Miss Corinne A. Davis,

My dear Miss Davis:

Let me thank you for your kind note and for the article which you enclosed which I was happy to read. While I think there is considerable merit to the statement, "A Realization of Jewish Youth", I would suggest that it would be wiser not to have it published at the present time. I believe that more mature thinking on the subject and more ripened experience with Jewish life would perhaps modify a bit the views of the authors.

I am happy to know that you are thinking of Jews and Judaism. I am advising young people today instead of concerning themselves too much with the problem of anti-Semitism to study Jewish life and thought constructively - read Jewish history, Jewish literature, the Bible, acquaint themselves with all that is going on in Jewish life throughout the entire world, and particularly in Palestine, in the way of cultural and spiritual upbuilding. Over-absorption in the problem of anti-Semitism leads nowhere.

With all good wishes, I remain

My dear Miss Balis:

I would suggest that you go to the office of the Jewish Welfare Federation, 1001 Huron Road and ask to see either Mr. Samuel Goldhamer, Executive Director, or Mr. Philip Bernstein, Assistant Director. They would be in a better position to give you information about Jewish Social Service work than I am. If after you have seen them you still feel that you want to see me, I shall be very happy to see you in my study any afternoon.

I have definitely returned to Cleveland and am making my home at the above address. I have been working hard all winter with a teacher and feel that I have accomplished a great deal.

Sincerely hope you can find a spare minute or two in the near future - and thanking you in advance.

My dear Doctor:

I did want to drop you a line at the earliest possible time to tell you how greatly Martha and I appreciated all of the many courtesies which you extended to us when we were in Baltimore on Thursday. I can't tell you how happy you made us both. The way you received us and what you said to us are matters which will stay with us the rest of our lives.

I am, however, going to impose upon you to ask one more favor and that is to send me the name of a worthy charity of Baltimore in which you are interested. I really would like to send them something if only to commemorate the occasion.

Our lives are still rather hectic as you can imagine but as soon as things settle down we will, of course, call upon Dr. Silver and Virginia. We shall not fail to tell them of your kindness to us.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

I am distressed beyond words that my definite blunder beat me out of your dinner last night. Under the illusion that the evening was free for me I never discovered until eight o'clock that I was scheduled to be at your house with the Alathians. This distresses me very much. Can you ever forgive me?

I can only plead an unusual whirl of appointments and labors and complications. If you will ever forgive me I'll make you something high and exalted somewhere, here or hereafter and love you more than ever I did if that is possible. So far as I know it is the first time in my life that an engagement that was definitely scheduled in my date book slipped me.

As ever,

RABBI ABBA M. FINEBERG
2818 WHIRLPOOL STREET
NIAGARA FALLS, NEW YORK

March 4, 1938.

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Dr. Silver:

Many thanks for your letter informing me that I have been elected a member of the National Council for Palestine of the United Palestine Appeal. Be assured that I shall do whatever lies in my power to serve this cause. The philanthropy of Niagara Falls Jewry is administered through a local Federation, of which Mrs. Fineberg is the Executive Secretary and I am a member of the board. Our drive this year will be held late in April and allocations will probably be made the latter part of May.

But I write also to ask your aid in another direction. I have been Rabbi here for nine years. The congregation is small, with the Jewish population remaining constant so that the opportunities for growth are very limited. I came here the year that the Temple had just completed a $32,000 addition, and the mortgage is now only $5,000. Mrs. Fineberg and I have worked hard together. In addition to forming the Federation, we have extended ourselves in every direction where the congregation and Jewry could be served. Mrs. Fineberg serves gratis, and among other things is our Temple organist and choir director. In civic matters I'm on numerous boards, and have been President of our Ministerial Association, the Council of Social Agencies, Vice President of the Red Cross, etc. The time has come, however, when a change is most desirous. This cannot be a life position, and having reached the age of 39, I want to get away from here before next September 1st. With your many contacts, busy as you are, may I presume to ask that you please keep me in mind. I've much to offer, and will certainly want to live up to any recommendation you may give me.

With warmest greetings from Mrs. Fineberg and myself, and with the hope that your trip to the Coast will be a successful and pleasant one.
Sincerely yours, Abba M. Fineberg

I take the liberty to convey to you by this my sincerest regards, and at the same time beg to refer to the pamphlet, sent to you by me some time ago, which I had the pleasure to dedicate in your honour on the occasion of the 20th anniversary of your High Position at Cleveland, which was celebrated by the Jewish Community there.

