonds are thus retired each year, the equity in the property is increased annually for the benefit and protection of the remaining bondholders.

When the property was transferred to Orpheum Theatre Company, it specifically assumed and agreed to pay these bonds. Orpheum Theatre Company is a subsidiary company of Orpheum Circuit, Inc., which owns and operates a large circuit of theatres formerly known as the Orpheum Circuit, and is a subsidiary of Radio-Keith-Orpheum Corporation.

In the opinion of your Committee, the new bonds which you are receiving are sound securities and the interest and principal of same will be promptly paid when due.

An analysis of the operation of the property in South Bend for the past year shows decreased earnings due to the general depression in business conditions. This confirms the opinion of the Committee that the sale to Orpheum was most advantageous to bondholders, and justifies the recommendation of the Committee that the sale be approved.

In connection with the closing of the transaction with Orpheum Theatre Company, it was necessary, as provided in the contract, to pay the taxes for the last half of the year 1929, amounting to $10,120.85, and further to allow taxes for the period from January 1, 1930, to September 1, 1930, amounting to $13,493.40. It was also necessary to rebate to Orpheum Theatre Company the rental of the theatre for two months which it had paid in advance under the terms of its lease, which rebate amounted to $6,666.66. It was also necessary to deposit with a Bonding Company the sum of $6,500.00 in connection with two pending lawsuits involving the property, based upon mechanic's liens which were outstanding against the property. In addition to paying the above items, it has been necessary to pay various bills incurred in connection with the organization of the Committee, the deposit of bonds with the Depositary, foreclosure of the property, the purchase of the property from the Special Master and the sale of the property to Orpheum Theatre Company, the issuance and distribution of the new bonds in the amount of $875,000 and the preparation of the First Mortgage Deed of Trust securing these bonds, including such items as printing, revenue stamps, charges and expenses of the Depositary, charges and expenses of the Trustees, charges and expenses of the Committee, and compensation paid for services rendered in connection with negotiating and accomplishing the sale of the property and for legal services in connection with all of the above matters. Unexpected delays and difficulties and complications in connection with the entire matter resulted in a great deal more expense than was originally anticipated by the Committee. Also, while the Committee anticipated that it would derive substantial revenue from the theatre during the entire period which has elapsed due to the fact that it was entitled to receive one-half of the profits of the theatre under the terms of the theatre lease, the theatre, because of the general business depression, made no profit and as a matter of fact operated at a substantial loss during that period. As a result of all these things, it will not be possible to make distribution to bondholders on account of accrued interest. However, the bondholders will receive new bonds in a face amount equal to the old bonds which were deposited, which bonds bear interest from September 1, 1930.

As provided in the Plan, a detailed statement of the expenses and disbursements in connection with the entire transaction will be filed with the Depositary as soon as all items have been taken care of and the entire matter completed.

New bonds of The Theater Corporation of South Bend are now available for distribution at the principal office of the Depositary, Central United National Bank of Cleveland, 308 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio. In order to obtain your new bonds, it is necessary that you return to the Depositary the Certificate of Deposit issued to you for your old bonds and you will thereupon receive from the Depositary your new bonds.

Your Committee wishes at this time to take the opportunity of thanking each bondholder for his co-operation in this matter which has resulted in the successful working out of the Plan and which will result ultimately in the full payment of the principal of your bonds. The Committee also wishes to express its appreciation for the co-operation and assistance rendered by The S. Ulmer & Sons Company in working out this matter.

Very truly yours,

C. R. BACKUS

Dear Friend Rabbi Teitel -

Although you do not know me, I have attended many of your lectures; and about twelve years ago I was a student of your Bible class, held in the Library Bldg.

I have been ill with tuberculosis for the last year. The doctor said I have a good chance of recovery but I must have a happy state of mind. I can't seem to pull myself out of a state of depression. The doctor recommended that I take up Christian Science.

After hearing you, Rabbi Margolis, Rabbi Solomon and other Rabbis speak my own religion but I do not know just where to find it.

If you will kindly suggest a few books that will help me, I will appreciate it. If you can any in stock, please mail me one or two and I will pay for them C. O. O. D.

