Sanctuary

[1931?]

THE doors of the synagog burst open. Terrified Jews inside thought a pogrom had begun when disheveled men poured in wearing the emblem of the Stahlhelm, German veterans' anti-Semitic association. This was in Frankfort-on-Main, one day this week.

But the men who were banded together in hatred for the Jew had come to the synagog not to kill but to be saved from death. Outside, twice as many Communists were waiting to maul them. The members of the Stahlhelm, returning from an anti-Jewish meeting, had run into a militant band of Communists and been overpowered. In Germany, political parties take themselves very seriously.

The Jewish congregation received its enemies and gave them sanctuary. There must have been, in the minds of the rabbi and his flock, many memories of violent death and pillage inflicted on their race; memories of persecuted loved ones; thoughts of fear still hanging over them. But the enemy had been delivered into their hands and they were merciful.

It is hard to believe that the men of the Stahlhelm, having found refuge in the shadow of a synagog, can ever violate that sanctuary when others cower there. In so many places in the world, old fires of hate are flaming up again. The Frankfort congregation has shown how they may be quenched, in a way we are accustomed to call Christian.

My dear Abba, -

When Sadie returned from Cleveland last week, she spoke again about the soprano at your Temple not being what you want, and that you or your committee would now look for some one else.

I began to think and wonder if going to Wheeling every week was much different from going back & forth from Cleveland and Pittsburgh. Of course singing in your Temple would be one of my ambitions realized.

So I thought I would just write and ask you a couple of important details. What the salary would be, because I would have railroad fare and board to pay out of my salary.
All this, however, if my singing suited the powers that be.

And also, my sister has been

know to get things wrong at times and if this is one of them, why first consider this letter as not having been written. I am alright again and back on both my jobs.
My two congregations were very glad to welcome me back.
Hope you and Virginia and children are well and happy.
Love to you all.

Sincerely,

WRHS

Deza.

July 17th

Dear Rabbi

I received the remaining chapters. I cannot begin to tell you how much I appreciate the care with which you read them. Your suggestions & criticisms were well taken and after I consult with Olaver I am sure we will manage to incorporate most of them. The subjects of Social Justice and Adjustment to Anti-Semitism do have chapters devoted by them. Olaver wrote them while on his trip to Europe & I believe they will be completed when he returns.

We expect to have the book whipped into shape by the middle of August. The manuscript will then be sent to Elsa Weill who has consented to edit it for grammar, phrasing etc. Then to Black to whom we have promised it by the end of August. If everything works out according to schedule, the book should be ready for use by our classes when they convene in November. I am looking forward to it eagerly because I feel that it will be my first concrete achievement. Not much, but a beginning.

I expect to spend the last week-end of the month with Oliver in Pittsburg going over the manors cups very carefully & putting in some finishing touches. Will be back on the job Monday. Angus & I will then pitch in to get things lined up for the coming year. You might get a letter to me by then with notes of what you want me to take care of.
I have thought of a number of things that need to be done but I might slip up on something.

Preached here for Fisher last Saturday & spoke to a very nice congregation. Imagine having to prepare & preach a sermon with the thermometer over 90°.

We are having a wonderful time. Hattie is beginning to feel herself again. She has gained eight pounds since we have been here. Both of us send our very best to Virginia, the children & yourself -

So ever,

Iron.

Urteile aus Fachkreisen

über das

Quellenbuch zur jüdischen Geschichte und Literatur

von

Dr. Julius Höxter

Rabb. Dr. Baerwald, München:

„Das Buch füllt eine Lücke in unserem jüdischen Geschichtsunterricht aus. Die notwendige Ergänzung, deren der jüdische Geschichtsunterricht bedarf, die Kenntnis wichtiger Quellen, ist durch dieses Buch in einer erfreulichen Weise geboten. Mit großem Verständnis für die Erfordernisse des Unterrichts hat der Verfasser soviel Auszüge aus Quellen zusammengestellt, daß ihre Benützung die wünschenswerte Verlebendigung des Unterrichts zur Folge haben wird. Hoffentlich werden die noch zu erwartenden Bändchen dem vorliegenden entsprechen.“

