Dear Rabbi Silver,
Last night, my husband and I were privileged to attend the New Year's services at The Temple. Although I am a convertant, it has been many years since I last attended. If all goes well.

we hope to regain next year.

However, I particularly wanted to tell you how much we enjoyed your sermon.
During the past four years
we have lost much of our family suddenly and quite tragically and I'm ashamed to admit that it left me with a frustrated feeling of futility and fear for the future. Last night I felt particularly low when your sermon just "hit the spot."
It gave me a fresh outlook and sense of proportion. It was a much needed spiritual
-lift.
Just wanted you to know

how much you have helped and to thank you.

May you and your loved ones have a happy and healthy New Year.

Sincerely,
Guth (Dorsey) Cohen

Sept. 15, 1953

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I don't know if you will remember me, Frances Cheitel, your confirmation class of 1933.

No matter where I have lived during the past years, I still think of you as "my Rabbi". This being the case, I felt that I could come to you with a problem that has been annoying me for some time.

I am sure that you are familiar with the American Council for Judaism. I am also sure that you must have seen some of the literature that they put out. However, just in case you haven't, I am sending you this latest magazine.

It is true that this is a democracy and that we have free speech, but why must an organization such as this deliberately color and misinterpret facts? And what can we do to stop them? I feel that this sort of thing can deal a terrible blow to the Jews here. Goodness knows that there is enough anti-semitism without letting a weapon like this get into the hands of bigoted people.

My husband belongs to B'nai B'rith, I to Hadassah; we support the UJA, belong to the Zionist Organization, are members of Anshe Emet Synagogue, give to the Jewish Charities of Chicago, support everything possible in connection with our race, to say nothing of supporting the projects of the community at large, what else can I do to counteract this American Council for Judaism?

Mrs. Milton M. Cohn

3400 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago 13, Illinois

I'm not an "ardent Zionist" in the sense that I want to live in Israel, but I do believe in the movement and want to retain the State of Israel. Do you remember my mother, Sara Cheitel (Grossman) ? She used to teach at the Temple, and you two had many talks about how wonderful it would be to have the State of Israel. She and my step-father went there for a visit last summer. The accounts they brought back were simply glowing. We hope to make the trip in another year or so.

I hope that I haven't bothered you too much, but I do wish that you'd straighten me out on this thing. I would like to help clarify this if possible. Thank you very much.

Sincerely yours,

Milton Cohn

Dear Rabbi:

First I want to wish you and your family a very Happy New Year.

You were wondering why I did not send you a copy of my composition as you had requested, and this is because it has not as yet been printed.

I have been advised to have some appropriate pictures drawn on every page. This is taking time, and just as soon as it will be ready it will be my pleasure to send you a copy.

I am sure you will be happy to hear that in nine months my only son will be graduated from Medical School.

With warmest regards and best wishes, I am

Dear Rabbi Silver:

You will, I believe, be interested in three of the decisions of the Mr. and Mrs. Club Board.

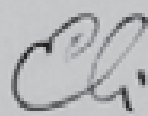

We examined the oil lamp proposed as a memorial for Fred Sands, and the majority of the Board did not see this particular item as the memorial gift. Although final decision was postponed to our next Board meeting, I do not think the decision will be in favor of purchase. The reason seems to be that the roughness of the work does not appeal to those members of the Board who are unappreciative of the item's historical background. Perhaps you will wish to acquire the item from other available funds and leave our group for the time being on the waiting list.

Norman Klivans has been appointed to head our committee on solicitation of funds for the parking lot project. It has been suggested that he discuss with both you and Mr. Luntz how our committee can be most effective.

The Board received most enthusiastically the report on the Covered Dish Supper at Home (or better, at Homes) with you as mystery guest via recording. The Temple attendance committee plans its first breakfast before Services on October 25, and it is hoped that you will be able to link your sermon for that Sunday to the questions which arise at the home meetings some nine days before.

Best wishes for the New Year.

Cordially yours,

Eli Goldston

Now that the rush of the Holy Day season is over, I want to write to you and tell you how very happy I am that you and your wife have joined The Temple fellowship. I trust that you will find much pleasure in your association. I understand that you were at services on Yom Kippur. I regret that I did not see you to extend to you in person my good wishes for the coming year.

I want to tell you especially how proud I was of the fact that you paid reverence to your faith and the Holy Day of Yom Kippur by not playing on that day. I read the announcement in the public press with a great deal of pride.

My dear Joe:

Please pardon the delay in answering your letter. I have been immersed in Holiday work and my correspondence has lagged. I wish I could attend the Testimonial Dinner which will be given in your honor on Sunday, November 1st. It would give me great pleasure indeed to attend, but I simply cannot leave Cleveland on a Sunday — I preach on that day and I have, as a rule, quite a number of other congregational functions to attend on that day. I trust that you will understand.

