

Abba Hillel Silver Collection Digitization Project

Featuring collections from the Western Reserve Historical Society and The Jacob Rader Marcus Center of the American Jewish Archives

MS-4787: Abba Hillel Silver Papers, 1902-1989.

Series IV: Sermons, 1914-1963, undated.

Reel Box Folder 160 57 678

Twenty-fifth anniversary service, 1943.

I you have tobe a flattering take all a certain from with when but I am vois everyth and there end to believe a part git. - Please pardon this all-too human franky - heather you win had tall - I army jon that it will not make me heady- no then humble and cantins - a great teacher once canting his disaples! Was unto you 4. Deafly proteful for hogh hours histories whom we this morning. For the westings of swelling but by the belowed + Energetic. They on your and - when the road visicis and humanity have best or new degenty to our Give for the words of commortish but by R. When, she leader, the faults would when correspons leadership that fine is bluther has therest or by when teaching to be abortished that fine is bluther has therest or by when teaching & set power our community les her servelled -The hearkens wrongs of good-will + his the hiers but by me the writer spirits in our community- In Kind- with There while he leads, and his own comming but he fell to higher the fresh fell to all the fell to be the fell to all the fell to all the fell to be the Jews and un-jews alething Ecken vonsavger- Eckert water of two for any logher of the for how deeply appreciations I am gether reason which the headerment lender, would for a per. W- hos paid me in making of special trip, wrote difficult concentrations, to come him and come their arrangement of the arrangement of the arrangement of the second of the s haw, on other ceasiers, paid my fibrite to this great man, Jus this prent rejentist; this great "Where pesses a great onis steps, where his steps passed. - and I away them. 4). To you - my finish of the Temple - To you - fruit of well-moties the wary, waver fruits who have in their thetholies or Rinderies sent in wary tothers or gradules and so way tothers of supportions

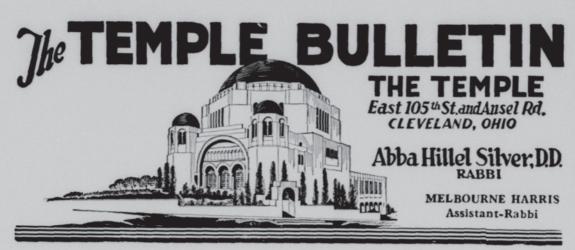

To any runners thinks fruits - whithe orchunde - Pertil. thather who have used the recorsion for replections and ally y wrong yours but of the spenting stridaily of all ones good willand for the public dutation in our wer prefer - any harful thanks
It is good to live in a consument, where people alle you among the flesh for emen af ke they get to Kum you. 5). That you wereken, the Toughe have just of meth me for 25 steen -The are among conjugation. You had the tenenty to 25 jes-age to with the this de kingues of pulpet, grave for any years by the sulfationer wind you you you - a coulder joith & 4. "He wight have mind you! you might have mind him! that as the Kuble says - soll 3 piles. The land looks after the forelandy! and her are as and you have the gordness of heart to delare in furthe that Month on many orks are not here to-day - who were with no there. who willed noth me - have pared on. I am thinking to dance them they working with a proper in my heart-for he Respecting gave me the memore wheel they left me.

Then are hundreds paren aun sons per Tourse last when I tourself them there serves of their country - I am thinking them the morning with 1). I am hoppy that the 3 firstants who purided one the of hur this Rengle - during their 25 his Town lever as the sound of the Berry Larranten - who legards you into his his to the town French for the first of the series and destructed they book they the print bed - 3. W. devoted water, vertice, to Tours. of our -

