January 1, 1935

My dear Rabbi Silver:

I feel almost guilty in accepting the second box which Mr. Rich delivered to me personally last night, replacing that intended for me last week but which failed of its goal through no fault of his. I sincerely hope that no note in my lines of acknowledgment made you or him feel that this further kindness needed to be done, for they were intended only as an explanation of my tardiness. As it was, some New Year guests in our home last night had cause to join with me in grateful thoughts of your kindness. My own will continue the weeks to come as I enjoy your gift and throughout the year in mind and heart. Let me again wish for you and for all with whom you are associated the best and most fruitful year of your splendid leadership.

Most sincerely yours,

Malton

Dear Rabbi Silver -

Mrs. Schlesinger joins me in extending to you our sincerest appreciation of your kindness to us in this sad hour of our bereavement.

Paul's life was so full of promise and he filled so much of our lives that it seems almost impossible to believe that he is no longer with us. However we are endeavoring to take our loss bravely and to carry on as we know he would want us to do.

Again assuring you of our deep appreciation.

Most sincerely yours
Louis Schlesinger

Dear Abba:

Was glad to receive your note and to learn that you are going to be in New York on the 14th. There is a possibility that I may be out of town, but I am hoping that I will be here to see you.

Why don't you plan to stay with me? I have an extra bed and an extra key, so you can get in as late as you want. If I am out of town, you can have the whole apartment to yourself.

Best wishes to Virginia, the children and yourself for a very Happy New Year.

Faithfully yours,

My dear Dr Reich:

It was very lovely and thoughtful of you to send me the note which you did. I appreciated it very much. I have been so long in the profession and on the firing line that I should feel as if I were falling down on my job if I were not attacked from one quarter or another. I enjoy a fight and I am particularly delighted when my would-be opponents become so demoralized as to do very foolish and laughable things.

With all good wishes, I remain

My dear Sam:

I was very happy to receive your letter of December 31. I am in perfect agreement with you that business and industry must be allowed to operate at a reasonable profit. I am not opposed to what is known as the profit motive in industry. I am in favor of the subordination of this motive to social well being but not to its elimination. I believe, however, that a thoroughgoing reorganization of our economic life is necessary in order to insure a reasonable profit and a permanent one for legitimate business and industry. As things are today, the profits of a few years are completely wiped out by the depressions which inevitably follow the years of prosperity in our maladjusted scheme of things. What happened to all the reasonable and more than reasonable profits which were accumulated by American industry during the Twenties? They were pretty nearly wiped out, leaving chaos and misery in their wake.

As far as 7-A of the N.R.A. Code is concerned, I plan to discuss it in greater detail this coming Sunday morning when I speak on THE NEW DEAL -- IS IT COMING OR GOING? I shall try to make my own position clear on the subject. If you find it impossible to attend the lecture Sunday morning, I shall be very happy to send you a copy of my address.

With all good wishes to you and yours, I remain

My dear Dr. Silver:

I heard Dr. Finklestein at Memorial Hall in Columbus and liked it so well that I have persuaded him to drop off in Cleveland on his trip from Ohio State University to Chicago. At least one-half or two-thirds of his audience at Columbus were members of Anti-Semitism --- his personal physician was responsible for that.

Do you think the Cleveland Chapter of this lodge would like to help us pay honor to this man "upon whose shoulders the great Jehovah has placed the greatest mind ever recorded by psychologists in the history of the world.

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

I die hard. Otherwise I would not feel justified in pursuing the ~~new~~ heavy task which I have undertaken.

Reading your reactions to the President's message in today's papers whets my desire to have you as a co-worker in making The Golden Mean a reality. You appear to have the rare ability to continue on a straight line of thinking although the leader may diverge from the trail.

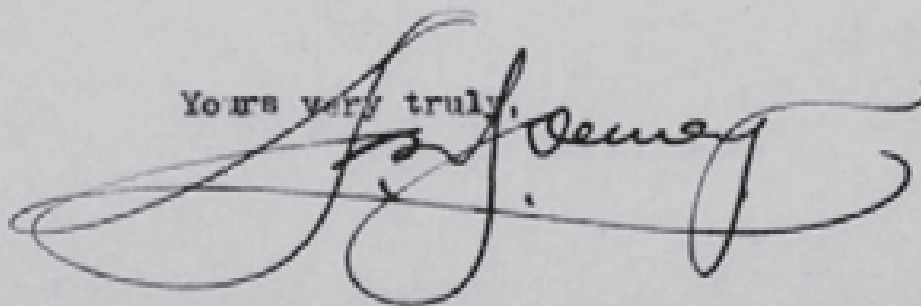

While I cannot rightly expect you to evince interest in something which you know little about, yet I must keep moving forward if the destination is to be reached.

A New York publisher is ready to read the manuscript. Its final revision is nearing completion and will probably go forward the latter part of this month. The book itself will contain the signed endorsement of The Solution by leaders in various groups.

To let it go without the endorsement of a Rabbi would be a harmful omission. Therefore, if you have not the time or the inclination to look over the manuscript, will you kindly return the letters so that I may seek success elsewhere? Postage was enclosed.

In a five minute interview at your convenience, I could, if you wish, outline The Solution and enable you to determine if you would care to look into it further. In approximately that time, I have sold 164 out of 165 people on the idea.