I shall be very happy to send a message on that occasion because a testimonial to you is highly deserved.

My dear Friend:

I am enclosing herewith two copies of the address which I delivered back in November 1948 shortly after the establishment of the State of Israel before the Fortieth Assembly of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations which was held in Boston. The address was printed in Liberal Judaism in January of 1949. It is also included in my volume, "Vision and Victory", a collection of my Zionist papers, which was published in 1949.

The position contained in this programmatic paper I have had occasion to restate time and again before many audiences, both Jewish and non-Jewish.

My dear Alvin:

First of all, a very Happy New Year to you and yours and best wishes for the coming season.

I am writing to you in behalf of Gloria Stotter, a confirmand of The Temple and the daughter of old members. She is at present working in San Francisco and is living at 3401 Clay Street. Her mother is most anxious for her to become acquainted with some young people in your community and to become active at the Temple. Would you be good enough to drop her a line asking her to come in to see you so that arrangements might be made for her to attend one of your young people's affairs.

With many thanks and trusting that this finds you in good health, I remain

Dear Rabbi Silver,

My mother
asked me to thank you for the beautiful altar flowers which came for her this week. She is regaining her strength and hopes to be back home this weekend. She appreciated the flowers and they helped to brighten her room. Again many thanks,

Sincerely

Dear Dr. Silver:

I have just arrived in this Country to participate in the Inter-Parliamentary Union Conference in Washington and I should like to take this first opportunity to send you my greetings and best wishes.

I expect to be in this Country until November 15th. I am leaving for Washington and shall return to New York within a week. The remainder of my itinerary is rather unclear since the Bond Corporation is asking me to address meetings in various parts of the Country.

However, I am very anxious to meet with you and wonder whether you already know your own plans for the next 5 or 6 weeks; whether you intend to be in New York at all, or whether you will remain in Cleveland.

I would appreciate your writing to me at this address, and in the meanwhile, Hope that I shall have the pleasure of seeing you in the course of my stay in this Country.

Best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

George Fleisch.

George Fleisch, M.P.

P.S. I have just received a copy of my itinerary -

While in Washington, D. C., I will be staying at the Sheraton Park Hotel (until October 14th).

I will be in Cleveland on October 25th.

For the remainder of my stay in this Country, my address will be the Roosevelt Hotel.

Dear Uncle Abba:

Since my return from Israel just about two years ago, during my ministry here in Pittsburgh I have had numerous occasions to speak in behalf of Israel and Bonds and the United Jewish Appeal in general. I am anxious to extend the present limited sphere of my speaking for the UJA, assuming they can use another good speaker. Who is the best person to contact in this UJA speaking work? I would greatly appreciate if you could suggest such a contact for me. While my rabbinical duties are naturally many, at the same time, as an assistant I do have some extra time which I would love to devote towards this end. Needless to say, after listening to many of the "schleppers" they send out from the New York office to argue the case for Israel or the UJA, I do think that my speaking services in this connection would be of immeasurable worth to the cause.

Otherwise all is well here in Pittsburgh. We are moving to larger quarters at the end of this week. What with the new baby expected in January we need the additional bedroom. Our new home is handy to the Temple and it's very gracious living.

My love to Aunt Virginia and Ray in which Ruth Lee joins me.

As ever,

Harold

My dear Friend:

From Harold Manson I learned recently that you have not been well and from him I also received word this morning that you are definitely on the mend. He also sent me the name of the hospital where you are confined, and I send you this word of greeting and good wishes.

I cannot understand that a man as intelligent and as busy as you are would want to get sick,- and at your age too. You have too much to do in the world, so that you had better get out of the hospital as rapidly as you can and get to work.

The last I read from you was a very fine article which you wrote covering the ZOA convention. We need more of that kind of thoughtful writing among our people.

Mrs. Silver joins me in sending you warmest regards and all good wishes for a complete and speedy recovery. Please convey our good wishes also to Mrs. Israeli.

Most cordially yours,

Dear Rabbi,

George and I would like you to know how much we appreciated The Temple's Memorial Service - and your message. Directly following, as it did, the death of my mother - and just ten months after my father's death - that Saturday evening experience was the first real comfort

I had. There is virtually nothing that can be said
during such a sad time that alleviates grief. Comfort, we've discovered, must come from within. You helped me when I needed help - and I'm grateful.

Dear Rabbi & Mrs. Silver:

Well, the Carsons are at home after a most pleasant two-day honeymoon, but we were both happy to settle down to the business of living. David returned to the University this morning, and I proceeded to tear apart two well-refined and orderly apartment in anticipation of the arrival of my personal effects.

The principal topic of conversation between us, as between all Carsons, Federmans and Rice is our beautiful wedding. What can we say to tell you not only how deeply appreciative we are but how profoundly humbled we felt? There is just no way to say thank you adequately & no way to show you the depth of our gratitude.