Mr. Harry Levy - the Sery Temps who south who forthful furancing worthful farthful furancing Enter Hoff Tenches - many when - math our Ichorl-favous of sher corps - so much pagenty you seem is to to credited Chori - A.R. Willard - ran Spirit + qual musiciari our Leanan and The staff and custochairs -8 1/2 Happy- lefter Doot- an institution - constructed - theuld flow-Fairputs If cound more the effectiveness, my work. - ho on dealing in un fenderables can that is it impertant that on should. It is example to know that the work one is engaged in is confirmed have had many mel satisfactions - the more from any found will have green the strong the day of the strong the satisfaction, 7 cours, can the form person to their their transforming. and mel vast uphanes - has her a steen and challenging privily. have In recent your the desorters which have overlaters one people have to recent your the desartes where here or proper have taxed the share the all of us. I from that my work as a like in trought to the total the laters of my awardors which so many hours the laters of my awardors which so many hours the total an estation on properties. I worthen the total an estation to here for and first and and the heavy lander our people, and to keep walls the william hope absorbing the william hope absorbing I have rational restorations. I do not report the poterroadle years. They were filled with a work among friendly falk. There is not work to make the dans, may the feet are a little baid. The destart parts shell ette little butter, as should be ever. the the feet are a the future, and that some shores of the past well not carried out the vision for

The Temple Cleveland, Ohio

The honour of your presence is requested at the Twenty-fifth Anniversary Service
in tribute to
Dr. Abba Hillet Silver upon the completion of twenty-five years as Rabbi of The Temple
on Sunday morning, January twenty-fourth
Nineteen hundred and forty-three at ten o'clock

Volume XXIX

January 24, 1943

No. 16

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY SERVICE

in tribute to

RABBI ABBA HILLEL SILVER

MR. J. E. POLLAK
11401 ASHBURY AVE.
CLEVELAND, OHIO

THE TEMPLE BULLETIN, published weekly, except during the summer vacation, by Tifereth Israel Congregation, East 105th Street and Ansel Road, Cleveland, O. Rabbi Melbourne Harris Editor; Harry A. Levy, Sec'y. Subscription price, 50 cents per annum.

Entered as second-class matter Nov. 12, 1931, at the Post Office in Cleveland, Ohio, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Musical Program for Sunday

Organ Prelude
Hebrew Prayer of Thanksgiving.....Gaul
Meditation in the Synagog.....Langdon

Opening Psalm
How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings . Brahms

Instrumental Interlude
Dr. Jerome Gross, violinist
Leonard Rose, cellist
Valerie Vitale, harpist

Olenu Goldstein
Adon Olam Dunkley

Organ Postlude Marche Solleneile.....Borowski

School Notes

- The Temple High School will hold its second social event of the year on Sunday, January 31st. The affair will be a Forum-Supper-Dance, which will begin at 5:00 o'clock. Mr. David Dietz, science editor of the Cleveland Press, will be the guest speaker. The affair will be open to all Temple confirmants of the past three years.
- Mr. Emanuel Berlatsky, field director of the Jewish Welfare Board, addressed the students of the Temple High School last Sunday morning on the work of the Army and Navy Committee.
- Mr. James Marshall, president of the Board of Education of the New York Public Schools, was guest and speaker at the Sabbath Morning Services last Saturday.
- A Sermonette Contest has been planned for students of the Junior High School, and will begin on January 30th.

Children's Anniversary Service—Saturday Morning, January 23rd

The Temple Religious School will pay tribute to Rabbi Silver at a special Children's Anniversary Service on Saturday morning, January 23rd, at 10:30 o'clock. The outstanding events in Rabbi Silver's career will be depicted in a pageant directed by Mrs. Zora Rose Mendelsohn. The address of the morning will be delivered by Rabbi Leon Feuer of Toledo, who, for eight years, was associated with The Temple. Parents who desire to accompany their children are cordially invited to attend this special service.

The children of the Elementary School will report to their classrooms and the children of the Junior High School will report to Mahler Hall at 10:00 o'clock. There will be no sessions of the Religious School on Sunday morning.