Thanking you for anything you may do for

My dear Mr. Myers:-

Knowing of your interest in the Hebrew University of Palestine, I am taking the liberty of sending you the enclosed letter which I received this morning.

I feel that something should be done for the Hebrew University. It need not be on a large scale. If it were possible to procure from among those who attended Mr. Felix Warburg's luncheon fifteen or twenty men who would undertake to contribute say $100 each the sum would be a right neat one to be sent in Cleveland's name to the University.

I know of no one to turn to in this matter. At dinner the other evening you mentioned the fact that you had spoken to one or two people about the University. Will you not undertake to see this thing through?

With kindest regards and best wishes for a very happy New Year, permit me to remain

Rabbi A. H. Silver,

My dear Rabbi: -

Replying to your favor of October 3rd, on account of the present community burdens I am carrying, I really have no right to take on anything additional, and while I feel very keenly the obligation that some of us have taken upon ourselves in the matter of the Hebrew University at Palestine, and am willing to do what I can, yet I feel that others who have plenty of time and are doing but little in these matters should really be the ones called upon to lead this movement. I also realize that even though some of them have plenty of time it seems the more time they have the less they are willing to do.

I have secured two pledges of $100.00 each which I have not yet turned in, but will do so within the next few days. I am perfectly willing to work among my friends quietly in this manner, but please do not call upon me to head any committee, as really I am carrying more than I should at the present time.

I will take this matter up with you again in the near future.

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

I am writing to ask whether we can count on the renewal of your pledge to the Consumers' League for 1931. This is a year when there are innumerable calls on one's generosity for cases of individual need, as well as for general funds for relief. We believe, however, that the present industrial situation makes doubly important the continuance of the work of the Consumers' League. Because of your active work on the Unemployment Insurance Committee, you know what will be involved in having a bill introduced in the legislature and in enlisting support for it.

The depression brings hardship not only to those who are out of work, but also to those who are being exploited through long hours and low wages. The League office is one place where they can and do turn for help. This help consists of information about the laws which exist for their protection, and active work in securing enforcement.

With these and other responsibilities ahead of us, we hope we may have the encouragement of your continued support. During 1930 you contributed $50.00. We should be glad to receive your pledge for 1931.

Sincerely yours,

Alice P. Gannett

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I have succeeded in establishing contact at Hunter College, in the Education Department. The appointment is temporary, but the prospects are fair that it may be made permanent. This is the field I have been yearning for through many years, and I have the strong hope and conviction that I shall thoroughly 'find myself' in it.

I have been asked to furnish credentials about my education and past activities. May I ask you kindly to send me a statement indicating that I served as Director of Activities at The Temple from September 1924 to June 1927, that one of my functions was to direct the Religious School (with registration and number of teachers or staff), and that during those years I also served as instructor and registrar of the Jewish Teachers Institute?

I trust you, Mrs. Silver and the children are well.

With sincere regards and thanking you for your kindness in this matter, I am

Cordially yours,

Mr Weitz may have told you of the series of difficulties that I have been facing these years. I am mindful of my financial obligations and determined to repay fully just as soon as I possibly can. After all these months of unemployment I shall be getting my first income on November first, and at that my present earning capacity at College is considerably less than half of what I was earning several years ago. Although I have been eagerly in search of a supplementary job nothing has yet presented itself. It will therefore, be some time before I can hope to send Mr Weitz any further payment; but I shall resume just as quickly as I can.

P.S. - Will you kindly send your letter to me at Hunter College,

I should love to be with you but I am afraid that my schedule will not give me much time in Boston. I plan to arrive some time Monday afternoon and leave again that same night for home. The week happens to be a very crowded one for me and I must make very close connections.

Should I be free on Monday afternoon I shall be most happy to call you on the telephone and arrange to spend a little time together.

Please extend my best wishes to Mr. Dreyfus.

To Whom It May Concern:

Mr. Solomon Blum served as director of activities at the Temple, Cleveland, Ohio from Sept. 1924 to June 1927. During that time he was in charge of the Temple Religious School which is one of the largest religious schools in America, comprising a student body of thirteen hundred children and a faculty of forty instructors.