Rabb. Dr. Carlebach, Köln (Jüdisches Lehrerseminar):

„Das ‚Quellenbuch zur jüdischen Geschichte und Literatur‘ von Dr. Höxter ist uns zugegangen und vom gesamten Lehrerkollegium durchgesehen worden. Wir freuen uns mit dem Buch und seinem Erscheinen, weil es fraglos an Schulen, in denen jüdische Geschichte in ausgiebigem Maße betrieben wird, sich von großem Nutzen erweisen wird.“

Gemeinderabbiner Dr. Hoffmann, Breslau:

„Ich habe das Höxtersche ‚Quellenbuch‘ geprüft und als wertvolles Hilfsmittel für den jüdischen Religionsunterricht befunden.“

Dr. M. Spanier, Magdeburg:

„Das Quellenbuch von Dr. Höxter halte ich für ganz vorzüglich. Es wird bei pädagogisch richtiger Handhabung sicherlich gute Dienste leisten und auf den jüdischen Geschichtsunterricht befruchtend wirken.“

Mittelschullehrer Dr. H. Stern, Berlin:

„Die Herausgabe dieses Quellenbuches zur jüdischen Geschichte und Literatur bedeutet einen erheblichen Fortschritt auf dem Gebiete der jüdischen Religionsschulpädagogik. Der jüdische Geschichtsunterricht kann nur der Hauptforderung der Methodik des allgemeinen Geschichtsunterrichts gerecht werden, die dahin geht, den Schüler überall da, wo die Umstände es gestatten, an die Quellen heranzuführen, damit er vom Geist der Vergangenheit umweht und in den Stand gesetzt werde, sich ihre Lehren selbst zu erarbeiten . . .“

Program of Dramatic Activities at Camp Wigwam

These programs, which are held at the Wigwam Open Air Theatre, are free to the public, and all those who may be interested are cordially invited to attend. There is, however, an admission charge for the presentation on the 3rd of August.

On the afternoon of August 3rd, in addition to the play scheduled at that time, Camp Wigwam will be host to many neighboring camps. There will be a song contest for such camps as wish to participate and community sings in which all camps can join. The Canoe Carnival will take place the same day after supper.

Dramatics is not a major interest at Camp Wigwam; it is merely one of what we like to call our "educational activities". Our chief aim in this work is to give enjoyment, to develop in the boys a love of the beauty of the theatre and the best drama, and, ultimately, to furnish a new form of self-expression.

July 5th, at 8 P. M., Standard Time
The Wigwam Players present THE VALIANT
By Robert Middlemass and Holworthy Hall

July 12th at 8 P. M., Standard Time
The Wigwam Players present FREE SPEECH by William L. Prosser
TWO CROOKS AND A LADY
by Eugene Pillot

July 15th at 8 P. M., Standard Time
The Junior Wigwam Players present THE TURTLE DOVE
by Margaret Scott Oliver
A MARRIAGE PROPOSAL
by Anton Tehekov

July 19th at 8 P. M., Standard Time
The Wigwam Players present THE CLOD by Lewis Beach
THE STILL ALARM
by George S. Kaufman

July 22nd at 8 P. M., Standard Time
The Junior Wigwam Players present TWO MUMMER PLAYS
by Glenn Hughes

CAMPERS' CARNIVAL DAY

THE WIGWAM PLAYERS

Present

Monday, August 3rd, at 3:00 P. M. (Daylight Saving Time)

THE IVORY DOOR by A. A. Milne

In addition to the presentation of the play, there will be a song contest for those camps who wish to participate, and community sings in which all camps can join. Camps are invited to bring picnic lunches, and camp in our groves. The visiting directors are asked to be guests for lunch or supper at the director's table.

The Canoe Carnival will take place the same day after supper.