Democracy Institute Delights Large Audience

An intellectual treat was enjoyed by the large group of Temple women who attended the Institute on "The Contributions of the Jew to the Cause of Human Freedom," sponsored by the Temple Women's Association last week. Each of the three speakers on the program contributed to a wellrounded presentation of the subject. Rabbi Silver spoke on, "The Bible and Democracy," Rabbi Jacob J. Weinstein of Chicago, on "Jewish Champions of Political and Economic Democracy," and Mr. Lawrence E. Broh-Kahn on "Judaism and the American Tradition." Many non-Jewish representatives of the Federation of Women's Clubs were in attendance.

A delightful luncheon, served by the Commissary Committee of the Tuesday Sewing group, under the supervision of Mrs. Morton Bialosky, added to the enjoyment of the day's program. The Institute was planned by the Study Group Committee, under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. Leonard Labowitch and Mrs. Frank Klein.

A SERVICE OF TRIBUTE

Sunday Morning, January 24th, 10:00 o'clock

The Temple will pay tribute to the distinguished ministry of its spiritual leader, Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, this Sunday morning, January 24th, at a special Anniversary Service in The Temple. Rabbi Silver was installed in the congregation on September 9th, 1917, at the early age of twenty-four. During his ministry the congregation has more than doubled its membership, and it is now the largest liberal Jewish congregation in the United States. The Temple is proud of the achievements and gifted leadership of its rabbi, who has been identified with every progressive movement.

The occasion will be graced by the presence of Dr. Chaim Weizmann, President of the World Zionist Organization, and personal friend of Rabbi Silver. Participating in the program will be: Mayor Frank J. Lausche, who will speak for the community; Dr. Philip Smead Bird of the Church of the Covenant, who will speak for the Christian clergy; Rabbi Armond E. Cohen of the Jewish Center, who will speak for the Jewish ministry; Mr. Sidney N. Weitz, President of The Temple, who will speak for the congregation; and Dr. Maxwell Silver, brother of Rabbi Silver, who will deliver the benediction.

A special musical service will be rendered by the Temple Choir, augmented by additional voices and by instrumentalists. The instrumental interlude will be played by Dr. Jerome Gross, violinist; Leonard Rose, cellist; and Valerie Vitale, harpist.

The Service will begin at 10:00 o'clock promptly, one-half hour earlier than the usual commencement time. The doors of The Temple will open at 9:30 o'clock. Admission will be by card only. No seats will be reserved.

Temple Men Hear Washington Aviation Expert

Despite inclement weather, a splendid group of men turned out last Tuesday evening to hear Lt. Col. Don A. Starry, War Department aviation expert discuss "Aviation In A Total War." Col. Starry presented a vivid picture of the role of the airplane in the global war of our day, and of its potentialities in the post-war period. Among the guests of honor at the meeting were Major John Berry, Commission of Airports; Lt. Col. A. F. Witte, Chief of General Office Division of the Cleveland Ordnance District; Major George L. Becker, Area Supervisor for Army Air Forces, and Maurice J. Quinn, Engineer for U. S. Army in charge of the construction of the Army Bomber Assembly Plant at the Cleveland Airport.

Musical entertainment was provided by Dr. Samuel Klein of the Temple Men's Club Orchestra. A social hour with refreshments followed.

MAKE A DATE with

Your Son and Daughter For the

FATHER-SON—MOTHER-DAUGHTER BANQUETS

> Sunday, February 14 Statler Hotel

A JUST AND ENDURING PEACE

A declaration of principles adopted by the American Institute on Judaism and a Just and Enduring Peace, held recently in Cincinnati, Ohio, and sponsored by the Central Conference of American Rabbis.

(Continued from last week)

THE ECONOMIC BASIS OF A JUST AND ENDURING PEACE

In the world that has grown up in the last two centuries, a world of international trade, of large-scale industrialism and mass production, no proposals for peace that do not rest firmly upon economic grounds, that do not grapple with the problems of labor and capital and their relation to the freedom and happiness of myriads, can be either realistic or successful.