This pamphlet was met with much appreciation by all the stratum here, and I should therefore be very glad to know that same has reached you safely.

Dear Rabbi —

I want to reintroduce myself here in this note as the man who introduced himself, on the heels of Mr. Samuel Levy, to you in person this evening; to thank you and congratulate you on your brilliant, powerful but nonetheless personal appeal. I wish that could have been transmitted, a la Hitler or Roosevelt, over the nation's broadcasting systems with, say, thirty million fellow Americans listening in.

My father tells me that you were at one time considering the pulpit in Kalamazoo. As to that, I have no recollection. I can and do still vividly remember Samuel Thurman, James Heller and Morris Lazarou. Why my mind should be blank on you is ~~far~~ beyond me: hereafter, I promise you, you'll stand out as clearly and forcefully as they. Health, then and a long life in which to continue your noble work!

Sincerely, U. P. Barnes

Dear Rabbi Silver — I see by the local papers that you are coming here about April 1st. That's good news and it will certainly be a treat to see you here. We are hoping we will get to have a bit of a visit with you and while I know your time will be limited I hope you'll be able to squeeze in a little time with us. If you can possibly arrange it we'd like to have you for dinner, if you are here more than a day or so, and hope you can stay here at least a few days. Is Virginia making the trip with you? Hope so. Wheeling isn't the only place that gets flooded. We've just had our share here. Where I've been trying to sell real estate has been hard hit, but otherwise we are O.K.

Dear Rabbi Silver

Are you really coming to Tucson? Could it be possible. Rabbi Iola said you might, and we are very excited over the prospect.

Max has improved considerably since we came here, but he had such a bad setback this summer - that it is taking a long time.

I suppose you know that I made a flying trip home the end of January on a sad errand. I lost my Father. You were out of town at the time. Surely missed you altho Rabbi Harris was very lovely to us in every way.

You'll probably enjoy hearing that we are now grandparents. Dorothy had a son on Feb. 23rd. And everything is lovely - except that we haven't seen him yet.

Hope this finds all of you well and happy. If you are coming here will be a couple of happy people.

Very best regards from
Max and Blanche Ozer

P.S. You picked a fine man to

My dear Mr. Cohen:

I regret that we do not have a printed copy of Rabbi Silver's sermon of Sunday, February 27th to send you. We do, however, now have available printed copies of the lecture on "The Rights of Minorities and the Next War" which Rabbi Silver delivered before the City Club on February 26th and which covers much of the same ground covered in his sermon on Sunday. Should you wish a copy, I shall be happy to send it to you. The cost is twenty-five cents.

With best wishes, I remain

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Enclosed herewith please find an editorial which appeared in The St. Louis Post Dispatch recently. Ruth's great-aunt, Miss Rosalie Kaufman, cut this out of the paper and sent it to us. I thought you might enjoy seeing it.

On Thursday of this week, Ruth presented me with a daughter, Joan. Both Mother and daughter are doing fine.

Yours very truly,

My dear Rabbi Silver:

Last year you were very kind in giving the MORGENROIT in Roumania fifty dollars. This is to ask you whether it wouldn't be possible this year to increase this modest allowance, in view of the situation prevailing in that country. The Jewish Labor Committee is in very close touch with the Roumanian situation and we have sent from our own funds over thirteen thousand dollars. However, the MORGENROIT is the finest Labor institution in that country and to-day is besides a rallying center for the Jews of Cernauti.

I wonder whether you contemplate coming to New York one of these days. If you do, I should very much like to chat with you for an hour or so on

PSH H 11122 p1378 p1122

I am terribly disturbed, as I guess most of the thinking Jews are over the situation as it is developing both in the old country and here and would like to exchange views with you.

Please accept my very best regards and don't fail to mention me to your family.

Your kind and friendly words are very gratifying to me. I assure you that to me music assumes a definite worth when I may play for others. More particularly is its social significance intensified when my playing furthers even in small measure the cause of our people. And most particularly does it gladden my heart when I may play at the request and for the pleasure of my long admired and esteemed Rabbi Silver.

