Dear Rabbi:

You asked me which items seemed most important for your letters. It seems to me that a few current items and a few past activities or affiliations that appear most attractive to you for the purpose of your letter would be worthy of inclusion in it.

In accordance with your request, I have marked off some suggestions on the enclosed memorandum.

Membership on the Republican Executive Committee for 30 years is, of course, of major importance. Also, being Vice Chairman of the Board of Bar Examiners of the State of Ohio, appointed by the Ohio Supreme Court, is important. As you read through the memo undoubtedly other items will occur to you, and I am positive your letter will be most convincing.

I want you to know how much I appreciate your helpfulness.

With kindest regards, I remain

Yours most sincerely,

Edward J. Schweid

encl.

P.S. also being associated so closely and in a number of positions with Hon. Harold H. Burton recently resigned from U.S. Supreme Ct might be important.

My dear Rabbi Silver,

The Sisters and I express our sincerest appreciation for your generous contribution to our Campaign.

It has been a privilege to serve the Community, especially the downtown area, for the past 94 years. However, this has been made possible through support of our many friends, such as you.

We are, indeed, indebted to many people and hope that when the present expansion program becomes a reality, we will be able to render even greater service to the Community.

May God, the Giver of all gifts, bestow His blessings upon you for your generosity. The Sisters will remember you in their daily prayers.

Sincerely,

Sister M. Ursula, C.S.A.

The Honorable John W. Bricker

My dear Senator Bricker:

It has come to my attention that consideration has been given to the appointment of Edward J. Schweid of Cleveland to the United States Court of Appeals. I noticed in the press that Judge Florence Allen of Cleveland expects to retire in October. I should like to take this opportunity of recommending Mr. Schweid for consideration to this vacancy.

We, here in Cleveland, know of his fine record and reputation and of his many contributions to public service. He is a 1926 graduate of Western Reserve University College of Law. He is presently in general practice in partnership with former United States Senator Robert J. Bulkley, in the firm of Bulkley, Butler, Rini and Schweid. He is Vice-Chairman of the Board of Bar Examiners of the State of Ohio, having been appointed by the Ohio Supreme Court. He was long associated in a number of positions with the Honorable Harold W. Burton, recently resigned from the United States Supreme Court. He was Assistant Law Director of the City of Cleveland under Mr. Burton when the latter was Director of Law and was Transit Commissioner in his administration when Mr. Burton was Mayor.

RAMATEL : מכרות למברקים

Dear Rabbi Silver,

During Pesach, we visited Har Zion, and on the way, we were attracted to a group also visiting and stopped to talk to them. We found them a lovely family, parents and children and when I learned that they come from Russia, I sought knowledge on how they got here. To be sure via Poland as repatriates, after nine months there. Here they had been in the country eleven months, settled in Tel-Aviv with a construction company with which the brother in South Africa is connected. They are happily settled here. When I learned that they came from Kovno originally I inquired of the son-in-law if he knew them. Well he knew them all by name and all about them. Then the wife asked me if I knew a cousin of hers - when it turned out to be you, I could answer affirmatively without hesitation. The enclosed is the note she wrote and since I do not know the address of your sister, I shall trouble you to send it to her.

To Israel by EL AL of course

We are finishing up our exciting five month visit in Israel about which there is much to tell but this is not the time.

With warm regards to Mrs. Silver and you, in which Edward joins I am

Sincerely,

Rose E. Jacobs.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I hope you will forgive the delay in writing to thank you for your appearance at the HADOAR dinner. Because of my absence from the City I did not have the opportunity to write sooner.

I feel you do not need my "haskamah" for your most wonderful address. It was indeed a masterpiece in many respects and also very instructive. I know that I speak the minds of all present when I say that this was indeed an occasion which most of us will never forget.

As president of the Hadoar Association, I must express to you my personal gratitude for your pledge of $1000.00. You will understand that we can use the money, especially during these lean summer months, but I am not stressing mainly the material benefit that we will derive from your generosity, but primarily the boost to our morale and the inspiration in our work which we have received through your announcement at the dinner.

I hope that you will not consider it an effrontery if I will request you to mail us your check as soon as you possibly can.

Please accept our most sincere thanks for your confidence and great assistance in our work for the HADOAR.