August 9th at 8 P. M., Daylight Time
The Wigwam Players Present
THE BRINK OF SILENCE by Esther Gailbraith
HANS BULOW'S LAST PUPPETT by Grace Dorcas Ruthenberg

DIRECTORS OF CAMP WIGWAM

Mr. Arnold M. Lehman 666 West End Ave. New York City	Mr. Abraham Mandelstam 40 West 72nd Street New York City

Julian Rochelle is director of the Wigwam Players. Mr. Rochelle has graduated from the Department of Drama at Yale University under the direction of George Pierce Baker. At various times he has directed amateur groups in New York and New Haven, and has been Art director of the Crescent Country Club Players.

Sidney Simon is scenic art director of the Wigwam Players. He is a graduate of the Cleveland School of Art. He has designed sets for the Brickert Theatre and for several Little Theatre groups. He is a designer and works in batik, block printing on material and other decorative mediums. Mr. Simon has served on the Cleveland Camp Institute Staff, teaching art projects for camps. He exhibits annually at the Cleveland Artists' Exhibition and in other showings.

Lloyd K. Rosenmond is Associate Director of The Wigwam Players. Mr. Rosenmond is a founder of the Hall of Fame Players at New York University. He was the first student director of dramatics for New York City High Schools.

Arthur Bloch while at Columbia University, participated in the productions of the Morningside Players. Mr. Bloch is a student at Yale University in Professor Baker's Workshop.

Marion Green first made his debut in a solo appearance at the age of nineteen with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. This was followed by a transcontinental tour with Ovide Musin, violinist. Since then Mr. Green has sung as soloist with the outstanding choral and orchestral associations in America and Canada. He has also taught at the Cosmopolitan School of Music. He organized the Chicago Evening Choir in Orchestral Hall, and directed it for five years. In London he created the role of Monsieur Beaucaire in the operetta of that name. Subsequently he sang the role in New York, and later he either starred or was featured in America in twelve other operettas, among such being The Wild Cat, The Rose of Stamboul, Maytime, Love Dreams, Annie Dear, Greenwich Follies and Pinafore.

Carroll Hollister, distinguished pianist and accompanist for Mischa Elman, is well known to both the concert and radio audiences of the United States. He has played at the White House for both President Coolidge and President Hoover. Mr. Hollister matriculated at Amherst College, where he was official college organist; then he graduated from the Institute of Musical Art of New York City; and thereafter he appeared with Elena Gerhardt, Giuseppe De Luca, Louis Gravenre, Martha Attwood, Anna Case, John Barclay, Augusta Lensha, Esther Dale, Marie Roemert-Rosanoff, Hugo Kortschak, Phyllis Kraeuter, Bernard Ocko, Agna Enters, Ingeborg Torrup, the Marmain Dancers, the Metropolitan Opera Chorus School, the Adesdi Chorus conducted by Margaret Dessoff, and others.

Robert Norton, a son of Anna Selkirk Norton, one of the leading singers of the Pacific Coast, was trained from boyhood as a singer. He studied at the Cornish School in Seattle for five years, where his talent for operatic work was discovered by Vladimir Rosing, who brought him East to become a scholarship student at the Eastman School of Music. He studied dramatic work under Rouben Mamoulian, the director of "Porgy" and "Marco Millions", and sang in grand opera with the American Opera Company. Since coming to New York he has sung with Winthrop Ames' Gilbert and Sullivan Opera Company, has appeared on tour as soloist of the Gilbert and Sullivan Male Ensemble, and has been a member of Walter Hampden's company. He was graduated from law school of the University of Washington, and compiled the school code of the State of Washington.

Mr. Ralph Fabri, noted Hungarian artist, has designed and planned some of Mr. Theodore Dreiser's home extensions; he has illustrated most of Theodore Dreiser's books. He has exhibited extensively abroad, paintings and water colors, portraits and landscapes. He also designed and built sets for theatres. Mr. Fabri will advise, design and help execute settings for the productions of the Wigwam Players.

Mr. Thomas Voter graduated from Pratt Institute School of Fine and Applied Arts. Then he became assistant in the Art Department of Brown University. Thereafter he worked on a set of five mural decorations for the American Museum of Natural History in New York City, where he is now a letterer and designer. Various nature periodicals and books, including the "Stir of Nature" by William H. Carr, were illustrated by him.