Your gracious hospitality to us and to our families, your generous gifts of heart and your matchless charm are things we shall never forget, nor will anyone who was present at our wedding.

Thank you, thank you, thank you.
You made a wonderfully memorable occasion for every bride and groom, one that has the rich significance of a unique, momentous event, and we shall never forget your kindness to us. God bless you both.

With deep affection -

David & Elizabeth

October 15, 1953

My dear Dan:

It is a long time since I have written to you. I have been so very busy with the opening of Temple activities and services here and with special engagements, that I have really not had time to get around to do the things I wanted to do.

Yesterday we received your lovely pictures at the Succah and on the football field. It was good to see you in action on both scores.

I reread your article which appeared in The Reconstructionist with keen pleasure. I have since heard from quite a number of people who read it and who commented on it most favorably. We reprinted it in The Temple Bulletin this week and I am enclosing a copy.

Since the last communication with Joshua Goldberg, which I sent you, I have not heard from him. I expect to hear in the very near future; if not, I shall communicate with him again.

I need not tell you that the information which you conveyed in one of your recent letters, that your Head Chaplain recommended you for a special mark of distinction, filled me with pride no end.

Raphael is finally settled in New York in the kind of work which he likes best. I feel that he will do well. The heads of his organization in New York attended the wedding of Max Freedman's daughter last Sunday, and Mother and I had the opportunity of meeting and chatting with them. The organization he is connected up with is a very representative and reputable one and of very large scale. For the moment and until such time as he finds permanent quarters, he is living at the Commodore Hotel in New York City.

Our Sunday Morning Services began auspiciously last Sunday morning with a very good attendance. At noon the same day, I addressed a national conference of the United Jewish Appeal which was held at the Statler Hotel.

October 15, 1953

Next week Ohio celebrates its sesquicentennial with a tribute to the Famous Sons of Ohio, in which I have been included. This means that I will have to participate in a parade and a banquet; also in a television show. That too will pass away.

The weather in these parts has been perfectly glorious and Mother and I are fine. Occasionally we get time for a walk. I'm sure that Mother has written you about other gossip and news.

With all good wishes.

October 15, 1953

Dear Friend:

We are taking the liberty of mailing to you, under separate cover, a copy of Abraham Baer's "Ba-al T'fillah", the first in our series of reprints of "Out-of-Print Classics of Cantorial Liturgy". We wish you to see at first hand, the nature and quality of our project.

The remaining volumes to be published, about 35 in all, will include representative works of the eastern and western tradition, all proven classics. Most of the collection are for cantor, soloists and choir, some for choir or cantor alone. All are at the present time either wholly out-of-print or obtainable only at rare-book prices.

We have undertaken to publish these great and sorely needed works at a price every cantor, synagogue and library can afford - a total of $175.00 for the series (35 volumes bound as 25 books). We feel this is a once-in-a-life-time opportunity to acquire a standard collection of the classics of synagogue music, all uniformly printed, in the same format as the Baer.

That is why we are sending you this volume. Keep it ten days, and examine it at your leisure. If you wish to subscribe, send us your check for $50.00 as a Charter Subscriber, and $5.00 for the Baer, plus 50 cents for mailing and handling, (total $55.50). If not, return the volume to us (return postage is included herewith).

Trusting we may hear from you promptly that you are joining our Charter Subscribers, we are

Very sincerely yours,

Good News for all Synagogue Musicians

Libraries, cantors, choir-directors, choral singers and others interested in the field of Jewish sacred music, have long been hampered by the fact that important basic liturgical works like Baer, Lewandowski, Sulzer, Naumbourg, Weintraub, Gerowitsch, etc., have been out of print.

You have been able to obtain these indispensable works, when at all, only on a rare-book basis, usually at exorbitant prices.

Encouraged by the response to its publication of the first volume of Katchko's Thesaurus of Cantorial Liturgy, the Hebrew Union School of Sacred Music, in sponsoring the Sacred Music Press, has undertaken to make the Out-of-Print Liturgical Classics available again —

Dear Rabbi:

I have not as yet completely separated myself from you or the Temple, and I know that 3 weeks from today, on November 8th, you will be speaking in Pittsburgh on the campus of the University.

David & I would be very happy to have you at our home for dinner preceding the meeting, or if you prefer, after the meeting for coffee. If you can find the time to be with us, we plan to invite Harold Silver & his wife. They live a block from the Stephen Foster Memorial where you will be speaking, & also a block from either the Schenley or the Hotel Hall Hotels, at one of which you will undoubtedly be staying.

I know how limited your time will be & we shall, of course, understand if you find it impossible to accept. In any event, we are planning to attend the meeting and will see you anyhow. However, if you feel up to accepting a bride's culinary efforts, we'd be most happy.

All the Cannons are waiting about the beautiful wedding which you & Mrs Silver gave us, which none of us will ever forget. Please give our love to Mrs Silver.