Sincerely yours,

Irving Neuman, President

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I am happy to advise you that the trustees of this Foundation have approved a further special grant of $25,000.00 towards the deficit of substantially $400,000.00, which The Temple has incurred in connection with the completion of the project for the redevelopment of the Ansel Road area. This is an outstanding contribution on the part of The Temple and should substantially help in insuring the permanence of this most important Cleveland cultural community.

This grant will be payable in five annual installments of $5,000 each. A check of the Foundation in payment of the first installment is herewith enclosed.

In undertaking this commitment, we are assuming, of course, that the remainder of the required amount will be substantially secured as a result of other gifts.

Dear Dr. Silver:

Judge Charles Sacks, a member of my Congregation, has requested that I write to you concerning Mr. Edward J. Schweid.

Judge Sacks is in a position to further Mr. Schweid's "aspirations for appointment to a Federal Judiciary Position." He knows of Mr. Schweid's reputation as an Attorney at Law. He knows very little of his interests and participation in Jewish life. You are, undoubtedly, in a position to know something of Mr. Schweid's participation in Jewish life. Judge Sacks would welcome your opinion of Mr. Schweid before giving his support in this matter.

I shall be happy to transmit to Judge Sacks the contents of your reply. Should you wish to communicate directly with him, his address is 2323 First (Michael) Tower, Akron 8, Ohio.

President Eisenhower: (I am sure that you need no suggestion from me for such a letter)

John F. Lawrence Allen

Hon. John Bricker
Columbus, Ohio.

Dear Senator Bricker:

It has come to my attention that consideration has been given to the appointment of Edward J. Schweid of Cleveland for appointment to the United States Court of Appeals. I noticed in the paper that Judge Florence Allen of Cleveland expects to retire in October, and I therefore take this opportunity to recommend him for consideration to this vacancy. We here in Cleveland know of his fine record and reputation and his many contributions in public service. (Some of these may be enumerated from memo.) We here feel that Ed's appointment would receive general acceptance and that he would make a most favorable record if appointed, that would be creditable to those who would be instrumental in this appointment. It is for this reason that I would like to suggest his name to you.

With kindest regards, I remain etc.

Most cordially yours.

To L. S. :

I have been told that you have indicated a favorable interest in the possible appointment of Edward Schweid to the United States Court of Appeals and I am very pleased to hear this.

I am prompted to drop you a line because I noticed the article in the Press indicating that Judge Florence Allen of Cleveland intends to retire in October.

This would present an opportune time for the President to appoint him to this vacancy. While I never write letters urging appointments to office, knowing you as I do, I would like to make an exception in this case because I feel that Ed has made very substantial contributions to good government and has always been a constructive force in public affairs.

(If you see fit you might include some items which may appeal to you from the memo.)

Without putting my recommendation on a religious basis, I feel that he would be a creditable representative of our people. But entirely aside from that feature, his record of public service and integrity is most worthy and I am sure that such an appointment by the President would meet with favorable acceptance. I am sure that any sponsorship that the Press or Scripps Howard can give would be most helpful, etc.

My dear Mr. Dauby:

I received your kind letter of July 10th in which you advised the Temple that the trustees of The Louis D. Beaumont Foundation have approved a further special grant of $25,000.00 toward the deficit which the Temple has incurred in connection with the completion of the project for the redevelopment of the Ansel Road area. I want to thank you and the other officers and trustees of the Foundation for your generous gift. It will prove a major contribution in the liquidation of our indebtedness.

I wish to acknowledge also the receipt of a check for $5,000.00 as the first installment.

Please be assured of our unfailing gratitude and our profound appreciation for the way in which The Beaumont Foundation has helped us in our major project which is now completed.

With warmest regards and all good wishes, I remain

Very cordially yours,

Dr. Abba H Silver.,
E 105th @ Ansel Road.,
Cleveland Ohio:

Dear Sir:

I have just read your sermon inserted in the Congressional Record by Senator Lausche on June 22 and wish to agree with many of the things you said with particular emphasis on one part which is the reason why many U.S. Citizens agree with me that a Roman Catholic should not be President just to let the "Politburo" of the Vatican know they must change their ways to obtain consideration here, I quote in part;

" I see no objection to the Catholic Church claiming it is the one true church --- just so long as the church does not employ the power of government to enforce its claim or ask for special privileges on that account - as it the case in some of the countries of Europe", and you could have added the Western Hemisphere.