Your performance in behalf of Aunt and me on Feb. 3rd was very successful. Not only has marriage improved the vibrato and the projection of musical "oomph," but also

Has it elevated my sweetheart and

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver

Cleveland, Ohio

My dear Rabbi Silver:

Undoubtedly, you have heard of the recent death of our beloved teacher and leader of Israel, Rabbi Judah Levenberg. We, his former students have reaped the greatest harvest of spiritual wealth from our deceased Rabbi. His loss is irreparable. His teaching and inspiration can leave on for posterity. We are, therefore, desirous of perpetuating the memory of our leader by editing the Life and Works of Rabbi Levenberg, which will be issued in several volumes.

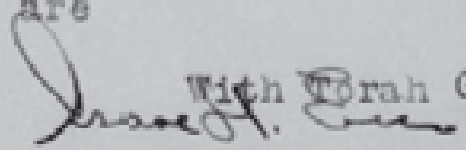

The first volume, The Life and Works of our Rabbi will not only be a portraiture of his superhuman struggles and attainments for Judaism, but will also depict vividly the past 25 years of Jewish Life in America.

Great financial expenditures are entailed in the preparation and edition of these works. We, therefore, appeal to you as an admirer of our noble teacher and the Ideals for which he lived and died, to co-operate with us in this endeavor.

We offer an entire page with your name inscribed for only $100.00 a half page $50.00-and accordingly. This contribution will help in the completion of this literary work, which will remain an everlasting source of knowledge and inspiration for all readers.

To avoid loss of time and effort, we must request a 50% payment of the subscription. The balance is payable upon receipt of the book.

Awaiting your favorable response, we are

With Torah Greetings,

Rabbi A. H. Silver,
The Temple,
East 105th St. and Ansel Road,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Doctor:

Ralph has asked me to take care of arranging for the interment of the ashes of his wife, Ray Hahn Joseph. As I understand it, he would like her ashes placed in the Joseph mausoleum with adjoining space provided for his own. He would also greatly appreciate it if you could arrange to say a short prayer at that time. As you know, when Ray died Martha was in Europe and Mary was at Smith College. Martha is now home and Mary will be in Cleveland Thursday for her spring vacation, which I believe lasts from a week to ten days. Ralph would, of course, very much like to have these brief services held during this period so that all of his children could attend.

I haven't the slightest idea how one goes about arranging for things of this kind and I am, therefore, soliciting your good counsel and advice. Please let me know as soon as possible whether I need a contractor or whether I just call someone at the cemetery and tell them what I want. Will you also please let me know what time would be convenient to you?

I am enclosing herewith the copy of Daniel's diet as prepared by The Cleveland Clinic. Will you please return this to Virginia with our sincere thanks? Our boys are so much alike that it is a shame they don't get together more often, and I am having Martha call Virginia to ask her if she won't let Daniel spend a day over at our house.

With best regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Frank H. Ginn

WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY
CLEVELAND, OHIO

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

March 21, 1938

Dear Dr. Silver:

Beginning the fifth year of its Continuous Program, Western Reserve University is frequently asked, "Why is this campaign being continued?"

The very nature of the Continuous Program demands its continuance. It is the direct opposite of the "old style" capital account campaign which had for its aim the raising of large sums to set up endowments. The continuing campaign method raises, without the pressure and sacrifice usually associated with the word "campaign", what is, in effect, interest instead of a capital sum to supply interest.

With tuition paying only approximately 40% of the cost of educating a student, and with current yields on endowments insufficient to supply the difference even with the exercise of rigid economy, Reserve must depend on annual gifts from persons like yourself who have the interests of Cleveland and its University at heart.

Your pledge now will be of value not only as a vital aid to current operations, but also as an expression of confidence in the University's future.

Sincerely yours,

Winfred G. Leutner, President

I was very happy to receive your note and I greatly appreciate your invitation to be your house guest during my sojourn in Los Angeles. Unfortunately plans have already been made for me for the three brief days that I will spend in your city and almost every hour of my time is taken up with meetings and conferences.

I shall stop at the Ambassador Hotel so that I can be easily reached by the many people who will undoubtedly want to see me while in Los Angeles. I do hope I will have the pleasure of seeing you. Virginia is not coming along. Her father has been quite seriously ill and she has been spending most of the time in Wheeling.

My dear Sir:

Several years ago I made a thorough research into the history of Usury and the connection of the Jews with that practice. My research with one exception was from entirely non-Jewish sources. I did this work after reading an article in the Saturday Evening Post referring indirectly and in an improper way to the practice of usury by the Jews. I was astounded with what I found; for what previous to that time had been a suspicion that a very great wrong had been done to the Jewish people became a certainty as I found not only the truth but how and why, such an indecent charge was fastened upon an innocent people.