Mr. Blum also served as registrar of the Jewish Teachers' Institute of Cleveland.

We found his work as supervisor very satisfactory.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

May I take this opportunity to express the appreciation of our family for your kind words and services at the burial of my father, Benjamin Bauer.

My mother requests me to ask you to suggest some fund at The Temple to which she can make a donation in the near future.

I find myself at a loss to say any more than these, the usual words for such an occasion, although I would like to express my personal satisfaction in the way you handle your difficult task. My mother seemed to obtain considerable solace and consolation from your words.

Very sincerely yours

My dear Mr. Bauer:-

Permit me to thank you for your kind note of Oct. 15th.

I am happy to know that I was of some service to you and to the members of your family at the time of the burial of your dear father.

Men have spoken very highly of him and it is most gratifying. I am sure, for children to have such a legacy of fine memories bequeathed to them.

In regard to the request of your mother that I suggest some fund at the Temple to which she may make a donation. I would suggest the Temple Memorial Library Fund. Donations made to this Fund are used for the purchase of books of a specific Jewish or religious character. Each book carries the name of the donor as well as the name of the person in whose memory it is given.

With kindest regards and best wishes

Att: Mr. Solomon Lowenstein, Chairman.

Dear Mr. Lowenstein: -

I am in receipt of your letter of September 10th, also Rabbi Silver has turned over to me your letter under date of September 30th, and asked me to interest myself in securing further contributions to the University from friends of the institution in this city.

I appreciate the fact that very little has been done since Dr. Magnes' visit here a few years ago. I had thought that after Mr. Warburg's visit, Mr. Hahn would take some action as the matter was in his hands, but unfortunately very little seems to have been done. Now, I am not in position to give the work very much attention, but I promised Rabbi Silver that I would help, to the extent of my available time, as I am very deeply interested in the welfare and progress of the University.

To that end I am going to a number of my personal friends not already subscribers and am soliciting their interest. I am pleased to enclose herewith two pledges for $100.00 each, one from Julius Tuteur, c/o Electric Vacuum Cleaner Co., Cleveland, Ohio, the other from Salmon P. Halle, 924 Hanna Bldg., Cleveland, Ohio. You may send billing to Mr. Tuteur at once; Mr. Halle however wishes his subscription to date as of January, 1931, so nothing will be available there until that date. I have some other prospects in view and will get the pledges to you at the earliest possible moment.

Now, in regard to the people who have already made pledges but apparently have not paid for this year. I am among that number, and I enclose herewith my check for $60.00. I have a list of the people who have made pledges, but do not know how many of them are delinquent, and who they are. I understand from the letter that Mr. Hahn has not yet sent in his check so I will speak to him about it. If you will kindly send me a complete list of the pledgees, marking thereon those who have not paid for the current year, I will see what I can do in this matter also.

At the same time I would appreciate if you will send me some literature pertaining to the activities of the University that I may use as a selling point.

Dear Rabbi Silver,

Because of the fact that I did not greet you this morning - since you may have taken cognizance of it - I do not want you to think that I feel any personal unfriendliness to you who have been always kind to me.

Nevertheless there was a phase of your address that called to my mind, however unequal the circumstances might be, the lack of results accruing from our connection

You recalled the names of Jews who played their part in German achievement of the past. I have but little information in these matters, but was it not true, as I venture to believe, that these men in almost every instance owed nothing of their achievement to their co-religionists?
If that is so, why was it that Jewish solidarity did not function for their advantages?

Some time ago when Max Kallish was finishing your book, at a time I know when you were giving him some sittings he advanced an argument to me which I felt

2. was not derived from his own thinking, much as I admire his personal force. I felt that the argument was developed (perhaps it was egotistical for me to think so) with some consideration of me.

He said that Jews were mistaken to try issues - though that may not have been the phrase - with the world at large. That they thrived on opposition, and that in those countries where they were not opposed they had failed to gain conspicuous place. I will not prolong this letter by giving my answer to that argument, but I will ask, in incubating the sense of Jewishness, and in practicing solidarity, whether or not occasion for defense exists, is not opposition in times of national stress invited?