Truly,

Elizabeth

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Where were your protests when Arabs Killed Jewish women and children, and American rabbi and his daughter? Where were the U.N. troops - so freely used in enforcing U.N. policies in Korea - when Arab armies attacked U.N.-created Israel?

By withholding aid to Israel, while pampering the feudal Arab states, you are jeopardizing the friendship of the only democratic nation in the Near East.

Don't let petroleum be the determining factor for your policies in that part of the world. It is no substitute for common decency.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

While returning from Cleveland to Chicago yesterday, I read the enclosed letter to the New York Times. This "slick" Forrestal style letter stresses again the current threat to us Jews from the Republican oil interests, claiming to be the American interests. This letter is very careful to avoid any outspoken language: it is the more serious, just as is the present trend of Mr. Dulles' policies.

Since you have the ear of the President and of the New York Times, will you speak up on our behalf once more.

To me it would seem that the suspension of the loan and the Security Council action are no mere coincident.

I feel that my pro-Israel attitude is compatible with loyalty to my country. How often will we have to hear the insinuation of the oil men to have us silenced in the true American interest.

Will you, dear Rabbi, kindly stop them: your prestige as a Jewish leader is at stake.

Very sincerely yours,

H. M. Meyer

Planning Soil Conservation

Promoting Sound Land Use Through Government Payments Advocated

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEW YORK TIMES:

The record should be straightened out with regard to the sweeping generalization by William Vogt in his Oct. 14 letter to THE TIMES. He is justly worried over the tons of topsoil which wash into our rivers and streams daily. But just why this situation, an age-old one, makes "the conservation record of the Roosevelt-Truman Administration . . . one of the worst in the recent history of our country" is hard to see.

It is true that too much corn is being planted in Colorado. Too many fields are being sown with wheat in western Oklahoma. Crops on thousands of marginal and submarginal acres this side of the Mississippi are wasting the precious fertility of the earth. Dust is blotting out the sun again in the Southwest, and more and more farms are being abandoned in the East. Hundreds of people, including many public officials at all levels of government—far from enough—are constantly working with this serious problem.

Agencies Commended

Soil conservation payments, however, have made inroads into the situation. The T. V. A. has brought new life to many Southern farms and taken many acres out of agriculture that never should have been there. On the whole, the handiwork of the Forest Service, the Bureau of Reclamation and Land Management and other conservation agencies in recent years belongs in America's credit column. Mr. Vogt is much readier than I am to write off all of these efforts, underfinanced though they have been.

Instead of issuing alarmist statements that hold very little water and damning past efforts which really deserve moderate praise Mr. Vogt would do better to push home his point that conservation payments can be made a "powerful conservation tool" to enforce sound land-use practices more than they have in the past.

There is little or no reason to think the present Administration will realize this fact and take advantage of it. Already the heart has been cut out of most of the long-range planning in Interior and Agriculture, as has been done in Defense and other departments. Conservation measures, by definition, are based on long-range thinking. At the moment, however, conservation is poor political business and will probably remain so for years to come.

We ought to be very worried about the drain on America's natural resources, but we ought also to give credit where credit is due.

Our Attitude Toward Israel

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEW YORK TIMES:

Eric Johnston's Presidential mission to "Ease Middle East Tension," to quote your headlines, is bound to fail as miserably as Neville Henderson's mission to pre-war Germany. This writer has just returned from a four-month study tour of the Arab states and Israel and can state unequivocally that there is not the remotest possibility of bringing the two sides together in economic projects with a view of reducing the disturbing frictions. The latest Jordan-Israel outbreak is but one of many incidents which have been recurring for four years wherever the borders of the new state impinge on Arab territory.

Even if there were some indication that the goal of the Eisenhower Administration were achievable, Mr. Johnston's own record on the Palestine question makes him about the most ineligible ambassador for the task.

The formula for achieving Middle East peace lies in Washington, and it is relatively simple: Let the United States treat Israel as she does any other foreign state and arrive at policy decisions on the basis of what is in the best interests of the nation as a whole, not in terms of so many votes in the next election. The late Secretary of Defense, James V. Forrestal, in his published Diaries, in replying to the argument of the Chairman of the Democratic National Committee that certain actions regarding Palestine might lose the electoral vote of certain states, retorted: "I think that it is about time that somebody should pay some consideration to whether we might not lose the United States."

If the American politicians, both Republican and Democratic, permitted Secretary Dulles and the State Department to treat the foreign state of Israel in a normal fashion Mr. Johnston could save himself a trip, Uncle Sam could save some money for the taxpayer and the Western World could still save several hundred million more human beings of the Moslem world from going the way of Communist China.

