Chicago 23, Illinois

My dear Miss Shapiro:

In reply to your letter of June 25, permit me to state that Dr. Silver is out of the city and will be gone until September. I am, therefore, taking the liberty of writing to you.

If I were visiting Cleveland I would wish to stop at any of the hotels downtown, such as the Cleveland, Statler, Hollenden, Carter or Allerton Hotels. I am sure that the hotels have lists of activities in Cleveland. Sorry I cannot be more helpful, but all the activities at The Temple are closed down for the summer.

With best wishes, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Secretary to Dr. Silver

July 1, 1946

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Sorry I wasn't able to see you before you left for the summer. I am leaving in the morning for my vacation. I hope you have a pleasant summer.

I have instructed Mrs. Richards to send you your mail daily to Maine.

There are several things you might wish to take care of.

1) You wished to send a message to the Bartley Crum luncheon on July 6 at the Hollenden Hotel. It is being held under the auspices of the National Lawyers' Guild.

2) You may wish to send congratulations to Samuel Federman and Arlene Cohen who will be married on July 14 at the Wade Park Manor - 7:30 P.M. Address of Federman boy -- 2481 Traymore Rd. Both are members of Temple and hoped you would officiate. Rabbi Kramer is taking wedding.

The enclosed is the mail that came in today.

With best wishes, I am

Most cordially,

Rabbi A. H. Silver,

Dear Rabbi:

I was very pleased to receive your letter as it was the first indication that I had that you are obtaining a much needed rest. The reports here were rather conflicting. Some indicated that you were still in New York and others that you were either on the way or were preparing to go to Palestine. With the situation so uncertain I know that it is difficult to tell when you may be on the move, but I hope that in the meantime you will have been completely rested.

I did not acknowledge D'Ascenzo's letter, first because I wanted to get your views and, secondly, I was also puzzled as to the $1800 figure. Assuming that Mr. Sayk will design the corridor windows and one chapel window, his fee, on the basis of $300 each, would be $1200. I shall write to Mr. Gittelson, whose address I have obtained, and will ascertain whether this arrangement will be agreeable to him.

I had hopes of seeing you before you left Cleveland for, as you will recall, we had a tentative date for July 1st. I wanted to discuss several things with you, most important of all being the installation of air conditioning in the chapel. Whatever method of installation is used will result in a change in the appearance of the chapel. The question, therefore, is: shall we sacrifice appearance for comfort. I have turned over the plans which George Nachman prepared to Arthur Friedman who is an expert on air conditioning. I hope that a means will be found by which benefits can be obtained without destroying the appearance.

You have probably learned that Mrs. Kraft found it necessary to resign. Last Tuesday we listened to six voices, two of which were excellent. Either one of them will make a vast improvement in the choir.

Rabbi Nodel reached the city last night, but I have not yet spoken to him. He is undoubtedly busy endeavoring to locate living quarters for himself and family. He is preparing to start on August 1st, at which time Rabbi Kramer will leave for his vacation.

July 18, 1946

Sylvia joins me in wishing you, Virginia and the boys a very fine summer, and we look forward to seeing you upon your return.

Most cordially yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I have today sent to Rabbi Marcuson the name of the Rabbi appointed to draft the Memorial Resolution in the death of Rabbi Feinberg of Youngstown. He is Rabbi Herman Pollack, Hillel Director at Brooklyn College.

I am also sending to you today under separate cover a copy of the 1945 Yearbook of the Central Conference, as you requested. This copy is the only one we have at The Temple (it belongs to the library) and Miss Leikind has asked me to ask you to kindly see that we get it back after it has served its purpose with you.

Kindest regards to you and the family, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Dear Dr. Silver:

At the Indiana Community Relation Council meeting in Indianapolis, I heard the saddening news of the death of "Duke" Margolis. He was a swell guy, and I know we shall all miss him.

The AJCongress man from Minneapolis said the Mt. Zion Congregation of St. Paul is seeking a successor before the Holy Days. No doubt you are acquainted with Milton P. Firestone, president of the congregation. Would you be so good as to write him in my behalf, recommending me for the pulpit? I am sure I could render the congregation and community competent service.

I know you are more than busy with the pressing affairs of world and Palestine Jewry, but I returned from two years of war to find that our Council friends have been tireless in pushing non-Zionist rabbis into some of the leading pulpits of the country in the past few years. Besides, except for an opportunity such as this, as a ~~returned~~ returned chaplain (without an emergency placement committee), I have only the choice of returning to my small congregation at a pre-war salary. Have you ever thought of how badly your own Temple alumni have fared in this political game of rabbinical placement?

Enclosed is a sheet of biographical data to refresh your memory. You might wish to call attention to my competent service to Decatur and Hammond, my educational background, and war record. I am now 34 years of age and single. This will be the first letter you will have written in my behalf since I obtained my first pulpit ten years ago.

Thanking you in advance for your kind interest, I remain with warmest personal regards and every good wish to you and yours,

Sincerely,

Rabbi A. J. Feinberg

Dear Rabbi:

I have your letter and first of all wish to tell you that you are entitled to considerable credit for your accomplishments in connection with the British federalization proposal. I hope that the President's action can be interpreted as a rejection of the proposal and that the British will be told, once and for all, not only that the admission of the one hundred thousand displaced persons must be unconditional but that the United States is not interested in any plan that is inconsistent with the Balfour Declaration and the Mandate.

When I received D'Ascenzo's letter I immediately wrote to him and I indicated an unwillingness to disturb the Szyk situation any further. I tried to point out to him that inasmuch as his original price was $10,000.00, it ought to be sufficient if the new price were $12,000.00, as in reality the additional work would be confined principally to the corridor windows. I have not heard from him, perhaps due to the fact that my letter arrived after he had left on his vacation. If he will accept $12,000.00 and if we pay Szyk $1500.00, we can keep the entire cost down to $20,000.00. This will still necessitate hard work, because so far we have slightly less than $5000.00. I am having a meeting tomorrow with Paul Wintner for the purpose of getting him and his committee to renew activity.

It was not until today that I obtained final consent from Stanley Diener. The personnel of the committee will be completed tomorrow and arrangements will then be made for a meeting with this group so that it can commence work.

Rabbi Nodel has obtained temporary quarters and commencing September 1st will have a permanent home in an apartment on Ansel Road between Hough and Wade Park. It is not what he wants but will be satisfactory until conditions are relaxed and something better can be obtained. It is pleasing to note that he is making a favorable impression wherever he goes. Everybody speaks of him in a complimentary manner.

We are all well, but could use a vacation. I am in hopes that before the month is over Sylvia and I will be able to get away for a short time.

With best wishes to you, Virginia and the boys, in which Sylvia joins me,

Dear Rabbi Silver,

Laura Bendit and I plan to get married September 19. We hope very much that you will be home to officiate at the wedding ceremony. We plan to get married in the small room across from Gruis Memorial Chapel.

The late afternoon would be the most convenient time for us. However any time during the day or evening would be O.K. if your schedule is crowded.

Please drop me a line letting me know if you can marry us. I hope that you are enjoying your stay at Plymouth.

Sincerely

August 18th

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Am back from "deep in the hot (heart) of Texas". It's a real pleasure to be back, as far as climate is concerned. In spite of the intense humid heat in Houston during the month of July, I managed to have a grand visit with my folks and the kind of rest you could probably use right now.

I sent you some mail on Friday. Some I found unopened in going through a pile of mail here. I am ~~xxx~~ enclosing the mail that arrived yesterday and today.

Mr. Levy has been keeping you informed about Temple activities. In this department there is nothing doing, naturally, with you away. Mrs. Richards went on her vacation this week now that I am back here.

Is there anything you'd like me to do? I shall be glad to comply with your requests.

I hope you are managing to get some rest, though I doubt it. Remember me to Mrs. Silver and the boys.

Most cordially,

P.S. I suppose you know rumors are flying thick and fast...about your leaving The Temple. But as usual I refuse to believe anything I hear about you unless it comes from you.