As in the case of political programs and principles, we affirm our conviction that the very context of justice and of brotherhood in the modern world is to be found in the conflicts and issues of economic life. Like our spiritual forebears, the great Hebrew prophets, we know that until there is fair dealing between man and man, until nations learn to bring equality of opportunity to all, there can be no complete worship or service of God. Therefore, with due consideration of their importance for the time to come, we enunciate the following principles:

1. By virtue of our scientific knowledge and technical equipment, we of the modern world already possess the economic resources for a wide and equitable distribution of income. All we need is the courage and the wisdom to create and maintain it. Essential to the achievement of the abundant life for all are the right to work, and the right to equality of economic opportunity without regard to race, religion or nationality. There must be no room in the post-war world for exploitation of serfdom.

2. In consonance with the dignity of the human personality, the standard of living in every country and on every continent should provide not only proper shelter, sufficient food and adequate clothing, but all other services now recognized as a part of civilized life, such as medical care, opportunities for culture and education and facilities for recreation. Such a wide distribution of income will involve heavy taxation and will impose sacrifices upon certain individuals and groups. They should be as selfless in the behalf of a peaceful world based on righteousness as in the cause of military victory.

3. "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof." Man is but the steward over the natural resources which God created. In order that all men may be assured of economic justice our natural resources should be treated as the endowment of society alone, to be controlled democratically for social use.

4. Widespread unemployment was one of the causes of that general social despair which drove men to the desperate recourse of totalitarianism. The problem of unemployment must not be allowed to develop in the post-war world, as it did after the last war.

* * *

A program toward this end should include: (a) Limitation of the hour of labor in accordance with the welfare of the workers and economic needs, (b) rationalization of production, (c) the elimination of child labor, (d) the expansion of social services such as health, education and recreation, (e) a program of reconstruction of the areas devastated by the war, (f) a housing program to eliminate slums; and such other construction projects as are socially desirable but which may not enlist private enterprise.

- 5. In a democratic society the workers in agriculture, industry, commerce and the professions, must possess the right to organize in order to advance their own welfare. This implies their right to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing and to negotiate with employers the terms of contracts covering wages and salaries, hours and conditions of work, vacations and severance compensation, and the machinery through which grievances are to be adjusted. These rights of labor should be incorporated in the social legislation of every country.
- 6. The rights of workers imply responsibilities for the welfare of the industry in which they are engaged. The relationship of workers and employers should not be of conflict but of cooperation. Economic democracy requires that workers participate with employers in the management of industry.
- 7. A general sense of insecurity was another of the causes which drove men to surrender their freedom to dictators who falsely promised to give them security in exchange for liberty. We believe that social security is a function of democracy and freedom. Our social program should include the following: Unemployment insurance, accident insurance, training of the handicapped, health insurance, old age annuities, maternity and child care.
- 8. International cooperation must be economic as well as political. Even as individuals cannot live by themselves alone and be unconcerned about other men, so no nation can plan only in terms of its own prosperity. Economic isolationism, expressing itself through tariff barriers, and other obstacles which impede the flow and exchange of food, materials, and products, at best brings only temporary gains and creates the bitterness, the friction and the poverty which eventually lead to war. Nations, like individuals, have common responsibilities to establish economic justice for all.

THE RACIAL BASIS OF A JUST AND ENDURING PEACE

(Because of lack of space, this this section is omitted.)

* * *

JEWISH POST-WAR RECONSTRUCTION

Among the peoples who have been victims of the Axis tyranny and aggression that have been directed at the destruction of the life and liberty of men, none has suffered more than Israel. An overwhelming majority of European Jews have already been uprooted and dispossessed. Large masses of Jews have been and are being massacred in pursuance of the publicly proclaimed Nazi policy to exterminate all Jews. This unparalleled tragedy summons all freedom-loving men to forthright action.

Any adequate program of post-war reconstruction must do complete justice to the urgent needs of Jews as individuals and as a group.

The assistance of the United Nations is imperative in order to achieve this reconstruction, since the task is on a scale beyond the capacity of the surviving Jewish communities.