Julius Roth, a member of the Art Department of Camp Wigwam, is on the art staff of the Columbia University "Jester". He has studied at the Students Art League and the Academy of Design.

Mr. Philip Santry is a young artist, who has been doing a great deal of landscape and portrait work in various mediums.

My dear Rabbi

Before Eldy's departure

he requested me to mail you the enclosed check. I hope it will be accepted by you to do with it as you wish. I know we all appreciate your part in making last night a most enjoyable evening and ~~are~~ by us at least never to be forgotten.

I find in writing my recollections of 25 years of very stimulating living that your papers have supplied me with the most uniformly satisfactory audiences than any other group.

CLEVELAND HEIGHTS, OHIO

Dear Rabbi -

Through Mr. Brody I have learned of a superbly friendly gesture, directed towards Mr. Hartman and myself. I am, indeed, at a loss for words to express myself, at this evidence of generosity, on your part.

No act of loyalty, on the part of Mr. Hartman's friends, has touched me more deeply and I want to thank you.

Mr. Bloomberg will explain that we are fortunate in not being obliged to avail ourselves of the use of the enclosed check, from one whom we are privileged to call "Friend".

I am glad to tell you that Mr. Hartman is making rapid progress in his convalescence and is entirely out of danger.

Sincerely yours - May R. Hartman

Dear Rabbi Silver,

Am writing to ask a favor of you.

Will you please fill out this blank and send it to Reserve? Hope I'm not troubling you too much.

Give Danny and the baby a good hug and kiss for me.

Thanks ever so much.

Love to you and Mrs. Silver

S.S. "LAURENTIC"

Dear Rabbi & Mrs. Silver,

We landed the day after tomorrow.
It has been a splendid trip so far,
one rough day and a few squeamish feelings, but otherwise great, we are looking forward eagerly to the rest of it.

Thanks a lot for the wire.

Will write again when we have seen more. Our very best to both of you & hope the whole family is well.

The Fencers.

Mr. Thwing and Family wish to assure you of their deep gratitude for every token you have given of your love for

Mrs. Thwing
and of your sympathy in their sorrow

Tuesday -

My dear Rabbi Silver, -

WRHS

How very

Thoughtful of you and the Temple to send me the lovely flowers on Sunday! I want you to know that I was indeed deeply moved, for the flowers seemed the voice of the Temple.

Tifereth Israel has always been part of my consciousness, but it came to me  fully that it has been an integral part of my being from earliest childhood.

Virginia's message from both of you, was conveyed to me by mother, and I want you both to know how very much I have appreciated your personal inquiry.

Am quite alright again,
and shall be back "at work" soon -

Most cordially -

Edna J. Goulden

NEW YORK
CORRESPONDING SECRETARY
IDA BROMBERG

Dear Friend:

If for $ 2.00 you could help little blind children to food, shelter, clothing, - education.....

If for $ 2.00 you could aid these poor unfortunates to learn a trade that will conquer their helplessness - and be their means of becoming self-supporting.....

If for this same $ 2.00 you will also accept the accompanying ornamental cigarette box, containing 30 packages of decorated matches an attractive reminder of your contribution

WOULD YOU HESITATE? OF COURSE NOT !

Your decision is vitally important to the boys and girls of The Palestine Lighthouse. On YOU and friends like you depend the support of their Home - School-Workshop (the only one in Palestine) now facing a disastrous crisis of hardship and want. Help keep their school open ! Help give them THEIR CHANCE !

You are one of a limited group of people to whom we are appealing. You must realize therefore, how necessary is your help. Our blind children need funds so critically - we could ill-afford the cost of sending you this box and matches should you disappoint us..... Won't you send us your check TO-DAY ?

To you it is just $ 2.00 To the blind children, it is Light -- Life -- Opportunity -- EVERYTHING !

Gratefully yours,
THE PALESTINE LIGHTHOUSE,

MRS. SAMUEL D. FRIEDMAN, PRESIDENT.