Dear Rabbi Silver,

The threats to liberty of which you spoke on Sunday, it strikes me, are rather "asked for" by those most nearly involved. The liberties of our whole people are most nearly threatened, I think, by mechanical and technological advancements which cannot be made to stop short of the destruction of our civilization unless we avail ourselves of ^{activated} means that teach respect for the achievements of civilization and compassion as ideals.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

I am enclosing herewith photostatic copy of letter received from Mr. Jakob Altmaier, member of German Parliament, together with translation of this letter. You are fully familiar with his contribution to the Israeli cause.

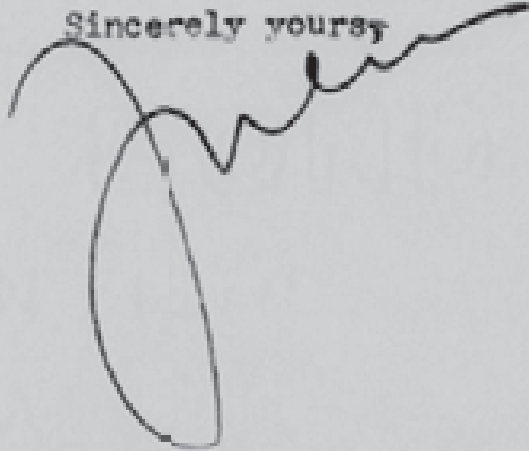

Mr. Altmaier has done Israel and our Jewish brethren a service which no one can afford to forget. His unceasing, unselfish and devoted efforts to the cause made it possible for the Agreement in Bonn to be concluded. This courageous fighter, it seems to me, certainly deserves some kind of recognition. It just does not seem right that he should be completely neglected, and I am sure you will agree with me.

His record speaks for itself and should not remain in oblivion.

To be frank, his letter has embarrassed me very much. I wish you would give it your earnest consideration.

I look forward to hearing from you and I am, with kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

Julius Klein/hl

Translation of letter received from the Honorable Jakob Altmair, Member of German Parliament, Bonn, Germany, October 8, 1953.

The Hon. General Julius Klein
110 South Dearborn Street
Chicago 3, Illinois

Dear General:

Your kind letter of September 23rd has been received by me and I am not only happy to have heard from you, but greatly honored. Thank you so much for your congratulations and good wishes.

I hope you will pardon my late reply. Immediately after the election I had to leave for Strassburg where the European Council convened and I returned here on October 4th only. There was a volume of letters awaiting my attention and since, I, myself, have to take care of the replies — I cannot afford a secretary — the answers are delayed.

Day before yesterday Parliament was reconvened, three days of every week I have to devote to my constituents and therefore you can well understand the volume of work which I have to take care of. I was determined to reject any election or candidacy because my health is not up to par, however it was impossible for me to evade the pressure of my Party and of my constituents and I am one of the few of our Party who were re-elected in a "direct election." What I can do though, I am not quite sure of.

The Israeli Agreement which in 1949 I considered to be my mandate, has long been settled and so has the Agreement concerning reparation. However, hardly anybody has found it necessary to express his appreciation for my efforts in this matter. On the contrary. I am still waiting for just a note from Dr. Nahum Goldman, let alone the fact that no one ever bothered to ask me whether I had any expenses during those two years of hard work and many travels I devoted to this problem. It is a sad chapter — but I guess that is life. I want to add, though, that both Federal President Heuss and Dr. Adenauer have expressed their appreciation. The tactlessness on the part of my Jewish brethren has of course hurt that much more.

I shall never forget your visit in Bonn and the good fortune which made it possible that you intervened during the very dark hour when it looked as if everything had been lost after the negotiations in The Hague had failed.

Among the letters awaiting my reply there is also a letter from the News Research Service, in Los Angeles, signed by Mr. Joseph Roos. Mr. Roos asks that I depict to him the part which you played during your visit in Bonn. I will send it to him within the next few days as soon as I have some leisure.

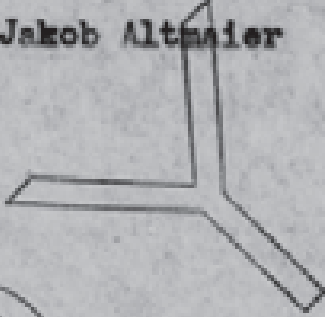

I have never received an invitation to visit America and attend the convention early last year. However, I am very grateful for your efforts on my behalf at the time.

Since I have not seen my brother in New York for more than 15 years, and since my own health is such that I do not expect to enjoy life much longer -- I have a serious heart condition -- I feel that I must have to try and get to America this coming December. I have already put in my application for boat reservation and I hope that I shall see you soon in the United States and I will then express to you in person my gratefulness.

I am with my kindest personal regards and every good wish,

Sincerely yours,

Dear General,

Ihre frdl. Zeilen vom 23.9.53. waren mir eine ebenso grosse Ehre wie Freude. Ich danke Ihnen recht herzlich für die Glückwünsche und die guten Worte.