Yours very truly,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Here is my Confirmation work for Dec. 27. (~~1934~~ Chapter five

- 1.) All groups have symbols, customs, and ceremonies, (part two) to express the sentiments and beliefs in concrete form.
- 2.) Symbols and ceremonies have a large place in our personal lives. One way is in our home life, and the other is seen in our national patriotic life.
- 3.) The function of ceremonies in Jewish history, was to make its teachings real and significant to its followers.
- 4.) Several Jewish symbols, customs, and ceremonies are, Sabbath eve candles, Kiddush service, Sabbath morning service, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kipper, etc.
- 5.) The attitude of the reform Jew on the place of symbols and ceremonies, is that the Jewish home gains in beauty, in dignity, and in true piety when these are recognized, in the home life,

Here is my Confirmation work for Jan. 3, 1935

Chapter six, part two.

- 1.) The three main purposes which Jewish festivals, and Holy Days serve are, they preserve our religious heritage, they cultivate our religious nature, and they help preserve the unity of our people.
- 2.) The importance of the Sabbath is illustrated by the fact that it is the only holiday mentioned in the Ten commandments. The Sabbath is observed in the Synagogue by special services in which a particular section of the Torah is read each week. The Sabbath should be observed in the home by setting aside Friday evening as a family reunion, and communion, by kindling the Sabbath candles, and by the reciting of the Kiddush service. The Sidra is each section of the Torah. The Haftara is an additional section of the Torah containing prophetic writings.
- 3.) The significance of ~~the Torah~~ ^{Rosh Hashonah} is that it is a day set aside for self examination, and consecration. The Shofar are the ram's horn which symbolizes a call to man to prepare himself to live better. Asereth Y'me T'shubah are the Ten Days of Penitence between Rosh Hashonah, and Yom Kipper. Sabbath Shubah is the Sabbath that falls between Rosh Hashonah, and Yom Kipper.
- 4.) The significance of Yom Kipper is that it is the day that the Jew through fasting and prayer asks forgiveness for his sins.
- 5.) The three Agriculture Festivals are, Pesach, Shabuoth, and Succoth. Pesach is the Jewish feast of Liberty, and also heralds the coming of spring. Shabuoth reminds us of the giving of the Ten Commandments. Succoth reminds us of the days when Israel dwelt in booths in the desert, and also of the late harvest.
- 6.) The significance of Chanukah is that it reminds us of the physical and moral victory over the pagan forces of Syria. It should be observed in the Jewish home by the lighting of candles for eight days, and the recitation of blessings over them, over.

- 7.) Purim Recalls for us when the Isrealites were saved from the fate of the Persians. This holiday is celebrated with joy, and the reading from the Scroll of Esther.
- 8.) The five Jewish fast days are, Gedaliah, Asarah be-Tebet, Shibah Asar be-Tamuz, Tisha be-Ab, And the fast of Esther. Reformed Judiasm does not observe these because the original meaning for their existence has been lost.
- 9.) The Hebrew months are,
- | | |
|-----------|-----------------------------|
| 1. Nisan | 8. Heshvan |
| 2. Iyyar | 9. Kislev |
| 3. Sivan | 10. Tebet |
| 4. Tammuz | 11. Shebat |
| 5. Ab | 12. Adar |
| 6. Ellul | 13. V'Adar (in leap years.) |
| 7. Tishri | |

The Principal Jewish Festivals and Holy Days;

Nisan 14 Eve of Passover or Pesach
 15 First Day of Passover
 21 Seventh Day of Passover
 Sivan 6 Feast of Weeks or Shabuoth
 Ab 9 Feast of Ab or Tisha b'ab
 Tishri 1 New Year or Rosh Hashanah
 10 Day of Atonement or Yom Kippur
 15 First Day of Tabernacles or Succoth

Dear Akha:

I am glad to inform you that I am getting along very nicely on my job, but as to the possibilities ~~and~~ prospects for the future, I cannot say much at this time.

The owner is just a druggist (if you know what I mean) not the professional type ~~and~~ I doubt very much, whether he has the means to put in the alterations the store needs so badly in order to put it on a sound, paying basis.

My little family in Palestine is getting along real well ~~and~~ I am sure, they would be happy, if I could join them out there, But, there is no use in entertaining such thoughts at this time.

The children are doing remarkably well in school ~~and~~ their Hebrew letters are better, ~~and~~ better every week. Well I say that I am thrilled ~~and~~ wish that they could continue their studies there. - but how?

I cannot possibly make any definite plans at this time for Hari's return. Will just have to mark time ^{and} see what the next six months or so will bring.

Are you leaving East soon. Would like to see you and talk things over.

My love to Virginia ^{and} the children. Hope they are all well ^{and} happy.

I visited Brosie recently.
They are all fine. I got up to see Mat occasionally.

Let me hear from you
as soon
Jack.

Dear Mr. Silver:

Most of us quite promptly consign to the wastebasket letters inviting us to renew our subscription to a magazine. But in subscribing to SOCIAL RESEARCH you were not merely subscribing to a magazine. You were assisting in the important enterprise of creating a medium through which scholars displaced from German universities might give expression to their scientific conclusions and thus gradually fit into places of greater usefulness in our American scheme of scholarship.

Such a magazine can of course not pay in a monetary sense. The members of the Graduate Faculty contribute their articles gratis; the members of the New School staff do the necessary work of editing gratis. But paper and printing cost money. We have now some 750 subscribers; if each would find us two more we should not only make ends meet, but could enlarge the journal to extend its hospitality more widely to the foreign scholars scattered through the country.

May I therefore ask you to renew your subscription, and if possible interest others? We shall gladly send the next issue on approval to any persons you find interested.