Dear Dr. Silver:

Mr. Abe Goodman was good enough to give me your address and suggested that I write to you again with regard to your visit to the Brandeis Camp. Mr. Weisman and Mr. Jacques Torczyner, who were here this past weekend, also suggested that I write to you.

I wish, therefore, to extend to you and Mrs. Silver our cordial invitation to spend the coming weekend, August 23, 24 and 25, with us here. I need not tell you how much your visit will mean to all of us here and particularly to the ninety campers who have come from all over the country. I wish also to assure you that you may regard this visit as a vacation, and apart from one address to the camp, we will do everything possible to assure your quiet relaxation and privacy. All of us feel that in these days of strain and stress this visit may bring you much AD AD and true relaxation.

Looking forward to hearing from you, I remain, with cordial greetings,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. A.H. Silver,

Shaker Heights, O.

Dear Sir:

We have been unable to obtain reading of the water meter at the above address since three quarters thus making it necessary to estimate your bills. Regular meter readings assure you of normal consumption of water as we are enabled to advise you of excessive use, or leakage, which results in abnormally large bills.

Rules and regulations of the Division of Water and Heat provide that the meter must be accessible at all reasonable times and we request that arrangements be made so that regular readings may be obtained.

Please call MAIN 4600, Line 477 immediately upon receipt of this notice, advising definitely when and how a reading can be secured for your next bill, to be mailed within a few days. It is to your advantage to do so, as no adjustment can be made on excessive water bills, due to visible leakage.

Very truly yours,

RAILWAY EXPRESS AGENCY

INCORPORATED

UNIFORM EXPRESS RECEIPT—NON-NEGOTIABLE—TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The provisions of this receipt shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the consignee, the consignor and all carriers including this shipment and shall apply to any re-shipment, or return thereof.

2. In consideration of the rate charged for carrying said property, which is dependent upon the value thereof and is based upon an agreed valuation of not exceeding fifty dollars for any shipment of 100 pounds or less and not exceeding fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment in excess of 100 pounds, unless a greater value is declared at the time of shipment, the consignor agrees that the carrier shall not be liable in any event for more than fifty dollars for any shipment of 100 pounds or less, or for more than fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment weighing more than 100 pounds, unless a greater value is agreed upon. Unless a greater value is declared and stated herein the consignor agrees that the value of the shipment is as less above set out and that the liability of the company shall in no event exceed such value.

3. Unless caused by the own negligence or that of its agents, the company shall not be liable for—

- a. Difference in weight or quantity caused by shrinkage, leakage, or evaporation.
- b. The death, injury, or sickness of live freight.
- c. Loss of money, jewelry, bonds, securities, jewelry, precious stones, valuable papers, or other matter of extraordinary value, unless such articles are enumerated in the receipt.

4. Unless caused in whole or in part by the own negligence or that of its agents, the company shall not be liable for loss, damage or delay caused by—

- a. The act or default of the shipper or owner.
- b. The nature of the property, or defect or inherent vice therein.
- c. Improper or insufficient packing, securing, or addressing.
- d. The Act of God, public enemies, authority of law, quarantine, riots, strikes, acts of navigation, the hazards or dangers incident to a state of war, or interference by customs authorities.
- e. The examination by, or partial delivery to the consignee of C. O. D. shipments.
- f. Delivery under instructions of consignor or consignee at stations where there is an agent of the company after such shipments have been left at such station.

5. Packages containing fragile articles or articles containing wholly or in part of glass must be so marked and be packed as to insure safe transportation by express with ordinary care.

6. When consigned to a place at which the express consignor has no office, shipments must be marked with the name of the express station at which delivery will be accepted or be marked with forwarding direction if to go beyond the express company's line by a carrier other than an express company. If not so marked shipments will be refused.

7. An immediate provision to recover claims must be made in writing to the originating or delivering office within nine months after delivery of the property or in case of failure to make delivery, then within nine months and fifteen days after date of shipment, and suits shall be instituted only within two years and one day after the date when notice in writing is given by the carrier to the claimant that the carrier has discharged the claim or any part or parts thereof.

8. If any C. O. D. is not paid within thirty days after notice of non-delivery has been mailed to the shipper the company may at its option return the property to the consignor.

9. Free delivery will not be made at points where the company maintains no delivery service at points where delivery service is maintained free delivery will not be made at addresses beyond the established and published delivery limits.

Special Additional Provisions as to Shipments Forwarded by Vessel from the United States to Places in Foreign Countries.

10. If the destination specified in this receipt is in a foreign country, the property covered hereby shall, as to transit over ocean routes and by their foreign connections to such destinations, be subject to all the terms and conditions of the receipts or bills of lading of ocean carriers as accepted by the company for the shipments, and of foreign carriers participating in the transportation, and as to such transit is accepted for transportation and delivery subject to the acts, laws, regulations and customs of foreign and foreign carriers, customs, and governments, their employees and agents.

11. This company shall not be liable for loss, damage, or delay in said shipments over ocean routes and foreign foreign connections, the destination of which is in a foreign country, covering within the coastwise of the United States, which may be provided for any such acts, laws, regulations, or customs. Claims for loss, damage or delay must be made in writing to the carrier at the port of origin or by the carrier issuing this receipt within nine months after delivery of the property at said port or in case of failure to make such delivery then within nine months and fifteen days after date of shipment, and claims so made against said delivering or issuing carrier shall be deemed to have been made against any carrier which may be liable hereunder. Suits shall be instituted only within two years and one day after the date when notice in writing is given by the carrier to the claimant that the carrier has discharged the claim or any part or parts thereof. Where claims are not so made, and/or suits are not instituted thereon in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the carrier shall not be liable.

12. It is hereby agreed that the property included in such foreign receipts, and acceptable with foreign governmental or customs duties, taxes or charges, may be accepted or treated at foreign ports, frontiers or depots, and there held pending examination, assessment and payment, and such duties and charges, when advanced by the company shall become a lien on the property.

Dear Doctor:

We have been contributing to the United Aged Home, Palestine. We notice on the pamphlet that you endorse this institution.

We are prompted to write for your okay on this institution for the reason that we have made some donations to institutions which were not legitimate. We have now decided not to make our donations without having someone like yourself to verify the worthiness of the institutions.

We will appreciate it very much if you will favor us with an immediate reply. You will find herewith enclosed return envelope.

Yours very truly,

Dear Dr. Silver:

Thank you indeed for your letter of the 21st. We, of course, very much regretted your inability to visit the camp, but understand your reasons.

I want to thank you for your message, which was read to the group. They asked that I extend their appreciation for same. Their disappointment at not having the chance to hear you personally was keen.

I hope that when I return to New York I will be given an opportunity to report to you on this year's camp, and particularly on the new element of the returning G.I. and his reactions, which I believe will be interesting to you.

By the time our season is over, we will have had a total of 256 campers, 66 of which were boys. These young men and women represent 34 states, 150 cities and 81 colleges and universities. We have reason to be hopeful of fruitful results from their work in the communities.

With all good wishes for a very Happy New Year, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I realize that you are much too burdened with weightier affairs to have time for your own personal matters. Hence I was not surprised to have no reply to my letter of July 3rd about the remaining unbound copies of "World Crisis and Jewish Survival."

In fact I am writing you now more for the record than anything else. I am glad to tell you that the Zionist Organization has recently agreed to purchase these copies after I have them bound. The price is $1.00 a copy. And the cost of binding this small number is now almost astronomical. Our contract calls for the payment to the author of 25% of the cash received, but I trust that under these circumstances you may be willing to waive part or all of this payment.

At your convenience I'll be glad to have word from you on this.

Cordially yours,

Sept. 2, 1946

מעניח, ה-2 בדצמבר 1946.

אבא הלל היקר -

שא ברכה ושלוש רב!

נדמה לי שלאחר פגישתנו, בזמן שהותך בירושלים, נפלו כל המחיצות הרשמיות והנני מודה לעצמי לפנות אליך בדבר אישי אל רעהו, בלי תוארים פורמליים ולכן חסר הפעם במכתבי זה התואר ד"ר או דומה לזה.