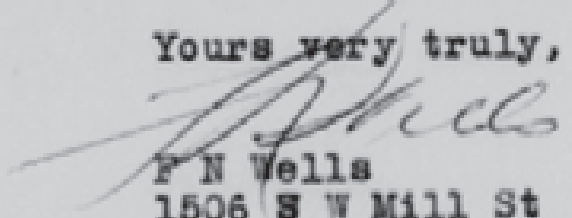

History shows this church has repeatedly used the power of government to enforce special privileges and deny others any privileges while I have never seen any expression by the Rulers of that church denying it is their world wide policy to expand this privilege when and if they are in a position so to do, even in the United States.

I am amazed that so many free citizens of this country accede to the laws promulgated by a body which they have nothing at all to say about the selection of its members which issues all kinds of laws, (not necessarily on religion only), even to the extent of demanding that unborn children be trained and educated according to their laws and claiming that you and I, with out wives, are living in adultery because we were not married by their ritual.

There have been many atrocities committed by the "Politburo" of the Vatican, as history shows they have persecuted and murdered many more people than has the "Politburo" of the Kremlin without publicly admitting their guilt.

In short we do not trust them any more than we do the Communists and anyone brainwashed from youth to submit to their control may at any time disregard our laws and give them an advantage.

Yours very truly,

Dear Rabbi:

The quotation I mentioned to you at Emily Carl's wedding is from a book entitled "The Evolution of a Conservative," by William Henry Chamberlin, Henry Regnery Company, Publishers, Chicago, 1959. At page 266 appears the following comment:

"Although I felt strongly that the American official attitude in the Suez crisis was deplorably mistaken, the Anglo-French planning and execution of the enterprise were also sadly at fault. Former British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden, a weak, vain man with a predilection for tired and flabby platitudes, was the worse conceivable executor of a venture that required swiftness and iron resolution.

The one bright spot in the sorry international picture of that time was the speed and efficiency with which the Israeli citizen army routed the Egyptian forces in the Sinai area and captured large stocks of Soviet equipment. Up to this time I had never felt emotionally committed in the Arab-Israel dispute. I had never been in this part of the world. Both Zionist and Arab propaganda seemed to evade vulnerable points of criticism. It seemed to be a situation where there was, in the familiar phrase, much to be said on both sides.

But I experienced a psychological change from neutralism to positive sympathy when I saw little Israel, a country that could conceivably be destroyed by one Hydrogen bomb, display qualities of firmness and resolution and serene courage that seemed sadly lacking in some larger and less exposed countries. I have encountered a similar reaction in other conservative anti-communists who had previously been indifferent or even somewhat hostile to Israel."

Sincerely,

Alexander Mintz

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I was pleased to be able to hope after our telephone conversation a few days ago that, there is the possibility of your acceptance of my invitation to be the Installing Rabbi and Speaker at my Installation as Senior Rabbi of Temple Shaare Emeth in St. Louis, Missouri, Friday evening, October 30, 1959. I pray that after studying your calendar, your reply will be in the affirmative.

My election to the pulpit of Shaare Emeth is the high point in my rabbinical ministry and I would, naturally, want you, who has figured most prominently in my development, to bless the occasion.

Following the heartbreaking events of my personal domestic difficulties, of which you have no doubt heard, Larry and I are looking forward to the beginning of a new life in a new environment where all the memories of past unhappinesses will fade more quickly. The fact that Temple Shaare Emeth elected me while fully aware at the time that I was securing a divorce, may be a tribute to me, but more, I believe, was it a tribute to their understanding and quality of fairness. I was deeply moved, also, when my Portland Congregation at the time of my divorce passed a resolution of confidence in me and sympathetic understanding and offered me life tenure if I would remain here. I pray that I shall always merit this kind of esteem.

This week, I announced my engagement to Mrs. Joseph (Else) Vorenberg. Mrs. Vorenberg has been the Executive Secretary of Temple Beth Israel in Portland for the past twelve years. She is, in every respect, the "ayshes chayil" I have always needed---an "ayzer k'negdo" who will be at my side and not over against me.

Larry and I are leaving Portland the 24th of this month. We will drive to St. Louis where I must begin my duties the first week in September.

In the selection of my successor in Portland, the Selection Committee has posed enough confidence in me to ask me for suggestions, and I have recommended the name of your nephew, Harold Silver. I spoke with Harold, long-distance telephone, on Saturday and he expressed ~~an~~ interest. All that I have heard about him is most favorable. Although his name did not appear on any of the Placement Committee Panels, this Congregation is not sticking solely to the Panel suggestions. Despite your relationship to Harold, I am sure that a letter from you to Dr. M. Monte Bettman, Chairman of The Selection Committee, care of this Temple, will be of tremendous assistance in furthering Harold's chances.