Sincerely,

Alvin Johnson

Dear Rabbi:

I do not know whether it is a custom to thank a Rabbi or not for the comfort that he has given to a bereaved family, but I must express to you my deep and sincere appreciation for the very beautiful manner in which you spoke of my father.

Unquestionably you knew and appreciated him and our entire family felt that the manner in which you eulogized his fine qualities was one of the most beautiful tributes that we had ever heard. It brought us great comfort and helped us to bear the load.

It is an interesting commentary that you should have stressed the thought that a good name is worth more than riches. That was the philosophy upon which my father tried to build his life and which he expressed to us many times.

I am enclosing a check in his memory which you may use as you see fit.

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I am sending you today a complimentary copy of a novel by Robert Nathan entitled ROAD OF AGES. It is scheduled for publication on February 1 and it is the February choice of the Book-of-the-Month Club.

May I call this novel to your very special attention. Its theme and the situation it describes are of the utmost significance to every Jew today and it should be of particular interest to you as one of the leaders of American Jewry.

I feel sure that you will find this book a fruitful source for talks to your congregation and followers.

Yours faithfully,
for ALFRED A. KNOPF INC.

Gentlemen:

Attention: Herbert E. Gaston
Assistant to the Secretary

Your letter of June 2, 1934, answering the letter I wrote President Franklin D. Roosevelt, dated April 17th, did not convey any real NEWS to one whose life Savings is in the process of LIQUADATION.

The same conditions prevail today, as to CREDIT, as of April 17th, 1934, when I wrote the President. I question very much if the MONEY CHANGERS have been run out of the TEMPLE.

With all the information at Washington and history of opposition to interest down to the time of Christ, I should think that someone should be able to "THINK OUT LOUD".

Lindy's father, the Hon. Charles A. Lindbergh, who was a Congressman from Minnesota at the time the Federal Reserve Bill was enacted into law, upheld the Progressive Party's position in the following minority report against the Glass-Bulkeley Bill:

"The Glass Bill proposes to incorporate, canonize and sanctify a private monopoly of the money and credit of the Nation, to remove all the money from the United States Treasury and place it in the vaults of the banks to be used by them for private gain."

"IT VIOLATES EVERY PRINCIPLE OF POPULAR DEMOCRATIC REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT, AND EVERY DECLARATION OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY AND PLATFORM PLEDGES FROM THOMAS JEFFERSON DOWN TO THE BEGINNING OF THIS CONGRESS."

"It recognizes the superior sovereignty of the embodied INSTITUTION OF MONEY over any power of Government, so that neither the Government, in its sovereign capacity, nor the people, or their representatives, can initiate the placement of one dollar of monetary functionary into actual exchanges among the people except through the agency of ORGANIZED MONEY LOANERS with purely selfish interests."

"The Glass bill positively ABOLISHES THE UNITED STATES TREASURY and the public money of the people, and substitutes the so-called Federal Reserve Banks, which, by the terms of the bill, as to be the exclusive Stock of the Bankers. It reduces the People's Treasury Department and the Bureau of Printing and Engraving to the position of a Job Printing House for the Private use of Bankers."

In the book "THE ECONOMIC PINCH" by C.A. Lindberg, he pictures where we would be in 1934, and we arrived at that very "PORT OF POVERTY", "THE WEALTH IN THE HANDS OF A FEW".

THE MONEY TRUST; THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM MONSTER, with its power around the U.S. TREASURER; U.S. CAPITAL; WHITE HOUSE; N.Y. STOCK EXCHANGE; BANKS; FACTORIES and the FARMER, and no one doing a thing about it, not even raising their voice - only a very few who have the vision to see clearly.

The Treasury Department #2

Tell me if you will, WHEN we will be able to pay-off our mortgages on the same value of the DOLLAR that we contracted this Debt?

If an ordinary citizen writes a letter to Washington today, to any Official, they delegate some assistant to answer said correspondence, and in the case of the H O L C, they repeatedly contradict previous interpretations given by themselves. FINE.

In the American Magazine of October, there is an article entitled "THINKING OUT LOUD" by Henry Ford, and at this time I wish to quote two sayings therefrom:

"Finance will become a science, and not a money-making business;
a profession and not a racket"

"It is just as bad to be gullible as to go about gulling people.
The soft-headed man who allows himself to be cheated is just as bad as the man who cheats him"

I shall be interested to learn the views of our TREASURY DEPARTMENT at this date, that I may be able to tell OTHERS.

Cordially yours,

Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt
Washington, D.C.

My dear President:

You remember the writer having written you September 6th, 1932, advising you of certain conditions, and your reply, part of which was as follows: "It will take a drastic change of national governmental policies to effect permanent relief."

"I shall be glad to follow your advice and stress these points strongly during the course of the campaign." I caused an article to be written up in the Columbus Citizen, and a clipping was sent to you, and your reply to this was for me to get in touch with Mr. Henry G. Brunner.

For your information, I tried many times, but could not get by his Secretary. So I wrote him at Mansfield, Ohio as per attached letter, which he ignored. Finally I contacted him after he had landed the H.C.L.C. position and drew his attention to my experience and letter. His only reply was: "I was too busy to answer correspondence, and if I had I wouldn't have gotten anything done." I drew his attention to your two letters by showing them to him, stating that you were not too busy.

May I put myself on record by stating that it is such cheap politicians who have hindered the NEW DEAL. The H.C.L.C. has been operated in Ohio as a RACKET, and Washington has plenty of proof of it today. There are a few citizens in Ohio, who are not asleep.