Verzeihen Sie, bitte, wenn ich Ihren Brief erst heute beantworten kann. Sofort nach den Wahlen musste ich zur Tagung des Europa-Rates nach Strassburg, von wo ich erst am 4 Oktober zurückgekommen bin. Hier erwarteten mich Stösse von Briefen, und weil ich sie alle selbst beantworten muss - ich kann mir keinen Sekretär leisten - verzögern sich immer die Antworten. Vorgestern hat sich das Parlament wieder konstituiert, drei Tage in jeder Woche muss ich in meinem Wahlkreis verbringen, und so können Sie sich vorstellen, welche Last und Arbeit auf einem einzelnen Menschen ruht. Ich selbst wollte unter keinen Umständen mehr ein Mandat annehmen, weil es mir auch gesundheitlich nicht zum besten geht. Ich konnte jedoch dem Drängen der Partei und den Menschen meines Wahlkreises nicht davon laufen, und ich bin einer der Wenigen unserer Partei, der in direkter Wahl wiedergewählt wurde. Welche Aufgabe ich allerdings noch zu erfüllen hätte, sehe ich nicht recht. Der Israel-Vertrag, den ich 1949 als meine Aufgabe ansah, ist längst unter Dach und Fach und auch das Gesetz über die innere Wiedergutmachung, obwohl mir kaum jemand auch nur seinen Dank ausgesprochen hat. Im Gegenteil. Ich warte heute noch auf ein einziges Wort von Dr. Nahum Goldman, geschweige dass mich irgend jemand gefragt hätte, ob ich auch in einer zweijährigen Arbeit und vielen Reisen für diese Sache auch Spesen gehabt hätte. Ein trauriges Kapitel, aber so ist die Welt. Bedankt haben sich allerdings Bundespräsident Heuss und Dr. Adenauer. Umso verletzender habe ich die Taktlosigkeit von jüdischer Seite empfunden.

Unvergessen bleibt mir Ihr Besuch in Bonn und Ihr glückliches Eingreifen in einer sehr schwarzen Stunde, als es schien, dass alles verloren sei, nachdem die Verhandlungen in Den Haag zusammengebrochen waren.

Unter den Briefen, die hier liegen, befindet sich auch einer von dem "News Research Service", Los Angeles, unterzeichnet von Mr. Joseph Roos. Mr. Roos bittet mich um eine Darstellung Ihrer Rolle während Ihres damaligen Besuches in Bonn. Ich werde sie ihm in den nächsten Tagen zusenden, sobald ich etwas freier atmen kann.

Eine Einladung nach Amerika und zu dem genannten Kongress habe ich nie bekommen. Für Ihre frdl. Bemühungen jedoch nachträglich meinen aufrichtigen Dank.

Nachdem ich meinen in New York lebenden Bruder in 15 Jahren nicht mehr gesehen habe und meine Gesundheit nicht so ist, dass ich noch auf lange Lebensdauer rechnen könnte, ich leide an einer starken Herzkrankheit, muss ich diese Reise im Dezember unter allen Umständen zustande bringen. Ich habe bereits eine Schiffskarte bestellt, und so hoffe ich sehr, Sie in den USA bald zu sehen und Ihnen für Ihre Liebenswürdigkeit persönlich meinen Dank abstaten zu können.

In dieser Hoffnung sende ich Ihnen meine herzlichen Grusse und besten Wünsche.

Ihr sehr ergebener

Dear Rabbi

At yesterdays services you asked for greater volume when the congregation sang the hymn and I agree with this 100%.

In fact I am discussing this matter with Gene Miester and Stuart Halle just as I am addressing this note to you.

It is our contention that we are stymied a great many times as you give us a hymn that is unfamiliar to us.

We can read the words but not the music.

Therefore we suggest we have a rehearsal during the week and come to Temple prepared to "give out" lustily.

I want to repeat to you that the introduction of additional Hebrew into the services pleases me very much.

Dear Sir:

From pre election days I have felt that Israel would be out of favor if the Republican party was victorious. Evidently my fears were justified.

But I would like an official explanation of the reason you so severely denounce an attack on the Arabs, and never denounce Arab attacks on Israel, or the murder of an American woman (Debby Gensner of Seattle, Washington, U. S. A.) visiting Israel. Or have you ever denounced the Arab defiance of the United Nations edicts which have existed from the very beginning.

Regardless of religious belief the citizens of this country have not forgotten that the Arabs sided with our enemies in two wars in spite of all the favors you extend them, and would probably do so again when the chips are down.