Again, expressing the hope that you will make every effort to accept the invitation to be present at my installation on October 30th, and with warmest regards to you and yours, I am

I am also happy to learn of your engagement to Mrs. Vorenberg. Please accept my felicitations in which Virginia joins me.

I am opening our Sunday morning services on November first and I have a wedding scheduled the night before. I have just returned from a twelve day stay at the N.F.T.Y. Institute II. I would like to express my deep appreciation and thanks to you and those who were instrumental in giving me the scholarship.

I could never fully repay The Temple for what I have received. It was far more than food, shelter, and classes. I gained an insight to myself and to other people my age. I learned so very much from the classes.

So, I hope that I can live up to the expectations you must have had in giving me the scholarship by putting to use at The Temple all that I have learned.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I hope that this letter finds you and Mrs. Silver and the family in good health. After a rather long wait for our furniture, we are now comfortably settled and planning for the new year. As you well know there are a multitude of things to do in the summer. We have set the date for my installation on Friday evening September 18th. I do hope that your schedule will permit you to be with us and to participate in the ceremonies

In any case Esther and I extend to you and Mrs. Silver our very best wishes for the coming year. Do give our regards to our friends in Cleveland; our experience with you all holds many pleasant memories for us.

Sincerely yours,

Herbert H. Rose

My Dear Dr. Silver:

I was very sorry I missed seeing you last Tuesday evening before your departure. I was attending to a few last minute details for Joyce and Joseph and when I had finished them and returned to our table, you had left. I did call you however the next morning and do hope you received my message.

Your service Dr. Silver, was as impressive as it was beautiful. We are deeply grateful for your participation in our children's marriage and do want to thank you for having so honored us.

My son had asked me to write you for him while he and his bride were away on their honeymoon. It is a pleasure to do so and to enclose this check as an expression of our gratitude.

Mrs. York joins me in warmest regards to you and Mrs. Silver.

Respectfully,
Edgar T. York

Dear Rabbi:

It seems that since I wrote a letter last year to my grandsons of my experience as a bullfighter, some of my friends are skeptical of my ability to carefully record events. I showed the enclosed to a few of them and I am disturbed to find to what extent they again doubt my written word.

I hope that perhaps you, in your great wisdom, can find in it a word of truth.

Dear Bill & Dicky,

When I learned that you were going on a deep-sea fishing trip with your Dad, I was tempted to write and tell you about the wonderful experience I had a few years ago. However, I thought the story might disturb you and be in your thoughts and somewhat interfere with the calm attitude one should endeavor to maintain when contesting with a fish, and so I delayed sending this until your return.

We were in Florida on a vacation trip. Some of my friends, Jack Laspl, Bill Skirball and others are enthusiastic fishermen and told wonderful tales about their experiences and about all the big fish they caught, to say nothing about those that got away.

In my quiet modest way, I decided to go out alone, and perhaps be lucky enough to catch something bigger than they could boast about and thus put them all to shame.

I got up very early one morning on a nice pleasant day and took a couple of those pills which protect you from being unduly disturbed if the waves get to be 30 to 40 feet high. I never was a great sailor, although I did, at one time, consider the Navy as a career and went so far as to learn how to tie a sailor knot which really turned out to be my undoing as later you shall see.

I proceeded to the wharf and engaged a small motor boat with tackle and lines, and rode out leisurely about five miles to the Gulf Stream where the big fish play.

I had a feeling that it would be an eventful day. I had asked for a very heavy fishing line, to catch big fish, and I tied this securely to the mast - yes, I had then put a mast in the boat in case I wanted to do some sailing or climbing - and settled back to await developments.