נדמה לי שהזמן בו ניפגשנו כמעט יום יום חזקו בינינו את הקשרים המיוחדים בפידה כזאת שאין עוד לערערם; גם התענינותך ונכונותך להביא לנו, לי ולאות, את העזרה החומרית, אותה אתה יכול להביא, הרייתה לי בעליל כי מידת כנותך ורצונך בקשרי משפחה אישיים.

אבא הלל היקר, כפי שהנך רואה במכתבי זה, כותב אני אותו עדיין בקיבוץ, כי עד עכשיו לא יכולתי להשתחרר מעבודתי בהדרכת הנוער, אבל לאחר שהרופא אשר עלי את העבודה הזאת, מחמת מחלת גרון, הלך הדבר והסתדר יותר מהר. לאחר שהשתחררתי מהעבודה הזאת פניתי לקיבוץ שיאפירו לי חופיה לתקופה מסוימת למען אוכל להיות בירושלים בקרבת הורייך, גם בקשתך האישיה לנציג קיבוצי בעת שיחתך אתו במלון "עדן" - בירושלים השפיעה את ההפעתם החיובית והחופשית המבוקשת ניתנה לי. פירושו של דבר שאין הדרך חזרה לקיבוץ, על כל צרה שלא תבוא, אלא חסומה בפני, וגם זה שמקל עלי את העזיבה המוחלטת.

התחייבותי כלפיך וכלפי הדוד והדודה היקרים, הורייך קדושה לי ולו לא היתה ניתנת לי החופשה הזאת הייתי מחליט מיד לעזוב את הקיבוץ. אני אמונה שתעמוד לימיני בדרך חיי החדשים. הנני לבקשך, אפוא, שעם קבלת מכתבי זה תיפנה להא' מ. איזנברג במכתב או במיבורק (טלגרמה) שלא יעשו לי קשיים בסידורי בעבודה בירושלים, כפי שהבטת לך ולי בשיחתי האחרונה עם הא' איזנברג. אני אמונה שתעשה את הדבר הזה, ותודתי נתונה לך למפרע.

עם בואי לירושלים בעוד שבוע ימים אגיש מיד לסידור וטיפול העניינים של הדוד והדודה שטום הספקתי לגמורם בהיותי, יחד אתך, בירושלים. הנני להבטיח לך שאעשה את הכול מה שיכולתי ולמעלה מזה למען הקל את חייהם. יהא לך סמך ובטוח שאצטר אתם בנאמנות ובמסירות, כפי שעזיתי את זה עד עתה. יודע אני, כמו כן, שהעניינים הפורמליים, ו-מיים נתונים בידי העורך-דין הא' עליאש, אך יודע אני גם שירנם עניינים, אשר הוא למרות רצונו הטוב, כי עצם היותו עסוק וטרוד בעבודתו המקצועית, לא מאפשר לו את הדבר הזה של סידור עניינים ודברים קטנים בחיי יום יום של הזקנים. עם בואי לירושלים עומדים לפני לא מעט עניינים לסידור, אלא אמנם דברים ועניינים קטנים, אך בחייהם היומיומיים של הדוד והדודה הם חשובים ויתקל עליהם ושתחרר אותם מדאגות וטרדות מיותרות ללוא צורך.

אבא הלל היקר, כמה אסיר תודה פניתי לך על החסד הרב שגשדת אתי ומה רב היה אצלך העונג שלי להיות במחיצתך. מאוחר וגאה אני שאישיה כמך הוא חוסר מגזעי ובשר מבשרי. עונג ואושר היו לי הימים שבללית בצלך הימים ההם בירושלים.

כעבור שבוע אני עובר לירושלים ומיד אגיש לטיפול בעניינים השעונים עוד טיפול והקשרים עם הזקנים. יהא לך סמך ובטוח שיחול שינוי לטובה באורח חייהם, באם רק הם לא יתנגדו ודברים שבעצם הם לטובתם.

עם בואי לירושלים בתכנית, מלבד העבודה המקיימת את הצד, להתמסר ללימודים ולכתיבה. לחירגום בעבודת את יצירותי אותם כתבתי בידי. בהזדמנות הקרובה אעביר לך כמה דברים פטרי עטי ואני מקוה שתעניין בהם ותביע את דעתך על תכנם וצורתם. יודע אני שהחלטת חיי החדשים תהא לי קשה, אך עלי יהיה, ובעזרתך, להתגבר על כל הקשיים, כי המטרה והתפקיד הם כה חשובים בעיני שכל קושי לא יעמוד לי בדרך.

אב-קשך רק, אבא הלל היקר, שתעמוד אתי בקשרי מיכתבים, למען אוכל מקרוב למסור לך על מהלך חייהם של הזקנים. אני מצוי אעשה את הכול למען להקל על חייהם בכל היסחיו, אני מבטיח לך זאת נאמנה.

בטח תקבל בימים הקרובים מכתב מקיבוצי, בו הם מתכבדים החברים הסטפולום בהקמת המפעל הגדול - בית תרבות על שם של חברתנו חביבה רייק. להזכיר לך על הבטחתך לנציג קיבוצנו הא' נחמן ב. ד. ק, שתעמוד לימינינו בעניין זה. אל המכתב אליך מצורף היה גם העתק של המכתב שנישלח להתאגדות יוצאי ליטא ברצות הברית. אין לי כל ספק שהבטחתך בעינה עומדת ושתספול בעניין במסירות ופאמנות. תודתי האישיה נתונה לך גם על כך.

אסיים את מכתבי שחך מקוה לקבל מיד תשובה מסך. אני מאחל לך ולבני משפחתך כל טוב. אני מבין שהנסיעה חזרה לאמריקה עלהה לך יפה וששובך גרם עונג וחדוה לבני ביתך, ידידך וטקורוביך.

על מה שעברנו פה בימים האחרונים בטח ידוע לך. ואין אני רוצה להרבות דברים על כך. יודעים אנו שעוד מאבקים קשים נכונים לנו, אך הפקוה יוקדת בנו שנתגבר ונעבור את תקופת המחסכים זו ונצא למרחב ולאור. בלי ספק שמאמצייך ופעלך האישי יעזור בהגשמת חזוננו. הנני לאחל לך כל טוב והצלחה רבה בפעלך ובעבודתך - הצלתהן האישיה שיתלבת ושתמזגת עם הצלחתנו הכללית, כיהודים וכציונים.

אבסחך להודיע לי האם קיבלת את חן-צי-הכסף בסדר. כתבתי בירושלים היא:

September 9, 1946

My dear Tazzy,

If you read The Jewish Review and Observer, you will notice that for the past several months I have been using only one-half of your editorial output.

The reason is the same I tried to express forcibly some time ago. We do not intend to have The Jewish Review and Observer a propaganda outlet for Mr. Bergson and his various groups.

If you desire to write editorials on the Palestine situation, kindly direct your energies against the English, the oil interests, the U. S. State Department or against anyone else who may incur your displeasure, but kindly lay off the Bergson propaganda because you are just wasting your time and your paper.

As long as I am editing The Jewish Review and Observer, I intend to be the editor in fact as well as in name.

With kindest personal regards,

Dear Dr. Silver:-

Under separate cover I am sending you the volume of Centenary addresses delivered at Emanu-el. My address is on "The Significance of Israel and Judaism for a New World Order". There are things theological in it which will interest you. As to the Palestine matter, it gives a clear statement of how I felt in Dec. 1944. I was very conservative when I said at least 3,000,000 Jews had been slain in cold blood, now we know officially that 6,000,000 were the victims. And there seems to be no end. As I told you when you were good enough to come to see me, my heart aches for the tragedy of Israel. All our ideologies pale into insignificance when we consider what is happening to us. I made clear to you what I want. If the Zionists could get what I advised them to take in 1937, - adequate partition, it would be the best. Immigration into Palestine of as many Jews as possible is the real core of the matter. Thus far, not even the 100,000 which the President of our country asked and we are told is still insisting upon, have not been allowed to come. We should insist upon the 100,000 as a beginning. For if the British Imperial power could see its way to do what Truman asks, it would be the best proof of the sincerity of its wish and the adequacy of its power. For even the advocate of the bi-national state which I abhor, admits that in the last analysis, whatever Britain decides upon, will have to be imposed upon the Arabs.