There is a better way and I think that great Jewish characters have practiced it.
To ignore distinctions between them and the peoples with whom they live is not to deny them birth-right. If Palestine (so it seems to me) has any meaning for living Jews it is that there they may live their native uniqueness, ^{not only} unuprooted but where it is supremely fitting that they do so. With Palestine a reality it is to my mind an impropriety to fail

3. to participate to their fullest capacity in the fulfilment of the ideals of their native land i. e. their land of habitation.

To this protestation, if you like, it is to my mind to the Jew's glory that he is equal. If he reacts and attempts to find answer to the woes of his native land is he any less reacting and attempting to find answer for his own? Is he not rather seeing the latter, in doing so, through new eyes and thus keeping them ever fresh in his own?

I feel that the means of Jewish destiny are not so simply to be won as by flying to self-defense, but however hard it may be, it is by showing his willingness to take up other peoples' burdens that he may win and have claim to consideration for his own. It was, I think with some such reaction that I wrote a number of years ago "think not but that I'll do the thing thou askest. Know I whose lips have spoke when thine I or mine?"

Sincerely yours

Chaim H. Rosenbaum.

P.S. My sister has asked me to ask of you the letters I left with you some time ago with the

4. request that you give me some translation of them at your convenience. I should, I know have inquired for them
a long time ago.

My dear Rabbi Silver,

I can't help writing to you to express my appreciation for being present at your last Sunday services.

For once I was able to sit through your entire sermon without the slightest interruption. It was a real treat as one would call it.

And your Adoration was splendid. When you swept aside the curtains in front of the alcove, it appeared to me, like what one would call a shrine, lit up with a soft glow of simulated sunshine. The scrolls never looked so holy to me. The dramatic effect was perfect, one was tempted to bow down and pray. It was the most realistic bit of silent devotion I ever experienced.

I'm sorry the temple wasn't there were many turned away

I have just written to Jessie Hays telling her how very much I wanted to speak to you after your appealing address Monday evening, not alone to ask you to convey to her a message of love from me,

but also to tell you that never have I listened to such a stirring and eloquent plea - "Reverence - Love - Joy" - Unforgettable!

It was remarkable that the code of the 13th or touched the fount of philanthropy and of service today

even as it did then - For, under the diversities of groups, those types of charity fundamental truths by which all mankind give

Thank you for coming to us

My dear Dr. Silver:

A few days ago, you received an eloquent appeal in behalf of my Annuity Fund, the completion of which would enable me to start immediately on my intended addendum to the Jewish Encyclopedia:

THE BIBLE IN THE LIGHT OF THE AGES

It gives me great pleasure to inform you that all that is needed to reach my goal is an annual pledge of about $2500. I will celebrate my seventy-first birthday, November 10th next. I am, then, standing at my Mount Nebo, ready to pack my trunks. But before leaving the "valley in the Land of Moab", I would like to deliver to my people my ואת הכרזה in the shape of the monumental Bibelwerk which, I trust, shall reestablish our claim to our old title of honor of "The People of the Book".

A father to save his child does not hesitate, if need be, to fall on his knees. As scores of our most prominent contemporaries, Jews and Gentiles, testified to you, I have served our people faithfully and disinterestedly for over forty-eight years. All I am asking of you today, as a supreme reward at this supreme hour of my life, is to become one of one hundred ready to pledge $25 per annum for the couple of years the Almighty might yet vouchsafe to me.

Should you, however, for whatever reason,
have made up your mind to refuse this modest request of mine, please, at least do me the favor of notifying me of your decision so that you may avoid being further annoyed in this matter.

I have in my long life compiled encyclopedias, edited magazines, written books and essays by the score, but believe me of all my literary productions this present short letter was so far the hardest on

This letter will introduce to you Mr. Zalman Ralsin, eminent Jewish scholar who is in this country in the interest of the Yiddish Scientific Institute - one of the very important Jewish cultural agencies of the world.