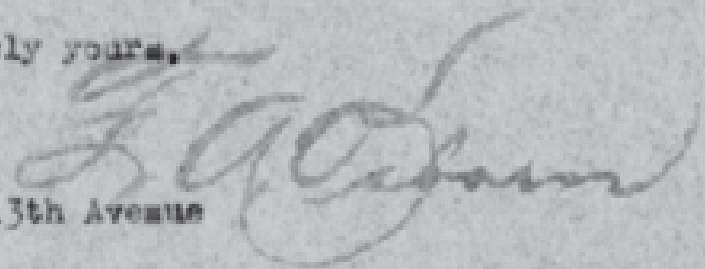

Again I am inclosing clippings from the Columbus Citizen, that you might appreciate. It will go to show what many of our people are THINKING ABOUT, at least how the NEW DEAL looks to them.

Note my letter to the TREASURY DEPARTMENT in reply to the one they wrote me.

My letter to you of November 2/tn, pertaining to the H.C.L.C., which you turned over to the Washington Office, was simply referred back here to the Ohio Agency. NO RESULTS.

May God direct you, instead of Wall Street and the Big Bankers.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Lewis Drucker
Paine Avenue and East 21st Street
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Drucker:

After talking to you on the telephone I have read my correspondence relative to Mrs. Bodenschatz, both the letter from the German Consul and my letter to Mrs. Ottenheimer. It doesn't seem quite sporting of me to send the Counsel's letter. My letter to Mrs. Ottenheimer really contains information about other speakers and questions not pertaining to Mrs. Bodenschatz. I shall quote the part that does refer to her.

"I am taking the liberty of writing to you for information about a speaker from Louisville whom the German Consul in Cleveland has written to me about. In fact he called me on the telephone and, at my request, he sent me a printed speech and some information. I feel apprehensive and of course I must investigate the standing of this speaker in her own community as I do with anyone whom I do not know.

I refer to Mrs. George Karl Bodenschatz, 2143 Strathmore Boulevard, Louisville, Kentucky. The bulletin is entitled "The Sear, Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow". I have not had time since I received it Monday to read it carefully, but I understand it contains part of the material she uses on the lecture platform. I realize this is unfair in a way, and still I should appreciate your opinion because you understand the responsibility upon me to present only the best speakers, who are no propagandists. I assure you I shall keep your answer confidential."

The German Consul said he did not know Mrs. Bodenschatz but that she had been recommended to him by friends.

If you need more information, will you please call me and I shall be glad to cooperate. In the mean time, please remember that I have speakers whom I investigate very carefully before I recommend them and that my recommendation means a great deal. I have everything from a monkey and grind organ man to high class college professors. The price range is from no fee at all to a very high one.

Best wishes to you in your work.

Sincerely,

Susan Doudican.

Please pardon the delay in answering your kind letter.

With reference to Ernst Fraenkel, -I wish I were in a position to help him. But I am not. I wonder whether you may not receive some helpful advice by writing to Dr. Alvin Johnson who is head of the University in Exile (The New School for Social Research, 66 West 12th St., New York). He may be in a position to advise you of any openings which exist at present in the country. You may mention to Dr. Johnson that I advised you to contact with him.

My dear Albert:

Just a word to let you know that I am thinking of you. I hope that you are getting along splendidly. I should be very happy to hear from you and about your progress towards complete physical recovery.

Things have been moving here quite as swiftly as always. Life is very crowded, what with local tasks and national problems which absorb one's time and energy. Temple activities are moving along smoothly. You probably know that Rabbi Feuer has left to accept a pulpit in Toledo and we are about to select his successor.

My dear Dr. Silver,

Enclosed booklet just came off press, also second printing of book (first was very limited and many lost in mails etc) corrected and revised. Do you care to see copy of revised book? I shall be pleased to have sent to you.

Mrs. Bengis still away. Dr. Ben continued now. Thinking up Texas tour (far from financial success so far) My sister and family try to make me as comfortable as possible. Specialist here gives hopes - may be able to take up leg work in year or so. In meantime hard struggle. Encouragement of men like you makes battle easier.

In Dallas Dr. Rezkowsky had nice piece in his January Congregational bulletin. Gave Mrs. Bengis his membership list and checked more than fifty percent. of names on it, asking her to mail book to each of those he checked. Will do it on my lady's return (My sister and children do this work for me now)

Can you kindly do something similar or have your secretary send us a list of some kind at her convenience

This or anything else you may do for us will mean a great deal, and we shall always be grateful.

Do you think a visit to Cleveland by Mrs. Bengis in spring would be worth while?

Thanking you again for your interest and kindly cooperation

With appreciation and esteem,

Cordially yours,
Graham Bengis

P.S. Can furnish more booklets if needed.

My dear Friends:

Hello, you nature fakers! What's this about pulling up two fish on the same line? What the folks back home are thinking about your fish story I do not wish you to know. We were out last evening to a dinner party where Lester was also a guest as well as the Grossmans and we did talk about your remarkable prowess far from home.

Both Virginia and I are delighted to know that you are enjoying your stay in Florida. We are in the hard grip of winter. In the last two days the thermometer has been drifting pretty close to zero. I write you this so that you may all the more enjoy the warmth of the sunshine of Sarasota.

Things at The Temple are moving along smoothly. We have definitely engaged a rabbi to fill the vacancy left by Rabbi Feuer. He is a very gifted and attractive young man who is now in Peoria, Ill. -- Melbourne Harris. For some years he was assistant rabbi and director of education at the large Temple in San Francisco. We had him here in Cleveland over a week-end recently and he made a splendid impression. He will take up his duties with us in August. In the meantime, Rabbi David Sherman, a recent graduate of the Hebrew Union College and a very fine and scholarly man, is assisting us.

