Hotel Biltmore
Tuesday, November the Ninth
Nineteen Hundred Twenty Six

A general welcome from his grace
Salutes ye all: This night he dedicates
To fair content, and you: none here, he hopes,
In all this noble bevy, has brought with her
One care abroad: he would have all as merry
As first-good company, good wine, good welcome
Can make good people.

Shakespeare

Joy is the mainspring in the whole
Of endless Nature's calm rotation.
Joy moves the dazzling wheels that roll
In the great Time-piece of Creation.

Schiller

"New occasions teach new duties." James Russell Lowell

Time is like a fashionable host,
That slightly shakes his parting guest by the hand;
And with his arms outstretch'd, as he would fly,
Grasps-in the comer: Welcome ever smiles,
And farewell goes out sighing.

Shakespeare

Good night! good night! parting is such sweet sorrow,
That I shall say good night, till it be morrow.

Shakespeare

Henry Rosnosky, Boston
