A TRIBUTE TO LOUIS MARSHALL

Louis Marshall belongs to that heroic group of Jewish leaders who, at the critical junctures in our history, providentially arose to meet the challenge of the hour. He is spiritual kindman of Gabriel Riesser and Moses Montefiore, of Adolphe Crémieux and Menassah ben Israel, of Joselman of Rosheim and Isaac Abarbanel.

Mr. Marshall has placed the imprint of his dynamic personality upon an entire generation of American Jewish life.

Not the least of his contributions are the grace with which he synthesized his Judaism and his Americanism and the example of complete adjustment which he presents to our age.

None admired him more than those who at times were compelled to cross swords with him, for however much one differed from his judgment, one could never question the sturdy sincerity of his motives or his great and abiding love for Israel and Israel's faith.