Virginia and the children are fine and we all join in sending you and the Newberrys and the Hirsh's our love.

Flushing N.Y.

January 18. 34.

my dear Rabbi Silver:-

A rabbi of the more orthodox school I, nevertheless, read always with great pleasure your column in the Jewish Daily Bulletin and greet you most heartily as fellow Zionist. I hope, therefore, you will not mind it, if I call your attention to a little mistake which, I believe, probably is not more than a slip of the pen.

R. Hirsch Kalisher died in 1874, shortly after his most intimate friend and companion, R. Eliaz Guttman, the so called "Graetzer Rav", the father of my mother, had passed away. I remember very well the sickroom of my grandfather's where, a boy of seven years, I joined the Minjan of Condium in "learning" a Peor Midwayeth and saying the required "Kapitel Thillim" for the recovery of the dangerous R. Hirsch Kalisher. His call "back to the land", or rather their call, as Kalisher and Guttman planned and worked together, is, therefore, somewhat older than "a quarter of century". Three quarters would be more correct.

DOUBLEDAY, DORAN AND COMPANY
INCORPORATED
PUBLISHERS
GARDEN CITY, N. Y.

January 29, 1935

Dear Rabbi Silver:

We have just published a book that I believe will be of particular interest to you.

This is George E. Sokolsky's brilliant study, WE JEWS, the whole story of the curious case of Jewish destiny, its interlocking interests throughout the world, and its tremendous historic importance in the making of modern America.

Mr. Sokolsky is a world citizen, a famous correspondent, and one of the leading authorities on the Far East today. His book THE TINDER BOX OF ASIA, is standard in its field, while the just-published LABOR'S FIGHT FOR POWER states the case of American Capital vs. Labor.

In WE JEWS Mr. Sokolsky has done something which no one has quite attempted before, to explain the Jew to the anti-Semite and the anti-Semite to the Jew, with a hope for more tolerant understanding. He demonstrates the different attitudes toward the Jews, and their causes. "In every country we Jews," he writes, "seem to be a particular problem." This book states and clarifies that problem, with many striking personal instances.

Says John Haynes Holmes: "I have never read so persuasive, likeable, and therefore effective a statement of the Jew's just, and therefore, unanswerable case. I rejoice that you have done this piece of work at a time when it may be most useful in meeting the dangerous anti-Semitism of the times."

Says Everett R. Clinchy: "Mr. Sokolsky has lifted important questions which interest Jews and Christians alike, and has dealt with them in formingly and interestingly. He is frank about Jewish faults and duties; he is straightforward concerning Gentile injustice and lack of understanding."

Says Abba Hillel Silver: "An urbane, tolerant and civilised treatment of a subject which, as a rule, evokes more heat than light. It is a fresh, calm approach to the problems which the Jew faces in the modern world and which the non-Jew faces in his relations to the Jew. The heart of its message, 'the spiritual return of the Jew to Palestine, to his God and to his traditions,' will prove helpful guidance to a perplexed generation."

Don't delay to get this great book. For your convenience in ordering, we enclose an addressed, postage-paid Post Card. Simply fill this in AT ONCE, and your copy of WE JEWS will go forward to you by return mail. It is a book rich in ideas and suggestions for lectures and talks, and for every thoughtful person concerned with the Jewish race. It will be invaluable to you.

Sincerely,

H. E. Maule

My dear Mrs. Freehof: (A little later, perhaps, Lillian)

Thank you so much for your kind note. I appreciate very much your kind invitation to have dinner with you on the evening of March 5. Sol had spoken to me about it at the banquet of the local B'nai B'rith where he delivered a masterful address.

My one hesitancy in accepting your invitation is that your husband told me that you do not know how to make potato pancakes. I had assumed that Sol, after having waited so long, would have selected as a helpmate through life, one who was experienced in this pre-eminent art of Jewish housewives which is one of the principal^d bulwarks of Jewish survival. Perhaps by March 5, you can practise up sufficiently to merit the title of a true "rebbitsin". The pancakes may come before the lecture or after -- that is quite immaterial.

I am not sure whether Mrs. Silver will be able to come along. With two children in the house she cannot plan her program so far ahead. But if all is well, she will be happy to come along with me.

Dear Rabbi Silver & Virginia:

It was sweet of you to speed me on my way with a message. I certainly appreciated it.
Many thanks.

The trip has so far been delightful. My only objection is, that I cannot relax or sleep (I guess that is the nature of the beast) but I am in hopes, that will come too. within a few days. Have met only a few people, but do not care as we are sufficient unto ourselves

Saturday night is the only time it is open. Then went through the Capitol Bldg. which is gorgeous - and ended a perfect day at Sloppie Joe's.

I in my first letter to you forgot to mention that I stopped at the Block Publishing Co. to see the Shields and Etz-Chains (pardon me if I misspelled the latter)

I guess I was too excited opening boxes and telegrams. I think the filigree Shield is more beautiful and effective in every way. so have decided to take it. Rabbi Silver will you please order it. have it engraved as you see fit. but please or rather I beg of you not to publish my name either

The meals are delicious. in fact much too good. I have been gaining daily - much to my disgust. There is something doing all the time, but we usually seek our own pleasures. The bar is kept pretty busy. and we too indulge. Played bridge with Mr. ^{Ed} Muskopf from Cleveland. Do you know him?
Tuesday spent the day in Havana.
it certainly is a charming and clean city. It just seems too bad, so many of the big Hotels. Restaurants and Shops are closed on account of lack of patronage. We motored most of the day visiting many places of interest. Went to the Tropical garden. and had some of the famous bar people talk so much about, then to the Casino, but found it closed.

in the Bulletin or papers. I'll pay for same on my return.
(I think you had better keep this letter for reference. I may come home broke.) There is so much schmoozing on deck. I can scarcely think. Hope all are well. Much love and many kisses to Daniel + Raphael.
Keep a good share for yourself.