1. Homes must be made available for the millions of homeless Jews. They must be granted the opportunity either to resettle in their former homes, remain wherever they are, or find new homes where they may be free.

2. Together will all other men, Jews must be guaranteed political equality, full economic opportunity, and a chance for complete spiritual self-realization.

Because of the global nature and complexity of Jewish life there can be no single solution for the problems of the Jews as a group.

- 1. Meeting these needs requires the recognition of the right of Jewish groups everywhere to the fullest enjoyment and fostering of their religious and cultural heritage in accordance with their specific needs and conditions in their respective countries.
- 2. All Jews are bound by spiritual and historic ties to the Holy Land.

Since the issuance of the Balfour Declaration, a tremendous impetus has been given to successful Jewish settlement in Palestine. Since the advent of the Nazi regime, there have been some years in which immigration increased to such a degree as to prove the extraordinary absorptive capacity of Palestine.

After the war, conditions must be created to permit as large a Jewish immigration to Palestine as possible, in accordance with obligations assumed under the Balfour Declaration and the Palestine Mandate. Now more than ever the nations of the world must give fullest recognition to the right of Jews to a homeland in Palestine, and they must help facilitate in every way the work of rebuilding that land.

The Temple Gratefully Acknowledges the Following Contributions

To the Library Fund:

In memory of Joseph Lehman, by the Cleveland Collectors' Club; by Dr. and Mrs. Jos. N. Schneider.

In memory of Rachel Dora Levy, by daughter, Mrs. S. P. Freeman.

In memory of Hilda Peretz, by son, Arthur A. Peretz.

In honor of 54th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. M. Reichman, by daughter, Mrs. Earl Behrens.

In memory of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Weisberg of Boston, by Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Greene.

The Temple Memorial Book

The names of

MR. AND MRS. SIEGFRIED H. EINSTEIN

have been inscribed by their family in The Temple Memorial Book.

To the Flower Fund:

In memory of Ben Rich, by Mrs. Felice L. Rich.

In honor of 25th Anniversary of Rabbi Silver, by Mrs. Felice L. Rich.

To the Sophie Auerbach Scholarship and Cultural Fund:

In memory of Joseph Lehman, by Mr. and Mrs. Morton C. Kohn.

In memory of Arthur Schachtel, by Mr. and Mrs. Morton C. Kohn.

In commemoration of anniversary of death of Sol Strauss, by children, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Weinberg and Jean K. Strauss.

In Memoriam

The Temple records with deep sorrow the passing of

GISSELLA SONIA HALPER MRS. ROSA HIRSCHEIMER SIGMUND HERZOG

and extends its condolences to the bereaved families.

The Temple

CLEVELAND, OHIO

Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Service

IN TRIBUTE TO

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver

SUNDAY, JANUARY TWENTY-FOURTH
NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FORTY-THREE
TEN O'CLOCK A. M.

asen Hollel Solver

ANNIVERSARY SERVICE

Organ Prelude
Hebrew Prayer of Thanksgiving
Meditation in the Synagog
Opening Psalm: How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings
Morning Service
Hymn No. 47
Scriptural Reading-Psalm 115
Anniversary Greetings
For the Congregation
For the City of Cleveland
For the Jewish Ministry
For the Christian Ministry Dr. Philip Smead Bird Church of the Covenant
Instrumental Interlude
Address
Concluding Service
Closing Hymn: Adon Olam
Benediction
Organ Postlude: Marche Sollenelle

THE TEMPLE CHOIR

A. R. Willard, Director and Organist

Alma Babb, Soprano Marie S. Kraft, Contralto Walter Born, Tenor Donald Dewhirst, Baritone

Ernest Bodenweber
Charlotte Bossinger
Kathreen Britton
Carl H. Driggs
Gladys Dworkin
Howard Glickman
Edith Hays

D. H. Herschberger
Ed A. Hilberg
George Mogg
Frieda Schumacher
Ruth Stern
Corinne G. Witte
Senta Weinberg

Eva Weiner