The institute is carrying on extensive research work in the field of Jewish cultural achievement. It is rescuing from loss and oblivion the relics of the Jewish past. It conducts research study in Jewish history and in Yiddish language and literature. It publishes important volumes on Jewish economics, ethnography and folklore. It has been endorsed by such outstanding Jews as Prof. Albert Einstein and Prof. Sigmund Freud of Vienna. It is deserving of the support of all Jews who are interested in the culture and history of their people.

My dear Miss Kalich:-

The Zionist Emergency Situation which has arisen in recent months and which has compelled me to devote considerable time to the raising of funds to cover the Zionist Deficit has made it impossible for me to do much of anything in the matter which you wrote to me about. I simply have been harried with the number of tasks which I have had to undertake.

I hope during the next few weeks to see some of my friends. I have already approached two or three and I am enclosing a very small check. I trust that I may be able to procure much more.

This is a particularly difficult time in which to interest people in causes however worthy. The economic depression in our community is terrific and at such times it is almost impossible to induce people to do a very worthy and generous thing. However I have not given up hope.

Dear Dr. Silver:

I am in receipt this morning of your kindly letter with its enclosure and though it is for a small amount nevertheless, we are in such a precarious condition financially, that we are very glad to have it and are grateful to you.

The months pass as days with very little improvement in mother's condition - Every gain is followed by a relapse when the building must begin all over again. Of course I ascribe the slow recuperation to the fact that just at this time, when she needs it most, she must deny herself all the comforts and even necessities of living she has been accustomed to. That is very hard to bear and still get well under the strain and shock she has suffered. We are going through a terrible period but nevertheless, hope for the best and a better future. It is such hope that helps carry on. If we can restore mother's health and nerve energy by next this season she hopes to resume her work next year, though she is forbidden by her physician to return to the stage work.

Under these conditions we cannot be very cheerful and I think you dear Doctor Silas for your thought and sympathetic regard.

Mother sends you her kindest thoughts and love

Most gratefully yours,
Lillian Gabriel.

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

As you know, I am now in Cincinnati, trying to make my home, and a total stranger, and I do so much want to meet the right kind of people. I know that you know all of these people in Cincinnati, and as it would do me a world of good to meet them in person, am wondering if it would be too much of me to ask you to write to some of your friends, such as Maurice F. Freiberg, Geo. W. Starn, Rabbi J. G. Heller, Rabbi S. Phillipson, and Mrs. Leo Westheimer.

As I understand that these are the people worth while knowing, I know that a few words from you telling them of my musical reputation, and your asking them to come over to my Sunday afternoon concert, a series of which we are going to give at the Hotel Sinton, for the benefit of the unemployed, will mean so much to me, and if you think I am worthy of having you go to this trouble, please do so.

I will always be grateful to you for this favor, and remain as always

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

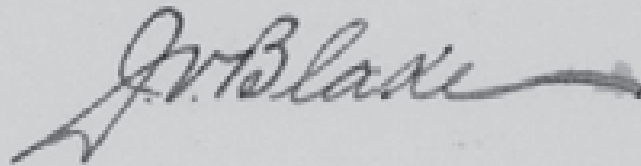

I had the pleasure of listening to you last evening. I not only enjoyed every word which you had to say, but I am sorry that such a message could not reach every man and woman in Akron. Many thanks for all that it meant to me.

A few months ago, I found, back of an old family portrait, a piece of newspaper published in Frederick, Maryland, in 1843. In it, was an editorial taken from the "Bangor Whig", evidently a paper published in Bangor, Maine, about that time. I am sending you with this, a copy of that editorial.

It might have appeared in a 1930 paper or magazine. Not only is it interesting in that respect, but it shows that the manners, morals and outlook of youth travels in cycle of about 40 years. Note what it says about the youth of 40 years before the editorial was written. Then what it says about the youth of that day, 1843. Some of us remember very distinctly how we viewed life and liberty about 40 years, in the Mid-Victorian period. And most of us wonder a lot about what is going on today. Well, our comfort is that 40 years hence, around 1960, youth will be different. Or as you said, the parents of tomorrow will be more severe disciplinarians than those of the present time.