The rumors are so conflicting. Every day we read something else. What will be the end God only knows. As I think about all these conflicting statements, I have a feeling that perhaps you made a mistake in not going to Paris, and after a fight for your ideas, throw your influence on behalf of what is evidently now the real desire of the Jewish Agency: an adequate partition. I am well aware what you suffered at the hands of the person we discussed.

Excuse me for speaking to you so frankly. You know by this time what my real wish is, namely, to do as much as possible for our suffering brethren. As to the theoretical part, you also know from what I told you, I'll take care of it in the future, and I am not afraid of words. The main thing is to get our Jews in Palestine, a safe and strong and promising position.

Dear Rabbi Silver,

Having completed definite arrangements two months ago with Beryl Rubinstein for a piano concert on Dec. 11. we will have to postpone consideration of the String quartet until the following season - unless they could come to us on March 12 - which is our only remaining unfilled program.

I am, at Mrs. Silver's suggestion, cancelling tentative arrangements with

My dear Israel:

Let me thank you for your kind letter of September 1, which I read with great interest. Sister Bessie has told me in great detail about her visit to the folks, about their condition and health, and confirmed to me many things which I already knew.

I am very happy that you are living in their home and that you can keep an eye on them. I will write to the folks both about the renting of the room and about father's books. Please keep an eye on the general appearance of the house and upon the appearance of the folks.

I shall be sending some clothing for Dad within the next few days. If any expenses have to be made in connection with the household, please do not hesitate to consult Mr. Elyash as he is authorized to advance whatever money is necessary.

Please do not mind if you do not hear from me regularly. I have been terribly busy and have been traveling about a great deal. I do not always have the time to write.

I am enclosing herewith a check for your own use.

The political situation at the moment is very much confused. I do hope that we will see some clarification before very long.

With all good wishes for a very Happy New Year, I remain

Affectionately,

The Pullman Company

Gentlemen:

Dr. Silver was unable to use his pullman space from New York to Cleveland on September 11. As you will note from the back of the enclosed pullman ticket, the space was cancelled before train time. The East Cleveland Railroad station, from whom we purchased the ticket, requested us to send you the ticket for redemption.

Kindly make the check payable to Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, and send it to the above address.

With best wishes, I remain

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Dr. Schulman:

Thank you so much for your kindness in sending me a copy of the volume published by Congregation Emanu-El which contains your address, "The Significance of Israel and Judaism for a New World Order." I know that I shall read it with a great deal of pleasure and profit.

It was good to have seen you in New York and to have had the very pleasant talk with you. I was particularly happy to find you looking so well and your intellectual vigor and alertness as great as ever.

The present political situation with reference to Palestine is still very confused. Perhaps before very long things will begin to clarify a little. As of the moment there seems to be no inclination either on the part of Great Britain or the Arab states to accept partition as a solution. The Agency representatives are still hopeful.

With all good wishes for a very happy new year to you and to the whole of Israel, I remain

Most cordially yours,

1. The confirmation was given on 16.9.46, and it is in power until the beginning of Tamuz 4707.
2. The date of preparation of the last report is 29.8.46.
3. The activities of the institution: The study of the Torah in Talmud and Commentaries, and the giving of an elementary education in morality manners and fear of the Lord in the Yeshiva centre, and the establishment of branches to the central institution. The number of those who study in the central Yeshiva is 125, in the Yavneh Talmud Torah and in the branches 378. There is also a special branch for students of the Oriental Community. The Talmud Torah pupils pay tuition fees 400-750 mils monthly. At the kitchen of the Institution 140 pupils get free meals. Those who study at the Yeshiva and the lecturers are supported with a monthly salary. A central building of 3 stories is being built on the plot of the institution for a Yeshiva and Talmud Torah and a Dormitory for the pupils.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

It is a beautiful and forceful appeal which you have made to the members of the congregation, to be in the Temple on the two high and holy days. I sincerely hope that you will be successful.

I would suggest that you eliminate the plain clothes men from the front doors of the Temple and Mahler Hall. They are not much of an ornament and they don't give prestige to our people and the Temple.

There is no House of Worship or Temple where God resides that the entrances are guarded by police, that no one should enter unless they have a pass or a ticket. I think these guards are a desecration to the Temple, and a shame to our people everywhere.

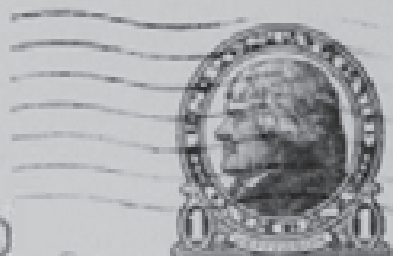

I know it is not your fault, it is the Board of Directors' fault, however, if you would explain to them in your own way and show them the light of truth, they would recognize it.

I knew there are a good many fine men on the Board of Directors and I sincerely hope that you do as I suggested and that you will be successful.

With best wishes for a very happy year to you and yours, I remain with great respect,

A. Mendelsohn

Dear Raphael:

A very happy new year! Mother and I are eagerly waiting to speak to you this evening. We had a very lovely holiday, but we missed you very much.

From your letters it seems that you are rapidly adjusting yourself to college life. I know that you will enjoy it. Is there anything that you need -- any books that you would like me to send to you?

The services at The Temple this year were very beautiful. Rabbi Nodel made a very fine impression and the reception at home was splendid. The weather was ideal. A lot of your young friends who came to the house for the reception inquired about you.

Your bill at Harvard has been paid.

With much love to you,

September 27, 1946

My dear Daniel:

I am enclosing herewith a letter which you received from Professor Gittman giving the lists of the Mishna assignments. You may proceed to work on them with Mr. Rutman. If you need any of the Mishna Tracts, let me know and I will send them to you.

It was nice to have spoken to you last evening. We are hoping to talk to Raphael this evening. I trust that by now you are both settled and comfortable.

We had very beautiful and impressive services both at The Temple and at Severance Hall. The reception in the afternoon in our home was very lovely -- the largest ever. I understand that Mother is sending you some of the goodies.

Your bills to Harvard have been paid.

I am sorry that you did not get seats in the Temple for Rosh Hashanah but I am glad to hear that you and Raphael will have seats there for Yom Kippur. You may wish to run over the Hebrew of the Yom Kippur services in your Union Prayer Book before you attend the services.

I hope that you will have a good year replete with fruitful work. Stay well.

Dear Dr. Silver

I am writing to thank you for the Ekepan which you were so good as to send to the reception arranged by the Friends of the Hebrew University on Tuesday. Naturally I should have been best pleased if it had been possible for you to be there, but in the absence of that possibility I much appreciated your kind message.

My stay here has been very short - I am leaving to-morrow - and I have not been able to get beyond New York. I should have liked to have an opportunity of talking with you about the work of the Friends in this country. The University of course gets very substantial help from the American Friends, both financially and otherwise; but I cannot help feeling - and indeed it seems to be generally agreed - that the amount of financial support is far from being commensurate with the potentialities of this great Jewish community, with its keen and wide-spread interest in Palestine. I get the impression that the University is in danger of falling between two stools: the Zionists, with other claims on them which they consider more urgent, tend to leave the University to the non-Zionists, and the latter have not the enthusiasm & the driving power which are needed to put the University "on the map." I feel that, while a certain amount of non-Zionist help can always be counted on, the University will not get the support that it ought to have in America unless the great body of Zionists are made to feel that it is primarily their responsibility. And I feel that it is you who can give the proper lead in that direction.

I trust that you will forgive me for appealing to you in this way. In a sense I write "pro domo"; but the University is one of our greatest national assets, and the appeal is not merely a personal one.

If you feel that you can do anything, and if I can help in any way from Jerusalem - where I hope to take up my duties as Chairman of the Executive Council about the end of this month - I shall be only too pleased.