Also I am sure the ex service men, - of which I have the honor to be one, - (I was wounded in action) do not forget the great help given us by Palestine at times when help was so terribly needed.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

On October 18, 1953, a friend and myself attended your morning service and enjoyed so much your treatment of "Are we losing our liberties?" Since we could not be present the following Sunday to hear you speak on the subject "Twenty Questions", we wondered if you have a copy of this which we might have. I am particularly interested in this discussion because I am considering conversion to Judaism. I have enclosed a self-addressed envelop should you have a copy.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

Re: Application of Jere Broh-Kahn

On behalf of the Ohio Rhodes Scholarship Committee, I express our appreciation for your letter on the qualifications of the abovenamed candidate. Competition in Ohio for Rhodes Scholarships is keen and it has always been difficult to select the 2 best candidates out of a large group. In making this selection we give great weight to the considered appraisals which we get from persons who know the candidate well and who are qualified to judge his capabilities. We thank you for your important cooperation in this selection process.

The 2 Ohio representatives will be named after a thorough study of each candidate's papers by each member of the State Committee, and after a personal interview - set for December 9, 1953 - between the entire Committee and each of a group of some 8-10 candidates whose papers support a preference (for this particular purpose) over the remaining applicants. The 2 Ohio representatives will then appear on December 12 before the District Committee, where they will compete with 10 picked candidates from the States of Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan and Wisconsin for a total of 4 Scholarships.

We assure you that each applicant before the Ohio Committee will be carefully considered, and his potentialities judged to the best of our ability.

Very truly yours,

Joseph C. Little,
Secretary

Rhodes Scholarships

Committee of Selection for

Referring to the application of.....Jere Broh-Kahn.....

Dear Sir:

The man whose name is given above is a candidate for a Rhodes Scholarship before our Committee of Selection this year. I shall be grateful if you will send me a frank and confidential statement regarding his qualifications. Your prompt compliance with this request will be of great assistance to the applicant and deeply appreciated by the Committee of Selection.

In making its selections the Committee is governed by that section of Cecil Rhodes's will in which he specified the four groups of qualities he desired in his scholars: (1) literary and scholastic ability and attainments; (2) qualities of manhood, truth, courage, devotion to duty, sympathy, kindliness, unselfishness, and fellowship; (3) exhibition of moral force of character and of instincts to lead and to take an interest in his fellows; (4) physical vigor, as shown by fondness for and success in sports.

The selection is not made, however, on any system of averaging up a man's qualifications under all these heads. Committees are interested instead in men who show promise of outstanding achievement in later life in their particular callings. For this, distinction of intellect and character are the most important requirements and the Committee will be particularly interested in your critical estimate of the candidate on these points. You will naturally want to confine your remarks to those matters on which you can write from personal contact, as it is not expected that each individual will be able to speak about the candidate's qualifications under all these heads. It will be useful to the Committee if you can mention the names of additional persons who know the candidate well and are qualified to give an opinion of him on the basis of first-hand information.

Please do not hesitate to speak of the candidate's limitations as well as his strong points. Committees tend naturally to be dubious of recommendations which imply that a given individual has no limitations whatever.

Since the Rhodes Scholarship election this year takes place early in December, and since committees must study the credentials of the candidate before that time, I shall be grateful if you will reply by return mail. Your letter will be treated as strictly confidential and will be read only by those whose duty it is to pass upon the qualifications of the different applicants.

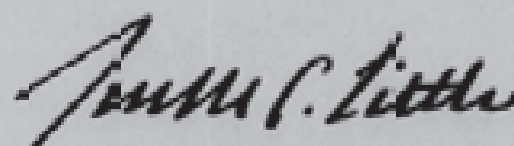

Yours very truly,

To.....Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver

My dear Dan:

We have been receiving your letters regularly and are delighted to know that you are well and to learn about the progress of your work.

With reference to J. G., I have been in touch with him more than once and I heard from him that he has been following the thing through energetically. He is to let me know within the next few days.

I was in Providence last Monday evening to open the United Jewish Appeal campaign. It turned out to be a very pleasant and successful evening. The week before, at his invitation, I had lunch with Secretary Dulles at Washington and we discussed the Israeli-Arab situation, the withholding of American aid, and the position of the United States in the Security Council on the Israeli-Arab issues up before it. We had a thorough canvas of the whole field and I think that some good will result. The aid, as you probably learned, has been restored. There is great need there for education and for vigilance.

I have read authentic reports in the press that Ben-Gurion plans to resign in the next few days. I am rather pleased that there will be a change in that office. A serious problem, of course, will be as to his successor.

Activities at The Temple are continuing steadily. We had a pleasant meeting last Sunday afternoon with the members of the Confirmation Class of 1954 and their parents at the Oakwood Club for lunch, following their attendance as a body at the services in the morning. The plan is to try with other classes later on. By the way, are you getting The Temple Bulletin regularly? I am still hearing from more sources of their gratification with the article which you published on your experiences as a Chaplain.

I was just called by Mike Feder, who informed me that he is engaged to Jane Lowell and that they will be married in March. He is hoping that you will be in the country at that time so that you can participate in the service. Nothing would give me greater pleasure. I am sure that he will write you himself.