My dear Bob:

I am enclosing herewith the stenographer's transcript (uncorrected) of the address which I delivered at The Temple on the New Deal. The address, as a whole, is much milder than the abstract which appeared in the papers and which you wrote was so good.

Please tell your friends who may have commented on the address and who may not have heard it that if they are so much interested in Rabbi Silver's opinions it would be wiser for them to attend in person the services at The Temple and actually hear what he has to say. They might, over a period of weeks or months, get a complete outline of the social and economic program which he has been advocating in recent years -- and they will not have to depend upon or get excited over some scraps which appear in the newspapers.

Madame Carmela Cafarelli, my vocal teacher - who last year produced and sang the leading role in the opera Madame Butterfly - is again voluntarily giving her services in preparing the chorus (of which I am a member) and will again sing the leading soprano role for the production of the opera La Boheme - by Puccini to be under the auspices of sponsors including many of Cleveland's leading citizens - the proceeds of which will be given to the milk fund for the children of the playgrounds in Cleveland's congested centers.

The chorus is not only donating their services but their costumes and contributing $100⁰⁰ to the opera fund.

Local professional singers are likewise contributing their services for the minor roles and numerous concerns are doing their bit. Leading roles will be sung by singers from the Metropolitan and Chicago Opera Company.

The director of a chestia will be also

A large sponsorship committee, properly

Therefore I am appealing to your humanitarian

Dear Sir,

I heard your address at the Unitarian church and want to take this opportunity of saying thank God(if there is one) for the opportunity of hearing one who is not afraid to voice his convictions, and if you are a "pink Intellectual" at least you are a real "red-blooded one!" I am of course fully aware that you will receive congratulations from many celebrities, but even so that does not deter me in my impulse to write and offer my expressions of pleasure at the revelation of your attitudes on our vital problems of the day, as expressed in the latter part of your talk, even though I do not represent any group nor anyone except myself-- the average working girl perhaps.

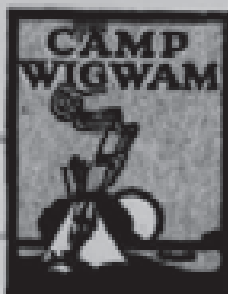

I am also writing to know if there is a Young peoples group connected with your Church interested in Current Affairs or anything or something of that Nature, and if so, if it is open to those who are not of the Jewish Faith?

I might add that I work in Burrows Book store downtown(In the Main book Dept.) and if I may at anytime be able to serve you or your group, in my capacity, I shall be glad to do so.

Dear Rabbi and Mrs. Silver,

This is an echo of your pleasant visit to Wigwam, which we all enjoyed so much last summer.

Conducting a camp with us is a case of "The king is dead, long live the king", for no sooner have we wound up the affairs of one season, then we find ourselves in the midst of preparation for another summer. My chief purpose in writing you now is to let you know that I plan reaching Cleveland the morning of February 21st, to attend the Annual Convention of the Camp Directors' Association of America, which will meet at the Statler Hotel, February 21st, 22nd, and 23rd. I am arranging to remain in Cleveland a few days thereafter, with the hope of meeting personally prospective Wigwam patrons in your city. While there, I shall feel something like a stranger in a strange land, so I shall appreciate it ever so much if you can suggest to me the names of any who you think might be interested in our camp for their sons.

By having their names now, it would give me an opportunity to introduce myself and Wigwam in advance, by sending them some of our printed matter. My time in Cleveland will be very much limited, and while there, I shall be at the Statler Hotel.

I shall be looking forward with pleasure toward seeing you soon again.

Cleveland, Ohio

Dear Sir:

A seasoned missionary, E. Stanley Jones, in his "Christ of Every Road" (1930), said: "The world-ground, I am persuaded, is being prepared for a spiritual awakening on a very extensive scale." A similar belief has been recorded by Dr. Albert Buckner Coe, and by other competent observers of divergent faiths. But there are those whose current messages sound as a voice "crying in the wilderness." I am wondering how the spiritual outlook reads to you.

For my part, I have always been an optimist; but the later years of contact with the world, especially with my own (the legal) profession, have revealed symptoms of a discouraging indifference to the things of the spirit. There looms on my horizon a definite drift to lower ideals; and sometimes I feel that this moral lapse is the real "depression" that besets the world today.

"Watchman, what of the night" is a question not alone for preachers and priests. The thought of the secular mind, it seems to me, is a weighty factor in a fair appraisal of our moral and spiritual state. Hence it is that I am addressing you and other laymen of elect groups, in an attitude not of idle curiosity but of earnest and friendly inquiry.

Do you see any sound reasons for entertaining the prospect of an early spiritual awakening? Is such a revival desirable? What is your general reaction upon the present moral outlook? May I use your reply, in whole or in part, in a book or magazine article?

I shall really appreciate a frank expression of your views, even though brief, in response to the hungering desire which has prompted this unconventional approach.

Sincerely,

Geo. Vaughan

Sehr geehrter Herr Rabbiner!

In höflicher Beantwortung Ihres Schreibens vom 22. I. 35 gebe ich Ihnen wunschgemäß eine maschinengeschriebene Fakturaabschrift meiner Faktura vom 22. X. 34.