With cordial regards,

Yours sincerely
Leon Simon

Cleveland
6 October 1946

My dear Rabbi Silver,

This afternoon I attended the Atonement and Memorial services at your magnificent temple. I was there as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keller of Coleridge Road. I am not of the Jewish faith, but none the less I experienced the ultimate object of all religions: that inner peace and serenity which open the door to a full and happy life. Your sermon on the real and vital bond of memory as a stepping-stone between us the living, and our dear dead brought me very close to those of my family and to the many good friends whose lives were taken in the war. . . .

I have but recently returned to this country after many years of service underground with our allies. I have seen and touched a world overflowing with hate and greed and calculated savagery. (Paraphrasing, may I add that the last house of worship I was in was in France in 1944. The choir was dominated by a machine-gun whose message, while opposed to yours, was no less urgent).

This letter - hastily conceived as it is - had to be written; for I could not, decently, withhold my salute for so impressive an experience. Were I not so hard-pressed for time, I should have called upon you. That, however, is a privilege, which I have promised myself when next I am in your city.

Sincerely,
Philip Elden Hammond
Lt. Col., USA (Reserve).

הדיר אבא הלל סילבר
קליבלנד

אבא הלל מיקר - שא ברכה וגמר חתימה טובה!

בתודה עמוקה הנני לאשר את קבלת מכתבך מיום ה-12 בספטמבר ש.ז.
ידע ידוע לי שהנך טרוד ועסוק בעניינים חשובים ומכריעים בגורל עמנו
ומפעל תקומתנו - מה בארץ ולכן מובנת לי גם שתיקתך הממושכת; יודע
אני שאין שעתך פנויה ממיד לעניינים פרטיים ומשפחתיים.

אני שמח שניפגשת עם אחותך ביה"ל ב אבא, שמסרה לך דרישת שלום
ויה מההורים ועל כל הבעיות שעדיין לא ניפתרו לגמרי, לא מפאת אי-יכולת
לפתור, אלא מכיון שאין האם נותנת תמיד לעשות ולפעול בכיוון הרצוי
והטוב להם. דומני שאין הדברים ניתנים להישנות באופן יסודי כשהמדובר
והנוגע הוא לאנשים בעלי הרגלי ומסורת חיים מיוחדים רק להם, והאדם
המתהלך סביבם צריך להתאזר לא במעט סבלנות והבנה דקה לפל רחשי לבם
והגיגם.

האשה שעברה בבית ממשיכה בעבודתה, אם כי היא לא משביעה את רצון
כולנו בכל השטחים, אולם גליה ברירה, כי אין עתה להשיב אחרת, הננו
נאלצים להחזיק בה.

אני מצדי משחדל במה שהנני רק יכול להקל על חיייהם, אם כי לא תמיד
ניתן לי דבר זה.

בדרך כלל מרגישים שניהם - האם והאב לא רע; ימי החורף הממשמשים
ובאים נותנים כבר את אותותיהם בזקנה; המיחושים השונים בגוף הצנום
גדברים בימים האחרונים. בראש-השנה ביקר פרופסור צונדק, בדק את האם
ובתן חרופה חדשה להקל עליה את כאביה ויסוריה המופיעים מדי פעם ופעם.
כשר-הזכרון של האב נחלש והולך, ולפעמים נדמו שאין הוא זוכר
דבר, אולם לעתים מתגבר הוא על חולשה זו.

עקב חולשת זכרוננו זו החלטנו, מה שהאם דרשה, שאין האב משלם או
פורע כספים לכל מיני גובים בלעדי. ובזמן האחרון אני מקפיד על זה
הקפדה מוחלטת, כי לא פעם קרה שיהודים, די הדורים, שפוקס נאה, גבו כספים
מכספיים. בנצלם את שער-הכסף של העירייה מהבית. את תשלומי המסים לעירייה, וכד-הקהילה, קרנות לאומיות וכדומה הנני משלם תפורת קבלה על הסכומים.
ואשר למרתף: אחרי משא ומתן מייגע עם בעל-מלאכה, שהבטיח לעשות את
הנדק במרתף באחריות גמורה, שלא יחדרו יותר מים החלטנו לא לעשות את זה,
כי ביצוע העבודה צריך היה לעלות עד 120 לירות; החלטנו, איפוא, לא לעשות
את זה ואהיה, כדאשתקד, שואב-המים מן המרתף.

בראש-השנה הלכה אמא להתפלל, הובלתי לבית-הכנסת ושמרתי עליה,
ביחוד ביום הכיפורים. צקה ואמנם חרדנו לשלומה ביום הצום וסוב שהיה
לה כוח רוחני רב כזה שהחגברה על הסבל הגופני והחזיקה מעמד די יפה.
רק בלילה לאחר הצום הרגישה רע.

אחמול סידורתי את הסוכה לאבא, חשש שמא ישאר השנה בלי סוכה ולא יוכל
לקיים מצוות ישיבת בסוכה. ואמר לי, אחרי שהקימותי אותה, שלולא אני
לא היה זוכה השנה לשב בסוכה.

זוהי התמונה המצטיירת מחיי ההורים היקרים לך ואף לי.

אבא הלל היקר, אני מודה לך בעד התענינותך אם זכור אני עדיין
בסוכנות כשאלתך במכתבך להורים מיום ה-29 באוגוסט ש.ז. האמת ניתנה
להיאמר שעמדתי להיות בין המפורסמים מהעבודה, עקב הביטחון שחל בהיקף
פעולת המדור לחיפוש קרובים, אולם אחרי שיחה עם מר פ. כרמלי (מנהל
המדור ועתה ממלא מקומו של המזכיר הראשי של הסוכנות היהודית - מר
אייזנברג) הובטח לי מקום העבודה לעוד איזה זמן.

בשיחה זו עם מר פ. כרמלי הוא סיפר לי על שיחורו אתך, בעת ביקורך
במדור לחיפוש קרובים מלפני שנה, בלוויית מר אייזנברג, לפי דבריו
התרשמתי יפה והערכת ערכה חיובית מאוד את קיום המדור הזה, אשר נתן
אפשרות ויכולת לפליטי ולנרחי ישראל באשר הסלהתקשר עם קרוביהם ובני
משפחתם בכל קצוי הקולס; כמו כן סופר לי שהכנסת ^{להמנך} במדור תמיכה
מוסרית בכל הזדמנות ומן הרצוי שדבר זה יעשה על ידך, כי גם מה לא כולם
מעריכים הערכה מספקת את החיוניות של קיום מחלקה זו וישנה כנראה נטייה
להחלשת הפעולה במדור, נא, כתוב לי באיזו צורה ובאיזו הזדמנות או שעת
כשר הנך חושב לעשות את הדבר הזה.

סרס קבלו ההורים מכתב ממך בעניין הספרים ^(החומשים) של אבא, מה וכיצד
לעשות אתם, וסוב יהיה אם יקבלו מכתב זה בהיקדם.