I thought you might find this interesting.

Very truly yours,

Sunday, November 2

Rabbi A. H. Silver;
The Temple.

My dear Dr. Silver:

This morning at ten I attended a discussion class of which I am a member. Our leader, Dr. F. L. Blanchard, raised the question; "Is it possible to attain a fully adequate sense (or idea) of God without belief in Jesus as the Christ?" To the various answers Dr. Blanchard listened with his enigmatic smile, and said nothing.

Immediately after this discussion two of us hurried over to the Temple to hear your sermon on Einsteinism. My usual pleasure in your sermons was augmented by my friends' evident enjoyment of this her first service in the Temple. We were both inclined to believe that you read into Einstein's creed a bit of the warmth and enthusiasm of your own religious convictions; yet, in any case, you fully answered Dr. Blanchard's question of the hour before.

The real purpose of this note is to tell you how happy I am that you are to preach next Sunday.

for the students of my Alma Mater.
you will be inspired by the beauty of our wonderful chapel. No other church has ever gripped me with its beauty as does that chapel. The interior of your Temple is soul-satisfying with its suggestion of calmness and of the infinite reaches upward and outward. Our chapel grips me with a more poignantly emotional thrill.

During my years at Chicago there was a tradition of affection for Rabbi Weiss. I feel sure that this visit of yours and subsequent visits will establish a similar tradition.

Sincerely,

Will C. Cury.

732 East 105 St.
Cleveland, Ohio

P.S. While you are in Chicago I hope you will have time to meet Dr. Ames and see his beautiful little church auditorium at University Avenue and East 57th Street. It is very different, — pre-Gothic — and I love it. Dr. Ames is another man who can keep the warmth and enthusiasm of his religious convictions without stifling his intellect.

SILVER ELIASH

Cleveland, Ohio
Nov 2, 1930

Dear Rabbi Silver,

This letter is not intended to add "causes" for that letter you are going to send me.

Even though you had powers of mind reading - a thing that I do not mean to suggest that you lay claim to - I should not presume that you know entirely for what I was thanking you on Sunday.

First I owed you a debt, as did every one else present for your address at the Zionist meeting. Particularly I owe it to you for your example of unswerving maintenance of a cause such as one may profess with his whole strength. Simultaneously I was conscious of a useless - or unused - feeling on my part.

It seems to me that there is possible, what is not existent at present in the terms I mean, - a substantiation of a noteworthy utterance and even of a cause of an organization for which it was delivered. I have tried to determine definitely of what that substantiation consists. I would ask you first, in what the outline of a program should upon the things most difficult to maintain in its practical form? May that should be so, if it is, would send to me to have the course in the lack of a retained image to give it continuance.

I hold that apart from the individual temperament in an activity which is valuable in it is the underlying thought on philosophy which is the same, or may be, as that of the Zionist movement.
And I overestimate the possibility of a work of art when I say that - or rather do I wrongly characterize it when I say that when there is no perceptible diversion between the image and the thought that it is most successful and that it a finite object may represent these things that it is not in itself as a constant audience or circumstance (I use the word "constant" and usually) of the object in hand? Such a case I see in the writing of Palestine. Taking an artistic necessity to call on this object on Friday Rabbi F. even was good enough to say that with my guest and I have been opportunity to mention something of our talk to you

Sincerely yours

Shmuel H. Rosenbaum

Dear Doctor Silver:

I understand that your new volume of essays had already appeared. I would greatly appreciate an autographed copy of this fruit of your labor and art. I will endeavor to publish a review of it.

I am very sorry to state that I am still detached. Thus far all my efforts to find a pulpit or a community center have not been successful. I have 2 or 3 prospects, but one can not support a family consisting of a wife and two children on prospects. Needless to tell you that I will appreciate your cooperation in this matter.

I had the pleasure of meeting Rabbi ^{Mr.} Lazaron and being their guest. Rabbi Lazaron has been trying to connect me with Scranton, Pa.