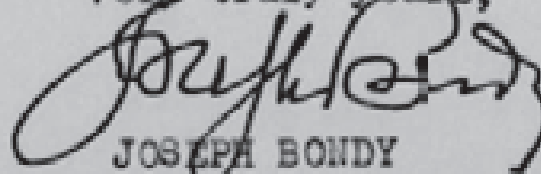

The prejudice against the Jew is predicated upon three ideas; one of them is the Crucifixion, which if properly handled can be met; the other is the extreme prejudice bred by prejudice itself, founded upon envy; and the third is, that the Jew was the world's usurer, which is untrue.

Tracing the third back to its source for over nine hundred years and telling the story in all its detail (with the authorities) shows that this was not only a cruel libel but a manufactured one for a purpose.

I am writing this letter desiring your opinion whether it would serve any good end to publish the truth fully. I have consulted one or two other gentlemen who have told me that they could not see that any good would come from such a publication; yet in the light of recent events I personally believe that not only were those gentlemen wrong but the story properly told would accomplish great good.

I would appreciate your opinion and would also appreciate it if you would regard this as strictly confidential. Colonel Joseph H. Alexander of your city would probably tell you about me or if you desire other references, kindly let me know.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH BONDY

My dear Mr. Hyman:

Local Clevelanders have a brother living in Drohobytch, Poland. He is a small operator in a shirt factory. He writes to his relatives here in Cleveland that if he could procure a button hole machine, he could make a living for himself and his family. He would like to procure a loan through the JDC in Poland and he would undertake to pay back so much per month. His Cleveland relatives who are respectable people but not wealthy would be glad to underwrite the loan. Would it be possible for such an arrangement to be made? If an additional signature to the loan, other than that of the Cleveland relatives would be required, I should be glad to add my own. Such a machine, I understand, would cost about $250. The name of the man in Poland is Mr. E. Feuerstein, Ryneck 13, Drohobytch, Poland.

My dear Mrs. Jacobs:

I was very happy to receive your letter of February 23 and your very warm words of congratulations on my assumption of the chairmanship of the United Palestine Appeal drive for 1938. It is an onerous job which I have undertaken. Economic conditions in the country are bad and it will not be easy to raise funds. However, we can only do our best and work hard. I am leaving tomorrow for the Pacific Coast to visit the principal cities in behalf of the UPA. I shall probably be on the Coast for some twelve or fourteen days.

I am happy to know that you visited my folks in Jerusalem and I am grateful for conveying to me a report of their well being. I had a perfectly delightful although all too brief visit with them last summer. I am hoping that another visit will not be delayed too long.

You, too, have assumed a difficult task in a very difficult time. We have pretty much reached bottom in Jewish fortune or misfortune in the world. Perhaps a break in our favor is now due.

With reference to the political situation affecting Palestine - we are pretty much in the dark here. Perhaps after England has muddled into some kind of an arrangement with Mussolini, some clarification with reference to the political status of Palestine will ensue. I know that your presence in Jerusalem will add steadiness, courage and practicality to the deliberations and plans of the Executive.

Rabbi Dr. Alba Hillel Silver,
 Congregation Tifereth Israel,
 Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Dr. Silver:-

Passover is again knocking at our door, bringing to us the encouraging message that our heavenly Father has redeemed the Jews from slavery and bondage.

We have over 30000 German-Jewish refugees in our country, and the number of those who are coming to these shores in search of freedom and humanity is increasing week after week.

For the past five years the German-Jewish Congregation has prepared Seders for the refugees, and this year the requests made to us far exceed those of any previous Seder. There are, moreover, hundreds of families in need of funds with which to meet the additional Passover expenses.

The National Coordinating Committee for German-Jewish refugees cannot add to its tremendous expenses, and we are therefore calling upon you to help us from your Congregation, your Sisterhood or your Sunday School, so that we may be able to aid as many people as we can. Every dollar makes it possible for a Jew to participate in the Seder.

Please respond to this urgent plea which we send on behalf of our brethren who are trusting that, with the assistance of American Jewry, they will be able to observe this great festival in a spirit of hope for a better future.

With seasonal greetings and sincere appreciation,

Very sincerely yours,

Max Malina

German-Jewish Congregation, Rabbi.