ואשר לי: לפני החגים נעדרתי 3 שבועות מירושלים. השתתפתי בספינו
לשליחים לגולה, שהתקיים ברמת-הכובש. ספינו זה מתפקידו היה להכין שליחים
לגולה הרחוקה והקרובה גם יחד. נקבעתי לשלחויות לדרום אפריקה - לברזיליה.
מועד יציאתי עוד טרם נקבע, אבל יש להניח שזה יוצא לפועל בעוד חצי שנה
או יותר מזה, בינתיים אני לומר את השפה הפורטוגזית. תפקידי יהיה

פעולה הדרכתית וחינוכית בנוער ובציבור הציוני שם; אין לי ספק בהצלחת
כפעולה זו, לאחר שיש לי נסיון רב בעבודה זו עוד מימי נעורי בליסא,
הציונית והלאומית. קבלתי עלי שליחות זו מתוך הנחה והכרה עמוקה שאני
ממלא על ידי כך חפקיד ציוני ממדגה ראשונה, אם כי די קשה ואחראי.
מאוד הייתי רוצה לנסוע דרך ארצות הברית וכאן שאלת הויזיה
היא העיקרית ובסיוחני שתהיי בעזרי (בזמן הנידרש) בחשבת ויזיה
לארצות הברית. רצוני גם להיות בארצות הברית, כדי ללמוד מקרוב
את בעיית יהדות אמריקה, עליה שמעתי בזמן האחרון הרצאה מעניינת
ומלמדת מפי פר חיים גרינברג השוהה כעת בארץ.
החלטתי היא לא לצאת את הארץ סרס שניפגש נה, בביקורך, בזמן
היותך בקונגרס הציוני הב"ב בשוויץ, ונחלים במשותף על סידור חייהם
של ההורים בעתיד.
אני מודה לך מעומק לב על מתנתך האחרונה שלחת לי, בצ'יק, לחגים
ותבוא על הברכה.
על המצב הכללי בארץ לא אייחד דיבור, כי הדברים ידועים לך גם
כלאו-הכי. אולם עלי לציין שהידיעות האחרונות הסניעות סגבולותיכם
מעודדות וסגבירותא את התקוה שעוד לא אאלמן ישראל. מי ייחן ופעולתכם
פעולתך תיגמר עד הסוף בהצלחה ובנצחוננו. ח ז ק ו א פ ז !
אסיים בחקוה לקבל חשובה ספך. דרישת שלום לבבית לבני משפחתך
היקרים וכל טוב לכולכם.
אחותי, גיסי והילדים אף הם דורשינ בשלומכם.

בהוקרה וידידות

My dear Raphael:

You have been a far better correspondent than I have. But then I don't think you have been as busy as I have been. What with the holidays and my trips to New York and numerous other duties, I have hardly had time to catch my breath. Mother has been lecturing me on working too hard. I hope that things will ease up before long.

I am glad that you are finding yourself so satisfactorily in your work at school. I am sure that as the weeks go by you will become more and more at home in the new world in which you find yourself. Mother and I are greatly enjoying your accounts of your work and your doings. Is there anything that you need?

I am beginning my Sunday morning services this coming Sunday morning, and Mother and I are leaving for the ZOA Convention in Atlantic City next Thursday. We will be stopping at the St. Charles Hotel.

It has been raining here the last few days and it looks as though the Autumn days are really here. Please keep warm and watch your health.

With all love to you.

Dear Dr. Silver:

In view of your coming visit to Palestine, I should appreciate the privilege of discussing with you my interest in working in Palestine in the field of city planning. At present I am assistant planning director of the Cleveland City Planning Commission and engage in incidental private practice as consulting city planner. For further personal identification, I am a member of your CZS executive board. If you can find time for such a visit with me perhaps your secretary can let me know time and place.

Mrs. Horwitz and I happened to be in Honolulu about three months ago visiting our daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. and Mr. Ellis Harris, when they received your letter asking them to present Willy Nordwind to the Honolulu Zionist community. We spent a very enjoyable evening with the Nordwinds.

J S GRANATSTEIN:

227 Riverside Drive,
New York 25, N.Y., Oct. 30, '46.

My dear Abba:

I 'phoned your N.Y.P.C. Committee office this morning in the hope of arranging to see you here in the event you stopped off here on the way to Cleveland. It was their impression that you would go direct to Cleveland from the Convention. I followed the last, incidentally, naturally enough, with the closest interest and great gratification, including particularly your second personal triumph, which was expected. I suppose you know that though I was not there physically, I was there fully in spirit.

I was very desirous of having a chat with you in connection with my still tentative plans to visit the folks at Palestine at an early date. I know that they are expecting me, and I am most anxious to see them at this crucial time, as you can imagine. As you know, I was ready to make the trip last June, but owing to Bessie's visit at that time, I postponed the same for the end of the year, following your good advice. Should I make the trip this December, this is the time to set about making definite arrangements with my bank, booking passage, etc. Now, what complicates the matter at this juncture, brother, is no more nor less than the question of expenses for this trip, which should run, I imagine, to about $2,000.-$2,500. Were it not for Marion's definite plans to get married late next January or beginning February - in connection with which Marion will be pleased to write you and Virginia herself - I had hoped to be able to scrape together the necessary funds for the trip out of my own reserves. But in view of the said new development, I will need those spare funds for the wedding expenditures and whatever usually goes with it. This is my present problem, Brother "Anthony".... I was thus wondering whether at least a part - say 50% - of the mentioned trip-expenses could not properly come out of the money which the folks had sent you some time ago for safe-keeping, particularly since they are not in need of same at present.

As to the trip itself, I suppose you realize, that outside of my filial love-and anxiety-interest, I would rather not make it at this particular time - a period of unrest and the winter high seas, besides, it will rob me of my usual needed summer vacation. But the time is short, and the folks are lonely, and they have ^{been} looking forward to see me for a long time - since 1927. it is, then, a most serious "must".

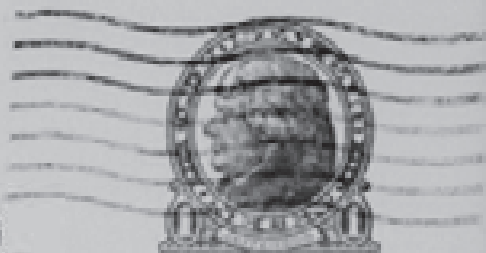

Incidentally, the Rosen Steamship Agency here informed me that they are expecting the Vulcania - the same ship on which Pessie sailed - to make a trip from here direct to Cairo about December 20. Perhaps, in this connection, and in connection with the Congress, you may have other suggestions.

I expect to write the folks about the contemplated trip upon hearing from you on the above. I would therefore thank you for an early reply.

With love to yourself, Virginia and the boys in which Jane and my children join me, I am

As ever

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I am so very sorry that at the time that I visited Cleveland last week you were not in town.

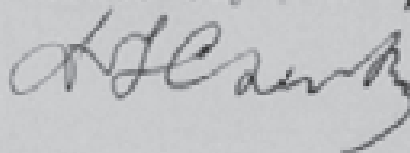

I am here in the United States on an important mission to raise funds for the construction of a new hospital in Tel Aviv for the National Sick Fund of Palestine. You know the need for such a hospital, and it would give us great pleasure if you will join with other distinguished Americans on this American Committee.

Your acceptance will be of inestimable value to the cause, and will help assure the success of our campaign.

May I anticipate your early and favorable reply.

Kindest personal regards to you and Mrs. Silver.

Rabbi A.H. Silver

My dear Rabbi Silver:

The topic you discussed yesterday was unusually interesting to me, because recently a friend of mine sent for a book to London dwelling on what men past 70 should do to prolong life, who wants me to write a Junior book on the subject of how to attain old age gracefully. We both agree that most men past seventy know a great deal as to what to do about attaining old age. What he has in mind is to point out to much younger people how to live so as to reach the age of seventy and over.

Since I became seventy, I had in mind writing such a book and now with the incentive of having some one co-laborating with me, will make it that much more interesting. The opinion of observing people is valuable in preparing the manuscript for a book, as you know from experience. That is why I want to express my appreciation for your thoughtful remarks about how to secure more out of one's life. The more interesting a person's life is, the more likely is that one to live to a ripe old age.

Twenty six years ago you was a newcomer to Cleveland and you may not have seen the enclosed article about me which appeared in the Sunday Magazine section of the Plain Dealer. For that reason I am enclosing same for such interest as it may have for you. You gave me one of your large half-tone photographs, autographed, at the time of your Silver Anniversary and this gives me the opportunity to reciprocate. As we grow older, we are apt to dispose of accumulated printed matter and such. You have plenty of time for that, as you are now about the age as I was when the article appeared. Incidentally, much water has gone over the dam in the intervening years.

With the hope that you will continue the interesting life that your calling enables you to follow, I remain

Why Am I the "Happiest Man" in Ohio

Clevelanders Tell Reason for His Claim and Outlines His Philosophy

BY FREDERIC L. WALTERS

WHEN Joseph Grossman, 1472 Crawford avenue, challenged the title of Tommy Hopkins, Ottawa, as "The Happiest Man in Ohio," and went so far as to proclaim himself the happiest man in America, he opened the floodgates to a tide of questions that almost threatened to engulf him.