I have very few friends here. Would therefore appreciate an introduction to your brother. With best wishes to you and yours, I am

I promised to mail you a booklet on monthly income, which you will find enclosed. This is an address delivered by an outstanding authority on life insurance. I am sure that you will agree with Mr. Day that insurance should not all be paid in lump sums. If you care to have your insurance arranged on a monthly income basis, I will be glad to take care of it for you.

Our Company will issue additional insurance without further examination if it is taken care of by the 15th of this month. It might be well for you to give this matter some thought. $75,000.00 of insurance will give your family an income of about $300.00 a month without impairing the principal. At your leisure read the enclosed booklet and I will communicate with you at a later date.

Members of The Oakwood Club:

Under the Reorganization Plan of The Oakwood Club, the membership limit of regular members is being increased from 300 to 450. This allows us to take in 150 new members. We have applications from 123 members of the Excelsior Club who, under the Reorganization Plan, will be taken in as members, leaving 27 open memberships. These are Non Golf Playing memberships. The Oakwood Club will furnish to its members all of the social facilities heretofore offered by the Excelsior Club. Non Golf Playing members will have preference, under the Constitution, in filling vacancies in the Golf Playing class.

The Club has on file a substantial number of applications for these vacancies. After the membership is once filled it will probably be difficult for new applicants to be admitted. The Board of Trustees, therefore, desires to give the opportunity, at this time, to all of the members, to suggest names of relatives and friends whom they may wish to see admitted to membership in the Club. All such applications should be filed immediately, so that preliminary investigations may be made at this time. The Board may wish to act on applications within two weeks.

If there are those for whom you wish to file applications for membership, request them to write a letter, at once, applying for Non Golf Playing membership in The Oakwood Club, stating their age and business and giving the names of two members as references. The letter should be addressed to Mr. Phil Frankel, Secretary, Guarantee Title Building, Cleveland, Ohio.

For your information, Non Golf Playing members must purchase a Membership Certificate in the amount of $1500.00, pay an initiation fee of $150.00 and annual dues of $140.00. After the membership is once filled, new members will be required to pay an initiation fee of $750.00 and purchase a Membership Certificate in the amount of $1000.00.

Tonight we enjoyed the greatest treat that next visit to Chicago, as I understand you are to speak later at Sinai.

Dear Rabbi

I belong to Young Judea Club in Akron. At our next meeting our program will consist of short biographies of local men interested in Zionism.

I would greatly appreciate if you would kindly favor me in writing a short history of your life so we could have the pleasure of discussing it at our next meeting, Monday, Nov. 17/30

Thanking you in advance for this favor, I am friend as well as one of the most loyal and faithful members of our congregation. It is sad to see the old guard passing on one by one.

Both Mrs. Silver and I will long treasure some very happy memories of your dear father.

Dear Dr. Silver:-

I have your little note and I confess that I have no alibi to offer except to admit our very regrettable error.

Perhaps the very trouble is that you are a Doctor twice and maybe someone thought that one Doctor cancels the other. I need not assure you that the very next time we reprint this ~~form~~ the proper correction will be made.

Having carried two degrees myself for some twenty-five years, I rather appreciate if once in a while I get a letter addressed to "Rabbi Rubinow."

Dear Rabbi Silver:

You will be surprised to receive a communication from me enroute to California, but unfortunately we met with a serious accident, our car being ditched by another in passing us, causing our car to be turned up side down and my wife, Blanch being pinned under and seriously hurt, with a slight fracture of the skull, and a rupture to the eye ball, probably losing her eyesight in the right eye or probably lose the eye all together. I pray to God that she will recover and also her eyesight.

She requested me to write to you, asking you to offer a prayer for her and also please write to her a few words of comfort, which I know she would appreciate a great deal. She is at the West Texas Baptist Sanatorium here in Abilene, Texas.

My little daughter Joy has a fractured collar bone which is being set and I think everything will turn out all right with her.

The other 3 children and myself have slight bruises and cuts but otherwise are O.K.