Hours went by and nothing happened. All of a sudden, just as I had started to doze a little, there was a big jerk and the boat shook. I knew I had something, and started to play the line. After a long struggle, a huge sailfish showed above the water. I got him close to the boat and was feeling elated with my success. He looked to be about 12 feet long and I guessed he would hit about 150 pounds. I decided to find out. I grabbed some scales from the bottom of the boat and leaned over to take his weight to be sure he was worth pulling in. He must have thought that I meant him harm, and did he get mad! No one was going to give him a weigh. He turned, with a tremendous pull, away from the boat, and headed out to sea with

To Bill & Dicky,

C unbelievable speed, dragging the boat along after him. Then he looked back with a baleful glare in his eyes and rose out of the water -- as a sailfish can -- and sailed along. He was so powerful he pulled the boat, with me in it, right out of the water, and we sailed along behind him, about five feet above the surface of the waves. It must have been a strange sight, but I had no time to think about it as I was worried about the loss of my cigarette lighter which had fallen overboard. I saw that there was nothing to do, so I tried to relax, and sat back and read a couple of chapters of a book in which I was interested. After about 10 minutes, the fish got tired, as I knew he would, and took a sudden drive into the sea. Now, I said to myself, I'll get him. However, when the boat hit the water, the shock unloosened the hook and freed the fish and he swam away. As you can imagine I was terribly disappointed. But, after some contemplation of what had happened, and knowing that some people might be skeptical if I told about it, I decided to continue, in the hope of achieving something tangible.

O I did catch a few 8 or 10 footers, but I threw them back as unworthy of my objective. In fact, I used one half of the largest one as bait.

P After sitting for a long time, it looked like the end of a quiet day, and I was about to return -- and then - bang! - it was like an atom bomb and every plank in the boat creaked and shivered. I thought a hurricane had struck us, and then I noticed that the line was running out swiftly through the water. I knew I had a whopper but the line was tied fast to the mast with a sailor knot and it held. I tried to play him, but instead of my pulling him in, which I endeavored to do with all my strength, the reel ran out. Soon I saw a flash of him as he surfaced, and what was my consternation when I realized that he was reeling in the line and was pulling the boat closer and closer.

Y And then he came up again, a hundred yards or less away, and still pulling the boat towards him. Well boys, he was the biggest fish in the ocean. He was a whale of a whale. I grabbed my copy of Darwin's "The Origin of Species" to see if I could identify him, but I didn't have time to look it up. I could now see the monster plainly. He was about seven cubits wide and five cubits high. I couldn't tell how long he was as his tail stretched out beyond the horizon. He was enormous. His mouth was wide open and was bigger than the boat. There was no time to think or to write more than a few notes of what was happening. I knew it was the end. With a final surge toward the boat, he opened his mouth still wider and with a great gulp -- he swallowed the boat and me and all.

Best to you both from

P.S. I hope that every time you boys see a whale, you will think of me.

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

Thank you very much for autographing my copy of your book "Where Judaism Differed". I am very glad to get my own copy back since I had read it and had done some undersecring. Needless to add I enjoyed it very much.

As you perhaps were told my copy which I left last winter for y ur autograph was lost and I was sent a new copy. This extra copy I will put in the Library of Beth Jacob Congregation in Zanesville.

At one time we were two congregations in Zanesville, one Conservative, Beth Jacob and one Reform, Winley Temple. Last Fall the two congregations merged and became the Beth Jacob Congregation. I am not telling tales when I say it is still much more Conservative than Reform.

By way of explaining who I am I would remind you that you united Marcel and I in marriage on Oct. 12 1916. Ours was a most happy and successful marriage until it ended by Marcel's sudden death while we were on a vacation in Israel in 1954. As if that were not enough my oldest daughter died of cancer leaving two very small children. Their father has since remarried and his second wife is making an exceptionally fine mother for the children.

With our Holy Days coming soon, please accept my most sincere Holiday Greetings.

Respectfully yours

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Your membership in the Consumers League since 1937 has helped us to win for many of Ohio's women decent hours and conditions of work; and for most of Ohio's children the right to education and to work on jobs that are not dangerous to their lives or health. Our most recent double victory in the Ohio legislature will provide funds for the education of migrant children, and a state study of the problems of the thousands of migrant workers in Ohio, whose plight the League first brought to public attention.

The fact that these gains have been made does not mean our work is over - rather, that we must continue to protect the improvements already made, and to bring before the public the shocking conditions existing in certain areas of employment - for example, the medieval hours, as many as 60 a week, worked by the women who are called "managers" of dry cleaning outlets in greater Cleveland.

As a valued member of the League, and as an honorary vice-president, you have made our work possible. In 1958 you gave $50.00. If we are to maintain our program, we need your help. Won't you send us your 1959 contribution as soon as possible?

Sincerely yours,

Your remarks were certainly inspiring and thought provoking and brought to me a newer, brighter, picture of the work we've been doing for so long.