Happiness! The whole world is in search of it. The hunt for gold, the struggle for power, gigantic wars have been waged only as a means to that end. Mistaken men have perjured themselves, robbed and murdered for a mistaken conception of happiness. And so when Mr. Grossman's challenge was published in The Plain Dealer, part of the world that knows Joseph Grossman stormed his office in the Electric building and demanded the key to the magic door. So Mr. Grossman began to explain, and he has been explaining ever since.

"Why am I happy?" he repeated. "But come and have lunch with me. If you want to know a man, eat with him or play with him. Don't judge him at his work, for there you will see only one side—the practical, matter-of-fact, selfish side."

The development of a morose, melancholy, shy youth, who was almost friendless, into a man with hundreds of friends, well known as a public speaker and humorist, nicknamed "Sunshine" by the Ad Club, that is the story of Joseph Grossman.

"When I was a young man," he said, "I was very studious. Night after night I withdrew to my own room, never mingling with the young people who came to my father's house. I was wholly wrapped up in myself and my books. I never went to a dance until I was 21. At last I began to realize that there was something wrong with my scheme of things, that there was more to be got out of life than I was getting. So I began to cultivate friends, and to my friends I offered only my best side. If one asked 'how are things with you,' I didn't buttonhole him and begin a history of my troubles. I told him everything was as good as gold and hoped it was the same with him."

Hard work, self-control and the ability to make friends—these are the things that bring happiness, he says. Pessimism he hates above all things.

"In 1901 I went to New York in partnership with another man for seven years," he said.

"These were the most unhappy years of my life. The work was uncongenial, my partner and I could not agree in many things and at last I decided to come back to Cleveland where I belonged and go into the insurance business. When I told my partner my decision, he only scoffed and told me I would never succeed. I have had others tell me I would never make a public speaker, and that I could never do this or I could never do that."

He paused to bang his flat on the table, while his black eyes snapped.

"The man who deliberately discourages you, who tells you that you are no good, that you will never amount to anything, that man, I say, is a criminal and ought to be treated as such.

"My mother," he continued, "was my guiding spirit. When anyone else tried to discourage me, when I lacked confidence in myself, she would say over and over again: 'You can do it, son; you can do it. Just believe you can succeed and you will.'"

He talks of hard work with the same enthusiasm that other men speak of their vacation.

"I can't understand why any man should not enjoy his work," he said.

"The greatest happiness in life comes through hard, persistent work, not too much, so that your vitality is sapped and your nervous system run down, but a full day that leaves just the right amount of pleasant fatigue and makes rest enjoyable. For how can a man enjoy his leisure time except through the contrast of hard work?"

He summed up his philosophy with this: "Live your own life as you see it, and let no obstacles stand in your way. Carry a little sunshine with you wherever you go; it is just as easy to be an optimist as to scatter the poison of pessimism. And above all things, let no one discourage you. The road to happiness is long and hard, anything that is worth while does not come easily, but, believe me, the victory is sweet."

Dear Dr. Silver,

The last time we met was at the Speaker's Conference in Cleveland before the Shekel campaign. I was still in uniform then, serving as Chaplain in the Army. I told you that I had served overseas in the Persian Gulf Command, and had visited Palestine in 1944, and 1945 on my way back to the States.

Now I am on my way again to Palestine. I sail this Wednesday -the fifth- on the Marine Carp. Part of my time will be spent at the Hebrew University under the GI Bill of Rights. The rest of the time I shall travel and visit around, and I shall offer my services to the Jewish Agency to serve in any way I can. I expect to stay until next summer. If there should be any way you feel that I can serve the cause of Zionism, please be assured that I shall be available as long as I'm there.

With best wishes and Shalom, I am,

My dear Max:

I received your ~~kind~~ letter of October 30. I am sorry that you could not attend the Convention in Atlantic City. It was a very interesting and gratifying Convention.

I am glad that you are planning to visit the folks in Palestine. I can understand the problem of expenses. There is very little left in the bank account of father. He sent me originally some $1800.00 for deposit here. Subsequently when I heard of the sharp increase in the cost of living in Palestine, I cabled him most of what he had deposited here. I think there is still a few hundred dollars left. I shall, however, be very happy to let you have about $1000.00 from my own funds. Please let me know when you plan to leave.

I am delighted to hear of Marion's definite plans to get married in January or the beginning of February. If you plan to leave for Palestine towards the end of December, I would suggest that you have the wedding postponed a bit, for you will probably not be able to get back that soon unless you will have made definite arrangements for transportation back home before you leave the United States.

My dear Dr. Silver,

As I explained to you during our interview, I could not accept a position in which I felt I would not be adequate. Therefore, I cannot accept the post of being your Secretary, attractive as it sounds, for I found I could not satisfactorily take down your lecture this morning.

May I presume to suggest the following: Since you now have a secretary who has proven capable these many years, that you do anything to keep her - even if more than a little persuasion is necessary. As I told Mr. Levy, I thought you seemed quite disinterested in obtaining a new secretary and I can't blame you, for it would be most difficult to find one who could do the work you require. My other thought is that in the event you do decide on a change, you do not consider anyone who is married. Having been Rabbi Gustenfeld's secretary, I know well the exceedingly heavy demands a Rabbi must make upon his secretary's time.

My husband, whom you met this morning, and I found your lecture very interesting and look forward to the pleasure of listening to you frequently in the future.

With my warm thanks to Mr. Levy for his kind interest, I am,

Sincerely,

Re: Josef FINKIELMAN
Czortkow, Poland

Dear Dr. Silver:

I hope you won't mind my bothering you again with regard to Sol Cohen's niece. I am deeply moved by the most wonderful family devotion shown by Sol with regard to his niece who is the only survivor of his once large family abroad. The niece has already arrived in Palestine on a certificate and I have since been working to secure a certificate for her husband, Josef Finkielman, whom she married in captivity.

Dobkin cabled you on October 23rd, 1946 as follows:

"YOURS 21/10 RE JOSEF AND RACHEL FINKIELMAN
CERTIFICATES NOW UNAVAILABLE THEREFORE NOTED
CASE SPECIAL CONSIDERATION WHEN CONDITIONS
PERMIT ALSO ASKING PALOFFICE PARIS ENABLE JOSEF JOIN WIFE PARIS VIEW WAITING THERE FOR CERTIFICATE REGARDS

DOBKIN"

Accordingly, I wish that when you meet him in Basle or perhaps in Paris, to remind him that he must fulfill his promise and enable Josef to rejoin his wife. By the time you arrive in Europe they will probably have a number of certificates at their disposal and Dobkin must be prevailed upon to allocate one to Rachel's husband right away. He must see to it that the Jewish Agency in Paris should send to Finkielman in Poland a certificate which would enable him to arrive in France and from there proceed to Palestine in order to join his wife there.

It is very likely that I may send you a cable to Basle in order to remind you of the matter. You will probably be angry at me for bothering you with such items, but I cannot help it and I know you will do anything you can for Sol.

With kindest regards, I am

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I have just received your letter with the enclosed cheque for $250. That you gave time and thought, in the midst of your many pre-occupations, to keeping me in funds shows an admirable sense of order, which I trust may also prove a blessing in our Zionist affairs.

As a matter of fact the previous remittance of $500 was just exhausted, and you rightly guessed the moment to replenish the fund.

--- I attach hereto a short note specifying the heads of expenditure.

Your parents are as well as can be expected, and I am greatly assisted by young Mr. Zyman. Help must be changed very frequently, as no one agrees to stay a long time.

I am not going this time to the Congress. We shall all pray and hope that the deliberations may lead to a healing of the present distressed state of minds and bodies alike.