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

I was present at the Sunday morning service, November 16th, at the conclusion of which you reminded the congregation of the urgent need by the Community Fund this year. Your earnest appeal caused me to write you of a recent experience I had with Mr. Stungis, Director of the Community Fund. I feel that something is wrong somewhere, and it would not surprise me that it is because I am a Jew.

Some 4 weeks ago I called on Mr. Stungis and explained to him that I had been away from Cleveland for five years, and though Cleveland is my home town, my previous contacts were more or less broken now and I had to start all over again. Not being able to get located, and abhorring inactivity and to avoid mental stalemess, I thought of the idea of volunteering my services gratis to the Community Fund where my 16 years of business training and experience would be of some help or possibly save some cost in extra help immediately preceding and after the campaign. There were no strings attached to my volunteer service offer.

Mr. Sturgis was friendly and most cordial and he remarked "Usually when one comes in, it is to ask for something and here you are offering something, and therefore it was somewhat unusual." Mr. Sturgis made a record of my name and address and telephone number. I was assured that he would get in touch with me later.

Not hearing from Mr. Sturgis, I again inquired about 10 days ago, and this time Mr. Sturgis sent word. Then his secretary very curtly, I thought, that "my name was turned over to one of the staff." I still am without word from Mr. Sturgis' office. The change in attitude and a most discourteous has puzzled me ever since. The discrimination may have been caused because I am Jewish.

In seeking employment, quite often I found that being Jewish seemed to be a fault. This is an old story. However, I did not think that an organization like the Community Fund, would appear to discriminate against Jewish volunteer service, and yet it is perfectly willing to accept money from Jews. If I was told that for one reason or another my offer could not be accepted, I would have been perfectly satisfied.

The entire incident has bothered me to such an extent that I have concluded to write you of it, for what it may suggest to you.

Most Respectfully, Yours

Morris J. Kaplan

probably Sat. Night, Dec. 27th, if 1) convenient for you; and 2) if there's no need of obtaining the license several days before the ceremony.

Furthermore, we would deem it

Dear Abba:-

Greetings from your parents. I think they are one of the happiest couples in the world. They sure had their life's dream realized. I was in their beautiful modern up-to-date bungalow home in N.Y.C. twice - upon arrival and upon leaving 10/5/30 - and met them several times in the streets of the city. Pearl too, happened to be in Palestine at the time and we drank "Prohibition" (1930) at the Hotel Audensky where I stayed.

I am enclosing two snapshots which did not come out so well. I had also taken motion pictures of your folks. I had a motion picture camera with me. Maxwell and his wife, Rose and her husband and Mr. Michaelson were over my house one evening and I threw the pictures on the screen. Next time when you are in New York I shall be very happy to have you over to the house and show these pictures. I know it will be a thrill for you to see your folks on the screen. I should have really written you sooner, but I was very busy since my arrival in catching up with my work.

By the way, I understood, that another of your books is being published. Congratulations.

Will you let me know when you expect to be in New York? Kindest regards to Virginia. Always wishes to be remembered.
Ever yours
Sol.

My dear Mr. Kirstein:-

It was indeed very thoughtful of you to think of me on Thanksgiving Day and to send me the box of lovely cigars. I need not tell you that I am very grateful to you.

With best wishes and hoping that I shall have the pleasure of seeing you soon again, permit me to remain

Very sincerely yours,

ALEXANDER SEGEL
408 HAINES HOTEL
YORK, PENNA.

Nov. 28, 1930.

Dear Abba Hillel,
I shall be pleased to delay
the wedding until Sunday or Monday Dec. 28th or 29th, at about 6 P.M., if that will suit your convenience better.

I prefer Sunday, some time, to the week day. But of course I can wait if necessary.

If you will let me know whether Mrs. Silver and you can join us at the little wedding dinner, I shall have my intended extend the invitation directly.

Anticipating the keen pleasure of seeing and hearing you, I beg to remain,

Sincerely yours,

Alex.

My dear Sir:-

I enclose a tear sheet from the November issue of American Photography.

Having listened to a fine talk on Tolstoi, that you once delivered, I know that you will be interested in seeing a thing of this sort.

Very truly yours,

Kenneth Cobb, Publicity Department,