Raphael seems to be enjoying his work in New York greatly. I think he

My dear Mr. Little:

I am pleased to reply to your letter requesting information about Jere Broh-Kahn who has applied for a Rhodes Scholarship.

I have known Jere Broh-Kahn and his family for quite a number of years. I confirmed Jere in The Temple Religious School and followed his work through the School and through the High School, which he later attended. I was always impressed with his alert mentality, his ready grasp, as well as his intellectual curiosity and desire to learn and to understand. He manifested definite scholastic leanings.

Jere is a young man, very personable and friendly, and has on more than one occasion given evidence of real qualities of leadership in group activities. He is a young man of excellent character. He comes from a cultured home. His father is a graduate of both the Hebrew Union College and of Harvard University Law School. His father has participated actively in community life and has for some years been a teacher of Biblical literature in the High School of The Temple.

I am very pleased to recommend Jere Broh-Kahn for a Rhodes Scholarship.

Rabbi. Abba Hillel Silver.

Dear Sir.

Words are so inadequate to describe the feeling of gratitude that fills the hearts of my wife and myself.

Today we received the books on Bible Tales, volumes one & two and the book on Holidays by Hillel.

It is just too grand a gesture of compassion that we have ever so experienced. "God, is our partner in all our days of life allotted us till eternity, and, if our sign of humble and grateful thanks is not enough, we let "Him" take over.

The books are just what we wanted. we shall do our best to deserve them by teaching the gospel of "God" to our son and better understanding for us. You, & all the other fine people who made our requests possible have our lasting gratitude.

As you know I have Parkinson Disease and my wife has Multiple Sclerosis, both being progressive and incapacitating. So I close this note with just God bless you & keep you in good health, so you may continue in your dedicate teaching of "Him". May we sometime have a note from you?

Sincerely.

My dear Rabbi Silver,

I am one of a group that has recently been arrested for violation of the Smith act and am being held on $25,000 bail. I am turning for help to you even tho I am fully conscious of the basic differences in our political outlook. I believe, however, that there are certain questions of principle involved which are of vital concern to every American and particularly to us of Jewish faith.

Most of us have been torn away from our families and kept in jail for over 6 weeks under an impossible bail of $25,000. We are entitled to choose legal counsel - which is particularly hard for us to find. Yet so long as we are in jail we are unable to find any. Our cases involve extremely complex issues and require thorough preparation - which are obviously impossible so long as we are behind bars.

The setting of exorbitant bail for a person

like myself - without any financial means - makes a mockery of the 8th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution and of the right to due process.

It has become as clear as day that the anti Communist hysteria is not limited in its effects only to Communists. Its threat to religious freedom, to all minority political parties and racial groups - is all too evident & requires elaboration.

Many liberal minded people are alarmed at the abuse of our constitutional rights but there are not too many who have the courage to speak up.

But whatever political differences we may have I have always had a profound respect for you as champion of democratic rights and as a man of moral courage.

Your communication to the US District attorney in regards to reasonable bail would carry great weight. Even more important, your speaking out on this question would lend heart and courage to many liberty-loving people who are now silent.

Receipt of a message from one so eminent would be a source of great comfort and inspiration to me.

Respectfully yours

My sole purpose in trying to contact you was to find out whether you had gotten some additional information which you said you would obtain about Daniel and would let me know within a week or two. Sunday Afternoon
November 29, 1952

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I wish to thank you for your inspiring message this morning on the clear and present danger that confronts the American Idea. It appears that the pulpit has contributed the most in the defense of our constitutional rights. The terrific pressure to conform has gagged many stout defenders of freedom and of course this is most obvious in our schools and colleges. (Arthur Miller's article in the current Holiday magazine on a visit to his alma mater, Michigan, is quite sobering).

I pray, with you, that the President, with his enormous popularity, will take the lead in the fight to remove fear and suspicion from our citizenry and that he will rise above political considerations to become the first citizen of a re-dedicated free people. I pray also, that you and your colleagues of the cloth-men of nationally respected moral and intellectual stature - will be given the will and strength to aid, lead, and advise men of good will of all faiths in the fight against those who would destroy us by wrapping their political thirst for power in the flag of patriotism.

My dear Rabbi -

I want to express my appreciation to you and Virginia for honoring me with your visit yesterday. It was most stimulating and gave me a great lift.

There was an incident that occurred while I was at St. Lukes Hospital that I thought was of interest.

It happened the night of the banquet at the Twenty-second Assembly of the United Jewish Welfare Funds. You were the main speaker. At each bed the Hospital has a radio ear phone. When you were finally introduced and you started your superb speech, I called my night nurse to share the head phone with me. She is an ardent Catholic.

The speech was cut off toward the end. Radio time had elapsed. The nurse was enraptured. She exclaimed "too bad - what a great Priest the Roman Catholic Church has lost."

Sleepily, I thought to myself what a tragic thing it must have been for World Jewry. Affectionately