With all good wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Da ich bis zum heiligen Tage ohne Zuweisung einer Arbeit bin, so erlaube ich mir Ihre Güte in Anspruch zu nehmen. Ich bin 66 Jahre alt, meine Frau ist 63 Jahre alt. Ich war in Wien (Österreich) jahrelang Buchhalter, spreche deutsch, ungarisch, slowakisch, etwas italienisch und besuche jetzt die englische Schule. Da ich infolge meines Alters und jahrelanger Entbehnungen keine schwere Arbeit verrichten kann, so möchte ich Sie höflich bitten, wenn möglich mir wegen einer Beschäftigung behilflich zu sein.

Für Ihre freundliche Hilfe
in Form besten Dank

Hochachtungsvoll

My dear Friend:

Thank you so much for your kindness in sending to The Temple Library a very interesting Passover Haggadah. It is a most welcome addition to our collection of valuable Hebrew books.

I trust that you are well and I hope that I may have the pleasure of seeing you in the near future. With all good wishes,
I remain

Most cordially yours,

Dear Mr. Willard:

In reply to your communication of Nov. 21st, I am glad to inform you that I am going to send you next week two copies of the "En Kelohenu", without harp arrangement, just for voice and organ.

Let me again emphasize that no copy may be made of the copies I am going to send you, since the piece is copyrighted but not yet published.

No choral or other arrangement may be made from it without my consent.

With best greetings, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Eric Werner.

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver

Dear Rabbi Silver

I am writing to you in your capacity as president of the Zionist Organization of America to secure whatever assistance you are able to afford us in obtaining a scholarship grant for a young man who is registered with us.

This young man, Herbert Hans Heller, originally of Vienna, came here from Palestine last year in order to study electrical engineering at Case. He intends to return to Palestine on completion of his studies. Although he has attained an exceptional record during the one semester he completed at Case (four A's and two B's), he has been told by the school that there are no scholarship resources open to him. Mr. Heller has funds to complete the present semester of school, but will be unable to pay his way any farther. Assuming that he works part time during the school year and full time during the summer, he will need about $3,500 to complete his schooling.

As secretary of the local Joint Educational Loan Committee, which combines the scholarship resources of the Council of Jewish Women, the Jewish Welfare Federation and the Educational League, I am prepared to present his request to that committee. I know, however, from recent experience, that chances for securing such a sizeable sum from our committee are quite slim.

I am therefore writing to you in the hope that you might know of some resource through one of the Zionist organizations which might be available to Mr. Heller. I have worked with Dr. Falkman in attempting to secure funds through the local organization without success. Mr. Heller would, of course, be available for an audience with you at any time if you so desire.

Respectfully yours,

CERTIFICATE

The undersigned manager of the Academy of Music (Conservatoire de Musique) of Geneva declares that:

1) Mr. Laszlo Krausz teaches since 1942 the concerted music class of our Academy of Music.

2) The Academy of Music of Geneva, created in 1835, is the oldest and most important Swiss academy of music and enjoys universal reputation. It issues certificates (professional diplomas, virtuosity prizes) which are equivalent to University diplomas.

3) Mr. Laszlo Krausz is a distinguished artist from the following three points of view:

a) as pedagogue he appeared an excellent professor who remarkably teaches his pupils;

b) as executing artist he holds the position of a solo viola in the "Orchestre de la Suisse Romande" (Orchestra of French-Switzerland), a first class orchestra which can be compared with the best of the world.

He often played solo in great concerts and may be considered as one of the best violist of our time.

c) as conductor of the orchestra he has conducted the said "Orchestre de la Suisse Romande", the orchestra of Basle and others.

4) We can recommend Mr. Laszlo Krausz in all respects. He is of high moral conduct and of noble and unselfish mind.

If Mr. Krausz leaves Geneva, he will be missed by everyone. But his residence in the United States would be an enrichment for that country owing to the exceptional talent of this artist.

Mr. Edward M. H. Warburg
550 Park Avenue
New York City

Dear Mr. Warburg:

As a large contributor to the United Jewish Appeal, I am writing you with reference to a matter which, I believe requires your serious consideration:

For your information, my contributions to UJA were as follows:

1939 - - -	$20,000.
40	22,000.
41	10,000.
42	2,500.
43	2,500.
44	5,000.
45	10,000.
46	65,500.

The reason for the drop in contributions during the war years was that I felt the monies would never reach the Jews in Europe. I might have been wrong, but feeling as I did, I certainly was not going to take any chances of enriching the Nazi treasury or any other countries that were anti-semitic. As you will notice, with the end of the war I increased my contributions, and in 1946 contributed $65,500.

I am writing you all this because I am also interested in the defense of the Jew in this country, being interested in the Anti-Defamation League, which is part of the Joint Defense Appeal for fund-raising purposes. I feel the UJA and the J DA are interlocked. I cannot see how a Jew in Europe could get very much help from the Jews in America if the American Jew lost his status.

Inasmuch as we business men are being taxed entirely too much on these various drives (and I hear this from a lot of business men) all causes - good and bad - are going to be affected materially unless there are less individual drives. Therefore, insofar as the two causes mentioned depend greatly on one another, I feel the coming year (incidentally, it is not going to be an easy year in which to get money) there should be one drive made for both causes. As to percentages, I feel that can be easily adjusted.

Of course, the United Jewish Appeal Drive has great appeal for the Jews of America, especially in New York, but so has the Joint Defense Appeal, because in the latter case they say "Let's defend ourselves, so we can defend others". Furthermore, the Joint Defense Appeal has terrific romance in its fund-raising.

Knowing your great interest in Jewry, I am writing you, and sending copies to:

Dear Dr. Silver:

I am enclosing herein copy of letter I have written Mr. Edward M. M. Warburg.

The reason I have written Mr. Warburg as I did is because I understand there have been negotiations between the United Jewish Appeal and the Joint Defense Appeal of the Metropolitan Section to have one campaign for fund raising in the year 1947 naturally, with the funds allocated properly to both organizations.

I know you must have heard rumblings from many of your friends, just as I have, that there are too many dinners, too many drives, causing too much time to be consumed unnecessarily. Consequently I have taken the position I outline in my letter to Mr. Warburg. I know there are many, many more contributors who feel the same way I do. Therefore, at this time, I really feel an expression by you to Mr. Warburg in the interests of Jewry is in order.

Sincerely yours,

LL/arb

Dear Friends:

In the absence of Rabbi Silver, who is attending the Zionist Congress in Basle, Switzerland, I take the liberty of sending you a message of profound sympathy in your hour of great bereavement. I know that Rabbi Silver held Mr. Rosenberg in high regard, and he will be greatly missed in the many activities where he served so well. I am sure that you will hear from my husband upon his return, but in the meantime I wanted you to have a word from his household.

With profound sympathy, I am

לכבוד

ד"ר אבא הלל פילבר, ראש
הסוכנות היהודית בארצות הברית,
ניו יורק, נ.י.

ד"ר פילבר היקר:

יום ההכרעה הגדולה, שלו ציפינו בהרבה לב, עומד מאחרי כהלנו, כנסת האומות
המאוחדות, זה בית דינה של האנושיות, עומדה להכריז על הקוממה של מדינת ישראל בארץ
ישראל. כל לב בישראל פועם ומחפץ לקראת המאורע הגדול בחולדות גלויה וענוה של
האומה, העומד להחריש לנינינו.

לשעה גדולה זו אנו אומרים להוציא גליון מיוחד של "הדאר", בהשחפות ראשי
עמנו בארץ הזאת ונושאי דברו בחיים ובספרות, שישם ארשת-מה לרחשי הנל והרוממות
המלאים אותנו בשעה זו, וגם ציון-מה לדרך בה נלך ולעמידה אשר נחכנו לנו עם
השינוי העמוק והיסודי הזה במערכות חיינו בעולם.

ואני פונה אליך, כאל ראש הסוכנות היהודית בארץ הזאת ושליח האומה כולה לפני
כס האומות המאוחדות, אשר חלקך רב כל כך בהשגת המטרה הגדולה, להשתחרר אחנו בגליון
זה בפרי רוחך והרגשתך.

אורך סאר אם אקבל את דברך בראשית השבוע הבא.

בברכה הגאולה,

מנחם ריבולוב