Zur näheren Erklärung diene Ihnen folgendes: Ich lieferte Ihnen am 11. XI. 1929 die Bände 1-6 der Mischnahausgabe Hofmann-Santer zum Preise von Mk. 150.-, wovon jedoch die Bände 3 und 6 von Ihnen, da noch nicht retourniert wurden. Die Mischnahausgabe, die seit dem Jahre 1881 erscheint, geriet in der Zwischenzeit abermals in's Stocken. Die ursprüngliche Berechnung von 6 Bänden musste fallen gelassen werden, die letzte Lieferung im Preise um 25% vom Verlage aus erhöht werden und überdies ein Ergänzungsband VI/2 gedruckt werden.

Sie sandten in Ihrem Check vom 4. I. 30 per $ 69.60 für die von Ihnen behaltenen Bände der Mischnah $ 21.-, welche ich Ihnen Va 4.20 zum damaligen Dollarkurse ist Mk. 88.20 gutschrieb. Es verblieb ein Saldo für die Bände 1-6 von Mk. 61.80.

Der Ergänzungsband VI/2, enthaltend die 11 Lieferung über die ursprüngliche Subskription hinaus und das Register kosten Mk. 31.30. Daraus resultiert sich meine Faktura vom 22. X. 34.

Indem ich um Ihren Check auf den Betrag von Mk. 96.10 oder in Schillingen Va $ 211.42 erbitte, zeichne ich mit der Bitte um Ihre freundl. künftigen Bestellungen

Rabbi Abba H. Silver,
The Temple,
Ansel Road,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I write this letter to request an audience with you, to discuss a matter of vital importance to me.

By way of introduction I present this resume of my activities to date. I was born of Bohemian Jewish parents twenty nine years ago, and raised in Cleveland. I attended Sunday School, at first under the late Rabbi Moses Gries, to be confirmed later by you in 1922.

In 1924 I left home to attend the University of Cincinnati, receiving my undergraduate degree in 1928, then going on to The Medical College I received my M.D. in 1932. During my last two years of Medical School I had the good fortune to be appointed student resident medical attendant at The Hebrew Union College. The stimulating contacts I made there I consider very valuable. (Inclosed is an excerpt of a letter by Dr. Morganstern).

After serving an internship in Cleveland, I received an appointment in The Medical Corps of the U.S. Army, with the rank of 1st Lieutenant. My reason for accepting such a position, was because of financial difficulties, for if anything after two years of army life I am ever more an ardent pacifist.

Now for the purpose of this proposed audience, if it will be granted. In the very near future I intend to get married. The girl is of the Catholic Faith. A very charming, intelligent individual with whom I am very much in love. She is a cousin of Eugene O'Neill, and has much of the O'Neill understanding of human nature. We both realize many of the difficulties to be encountered in a marriage of this sort, but we have such absolute confidence in our tolerance and understanding of each other, and our prejudices, that we feel that the marriage can only be a success.

I would not think of asking her to convert her faith to mine, for it would be just as impossible as any change in my belief. That I am a Jew, that I feel, suffer and sympathize with my oppressed race, is an inherent, always present, part of my makeup, and it shall always be this way.

It is for this reason that I would like to speak to you, to ask you to perform the marriage ceremony.

By virtue of a similiar force dictating to her, she has completed arrangements to be married by a Catholic Priest, also.

I sincerely hope that I have not offended you or any of your principles, by broaching this subject to you.

Unfortunately my duties as Army Surgeon are such, that it is with difficulty that I am permitted to leave them. However, I shall be in Cleveland this coming week end. I hope that you may find it convenient to see me at some time Saturday afternoon, February 16.

Please communicate with me if I may have an appointment at this time, or if not, when it would be most convenient to you.

Respectfully yours,

Emil A. Steiner,
1st Lieut.MRC.,
Surgeon.

(Excerpt of letter written by Dr. Morganstern in my behalf)
(written to another physician)

#

.....I have just received a letter from Dr. E. A. Steiner, a graduate of the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine, who was some years ago resident medical student in the Hebrew Union College Dormitory, and who gave complete satisfaction in his discharge of the duties of that position.....

.....I am writing to you, therefore, to commend Dr. Steiner to your sympathetic and helpful consideration. So far as I know him from contact with him during the period of his residence in our dormitory and of his ministrations to our students, I have a high regard for his qualities both as a man and as a physician of promise. I am confident that he will be worthy in every way of whatever assistance you might possibly give him.....

Very sincerely yours,

Julian Morgenstern.

Rev. Dr. Abba Hillel Silver,
The Temple,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Dr. Silver,

We were quite moved at your lecture last night. My family have done nothing since but discuss you. It meant a great deal to me for many reasons.

To be frank: my in-laws have had nothing to do with Judaism for years. They belong to Emanuel in New York but never attend. Their sole Jewish activity is the New York Federation of Jewish Charities of which my father-in-law is honorary trustee. When their beautiful daughter decided to marry a young Rabbi they were, to say the least, quite shocked and bewildered (and perhaps disappointed). Their one daughter, the apple of their eye, had been raised in the lap of luxury, had cared more for raising horses and hunting than for social work, had nearly all non-Jewish friends and absolutely no Jewish interests. She had preferred Europe to "provincial" America, even inducing her parents to live eight months a year abroad in France and Italy in preference to settling down in "Jewish New York" or "colorless America" (Except when she went to show horses in St. Louis she has never been west of Pittsburgh where the Mundheims once lived when Mr. Mundheim was President of Kaufmann's). The real reason I did not want to enter the ministry as soon as I graduated but went travelling and doing research on a Fellowship was to provide me with real opportunity to instill in my wife a sense of the great moral problems facing the inter-dependent world and the great place and problems of "Catholic Israel". She is very brilliant and versatile (after stay at Smith she continued at Sorbonne and Rome) but never attended Jewish services or knew anything about Jewish life except that the people her "crowd" had avoided were usually a certain type of Jew. I have helped to completely transvaluate her philosophy of life but one can never be sure how permanent conversions are unless one keeps on integrating its evaluational view-point with newer aspects and experiences. Your superb oration last night is just the sort of thing she both enjoys and needs and it made me very happy. When we spoke to you last night you happened to say that you would be glad to see more of us. I pray that you would. Their hosannas of praise of you and what you said meant a great deal to me.

I most fervently hope that your congregation will find room for a third Rabbi to serve as assistant preacher. I would be glad to make any possible sacrifice in order to now have a three year apprenticeship with you. I have already stated my general qualifications in the first letter I wrote to you. Some of the professors at the HUC were kind enough to say to inquirers (who relayed it to me) that I was "best man since Silver" or "most capable in twenty years". It is a gross tho kind exaggeration but I think I could be of some service to your institution. In addition to functioning at all the services (either preaching or reading services for you, I could do all sorts of general Rabbinical work in the Temple. But I beg of you when you discuss this with your board you will please not mention the salary suggestion to them, because it would soon be known in the community and give me a status inferior to the other assistant (and be embarrassing to my wife). If the Temple cannot afford now to pay a salary equal to the assistant in charge of education then I would be glad if you would follow the suggestion I made and tell them it was ^a private arrangement between us. That could be done for a year and at the end of that time (after I had perhaps proven myself of service to the Temple) the congregation may be able to make equal room for me on the budget.

(The more telling care of it Confidential)

I know how unconventional this may be but it means everything in the world to me to be able to obtain now a position as assistant preacher with you. Emanuel in New York has smaller membership than your temple and has three overworked Rabbis. I know I could contribute off the pulpit too. I could give courses for adults. (For years I gave course of lectures and preached at Cherlevoix during summers. Course was given under sponsorship of Mrs Charles Godchaux of New Orleans. Every woman in Cherlevoix attended regularly. Mrs Friend, former President of National Conference- or rather Council of Jewish Women, its National President once- could give you information on how the course turned out. Years ago I used to be editor of 'Young Judaea' and national director of Young Judaea. I founded Youth Temple in Cincinnati. Four years ago the Tri-State convention of Temple Sisterhoods invited me to speak at Columbus convention. Mrs Brickner wrote me but I could not make it. One of the Professors advised the union to make me the convention speaker at the Chicago convention but it was turned down- this is confidential- as Union felt that older alumni would feel slighted if man about to graduate were invited to speak ahead of them.) Other than preaching I would like to do general pastoral work or adult education. I have had educational experience (years ago I used to be principal of Sabbath School of Temple Israel New York when Maurice Harris was alive) with children, but I do not want to make it my field. I know I can serve best with adults, either preaching or classes. I think I could be of use to your temple. I hope it can be arranged.

Thank appreciation of concerns both.
Mr. Risher, Philson
as both can could help
you more

With my sincerest appreciations, even if it cannot be done,

Respectfully,

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I just learned that you disposed of some land you owned in Lergia and, too, that you are considering the sale of your holdings in Afule. I am inclined to believe it is merely another Palestinian rumor but I am writing nevertheless to ascertain if it is true.

I don't know if you heard that I was elected chairman of the Water Supply Commission of Afule at a mass meeting of the Afule community held here last April.

As chairman I have been instrumental in helping to secure funds for the digging of two wells, which, when they will prove successful, will be the beginning of a chain of wells to be bored in that section of the land.

The entire Eretz is awaiting the results of this experiment since it will mean, if successful, the revitalization of that tremendous area, which to-day, because of the shortage of water, is at a standstill while other parts of

My dear Mr. Cohn:

I find that a wedding has been previously booked for the Chapel on April 7 that would interfere with your wedding. I wonder if it would be possible for you to change the time of your wedding from four o'clock to five-thirty o'clock that same afternoon? Five-thirty is the most convenient time for the Rabbi as his time before that is taken up and he is scheduled to leave the city immediately after your wedding.

Please let me know at your earliest convenience whether five-thirty o'clock on April 7 is suitable to you.

With best wishes, I remain

Very sincerely yours,

BJK

Secretary to Rabbi Silver.

Tuesday

Dear Abba, -

We first heard of your coming lecture here next Tuesday evening,
and I am writing to ask you to have dinner with us.

Afterwards we will take you to the "Y"
and listen to you and hand you over to your committee

ed, to prove we are not baggish. It would be fine if Virginia could come with
you. Hope she is feeling better. Just drop us a line telling us you will be in with us.

Love from Pete & Cloa.

My dear rabbi Silver - It was so nice of you to take time to write to me - I do appreciate it so much. I am happy to say that I am writing today with a much lighter heart, as Al is slowly improving from day to day, and please God, he will continue to do so. He is, of course, still very weak and we still have a few "hurdles to jump" but, with God's help, I am sure that we shall overcome all difficulties.

Then.

I was distressed to hear of Virginia and the childrens illness. I hope and pray that by this time they are feeling perfectly well again.

Thanking you again, and with kindest regards to you and your dear ones, in which Al joins me, I am
sincerely yours
